Why Be Served?

"WHY SERVE?" was the challenge placed before Delta Zeta alumnae in a previous issue of the LAMP. Since that time a consistently increasing number of alumnae have answered that challenge, finding a wealth of fulfillment in the opportunities for influencing constructively thousands of young college women who are upon the threshold of assuming positions of responsibility for which their college background and training should prepare them. More and more sorority alumnae are experiencing the rich satisfactions of contributing this way to the urgent need for more effective American and World citizens.

Now is the hour, it seems to me, for collegiate members to look within themselves and within their own chapter organizations for the answer to the companion question, "Why Be Served?" You may remember that the previous article called attention to the thousands of women who are today giving endless time, thought, and energy to the work of many so-called "character building organizations," such as Campfire and Girl Scouts. At the same time it pointed out that the college sorority today offers the final opportunity for group development of ideals and standards that will determine the kind of leadership for which we may look among American college women during the years ahead. Does not every sorority chapter, therefore, face the obligation of examining itself searchingly in order to ascertain how completely it fills its function of "character building"?

The development of good sportsmanship is basic in character building. Furthermore, it is basic in the successful operation of American democracy. It is the quality in our thinking and the standard in our living which makes the United States of America, during the days following a hotly and even bitterly contested election, a place of normal living and constructive effort, instead of a hotbed of bloody revolution and intrigue. It is a recognition not only of the principle of "majority rule" but of an attitude of mind which is essential to the successful rule of the majority. How well does your chapter develop good sportsmanship among its members?

Loyalty is a fundamental of fine character. We may differ in many ways from opinions of others within any organization to which we belong, be it social, business, or religious. There may be times when we find our opinion in the minority, so that we differ from the policies actually adopted by the organization for a period of time. Loyalty to that group of which we are a member, however, demands that we work from within, quietly and faithfully—and always cooperatively—for the best interests of all. Loyalty to our group makes it utterly impossible for us to weaken or destroy it through disloyal criticism or attack from without upon our fellow members individually or upon the organization as a whole. Constructive criticism from within results in growth and progress; destructive criticism from without reflects disloyalty and treason. What is your chapter doing to develop the highest standards of loyalty among its members?

Inseparable from any conception of noble character is intellectual honesty and integrity. As college and sorority women we in common recognize high scholarship as a basic obligation. It is a principal aim of every sorority, as it is of Delta Zeta. Unless much of our effort and attention is directed toward the realization of that aim for every individual member, we are not actually honest in continuing to claim the privileges and benefits of sorority organization. What is your chapter doing to develop intellectual integrity and self-respect on the part of every member?

There cannot be nobility of character, unaccompanied by a recognition of spiritual values. These values are stressed in our initiation service, as in those of other Panhellenic groups. But we cannot make them a part of our living and thinking by reviewing them two or three times a year at initiation, any more than we can become spiritual-minded and truly Christian simply by going to church on Sunday. What is your chapter doing to reemphasize the spiritual values stressed during initiation, making them an integral part of the daily living, thinking, and acting of your members?

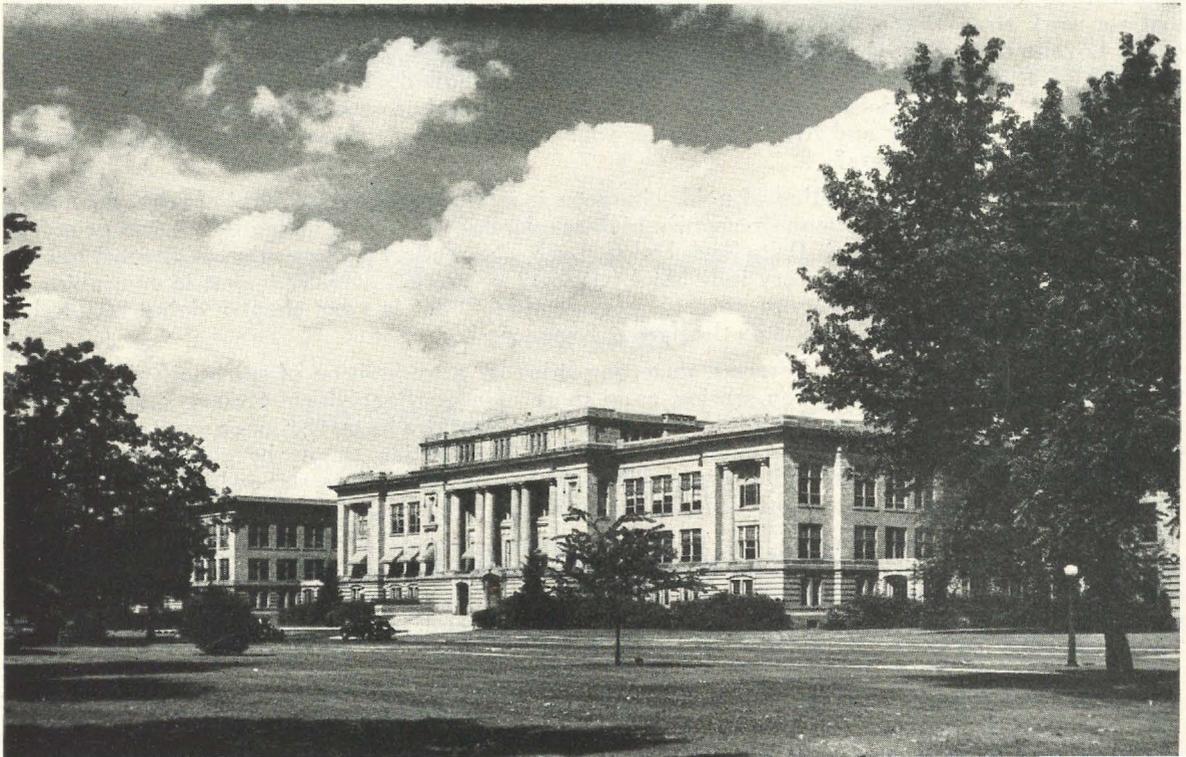

Measured by these standards, is your chapter of Delta Zeta truly a "character building organization"? If your answer is "no," what steps can you take today to make it fulfill more completely its essential function? If your answer is "yes," then you are indeed answering in a deeply satisfying manner for yourselves the question of "Why Be Served?" and for your alumnae the challenge of "Why Serve?"

GREETING GUESTS at the reception honoring Gamma Tau are Mrs. Lillian Amerman, Miss Irene C. Boughton, Miss Helen Woodruff, Mrs. Evelyn Costello, Miss Frances Westcott and Marilyn Pepple.

Seventh Delta Zeta Chapter in Ohio Installed at Bowling Green State University

DELTA ZETA added its seventh chapter in the state of Ohio with the installation of Gamma Tau at Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio.

It was a significant occasion in campus fraternity history for both Delta Zeta and Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity installed chapters on December 9, 1950.

Initial interest in Delta Zeta was stimulated when Miss Catherine Ellis, acquisition librarian capably explained the ideals and traditions of her sorority as a regular meeting of the local group, Sigma Rho Tau. She is an alumna of the Alpha Chapter where she was a member of Mortarboard. University President, Frank J.

Prout, a Phi Delta Theta, accompanied Miss Ellis to this meeting.

Extension vice-president Evelyn Adams Costello visited the campus and conferred with university officials, Florence Currier, Dean of Women, and with members of the four year old, local sorority.

Following acceptance by the National Council and members of Delta Zeta, pledging ceremonies were held at the chapter house on December 8, and initiation was next day at the new Fine Arts building where earlier this fall members of a local fraternity were initiated into Phi Delta Theta.

The installation banquet was held at the Women's Club in Bowling Green with Executive Secretary Irene C. Boughton, acting as toastmistress. Joanna Warner was banquet chairman. The initiates sang a grace song for Delta Zeta, written by one of their members, Edith Ludwig. Welcome addresses were given by Panhellenic President Marilyn Mercer of Chi Omega; Carol Pesany from the Alpha chapter, representing collegiate chapters; Sally Bowen Nixon for all alumnae; and Helen Woodruff, National Treasurer, for National Council.

Marilyn Pepple, president of Gamma Tau, and Patricia Hiser Miesle, adviser for Gamma Tau, gave the responses. Mrs. Miesle, wife of a university speech instructor, was one of the founders of the local group.

Four members sang a medley of songs from "Love Goes to College," a prize winning musical comedy written by Gamma Tau's Edith Ludwig.

Greetings were given by Lucile Crowell Cooks, Chairman of the National Constitution committee. Dr. Prout, in the major address, emphasized the importance of fraternities and explained their history at Bowling Green.

Beta Chi trio, Jane Huber, Caroline Leemhuis, and Marjorie Jones, sang the traditional "Flowers I Give to Thee."

"To My Mind—Growth" was the subject of Past National President Frances E. Westcott's speech.

Evelyn Costello conducted the installation ceremony. President Marilyn Pepple received the gavel, Vice president Joanne Dunn, the loving cup, and Secretary Florence Beatty, the charter for the group.

The banquet was closed with the singing of "Delta Zeta Lamps."

Members of National Council met with the chapter officers, Sunday morning before the entire group attended services at the First Methodist church in Bowling Green.

A formal presentation tea in the afternoon culminated the weekend's activities. Jeanne Butler was tea chairman. In the receiving line were Miss Irene Boughton, executive secretary; Mrs.

Evelyn Costello, extension vice-president; Miss Frances Westcott, past national president; Mrs. Fern Wilson, chairman of the Mother's Club; Helen Woodruff, national treasurer, Mrs. Lillian Amerman, standards chairman and Marilyn Pepple, president of Gamma Tau.

The Gamma Tau chapter is now living at the University Guest House, while their new $96,000 house is being constructed. All sororities and fraternities at Bowling Green live in houses built, furnished and maintained by the university.

Gamma Tau chapter leads the campus sororities in scholarship by becoming the second sorority ever to exceed a B average. This is the fourth semester they have been awarded the Scholarship Cup.

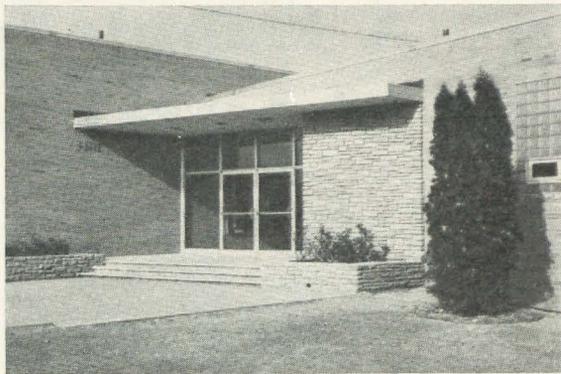

Gamma Tau's first officers are Marilyn Pepple, president; Joanna Warner, vice president; Florence Beatty, recording secretary; Marilyn Eckert, corresponding secretary; Luella Cruzen, treasurer; Jeanne Butler, assistant treasurer; Joanne Dunn, historian; Joyce Schmidt, rushing chairman; Berneda Ruck, scholarship chairman; Patricia Ramsey, standards chairman; Loris Wood, publicity chairman; and Panhellenic representatives, Edith Ludwig and Marilyn Eckert.

The other Gamma Tau charter members are: Lucy Ahumada, Jeanne Albright, Marjorie Baker, Mary Brandt, Jeanne Butler, Betty Derner, Joanne Dunn, Helen Eier, Dorothy Foster, Geraldine Jennings, Patricia Larson, Betty Pringle, Alice Tschanen, Marilyn Weaver, and Jeanette Woodworth.

Mrs. Lee Z. Hafkin, former journalism instructor and now of the Toledo Blade, Mrs. Polly Hodgkinson of Toledo, and Miss Beryl Parrish,

THEY CAME TO CONGRATULATE THE NEW CHAPTER: Robert Purcell, Anthony Steer, president of Sigma Phi Epsilon; and William J. Hindman, Jr., national grand secretary. With them are Evelyn Adams Costello, National vice president; Marilyn Pepple, chapter president and Marilyn Eckert, corresponding secretary. Sigma Phi Epsilon received its charter on December 9, 1950, the same day Gamma Tau received its charter.

Bessie Albano and Lois Zimmerman were pledged to Delta Zeta.

Bowling Green State University, one of Ohio's five state universities, was founded in 1910. The University has a College of Liberal Arts, a College of Education, a College of Business Administration, and a Graduate School. The university is located on a tract of 240 acres in Bowling Green, Ohio, 23 miles south of Toledo.

A progressively growing school, Bowling Green has more than doubled its enrollment and building facilities in the past few years. Present enrollment is over 4,000. Modernistic Fine Arts, Speech and Chemistry buildings were recently completed and plans are being formulated for a new student union building.

Bowling Green's debate team has consistently won national honors, the A Cappella choir tours annually, and has sung in New York City's Town Hall, the publications have been awarded national ratings and in true Mid-western tradition, the basketball team has been invited to the N.I.T. at Madison Square Garden.

National fraternities with chapters at Bowling Green State University are: Alpha Tau Omega, Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Tau Delta, Kappa Sigma, Phi Delta Theta, Pi Kappa Alpha, Delta Upsilon, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu, Theta Chi, Phi Kappa Psi, Phi Kappa Tau, Sigma Phi Epsilon and Zeta Beta Tau.

National sororities represented at Bowling Green are Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Phi, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Delta Gamma, Delta Zeta, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Delta and Phi Mu.

A Tribute to Delta Zeta, A Live-Wire Sorority*

By Charles F. Baxter, M.D., Theta Kappa Psi

WHILE vacationing at the Grand Hotel, Mackinac Island, Michigan last summer, I had the pleasure of witnessing a National Convention of Delta Zeta sorority. This was the second convention held at the Grand Hotel. Many of the members were accompanied by their husbands, fathers, mothers, children—one member brought along her six weeks old baby.

Delta Zeta was founded in 1902 at Miami University, Ohio. The Sorority has 71 chapters; the latest one was installed at this Convention. Some of the Alumnae had attended 20 conventions. I wish we had a few in Theta Kappa Psi with the same enthusiasm.

A part of the large dining room was reserved for the Sorority. A speakers' table remained in place during the Convention and practically every meal was a banquet. It was the first time I ever witnessed a banquet where no one criticized the food.

The delegates worked like beavers. Of the many conventions I have attended, I have never seen such enthusiasm and hard work.

The last days of the convention were spent in sightseeing around beautiful and historical Mackinac Island. The tour was made in horse drawn carriages as no motor cars are allowed on the island.

The members of the Sorority played as hard as they worked, but they completed their work first. The day that the members came to the dining room all dressed in white, is something I will long remember. Later the same day the sorority was photographed in the beautiful garden of the hotel. What a beautiful and impressive picture it made!

"MOTHER OF THE YEAR" ANN JONES COSTER, Tau, and her husband, Russ Coster, are surrounded by their 10 children.

MADISON ALUMNAE Present

Ann Jones Coster, Mother of the Year

By Dorothy Warner Gibson

THE PICTURE speaks for itself. When I asked Ann to give me some statistics to accompany it, her reply was such an inspiration to all mothers that I found it difficult to condense. Some gems follow:

"My philosophy of life is very simple—in fact, most would say naive. I believe God who planned the universe will have little difficulty planning my family for me. He has done right well so far. The children are Bill, 14; David, 13; Mary, 12; Sally, 10; Janet, 9; Joanne, 6; Tommy, 4; Wally, 3; Paul, 16 mo.; Danny, 3 mo.

"My feelings about the children go from one extreme to the other. Sometimes I feel like the colored lady who was getting on a bus accompanied by 13 children. The driver asked, 'What's this, a picnic?' To which she replied, 'No, Sah—They's all mine, and it's NO picnic!' But when things are going well, I think of the picture in my old Latin book showing Cornelia and her children. When wealthy friends asked her where her jewels were, she drew her two children closer and replied proudly, 'These are my jewels!' I am very rich, indeed, with my ten.

"I believe the greatest gift you can give children is self-reliance. They get it automatically in a large family. Helping themselves and helping someone else, they learn very early that happiness in the truest sense comes in doing for others."

About the children collectively: "They're all normal, healthy, quick to learn—but no geniuses. The oldest five swim, skate, play the piano and all can sing in harmony. Russ, their father, plays string bass in a dance band week-ends to make ends meet, and we hope to get enough instruments rounded up to have our own orchestra before too many more years. The two older boys have paper routes and Mary and Sally go baby-sitting together: two for the price of one. They are young, but they make up for that in experience.

"The girls have all taken dancing for years. They have a fairy godmother (in this case a great aunt) who takes care of 'frills' like that. Bill and David had a season of tap-dancing, but always took the back streets to class so their friends wouldn't see their tap shoes. That experience was enough, however, to help them appreciate music and rhythm. The appearance on the stage, like piano recitals, is aimed not at making them artists but to give confidence and poise."

Ann and Russ attended University of Wisconsin where she majored in Speech and he in Engineering. She served as treasurer for D.Z. in 1931 and says her sorority sisters are "more jewels for Ann." Russ is the ideal husband and father. He has a maximum amount of patience and the important ability to fix broken toys and such. Ann modestly says she has no talents, and that her major accomplishment is that she chose a good father for her children. Looking at the picture of the Coster family, it is obvious that every one radiates the joy of living which the mother keynotes—A rare talent indeed!

FOUNDERS' DAY NOTABLES at the San Francisco Bay Cities Alumnae observance are: Mrs. Norman Long (left), general chairman and Mrs. H. Paul Riebe, speaker. Not in picture was the honor guest, Mrs. George M. Cunningham, candidate for "Woman of the Year." Mrs. Cunningham is past president of the Berkeley League of Women Voters and National Panhellenic Congress, is now president of the Berkeley YWCA, vice president of the Twentieth Century Club, the board of directors of the Berkeley division of the East Bay chapter of the National Safety Council and served as a colonel in the Community Chest drive.

LOOKS HER PART. Prominent in radio work around the bay area is Mrs. Hamilton Barnett, Chi chapter, Oregon State College, and an ardent worker in the San Francisco Bay Cities Alumnae group of Delta Zeta.

Mary Bennett Barnett is the leading woman of "Darrow of the Diamond X" heard over KNBC every Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock, from San Francisco. Mary also takes roles in other radio productions from time to time.

Two ardent fans who watch and listen to Mommy are two wonderful youngsters, Bill, aged nine; and Webster, aged seven.

Mary's husband is an investment counsellor and lawyer.

Their main interest, says Mary, is a country home which they are now in the process of building and the entire family is hoping that there they will turn into real cowboys.

Helen Pool Rush Started as Student at Pittsburgh; Now Dean of Women

THE Dean of Women, Helen Rush, at the University of Pittsburgh, is a Delta Zeta, a member of Omicron chapter. In that urban university, where the students are commuters and the business of getting an education is sometimes a rather difficult affair, she "grew up." With Delta Zeta holding a large place in her life, she helped plan every party and every ceremony, always lending a touch of grace with a suggestion for a pretty appointment or a new idea. She was the one who thought of that additional something and often brought it from home—silver, linen, flowers or candles. She was the one who generously offered her home to visiting celebrities when the chapter was being visited.

Demure, intelligent, romantic and loving, she was the very heart of Omicron chapter in those days.

The feeling for gracious living she expressed in 1916 has marked her service to the women of Pitt as their dean. She is the second dean Pitt has had. With Thyrsa Amos, her dear friend and predecessor, Helen is responsible for bringing to a man's campus, at first rather unfriendly to women students, customs and ceremonies that are now traditional and dear to the hearts of Pitt women. One of these is the coronation of the senior queen, an annual event, rich in ancient symbolism and significance to college women.

These college women have been happy in their university life. Dean Rush believes in the fun side of life. Freshmen, returning to their high schools, speak in hyperbole about their new allegiance. It is remarkable how soon they can feel a part of such a vast institution of more than 20,000 students. Yet one hears in their conversation about the many opportunities there are to meet, know and work with other college girls through the dean's office. The Commons room of this Gothic skyscraper institution is its pulse. Here, the desire for the gracious in living is realized.

The many, many activities housed in this beautiful room are under the dean's guidance. Here are her offices and those of her assistants. Here are carried on all of the women's activities in student housing, employment and loans. Personal problems, scholarship problems and all of the diverse interests of the thousand women students are directed here.

HELEN RUSH, Dean of Women

What does this fine leader really want for her thousand young friends? Nurtured in the idealism of Delta Zeta, through the flame of the Greek lamp, she yearns for intellectual honesty. She wants the young women in her world to have fun, womanliness, strength, the ability to give beauty and grace to the simple acts of every day living.

Helen Pool Rush has been doing this for 30 years; first working as Miss Amos' young associate and now approaching her 10th year on her own. She is now president of the Pennsylvania association of Deans of Women and is active in the many demands of a busy university and municipal life.

The possessor of honors and affection in abundance, the owner of a graduate degree in philosophy, diminutive Helen Rush lives the ideals of her Delta Zeta days in Omicron chapter.

Try Our Southern Hospitality!

A DELTA ZETA convention in the deep South—in picturesque, fascinating New Orleans—what could be more intriguing for our Golden Jubilee—June 22-27, 1952!

You have always heard of southern hospitality. Here is your chance to experience it, for the southern chapters have long been awaiting this opportunity, and they promise to make this a convention that you will always remember. Here is your chance to experiment with shrimp gumbo, bouillabaisse, or trout almondine at Antoine's; crepe suzettes at Galatoire's; or shrimps Arnaud at the restaurant of the same name. Here is your chance to wander through the French quarter, and try New Orleans coffee at the French market.

You will enjoy the air-conditioned comfort of the beautiful Roosevelt Hotel, and in the warm evenings you will be charmed by the old French city, the Vieux Carre, which is only a few blocks from the hotel. New Orleans is a modern city which has never lost the charm of old-world France and Spain.

Located on a crescent shaped bend of the Mississippi River and thus known as the Crescent City, New Orleans was founded in 1718 by the French, and grew up under seven flags. Today it is an important railway center and sea-port. Canal Street, America's widest business thoroughfare, separates modern New Orleans from the original city whose balconied buildings stand today exactly as they did over two hundred years ago. There are quaint courtyards, romantic historical buildings, and treasure-laden antique and French perfume shops on Royal Street.

Among the famous historical buildings you will want to see are the Cathedral of St. Louis, a Spanish Creole structure erected in 1794; the archbishop's palace, which dates from 1739; the Cabildo, or ancient prison, 1795; and the Ursuline Convent established in 1730. You will want to see Tulane University and Newcomb College, home of our Beta Upsilon chapter, and perhaps you will want to travel the seventy-five miles up the Mississippi to Baton Rouge to see the Capitol buildings and the beautiful campus of Louisiana State University, home of Sigma chapter. Perhaps you will want to take a night boat trip around the harbor of New Orleans, or perhaps a longer trip up the river.

Which one of these appeals to you? It is sure that at least one of them must appeal to every Delta Zeta. So, to make this a fitting climax to fifty successful years, and make this the biggest and best convention ever, every southern Delta Zeta issues a personal invitation to every other Delta Zeta to start saving pennies right now to join us at our Golden Jubilee and try our southern hospitality!

New Food and Nutrition Head at Penn State Is Dr. Eva Wilson

DR. EVA DONELSON WILSON, Beta Kappa, professor of foods and nutrition at Pennsylvania State College, has been appointed head of the department of foods and nutrition in the School of Home Economics at Penn State, by Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of the Pennsylvania State College. Dr. Donelson succeeds Elisabeth W. W. Dye who retired a year ago with emeritus rank.

After completing her undergraduate work at Iowa State College where she received her bachelor of science degree, Dr. Wilson obtained her doctor's degree at the University of Chicago. Her training also includes a year of internship as a dietitian at the University of Iowa hospital, and work as a research assistant at the Merrill Palmer School in Detroit. She has taught graduate and undergraduate courses at the University of Minnesota as instructor to associate professor; and she has been professor and head of the foods and nutrition department in the School of Home Economics at Ohio State University. Her research projects include: nutritional status studies, metabolism studies with minerals and nitrogen, as well as food composition and vitamin studies.

Dr. Wilson is the national secretary of Omicron Nu and a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron, both home economics honoraries. She is also a member of Sigma Xi, and Sigma Delta Epsilon, science honoraries, and Iota Sigma Pi, chemistry honorary society. She holds membership also in the American Economics Society, the American Dietetics Association, the American Institute of Nutrition, the American Association of University Women, and Delta Zeta.

"Funny Face" Hamburgers Win Fame for Youthful Culinary Artist

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD Barbara Maddock recently was named as one of the finalists in a national baking contest sponsored by a national milling company. Barbara is the daughter of Jane Hartman Maddock, A I, of Los Angeles, California.

At the expense of the sponsoring company, Barbara, accompanied by her mother, went to the Waldorf Astoria hotel in New York to compete in the final bake-off. Barbara won the chance for the trip by submitting her recipe for "Funny Face Hamburgers" which she had originated and served at a party for her little sister, Marsha.

At the contest she won third prize in the junior division and received $1,000, an electric range, and electric mixer. Prizes were presented by Mrs. Philip Pillsbury and the Duchess of Windsor. In making the principal awards the Duchess remarked that "most of us in this room have had the experience of cooking a meal for the man we love." She reminded her audience that she had written a cook book, and spoke of her famous husband as "appreciative" of her culinary efforts. Barbara's interest in cooking, however, started when she won her badge awards in the homemaking field in the Girl Scouts.

Delta Zeta Alumnae of Los Angeles enjoyed some of Barbara's hamburgers when she prepared them for their monthly luncheon and meeting at the home of Gladys Marquardt. Bridge prizes were sacks of flour sent by the milling company and all attending received copies of the top winning recipes as well as for Barbara's delicious hamburgers.

Appreciation from Across the Sea Written by Ilse Schmid, Delta Zeta

DEAR MRS. COSTELLO:

Thank you once more for the kind and generous way you offered the help of the Delta Zetas to me and some needy families over here. Be sure all of us do appreciate this noble American attitude toward us. Today I can only report from a part of the families assigned to some Delta Zeta alumnae chapters. First there is the Paulwitz family. They got about seven packages some weeks ago and they could use practically everything from the contents. Mother Paulwitz was ill when she sent one of her boys to me with a letter written in the greatest joy and gratefulness. The face of the boy was illuminated by happy pride while he told me about the packages. You really did something good there! The Prochel family did not get anything yet. I don't know why, for they are on the list you gave me and they are very needy, too. Maybe they will get a package for Christmas or some time later on. From Mr. Liebmann I don't know anything right now, since the boy left the school where my husband teaches and I could not leave the house recently. Mrs. Kostlin has got some packages, too, as I take from a jubilant post-card I got a while ago. From Mrs. von Hulsen and Mrs. Klotz I have no news, but I am going to write them right away and ask for information.

Everyone who thus was touched by you Delta Zetas will spread your name in love and devotion—and that makes me glad. Just now there are so many chances to talk about America and to tell friends and other people about DZ, the organization, the houses, student life and all that I had the privilege to study personally. Now my niece, 15, is dreaming of going to America some day "just like Aunt Ilse!"

Whom do I have to thank for sending me the LAMP and the Side Lights? I study every line very carefully when they arrive and I also read with great interest what you wrote about your friendship program in Germany and other countries and the article concerning me. No one probably read the reports from convention more attentively than I did and I looked at the registration slips that were enclosed for a long time and with a smile. I feel as if I had left America and the Delta Zeta house but a short time. If you would let me know how I could pay for the LAMP and the Side Lights in German money I would like to do so. I don't want to be a gold-digger!

I send you my best regards and wishes for your personal life as well as for that of DZ.

Fraternally yours,

ILSE SCHMID

This alumnae "personals" feature still needs a name. Fran Benowicz, editor of the alumnae section, would like to have additional names suggested for these Alumnae Briefs. Send all names to her by May 10.

Attention: College and Alumnae Editors

YOUR cooperation is requested by the LAMP Editor in notifying her of interesting and important programs, projects and personalities in your chapters. What are Delta Zeta members and alumnae in your vicinity or from your chapter doing that is significant, different, new? The LAMP is interested in timely articles, pictures and human interest stories. This is your sorority publication. Send in your ideas, comments, suggestions. Don't wait for somebody else to do it.

Hearing Aid Project Commended

Writer Knows Importance Through Experience

TO DELTA ZETA commendations are extended on the choice of such a worthy project as providing deafened children with hearing devices. Physical disabilities can have an untoward effect on the development of the personality. The relief of the affliction results in at least a lessening of the conflict, but prevention in childhood is much more important.

Queen Victoria was deaf and used an ear trumpet. Because she didn't always hear conversation clearly her answers were not always apropos and sometimes they were even comic. No one however smiled openly. She was the queen and her feelings must not be hurt. If all deafened persons were surrounded by the same protection, they, like the queen, might live their lives in usefulness. But such is not the case. Deafness is often the cause of laughter. Stage and movie skits that exploit this disability do a great disservice to the two million children with impairment of hearing. An adult may have learned to laugh at himself but children are only too conscious of how it handicaps them and provokes ridicule from their playmates.

There are many possible causes of deafness and today there are measures to relieve most of them within certain limits, but the most important measure for relief is the hearing device.

The significance of the job Delta Zeta has undertaken is in helping prevent introspection and emotional strain later in life, especially for those in the low income group, who need the use of all their mental and physical faculties in their working careers.

Deafness can cause emotional stress that may become a serious maladjustment later in life. Deafened children practice deception because they do not like to be different from their companions. When they blunder in conversation they are the butt of merciless ridicule. Thus withdrawal from group activities, has begun. When adolescence is reached there may be compensatory behavior even leading to crime. In young adulthood, especially during the early working career extreme ideas of persecution often develop. To prevent such unsocial behavior, overcoming the defect before the child's nervous system has been conditioned, is extremely important. Children are no more sensitive wearing the hearing device than those wearing glasses. A new world is opened to them and they are always delighted to resume their normal part in school and social activities.

While maladjustments do not always develop because of hearing loss it does limit the person later in life, in the full scope of his capacity for work, for enjoyment and relationship among people. The deafened tend to isolate themselves because participation involves too great an effort. Contact under all conditions of modern society is needed for the development of the many factors of the personality. Sight and sound are the most important of the sensory faculties but of the two, hearing is the more essential in enabling the individual to participate in the social and occupational activities which surround him. So often if the deafened have not had the use of a hearing device in childhood, they will refuse to use them later in life and reduce their usefulness to society thereby.

Another benefit from the use of the hearing device in childhood is due to the stimulation of the nerve of hearing. This stimulation prevents further progression in the deterioration of the nerve.

I speak from experience. It was necessary for me to use a hearing device and I know what a great difference it made to me to be able to hear plainly. That is why I almost felt compelled to write to tell you what a magnificent project of prevention of minor and major conflicts in people has been undertaken by your sorority.

NOTE: Material for this article was taken from a letter to Ruth Simering, E, 20 from her friend, a former chief nurse, deafened by an injury in service during WWI in France. She used a hearing aid for years until her hearing was restored 10 year ago following a fenestration operation.

Fascinating Holiday Customs Described by American Teacher

THE Christmas customs in Germany have been most interesting to me. On December 2 the children write notes on special stationery Wish notes (Wunschzettel) to St. Nicholas and angels are supposed to deliver the notes. December 6 the children place paper plates under the bed and it is then that they receive the bundle of switches under the bed if they have been naughty. The bundles of switches were quite a novelty to us, decorated with all kinds of candles done up in fancy shapes and paper, as well as cookies of all shapes and designs.

Here the window is left open so that St. Nicholas may enter through the window and light the candles. In the line of decorations we see many pictures of Hansel and Gretel and also Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, which we would not associate especially with Christmas. The shooting star is used also in decorations.

Wiesbaden is decorated with rows of small trees cut out of thin wood, mounted on light poles and have about six small lights on each side at the points of the tree, which proves very effective at night.

In the various parts of Germany the customs seem to vary as to the way they prepare and celebrate for Christmas.

At this time there is a coal shortage and everyone is urged to conserve in all ways possible to help the coal situation.

It never fails to be surprising to me to be so far north and still find the climate mild in comparison with the zero temperature from Kansas City. It snows, but in a little time the snow is melted. We have much rain, though, and seldom see the sun, and when we do it looks sort of sick this time of year. The days are very short and by five in the afternoon it is dark.

Visiting schools in the vicinity of Wiesbaden has proven very interesting. Another American teacher and I visited one in a small village, where we were cordially welcomed by all the pupils and teacher.

On Saturday we see children and adults carrying large flat pans filled with dough on their way to the bakery to have it baked. The fee for baking is so small that they cannot afford to bake it at home, also do not have facilities for such baking in many homes. The pans resemble our sheet cake pans.

My sincere good wishes to the girls and their families from Germany.

Radio Programs Win Awards

ALICE GALLUP, A Φ, continues to make the news and receive more recognition in her musical career. The following excerpt is from an article appearing in the Kansas City Star December 3, under the caption "Schools Here Do Something About the Lack of Fiddlers," describing how the schools of this city are teaching music to develop players for the orchestra.

"A series of radio programs on KMBC at 1:30 o'clock each Friday, for 15 minutes, relayed on KFRM for Central and Western Kansas, is providing a workable, interesting medium of instruction. Radios in school rooms are tuned in. The instruction is attractively presented and easily comprehended. The radio teacher is Alice Gallup, of Milton's teaching staff. Her success in conducting these programs won for her the Ohio State University honorable mention in 1947, and the first place award the two following years, for meritorious educational radio programs."

Living in Egypt from an American's Angle

By Jeanne Ritzmann, Epsilon

"HE WHO has once drunk of Nile water will forever yearn to be by the Nile again; his thirst cannot be quenched by the waters of any other land." The Egyptian.

Now my life has a gem in its history. I have recently returned from a year's stay in Cairo, Egypt. All the romantic stories, all the scenic wonders that we know so well from books and films met my expectations.

Destination Cairo was a familiar ring in my ears during the fall of '48 as I planned my itinerary for this Middle Eastern journey. I was fortunate in being able to make a contrast in my mode of travel to and from Cairo. The Mohamed Ali El Kiber nosed her bow to sea on July 21, 1949 for the 17 day journey to Alexandria, Egypt. Port stops were made at Marseille, Genoa, and Naples. My return trip was quite brief; I arrived at La Guardia just 42 hours after leaving Farouk Field. This time stops were made at Athens, Rome, Tunis, Algiers, Madrid, and Lisbon.

"So you have been in Cairo!" is a statement made so frequently since my return, and one which is said in a tone of voice which implies that there are many questions about life in this Eastern city. Perhaps one might think that life there is all a matter of sitting on Sheppard's Hotel terrace in sparkling white linen at tea time. One works and plays in much the same manner as here in the States. Each family of the American colony can afford an adequate servant staff because of their availability and their reasonable cost. These servants make it possible to have ample time for relaxation. Usually each staff includes a cook, houseboy, and nurse. A favorite expression was, "I'll see you at the club." The clubs could be compared to any large country club. Cairo has sunshine 365 days of the year, and a mean temperature of 56 degrees in winter and 83 degrees in summer.

Cairo is a very modern, metropolitan city of two million people. It is called the largest oasis of Egypt, and it is conveniently located about three hours from Alexandria and the sea. The architecture of the buildings is ultra-modern. Since wood is such an expensive commodity, most of the building material is brick, stone, or marble; when a building is completed a sand colored stucco facing is applied. The thoroughfares are wide leading out from circles. The noise of car horns, donkey carts, and the musical chants of the natives can be heard from dawn to dusk; then it seems as though the city has settled into a peaceful slumber. In the East as in most European cities one must honk the car horn to clear the path and also to impress the other drivers that you are on the alert.

Because of its large foreign element and Middle Eastern position, Cairo has commodities from all over the world. Many Americans on assignment in Cairo take with them an ample supply of clothing, medicine, etc., although everything is available there only at a slightly higher price. There are many American cars in Cairo of all makes, and most of them are very recent models. The English M G, the Italian Fiat, and the French Citroen are very popular. Especially the Fiat and Citroen because of their low gasoline consumption.

Upon arrival in Cairo, I established two residences; one at the villa for the teachers in Maadi, Egypt, and the other at my cousin's apartment in town. My cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Judd Polk, were living in Cairo during part of my stay there. Mr. Polk was Representative for the Treasury Department in the Middle East.

In Maadi, a suburb of Cairo about nine miles from the heart of the city, the Cairo American School is located. This school is supported by contributions and tuition to accommodate the children of Americans. The primary purpose for its establishment was to facilitate the transition of a child from school abroad to the States. Our staff consisted of two young girls and a principal, our senior, who were from the States. Two foreign teachers, French and Egyptian, also joined us.

"Bukrafil Mishmish" (meaning "tomorrow when the apricots bloom") was number one in my Arabic vocabulary, and not a very useful phrase as the apricot is only in season a short time. Arabic is a very difficult language to speak and even more difficult to write. After numerous cab drivers escorted me on tours of the city instead of going to a specific destination, I concentrated my efforts on learning the language. French is also spoken extensively in Cairo.

As an American in Cairo I marveled at the great variety of clothing designs. Western clothes are predominant now; however, the native Egyptians excluding the merchants, businessmen, and government people wear the galabia which is a straight loose-fitting robe. The official headdress is the tarboush. The native women wear long black crepe shawls over their heads and wrap them about their bodies. Underneath these shawls a dress of simple design is worn.

In January, 1950, the Wafd Party won the majority in the elections. One of the most important issues of their platform was free education for all. Before their arrival to power, it had been partially free for the poor. Increasing wages was also promised to the fellaheen or worker. The Wafd party will remain in power for five years, and Mustafa Nahas Pasha is the Prime Minister of their choice. This election was considered an outstanding one as the Wafd Party is the people's party.

Now each day at sundown my thoughts are of Egypt. I see the setting sun reflected in the Nile, hear the chants of the priests from the minarets of the mosques, and see the three pyramids of Giza silhouetted against the horizon of the sky.

President Gertrude Fariss' "Why Serve" Message Reprinted Again

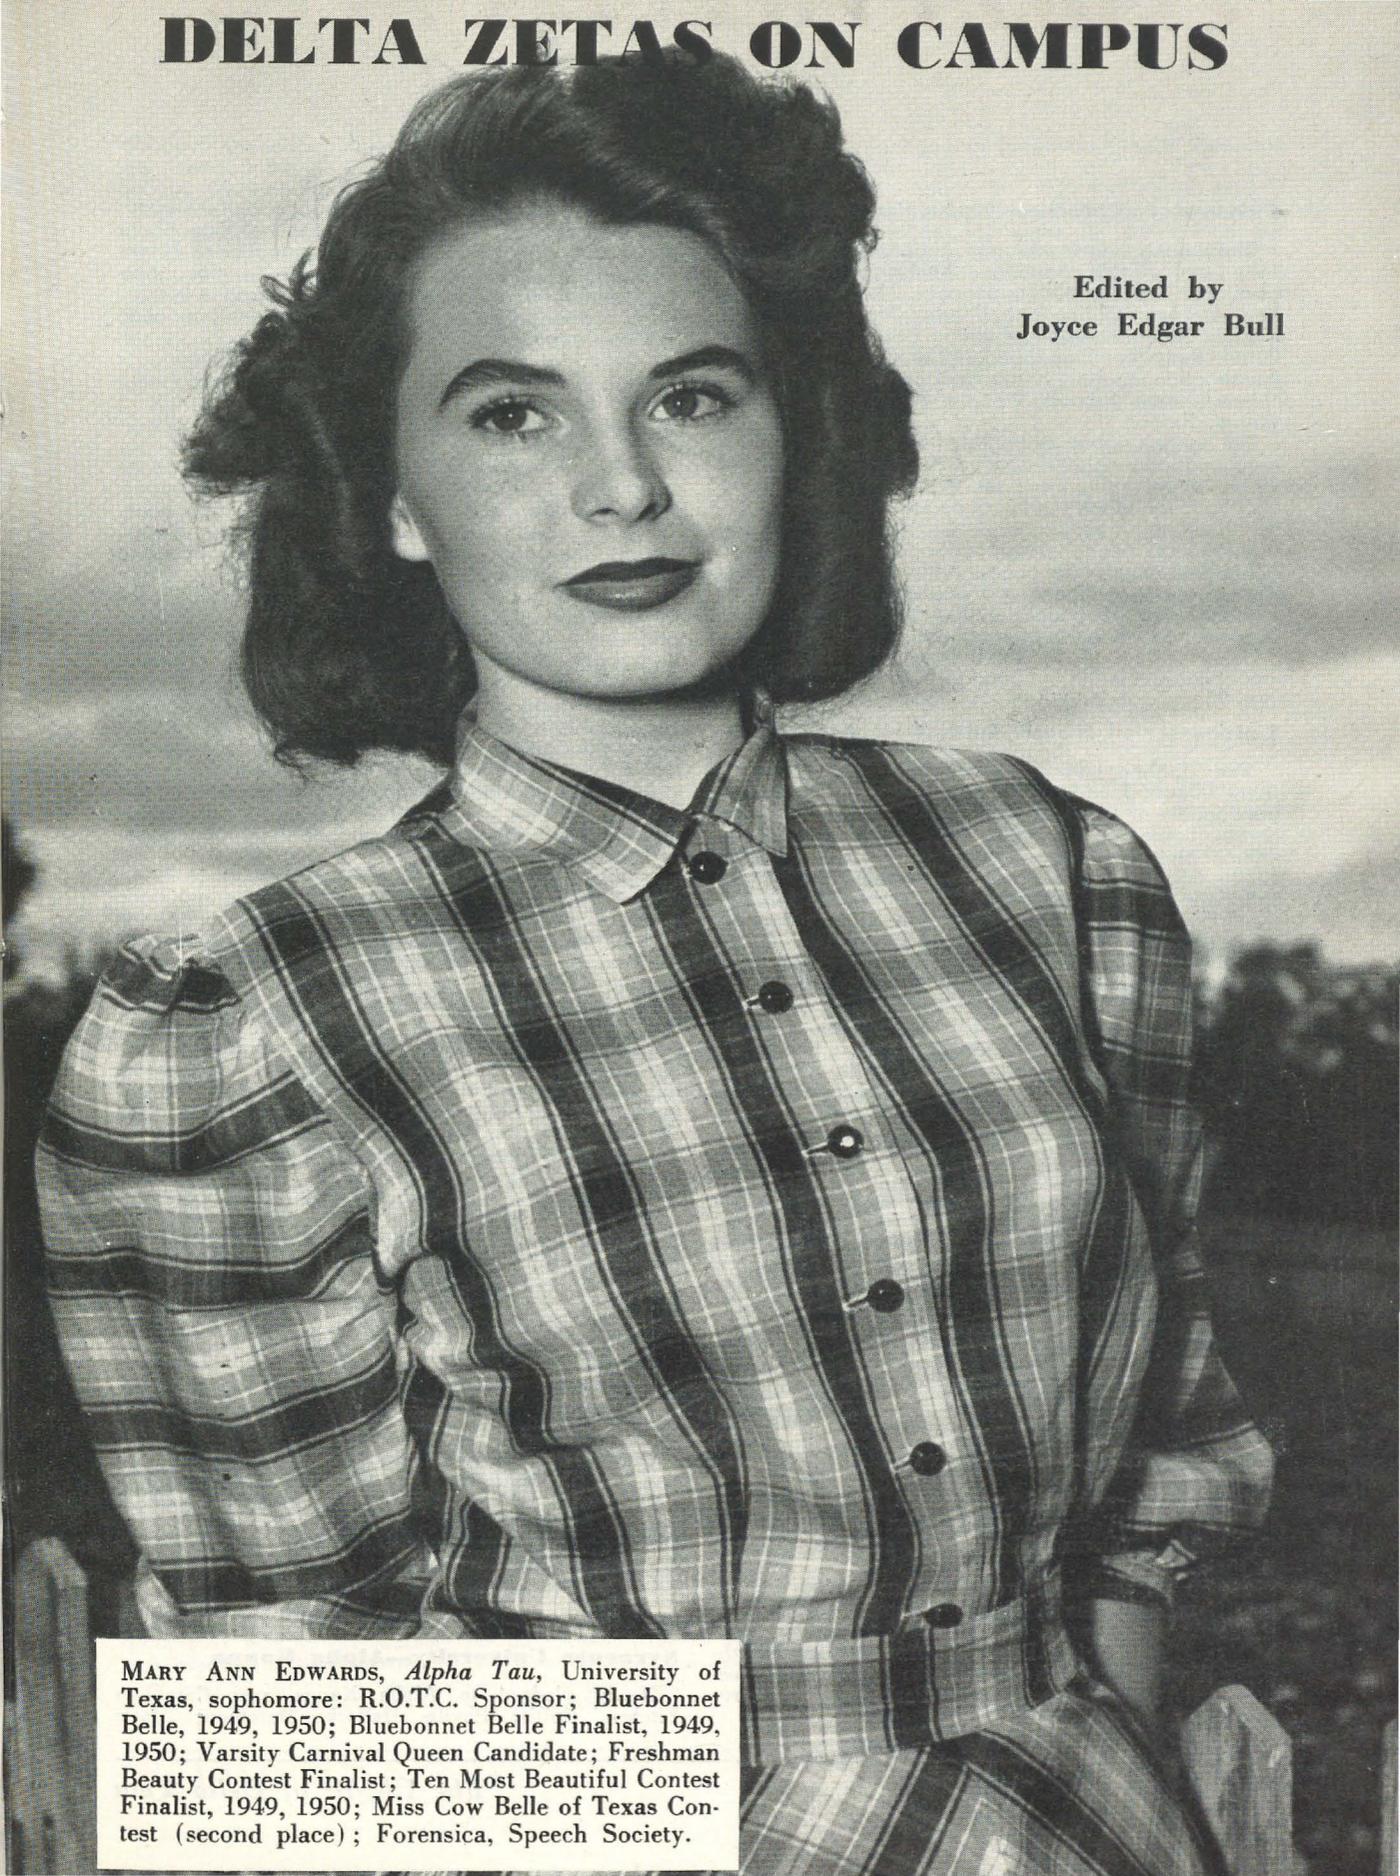

THE magazine of Alpha Xi Delta for November, 1950, reprints in full in its "Headliners" section our president's important LAMP editorial, "Why Serve?" In the introductory paragraph, Alpha Xi Delta's editor says:

"Chosen Headliner for this issue is an editorial, not a picture, and it is from the pen of dynamic Gertrude Houk Fariss, National President of Delta Zeta. It first appeared in the LAMP, December, 1948, and has been widely quoted by many of the fraternity magazines. Its message is as vital to Alpha Xi Deltas as to Delta Zetas, and we join with other fraternity leaders in appreciation of Mrs. Fariss' message."

University of Maine—Alpha Upsilon

Pledging is announced for thirteen new pledges. They are: Phyllis Anderson, Rockland; Mary Jean Chapman, Bangor; Shirley Howard, Monmouth; Mary Jane McLean, Millinocket; Dorothy Merrill, Andover; Patricia Nason, Oakland; Pamela Poor, Augusta; Rita Porter, Rangeley; Joan Reifel, Waltham, Massachusetts; Lucille Shaw, Brewer; Sylvia Sullivan, West Springfield, Massachusetts; Patricia Wallace, Bangor, and Patricia Wilson, Bangor.

The holiday season, and with it the U. of M. vacation, came and went with its usual rapidity. However, in spite of the school rush, plans are well under way for our D.Z. Fair, for which the members and alumnae are making things.

Besides the weekly pledge lessons, pledges are undertaking our annual foreign friendship project—gathering clothes and other things, and sending them to a needy family abroad. They are also planning a spring fashion show for the whole chapter and alumnae.

ELEANOR MOWER, president

University of Rhode Island—Beta Alpha

New initiates are announced: Claire Emerson, Betty Kilguss, Joan Lundblad and Dorothea Usher. They were guests of honor at a buffet supper, served in the chapter house.

Beta Alpha announces the pledging of: Jean Berry, Claire Buchanan and Nancy Chatterton, Providence; Edith Bleisch, Lakewood; Constance Dodge, West Kingston; Joyce Giblin, Portsmouth; Janet Gleason, Sally Scott and Eleanor Toegemann, Cranston; Audrey Joslin, Edgewood; Louise Logothets, Newport; Joan Pouliot, Peacedale; Nancy Parker, Wakefield; Esther Rowan, Pawtuxet, and Nancy Dole, West Medford Massachusetts.

Beta Alpha showed lots of pep and enthusiasm in the Homecoming Rally with the slogan of "Drive the Huskie North." We gained honorable mention with our display which this year featured a good sportsmanship theme. Cynnise Bennett, chairman; Pat Colwell, chief engineer, and Barbie Skoogland, artist, were the leaders of the enterprise.

The annual Soph Hop proved to be a happy one this year to our Terre Dougherty, who was crowned queen.

In the recent elections held on campus Shirley Steere was elected senior class secretary and Pat Heath was elected to the staff of the Beacon, campus newspaper, as assistant circulation manager. Avis Buxton and Carol Wood are charter members of Theta Sigma Omicron, the newly formed local home economics honor society. Cynthia Bennett was elected to Phi Sigma, biological society.

In the inter-house basketball tournament, Beta Alpha displayed a great deal of determination and spirit before being edged out in the final round. We hope to retain the volleyball trophy for the second consecutive year.

The honor basketball team has six members. Ann Budlong is captain.

University of Connecticut—Gamma Beta

At our annual winter formal, the following girls were presented as new Gamma Beta pledges: Joan Adams, Lorraine Aubin, Patricia Bernhardt, Virginia Caregnato, Patricia Chidester, Zena de Beausset, Diane Denny, Norma Gallagher, Grace Hall, Nancy Hoag, Marilyn Keechler, Dorothy Krystof, Mary Ann Lasky, Claire Moran, Allyson Norris, Joan Pully, Joan Reid, Shirley Rentz, Nancy Ring, Elaine Rivard, Priscilla Ruperti, Jayne Ryan, Arlene Smith, Lee Smith, June Sparks, Jean Vertefeuille, Mary Lou Vredenburg and Kitty Wilson.

As President Barbara Oappel called the name of each new pledge, she stepped forward to receive a rose from her "big sister." Jeanne Hochberg received a gold loving cup as the outstanding member of Gamma Beta chapter for the year 1949-50.

At the first meeting of the new pledge group, Miss Mildred P. French, dean of women at the university, talked about their duties as good pledges and the importance of good scholarship.

Late this fall three of our girls were chosen to Who's Who. They are Mary Anderson, Nancy Baxter and Joyce Moran. Nancy Baxter, senior social chairman and Janice O'Brien junior class social chairman are busy working on the campus Co-Ed Formal. Dorothy Ruggie is publicity chairman for the dance. Dorothy Almond was recently selected to serve on the student-faculty committee. Mary Lou Stefanowski received an award for the highest scholarship in the School of Home Economics for her freshman year. Mary Lou also received our chapter award for scholarship. Lorraine Aubin, one of our newest pledges, was selected by the football team as their queen at the Football Hop. She was one of the finalists for Sweetheart of Sigma Chi and a finalist for the Cotillion Ball.

We came in second in the ping-pong tournaments. On January 17 we held a surprise party for "Mom" Lewis our resident counselor who is leaving us at the end of the semester. We presented her with a travel alarm clock to accompany her on her trip to Florida.

Province I South

Adelphi College—Alpha Zeta

Initiated November 5, were: Sue Healy, Jamaica; Margie Tietz, Richmond Hill; Lillian Behnken, Floral Park; Dot McKiernan, Floral Park, and Gloria Bauer, Baldwin.

Pledged November 12 were: Barbara Ferber, Laurelton; Natalie Krombach, Flushing; Connie Forest, Floral Park; Carol O'Conner, Levittown; Norma Plett, Manhasset; Marie Limber, Brooklyn; Ann Romano, Northport; Ria Renna, South Ozone Park; Dot Tenney, Freeport, and Toni Winders, Williston Park. A pajama party followed pledging.

One of our seniors, Joyce Lettine, deserves special mention. She is working on cancer research at Adelphi College with her professor, Clifton Idyll, and another student, Joseph McGuire.

We are planning for spring rushing and initiation. Rushees will be entertained at a party on February 11. Initiation is to take place in March.

ELAINE N. LAMB, editor

Syracuse University—Alpha Kappa

Newly pledged to Alpha Kappa are: Carol-Lou Fitchen, Hollis; Phyllis Hallock, Marathon; Marie

Reichen, Marcellus; Mary Anne Schaarschmidt, Cresco, Pa.; and Mildred Vannatta, East Durham. Chapel groups, Women's Student Government, University Choirs, Ski school, Spanish club, the Society of Arts and Letters and Camp Fire girls are pledges' activities.

Doing things together has been one of the important aspects of sorority life for us this year. After a series of standards meetings on manners and social graces, we gave a reception for our housemother, Mrs. Charles Hayes, when we christened our new cups and saucers, a Christmas gift from the Syracuse alumnae chapter, and got to know our professors and university officials better.

Entertainment for the Syracuse alumnae and Delta Zeta Mothers' Club was provided by us as we presented our favorite skit from our rushing parties—the story of Saint Peter and the Delta Zeta angels. A coffee was held for our next door neighbors, Iota Alpha Pi sorority. Another chapter project was giving blood to the Red Cross.

Alpha Kappas helped open Christmas week at Syracuse by caroling on campus before and during the traditional tree lighting ceremonies. Our square Georgian Colonial house was decorated as a Christmas box, complete with red ribbon, bow and tag.

We gave a Christmas party at the Syracuse Home Association for elderly women; sang carols with them, and presented skits, novelty numbers and a gift.

A visit from Miss Cleora Crosby, national field representative, greatly inspired us. It is indeed wonderful to get to know our national officers personally.

Winter sports have not been forgotten, and we sandwich skating, tobogganing and skiing in Thornden Park among our final exams.

New York University—Beta Omega

Five girls being initiated are: Isabel Borrero, New York City; Phyllis Gammel, Floral Park; Georgia Klett, Brooklyn; Loelia Verchesi, Kew Gardens, and Rosemond Weaver, New York City.

Beta Omega in conjunction with Panhellenic is helping to support a war orphan. All of us sisters are contributing both clothing and money for this project. The Delta Zetas also aided Panhellenic and the Interfraternity Council in the World Students Service Fund drive.

Our social chairman, Grace Tefankjian, has been elected to Mu Kappa Tau, the honorary marketing society. Grace is a marketing major at the School of Commerce of New York University.

With the beginning of the spring term, Beta Omega chapter is looking forward to a busy and successful season.

HELEN SZILVASI, editor
STACEY FORTUNAS, president

Hunter College—Gamma Eta

Gamma Eta initiated Marion Cinelli, Ingeborg Halbeck, Tamara Kukrycka, Eleanor Nenninger and Jean Tori; and pledged Edwina Nevins after the informal rush period. Jean Tori received a compact as the prize for the "best pledge."

Two of our girls have been elected to honoraries this term—Marion Cinelli to Chi Omicron and Virginia Cacich to Phi Beta Kappa.

Maria Benedetti was elected president and Jean Tori recording secretary to fill the vacancies left by graduation. Loretta King, Joan McGough, Muriel Koury and Eglá Morales are the new members of our alumnae advisory board. Joan was elected chairman.

Winifred Walsh, one of our "alums," who is studying at Wisconsin University on a fellowship, visited us and brought news of our chapter in Wisconsin. Our annual Christmas party was joined by many of our alumnae.

Irene Porco, who has been president of the History Club, also has been president of the Italian Club.

University of Pittsburgh—Omicron

Pledges of Omicron are: Jeannetta Doyle, Pittsburgh; Cornelia Herock, Pittsburgh; Donna Parks, Pittsburgh, and Patricia Truxel, Connellsville.

We were happy to have Miss Irene Boughton with us. However, we were very sorry that not all of us could meet with her, and that she had to "weather the storm." Miss Boughton was with us at a time when Pittsburgh experienced the worst snowfall in its history. Omicron is looking forward to a return visit from Miss Boughton, when we can all spend some time with her together.

The "Suppressed Desire" pledge party gave the "D. Z's" an opportunity to express their hidden aspirations. Cowhands, veterinarians, as well as wrestlers, roamed through the weirdly decorated rooms, and the unusual food planned by our social chairman, Jane Lasher, topped off a fun-packed evening.

Omicron is proud of Donna Parks, new initiate, who was just recently elected president of Junior Panhellenic Council. Donna also happens to be the girl chosen to wear our "ideal pledge" ring.

Marion Isaac, Dolores Hilty and their committees, are quite busy making preparations for the "Mardi Gras" and "Holiday in Dixie" parties.

A bowling party with the rushees has been planned and we are planning to have a slumber party for members of the college chapter, which will be held at the house.

DOLORES HILTY, editor
LOIS WEBER, president

Bucknell University—Beta Theta

On November 20, after formal rushing was over, seven more girls were pledged to Beta Theta. They are JoAnn Aimetti, Berwick; Eleanor Bender, Milton; Margaret Klugh, Harrisburg; Ann Kreuzer, Rutherford, N.J.; Virginia Martin, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Janice Schoener, Trenton, N.J., and Joan Zeigler, Glendale, N.Y. The chapter filled its quota this year by pledging seventeen girls. The other girls were pledged November 5.

The members and pledges are participating in the intramural sports program. The volley-ball team was off to a fine start by winning its first game. At present the chapter is the possessor of the inter-sorority sports cup. It was won by the chapter last spring by winning the majority of sports last year, and the Beta Thetas are making a determined effort to let it remain displayed in the suite for another year!

Just after semester vacation, a new spinet piano was bought for the suite. It will be useful for rushing next year, and for the enjoyment of all of the girls.

University of Kentucky—Alpha Theta

The Christmas party given for the underprivileged children was a success, both from the standpoint of the children and the DZ's. The games played, such as London Bridge and Drop the Handkerchief, took us back several years to our more energetic days of childhood. After dinner the gifts were distributed to the children.

Our housemother, Mrs. Ida Hardesty, entertained the girls who live in the house and their dates with an informal dinner party.

The trophy given by Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honorary fraternity, to the campus organization selling the most ODK tags now graces the mantel of our living room. The money from the sale of these tags goes for various campus improvements, such as lights for the intramural field.

The University Choristers, under the capable direction of our alumnae adviser, Miss Mildred Lewis, gave a superb musical performance over the local radio station and received many favorable comments from all listeners.

University of South Carolina—Beta Delta

Christmas season was a gay round of parties. We held our annual Christmas drop-in for the alumnae and parents. The following night, Betty Dawson gave a party for all the D. Z.'s and their dates. Betty had her home decorated in true holiday spirit. She had a picture of 'Ol St. Nick, which she had painted, hanging in the room with a traditional Christmas tree at the other end.

With spring comes many activities. Stunt night and Song Fest are two of the main events. For Song Fest we are using the moon theme and singing "Blue Moon," and "Swinging on a Star."

The Beta Deltas of Delta Zeta have completed a successful rushing season. Our parties included a carnival, night club and Rose Candlelight supper, at which we gave handmade Delta Zeta rabbits.

Pledges include Peggy Page, Martha Harrelson, Lynn Gregory, Betty Lou Dawson, Betty Parker, Jackie Caldwell, Elizabeth Stevens, Ellen Connor, Donna Rouse and Tease McKey. We were pleased to have Mrs. Odis A. Johnson, our national membership vice president with us.

SARA MAY THEVENOT, editor
MARY ELLEN O'NEIL, president

University of Tennessee—Beta Lambda

Beta Lambda initiated the following girls: Betty Pease, Goshen, Connecticut, and Betsy Lynch of Chattanooga.

The Delta Zetas have been busy practicing for intramural basketball. The tournament starts this week and we have hopes of winning. Betsy Lynch and Mary Elizabeth Bridges won the intramural shuffleboard tournament.

Barbara Calloway was elected Panhellenic representative and will be president of that organization next year.

DOT CLARK, editor
IRMA JEAN BROOKS, president

College of Charleston—Beta Psi

Beta Psi chapter initiated Frances Teresa O'Keefe, a senior.

Our Founders' Day Banquet was held at the St. James Methodist Parish house. Service awards were presented to Florence Wilson, president of the collegiate chapter for being the most outstanding member of the chapter, and to Ethel Turner, collegiate chapter alumna adviser, for her loyal and helpful service. An interesting history of our chapter at the College of Charleston was given by Almena Burbage. The Founders' Day candlelight ceremony was presented by the collegiate chapter, after which a community sing was held.

Three Delta Zeta's were contestants in the College of Charleston beauty contest. They were Florence Wilson, Sara Jean Zehe and Frances O'Keefe.

Early in December we had our annual Pancake Supper at the Grace Episcopal Parish house. One of our most successful means of raising money this year has been the selling of greeting cards.

The collegiates, pledges and their dates had a Christmas party at the home of Virginia Paulsen. A delicious shrimp luncheon was served, and gifts were exchanged during the evening. The alumnae honored our pledges at a party on Dec. 14 at the home of Mary Doris McGee.

Florence Wilson, chapter president, was recently initiated as a charter member of Alpha Kappa Gamma, which gives recognition to outstanding women leaders. Florence was elected treasurer.

We were recently honored with a visit from Miss Cleora Crosby, our field secretary. During her visit we received much help and guidance and found her to be a great inspiration to us.

Memphis State College—Gamma Iota

We Gamma Iotas have really been busy here at Memphis State. On January 5, we held a party at the home of Rosanna Robilio. The party was in honor of John Cobb, our Delta Zeta "Man of the Year," whom we elected at the annual Rose Petal Ball last spring.

Initiated January 21 were: Alice Marie Davis, Myrna Dollar, Patsy Simmons, Patsy Keathley, Betty Byrum, Rosanna Robilio, Imogene Gordon, Marie Fray, Lib Carr, Shirley Ronza, Evelyn Cattaneo, and Marilyn Simpson. Imogene Gordon won the scholarship prize and Patsy Simmons was chosen as best pledge.

On January 20, the pledges honored the members with a wonderful party. The theme was "school days review."

Gamma Iota is very proud of four of our girls who are participating in the Beauty Review at Memphis State for the title of Beauty Queen. They are: our president, Martha Ann Gatti, Elizabeth Sharp, Lib Carr and Marilyn Simpson.

Dixie Colladay has had a leading part in the last two plays presented.

The Delta Zetas are now working on the Delta Zeta Follies. All Greeks and Independents participating will present a skit and an individual number. A trophy will be awarded by Delta Zeta to the best judged act. This is the second year in succession that we have presented the DZ Follies and we hope to make it an annual affair.

Florida State University—Alpha Sigma

On November 8, we were glad to have as new pledges Lois Lee Absher, Orlando; Jean Beasley, Lake Alfred; Pat Hampton, Orlando; Harriet Knight, Lakeland; Marian Martin, Winter Haven, and Nona Jane Reeves, Sylvester, Ga.

The annual Christmas party was held by the pledges honoring the initiates and alumnae. At this time the pledges entertained with a skit and presented their pledge songs.

January 18 we entertained the Sigma Chi fraternity with a wiener roast. We are planning to entertain the other fraternities on campus before the end of the year.

The chapter is proud of three of its members who have received honors on our campus. Mary Frances Strickland who was one of the thirty-one selected from our campus for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Mary Frances is also a reporter for our college newspaper and she is also a member of the honor committee. Nancy Day was tapped for Sigma Delta Pi, Spanish honorary and Pi Delta Phi, French honorary. One of our pledges, Shirley Knight, was tapped for Cotillion, dance organization.

Our house mother, Mrs. Dinwiddie, entertained the seniors with a delicious chicken supper.

Our annual Rose weekend will be held on March 30 and 31.

University of Miami—Beta Nu

Beta Nu started the whirl of holiday parties with a pledge-member "Christmas Cozy" at the home of Patsy Collier. Following a pot luck supper, members, with their dates, went caroling and afterward warmed up with hot chocolate and dancing at a party given by Beverly and Peggy Coble.

The DZ's held their annual open-house, following the pattern of the year before. A blanket invitation was sent to all students on campus and the faculty members. Punch and cookies were served and a seven foot tree decorated by the pledges added a festive note to the tropic setting of the DZ Bamboo Room. Delta Zeta has been the first and only sorority on campus so far to hold an open-house during the holidays and its warm reception by all students has assured its place in the holiday schedule for years to come.

Beauty contests have kept the campus buzzing continually. Mary Spangenberg and Martha Bosque were candidates for sweetheart of Kappa Sigma fraternity. Virginia French, Peggy Coble, Lola Ruth and Martha Bosque were finalists in a contest to select Miss Tempo. Tempo is the monthly campus magazine. Virginia Parker was a member of the Homecoming queen's court. Martha Bosque is one of the seven girls chosen for the Ibis Beauty section, making her an automatic candidate for the Ibis Queen, to be announced when the yearbook comes out.

Lynn Mergle and Virginia French have been chosen as members of the college board of Richard's store, a leading department store in Miami. Virginia Allsworth is representative to Hartley's college board.

In scholastic activities, DZ won third place in the debate contest with Joyce Beach, Mary Spangenberg, Marlene Dorris and Mary Tower participating. Catherine Houghton has again received a scholarship given by the Miami Woman's Club. Virginia Parker, treasurer of the Student Association, was elected treasurer of the Hucksters club, and has pledged Alpha Sigma Upsilon, an honorary on campus.

The Panhellenic Association held its annual Panhellenic dance November 18. To carry out the theme of "Greek Harmony" at the dance, three tall Greek god-esses were reigning over the bandstand. Gertrude McCullough was in charge of invitations. Before the dance, Delta Zeta seniors took their dates to dinner. The seniors all felt that the evening had brought them much closer together and they had become better acquainted.

A PAIR OF QUEENS. Beta Alpha proudly presents Joan Lundblad (above), Queen of the Aggie Bowl, and Terre Dougherty (right), Queen of the Soph Hop. Joan, a member of the class of '53, is a cheerleader and a writer for the BEACON, the school newspaper. Terre, also of the class of '53, is in the school of Home Economics and is noted for her lovely singing voice on the campus of Rhode Island State College.

Following the Panhellenic dance we invited the Delta Delta Deltas for an open house, the "big sisters" gave a dinner for their "little sisters," and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity gave a tea dance for the pledges. Before Thanksgiving vacation, Alpha gave a hayride.

Recently a quiz program was started on the campus radio station, WRMU. It is held weekly with competition between the sororities with a trophy awarded to the winner. Delta Zeta is among the semi-finalists.

On January 20, a "Come as You Are" party was given for the pledge class. Each pledge was asked to come when she was wearing some unusual outfit. Entertainment was provided by each pledge telling why she was the best dressed woman on campus. Nancy Hefner was finally chosen as the winner and was awarded a paper medal naming her "The Best Dressed Woman of 1951."

Alpha announces the pledging of Anna Rusic, Newark. Among campus honors Carol Ruckgaber, Barbara Cipolla, Billy Ann Baldauf and Beverly Pohl were recently elected to the Spanish honorary, Sigma Delta Phi. Patricia Measell was chosen as director of the Panhellenic Chorus which sings on Mothers' Day. This is the second consecutive year she has been chosen for this position.

Our candidate for Junior Prom queen is Mary Rose Schubert.

Connie Milicia last year's Dream Girl will present the new Dream Girl at the dance in the Seneca hotel.

June Wolf was pledged to Alpha Epsilon Rho. Betty Trinkler was initiated into Omicron Nu. Norma Lang was invited into Pi Lambda Theta and Patricia Keyes into Delta Omicron.

Characters from the funny papers came to the Theta chapter house for a successful rush party on January 23. Dagwood sandwiches were served for refreshments and Little Abner, Mammy and Pappy Yokum and Popeye provided the entertainment.

Songs rang from the Delta Zeta house during the serenading and campaigning for Pledge Princess. Robin Price was one of the finalists.

Mrs. Burris, of the Union company, recently spoke to Theta chapter on the art of make-up, for one of their standards programs.

Natalie Parker of Columbus, was pledged to Theta chapter during winter quarter.

University of Cincinnati—Xi

At a time when we all are looking at events from the international standpoint, Xi chapter's first and foremost thought and activity was on the international plan, with the Foreign Students' Christmas party. With over a hundred foreign students invited, including Germans, Chinese, Turks and Hawaiians among the many, the party was a wonderful success. Charlene Starr received a beautiful necklace as our "Dream Girl of Delta Zeta." And at midnight the pledges were introduced through a large, cardboard replica of the Delta Zeta songbook and received lovely pledge bracelets.

Jane Seidler is our new pledge, and the newly elected pledge officers are: Phaedra Boyce, president; Beth Owens, vice president; Betty Chase, secretary; Carolyn Young, treasurer; Jean Thomas, Panhellenic representative, and Jane Seidler song leader.

After the gala holiday season, Xi's Delta Zetas not only looked ahead toward exams, but also worked into the intense program of intramural sports. January also saw a wonderful new type of standards program: beauty counseling. One of the girls selected by the counselor was given a make-up treatment.

Then, we welcomed and entertained Miss Cleora Crosby, national field secretary, just recently.

Beta Chi chapter enjoyed a gay and busy Christmas season. Our winter formal was a grand success, and as usual our caroling was lots of fun, as we visited our patronesses and friends. One of our patronesses, Mrs. C. L. Nisley of Springfield, entertained us all at her beautiful home, where we were served a wonderful dinner.

Pledged to Beta Chi chapter were Mary Drehs, Reading, Pa.; Donna Mainhart, Niles; Shirley Dale, Olney, Ill.; Joan Herron, Cleveland; Charlotte Olt, Dayton, and Barbara Gaver, Springfield.

Everyone is invited on Monday nights to a chapter dinner. A really grand way of getting everyone together for a good time.

RECOGNITION PINS are given to Delta Zeta daughters, Marthalou Stites, center, and Patti Lu McDaniel, right, by Grace House, president of Glendale-Burbank alumnae chapter. Gifts were presented when the girls became pledges of Alpha Chi chapter at University of California at Los Angeles. The girls are especially welcomed because of the great contributions in service of their mothers. Catherine McDaniel, mother of Patti Lu, was the first alumnae chapter president and is now National Jubilee chairman. Marian Stites, mother of Marthalou, was chairman of the committee that petitioned Delta Zeta at U.C.L.A. and is a charter member of Alpha Chi. She is past president of the Los Angeles Panhellenic council and is ways and means chairman of Glendale Panhellenic. Patti Lou is majoring in Business Administration. Marthalou is president of her pledge class, on the freshman council and is the only girl in her class majoring in botany.

was to wear something backwards. The program was presented by the five pledges.

The Gamma Alphas were proud to have two of their members named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities: Dolly Schaible, our president, and Jean Shafer, vice-president of the senior class. Janet Blakely and Gail Boydell were recently pledged to the Mu Phi chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, women's national music honorary, and Virginia Bereit was elected to Acquilene club which will present a water fantasy in the middle of April. In the Student Council elections, January 26, Jacqueline Long was elected freshman representative and Jacqueline Carmel, sophomore representative. Jean Shafer, Alma Gene Bauer and Francele Feusier were admitted to the Dayton C. Miller honorary fraternity—similar to that of Phi Beta Kappa.

We have 11 new pledges. For our final rush party on January 19, the rushees were called for by Raggedy Ann and Andy and invited to enter the "Delta Zeta Story Land" where they met such familiar characters as Humpty-Dumpty, Jimminy Cricket and Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs.

Now we are working on a "Paper for Peace" theme to present in the highly competitive interfraternity sing in April.

Membership in Cardinal Key, women's service honorary, is one of the highest honors extended to Kent State University women. Six Delta Zetas are among the twelve sorority women who were chosen for this honorary. The girls chosen are: Marilyn Hayes, Ruth Paul, Shirley Drake, Clarice Dettor, Peggy Brown and Jane Maybee.

Zeta Iota, business honorary, also claimed its share of Delta Zetas. Recently pledged to this honorary are: Marian Campbell, Ginny Basil, Betty Zapf and Pat McCardel.

Clarice Dettor's name will appear in this year's publication of Who's Who In American Colleges.

The initiation banquet was given January 27 at the Robin Hood restaurant. Judy Rauman was presented as model pledge and received a gold necklace from the chapter.

Miss Cleora Crosby, national field secretary, visited at the chapter house during January. She was presented to presidents of other sororities at an afternoon tea held at the house.

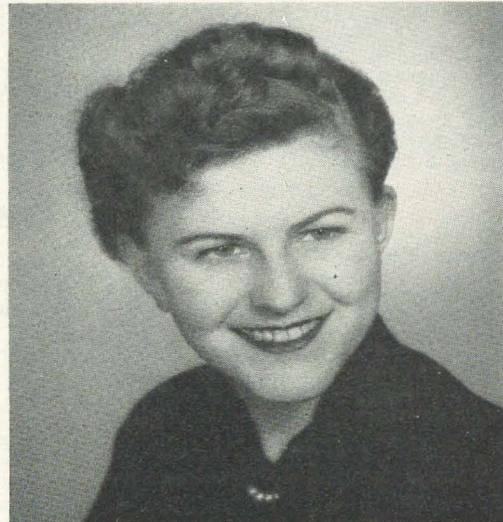

Pledged to Gamma Kappa January 25, were: Laura Graham, Cuyahoga Falls; Donna Isaccson, Youngstown; Betsy Koon, Mingo Junction; Pat McCardel, Ravenna; Katie McGrail, Stow; Mary Lou Paul, Massilon; Margaret Paul, Massilon; Betty Zapf, Kent, and Iris Zemeskaly, Cleveland.

Initiated into Gamma Kappa January 27, were: Donna Balph, Jean DeArment, Judy Harmon, Olive Hemming, Betty Lawrence, Mary Anne Maske, Caroline Moore, Merry Moffitt, Barbara Pickering, Judy Rauman, Shirley Reddinger, Hilma Rehard, Betty Steinkemper, Alma Volzer and Dolores Woomer.

Besides informal rush parties the chapter planned parties for Alpha Epsilon Pi and a Valentine date party. The chapter was entertained by Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity at a hard times party. The pledge class also gave a party for the fraternity pledges.

Clothing and various other articles have been collected for a box to Norway project which the chapter has undertaken. Ruth Fleming is chairman of this project.

Clarice Dettor Makes Record at Kent State

Clarice "Cid" Dettor, one of the outstanding members of Gamma Kappa chapter, was recently initiated into Cardinal Key, foremost women's service honorary at Kent State University. This is one of the highest honors that can come to a Kent coed.

In addition to this, pretty, pert Cid was selected to have her name appear in Who's Who in American Colleges. She is a member of United Christian Fellowship, and is active in the Spanish workshop, "La Tertulia."

Cid is a member of Kappa Delta Pi, education honorary, president of the International Relations club, secretary of Sigma Delta Pi, Spanish honorary, and was vice-president of her sophomore class.

Rush chairman of Delta Zeta, Cid is also secretary of the University Social committee and belongs to Booster Club and University Theater.

During her college career Cid has served as a counsellor in the freshman dormitory and has been on the Dean's List consistently for outstanding scholarship.

Cid, one of the four finalists for the title of Miss Kent State, is a senior and lives at the chapter house. Her home is in Takoma Park, Maryland.

Installation as Gamma Tau on December 9, 1950 started the existence of Delta Zeta on campus. Since that memorable weekend members have been busy organizing.

We attended parties in honor of our installation given by Sigma Phi Epsilon and Zeta Beta Tau and have received many congratulatory presents from Delta Zeta chapters, alumnae chapters and campus fraternities.

We are striving to keep the sorority scholarship cup, awarded to us last semester for the fourth time. Marilyn Eckert, and Lois Zimmerman were initiated into the local honor society, Book and Motor. Other members were initiated last semester into the national honor societies; Sigma Delta Pi, Sigma Tau Delta, Pi Omega Pi, Alpha Epsilon Delta, Kappa Delta Pi, Phi Sigma Mu, and Theta Alpha Phi.

Our songmistress, Edith Ludwig, student director of Treble Clef, is the only person to win the original song contest twice. Edith wrote the prize-winning musical comedy which was given over Homecoming weekend. Nine Delta Zetas had active parts in the presentation of the show.

Other Gamma Tau musicians are Joanne Dunn; and Joyce Schmidt who toured with A Cappella Choir to Florida this February.

On March 18, Gamma Tau conducted its first initiation ceremonies for Bessie Albano, Cleveland, and Lois Zimmerman, Tiffin, O.

Our four new pledges were presented during the D.Z. Dreamland winter formal. This was held in the Masonic Temple, December 16. As each girl was presented, she wished upon a rose and placed it in the water fountain which was in the middle of the dance floor.

On January 13 campus sororities held open house tea attended by six hundred rushees in formal rush.

At our annual Christmas party instead of exchanging presents between individuals, groups gave the following gifts to the house: ash trays and cigarette dish, sugar tongs, a dozen decks of playing cards, dinner cocktails, a silver compote, a silver table-lighter and paint for the smoker. A silver tea set was given by the president, Mary Conroy.

We entertained eleven members of the Indiana University faculty at a Sunday evening dinner in their honor.

Epsilon is grateful to Miss Ruth Simering for the gifts she has given us. For the president, she gave a Delta Zeta bracelet and gold medallion to be worn at formal occasions; for the rush chairman she gave a silver rose bracelet; and for a scholarship award a tiny gold lamp.

Indiana State Day will be in the Riley Room of the Claypool Hotel, Indianapolis, Indiana, on April 28. This will be the scene of an Epsilon rally.

Alpha Eta gave a very successful tea at the chapter house on December 3 honoring our patronesses. Sorority and fraternity housemothers, sorority presidents and faculty members were invited. Another important social event which proved to be a great success was our Christmas party where Mary Helen King, our president, substituted for Santa Claus, and distributed gifts to our dates.

We had great pride in seeing two of our girls in play production. Talented Marilyn Begole was seen in Shakespeare's "Caesar and Cleopatra," in which she played the role of Cleopatra. Marilyn Floridias sang one of the roles in the Gilbert and Sullivan Society's production of "The Gondoliers." She was also selected for the singing chorus of the annual JGP, the Junior Girls Play. Marian Gessner is also a member of the publicity committee for JGP. Sue Wilcox received news this month that she was awarded a research assistantship from the psychology department for the next semester.

Albion College—Beta Pi

Beta Pi placed second in the scholarship competition among the twelve sororities and fraternities on campus last fall. Shirley Sias won the cup given by the graduating seniors of the class of 1950 for the most improvement in marks in the sorority.

In Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges are, Maureen McLain, Barbara Coulter and Doris Leenhouts.

Sigma Alpha Iota, national music sorority, pledged another Delta Zeta this fall, Doris Neidlinger.

Diane Adams, Jane Ann Hogue, Barbara Larson and Elizabeth Renfrew were pledged in December.

Harriett Bennett was Delta Zeta's attractive addition to the Greek Goddess' court at the annual Interfraternity Council Ball this year.

When the Albion College Players presented the Shakespearean tragedy, "Macbeth," Eva Krohns portrayed one of the three witches. Barb Coulter and Doris Neidlinger took part in the ensemble which recorded the specially composed intermission music for the play.

Alice Cripe was a participant in an Albion panel discussion at the state discussion festival held in Ypsilanti concerning "The Welfare State."

Mercedes Erickson was a soloist with the Madrigal Singers when they sang a Bach cantata on several occasions this year. She also had a solo part in the annual A Cappella Choir Christmas concert.

Sara Dobie and Barbara Odgers participated in a Bach recital given by the music department this winter in memory of the composer Johann S. Bach.

Our annual winter formal was held in conjunction with the Kappa Deltas this year in Jackson. This was the first formal that we have had cooperatively with another sorority and it proved to be very successful.

Mrs. D. L. Randall, Miss Mary Jane Grabenstein and Madelyn Ellis were initiated into the chapter.

Christmas caroling provided a fun-filled evening before vacation. In place of our annual Christmas party, we gave a party for a group of local underprivileged school children.

Nancy Boyd and Doreen Webb were initiated into the Home Economics club.

A Beta Pi, Mary Ertell, was elected captain of one of the competing teams in the final Women's all-star volleyball game.

Our main project at the present is concentrated practice on our songs for the annual Sigma Alpha Iota Song Fest when we are hoping to equal our performance of last year and again win first place.

This year's rush parties included a Snow Man party, a Perfume party, a King Neptune party and our traditional Harem party. The results of the festivities are our new pledges.

They are Doris Bewernitz, Inkster; Irene Brahee, Flint; Jane Burnham, Lansing; Janet Eales, Lansing; Patsy Fricke, Flint; Bonny Lou Harris, Bay City; Jo Ann Hoffman, Lansing; Mary Kay Heuni, Lansing; Nan Arden Jenney, Lakewood, Ohio; Joyce Morey, Lansing; Karen Olsen, Berkeley; Johanne Olson, Detroit; Rita Sager, Grand Rapids; Suzanne Spencer, Melvindale; Gwendolyn Spillers, Ft. Myers, Florida; Joan Streadwick, Clawson; and Peg Woodward, Wheaton, Illinois.

To be initiated will be: Ann Keefer, Manuet, New York, and Caroline Smith, Long Island, New York.

One of the big school events is the annual Coronation Ball for R.O.T.C. members of Michigan State College. Every year each R.O.T.C. unit elects a girl to sponsor their group. This year, Marilyn "Corkie" Van Wonkle, a junior member of Beta Rho, was chosen to sponsor the Air Force Administration group.

Adding another honorary to her list of activities was Beta Rho's president, Fran Funk. The new addition is Kappa Delta Pi, national educational honorary.

Gayle Mathias, vice-president, received the honor of being chosen as publicity chairman for the 1951 J-Hop. There will be breakfast at the house for the DZs and their dates after this dance on both Friday and Saturday nights.

The activities pin was given to Grace Claxton for participating in the most activities during the past term. "Gra" is social chairman of the sorority, a member of Green Splash, sings in the M. S. C. Chorus, is on the sales staff of the Wolverine, the college yearbook, and a member of Sigma Delta Pi, national Spanish honorary.

A permanent scholarship key was given to Suzanne Chubb for keeping her grades high for two consecutive terms, while the floating scholarship key was awarded to Elizabeth MacKay for the greatest jump in scholastic standing during fall quarter.

A Valentine party will be held by the girls of Beta Rho for underprivileged children of the East Lansing vicinity. Valentine games will be played and refreshments will be served. These children will be adopted by the initiates as little brothers or sisters and meet with their big sisters for a treat once a week. This is to be our local philanthropic project.

Our pledges will be guests at a party given by their initiated sisters on January 27. All the girls will come dressed as their favorite songs and the best costume will receive a record as first prize.

The fifth annual Rose Ball will be held at the Hotel Olds American room on the night of February 16. Delta Zeta escorts will receive handsome leather stud boxes and rose boutonnières. To carry out the Rose Ball theme, on each dinner table will be centerpieces of Killarney Roses.

The annual winter formal was the main social event for Pi chapter. The theme, DZ Toyshop, was carried out by a carousel around the band, and a large cardboard Santa on one wall surrounded by younger brother's and sister's toys. The social chairman, Alice Lathrop, has a hint to pass on to others—red corrugated cardboard is an excellent material to use for decorating purposes. The back is marked in small squares to facilitate cutting. Also fireproof, ready-cut crepe-paper streamers are handy.

Our winter rushing was successful and we pledged some nine girls, and the next week we held our first real initiation. Once again our alumnae helped us by making eight beautiful white robes.

At Northerns' annual W.S.S.F. Carnival, Gamma Rho set up a "Come in and See" booth which held many surprises for those who were brave enough to enter. Contestants tried hard to engage "Mabel" by throwing rubber rings around the third finger of an old mitten on a broomstick.

For the polio benefit show given at the college on January 31, we Delta Zetas put on a stunt involving coordination and synchronization of 18 girls dressed in top hats, black skirts, white blouses and heels. The song was sung in three parts and actions proved to be precision plus.

Pledged to Gamma Rho Chapter on January 7 were: Barbara Anderson, Chicago; Donna Averill, De Kalb; Marilyn Braun, Belvidere; Bernice Gembica, Chicago; Betty Henry, Grand Ridge; Norma Hobin, Wheaton; Janet Long, Oak Park; Judy Panttila, De Kalb, and Lois Scharsick, Maywood.

Initiated to Gamma Rho Chapter on January 14 were: Dolores Broderick, Morrison; Collete Carstens, Peotone; Barbara Cunningham, River Forest; Phyllis Grandbois, Libertyville; Janice Hamper, Aurora; Marilyn Schmidt, Chicago; Pat Smart, Hindsdale; LaVerne Vick, Chicago, and Charlene Wakeley, Dixon.

Iowa State College—Beta Kappa

New pledges are: Lila Anderon, Independence; Jane Atwater, Des Moines; Darleen Bornschein, Sioux City;

Geraldine Delich, Creston; Jane De Young, Elgin, Ill.; Suzanne French, Park Ridge, Ill.; Jean Goul, Des Moines; Barbara Hollowell, Clinton; Phyllis Kennedy, Des Moines; Jacqueline Kettner, Elgin, Ill.; Lois Kors-lund, Eagle Grove; Ruanne Martin, Boone; Sally Schmitt, Sioux City; Joan Van Gronigen, Alton, and Marilyn Wright, Waterloo.

Marge Miller was recently initiated into Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary. Belva Lou Ross, our talented artist, was chosen for Delta Phi Delta, art honorary. Joy Pifko has been awarded her "I" for activities in W.A.A.

Beta Kappa is well known for its participation in musical activities. Marilyn Pierson was soloist for the annual presentation of Handel's "Messiah." She was also recently honored as "Musician of the Week" in the Iowa State Daily. Margaret Edgar, Vivienne Ritter and Joyce Stephenson play in the string section of the symphony orchestra.

Lee Engelhardt is chairman of Union 4-10 club, along with many of our members on key committees. Other members were busy with "Religion in Life Week" and the W.S.S.F. drive.

Jane Harder, one of our pledges, recently received the La Verne Noyes scholarship.

Our house officers were elected this January. They are: Margery Miller, president; Dorothy Jewett, vice president and pledge trainer; Norma Baedke, recording secretary; Angela Bryant, corresponding secretary; Dorothy Littig, historian; Belva Lou Ross, rush chairman; Emma Klopping, social chairman; Martha Hopkins, scholarship chairman, and Joy Pifko, treasurer.

We are looking forward to a spaghetti dinner and dance with an Italian theme to finish off our quarter.

Our new initiates include Shirley Belier, Verla Blevins, Betty Brodie, Lois Carol Brown, Bonnie Chase, Pat Harmon, Marilyn Hoffman, Lenette Newell, Geraldine Pratt, Carol Jean Prout, Dorothy Short, Sherry Sheffield, Ella Spomer and Donna Watson.

We also have four new pledges, Rosella Hughes, Fruita; Imogene Johnson, Estes Park; Ella Spomer, Miliken, and Jacquelyn Woods, Clayton, New Mexico. Ella was initiated with this last class.

Fraternities are not the only organizations losing their members to the armed forces. Marilyn Krumm is now Pvt. Marilyn Krumm, of the Women Marines. She has been in Parris Island, Georgia, since the first part of January.

Our president, Joyce Newell, was named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Kathy Henry was a candidate for "Most Popular Coed" sponsored by the Horticulture Department at their annual show.

The "Return Pledge" dance was presented on January 20. The initiates were taken on a train trip to Utopia and back. The tickets were punched by a uniformed porter as we boarded the train. Our trip was made more comfortable by pillows, marshmallows on a toothpick. Decorations included a train track all the way around the room with the stations along the way named for the initiates.

Open house for all fraternities on campus was held by all sororities, planned by the Panhellenic Council, on January 28.

Nebraska Wesleyan University—Beta Tau

Second semester has begun on the Wesleyan campus and Beta Tau is moving ahead in both sorority and campus activities.

Mary Evelyn Jackman (Mrs. James) was elected to Phi Kappa Phi, scholarship honorary. Betty Sheets, was elected to Psi Chi, psychology honorary.

Martha Clifton was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges. "Marty" was recognized for her work in Student Senate, Cardinal Key, Panhellenic Council, Band Cogs, Women's Athletic Association, and for her membership in honoraries including Pi Gamma Mu, social science, and Theta Alpha Phi, drama.

Three out of four girls receiving WAA sweaters for work in that organization were Delta Zetas. They are: Martha Clifton, Blythe Linder, and Pat Johann.

Both the Panhellenic Ball and our own Delta Zeta dinner-dance were very successful.

Missouri Valley College—Gamma Gamma

December 3 we held an informal coffee at the home of our patroness, Mrs. Immanuel Wittrup, for the faculty of Missouri Valley.

Miss Betty Lou Young, pledge, of Marshall, attended the National Student Christian Conference at Oxford, Ohio. She was one of the representatives for Missouri Valley's S.C.A.

The pledges are having a party for the initiates at the home of Betty Lou Young.

The initiates of Gamma Gamma are busily preparing for initiation, which will be held February 2.

We were glad to have Mrs. Bernice Hutchinson Gale, National Panhellenic Congress delegate, with us for a few days. Besides giving us helpful hints as to being better Delta Zetas, she told us many interesting stories that emerged from the 21st National Convention.

Winter-time means hayride-time here in Louisiana. Favrot's camp on the Amite river was chosen as our destination. Pledges entertained with a skit.

Our "Winter Formal" was held in the picturesque ballroom of the Old State Capitol. Snowmen and snowbanks were used to decorate the dance floor in the form of a skating rink. We were very happy to have many of our alumnae present.

We are proud of our twenty-three pledges' grades.

EDRIS O'NEAL, editor

University of Alabama—Alpha Gamma

Alpha Gamma pledged Margaret Lowrey, Tuscaloosa, and Sara Ann O'Rear, Carbon Hill.

Mrs. J. C. Grimes our province director, spent a week with us in November and offered us ideas which we all appreciated. She was with us for our Thanksgiving dinner.

The Delta Zetas and Phi Kappa Sigmas had a Christmas party for underprivileged children at the Delta Zeta chapter house on the afternoon of December 16. Twenty little boys and girls which had been chosen by the welfare agencies were shown a movie and showered with gifts. Santa Claus talked to them from the North Pole via radio. There wasn't a person in the house who was not deeply moved by the joy and appreciation which glowed in the eyes of the children.

We invited rushees to our standards program on December 14. Our guest speaker was Fridrick Hyde of the music department here at the university. He spoke to us on music for the clavichord in the 16th and 18th centuries, and played some selections on his clavichord.

Charles and Flora Barnes were the speakers for our standards program on January 11. They are advisers to Baptist students on the campus. They spoke to us on "honor."

The Delta Zeta pledge dance, the Twilight Ball, was on December 12. Decorations were planned and carried out by our social chairman, Janie Gillespie, on a Starlight theme.

"Moonlight and Roses" and Delta Zetas resplendent in evening dresses marked the annual Rose Ball of the Delta Zetas at Howard January 6. Miss Betty Lawler, president of the chapter, led the dance escorted by Bill Peeples. Rushees were present both at the dance and the breakfast, and after the dance the chapter received many wonderful compliments.

Pajama parties seem to be the favorite rush party for the Alpha Pi girls. New pledges are Cookie Crowder, Nancy Sparks, Jane Riddle and Marguerite Whiting.

A moonlight hike marked the beginning of the informal rush season at Howard for the Delta Zetas. Since the girls entering school in January do not go through formal rush, the sororities try to plan as many parties as possible for the first week. The Delta Zetas went on a hike up a mountain and had lunches on the ground around a large fire. The members and pledges entertained the rushees with Delta Zeta songs and skits, and the rushees showed their own talent by singing a few popular songs. Coffees and afternoon parties have been planned to follow up the hike for rush season.

University of Mississippi—Beta Beta

Beta Beta of Delta Zeta pledged Shirley Norwood and Muriel Thomas, both of Jackson. Later pledged Domena Mistilis, Oxford, Miss. and Ellen Fyfe, Whitehaven, Tenn.

The Beta Betas entered the following in the annual Parade of Favorites: Bety Aby, Vicksburg; Virginia Ann Echols, Flora; June Sneed, Ecru; Muriel Thomas, Jackson, and Joan Thomas, Jackson.

On the all-star volleyball back from last year are Ellen Wade, Elizabeth Brown and June Sneed, of the Delta Zetas. This year we placed Ellen Wade, Mary Ann Edge and Elizabeth Brown on the all-star team.

For Dixie Day, Delta Zeta went all out for a really fine show. The yard was divided into two parts. One side represented the old farmer with his milk can portraying the history of State College. The other side represented Ole Miss with a white picket fence and arbor. The slogan was: "Pappy went to State, but sent the kids to Ole Miss."

Alabama Polytechnic Institute—Beta Xi

The newest initiates of Beta Xi are: Joan Adkins, Betty Rae Crane, Barbara Davis, Joan Holcomb, Jackie Howell, Mary Lamar, Claire Lockett, Beryl Quinn, Jean Thomas, Ann Wainwright, Billie Sue Wanninger and Fleta Lou Williamson.

the parties they have attended. One of the most unusual ones was a "Poverty Party" given by Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The sorority gave a football party for the Sigma Nus and also entertained the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. The chapter held a Homecoming tea after the "big game" for Delta Zeta alumnae and friends.

Beta Xi has certainly had a fair share of honors on the campus. Betty Elliot and Annette Bailey have been initiated into Theta Epsilon; Sphinx, a local senior women's honorary society initiated Annette Bailey and Betty Sturkie. Nan Triplett is a new member of Owls, the honorary sophomore society. Jean Hamilton was one of the five girls elected by an all-campus vote to be in the Homecoming court. For Glomerata, school yearbook, Martha Owens was elected for the second year to be a beauty.

Winter rush closed with a party at the "Delta Zeta Ranch" and the pledging of the following girls: Billye Joyce Burgin, Birmingham; Juanita Harp, Birmingham; Ruby Dell Long, Mobile; Martha McQueen, Shawmut, and Marilyn Paler, Gadsden.

Sophie Newcomb College—Beta Upsilon

We were happy to play hostess to Mrs. Bernice Gale, national Panhellenic representative, when she visited our chapter recently. Her assistance and inspiration were of the highest and benefited all of us in the execution of our chapter offices.

We recently pledged Rose Agnew, Shirley Jackson, Ann Trice and Rae Zemmer all of New Orleans.

While Mrs. Gale was visiting us we initiated Delores Culotta, New Orleans; Yolanda Manatau of Brownsville, Texas, and Joanne Terranella of Dallas, Texas.

Jackie Rauch, our chapter representative to the past convention, led a Standard program discussion on Delta Zeta and the conventions.

In the social department our pledges were the guests of the Kappa Sigs at a party at the fraternity house.

And the initiates and pledges were the guests of honor at a party given by the Sigma Nus. We had our customary Christmas party when we entertain our mothers. All the pledges, initiates and alumnæ, with their mothers, were there.

Oklahoma A & M College—Alpha Epsilon

Pledged to Alpha Epsilon chapter at the close of the first semester: Pat Parnell, Marlene Rathbun, Colleen Hackney and Iris Foster. Initiation was held for the following: Margaret Gandy, Ann Davidson and Jane Harris.

The pledge class honored the members and their dates with a "one way" hayride early this fall. After a ride filled with song and a wiener roast with plenty for all, the group discovered that they had been forgotten by the driver of the racks. We had a chilly but merry time walking back to the chapter house wrapped in our blankets.

We had our annual barbecue November 18. Everyone dressed in western costume. We moved all of the furniture out of the living room and dining room and replaced it with bales of hay. "Chow" was served from a chuck wagon.

Our Christmas party was a great success, too. Santa Claus' helper Norma Hudson, distributed gifts to all that had been good the past year.

On December 15, the initiate chapter honored the pledge class with a buffet supper and a scavenger hunt. After the hunt was completed, the pledges and their dates gathered at Dorris Jeanne Browne's home for dancing and cards.

The annual Big and Little Sister Christmas party was held at our apartment on December 17. We exchanged gifts with Pat Mix acting as Santa. The refreshments were provided by the alumnæ chapter and the Beta Mother's Club.

On January 7, the Delta Zetas met their dream man candidates for 1951. The coffee was held at Pat Rowan's home.

One week later, on January 13, we had our "A" function at the Adolphus hotel roof gardens. The theme this year was Delta Zeta Winter Wonderland. A multitude of large white trees covered with snow, snow flakes and angel hair created an exciting winter effect. The highlight of the function was the presentation of Carol Flanders, our 1951 "Dream Girl" and Don Clark of Delta Chi, our "Dream Man." All arrangements were made by Pat Fisher, social chairman.

The main thing on the minds of all Alpha Psis is our new sorority house. Ground was broken on December 27, and the house will be ready for use by next fall rush. The house will hold thirty girls and has a large living room, game room and dining room. The game room opens into a large walled-in garden.

Southwestern University—Delta Zeta

Barbara Nicholson was chosen as the Delta Zeta beauty for the spring of 1950. The other beauty nominees were: Bettie Curtis, Beth Worth and Genelle Doering.

At the annual spring formal, Gradylene Jordan was announced as the 1950 Delta Zeta Dream Girl.

Beth Worth was elected as the Dream Girl of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Our new initiates include Rosemary Kenny, Janet Hinson, Hazel Dollahon and Sue Boehm. Rosemary was elected as the editor of the Southwester.

The Delta Zetas won the scholarship bowl for the second straight semester.

Our fall rush party was held. The setting was in storybook land. Janet Hinson was the narrator who presented the "nursery rhymes in accordance with Delta Zeta girls."

On September 28, the following girls were pledged: Ann Wilkinson, Katy; Dixie Gordon, Kennedy; Ellen Kenny, Sinton; Marjorie Zimmerman, San Antonio, and Peggy Bergstrom, Georgetown. These girls were our honor guests at the banquet which followed immediately after the pledge service.

With the new school year some of the offices were left vacant and elections for these offices were held with the following results: Loretta Davis, scholarship chairman; Janet Hinson, social chairman, with Rosemary Kenny as her assistant; Jan Peaslee, rush captain, with Jane Gale as her assistant; Hazel Dollahon, recording secretary; Genelle Doering, Standards chairman; Ruth Mary Bell, courtesy, and Sue Boehm, parliamentarian.

Evelyn Deschner was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

New Mexico A & M College—Gamma Xi

Gamma Xi won third place in the Homecoming float, carrying out the theme, "Pulling Together," and featuring nursery rhymes with our version of "Wynken, Blynken, and Nod." We also placed third in the annual "All Greek Stunt" contest.

Arla Hill, president, was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Arla is a botany major, a member of Phi Mu Tau, honorary fraternity of arts and sciences, panhellenic president, winner of the Physical Science Lab award in 1949, and winner of the Progress club scholarship in 1950.

Allana McCoy, vice-president, was awarded a scholarship of the Coronado Playmakers, and is also a staff member in charge of costumes and make-up. She won special acclaims for the costumes in the production of "Antigone," which was done in modern dress, and "The Importance of Being Earnest," which was an eighteenth century play.

Kenlyn West, secretary, is also a member of Phi Mu Tau as well as Sigma Delta Pi.

Two new pledges, Evelyn Brannon and Betty Van Huss, have been added to the pledge class.

The pledges held a candy sale in December and they plan to use the money to purchase a scholarship cup for the chapter. The pledges also gave the initiates and their dates a Christmas party.

Initiated into Alpha Iota chapter, December 9, Myraleigh Farnsworth, Los Angeles; Georgia Kunelis, Los Angeles; Carole Mercer, Los Angeles, and Pat Ringele, Bakersfield.

Taking a part in the AWS Songfest on November 13, chapter members dressed in white formals and capes and sang a three-part arrangement of "dream Girl."

Homecoming week brought much excitement and many surprises to chapter members. Theme for Homecoming was "Echo the Cheers of Yesteryears." Each sorority participated in the contest for house decoration prizes while fraternities gave their time to float entries. Alpha Iota's house decorations won the trophy for the most humorous house decorations. The trophy was awarded at the Trollos, a program of skits presented by the fraternities. It will belong to the chapter permanently.

A Christmas tree-trimming party was held in the chapter house on December 7. After completing the decorations, pledges surprised the initiated members with refreshments while everyone joined in singing Christmas carols.

On December 9, the chapter gave a dinner-dance for the new initiates in the Tournament room of the Pasadena Athletic club. The party was kept secret until after the initiation and the new initiate's dates were unknown to them until they were called for.

University of California, Los Angeles— Alpha Chi

The past semester has been a very happy and successful one for us at Alpha Chi. We had our downstairs re-decorated during the summer so we were ready with high spirits for rush week. We pledged nine girls, and added three more during post-pledging.

On October 24, the Founders' Day banquet was again held at our chapter house. A lovely dinner was served, and Mrs. Betsy Leach gave an appropriate talk.

Homecoming game was with Stanford this year, so the theme appropriately enough was "Frontier Bruin Brings Injun Ruin." For our float, we changed the wording a little to read, "Frontier Brewin' = (equals) Injun Ruin." We made a huge beer mug of blue and gold crepe paper flowers, angels hair making the foam on top. Our social chairman, Meredith Olson, in a Honky Tonk costume sat on the handle of the mug which revolved through the efforts of the pledges who pushed it around on a platform. On the floor of the truck we had two large Indians, their faces made of papier-mâché and their bodies of crepe paper flowers. These Indians were lying down, supposedly drunk from the frontier brew. We won first prize for "Theme." We now have another beautiful trophy to add to our collection.

Three of our girls, Joanne Hannum, Lucille Langdon and Joy Freeman, participated in the big "Frontier Days," the Homecoming show. Rosemary Lehmann, our house manager, was selected to be among the finalists for Queen.

Our annual Mistletoe Magic formal was held on December 2, at the Garden room of the Bel Aire hotel.

Our last social of the semester was a pledge Sox Hop given for the members at Martha Lou Stites' home in Burbank.

One of our most active members made Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. She is Barbara Downey. She had been active on the student council, class councils, A.W.S. and many other organizations on campus. Barbara is our activities chairman.

We have been working hard since the beginning of the school year anticipating a great rush season to be rewarded with 22 lovely pledges. The rushing began with a formal tea followed by a Chinese garden party. We had authentic help from the people of the Chinese temple. We all sat on the floor in our gay costumes and painted slant eyes eating Fu Young sundaes. Our basement became a Chinese theater for the entertainment. The third party was centered around a French cafe motif. Our basement was ideal for the red checkered table cloths, shutters, etc. Our members modelled their own clothing and looked very lovely. Pledged were: Joy Aspinwall, Carol Lee Banta, Mary Sue Britton, Joan K. Dahmert, Ann Droubey, Delta Duke, Patricia L. Eldridge, Loretta Harvey, Alice Hays, Marianne Jollis, Shirley Kerwith, Jacqueline S. Kugel, Joyce Lazzarini, Elizabeth Miranda, Ann Elizabeth Rogers, Madalyn M. Sandoval, Geraldine Sartain, Virginia Valli, Naomi Weiss, Della Crisham, Laura L. Johnson and Marjorie McClelland.

With this new and enthusiastic help, plans are being formulated for the annual A.W.S. Spring Sing. We have our eyes on the trophy.

Exciting plans are also nearing completion for our formal pledge dance to be held at the Sir Francis Drake in San Francisco. An impressive ceremony is being planned to introduce our pledges. They will appear through a Delta arch and step into a grand march led by our president.

Pledging ceremonies were held February 7. New pledges are: Carol Hanna, Lillian Poltere, Marie Turcott and Barbara Zeis. The 1951 rush week was certainly a successful one for Gamma Omicron.

Our first Dream Girl of Delta Zeta was crowned at the annual closed bid Christmas formal, "Mistletoe Magic," held in the Rose room of the U. S. Grant Hotel. Nell Buchanan was crowned with a coronet of pink roses. President Diana Smith, presented Nell with an engraved loving cup, also.

The San Diego alumnae chapter gave the college chapter a Christmas party in the House of Hospitality in Balboa park. They presented us with a beautiful new mirror for our room and also presented a new scholarship plaque.

Also during the holidays our pledges honored us at a dinner in pledge Ginny Smith's home.

Looking to campus activities now we see that ten of our girls are in the upper division counseling service. Nell Buchanan, Barbara Houston and Carolyn Deibert have been accepted into Cetza, honorary women's service organization.

Ann Seratti was honored to win one of two scholarships awarded each year to elementary teacher training students. Last year Nancy Fahien, now a teacher in the city, won this scholarship. And by the way, credit goes to Ann for planning our wonderful Christmas dance.

In a philanthropic way we have been cooperating with the San Diego Panhellenic by giving aid to their newly Winter term started off with a bang on January 7 when open house was held beginning winter rushing. After a week of rushing we pledged six girls on January 13: Doreen Glodfelter, Corvallis; Beverly Folstron, Salem; Patricia Johnson, Tigard; Maryanna Millar, Woodburn; Eleanor Nelson, Portland, and Alice Rowland, Rickreall.

The big reversia Ball, Mortar Board, was February 3. A banquet was held before the dance and the girls asked their dates over to dinner and presented them with novel corsages. The banquet chairman was Donna Stumpenhau.

On February 10, we initiated six girls: Dottie Basinger, Salem; Carol Kincaid, Astoria; Mary Ann Norton, Petaluma, California; Marjorie Robinson, Portland; Marian Wharton, Portland, and Barbara Worthy, Camarillo, California. Our province director, Miss Alice Dickey, was present for the initiation. A formal dinner followed in honor of the new initiates.

On February 17, we invited our dads up for the Dad's weekend activities. Before taking them to the Washington State-Oregon State basketball game, we held a banquet in their honor.

This term's house dance, put on by the freshmen, was held on March 3. It was costume and turned out to be a gala affair.

Initiation ceremonies were held February 4, for Barbara Baker, Boise Idaho; Joyce Barber, Tulalake California; Lila Carlson, Hermiston; Ruth Finney, Astoria; Carolyn Hoskins, Gaston; Joyce Langdon, Portland; Jacqueline Larios, Oregon City; Margaret Mainer, Longview, Washington; Marilyn Patterson, Oregon City, and Sella Wineberg, Vancouver, Washington. A banquet was held immediately afterward in honor of the initiated girls.

Omega's winter term formal dance was held January 20, with decorations carrying out the theme of "Snow Whirl."

Five girls recently became members of Student Union standing committees: Jean Lewis, publicity; Joan Jacobs, dance; Jacqueline Larios, cultural, and Ruth Finney and Joyce Langdon, concert. Sharon Anderson was chairman of personal relations for Religious Emphasis Week on the campus, sponsored by the University Religious Council, of which both Sharon and Joan Jacobs are members. Jean Lewis was publicity chairman of the International fun fest put on by the Y.W.C.A. and Joan Jacobs was ticket chairman for the W.A.A. Carnival. Sandra Scott has recently been pledged to Amphibians, women's swimming honorary and Joan Jacobs into the Junior Orchestis dance group. Co-chairman of the King of Hearts selection for the Annual Heart Hop dance was Omega Connie Ohlsen.

Donna Buse was one of seventeen students of the entire University of Oregon to make straight "A" grades, fall term 1950. Joan Cavey and Margaret Phelps made the honor roll. Ruth Finney was invited to Mortar Board's annual Smarty Party given in honor of all freshman women making a "B" average or above during fall term.

At the November meeting an interesting speaker from the League of Women Voters gave the chapter excellent advice on how to vote and what to look for in a candidate for public office.

In December we sorted and packed the canned goods and clothing we had brought for needy families. Our hostess, Betty Lauderdale, then directed us in charades and games.

The animals and dolls we had made for children stricken with rheumatic heart disease were brought to the January meeting at Doris Dyson's home. Our members had fun making them and we know the children will enjoy them. At this meeting we began our plans for a fashion show, to be held in the spring.

We held a Founders' Day luncheon at Adelphi College, the home of our Alpha Zeta chapter. New York City D.Z. alumnae were invited to participate with us at this luncheon. Our guests of honor included Dean Mildred French from the University of Connecticut, Miss Alice Woller who is province I-South director, and Mary Maloney Rimlinger, the L.I. nominee for D.Z. "Woman of the Year." Dean French gave a very interesting and entertaining account of her adventures while traveling along the west coast countries of South America, complete with a map to show the route of her journey. Ruth Wingate (Mrs. Arthur) of the L.I. alumnae was chairman of the luncheon and Miss Kay Fowler of the New York City alumnae was program chairman.

In November, we held a bridge party, again at Adelphi College. Eunice Weidner (Mrs. Harold) was chairman. The profits are for a hearing aid for a little girl in P.S. 47, New York City.

At the home of Eunice Weidner (Mrs. Harold), our members came forth with gifts for the children at the Children's Shelter in Mineola and with food packages to be sent to the Mathews family in England, as part of our participation in "Adventures in Friendship."

In January, we discussed support to the Cerebral Palsy Foundation in Nassau County and Ruth Earl showed Kodachromes she made in Bermuda last Easter.

NORTHERN NEW JERSEY

Two large rooms of Violet Cather's lovely home in Florham Park were completely taken over for our annual hobby show in November. Frances Penny had the largest number of hobbies, which included a collection of minerals, examples of her work in ceramics and weaving, and collections of antique spice boxes and miniature pitchers. Grace Poe was voted as having the most unusual hobby on display—three dimensional, shadow-boxed, dressed Godey prints. Charlotte Freygang displayed examples of weaving and ceramics. The largest exhibit was a choice, cross section of Lottie Dawson's extensive collection of frogs, which now has over 600 items. Our hostess showed hand made, silk lamp shades and some beautiful African violet plants.

A "white elephant" sale was the feature of the annual Christmas party held at the home of Vera Hallinger in Teaneck. The purpose of the party was to raise money for our philanthropy—layettes for the children of Norway. Gifts were contributed by each member, who then drew a card numbered and listing prices ranging from 1¢ to 75¢, which told the price she was to pay for the item with that same number. What a hilarious time we all had over these "gifts!"

About fifty of us and our husbands were present at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Howard T. Bonnett (Evelyn Warner), in Westfield for the January meeting. Evelyn told many unusual incidents about their trip through Europe. Dr. Bonnett, an outstanding member of the New Jersey camera club, brought back a complete film record of their trip, which we were thrilled to see. Evelyn also showed many of the gifts which they brought home.

February 22, our members and their friends at Koos Brothers in Rahway took part in our annual bridge for the national hearing aid fund.

Marion Brettner, our ways and means chairman, is leaving us to become area supervisor for "Welcome Wagon" in suburban Boston.

Alpha Kappa alumnae who returned to Syracuse on November 18, for the Colgate game were entertained by the collegiate chapter at an open house and buffet supper.

Early in December the alumnae and mothers assisted at a reception for Mrs. Charles Hayes, the new head resident of Alpha Kappa chapter. Representatives and head residents of all sororities, representatives and house-mothers of all fraternities, and faculty members were invited. Following the reception, the alumnae entertained Mrs. Hayes and Cleora Crosby, national field representative, who visited A K during December.

The January meeting was held at the chapter house. In addition to the regular business meeting, plans were made for the next meeting which falls on February 14 and will be a Valentine party. Husbands are to be guests, and Carl Buble will show pictures of vacation trips he and Katherine have taken recently. Reports of various members on their money-making projects showed we had been unusually successful with our Christmas cards and stationery, magazines, and miscellaneous items which are being handled by Viola Pollatsek, Irma Zimmermann, and Ina Taylor respectively—ably assisted, of course, by all alumnae. Vi and Ina were hostesses.

We are pleased with the response to our letter reorganizing the Alpha Kappa alumnae association. Many have already joined, and many others have notified their interest in the organization. We are now working on the second Alpha Kappa alumnae newsletter which will be in the mail shortly.

KNOXVILLE

The chapter began its fall activity by helping the college girls with rush. During the summer, the collegiate members redecorated the chapter room, with several additions given by the alumnae. Alumnae members made the beautiful floral drapes, and the association bought a new table for the room.

We have two brides in our group: Mrs. James Wilson, the former Gloria Ann Shreve, and Mrs. Frank Samples, the former Phyllis Smith. Martha Anne Williams, who worked in Nashville last year, is now back with us.

We enjoyed a lovely Christmas party at the home of Virginia White Johnson, where we exchanged gifts and each member gave a contribution to our hearing aid fund. We are looking forward to our spring benefit for the hard-of-hearing children.

LOUISVILLE

To go back a bit—to “the spirit of Christmas past”—at the home of Mrs. George Reinhart, a capacity crowd was entertained by Mrs. Walter Lips, with a demonstration on “Christmas Decorations for the House.” A lovely tea was served by the hostess assisted by Henrietta Redding.

At the alumnae Christmas party, held at the home of Margaret Lee Hanley, bridge was enjoyed by the guests and a gift exchange was held in the festive spirit of the season.

We are proud of Mrs. George Crutcher (Dorothy Jackson), who talked on the history of ceramics at a recent meeting. Dot gave a demonstration of her methods and displayed some of her work.

Our enthusiastic and hard working president, Sara Haile, is now teaching full time at Manual high school. She is capably handling the affairs of D.Z. alums and has made us all more Delta Zeta conscious.

A card party to be held March 1 at Voiture Hall, is taking our immediate attention. We plan this affair annually to supplement the building fund. A “parcel post” sale will be a feature.

Irene Boughton, our executive secretary, will be our guest in February. She is always an inspiration!

ATLANTA

The alumnae held their first fall meeting at the home of Helen Radke (Mrs. Joseph), with Rene Patterson (Mrs. Robert), as co-hostess.

Our Panhellenic sold tickets on a commission basis to two operas presented by the Atlanta Opera company in October and November. Delta Zeta exceeded its quota and made an excellent showing among the sororities participating. Plans are now being made for another presentation in the spring.

The most important day to Delta Zeta was celebrated at the Town House with Frankie Shannon (Mrs. James), as hostess and Jeanette Moon (Mrs. Cecil), and Jean Henderson (Mrs. Phillip), as co-hostesses. After a delicious dinner we had the traditional Founders' Day candlelight service presented by our officers. Tommy Mueller led the group in Delta Zeta songs.

Our November meeting was held at the home of Melba McBrayer (Mrs. M. A.), and consisted of a Christmas workshop. Jean Gaskin (Mrs. E. Reed), made baby cradles out of cigar boxes and the group sewed doll clothes and bedding for the cradles to be presented to an orphanage.

Rhett Sanders (Mrs. Spencer), assisted by Hazel Walker (Mrs. William), and Jane Green (Mrs. Henry), made arrangements for our Christmas party, a dinner-dance held at Wieuca Inn. Those who were unable to attend missed a grand time, not to mention fillet mignon.

We are having a well-planned year of service and social activities.

Jacksonville Delta Zetas entertained with a lovely holiday “At Home” for alumnae and college members in the home of Mrs. C. H. Hobbs, which was beautifully decorated in the Christmas motif. The honor guests were: Irene Leslie, Mary Ann Mayo, Shirley McLain, Lois Strickland, and Helen Wilson from Alpha Sigma.

The finance committee has given us good reports from a rummage sale and Christmas card sale.

LAKELAND

The chapter started the year by helping the Beta Mu's at Florida Southern college with rush week. We made 40 stuffed rabbits in pink and green for favors for their formal rush party. We were very pleased that they filled their quota.

In November, we had a rummage sale in order to raise money for a hearing aid. We cleared over forty dollars and, with what had been previously earned, reached our goal.

At Christmas, we entertained husbands and dates with a buffet supper and card party at Mrs. Walter Sandahl's home. Christmas decorations were used and, to add to the cheer, small inexpensive gifts were exchanged.

Delta Zeta acted as hostess to Panhellenic in February with a dessert bridge, featuring Valentine decorations.

MIAMI

Miami's biggest and happiest news is that our own beloved Portia Laughlin has been made national hearing aid chairman. We at home know how fine she is and we are sure all Delta Zeta will soon agree with us that Portia is the best and most competent chairman national headquarters could select.

Last fall found us barely completing Founders' Day activities when it was November 14—time to present our annual hearing aid benefit. This year Thelma Matheson really organized a super bit of entertainment at Miami's luxurious MacAllister hotel. Through arrangements with our own Thelma VanSteenberg, one of the city's women's clubs chorus presented some beautiful bits of harmony. Later they were joined by a Soroptomist group who presented a pageant of queens of history. An excellent procession of glamorous queens in most authentic costumes peculiar to their era, certainly kept the guests intrigued. The latter part of the evening was spent playing cards and accepting lovely door prizes given us by local merchants.

With the approach of Christmas, we always look forward to the evening when we join the college girls for some fun. Once again Inez Vardeman played hostess at her mother's home on Belle Isle, Miami Beach, Portia Laughlin, in her grand, enthusiastic manner, kept us really hopping with her clever "White Elephant" game.

January saw Delta Zetas meeting in their sectional groups.

AKRON

We started our winter activities by sponsoring a Weathervane community playhouse production "Light Up The Sky." This proved to be a successful money making project. After the play, alumnae, their husbands, and guests had coffee and cookies in the Red room.

In December we had our annual Christmas dinner party, with our husbands as guests. The party was held at the home of Courtney Snyder (Mrs. Donald), A P. Due to the capable planning of Louise Bellingier (Mrs. D. D.), Joan Musser (Mrs. Charles), Theta, Evelyn Simmons (Mrs. Russell), A B, and Helen Smith (Mrs. Edward), we enjoyed a lovely dinner and evening. As always, we had a white elephant sale, which not only was profitable, but also loads of fun.

At our January meeting held at the home of Bunny Feigert (Mrs. Carl), A, we made plans for the traditional spring benefit tea. The proceeds from the tea as well as the proceeds from the play and the white elephant sale will go to help Gamma Kappa chapter at Kent state university.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Annabel Baird (Mrs. Samuel), Θ, with Louise Bellingier as co-hostess. This meeting will be a bridge luncheon centered around the Valentine theme.

CLEVELAND

With the stepped-up tempo of fall activities, Cleveland alumnae of Delta Zeta found plenty to keep them busy. At the November dinner meeting, held at the home of Mary Ellen Spencer (Mrs. E. C., Alpha Omicron), we listened to Arlyn Huston's daughter tell of her trip to Europe that summer.

December's meeting was devoted to the holiday season with Mrs. George Taylor giving a talk on how to make unusual Christmas decorations with materials found in the average home. Hostess Wanda Gardner (Mrs. Michael, Gamma), served a beautiful cake decorated with reindeer and Christmas greeting. The Cleveland DZ alum group through the Cleveland Plain Dealer Give-A-Christmas plan aided a young Italian woman who is a recent D.P. arrival.

Last month our alumnae gathered at the home of president Ruth Lowery (Mrs. George C., Alpha), and enjoyed a pot-luck supper. Helen Hewitt, a most interesting and accomplished Delta Zeta who is a professional photographer and globe trotter, talked to us.

February and the coming months promise to be eventful ones. Our Panhellenic luncheon is on February 3, and State Day and the Panhellenic bridge tournament are both in the latter part of April.

Lucile Crowell Cooks (Mrs. Rudolph O., Alpha), and Sally Bowen Nixon (Mrs. Crawford, Alpha), journeyed to Bowling Green, Ohio for the installing of Gamma Tau chapter at Bowling Green university.

Our next meeting, to be held at the home of Marjorie Self Hall (Mrs. Wm. G., Alpha Pi), is to be a "brush party," staged by the Stanley company.

COLUMBUS

Our first meeting of the new year was held at the home of Martha Tilton Reissig, Θ. Twenty-four young women, members of the graduating classes of 1947-1950, were hostesses. All in attendance were keenly interested in our guest, Lillian LeCaptain of the Arlington beauty shop, who discussed coiffure art with personal demonstrations. Lucky girls who received complete hair styling (Mrs. LeCaptain even brought a hair drier!) were Virginia Griffith Vincent, Θ, Pat Miller Dudley, Θ, and Jane Fergus Ross, Θ.

Way back in November our own Lucille Watrus Pentz, Θ, popular Columbus monologist, gave the alumnae an excellent review of Thomas Costain's Son of 100 Kings. The meeting was held at the home of Betty LeFleur Barnhart, Θ.

DAYTON

After a busy fall, we started off our winter season in high spirits. Our November meeting was held at the home of Lois Westerman, Θ, where we were entertained by the College Women's play reading group, who read the amusing play, "The Gibson Upright."

The annual Christmas party, the highlight of the season, was held December 11. Frances Kehoe (Mrs. Jack), Θ, was our hostess and our program committee had clever games arranged. Our gift exchange provided added fun and excitement.

December 30 saw Dayton Delta Zetas and college girls home for the holidays, as guests of the Mothers' club at a luncheon held at the Women's club. Guest speaker Mildred Stibitz gave a book review.

One sad note to an otherwise fine season is that we bade goodbye to Donna Abbott Randolph (Mrs. Robert), A, who has moved to Cleveland. We are going to miss Donna, a province director and one of our most active members.

Our January meeting was held at the home of Virginia Bucher Daum (Mrs. Fred), A. Our guest speaker was Hazel Nolan from the Dayton better business bureau, who gave a very interesting talk. It was voted at that meeting that in addition to our other philanthropic projects, we sponsor a deserving local girl to a week's camping fee this summer.

Dayton alumnae are thrilled over having "State Day" in Dayton this year. Mildred Wade Lenning (Mrs. George), A A, is to be chairman. April 21 is the big day, and we are looking forward to welcoming our sisters in Delta Zeta from all over Ohio.

TOLEDO

The alumnae assisted with the pledging services of Gamma Tau chapter at Bowling Green state university and Fern Riley Wilson remained for the initiation and festivities.

We observed Founders' Day with a banquet at the Delf house. Fern Riley Wilson reported on the national convention.

Our November meeting was at the home of Dorothy Bardo Matheny with Marion Barth Wells as assisting hostess. After dessert was served, the manager of the china and glassware department of LaSalle's-Koch department store talked on "Table Settings."

We held our usual Christmas tea for the students who were home for the holidays. It was held at the Women's Club with Kay Cobb Root as chairman, assisted by Suzanne Kohn.

Panhellenic has voted to send congratulations to each sorority on its Founders' Day. Pat Smith assisted with the arrangements for the annual scholarship dance.

MARGARET BELL NICHOLSON, editor
LOU FAGAN BLACK, president

WESTSIDE CLEVELAND

Our November meeting was held in the home of Gail Kollie (Mrs. Owen). Mr. Carl Brown spoke to the group about his avocation of poetry writing and read a number of his poems.

The all-city Panhellenic dance, which many of us planned to attend, was snowed out that same month, cancelled via radio announcement at the last moment. Our rummage sale gave way to the blizzard too and is now scheduled for March, just in time for the spring cleaning of attics.

Gaily wrapped gifts for the Berea children's home were brought to the Christmas party at the home of Maxine Sparr (Mrs. Nathan). Our hostess officiated at a Scotch auction, which was a pleasant way to increase our treasury—so pleasant that we have decided to do it at all our meetings. Dorothy May (Mrs. Eugene), entertained the group with a reading.

The January meeting was held at the apartment of Alice Marie Evanick in Berea with Marjorie Hall (Mrs. William) and Ruth Lowery (Mrs. George), of the East-side group as special guests. Marjorie reviewed James Ullman's River of the Sun for us.

INDIANAPOLIS

Something new in Indiana State Day celebration is under way—thanks to the cooperation of Fort Wayne alumnae.

Because of the geographical location of the three college chapters—all within fifty miles of Indianapolis, which is right in the center of the state—it has always seemed impractical to attempt a State Day celebration anywhere but Indianapolis. However, it didn't seem fair to other alumnae chapters not to let them in on some of the fun and work involved. (Could be, too, that the local group felt that it was running out of ideas—after thirty-three State Day luncheons.)

At any rate, the Fort Wayne alumnae were approached about taking over the responsibility for this year's program and decorations. They accepted, working hard to make the day a memorable one. If they enjoy their part in this year's affair, it is expected that these responsibilities will be rotated from one Indiana alumnae chapter to another each year, with Indianapolis handling reservations, arrangements with the hotel, and other details.

Our January meeting at the home of Anita Brownlee Platte (Mrs. Robert W.), A N, found us listening to a talk on "The Romance of the Diamond," and, at a short business meeting, considering a new money-raising project. Ruth Railsback Armstrong (Mrs. Robert D.), Delta, described the highly successful fund-raising campaign carried on by the women of her church of which she was chairman. Each member was given a small sum of money and asked to use that money to make more money. As she described the ingenious ways the women chose to use their talents and the money, our group decided that would be an interesting, novel way of increasing our funds. Action will be left to the new ways and means committee, however.

A Delta Zeta mother, Mrs. George Wear, who is a gardener of note, talked on "Chrysanthemums" at our February meeting. Mary Small Allen (Mrs. Robert E.), A, was our hostess.

Jean Wells Farley (Mrs. Wayne), A B, was speaker on "United Nations" at our March meeting.

Our April meeting will be held at the local gas company auditorium. Betty Hoklas, Gamma, who is on the utility's home economics staff, will talk on "Kitchen Arrangements."

We basked in reflected glory when our Frances Westcott, A A, was chosen by the local Chi Omega alumnae to speak at their annual guest meeting.

The alumnae association is planning and looking forward to the annual State Day banquet to be held in April in the Union Building on Michigan State's campus. Lois Banzet, instructor of written and spoken English at the college, is our capable State Chairman and chairman of this event.

In the more immediate future, we are planning tables for the City Panhellenic bridge benefit this month, which promises to be a lovely affair with a style show, bridge, prizes, and dessert.

Throughout the past few months, an exceptionally snowy winter, we have met at the chapter houses. We enjoyed a party with husbands in the home of Mrs. Gregory Dean at Christmas time.

CHAMPAIGN-URBANA

Our meetings this year have been held at the Alpha Beta chapter house, where the college members may join us for the social hour.

The November meeting with Carolyn Fuhrmeister Touchberry (Mrs. R. W.), B K, and Frances Ruckman, A B, as co-hostesses was taken up with final arrangements for the annual bazaar. This affair, held at the chapter house on December 2, proved successful financially and socially.

At the annual Alpha Beta corporation meeting, two Champaign-Urbana alumnae were named to office: Helen Schaefer Henson (Mrs. Wesley), as president and Helen Porterfield as treasurer.

After a short business meeting, the December social hour took place around a lighted Christmas tree with the Alpha Beta girls joining us in singing Christmas carols and exchanging gifts.

In January with Geneva Schatz Williams (Mrs. L. F.), and Ida Lee Austin Wilson (Mrs. Winfred), acting as co-hostesses, we played bridge and canasta.

We are looking forward to February when Alice Appel will give a resume of her trip to Europe; and to March when Helen Henson's sister-in-law, who is a native Estonian now living in Champaign, will give us some firsthand information on conditions in Europe.

CHICAGO

The afternoon group, captained by Verna Magnuson Kummer (Mrs. G. L.), A A, has launched upon a series of parties for the purpose of getting better acquainted with the members of Alpha Alpha chapter. The pledges were the recipients of the first invitations issued by the group for a get-together in the home of Dulce Butterfield Willison (Mrs. S. S.), Ω, on the eve of November 28. Informal mingling of pledges and alumnae was accomplished by the solution of picture puzzles in which the contestants assembled the jumbled parts of Delta Zeta lamps. Other groups entertained have been the sophomores, juniors, and Delta Zeta mothers and their teenage daughters. The final affair of the series will be a luncheon on May 5, for the seniors.

The North Side-North Shore annual alumnae Christmas party was held at the Ridgeville community house in Evanston, December 14. The price of admission was a wrapped toy, tagged for boy or girl, for the Ada S. McKinley community home (project of Gamma Mu chapter). Festive motifs of evergreen and Christmas bells, which adorned the house, provided a warmth and joy in keeping with the Christmas season. A note of hearty merriment in the evening's entertainment centered around the mistress of ceremonies, Margaret Fry Griesel (Mrs. L.), A Θ, who conducted a quiz program. Contestants were awarded handkerchiefs, fruit cakes, corsages, and candies. Congratulations to Dorothy Mohr, A A; Toni Pantelis Hewes (Mrs. W. F.), N; Neata Skinner Hutchins (Mrs. Bion), A Φ; Marie Moss, A A; and Dorothy Pergande, A Λ, for a successful party.

On December 28, at the Mills House in Oak Park, Delta Zeta alumnae were hostesses at a party for the undergraduate members and pledges living in greater Chicago. In spite of ice, snow, and zero temperature members from six college chapters were present. Gaiety reigned throughout the evening while the girls played "fifty" or chatted with new and old friends over cups of spiced tea. The capable chairman for the holiday event was Frances Benallack Benowicz (Mrs. C. A.), A A. She was assisted by Shirley Oyen Kaad (Mrs. H. C.), A B; Dorothy Mohr, A A; Dorothy Tempte, A B; and Jane Wescott, Δ.

GALESBURG

The Galesburg alumnae chapter has elected the following officers for the coming year: Catherine Quigley Goode (Mrs. Louis), Nu, president; Beulah Whitman Graham (Mrs. Willis), Nu, vice-president; Edith Dopp Bryngleson (Mrs. A. B.), Nu, secretary; Alice McCreary Malcolm (Mrs. R. F.), Nu, treasurer.

In November we met with Pat Peterson (Mrs. Ernest), where plans and programs were made for the year and more information was received concerning the German family to whom this chapter has been sending gift boxes.

Mrs. Fred McKenzie, a patroness, was hostess to our group for the annual Christmas party. Ann Weinmann showed colored slides and gave a talk on her recent European trip. Assisting hostesses were Bertha Metcalf, Maurine Carlson, and Mary Johnson.

The January meeting was held at the home of Edith Bryngleson. Jane Potts gave a preview of the new novel "Mrs. Gilbert Lancaster, III" written by Jessie Emerson Moffat, a Delta Zeta from Ohio State. Mrs. Potts had an autographed pre-publication copy on display.

Continuing the precedent of the national organization of Delta Zeta in honoring outstanding members, plans are being made to entertain Gail Brook Burket of Evanston, Illinois. She was one of the four Delta Zetas named to a court of honor to the sorority's "Woman of the Year." Mrs. Burket is a member of Alpha Beta chapter and the Chicago alumnae chapter. She will be the guest speaker at a tea to be held at the Panhellenic House at Knox in April. Guests will be the college chapter, the English professor of Knox college and representatives of each sorority on the campus.

The alumnae group was invited to the initiation of fifteen girls into Delta Zeta Sunday morning, January 14, at the Panhellenic House. A breakfast was served afterward.

MADISON

The gleaming silver trophy won the evening before at the Campus Carnival drew many admiring glances Sunday, November 12, when the pledges entertained the alumnae at a tea at the chapter house. Another item of unusual interest was the pledges' scrap book, an intimate record of the pledge activities illuminated by the artistic pen of Laurie Lake, pledge president.

Historic College Club provided an impressive setting for the annual party for pledges held November 14. Hostesses were Patty Markham Reese (Mrs. John H.), Ruth Schmidt Fuchs (Mrs. George), Mary Naset Idhe (Mrs. Keith), and Georgia Marquard Weber (Mrs. Leroy). D.Z.'s on other campuses were sketched by Dorothy Warner Gibson (Mrs. Ralph), Pi, Edith Foster Nystrom (Mrs. Paul), Gamma, Winifred Walsh, Gamma Eta, and Wanda Hawley, Beta Rho. A humorous reading by Patty Reese and songs by Mary Idhe rounded out a delightfully intimate evening for the fifty pledges and alumnae attending.

A talent sale provided profitable fun at the Christmas meeting, December 12. With Delta Cnare (Mrs. Robert), chanting the bids, the competition was spirited and oft-times fierce as exquisite hand-wrought jewelry, pen and ink sketches, rosemaling and countless other desirable items were offered. (A profit of almost $40 was realized.) Hostesses were Delta Siekert Cnare (Mrs. Robert), Jane Hintz Quisling (Mrs. A. A.), and Gladys Lowry.

The fourth annual dinner for dates (husbands or boy-friends), was held at the chapter house, December 17. Under the capable direction of Delia Lavin (Mrs. Ralph), assisted by Helen Pavlak (Mrs. Ray), and Lizetta Lautz (Mrs. Harold). Arrangements of pine branches down the center of the tables provided background for the gaily wrapped toys which provided merriment when opened as well as later when taken home to the children. Music for singing carols and for dancing was provided by "Bobbie" (Roberta) Syverson's husband, John, and another member of his orchestra, Verne Veseley, magician Lizetta Lautz (Mrs. Harold), entertained at her home for the January meeting, at which time plans were made to entertain the Mothers' club in February. The talented Lautz children provided piano and accordion selections before the bridge playing.

DES MOINES

Outstanding speakers have added great interest to the Des Moines Delta Zeta alumnae meetings this year. Mrs. R. H. Souder, who has a Delta Zeta daughter, told us of her trip westward around the world at our November meeting. Myrtle Meyer Eldred, whose column "Your Baby and Mine" is nationally syndicated, discussed the inspiring work of Blank Memorial hospital guild, in aiding that local children's hospital, at the January meeting.

This year we've surpassed our previous successes in the sale of Christmas cards and pecans, our profit exceeding two hundred dollars. It is planned to use much of that for the purchase of dishes for Gamma Epsilon chapter at Drake.

Marguerite Havens (B K), national secretary, accompanied by Eda Harper (I), traveled to Cedar Rapids to address the January dinner meeting of the alumnae group there.

TWIN CITY

Since our last LAMP letter, we have turned much of our meeting time and enthusiasm over to "Carnival." Inez Crimmins is the enthusiastic general chairman. Myrtle B. Johnson is promoting the advance sale

In November Dorothy Owen Knop (Mrs. Harman), A A, opened her home to us and in spite of the stormy weather, attendance was wonderful.

A Christmas program was presented at our December meeting, held at the home of Della Burgess Schneck (Mrs. J. W.), Tau. Jeanne Marks, Tau presented a dance and Ruth Benz Reimann (Mrs. Walter K.), Tau, entertained us with a reading. We closed the evening with group singing.

Without a doubt one of our most interesting programs was the one presented at our January meeting at the home of Virginia Maegli Knudsen (Mrs. Ansel M.), Tau. Captain Gladys Christian, who is stationed with the Salvation Army here in Milwaukee at the Martha Washington Home for Unwed Mothers, was the speaker. She told of case histories in her experiences, of the kinds of girls who enter the home and of their reactions to their situations and how the Salvation Army helps these girls.

In addition to our regular meetings, the alumnae group has had several other get-togethers including an evening of dancing in late November. Proceeds from the dance will be used to enable us to purchase another hearing aid for some deserving Milwaukee child. Then during the Christmas holidays Harriet Garley Narrin (Mrs. Elgin), A A, opened her home to entertain Milwaukee area college members and pledges at a tea. All in all, we've had a busy winter season and we look forward to an even busier spring.

of tickets. The variety of attractions at the carnival is requiring the aid and ideas of many alumnae and their husbands. There will be movies, polaroid pictures with all the "props" to make tintype pictures, fortune telling, door prizes, and bingo. A complete food sale from hot dogs to cookies, cakes, and coffee will provide supper and also "take-home" possibilities.

A fine Christmas party included both evening and afternoon groups. Elinor Ahern and Sylvia Varrio were co-hostesses. Mary Lynne Nuessle, one of our talented alums, gave Christmas readings. We sang carols and played bingo, under the direction of Gwyneth Nicholson.

Although December in these parts was cold and stormy, the afternoon meeting was held at Adele Zimmerscheid's home, assisted by Ruth Lofelmaker. When the January thaw came full force, attendance at the luncheon meeting at Marjorie M. Engels' home was nearly record. Jane K. Jensen assisted Marjorie.

We are proud of the fifteen alumnae that turned out Saturday afternoon, January 6, for formal rushing on the campus.

After working hard on carnival plans, the evening group is looking forward to a dinner downtown with a well known speaker and the afternoon group will relax at Alice Bowers' home at a musicale.

Our alumnae chapter had its annual rummage sale on November 11. It turned out to be such a success, it was held over another day. Part of the money will be used to buy the college chapter a punch bowl. The remainder of the money will go into the alumnae chapter.

Despite zero temperatures and a very snowy night, we had a nice turnout for our Christmas party at the chapter house. A gift exchange was the high point of the evening.

Our bridge clubs, started by Mrs. Edward Kirk, are still going strong. Our last meetings were held at the homes of Clarice Donly Gardner (Mrs. Thomas), and Maxine Hyland. The third club met at the chapter house. At the present time we have nearly fifty members with all proceeds going into the chapter housing fund.

Hazel Sharp, Alpha Phi, is at Wiesbaden, Germany, teaching large classes of youngsters. Her letters are filled with interesting items about trips and people.

One newcomer, Phyllis McCracken Cooper (Mrs. Carlos), of Beta Kappa, attended our Christmas supper and meeting.

The third Monday evening of each month is an important date for the Kansas City alumnae. A buffet supper, followed by a business meeting, is held at the home of a member, with assisting hostesses. Among the excellent cooks are Marjorie Kiene, Kathryn Maichel, Jeanette Hoehn, Meredith Gould and Eleanor Moore, and more good cooks are on the calendar for the new year. We promise any visiting Delta Zeta or newcomer a good meal and friendly visit with our group.

OMAHA

The Omaha alumnae chapter met in November at the home of Dagmar Hosman. We voted in favor of one summer rush party, as will be asked of the various sorority groups by the Omaha Panhellenic. We also decided to contribute to the March of Dimes.

Our Christmas party was given at Gretchen Wetherbee's, with a gift exchange and a lovely luncheon. We continued our philanthropic efforts by contributing to the Salvation Army Christmas fund.

During the holidays, a chocolate hour was given honoring Delta Zeta pledges and their mothers. The party was at the home of Olive Landale, with Dorothy Betts in charge. It was a grand opportunity for getting acquainted with our new pledges—Joan Swartzlow from Denver University, Janola Harter from Iowa State College, and Sarah Adams from the University of Iowa.

In January we met at the Omaha Athletic Club.

MONTGOMERY

The Delta Zeta alumnae in Montgomery, organized a year in August, applied for and received their charter from the National Council of Delta Zeta.

Our new officers are: Margaret Sue Denton, president; Mary Frances Davis (Mrs. Raborn), vice-president; Louise Tolbert, secretary; Dorothy Cason Peacock (Mrs. Maxwell), treasurer; Carolyn Beard Johnson (Mrs. Shaffer), editor; Polly Landers Owen (Mrs. C. C.), publicity; and Nellie Fuller Tisdale (Mrs. M. E.), courtesy.

We gave a rush luncheon in August at the Town House, and in September gave a tea for thirty-five guests in the lovely home of Dorothy Peacock. College members of the Auburn and University of Alabama chapters helped us with the entertaining.

At the November meeting each of us brought cans of food for an unfortunate family for Thanksgiving. We had enough for two families and voted to buy meat and perishable foods to add to each basket.

During the Christmas season we had a party at which our husbands had a chance to get better acquainted. We brought toys and sent them to three children who would have had no "Santa Claus" otherwise. Our husbands even pooled their change to provide the Christmas sweets and fruit.

NEW ORLEANS

We posted our last letter wondering if winter would ever come. It has! New Orleans has had plenty of cold weather this year, but the chill has not managed to lessen the heat of the New Orleans alumnae chapter's determination to lure some of our less active members into taking a more active part in our program. With the college chapter now well established with its 18 pledges, we alumnae felt lost with no immediate plans in view. So, early in November, we began planning a Valentine party to entice more of our large group in New Orleans to come out and help us make plans for the future—in other words a rush party for the alumnae. Janie Carter and Mignonne Huck worked up some wonderful ideas for invitations in the vein of—"You are breaking our hearts; let's get together again." So during the December and January meetings we were all busy cutting red hearts, pasting, and printing. With so much good planning, we are looking forward to a gay Valentine Day and a successful turnout of New Orleans alumnae.

We have our Founders' Day banquet as the highlight we look back on since our last letter. It was held at the Metairie country club where the surroundings are lovely and the food of the best. Our banquet is always one of our most enjoyable activities of the year. Joyce Cravolet, chairman of the advisory board, presented the two alumnae awards to members of the college chapter: to Alberta Retif, outstanding pledge of the year; and Mary Jane Carr, outstanding initiate.

TUSCALOOSA

The Tuscaloosa alumnae group is proud to have its first letter published in the LAMP. Although we have been organized for many years, we have not been affiliated as a chapter because of our fluctuating membership.

Our officers, who have led us so ably in the past year, are Norma Lee Newton, president; Ruby Tillman, vice-president; and Laura Jane Smith, secretary-treasurer.

We ushered in the fall by helping the college chapter redecorate the downstairs of Alpha Gamma's house. We assisted with the selection of drapes and chair coverings and contributed glass pieces as window decorations.

At each meeting, the members bring magazines which we take to Bryce hospital, the Alabama state asylum for the insane. This is a worthwhile project and one which has brought recognition to Delta Zeta. Our most important project is the family we have adopted. Each member brings canned food to each meeting and in this way we have enough at Thanksgiving and Christmas time to give our family a real treat.

Our last meeting was a supper, which we enjoyed at a local restaurant.

DALLAS

The winter season has been very exciting for the Dallas alumnae chapter. First of all, our wishful dreaming of a Delta Zeta house on the SMU campus has been realized with the groundbreaking on December 28. Our home, arranged to house 30 girls, features built-in furniture for the bedrooms. The other furnishings will be supplied by our group from funds raised through a project-a-month plan. It includes a fashion sale, card sale, bazaar, and a dance-game party, in addition to our monthly fund-raising suppers. This fashion sale might be of interest to other groups. We are to bring to meeting mis-purchases, merchandise bought in moments of enthusiasm, but which later proved unsuitable. This good but dormant material, when offered at our reduced prices, will find a ready buyer. All proceeds from these efforts will swell the furniture fund.

Our meetings, too, have been interesting. In November, Jeanne Dickinson Gross (Mrs. Charles H.) A Ψ, spoke on the influence of the 20th century on mid-century fashions. Then, in December, Mrs. L. L. Douglas delighted us with a talk on Christmas floral decorations, illustrated with actual floral arrangements and displays. The remainder of the evening lent itself to pure fun with Yuletide games and songs directed by Virginia Lovejoy Bowers (Mrs. M. B.) BA.

At our January meeting, Betty Chapman, A Ψ reminded us of what benefits we had reaped from our association with Delta Zeta. Then she asked each of us to recall some aspect of our present day activities which were correlated with our college day affiliation with Delta Zeta. We reached the grand conclusion that, thanks to Delta Zeta, we have gained life long benefits. We are better friends, business women, mothers and citizens. Try this "what have we gotten out of our sorority" discussion at your next alumnae meeting. This group participation makes for a stimulating evening.

FOOTHILL

The November supper meeting of Foothill alumnae at the home of Roberta Peterson Adams (Mrs. Irving, Jr.) A A was unusually well attended. The business meeting was preceded by an illustrated talk on antique and modern china by Mr. Charles R. Service, authority on ceramics. We gained much insight into the history and manufacture of china from his talk and from the beautiful examples of fine china he brought with him. At this meeting a new money-making project was inaugurated. One of our members, who is a representative for Avon cosmetics, agreed to donate to our treasury her commission on all sales made to our members.

Our annual Christmas party was held at Sally Harvey's (Mrs. David) A I. After a delicious turkey dinner prepared by our hardworking hostesses we had a merry time playing games, drawing door prizes, and exchanging "white elephants," many of them being highly amusing objects.

In January we met at the home of Valeria Almon (Mrs. H. P.) M. The highlight of the evening was a most illuminating talk on "Women of Africa" by Mrs. Ira D. Warner. Mrs. Warner and her husband, Bishop Warner, spent half a year in British West Africa among the natives inspecting missions. She showed us lovely textiles, beads, and other examples of native arts and crafts and told us of many tribal customs and of the benevolent influence of Christianity on these famine-stricken people.

GLENDALE—BURBANK

During a busy holiday season, we presented gifts to the two local university chapters, and to Olive View tubercular Sanitarium and Foothill Club for the blind. In the way of fun, we had our annual dinner party at the home of Helen Hagen. Ruth Bennett planned a delicious dinner and an evening of fine entertainment including outstanding violin selections by her son, Edward. Carol singing and exchanging old-fashioned homemade gifts gave the evening a real Christmas spirit.

Board members have been entertained recently by Betty Reep and Ruth Bennett. Regular bridge sessions have been arranged by Betty Williams, and the regular January business meeting was held at the home of Eloise Newcom. A benefit theater party is planned for February with President Grace House and Treasurer Betty Reep making necessary arrangements.

We presented recognition pins to two daughters of outstanding members, Patti Lu McDaniel and Marthalou Stites, who have pledged Alpha Chi Chapter at U.C.L.A. Catherine McDaniel and Marian Stites are both past presidents of our group, and to further honor their daughters, as well as the other pledges of U.C.L.A. and U.S.C., Marian opened her home for a Sunday tea. Many outstanding alumnae were present, as well as Anna Greta Berg and Connie Hug, exchange students between U.S.C. and University of Oslo, Norway. This was an especially beautiful affair because of the corsages and decorations of exquisite orchids grown and presented by Mr. Stites. Marian was assisted by Grace House, Ruth Bennett, Betty Reep, Violet Kearney, Ruth Jaeneke, Eloise Newcom, Catherine Shorb, and Helen Hagen.

HONOLULU, T.H.

In November we had our business meeting at the home of Gerry Mullen (Mrs. Robert L.). We enjoyed the conversation and dessert on her beautiful lanai.

Ann Benner (Mrs. Harlen) had her home cozily decorated with poinsettia plants and small Christmas trees for our Christmas party. There was a fire going in the fire place and even though there was no snow outside the atmosphere was very much like the mainland. We brought little gifts for exchange. There was a nice turn out and a good opportunity to have a surprise baby shower on our president Marilyn West (Mrs. William, Jr.).

Our election of officers was held after a luncheon at the Waioli tea room, in a truly Hawaiian setting. Officers elected were Ann Brenner (Mrs. Harlen), president; Phyllis Evans (Mrs. John R.), vice-president; Mary Lou Appleton (Mrs. Charles) secretary-treasurer.

Flora Scott and Pat Smeed, our representatives, have done a good job with Panhellenic this year.

The group out here is rather small but we are growing and becoming more vigorous. Again "Aloha Nui Loa."

LONG BEACH

An interesting Christmas party was held at the home of Daphne Turk. A silver offering was taken to be used for a gift to the Alpha Iota chapter house in Los Angeles.

At the January meeting Margaret Smith reported the gift had been taken to the Alpha Iota house at U.S.C. and greatly appreciated by the girls. Irene Frost then displayed the fifty beautiful doll dresses she had made for the Adelaide Tichenor clinic and told us of one hundred dresses she made for a local hospital.

LOS ANGELES

The annual Los Angeles alumnae Christmas party was held at the home of Sarah Muller on December 9, with a festive holiday luncheon and an exchange of gifts.

The first alumnae meeting of the new year was held at the home of Gladys Marquardt on January 13. One of the highlights of the luncheon was our sampling of the recipe which won for Barbara, daughter of Jane Hartman Maddock, third prize in a recent national contest sponsored by nation-wide milling company.

On November 25, Helen Wilson Ives and her husband expected to observe their 25th wedding anniversary. Both Helen and Harold have many relatives and friends in Southern California who wanted to share this happy occasion with them, so arrangements were made to hold a reception for the Ives' at the Alpha Chi house in Westwood, to which the local Delta Zetas were also invited. Maude Miller Black of Alpha Iota designed a very clever silver tree, consisting of a miniature plastic tree frame decorated with dollar bills (25 of them) wrapped in cellophane and tied to the branches. The reception was a huge success.

Plans for spring rushing at Alpha Iota and Alpha Chi chapters are brewing, and alumnae are looking forward to sharing in the activities with both groups. Southern California State Day will be observed at the end of April or the first Saturday in May of this year.

A fashion tea is being planned for May 26 at Bullock's Westwood.

MONTEREY PENINSULA

In November, Dr. Luella J. Hall, Upsilon '17, was hostess to the Monterey Peninsula alumnae chapter at her home in Salinas. The meeting was given over to a discussion of our local hearing aid project.

The December Christmas party for our husbands was an enjoyable potluck dinner with bridge and canasta at the home of our vice-president, Mary Louise Powers Arehart (Mrs. A. A.), M '24, in Monterey.

Our January meeting was at the home of Amy Salmons Johnson (Mrs. Lloyd E.) A A '29. Our guest speaker was the Monterey schools' audiometrist whose work is of special interest to us as our chapter is engaged in research on the local need for a clinic for pre-school age children who are deaf. We are assembling information at the present time with the hope that its presentation before various groups may bring about a material result at some time in the future.

ORANGE COUNTY

This is Orange County Alumnae chapter's first letter to the LAMP. We received our charter at a dinner meeting in the home of Esther Hatch (Mrs. Vernon) from the hands of National Alumnae Vice-President Betsy Leach (Mrs. Garold). Jane Sisson (Mrs. Charles) State Chairman for Southern California was also an honored guest.

Although a new chapter we have started to take an active part in Southern California Council of Delta Zeta.

We have already featured gift books for the Children's T. B. ward of the County hospital.

We draw our membership from Santa Ana, Orange, Anaheim, Fullerton, Garden Grove and Brea. Our officers and members are: president, Frances Biles (Mrs. R. R., A I); vice-president, Helen I. Kennedy, A X; secretary, Vera Ferraris (Mrs. Sam, Jr., A X); treasurer, Florence Pettis (Mrs. E. M., A A); editor, Charlotte Peebles (Mrs. B. E., A X); Betty Campbell (Mrs. J. M., Z); Virginia Critchfield (Mrs. J. P., A X); Erna Dungan (Mrs. Kenneth, A X); Esther Hatch (Mrs. Vernon, II); Ethel Helliwell, O; Ruth Low (Mrs. Robt., A X); Betty Park (Mrs. Don, A X); Cynthia Raney (Mrs. Harry J., A X); Myrtle Schneider (Mrs. C. E., I); Hazel Simpson (Mrs. C. R., A X); Marjorie Strain, A X; Velma Sundkuist (Mrs. E. M., A X); Ruth Wheeler (Mrs. Robt., A X); Virginia Wright (Mrs. Ben J., A X); Alice Zaruba (Mrs. Josef A., M).

PHOENIX

There have been three meetings since Founders' Day. November found us gathered in the home of Mrs. Edward Hopkins (Dr. Doris Freeman) A A, at which time, Mrs. Clifford J. Prather (Ruth Lay) B I gave a very interesting talk on golf.

The Christmas party was well attended. Entertainment included piano solos by pupils of the hostess, Mrs. Tilmen Hoff (Glyn Williams) Sigma. Piano numbers, solos, and carols were also contributed by pupils of Mrs. Harry L. Thompson (Louise Kennedy) O.

A beautiful silver bowl was presented to Mrs. A. James Keen (Rosalind Fowler) Mu, as a wedding gift from the chapter.

A group traveled 25 miles to the home of Mrs. Ralph Cooper (Frieda Phillips) A I, our treasurer, who lives near Buckey, for the January meeting.

"Activities in a College Chapter" will be described by Mrs. Roy Mock (Greta Funk) a pledge at K, at the February meeting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Donald Funk (Gladys Sveringhaus). Greta and her husband are attending Arizona State college at Tempe.

Delta Zetas in Arizona and visitors are cordially invited to attend meetings.

SAN FRANCISCO BAY CITIES

Delta Zetas from the University of California and members of the San Francisco Bay Cities alumnae association commemorated the sorority's Founders' Day with a banquet in the Hotel Claremont's Florentine Room, October 29.

General chairman of the event was Mrs. Norman Long, who was assisted by the Mesdames Orrin Gibson, George S. Angel, Frederick K. Beeson, Edward E. Collins, and W. W. Pemberton.

Serving on the reception committee were Mesdames Lester Phillips, Richard Fazackerly, Dwight W. Chapman, William Wilson, Earl Evans, John W. Harman, Paul Princelau, John Tolan, Jr., D. W. Brobst, J. C. Geringer, Amos H. Corten, and the Misses Peggy Ross, Jean Hamilton, Josephine Greisburg, Harriet Tuft, Mercedes McKay, and Barbara Swan. Mrs. H. Paul Riebe, (Dorothy Osborn) M '23, was the speaker of the evening. Mrs. Heber Newsom, (Ruth Rutherford) M '23, served as toastmistress.

The Big Game luncheon, preceding the Stanford vs. University of California football game, was attended by 350 alumnae, friends, parents, and guests. A committee from Beta and Epsilon groups helped the house girls handle the arrangements; and it was a hilarious group which partook of the delicious luncheon.

The annual rummage sale was ably handled by chairman Mrs. George Cunningham, who was responsible for organizing a group of efficient workers, who sold between $400 and $500 of "thises and thats." This made possible a donation to the Anna Hesse Scholarship Fund, and a donation of money to be used to purchase food to be sent to Greece.

Wilma Mitchell, local friendship chairman, read a letter from the Greek Queen expressing appreciation for the real interest shown by Delta Zeta in the refugee Greek children. Recently eleven boxes of food and clothing were sent free via States Marine Shipping Line.

Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, X, '21, chairman of the purchase of hearing aids for needy children, read a letter from the Carmel chapter of Delta Zeta regarding the formation of another committee there. Help was authorized in Carmel if an urgent case presented itself.

SAN FRANCISCO PENINSULA

A drawing is now a standard feature of each meeting of the San Francisco Peninsula alumnae chapter. Each member present puts twenty cents in the kitty. The winner receives half, and half goes into our Greek Welfare fund—a quick, enjoyable way to build our fund.

In November we held our annual fall dinner dance at the Coral Reef in Millbrae. Thirty-one attended and all agreed that it was a wonderful party.

That same month we sponsored a fashion show at the Villa Chartier. Fifty-one Delta Zetas attended and acquired ideas for new spring outfits. Best of all, we received a percentage on all tickets.

Our Christmas party was held at the home of Betty Trager with Dorothy Ritchie and Kay Glenn as co-hostesses. Every one brought a gaily wrapped kitchen gadget for the gift exchange.

SAN JOSE

Highlight of San Jose alumnae chapter's winter activities was a tea-bridge party staged January 6 at the Gamma Lambda chapter house in San Jose. Co-chairmen for the event were Mrs. E. McElligott and Miss Barbara Downs. Alumnae members and their guests enjoyed cake and tea before playing bridge or canasta.

Receiving guests were Mrs. Ervin DeSmet, alumnae president; Dr. Margaret Jones and Miss Pauline Lynch, alumnae members and college chapter advisers.

A valentine theme predominated at the February meeting of the San Jose group. Each member brought a home-made valentine to be exchanged. They were made from such items as pictures from magazines, pieces of cloth, and strips of ribbon. Many of the hand made, hilarious valentines brought roars of laughter from the respective recipients.

For Christmas, the college chapter was presented with a lovely brass planter for the house mantel from the alumnae group. Alumnae members also presented individual gifts to the house such as bone china tea cups and silver lemon forks. The college chapter entertained with a Yuletide dance shortly before Christmas to which members of the alumnae chapter were invited.

Betty Brisbin has been selected as alumnae rush adviser to assist the college chapter. Rush parties were held the third week in January with alumnae members helping with such duties as pouring and serving.

The first copy of the San Jose alumnae newsletter has been mailed to each member. "Dizzy Whirls for DZ girls" is the name which has been chosen. Plans are to have the newsletter sent out at least twice a year.

Delta Zeta alumnae were co-hostesses with Delta Gamma for the February Panhellenic meeting in San Jose. Florence Baugh and Viola McElligott are Delta Zeta representatives for the alumnae chapter.

May 5 is the date set by Panhellenic association for its annual springtime luncheon at San Jose country club.

SANTA BARBARA—VENTURA

This group held its annual Christmas dinner party early in December at the Chuck Wagon in Montecito. Gaily wrapped packages were exchanged among members, and each member also brought an extra gift for a child. These were donated to the Santa Barbara Council of Christmas Cheer to be distributed to needy families.

In January Dorothy Keith (Mrs. James B.), Alpha Iota, and Marjorie Teasley Chapin (Mrs. Roy G.), Lambda, were hostesses in Santa Barbara at Dorothy's home. After dessert we hemmed diapers to be donated to the tiny patients at Ventura county hospital. It was reported that Betty Wentworth, Mu, had participated in an entertaining "dual dialogue" program with Alice Gibbs, Gamma Phi Beta, at the last meeting of the Ventura Panhellenic Association, about their trips to Europe this past summer. Dorothy Keith, chosen as the incoming secretary of the Santa Barbara City Panhellenic organization, was installed on February 3.

PORTLAND

Successful year underway. 80 paid up memberships. Interesting meetings continue. $242.00 realized from raffle; winners awarded merchandise bonds at Christmas party at home of Mrs. N. E. Walker. (Dora Williams, Omega), Christmas luncheon at Congress Hotel for college members and alums, with mothers and daughters as special guests. Charming Delta Zeta high school daughters introduced.

Delta Zeta receiving nice publicity thru work done for hard of hearing. Local chapter recently awarded the "orchid" over local radio program in acknowledgment and also a complimentary write up in publication of Portland Hearing Society, "Acoustics Eye."

Local D.Z.'s continue active in political and civic field. Maurice Neuberger (Maurine Brown, Omega) legislator, and her senator husband, Richard, are perhaps the most colorful pair ever to make the Salem legislature. D.Z. much in evidence at Panhellenic Scholarship fashion show and tea February 14. Assisting were Mrs. Crecene Fariss (Gertrude Houk, Omega), Mrs. John F. Wieman (Alice Feike, Chi), Mrs. Arthur J. Larson (Kay Butterfield, Alpha Alpha), Mrs. John Clark (Lillian Burch, Kappa),

Mrs. N. E. Walker (Dora Williams, Omega), and Mrs. Alvin Hobart (Phyllis Lyne, Chi).

SEATTLE

"Elephantiasis" descended on the chapter house with the new year, as white elephants, multiplied during a long captivity, were finally disposed of. Helen Leamon (Mrs. D. T.) gladly exchanged her role as keeper to act as auctioneer. The project was the second of three planned by ways and means chairman, Jean Plant (Mrs. George) to enrich the Seattle alumnae treasury. A pot-luck supper, at which Kappa seniors and their dates will be guests, will be the third.

At the regular monthly meetings, Betty Manning, program chairman, has presented Evangeline Edwards in an account of her European trip, and Miss Doris Egbert, a guest speaker, discussing "Occupational Therapy."

Meanwhile the Junior alumnae are enjoying varied and timely programs, including Halloween and Christmas parties, a travelogue, a card party, and a talk by Pat Ackley (Mrs. Charles) on "Fashions." Co-chairmen of the group are Glenna Richards (Mrs. Lynn) and Duane Morehead (Mrs. Richard).
