"... To those closer ones, love that is ever steadfast ..."

"Love knows no boundaries, no limits, and is enduring. Love never fails."

In 1902 Alfa, Mary, Anna, Julia, Mabelle and Anne founded Delta Zeta — a sisterhood based on mutual love and support that continues to be the binding force today, 93 years later. This loving support is evident in all of the achievements and successes of our Delta Zeta and her members through the years.

As we gather to celebrate Founders Day, may we continue to enjoy our special sisterhood, remembering the love of Delta Zetas from the past, enjoying the Delta Zeta love of our sisters today and offering our Delta Zeta love to the young women of tomorrow.

Given under my hand and seal, I proclaim the twenty-fourth day of October, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and ninety-five, as Founders Day.

The National Council

The decision by Council to postpone convention until 1996 created a number of changes, not the least of which is the changing of some Council positions for the remainder of this triennium.

Three members had indicated earlier that they were unable to continue past this summer's convention. The nominating committee had already met and selected a slate to present.

The Delta Zeta Constitution provides that any vacancy occurring in an office on the National Council in the interim between conventions shall be filled by a written ballot vote of the members of National Council.

Guided by direction of the Parliamentarian and the Constitution and Code Chairman, the Council met and accepted the slate of the nominating committee and the resignations of Vice President of Alumnae Phyllis Berens Ross; Vice President of Collegians Merry Westbrook Adamcik, and Secretary Charlotte Davis.

We introduce you now to your Council for this triennium including those who served for the first two years and those who will complete the triennium on the Council.

Continuing in their 1993 elective positions are National President Sandra McAlister Nesbitt and National Vice President of Membership Lynnda Wolf Hoefler. Moving into the position of Vice President of Alumnae is Pamela McClure Cronenwett, former Treasurer. Assuming the Treasurer's position is former Director Ruth Weider Patterson. The Secretary's position is filled by Director Jeanine Petersen Triplett. The Vice President of Collegians will be former Director Karly Klemp Burns. New Directors on the Council are Denise Williams McCullars and Debbie Raziano. Sandra Sebrell Bailey will continue as NPC Delegate and Marvona Easley Tavlin as Past President (these are Council-appointed positions.)

Now to acquaint you with these "real people" who give so much of their time and talent to provide our leadership:

Sandra McAlister Nesbitt

Sandi Nesbitt's bachelor's degree is in elementary education. She graduated from Alabama Polytechnic Institute (now Auburn University) and taught elementary school while her husband finished school. They then moved from the area and she said her only contact with Delta Zeta was to write references and correspond with her own Beta Xi sisters.

Some 12 years later the Nesbitts moved back to Auburn and Sandi joined the alumnae chapter. Soon thereafter, she was asked to be College Chapter Director for Beta Xi, a job she held for seven years. At that time the family moved from Auburn to Montgomery. Almost immediately Sandi was appointed Province Collegiate Director.

Elected to the National Council in 1985 as Director of Pledge Education, Sandi next served a term as National Secretary and in 1989 was elected Vice President of Membership, serving two terms. She was elected National President at the 1993 Convention.

Sandi taught school for a few years while her children were growing up and in 1982 began a "new" career as Public Information Officer for the State of Alabama Department of Transportation. In May of this year she began an exciting new job as assistant press secretary for Alabama Governor Fob James, Jr.

Daughter Debra Nesbitt Jenkins is an Alpha Gamma member, University of Alabama. Married, she is the mother of two. Son Scott is in graduate school at the Governor Fob James, Jr. of Alabama, with his assistant press secretary, Delta Zeta's National President Sandra Nesbitt.

University of Central Florida. Husband Milton is a "true Delta Zeta husband," giving Sandi unlimited support in her busy life.

Lynnda Wolf Hoefler

Vice President of Membership Lynnda Hoefler graduated from Kent State University with a degree in education for the speech and hearing impaired. She and husband Bob, whom she met at Kent, now live in Stow, Ohio, but Lynnda originally came from Syracuse, New York, where her family still resides.

Lynnda became a member of National Council in 1987 as National Director - Chapter Finances and served four years as National Treasurer, assuming the VPM role at convention in 1993. She's been chairman of the Field Activities Committee and served on the National House Corporation Board. She was a field representative in 1976 and served as PCD of Ohio from 1981 to 1987.

At Gamma Kappa, she was chapter president for one and a half years and received the Grace Mason Lundy award in 1976. She was Gamma Kappa's College Chapter Director from 1978 to 1990.

And we must mention the cherished household pet, Mindy, the cat.

Pamela McClure Cronenwett

It just seemed to be a logical move for Pam Cronenwett to succeed Phyllis Ross as Vice President of Alumnae. Pam served as president of the Detroit alumnae chapter from 1978 to 1980 and has been chapter treasurer ever since!

Initiated into Alpha Alpha chapter at Northwestern University, Pam transferred to Eastern Michigan, affiliating with Gamma Sigma chapter. Her Bachelor of Science is in Mathematics.

Son Rob, Jr. is a graduate of USC, is married to Denise and they expect to provide Ruth and Robert with their first grandchild this fall.

Debbie Raziano

One of the two new Directors assuming position on Council this summer is Debbie Raziano, that soft-drawl personality from Louisiana known to the Delta Zeta world as Raz. Raz is Director of Alumni Affairs at Nicholls State University, her alma mater.

Although single, Raz has been educating 12-year old niece Angela in Delta Zeta ways!

Denise Williams McCullars

Denise McCullars is our Director — Chapter Finances for the coming year. And Denise wrote: "While a collegian at Auburn University I don't think the thought of one day serving on National Council ever entered my mind. Delta Zeta was confined to Zoe Dobbs Hall and the campus of Auburn University."

Well, Denise, who is a Beta Xi, graduated from Auburn University with a Bachelor of Science/Accounting and did her graduate work at Jacksonville State University, obtaining a Master of Business Administration. While waiting for fiance Mike McCullars to graduate from Jacksonville she learned some college women at JSU were forming a Delta Zeta chapter. She met them, offered her help. She didn't realize at that time that her fellow "freshman" Council Director was working with those charter members. Their paths never crossed but when she became CCD of Lambda Gamma, she heard of "Raz" many times!

Denise served as CCD for 13 years, receiving the Alice Huenefeld Award in 1989 as Delta Zeta's most outstanding CCD. She served as Province Collegiate Director from 1992 to 1995.

Professionally she is Controller and Chief Financial Officer for Dawson Building Contractors, Inc. in Gadsden, Alabama. Local involvement includes American Business Women, B.P.O.E. Ladies Auxiliary and Anniston Emblem Club. She enjoys photography, golf, fitness and her dogs - Mande (Maltese), Gray (Chow mix) and Kate (Border Collie.)

The two Council-appointed positions on National Council are NPC Delegate and Past President.

And now we say thank you to three dedicated Delta Zeta ladies. Although no longer on Council, they will continue with involvement of some kind.

An honors graduate of the University of Houston, Merry has a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics. A top ten student, Who's Who, Mortar Board, Deans List, etc., her collegiate activities were topped by the presidency of Delta Theta chapter. She also received the GML Award and was named to the honor court of the Florence Hood Miner award.

Alumnae activities started as College Chapter Director for Delta Theta, continuing on as rush advisor, house corporation member and alumnae chapter member. She served as Province Collegiate Director for Province XVII (Texas and New Mexico) from 1981 to 1987.

Delta Zeta and the Girl Scouts

At a tea celebrating 71 years of Girl Scouting, Andrea Hilsman Glenn, of Mt. Pleasant (SC), was named 1994-95 Outstanding Girl Scout Leader in Charleston's Service Unit 61. In the Charleston peninsula area, there are over 25 troops. Andrea is the leader of Ashley Hall's Brownie Troop 5.

Andrea started Troop 5 at Ashley Hall in 1992 when her young daughter was interested in Girl Scouting, but found there was no troop at her school. When it was chartered the troop had 11 members. Today it has grown to 32 members, serving girls in first through third grades. "Even with our assistant leader and lots of parental involvement, sometimes getting these Brownies to all do one activity simultaneously is like herding cats! Fortunately, their enthusiasm is contagious," comments Andrea.

The troop has participated in numerous service projects on their school campus and in the community. "We follow our Brownie Handbook to earn our Brownie 'try-its' but we try to incorporate service projects into the badge work," says Andrea. "My favorite part of Girl Scouting has been teaching my Brownies about their own capabilities while they help others."

With proceeds from the recent Girl Scout cookie sale, Ashley Hall's Troop 5 has purchased troop flags for their color guard and playground equipment for their lower school campus. This summer Troop 5 will fund two scholarships to send less fortunate scouts to local Girl Scout day camps.

When she's not busy with Girl Scouting, Andrea Glenn stays on-the-go with her young family, two daughters, ages eight and two and one-half, and a five-year-old son. She is married to Charleston attorney E. Vernon F. Glenn. She adds, "At the rate I'm going with my two girls, I may be a perpetual Brownie Leader! I suppose it would be a nice diversion to be a den mother one day."

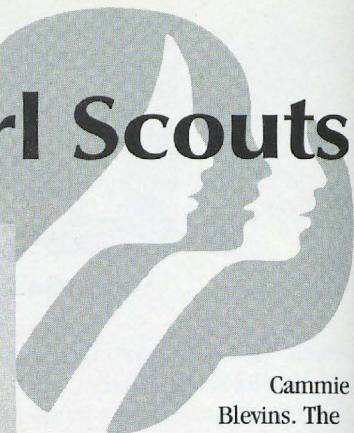

Andrea Hilsman Glenn

Andrea is a member of Delta Delta chapter at Georgia State University in Atlanta. As a member of Delta Zeta in the early '80s she served as philanthropy chairman and vice president of rush. She was also Delta Zeta Dream Girl for 1982. Says husband Vernon, "Andrea will never get over being rush chairman; she is always selling sisterhood! To her, every pre-adolescent is a potential  $\Delta Z$ !"

And not only are alumnae involved in Scouting, so are some Texas collegians.

Zeta Psi chapter at Stephen F. Austin State University presented workshops to Brownie Girl Scouts in the Nacogdoches area at their chapter house. The chapter was first approached by Yvonne Gagner Sparks, Zeta Psi '71, Director of Membership Development for San Jacinto Girl Scouts. Initially, the idea was to bring chapter members together with Girl Scouts so the scouts could mentor with older girls.

The workshops were coordinated by chapter members Courtney Speckman and worked on the play, music and movers try-its. Approximately 30 first through third graders attended this event on April 8, 1995. On the following day, Cammie Blevins designed a Disability Awareness Day for Girl Scouts. This was in conjunction with a course requirement for community awareness of disabilities. The day focused on visual impairment.

The Girl Scouts of Nacogdoches and San Jacinto Council look forward to additional collaboration with Delta Zeta to serve the community.

The Delta Theta Chapter at the University of Houston coordinated a volunteer effort with the San Jacinto Girl Scout Council in Houston. Leslie Bellfore, philanthropy chairman, worked with Jeanne Chaffee Tobin, Zeta Omicron '79, Director of Fund Development for the Girl Scout Council's gala "Urban Campout Goes on Safari." Urban Campout is an annual adult event and this year raised over $177,000 for at-risk girls in the greater Houston community, thus allowing these young women to participate in the self-esteem and leadership building activities that Girl Scouting offers. Delta Theta members manned the registration desk, assisted guests with a scavenger hunt through the Museum of Natural Science's Serengeti Plain, helped with silent auction tables and distributed guest survival kits.

Needless to say Delta Zeta's assistance ensured an enjoyable evening and hopefully established a beginning to a long-running philanthropic association between the San Jacinto Girl Scout Council and the Delta Theta chapter at the University of Houston.

A Kentucky Festival

Tara Lutz, a senior member of the Beta Gamma chapter at the University of Louisville, was crowned Queen of the 1995 Kentucky Derby Festival.

For over a century writers have written stories describing the pageantry, the color and the excitement of the Kentucky Derby — the most popular two minute sporting event in the world. Leading up to this event is the Kentucky Derby Festival. Millions of people watch the Derby on TV, but in Kentucky the Derby festivities start two weeks prior to the actual race.

Over 70 events, parties and functions take place during these two weeks. And, 1995 marked the 40th year for this two-week long extravaganza. Only the Rose Bowl Festival in California rivals this festival.

One of the grandest traditions of the festival is the crowning of the Queen. She is crowned at the Fillies Ball which is sponsored by Fillies, Inc., a group of more than 200 women who contribute their time, energy and talent to the event. The first queen was crowned in 1957. The third queen, Martha Layne Hall, later served as the first woman governor of Kentucky.

The Queen's court is chosen by personal interviews through a selection committee and each candidate is chosen based on poise, dress and personality. Also taken into consideration are campus and community activities. The court is presented at the Fillies Ball and the queen is selected by a spin of a wheel! Last year, two Beta Gamma members, Christy Ames and Lisa Clephas, were Derby Princesses on the court.

Once crowned, the Queen and her court attend over 40 festival events which include box seats on the finish line for the Kentucky

Churchill Downs. I had never been to the track, so for me this was very exciting."

And Tara concluded, "If I had to pick a single event that was my favorite, it would have to be the parade. I feel very lucky to have had this once-in-a-lifetime experience."

Jeanine Petersen Triplett, BG Director of New Member Education and National Secretary

Derby. The Queen and her court have their own float for the popular Pegasus Parade which precedes the running of the Derby. This year Willard Scott served as Grand Marshall for the parade and Tara and her court appeared on his Thursday morning show on NBC.

Tara and her court were provided wardrobes, and personal escorts were assigned to see that they made it to all the various events. A typical day included an early morning breakfast, a day of selected activities and ended with a dinner that evening.

Reflecting on the experience as queen, Tara stated: "It was quite an honor to represent such a wonderful city. I would have to say that some of the most memorable times were seeing the children's smiling faces. These children (as well as the public) had their eyes on the 'princesses' throughout the festival. I enjoyed meeting Tom Meeker, president of

Delta Zeta Artist at Work

The watercolor portrait, "Carter Fly Fishing" by Phyllis Briggs Inselman Heyliger, Northwestern (Oklahoma) State University-ΔO, is on the cover of the revised edition of former President Jimmy Carter's book, An Outside Journal. And, "Francine and Friends" which appears on the cover of this issue, was done especially for The LAMP by P. J., as she prefers to be called.

P.J., a member of the Colorado Springs alumnae chapter, saw a newspaper photograph of Carter at his favorite pastime and, according to a newspaper article which appeared in the Colorado Springs Gazette Telegraph, "was inspired to paint his portrait in glowing watercolors that evoke the bright spring light."

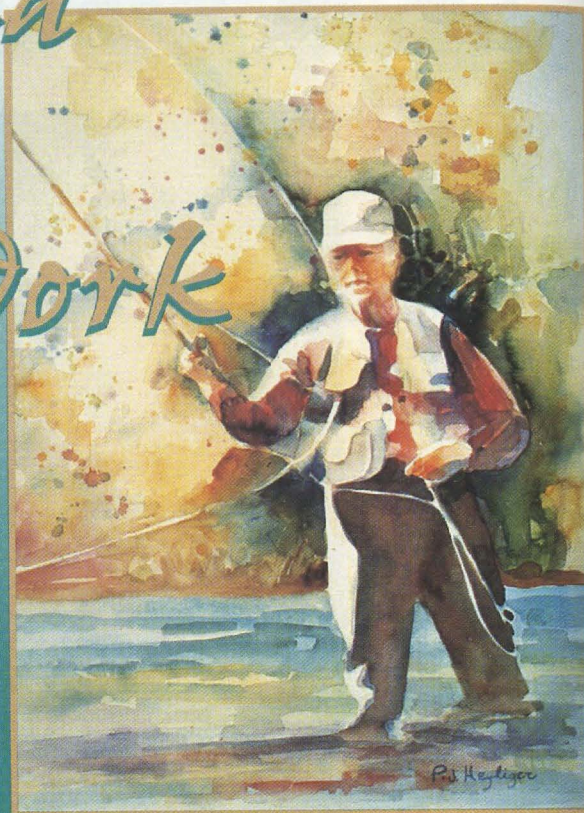

P.J. was contacted by the Carter Museum in Atlanta for permission to use her painting on the cover of the book featuring Carter's outdoor experiences. As for The LAMP, your editor simply asked her if she would be interested in doing a cover. "Francine and Friends" is the result.

P. J. grew up on a ranch in Oklahoma. She became interested in drawing at an early age with her earliest known piece of artwork, a purple pig, painted at age three and one-half!

She attended the University of Hawaii, studying watercolor with Robert Norris, a well-known West Coast painter. P. J. later did graduate work at the University of Mexico in Mexico City. She has devoted the past 20 years to painting while studying with such nationally known artists as Vladan Stiha, Charles Reid, Keith Lindberg, Mark Daily, Ted Goerschner, Irving Shapiro, Ovanes Barberian and, locally with Herman Raymond.

Her paintings have appeared in several motion pictures and were featured as the works of Sandra Dee who starred in the role of an artist in the movie "Lost." She devoted five months to painting in Lake Como, Italy, and the resulting pictures decorate many Spanish and Italian homes.

1995 GML Award Winners

It has been 48 years since the first Grace Mason Lundy award winners were announced. Joining this illustrious group which now includes more than 300 outstanding Delta Zetas are five young women who are now entitled to wear the insignia which represents this honor, not only in memory of Grace Mason Lundy but as achievers within their own chapters.

Jill Lynn Rockhold

University of Kentucky-AΘ

Vice president of membership and vice president of new member education are responsible positions held by Jill within Alpha Theta chapter. Although busy with her own office, Jill was always there to offer support and/or suggestions as well as constructive criticism for other chapter officers and chairmen. Jill was an active participant on campus and with community activities that involved the sorority. Her College Chapter Director Evelyn Kramer wrote that "Jill is a beautiful young woman and surely would be an asset to any sorority through her leadership abilities, her warm and vibrant personality, her philanthropic work in the community and her dynamite smile. BUT, she chose Delta Zeta."

Ronda Rae Dix

Iowa State University-BK

Ronda was elected president of Beta Kappa during her sophomore year, quite an undertaking in a chapter the size of Beta Kappa. She concluded her term and immediately became a Cyclone Aide advisor for the ISU orientation program, a much-envied honor. Named to the Dean's list, Ronda also held membership in Psi Chi (psychology honor society), Golden Key and other campus and community activities. CCD Sandra Horton wrote, "Ronda is an outstanding young woman who will make a great difference in our world. Delta Zeta is fortunate to have her as a member. While her activities are many and her talents are great, I will always remember her warm smile, caring ways and her positive 'we can do it' attitude."

Jennifer Jernigan

UNC/Wilmington-ΞΘ

Chapter president, Panhellenic delegate, plus additional chapter offices, Jennifer maintained Dean's List honors while working more than 20 hours a week. Honors include Order of Omega and Sigma Tau Delta (English honors). A member of the Greek President's Council, she also volunteered for the Big Buddy program and the American Cancer Society. Jennifer chaired Xi Theta's golf tournament for philanthropy. Her Province Collegiate Director wrote, "Jennifer has done a great deal for Delta Zeta's image on campus and in the Wilmington community. Through her work in Panhellenic, Delta Zeta is much more visible and influential on campus; through the golf tournament and her work in the legal community, Jennifer has increased Delta Zeta's name recognition in the city of Wilmington."

Ashley Anne Hampton

Shepherd College-KM

Province IV's Outstanding New Member Educator and the Pride of Kappa Mu,

Ashley also served as chapter president. Recognized on campus as a Woman Student Leader, Ashley maintained her province's highest gpa. Campus and community activities were numerous and scholarships include Shepherd College and the McMurran Scholar. Ashley plans on veterinary medicine school after graduation. CCD Kelli Doyle wrote, "It is always a pleasure to work with Ashley. She is organized, responsible and always reliable. Ashley has helped make my job as CCD a more rewarding experience than I ever thought possible. She is an outstanding leader in Delta Zeta and an even better friend."

Julie Anne Long

University of Houston-ΔΘ

From Public Relations Student Society of America to Order of Omega and University of Houston cheerleader, Julie capped her U. of H. years as president of Delta Theta chapter. A member of the Dean's List, she also is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa (campus leaders) and was named Outstanding President at Province XVII Weekend. CCD Karen Jones wrote, "I feel Julie's contributions have given strength and stability to the chapter during a very transitional time. Over the past two years we have taken on the responsibility of a chapter house. Julie has been there every step of the way to ensure success and to help the chapter adjust to the added responsibility of a house. She has been known to do whatever it takes to get the job done." 🐾

Three Receive Florence Hood Miner Award

The Florence Hood Miner award is given to members of Delta Zeta who are in their junior year and have made the greatest contributions to their college chapter and Delta Zeta through outstanding leadership on the campus while maintaining a good academic record. Named after National Historian Florence Miner, the award is in recognition of her service as National Vice President, Editor of The LAMP of Delta Zeta, and many other national offices. The three most outstanding juniors in 1995 include:

Amy Renee Burns Samford University-AII

To list everything that Amy has been involved with at Samford would be impossible, but two significant contributions have been to Samford's Homecoming and Step Sing committees. These activities required long-term commitment. Community activities have included tutoring at the Salvation Army Youth Services, working at The Crisis Center answering the Kids Crisis Line, and working with underprivileged children through the Samford Student Ministries. She also served as a summer missionary in Daytona Beach. Suzanne Martin, Samford's Assistant Director of Student Activities/Leadership, wrote, "Making a difference is important to Amy and one can tell that she doesn't take her responsibilities lightly." Amy is currently courtesy chairman for Alpha Pi chapter.

Ginny Luaces Western Carolina University-ΘI

Theta Iota's chapter president, Ginny is also a resident advisor, encouraging and promoting a community living environment in Scott Dorm at WCU. Active in GAMMA (Greeks Advocating the Mature Management of Alcohol), Student Senate and Panhellenic, she also holds membership in National Student Speech-Language and Hearing Association and Pi Gamma Mu (honors society). Ginny worked with 15 other members of the Greek system in organizing and presenting GAMES, a program educating Greek new members, associates and pledges on issues such as alcohol abuse, AIDS, STDs and liability issues. Volunteer community activities are numerous. Ginny plans to earn a Master's in Speech Language Pathology after graduating from Western. Her goal is to work in a profession that devotes attention and time to the special needs of very special children.

Van Anh N. Nguyen Iowa State University-BK

Anh, an electrical engineering major at ISU, served as corresponding secretary for Beta Kappa while vice president of the Student Alumni Association and co-chair of Cyclone Guides, an orientation program on the campus. She also chaired Engineers' Week and Engineers' Week Freshman Awards. A Greek Week Aide, Anh was active in VEISHEA, Homecoming and University Honors Program, to mention a few. A Dean's List member, Anh also belongs to Cardinal Key (honors) and Order of Omega (honors). She received a Minority Student Affairs Academic Achievement Award, holds a Phillips Petroleum Company Engineering Scholarship and spent this past summer interning with General Electric Company Lighting Division in Cleveland, Ohio. 🐾

FOCUS ON HEALTH AND FITNESS

Young Women's Health Promotion Program

PROVIDED BY

THE SOCIETY FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF WOMEN'S HEALTH RESEARCH AND THE PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICES OFFICE ON WOMEN'S HEALTH

No lecturing, no scare tactics, just the facts. That was the concept in designing a unique yet entertaining health program specifically for college women that will be available to all chapters beginning this fall. Included in this program, designed by the Society for the Advancement of Women's Health Research and the Office on Women's Health of the U.S. Public Health Service (PHS), is a 27-minute motivating video and a written guide to provide additional information on how to stay healthy and to answer any questions on important issues such as sexuality, osteoporosis and breast cancer.

The guide will also be a useful resource for a chapter president, a local health professional or a program coordinator in leading a discussion on issues raised during the program. All Delta Zeta collegians will receive a reprint of Shape magazine's September issue which is dedicating six pages to this program.

The Society and the PHS Office on Women's Health recognize that college women lead hectic lifestyles and are aware of the inconveniences involved in trying to juggle school work with jobs, extracurricular activities and social schedules. Achieving a balance between eating properly, staying active and still having time to concentrate can be quite difficult, but it's not impossible. For example, if running or aerobics aren't interesting, try taking long walks with a friend, or dancing, or doing yoga and reap excellent health benefits! One doesn't have to hate being active — decide what works! The options are endless! Through the video, substantive information will be provided on the importance of developing a healthy self-image, receiving proper nutrition and sustaining an exercise routine that is unique to each individual, in addition to other issues in an easy-to-understand format that helps one take charge of mental and physical well-being. Despite the internal and external pressures that women this age experience, you have the power to make proper decisions regarding your health.

The impact that college women's day-to-day behaviors have on their health is staggering. Consider the following statistics:

- One out of every four women under the age of 25 smokes, and teenage women now smoke at higher rates than their male counterparts. Ninety percent of people who smoke began as adolescents. Smoking is the leading preventable cause of death in the United States. Smoking contributes to heart disease, osteoporosis and several cancers including those of the lung and maybe breast.
- Peak prevalence for alcohol abuse occurs for young women ages 18-25. Moreover, because women metabolize alcohol differently than men, women become intoxicated after drinking smaller quantities of alcohol. Alcohol abuse is linked to several diseases including osteoporosis, liver disease, several cancers and reproductive problems.
- About two percent of young women have an eating disorder including anorexia nervosa or bulimia. As many as five percent of all high school seniors have an eating disorder, and as many as 20 percent of girls and women display some signs of an eating disorder. Eating disorders are linked to many forms of premature death and disability including heart disease and osteoporosis.
- One out of every two women over the age of 45 will develop osteoporosis, a debilitating and deadly disease. Osteoporosis is preventable if women take measures to attain peak bone density before the age of 35 through proper diet and exercise in addition to taking preventive measures throughout their lifespans.

- Breast cancer affects one in eight American women over their lifespan. Fifty to sixty percent of those who develop breast cancer have no known risk factor for the disease. Breast tissue may be most susceptible to carcinogens during the adolescent and early adult years. Recent scientific studies indicate that diet and exercise during this life stage may help to prevent breast cancer.

As is evident from these facts, it is imperative that college women receive reliable, up-to-date information regarding disease prevention and health promotion in order to make informed decisions regarding their health.

You have the capability today of designing your life for tomorrow. Even modifying relatively few behaviors and making slight changes in your lifestyle, you can reap great benefits that will stay with you for the rest of your life. Your well-being matters and only you can protect it. Through the distribution of the video, we hope to prove that to you.

Ortho-McNeil Pharmaceutical has generously provided an educational grant for the development of the video.

Better Speech and Hearing Month

Former Delta Zeta Foundation President Joan Dondrea Lowry, honorary president for Better Hearing and Speech Month, and Miss America Heather Whitestone, honorary chairman, launched the 1995 Campaign Kick-off for Better Hearing and Speech Month in Washington, D. C., in early May. They attended a reception at the Capital Children's Museum, hosted a press conference and visited the Hill. Joan and Heather, joined by Child of the Year Christina Dayle Smith, talked with Congressional leaders and filmed public service announcements to increase awareness of hearing and speech disorders. Miss America produced a public service announcement for the Better Hearing Institute that will air on national television.

Both Joan, who serves as treasurer of the Better Hearing Institute, and Heather spoke during the kick-off event. Heather, who is hearing-impaired, presented her Miss America platform position of STARS, and motivated all young people who are deaf or hard-of-hearing to pursue broad range communications and educational options in their lives. She encouraged them to choose the options that will build self-esteem and reflect their goals. She pointed out that their lives are about their abilities — not disabilities.

Better Hearing and Speech Month is organized by the Council for Better Hearing and Speech, a consortium of 28 national and local organizations dedicated to increasing public awareness of speech and hearing disorders. American-Speech-Language-Hearing Association, a consortium member, chaired this year's event. Delta Zeta Sorority and the Delta Zeta Foundation are among the 28 consortium members.

Speaker's Bureau

Twenty-three Delta Zeta collegiate and alumnae chapters are currently participating in the International Better Hearing Speaker's Bureau, coordinated by the Better Speech and Hearing Month celebrities: Christina Dayle Smith (from the Virgin Islands) is 1995 Child of the Year. Our Joan Lowry is Honorary President; Miss America Heather Whitestone is Honorary Chairman.

Better Hearing Institute.

Janice Little, director of the speaker's bureau and an Alpha Delta Pi, says "Delta Zeta members have been the key to an extremely encouraging launch" of the speaker's bureau.

Chapters that agree to serve as speakers receive a free speaker's kit which includes a comprehensive speaker's guide and the video, "People vs. Noise." And, their volunteer efforts are awarded with a certificate suitable for framing and publicity. BHI provides press releases to both community and college newspapers.

The twelve undergraduate chapters participating are St. Mary's-OA, William Jewell-ZP, Radford-ΞΔ, Illinois-AB, California State/Chico-ΔΧ, Shepherd-KM, Clarkson-ΞΡ, Northwest Missouri-EP, Wayne State-EΣ, Pittsburgh-O, Fort Hays-ΔΩ, and Ohio Northern-ZK.

Alumnae participants are Cobb County, Georgia; Tallahassee Area, Florida; Topeka, Kansas; Greater Kanawha, West Virginia;

Columbia, South Carolina; San Antonio, Texas; San Jose, California; Austin, Texas; Greater Hartford, Connecticut; St. Louis, Missouri, and Indianapolis South Suburban, Indiana.

Following presentations, participants are asked to complete a questionnaire to help gauge the impact of the speaker's bureau.

Museum Scholarship

"Museums are not just for the storage of musty old antiques.... There is every type of museum. Most people think of only art, science and history museums, but a museum now exists for almost every field of interest, including cars, airplanes, crafts, toys, photography, wax sculptures, archaeology, engineering and miniature doll houses. And then there are the homes and collections of famous people, war memorabilia and sports.

"Museums represent an opportunity for women to achieve something important, to

QSP/DELTA ZETA Magazine Program

Delta Zeta Sorority, in conjunction with QSP, Inc., a subsidiary of The Reader's Digest Association, Inc., and the number one fund-raising company in the magazine industry, offers alumnae and collegians the opportunity to increase funding for the Educational Endowment Fund of the Foundation. Funds raised through the Delta Zeta magazine program help to support the educational goals of the sorority.

Delta Zeta could earn half a million dollars for  $\Delta Z$  educational programs if every member ordered or renewed ONE magazine from the Reader's Digest QSP program. We all love to read magazines, and the average household has almost six subscriptions. The  $\Delta Z$  magazine program offers an easy way to renew and order subscriptions at the lowest rates in the industry.

Our magazine program is not new, but the benefits to the sorority through increased participation in the program can be a tremendous boost to the Foundation's educational programs. Chapters can also earn valuable incentives for participation by meeting specified sales goals.

Chapters will be receiving order booklets this fall. Look for details of the Delta Zeta magazine program in future issues of The LAMP. For more information on the program, contact National Headquarters, 513-523-7597.

break through the glass ceiling. Only a few major museums in the U.S. are now headed by women, including the Seattle Art Museum, Philadelphia Museum of Art and Walker Center, and Desert Botanical Gardens ... a woman is also curator for the Royal Castle Museum in Norway ... approximately 40 women currently direct smaller, specialty institutions ... compared to 120 males who are at the helm of museums of all shapes and sizes ...," writes Betsy Bradley Leach, who dreams for a Delta Zeta to pursue the field of museum study seriously and purposely. To honor her husband, Betsy has established the Betsy B. and Garold A. Leach Scholarship for Museum Studies through the Delta Zeta Foundation. The scholarship will be awarded for the first time in the summer of 1996. It will be granted to a Delta Zeta senior or a graduate student who is enrolled for museum studies or is serving as an intern in an established museum. The recipient may be studying in various disciplines to qualify for museum work. English and history are basic requirements. However, since a wide range of subjects is included in many different types of museum studies, library science, archeology, geology, etc. would be acceptable. The same member may receive the scholarship more than once.

Betsy Leach is Curator Emerita of the Delta Zeta National Historical Museum, former trustee of the Delta Zeta National Historical Museum, former National Vice President of College Programs and National Panhellenic Conference delegate.

From the Lampwriter

I didn't think I was superstitious, not really. However, when I started to pack for the annual meeting of the College Fraternity Editors Association, I had a thought. I had worn the same dress for the last two Awards Dinners and The LAMP had been fortunate enough to receive third place awards for the winter Annual Report for two years. Why not try again? So, instead of the as-yet-unworn dress bought for the occasion, I packed the same old white dress. And guess what? We did receive a Certificate of Merit for the winter Annual Report.

A note from Frances Larson Cutright, Ph.D., made my day a little brighter. She wrote, "I just received the spring 1995 LAMP and want to take a moment to tell you what a great format The LAMP has begun to take — color, articles of general interest such as Relationship Violence — well done! Frances, California/Berkeley-M chapter, is a psychotherapist in San Diego, California.

Northwestern University released a notice that Ruth Behnke, AA '46 had received a 1995 Northwestern University Alumni Service Award, one of 11 so honored. Ruth has been co-president of their San Francisco Bay Area Alumni Club. She also served as Province Alumnae Director for several years in the 1980s. Ruth lives in San Francisco where she maintained her own real estate agency from the mid-sixties until her retirement.

Candace G. Butler, DePauw-Δ chapter, is first vice president of the Business and Professional Women/USA. Long active in BPW/USA, she has served on the National Executive Committee, National Board of Directors since 1991. Candace is a vocal music teacher/director at South Bend (Indiana) Community School Corporation as well as Executive Vice President and Co-owner of Butler's Bolt & Nut, Inc.

And from Alvina Hefli Breckel, Bradley-ZA, came news that 18 pieces from her 19th Century American pressed glass collection have been selected for exhibition at the Sandwich Glass Museum on Cape Cod.

"Sensational Sandwich: A Survey of Sandwich Glass from Private Collections" will be a display of rare and exceptional pieces produced by the Cape Cod factory (1825-1908) that are not duplicated by the museum collection. The exhibit opened in April and will remain open through October.

She graduated in June and probably has been assigned elsewhere by now. Hope you changed your mailing address through National Headquarters, Lieutenant Smyth!

Ana Tomasino Desai, Creighton-ΘH, and her husband have started an engineering firm in Nairobi. They design and maintain a variety of systems for medical equipment, factories and for automatic security systems. Hence, they mainly have electrical-electronic, biomedical, mechanical and other types of engineers.

They would be interested in providing job opportunities for Delta

And with that bit of networking ... until the next time!

Gamma Xi Celebrates 45 Years at NMSU

"A Diamond in the Desert"

On April 29, 1995, the 45th anniversary of the chartering of Gamma Xi chapter at New Mexico State University, more than 80 alumnae members met to celebrate the first-ever such gathering in the chapter's history.

The celebration was the result of the dream of Julie Watkins Nance, '83, and her "triad" partners, two collegiate members, who felt it was important to commemorate the 45th anniversary of Gamma Xi's chartering on the actual anniversary of the occasion. Julie and several members of the alumnae chapter in Las Cruces, New Mexico, began early in 1995 to set plans for the reunion weekend.

Returning alumnae attended registration and browsed through displays of

Delta Zeta memorabilia at the chapter house on Saturday morning and then gathered for the weekend highlight, a banquet that evening.

Mistress of ceremonies Kathy Fiscus Groves welcomed Yvonne Nunez, the first Gamma Xi member to be named a national chapter consultant. The banquet program consisted of the sharing of memories by ten different alumnae members representing various periods in the chapter's development.

Fourteen former chapter presidents and four former CCDs in attendance were recognized, and an award for traveling the greatest distance to attend went to Donna Saenz Shenck, who returned from Mali, Africa.

Sisters Kathy Singh Lopez, Ramy Singh Wilson, Karim Singh and Kamala Singh Cotton were honored with the "Super Sisterhood" award for sharing the bonds of both "blood" sisters and Delta Zeta sisters. The Singh sisters were members of Gamma Xi chapter between 1974 and 1986.

Mary Adams Downing, a member of Delta chapter, was honored for having been a Delta Zeta the longest. Mary, initiated in 1931 at DePauw University, is the mother of Gamma Xi alumna Sally Downing Thomas, who came from California for the reunion.

Weekend events concluded with a come-and-go brunch at the chapter house on Sunday morning where members had one more opportunity to visit and look at the Delta Zeta displays.

Gamma Xi members enjoyed renewing the bonds of sisterhood which had remained strong through the years and across the miles. The reunion's success prompted the organizing committee to "preschedule" the 50th anniversary celebration for an as yet unspecified date in the summer of the year 2000! 🕯

Alumnae Chapters Write...

The ARLINGTON (Texas) alumnae chapter's first bowling tournament was a huge success with 10 teams participating. Proceeds benefitted the House Ear Institute and the Arlington Regional Program for the Deaf. Alumnae made Easter "goodie" bags for students of Little and Goodman Elementaries' Deaf Education Program.

ATLANTA-NORTHSIDE (Georgia) received the collegiate support award at province day and held a yard sale to raise money for the local battered women's shelter. Goodwill received left-over items.

AUSTIN and SAN ANTONIO (Texas) alumnae chapters hosted Province XVII Weekend in Austin. Over 670 Texas and New Mexico Delta Zetas attended. This year's theme was "Delta Zeta, a World of Difference . . . Many Faces, One Heart." The AUSTIN chapter received certificates of excellence in the areas of newsletter, scrapbook, membership, programs, ways and means, alumnae-collegiate relations and attendance. Mittie Garretson McDonald, Sam Houston-ZΘ, was named outstanding alumnae chapter president and AUSTIN was named outstanding alumnae chapter.

BAYOU (Louisiana) alumnae assisted Kappa Alpha chapter with set decoration, music and choreography for their production of Wizard of Oz. This was a part of Songfest held at Nicholls State during Greek Week. Bayou's alumnae award was presented to Kappa Alpha's Mary Brock at KA's honors banquet. Alumnae also assisted at KA's two-day rush workshop in April.

BLOOMINGTON (Indiana) alumnae hosted Epsilon chapter's graduating seniors with a dessert party at the chapter house.

COLORADO SPRINGS (Colorado) alumnae chapter was named outstanding alumnae chapter at Province Day this spring. The chapter has made ceremonial robes for the new collegiate chapter at Western State. At an ice cream social in May, alumna Ruby L'Herisson, UNC-ΔΞ, was named Woman of the Year. Ruby and Patricia Burgess Webb, Kent State-ΓΚ, were installed as co-presidents of the Colorado Springs Alumnae Panhellenic.

CHICAGO NORTHWEST SUBURBAN (Illinois) alumnae took advantage of "shop and share" days at local grocery stores and in March, along with the CHICAGO FAR-WEST alumnae chapter, held a fashion show at a Liz Claiborne store in a local mall. Alums planned the event, provided refreshments and modeled the clothes. A representative from Paws with a Cause brought a video and a demo dog to a chapter meeting. The chapter baked brownies for collegians at DePaul-ΘΘ and Northwestern-AA.

FORT COLLINS (Colorado) alumnae chapter presented a telecommunication device for the deaf (TDD) and printer to the Thompson R2-J school program for hearing-impaired students during Better Speech and Hearing Month. One of the chapter's members, Ann Hoevel Howard, Missouri Valley - ΓΤ, is hearing-impaired and uses a TDD with printer. With the TDD Ann can directly access someone who also possesses a TDD or access them through a program called relay — where a phone operator with a TDD can vocalize, or relay, the transmission.

In May, 15 GRAND RAPIDS (Michigan) alumnae met at the Grand Rapids Speech and Hearing Clinic and presented a check to be used toward much needed supplies and equipment. Betty DeYoung Robbins, Western Michigan-ΓΠ, volunteers at the clinic and Sharon Moncrief Slovinski, William Jewell-ZP, served on the clinic's Board of Directors, two years as president.

INDIANAPOLIS NORTH CENTRAL (Indiana) alumnae presented their second Auction for Ears and raised $2,500, most of which will be donated to speech and hearing philanthropies. Members participated in the March of Dimes

Members of the Wichita alumnae chapter hosted the Wichita Alumnae Panhellenic's spring tea at the home of Phyllis Berens Ross, Fort Hays State-ΔΩ. Wichita's Anita Skelton is out-going president of the Panhellenic.

St. Petersburg (Florida) alumnae have long been involved with the St. Petersburg Times annual spelling bee. From the left: Carolyn Lemon Wieland, South Florida-ΙΑ, judge; Audrey Gates Convery, Detroit-ΕΦ, pronouncer and judge; Virginia Raysor, South Carolina-ΒΔ, judge; and Joan Alden Vernotzy, Tampa-ΔΒ, coordinator for the spelling bees for Delta Zeta.

Pat Knowles Wells, (left) San Jose-ΓΑ, is president of the Phoenix Alumnae Panhellenic Association and Diane Farman Stanton, Houston-ΔΘ, is chairman of the more than 2,000 Panhellenic volunteers needed for the 1996 Phoenix Open golf tournament. The event is a major fund-raiser for Panhellenic Scholarships for undergraduate and continuing education work.

The Gold Coast (Florida) alumnae chapter boasts some outstanding members. From the left, Debbie Shane, Miami-BN, Gold Coast's Woman of the Year; Shay Oscarson, Northland-ΙΞ, D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) Educator of the Year for the State of Florida; Priscilla "Pat" Beatty, Bowling Green-ΙΤ, Woman of the Year for the Fort Lauderdale Alumnae Panhellenic, and Elsie Kuck Bailey, Brenau-ΑΩ, Alumna of the Year for Province XXIV-Florida.

Colorado Springs alumna Mary Jinkins Bayers, Wisconsin/Whitewater-EK, is making a ceremonial robe for the newly installed chapter at Western State College-EA.

Walk-a-thon and volunteered at the Indianapolis Speech and Hearing booth at the Baby and Kids Fair.

The GREATER KANAWHA VALLEY (West Virginia) alumnae chapter received top honors at Province Weekend for the sixth straight year. They took roses to new moms at a local hospital on Mother's Day and made a $100 contribution to the Foundation's expansion program. They welcomed seniors from West Virginia Tech-III at a chapter meeting and revealed secret sisters at Province Weekend.

Lansing-East Lansing (Michigan) alumnae chapter's oldest dues-paying member is 94-year-old Ethal Mackie Cleary, Wisconsin-T. Ethal continues to support ΔΖ because "it brings back memories which were pleasant." Her pleasant memories began at the University of Wisconsin "living in the little house on Lake Mendota" which was crowded but fun, as she recalls some 50 sisters there. Her advice for a long life: "The best thing is to pick your parents."

Province XVII Weekend was in Austin, Texas, on March 4-5. Pictured are Diane Larson Leaverton, Southern Mississippi-EM, PAD XVII-S; Cathy Irvin Painter, Alabama-ΑΓ, PCD XVII-S; Paula Zalucki, Houston-ΔΘ, president of the San Antonio alumnae chapter; Patricia Brown Rizzotti, Texas/Arlington-ΙΨ, PAD XVII-N; Tandy Harlan Fuller, Southwest Texas-ΙΑ, Libby Putnam Edwards, Texas A & M-ΑΞ, co-chairs of Province Weekend; Mittie Garretson McDonald, Sam Houston State-ZΘ, president of the Austin alumnae, and Tracy Wilson LeSieur, Texas A & M-ΑΞ, PCD XVII-N.

ST. LOUIS (Missouri) alumnae chapter shared a meeting with two other NPC sororities, strengthening Greek bonds. Their spring fashion show brought nice profits for philanthropic efforts. One fun night was spent doing aerobics at a local YMCA.

ST. PETERSBURG (Florida) alumnae again provided personnel for the Suncoast Spelling Bee sponsored by Delta Zeta and the St. Petersburg Times. Filmed by Vision Cable, the event's winner participated in the national championship bee held in Washington, D.C. Earlier, members staffed the annual Pinellas County Spelling Bee, which is also sponsored by the Times.

SHREVEPORT (Louisiana) alumnae held their own ΔΖ English Tea Party at their April meeting. Among awards received at Province Day were membership increase, attendance, publications, programs and reporting.

SUNCOAST (Florida) alumnae chapter held its April meeting at Sarasota Memorial Hospital, where clinical dietician Sara Stickney discussed "Women and Nutrition," with special emphasis on the needs and problems of older women.

WICHITA (Kansas) alumnae chapter hosted the Wichita Alumnae Panhellenic tea at the home of Phyllis Berens Ross, Fort Hays State-ΔΩ. About 60 women from various NPC groups attended to honor the four college-bound women who received this year's Alumnae Panhellenic scholarships. Delta Zeta's Anita Skelton was honored as outgoing Alumnae Association president.

The recently organized UNITED KINGDOM alumnae club supports the Royal National Lifeboat Association. This group is able to turn in used/cancelled postage stamps for payment. President Linda Tapp suggests that since most Delta Zetas receive a lot of mail, it would be very easy to tear off the stamps so that the RNLA could benefit. Linda's address is 42 Cadogan Place, Flat 9, London SW1X9RU, England. The UK club also collects small toiletries for the soup kitchen of the American Church in London. They find empty 35 mm film canisters very helpful. Linda invites any Delta Zeta visiting London to make contact.

Spring break at Myrtle Beach found sisters from Kappa Theta at Virginia Tech and Beta Kappa at Iowa State getting acquainted.

Swirls of net, crisp taffeta, fancy dancing shoes, corsages, soft candlelight and romantic music are still part of sorority life, even in this age of the modern woman. In fact, sororities offer vast opportunities for today's woman to polish her creative planning talents — and one of the best ways is to organize the most memorable formal in chapter history. Social chairmen used to fret over decorations and music; now they deal with complicated, tedious risk management planning, and fret over the music and decorations. This summer's reports confirm that Delta Zeta formals, though some may be a bit non-traditional, are always memorable.

Pis at Eureka didn't let the weather rain on their parade. They held their formal on a riverboat and enjoyed dancing and strolling the deck — even though the weather prevented the boat from ever leaving the dock. Kappa Phis at North Carolina-Charlotte discarded their traditional formal for a party on the Catawba Queen Riverboat.

Delta Deltas at Georgia State chose a romantic location on land. They held their formal at Houston Mill House, a two-story home on the Emory University campus. The main floor was perfect for the buffet, and following dinner, members and their dates adjourned to the dance floor on the lower level. The backyard gazebo and fountain provided a romantic backdrop for photographs.

Northern Colorado-ΔΞ members wanted a "less formal" formal, so they traveled to a ranch in the mountains. Nature provided a fresh supply of snow and they spent the day sledding, horseback riding and sleigh riding. A country boe-down concluded the activities. The snow was so deep that the busses almost couldn't travel the pass ... but everyone arrived back in Greeley safe and sound thanks to good risk management planning!

Other chapters discovered unique modes of transportation to their formals. Beta Taus at Nebraska Wesleyan rode a trolley to their Rose Formal site — the train station. Epsilon Omegas at Wisconsin-Eau Claire arrived Cinderella style, in horse-drawn wagons, to their spring formal at Cabin Ridge Lodge in Cadott.

Delta Omegas at Fort Hays celebrated their 70th anniversary at their formal at Smokey Hill Country Club. Special guests were parents, alumnae and Delta Sigma Epsilon members who "re-signed" the chapter charter. Theta Psis at Ashland welcomed some pretty special guests to their Rose Cotillion Ball — the president of the university and his wife.

The formal at William Jewell is such a long-anticipated event that an "eternity" of activities precedes the formal. On Monday, Zeta Rhos deliver the invitations; Tuesday, they bowl with their dates; Wednesday, they enjoy a "fast food dash"; Thursday they travel to comedy spots in Kansas City, and finally, on Friday, it's formal time!

Rebecca Nuckolls won the Bonnor Scholarship and Melissa Dunbar was named outstanding technician by the Drama Department. Debra Thomas, a resident assistant, is also a volunteer fire fighter.

Shepherd College, Kappa Mu — Members traveled to Ripley for Province IV Weekend and brought home the Pride of the Province Award — for the first time since 1989. Other chapter honors were outstanding new member education program, academic excellence, outstanding scrapbook, outstanding rush programming, best attendance, best alumnae attendance, and 100% initiation. Individuals honored were Ashley Hampton, outstanding chapter president and highest senior gpa; Bella Gonzalez, outstanding new member educator; Antionette Marchette, outstanding new member; and Jen Selby, outstanding recording secretary. Earning Dean's List honors were Iva Lamanna, Kris Ludke, Jo Ann Faszczka, Deanna Brooke, Ashley Hampton and Christine Baer. Tapped for Who's Who were Ashley Hampton and Jo Ann Faszczka. Who's Who Among American College Students lists Jennifer Selby. Christi Scneeberger is junior class vice president and serves on Student Life Council.

West Virginia Tech, Iota Pi — Members earned over $600 spring semester, with $300 of it coming from Valentine rose sales. Delta Zeta, with 17 members, added more new members in spring semester than any other sorority or fraternity on campus. The chapter placed second in Greek Week, and hosted Province Weekend.

WISCONSIN

Carroll College, Gamma Theta — Emily Dulde was named Pride of the Province and Maria Stieber won a Golden Crest. Jennifer Fischer won the senior social work award, and Stefanie Klopp was named Most Distinguished Greek. Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities lists Stefanie Klopp and Rachael Keller.

Wisconsin-Eau Claire, Epsilon Omega — At Greek Day, Delta Zeta won the award for the best banner and Julie Nicholson was recognized for earning the highest grade point average among Greek women. At Province Day, Brenda Wensel won a Golden Crest. Cindy Bisek won the Mark of Excellence Award and third place in spot news reporting in the Society of Professional Journalists competition. Members raised funds for the chapter treasury by sales of credit cards, sweaters and magazines.

Wisconsin-Stout, Zeta Beta — Members sponsored an Alcohol Awareness Week which featured a casino night. The event was open to all campus students, and participants received free money to "gamble" at six blackjack tables. At the conclusion of the evening, students could use their winnings to purchase prizes donated by local merchants. Other events for the week included "dry drives" — students who'd had too much to drink called Delta Zetas for a safe ride home.

Omicron Phi at Alfred University honored fifty-year member Charlotte Tubbs Kephart, UConn-ITB. From the left, Melissa Forsey, CCD Carolyn Stuby Fugate, Charlotte, and Randi Jermanson.

Chancellor Paul Hardin presented the Chapter Excellence award to Xi Sigma's Ashley Widis at University of North Carolina/Chapel Hill. This is for the most outstanding community service, fall 1994.

Good Work!

Flame Eternal

Sometimes when members send in lists of other members, whether it is for address changes or to notify of deaths, it is difficult for Headquarters' staff people to distinguish between. It has long been a policy to require obituary notices or family verification before releasing a name to The Flame Eternal. Recent happenings have indicated a need to strengthen that requirement. We are happy to tell Alpha Sigma members that Hilda Alagood Blitch, Sherrie Holley Sinclair Jett and Mary Louise Tierney are not deceased, as was reported in the summer issue. Our apologies to Hilda, Sherrie and Mary Louise and to their families.
