Founders Day 1976

This red, white and blue issue of THE LAMP reminds our readers that as Americans during this bicentennial year, we Delta Zetas also are joining in to celebrate the birth of the United States of America. It is our sincere wish that America will have many happy returns.

On October 24th of each year Delta Zeta celebrates her birthday by honoring the six founders of our sorority. Her present success is due to their groundwork and their philosophy, followed in the years since our founding in 1902 by each succeeding Delta Zeta generation accepting the Founders' challenge and living up to the ideals and responsibilities of Delta Zeta membership as established by our Founders. By proclamation we rededicate ourselves with that same loving spirit and determination for our future years.

This year's anniversary is especially significant because of our approaching Diamond Jubilee. To mark this occasion the Delta Zeta Founders Memorial Fund with its June '77 goal of $75,000 has been established as a permanent fund. Its monies will be used to award scholarships each year to deserving undergraduate Delta Zetas throughout the United States. Your tax deductible contribution is a tangible way for you to honor our Founders and express your love for Delta Zeta. Please send your contribution NOW.

I hereby proclaim this October twenty-fourth to be observed by our entire membership as Founders' Day and request that our rose and green colors be worn beneath our badge to indicate our rededication to our Delta Zeta Sorority.

Given under my hand and seal this thirtieth day of June in the Year of our Lord nineteen hundred and seventy-six, and of our sorority, the seventy-fourth.

DELTA ZETA SORORITY'S DIAMOND JUBILEE

Bicentennial of American Fraternity

The year 1976 is the bicentennial not only of our country but of the American Fraternity, and this fact will be celebrated by men and women of both general and professional fraternities December 1 and 2 at Williamsburg, Virginia.

The gala events of the Greek Letter Bicentennial are the result of joint planning by the four Conferences represented in the Interfraternity Research and Advisory Council: National Interfraternity Conference and Professional Panhellenic Association. Members of all other college Greek Letter societies also are being invited to participate.

Fraternity leaders and members from across the nation will gather for meetings of individual Conferences and Associations on Wednesday, December 1, and for a joint "Interfraternity Day" on Thursday at the Williamsburg Lodge.

This colonial town was chosen for the observance because Phi Beta Kappa, the forerunner of all College Greek Letter groups in America, was founded there December 5, 1776, just scant months after the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Members of Phi Beta Kappa will stage their own separate celebration that weekend in addition to the joint activities earlier in the week. The weekend will encompass the actual date of the founding of Phi Beta Kappa as a social and literary society at the College of William and Mary. During a flurry of anti-fraternity agitation in 1831, the fraternity changed to an honor society.

Meantime other student groups were formed for social and literary purposes and many developed into the strong national organizations we know today. The first of these was Kappa Alpha Society, founded in 1825 at Union College where Phi Beta Kappa had established its fifth chapter in 1817. Two years later Sigma Phi and Delta Phi were founded there, and the pattern for the American traternity was firmly set.

By 1850 there were 16 fraternities, each with one or more chapters on other campuses.

In the early part of the 19th century, women as college students were very rare, but Georgia Female College (later Wesleyan College), founded in 1836 in Macon, Georgia, granted the first degrees to women. It was here that the first women's fraternities were founded: Alpha Delta Pi in May, 1851, and Phi Mu in January, 1852. By the end of the century there were 18 national sororities with satellite chapters in various colleges and universities.

Today the college fraternity world has an estimated five million living members.

In the four Conferences represented in IRAC alone, fraternity and sorority chapters number approximately 9500. Their influence in the college communities where they are located across the nation is well recognized as they teach leadership and development of the total individual, emphasize scholastic achievement, encourage social awareness, participate in service projects, and promote the democratic process as their members work together toward common goals and ideals.

The Greek Letter Bicentennial Celebration will begin with separate meetings of the four Conferences. Perhaps the largest gathering will be that of the National Interfraternity Conference which will conduct its annual meeting December 1, bringing together representatives of 47 national fraternities with a total living membership of more than two million.

National Panhellenic Conference counts 1,658,834 members in its 26 member sororities. The College Panhellenics Committee has scheduled a meeting during the celebration at Williamsburg. Betty Heusch Agler, Delta Zeta's former national president and alternate delegate is area advisor for Ohio and serves on this committee.

The Executive Committee headed by Delta Zeta's Gwen Moss McKeeman, will host a reception for all NPC women attending the observance on December 1.

The theme "A Look at Our Past, With an Eye to Our Future," will be expanded upon on "Interfraternity Day" Thursday. The fascinating history of fraternity, concluded by a tour of Raleigh Tavern, the location of the Phi Beta Kappa founding 200 years ago, will occupy the morning.

At noon, the guests will take a look at today in the fraternity world with Former Senator Margaret Chase Smith the speaker. The afternoon will be devoted to a panel discussion of the future of fraternities, and a report from the Commission on the American College Fraternity: The Fraternity in the Year 2000.

This Commission of 90 outstanding fraternity, collegiate and university administrative leaders has commissioned the writing of three definitive papers concerning the fraternity movement and higher education in connection with the 200th anniversary observance. Delta Zeta's NPC Delegate, Gwen Moss McKeeman, is serving as a member of the Commission.

Sponsored by the Indiana University Foundation and the Fraternity Executives Association and endorsed by NIC, the Commission members are coming together in a series of task forces in preparation of the observance. The three papers being commissioned are to cover (1) the history of the college fraternity movement; (2) society in general in the Year 2000, and (3) higher education in the Year 2000. The works and the Commission Report will be printed and bound into a publication that could well be the text book of the fraternity movement.

A formal, black-tie reception and banquet will be held that evening. President Gerald R. Ford, Delta Kappa Epsilon, has been invited as the speaker and the date is on his calendar. An awards program will recognize fraternity and sorority members who have distinguished themselves in a variety of fields nationwide.

Members of all general or professional fraternities or sororities, honor or recognition societies are expected to attend. Members of Delta Zeta who would like to attend may obtain more program details and reservations information from NPC Delegate, Gwen Moss McKeeman, in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

White House Fellows

The President has announced the start of the 13th nationwide search for outstanding young men and women to serve as Whitz House Fellows. This program is designed to give rising leaders one year of firsthand, high-level experience with the workings of the Federal Government. It is open to U.S. citizens from all fields who are not less than 23 and not more than 35 years of age.

In addition to their educational assignments with the Vice President, Cabinet officers, the Fellows participate in an extensive seminar program with top government officials, scholars, and journalists.

The Fellowship is designed to be a one-year sabbatical in public service. Fellows are expected to return to their professional careers at the end of their experience in government, with their perspectives of national issues broadened and their qualifications for significant service in their chosen careers. Leadership, intellectual and professional ability, high motivation, and a commitment to community and nation are the broad criteria employed in the selection process.

Requests for applications must be postmarked not later than November 1, 1976. Application forms and additional information can be obtained by sending a post card to the President's Commission on White House Fellowships, Washington, D.C. 20415.

Gift to Smithsonian

The portrait of Sarah Wolters Polk has joined the gallery of Presidents' Ladies in the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C. as the gift of Gertrude Walter Norton, Θ-Ohio State, and her son George, who now live in Menlo Park, California.

Mrs. Polk was the wife of James Knox Polk, the 11th president of the United States. Her portrait was painted in 1878 and has been handed down in the Polk family from generation to generation, and its latest stop was with the Nortons.

Gertrude's late husband, Rowland Polk Norton was the great-grandson of Marshall Tate Polk, the president's brother. As the James Polks had no children, the portrait was given to Marshall Polk's heirs.

George Dury, the German artist who painted Mrs. Polk, painted another portrait at about the same time in her life. That portrait is in the Polk family home in Columbia, Tennessee. Mrs. Polk was 46 when the President died, and she spent her last 43 years at Polk Place in Nashville, in mourning for her husband. In this portrait she is shown in a black dress and a black lace mantilla, her dark eyes still revealing her sorrow. She was 75 when the portrait was painted.

Mrs. Polk said she did not want the portrait to be displayed publicly, because at 75 she would look so much older than her husband, who died at 54. The gallery where the portrait will hang contains memorabilia and paintings of each of the wives of the United States presidents. The Smithsonian has had a display on Mrs. Polk prepared, so the portrait will be an uncomplicated addition.

Alumnae + Collegians = National Strength

As this issue of The Lamp goes to press, our nation's bicentennial celebration will be drawing to a close. But of equal, if not more, importance to Delta Zetas everywhere 1977 signals the beginning of our sorority's Diamond Jubilee year. I often wonder if those six young women fully realized 75 years ago the extent and direction their dream of an ideal sorority would take or the influence and prestige that would one day be Delta Zeta's.

We often state that our sisterhood binds all Delta Zetas across the country together and this very "special" bond is one reason we chose to pledge Delta Zeta—some of us twenty not so long years ago, some ten, some three and perhaps even short months ago. Our sisterhood is seen most visibly in Delta Zeta's most viable part—her collegiate chapters. None of us will or can forget those college years—the fun, the joy, the sorrow. The warmth and affection, the respect we shared with each sister even those not our closest of friends.

We graduate and for a few our sisterhood continues, but what about those other Delta Zetas with whom we shared so much? For most of us the college experience shaped our lives more than we can imagine or be fully aware of today.

There are over 70,000 Delta Zeta alumnae but just a small fraction of them are participating alumnae whether as a member of an alumnae chapter, a member of a House Corporation Board, College Chapter Advisory Board, Colonnade Club, College Chapter Director, Province Director, State Reference Chairman and even Delta Zeta's National Council. Granted, many live in communities where they may be the only Delta Zeta or in large rural areas, but where are our alumnae in large urban areas? Why must we be concerned daily about college chapters without advisors, provinces without directors-the list goes on. No longer can we use the excuse the Greek system is "dying," "snobbish" or "not relevant." These descriptions died with the change and emphasis in our alumnae and college programs. We've heard many times the collegians are Delta Zeta's life line if we are to exist and grow. That is true but if we are to continue to grow we must have alumnae to advise along the way. This is our sisterhood and the time has come for us to all stand and declare it to all.

Across the country, the Greek system is experiencing a true revival. So are our alumnae chapters and alumnae programs but still not enough. To coin a well used phrase "Do our collegians turn off Delta Zeta" after they leave the campus?

Do they find the generation gap which can exist in some alumnae chapters too great? Have they been "burned out" by the demands and responsibilities of their four years on campus as an active collegiate chapter member? Is today's professionally oriented woman too busy for Delta Zeta? Have the collegiate and alumnae programs neglected to tell our alumnae and let them understand the rewards that being an active member of an alumnae chapter can bring? We continually seek the answers to these questions and hope to introduce new alumnae programs that will attract today's young woman as well as provide continued interest to Delta Zeta's alumnae of all ages.

To give Delta Zeta's many isolated rural alumnae a feeling of belonging to our sorority and keep them upto-date on the activities of Province alumnae and collegiate activities, "At Large" Alumnae Chapters have been and are being organized. Begun as a pilot project last fall in Province XXII (Georgia and South Carolina), the "At Large" concept has been an unqualified success. An introductory newsletter was sent all alumnae outside organized alumnae chapter areas explaining the "At Large" chapter's purpose and asking their participation. Members pay a small fee to cover costs, receive three newsletters each year, and in turn have said they feel a new sense of participation in Delta Zeta's affairs and activities. This year will see many more alumnae participating in Delta Zeta's many old and new alumnae programs as the "At Large" chapters increase in number.

Most Delta Zeta alumnae treasure the friendships made across the country through their many alumnae chapter activities, the hours spent in rewarding philanthropy and volunteer work, the fun and good times spent in visiting both alumnae and collegiate chapters. In our sorority's diversity, North, South, East and West, lies Delta Zeta's strength.

To Delta Zeta's collegiate members—become aware of your alumnae, seek them out—many just have to be asked—plan activities with them, show them the many courtesies and respect they deserve. Your rewards will be great!

To Delta Zeta's alumnae members—take and seize the initiative, plan activities with College Chapter Director consultation, help rush when asked, work together on community projects. Let the collegians know you are there! Certainly times have changed, but you as alumnae can relate to our young women with a little effort. Share your many experiences. Your rewards too can be great.

Our total National strength depends on interaction—alumnae and collegians—all Delta Zetas! Don't let Delta Zeta be just four years. Join the alumnae who give willingly of their time, energy on many philanthropic projects across the country, the thousands of hours spent in volunteer work, in advising and counselling our chapters—alumnae and collegiate.

As our 75th anniversary approaches, let us all unite. Declare your sisterhood together today—not tomorrow but today!

Lambda Beta Installed At Indiana Evansville

May 15, 1976, marked the beginning of Lambda Beta chapter of Delta Zeta on the campus of Indiana State University Evansville.

Lambda Beta chapter of Delta Zeta is the fourth national Panhellenic sorority to be chartered on the Indiana State University Evansville Campus in Evansville, Indiana.

Before taking the big step into going national in the spring semester of 1976, Lambda Beta was an outstanding local sorority named Phi Beta Chi for six and one-half years. Phi Beta Chi was founded on October 20, 1969 by seven women who felt they needed more from college life than the then two existing sororities on campus had to offer. They felt the need to belong to a group and saw what could be accomplished by a unified group, but felt that there should be more than just the two existing sororities. The women would then have a choice so that they could better select one which goals and lifestyles fit closer to their own. These seven women, Paula Allen Daniels, Nancy Baker, Chris Borries Payne, Karen Bufkin Woodruff, Lynda Carr, Karen Kock Kelly, Brenda Zink, along with Dr. Susan Donaldson, first chapter advisor, met and set up the purpose and goals to which Phi Beta Chi women would strive to uphold.

The Phi Beta Chi Motto was: "I expect to pass through this world but once, any good therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me pass this way again." The purpose of Phi Beta Chi was to be of service to others and Phi Beta Chi sisters have constantly strived to live up to this purpose through the activities in which they have participated in the past years. At the end of the first school term in which Phi Beta Chi functioned as a sorority there was no better proof of the accomplishment of this goal than when they were awarded the All Campus Organization Service Award for service to the community and to the campus. This really motivated the sorority in the right direction and after their first rush Phi Beta Chi had 18 members.

Discussion had once again been brought up in the summer of 1975 whether or not becoming affiliated with a national sorority would be to the best interests of Phi Beta Chi since it had been so successful as a local. Taking any serious action, however, was postponed because of rush which was approaching soon. It was not long after initiation of our fall pledge class when the topic was brought up again. We all decided to interview several NPC sororities.

After meeting Delta Zeta representatives Past National President Betty Heusch Agler and Field Representative Sheila Denise Somers, along with local alumnae our decision was instant. We were positive that Delta Zeta was the best sorority for us. We had looked long and hard and waited until the right one came our way and we couldn't have been happier.

During our years as Phi Beta Chi Local, the individual chapter members received many campus honors both in scholastic and extracurricular activities. The chapter also received campus and community recognition. The list is long and space does not permit individual reporting on the many honors, but it is surely a proud history with which to begin this new chapter of Delta Zeta.

We immediately started preparing for the installation which was to be held barely a month and a half away. It was a hectic time for us since we had just elected new officers and everything was brand new to both our officers and our new advisor, Kathy Will Funke, who is assistant to the President of Indiana State University Evansville campus. But under her close supervision and guidance, along with the help of Chapter President, Jacqueline Bridges, and Panhellenic Sponsor, Patricia Wiley Like, everything went smoothly as the big day approached.

Since Phi Beta Chi had been so impressed with Field Representative Denise Somers, we asked that she return to the chapter to help prepare for initiation. Our wish was granted and less than a week after our decision to become Delta Zetas, Denise met with us to give us our pledge manuals and order our pins. Local Delta Zeta alumnae came to the meeting and added an extra special surprise to the evening by presenting each of us with a gift of pin pillows which they made with the Greek letters Delta Zeta on them. All of this made us even more anxious for the big day to come.

Initiation weekend came quickly, and on Friday, May 14, the sorority met with Denise Somers, Field Representative, Vicky Brown, National Consultant, and several girls from Epsilon Chapter, Indiana University, to get to know each other and to learn Delta Zeta Songs together. The next morning our dreams became reality when twenty-nine women proudly pledged their loyalty to their new sorority in a beautiful initiation ceremony conducted by Epsilon girls of Indiana University and Psi girls of Franklin University.

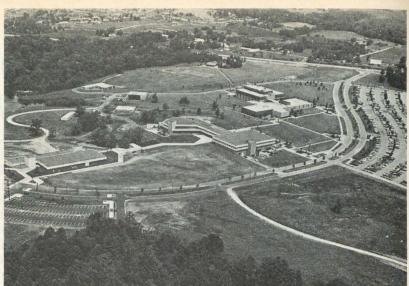

The following women were initiated as collegiate members: Jacqueline Bridges, President, Gina Zehngut, Vice President, Sherry Hajek, Corresponding Secretary, Jane Mohr, Recording Secretary, Vickie Ripplemeier, Treasurer, Debbie Bowers, Senior Panhellenic Representative, Beth Melton, Junior Panhellenic Representative, Carol Effinger, Pledge Trainer, Martha Dewes, Assistant Pledge Trainer, Becky Johnson, Sergeant at Arms, Patricia Parkinson, Historian, Kathy Simpson, Rush Chairman, Joan Wildt, Social Chairman, Patricia Brack, Karalyn Gentry, Julie Huffman, Nora Kittridge, Connie Milling, Diana Sauls, Jodi Stevenson, and Vickie Tramel. The following women were initiated as alumnae: Debbie Brack, Shannon Glazebrook Kierlam, Rhonda Figg, Kathy Will Funke, Kathy Hartman, Karen Koch Kelly, Patricia Wiley Like, and Suzanne Schnacke.

That evening the new initiates and their families were honored at a formal installation banquet held at the Petroleum Club in downtown Evansville. Mary Lou McConnaughey Barth, A-Miami, National Director, acted as toastmistress for the evening. Following the introductions, Caryol McColley Fitzpatrick, Ψ Province Director, and Denise Somers, someone very special in the hearts of Lambda Beta girls, gave welcoming speeches. Other participants on the program were Betty Heusch Agler, Past National President, Jacqueline Bridges, Lambda Beta President, Kathy Will Funke, Patricia Wiley Like, Barry Schonenberger, Director of Student Activities, Dr. David L. Rice, President of the ISUE Campus.

Lambda Beta officers holding the installation loving cup are Jacqueline Sue Bridges, president, Kathy Will Funke, College Chapter Director, and Gina Lee Zehngut, Vice President.

Aerial view of the new campus of Indiana State University Evansville.

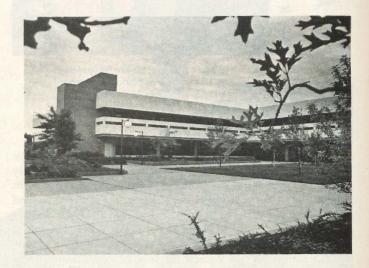

Gifts of appreciation were given from the chapter to Betty Agler, Denise Somers, Kathy Funke, and Patricia Like for all of the dedicated assistance they have given to Lambda Beta in the past several weeks. Lambda Beta girls then joined hands to sing to their families and friends Phi Beta Songs which have meant so much to them in the past six and a half years. It was at this time that the annual awards given by Phi Beta Chi were announced. Sherry Hajek received the award for the highest GPA and Jacqueline Bridges for the "Outstanding Fibi." Patricia Like presented the chapter with a silver tray from Evansville City Panhellenic for the second year in a row for the sorority with the highest overall GPA at ISUE. Barry Schonenberger, Director of Student Activities then topped off the awards ceremony by presenting us with an award for the highest overall GPA of ALL social organizations at ISUE. Gifts of silver were given to Lambda Beta from National Council, alumnae and collegians of Delta Zeta.

The following day a tea was held on the Indiana State University Evansville Campus in the Faculty Lounge to honor the chapter. All sororities and fraternities on campus were invited to attend the tea along with sororities and fraternities on the University of Evansville Campus, family and friends. The sorority trophies were displayed for all to see along with the gifts and congratulatory messages from Delta Zeta Chapters all over the United States.

The members of Lambda Beta chapter would like to extend a grateful appreciation to the Delta Zeta national officers and alumnae for making our weekend very important to each of us.

Indiana Evansville is a state university recently relocated in the country in a beautiful tract of land and with completely new buildings and landscaping. It is a four year university which is growing rapidly.

At the present time Delta Zeta joins Alpha Sigma Alpha, Sigma Kappa, and Sigma Sigma Sigma for a strong panhellenic representation.

FIELD REPRESENTATIVES

They Travel the Delta Zeta World

by Vicky Brown, BI-Arizona National Consultant

I'm sure you all remember the show Superman. . . "Able to leap tall buildings in a single bound, flys faster than a speeding bullet, more powerful than a locomotive. . ." Or maybe The Lone Ranger, which always left someone in a cloud of dust murmuring those famous lines, "Who was that masked man?"

A Delta Zeta Field Representative isn't the Lone Ranger or Superman, but she may help your chapter leap to total membership, or push your way to being # 1 on your campus, and leave in a flash on her way to her next chapter.

This year we have four young ladies assigned to the role of Field Representative. They are all vivacious and dedicated Delta Zetas who have recently graduated. Debbie Raziano, who is entering her fourth year as a Field Representative will be back on the road once again. Debbie, or "Raz", graduated from Nicholls State College in Thibodaux, Louisiana. She is a Grace Mason Lundy award winner. She is an energetic, creative Delta Zeta who always has a smile on her face and a Coke in her hand!

Our next member of the cast is Linda Mans from Fort Hays State College. Linda has many credits behind her name. She was a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, the Freshman Women's Honorary, Secretary of Mortar Board, and was tapped into Who's Who. In her chapter, Linda was Pledge Class President, Pledge Trainer, Alumnae Coordinator. Under her direction, her chapter won the Province XII trophy for the Outstanding Pledge Program. . . so Pledge Trainers, get ready for some great ideas! Linda eventually plans to attend graduate school in the area of Speech Pathology, that is, after she is through conquering the Delta Zeta world.

Cathy Lieurance, Iota Xi, University of Missouri at St. Louis, is another 1976 Field Representative who will listen to your problems, give you ideas, and lift your spirits. Cathy was named Outstanding Pledge when she was a Freshman. She was Activities Chairman, Corresponding Secretary, and Chapter President, and Greek Week Committee Chairman for the Inter-Greek Council on her campus, and she was also a member of the National Honorary Secondary Education Fraternity.

Our last "Superwoman" is Karen Terhune from Ashland College in Ohio. Karen was very active with her local Panhellenic and served as Parliamentarian, Social Chairman, and Corresponding Secretary. She was a member of the Home Economics Student-Faculty Relations Council, for which she served as President. During her freshman year, Karen was given Delta Zeta'a National Consultant, Vicky Brown, University of Arizona. Vicky is just right for this important Delta Zeta assignment. She was president of her chapter for two years and immediately following graduation, she accepted the position of Delta Zeta Field Representative. After traveling to all parts of the country for 1½ years in that position, she then became a working part of Delta Zeta National Headquarters as a Consultant. Vicky still travels for Delta Zeta on special assignments and is always available for consultation and guidance.

the Outstanding Pledge award and later held such offices as House Corporation Head and Vice-President. While in college, Karen was a member of the Ashland Dance Club, served as President and was also the Head Choreographer. Something tells me that she'll be a great help with rush skits!

These are your four Field Representatives for the 1976-77 school year. They are not miracle workers, but given the chance, they have the experience, the knowledge, the ambition and the love for Delta Zeta to assist all our Delta Zeta chapters in reaching their goals. . . to be #1 on campus! When they come to your chapter, welcome them and know that they are there to help, to guide, and to inspire each Delta Zeta chapter.

Eight Chosen to Receive

From the very inception of the GML award, stress was placed on its forward look, an intent to carry into her future whatever ideals, skills and accomplishments Delta Zeta college life had developed for her. In one discussion at the 1975 Convention, the girls present unanimously agreed that their award would have meant much more to them, had they received it while still on campus, sharing with the chapter which had nominated them, the mutual pleasure and pride. Therefore, the Awards Committee asked that 1976 nominations be submitted earlier, to allow their choices to be made and announced, and presentations be planned before chapters closed for the year.

Although this change may need some getting-used-to by chapters, and due to increasingly early closings of colleges, may crowd a chapter calendar, the satisfaction in every report received this spring shows that the change was of real value in bringing the significance of the whole award process more clearly to light. It meant something to see, to be able to handle, that significant little piece of jewelry, unfamiliar to so many.

It is also a satisfaction to learn from reports of this year's group, most of whom were at 1975 Convention, that they were keenly aware of a real and influential gain to themselves, from this experience. Not simply the fun, the wider friendships, but the living presentation of Delta Zeta in its national scope, its progress and its purposes. These girls, seniors, felt themselves enriched, and strengthened to greater success by convention.

Catherine Ann Lieurance, of Iota Xi Chapter at the University of Missouri at St. Louis, will become well known to Delta Zetas this coming year in her role as Field Representative. A look at her personal record indicates that she brings to this work a versatile and successful college record, which should make her able to understand and help every phase of chapter membership and duty. From the time she was named Best Pledge, through her Senior year as chapter president, she has compiled a record of ability, energy, and effective self-direction, and has received both sorority and college recognition as a valued worker. Member of the Student Senate, of Inter-Greek Council, member of two sports teams, recipient of the St. Louis Panhellenic Scholarship, only Greek from her campus to be named in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges, member of Pi Kappa Alpha Dream Girl Court, she has truly shared, and contributed to, every phase of college life on her campus. A point of special meaning is that this is a commuter campus. To be a successful chapter president, and she is acknowledged to have been, demands special resourcefulness and leadership to keep members faithfully coming to chapter meetings when a long drive is involved. The Dean of Student Affairs made it very clear that she is regarded as a leader not only for what she has done, but for the future they confidently expect her to fill with distinction. So, to Cathy, Happy Journeying, this coming year..and after.

Paula Anne Jones, of Epsilon Beta Chapter at Northwestern State University of Louisiana, has chosen Home Economics as her professional field, and is already well along the way to recognition in that field. Named outstanding Home Ec student on the campus, she is a member of the American Home Economics Association, has held responsible positions in connection with that work at the State Fair, in 4-H Club work. As an active member and officer of the AWS, she was delegate to their National Convention. Promoting inter-Greek friendship and activity has also been a major contribution of Paula's career, but her entire campus recognition was expressed in her election as Winter Ball Queen which is based on scholarship, leadership, character and service to the university. She was a member of the Florence Hood court in her junior year, and has been named to Who's

Who. She plans first on graduate work in her professional field, but there is no doubt that as an alumna she will be an active and effective participant in Delta Zeta wherever she may be.

Lynnda Ann Wolf, from Gamma Kappa Chapter at Kent State, has experienced at first hand some of the complications which can face a chapter on a campus where there has been the kind of unrest and turmoil for which Kent has become perhaps too much publicized in recent years. Some of the greatest stabilizing in such situations, is the quiet, steady work of the Greek groups, to stay alive, active and help rehabilitate campus life as a whole. Lynnda pledged Delta Zeta when the group was miniscule, but she felt the spirit and the possibility of growing and giving through the sorority. Perhaps her most effective course was to make of herself the best possible sorority member and campus citizen she possibly could. She became active in Panhellenic, for three busy years. She became a member of the marching and symphony bands, and was elected to Tau Beta Sigma, band honorary, serving also as hostess for Band Day and the Festival of Bands. In Delta Zeta she held presidency for two years, was a two time winner of the Golden Crest at Ohio State Day, and won the silver bracelet for outstanding sisterhood. She held membership in the Honors College at Kent, all four years, and is named in Who's Who. With a major in Education for the Deaf, she is committed to a career stressing personal service; but she definitely plans to continue participation in Delta Zeta both during graduate work, and in the later world at large. It is a special tribute to Delta Zeta, expressed by Lynnda in her letter, that it has been the constant incentive and bulwark in a great many of the times and efforts that seemed beyond attainment, but to which the chapter has put heart and hand and looks to realize.

Sandra Skinner, of Zeta Zeta chapter at West Texas State University, is also a member of the college band, but with the added feature of being its Feature Twirler, and a participant in the Miss Texas Pageant. She too is a member of Tau Beta Sigma. It becomes standard expectation to find these girls exerting an influence in and through Panhellenic, and influential in creating the kind of spirit that does credit to the sorority system. Sandra's talent as song leader gained her #1 post among the Delta Zeta chapters, in Texas, but also put her into the 8-woman drill team of Song Girls, on campus. She has won scholarships for her excellent scholarship, was nominated as Outstanding Woman of the Year, and by this time is married to Larry Oldham, ΣΦΕ. They will live on campus and she will continue her work both with Zeta Zeta and with the Canyon Alumnae, one of the liveliest and happiest of alumnae groups. As president of the group who initiated the new chapter at San Angelo, she felt she received an added inspiration for continuing in Delta Zeta active service. Inclusion in Who's Who was a thrill, but she thinks the climax was the presentation of her award at a chapter luncheon, at which her parents and family could be present when Jane Nelson's surprise was the presenting of the award.

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte is a young institution which is attracting admiration for its dynamic planning and its obvious awareness of the role of a modern university. In this young school Delta Zeta has a young chapter, Kappa Phi, which has from the very outset, been recognized as a valuable student factor, so stated by administration leaders. From Kappa Phi Chapter this year, Kathryn Anne Braswell is the new GML choice. With an unusually outgoing personality, Kat's influence in campus organizations has brought Delta Zeta into an effective role in many campus organizations. To quote from the Chancellor's own letter, she has been a member of the Student Legislature for all four years, with several important chairmanships: been a delegate to the North Carolina Student Legislature as an upperclassman: been a UNNC hostess for the Athletic Department for 3 years: President of Panhellenic, effecting greatly improved rushing system; recipient of the Distinguished Service Award by the Carolina Journal (student newspaper): member of the Society of 49, local honor society. Inspiring a Greek weekend, and formal candle lighting for Greek pledges; on the Chancellor's list for grades: responsible for the record of Kappa Phi that won Campus Image at State Day, active in intramurals, there seems no end to her energy and enthusiasm. The presentation of her award was an especially meaningful time for the chapter. It came at the conclusion of the chapter's Spring Initiation, and Kat, as winner of a very special chapter award, just won, was presented with her GML charm at the evening's close.

Charlotte Davis, of Beta Xi chapter at Auburn University, from an enthusiastic and effective pledge year, has moved on into sharing most of the main campus activities, and winning recognition in them. Her accomplishments include Alpha Lambda Delta, Cwens, Gamma Sigma Sigma (girls' service sorority), work on the campus newspaper; intramurals, (captain of basketball); Sigma Delta Tau, Kappa Delta Pi, Mortarboard, of which she was president her senior year: Farmhouse sweetheart, Angel Flight, marching and concert bands, and in each of these led others to share, and represent the sorority. Naming to Who's Who was an obvious result of a fine record. Charlotte will continue in graduate studies this coming year, becoming a member of the Auburn Alumnae Chapter. Her chosen field is Student Personnel.

Nanci Martin, of Alpha Gamma chapter at the University of Alabama, was a midyear graduate and at once began a teaching career in Birmingham. Her list of chapter activities is long, varied, and shows originality and an outlook for needs of the chapter. She instigated the forming of a Parents' Club (now Colonnade), which has proved enjoyable to the members, and profitable to the chapter. She started a chapter newsletter, and began plans for making an alumnae reunion an annual feature of the chapter. For chapter numbering 100plus, tact, ingenuity and constant effort must be the president's equipment. Nanci had these generously, and used them freely. A monthly Honor Night, in the chapter, proved an incentive for members to work for their own record of accomplishment; and to be Rose Girl of the Month became a leading goal. On campus Nanci was active in Young Republicans, American Marketing Association, Phi Chi Theta, worked on the campus newspaper, and became Mrs. Larry Sexton in April, 1976. Their home will be in Birmingham, where Nanci is already active in alumnae circles, and hopes to be effective in promoting closer alumnae-collegiate relationships in general. When Alpha Gamma chapter was told of Nanci's selection as a GML girl, they were planning a luncheon to honor graduating seniors, and unsuspecting, Nanci came. But her family had been alerted, and it was a happy time for the chapter, the local alumnae, and the Alpha Gamma presented Delta Zeta roses to Nanci and to Charlotte Davis, both of whom had been present and helpful only a short time before, at Alabama State Day. An immediate result of these two honors has been an upsurge in chapter interest in its local history, and the presenting of outstanding events in pictures and stories in the chapter Hall of Fame.

GML Girls

Because Jean Haley, from Upsilon Chapter at University of North Dakota, could not be with her chapter for the awarding of her charm, the Delta Zeta chapter at Arlington, Texas, stood "in loco parentis" for Jean, and Jane Nelson, PCD for Texas, had the privilege of giving the surprise of the evening. Jean Haley, a previous winner of the Arlene Davis Award, had graduated at midyear, gone into a job with a Chicago company, in Aviation Insurance, and happened to be sent to Dallas for a job, just at the time of Province Day. Ever on the lookout for Delta Zetas, Jean made herself known to the meeting, and was immediately welcomed to the Dallas friendships. Her college and chapter background are somewhat different from usual. She chose that University because of its unique offering in aviation training, and there became a Delta Zeta. Her record in her chosen field was outstanding, but her enthusiasm for Delta Zeta was high, too, as she led the chapter to top place in the Jerry Lewis telethon (with a capable Delta Tau partner). Jean was a licensed pilot when she entered UND in 1971, and became its first female flight instructor while still a student. She became a member, then an officer, of Alpha Eta Rho, international professional flight fraternity. She wrote and illustrated "Expert Flagging," a ground crew manual which has been published and is now the accepted national training manual for that work. In the chapter she was assistant scholarship chairman (being herself on the Dean's list), and later was Panhellenic representative. She is a silver medalist in USA National Judo Championship, woman's division. . . Lest all this sound formidably aggressive, it should be said that Jean is disarmingly pretty, a delight to meet, a 100% Public Relations spreader for Delta Zeta, an excellent photographer, a clever designer and maker of feminine wearables.

It has been the special good luck of Delta Zeta's historian to have met and known however briefly, the girls in this group. Without exception, each has a quality of appreciation, a desire to give back to Delta Zeta whatever she can, in return for what she honestly says is an enrichment to her life that she would be the poorer not to have had. It is an inspiration to those of us who have had that same experience, to know that tomorrow for Delta Zeta is in loving and capable hands.

Patricia Anne Lynch, 1976 winner of the Florence Hood Miner award, is a member of Delta Delta chapter at Georgia State in Atlanta.

Patricia Lynch, Winner of Florence Hood Miner Award

Patricia Anne Lynch of Delta Delta chapter at Georgia State University in Atlanta, is the 1976 winner of the Florence Hood Miner award given annually to an outstanding Delta Zeta in her junior year.

According to the Dean of Students, William R. Baggett, "This young woman is possibly the most outstanding female student at the University. She was recently elected President of the Student Government Association which is one of the highest honors that can be achieved on campus. It also indicates the trust which her colleagues place in her leadership ability."

Delta Delta chapter is famous for its philanthropic projects and last year Patty was chairman of their Dance Marathon which netted over $11,000 for Muscular Dystrophy and a citation of merit from the national committee. As excellent student, Patty was chosen ROTC Brigade Sweetheart, and was first runner-up to the Chamber of Commerce's Stay and See Georgia queen. She was the Sweetheart of the Pershing Rifles, and Greek Woman of the Year. In her sophomore year she received the Omicron Delta Kappa award for excellence during the Honors Day ceremonies. Patty is majoring in mental health and psychology and serves as Delta Delta's scholarship chairman.

As a result of her chairing of campus committees, last year Patty was elected Vice-President of SGA and this spring by a two to one vote was elected its president, the first woman to hold this office. She was chairman of Leadership conclave, the Georgia State Student Bicentennial committee and the University's representative on the Atlanta Student Bicentennial committee. As an editor on the Rampway yearbook, she was also one of its beauties. A member of Belle Corp, she was on the selection committee for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. She has attended several conventions as the university's student delegate, and this fall will go to New York to give other youth leaders ideas on how to raise money for Muscular Dystrophy.

Patty attended the Delta Zeta convention in Columbus, Ohio, last year, and was the recipient of the Gertrude Meatheringham scholarship at that time.

Each chapter nominates its outstanding junior member for the Florence Hood Miner award, and each girl nominated is required to be outstanding on campus, in her community, and despite the high requirements is almost always an excellent student.

Brenda Marshall Athlete of Year

"She's a scholar and a lady and a girl that you'll adore," goes the lively Delta Zeta tune that describes Brenda Marshall of Iota Psi. However, there's no doubt the lyricist would appropriately add "she's a fielder and a scorer and she bats .324!"

Yes, Brenda Marshall, University of Texas at Arlington's Woman Athlete of the Year, is quite a Delta Zeta gal and quite a softball player.

As a left fielder, Brenda led the Lady Mavs fast pitch softball team in both runs-batted-in (nearly one per game) and batting average (a hefty .324). Her team boasted a 20-9 mark and captured the state intercollegiate championship, beating Texas A & M in the finals. Brenda and the Lady Mavs then traveled to Omaha, Nebraska for the national AIAW tournament.

"Hitting four home runs in a single game" was Brenda's biggest thrill of the season. Back home in Corpus Christi, Brenda played two years of fast pitch softball and for the past three summers has played with the Arlington Angels, a slow pitch team. She's been playing slow pitch since she was eight, but really prefers fast pitch, because "you have to think more and steal bases. . ."

Brenda's athletic interests aren't limited to softball, as she served as a trainer for the Arlington football team last fall. And, as Delta Zeta Intramurals Chairman, led IΨ's "Bikini Basketball" team to a celebrated victory in a charity benefit game. The basketball trophy joins an outstanding record of intramural wins for Delta Zeta all attributed to Brenda's coaching.

Brenda, who is both a lovely and dependable Delta Zeta according to her Province Director Jane Gray Nelson, was Iota Psi's nominee for the Florence Hood Award this year. She's served Iota Psi as a party chairman in formal rush and as a representative in a charity dance marathon. And, Delta Upsilon chose her as one of their fraternity favorites.

Interestingly, Brenda isn't the only famous Marshall athlete at UT-A. Her older brother, Bruce, a pitcher, led the Mavericks to their most successful baseball season in the school's history and was nominated for the Academic All-American team. And the Marshall brother-sister act dispels any beliefs on sibling rivalry. They share an off-campus apartment in Arlington and "get along just fine!" They even appropriately share in cooking the meals.

Brenda, who'll be back at UT-A as a senior, plans to coach after earning her degree.

First Female

Student Body President

at Iowa State

Jill Wagner, BK, became involved in the Iowa State University Government of the Student Body (GSB) for the experience. Now, three years after her first involvement, she has had some great experiences. Jill is serving as the first elected female President of the GSB at Iowa State.

The first responsibility she had with GSB was working with the executive budgetary committee handling GSB appropriations and funds totalling one-half million dollars. After this first job she decided to take on the challenge of running for the Vice-Presidency of GSB.

"I wanted to offer something to the University," she said.

Jill was elected to the Vice-Presidency in November, 1974. Her duties included chairing the Student Senate, serving on the Student Union Board and lobbying in the legislature for Iowa State.

She took over the office officially at her inauguration in November. Since then her days and weeks are long and filled with appointments, correspondence and meetings. Among her responsibilities are presiding over cabinet meetings, coordinating all academic committees on campus, attending all Student Senate meetings, and lobbying in the State Legislature.

Jill spends forty to fifty hours a week in the GSB office. These hours are in addition to her school work. She is an industrial administration major with a subject concentration in engineering. In March of 1976 Jill was initiated into the Knight's of St. Patrick engineering society. After she graduates from Iowa State, Jill would like to go to graduate school in labor relations.

Jill Wagner, president of the student body at one of the largest universities, Iowa State in Ames, sits beside on the Christian Peterson fountain at the Memorial Union, with the Campanile in the background.

Sometimes Jill has had to put her personal feelings aside when the student body voted a conflicting opinion. Since GSB is the formal voice, Jill said it is important that the student's opinion is voiced.

For example, Jill had to put personal feelings aside when Iowa State students voted for open seating in the new stadium. Jill supported the reserved seating plan. But she presented the student's wishes to the State Board of Regents, graciously.

GSB is important because it is the official link between students and the Administration, according to Jill. "The Administration looks to us for a formal voice and for information," she said.

GSB members work with the Administration in matters such as grievance procedures for academic complaints, teacher/instructor evaluations and grading procedures.

The most valuable gains Jill has had include developing a good working relationship with many people. She has had the opportunity to learn that she is able to give orders, direct people and motivate people to work.

Personal working relationships with University Administrators is another advantage Jill has realized during her GSB term. She enjoys being the person administration officials call for information.

Will there be a future in politics for this pioneer in the Iowa State Presidency? "Politics fascinates me but whether or not I'll be a candidate, I don't know," she said.

Jill has spent challenging years at Iowa State. To other Delta Zetas she gives this advice, "Be knowledgeable about as many things as possible, Don't limit your scope and do something meaningful."

Though her Presidential activities don't leave much time for other activities, Jill enjoys the group living experience in Delta Zeta. She served as pledge class president, standards chairperson and parliamentarian.

Jill said, "The give and take involved in the Greek system and meeting people of different interests are the great advantages of sisterhood."

MACRAME UNVEILING

by Jane Maxwell Beaumont Alumnae

A macrame wall hanging, gift of the Beaumont Alumnae chapter, was formally unveiled during dedication ceremonies for the Lamar University Speech and Hearing Center on January 25, 1976.

Center director Dr. Robert F Achilles, internationally known speech and hearing educator and guest speaker Dr. Herbert J. Oyer, dean of the Graduate School at Michigan State University, alumnae president Judy Hammond, $\Delta\Lambda$, and alumnae philanthropy chairman Cheryl Tromblee, $\Delta\Lambda$, pulled the cords which released the green covering over the macrame entitled "Circles."

Approximately 200 persons attended dedication ceremonies and several hundred people, including a number of professionals in the speech and hearing therapy field, toured the Center during the weekend ceremonies.

Center personnel had requested that Delta Zeta's gift be something more permanent than a piece of equipment and suggested a macrame. Robert O'Neill, a member of the University's Art Department faculty, was commissioned to complete the wall hanging valued at $500. The Center staff plans to use it not only as a decoration for the building, but as a teaching tool to show young children shape and form. The macrame is in earth tones against a dark brown background.

The Speech and Hearing Center is believed to be one of the finest buildings of its type in the nation. Graduate and undergraduate students work with a large number of area children and adults with communicative disorders.

Delta Zetas, both alumnae and collegians of Delta Lambda chapter, have supported projects of the Lamar University Speech and Hearing Center for a number of years.

Several alumnae members currently are exploring the possibility of learning the manual (sign) language of the deaf so that they may serve as volunteers working with deaf persons at the Center.

Distinguished Service Award

Celeste Kitchen, ΔΛ-Lamar, registrar emeritus of Lamar University, recently was presented the Distinguished Service Award by the Texas Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers.

This was the second time in the 50-year history of the association that a Distinguished Service Award has been presented.

Donald E. Carter, president of TACRAO, said of Miss Kitchen in presenting the award, "Your untiring efforts to advance the cause of TACRAO should be an example to all of us."

Miss Kitchen, a 36-year member of TACRAO, retired in 1970 after 31 years as registrar at the University. In that year, she was named a Distinguished Alumna by the University's Ex-Students Association. She served as faculty sponsor for Delta Lambda chapter for 14 years.

More than 300 registrars and admissions officers attended the convention held in San Antonio, Texas last fall.

Dianne Hunt, $\Delta\Lambda$, a December 1975 deaf education graduate of Lamar University who is now a graduate student, is a member of the LU Cardinal Sign Mime Troupe. This group of students presents skits using signing and pantomime and will begin tours to other cities in the spring of 1976. A narrator is provided for hearing members of the audience.

Would you believe that a new Delta Zeta alumnae chapter could organize and within seven months have a project that captured the imagination of an entire city and raise $70,000! It did happen in Atlanta this year.

Last August about 15 alumnae got together to discuss a new evening alumnae group in Atlanta. In September the first meeting was called with Carolyn Lee Wills heading the group. Helen Atwood, ΔΔ-Georgia State, a legal secretary, was chosen secretary. Almost immediately a project was discussed, with Barbara Baughman, $\Delta\Delta$, appointed as chairman and Ellen Robertson Johnson, $\Delta\Delta$, co-chairman. Since a men's fashion show would be unique for the city, it was decided to begin with a show later named "A-Men '76." Both Barbara and Ellen are professional at fashion—Barbara is president of The Fashion Directory and Ellen is a public relations assistant at Rich's, the South's largest department store. Barbara's fiancé, Dan Maramba, volunteered to be the overall design coordinator.

As the project grew, the alumnae group grew—from an average of 15 at a meeting in the fall to over 40 in January. Each meeting included an interesting program primarily using our own members as speakers. We were getting to know and appreciate each other.

Save the Fox

The project, finally named "An Evening at the Fox" on March 20, was originally planned for 500, upped to 1,000 as it developed—but almost 2,000 attended the benefit! The $25 a couple price was a great buy for the very full evening. It began with a 7:00 p.m. reception, 8:00 p.m. fashion show, 9:00 dinner and dancing and the screening of a film "That's Entertainment" at midnight.

The evening was held all over the many areas of the huge Moorish movie palace. The newly renovated Egyptian Ballroom was great for dancing. The shish-kabob supper was served there, on the mezzanine, in the dress circle lobby and even in the ante rooms of the ladies lounge! Almost 1500 people were served supper.

Helen Atwood, prizes chairman, was busy with raffles and prizes. Almost $5,000 was made. The advance tickets were sold on a Caribbean cruise for two and on a Continental Mark IV.

Rita Shook, IN-Georgia Southern, as manpower chairman, was organizing booths at Cumberland Mall manned by Delta Zetas. Ticket sales on busy weekends averaged about $400 a day. It was great publicity for the event and Delta Zeta.

Carolyn Hoby Clark, $\Delta\Delta$, as decorations chairman, had workshops in her basement each week that progressed to each night just before the event. Exotic tiger lilies of aluminum with a center candle were made, a hundred round tablecloths and many rectangular ones.

Leah Burgess Richards, $\Delta\Lambda$ -Lamar, had her hands full with reservations and ticket sales—she was also moving into a new home and was organizing Province Day! It was Dot Magidson's phone that rang 18 hours a day for information! Money in hand on sales began slowly—but four days before the benefit we were sold out and returning money. Just to get to come became "the thing" in Atlanta and people were even buying \$25 tickets without the dinner or a table. Mary Clare Brumley BM-Florida Southern, food and beverage chairman, was getting more of everything. Eastern Airlines loaned 1400 linen napkins and 1200 pieces of silver so guests wouldn't have to have paper napkins and plastic utensils.

As professionals at publicity, Carolyn Lee Wills, regional manager public relations at Eastern Airlines, and Diane Davis, public relations assistant at Citgo, both former Delta Delta presidents at Georgia State University, got exposure with saturation in newspapers, radio and TV, not just in Atlanta but all over Georgia-and even an editorial in the Washington Post and some national publicity. Before the color front of a Sunday section of the Atlanta Journal and Constitution on the benefit word began to get around. An anonymous donor contacted us through a CPA, J. Michael Dean and offered $25,000 in matching funds! It was given "in recognition of the work done by Delta Zetas." A press conference, covered by all the major media in Atlanta, was held to announce the donation. The Atlanta Journal printed it on page 1 and every TV station filmed it. Then a donation of 300 shares of Coca Cola amounting to about $26,000 was made! It began to snowball and everyone in town knew about the project, wanted to help, and many made smaller donations.

The proceeds were to help save the Fox, a grand old Moorish movie theater. Atlanta Landmarks, Inc. had formed and secured a $1.8 million loan to save it. A payment of $135,000 was due June 25—and they were nowhere close to having the funds. Beauchamp Carr, head of Landmarks, said "Delta Zeta has captured the imagination of an entire city, something we had not been able to do for ourselves." With our $70,000, funds they had and $35,000 from a Van Cliburn benefit April 17—the payment will be made!

The highlight of the evening was-"A Men '76," quite a celebrity fashion production! Barbara Baughman and guest star Peter Lupus commentated. The theme of a history of movies was carried out in each scene. The Ruth Mitchell dancers and many models filled the huge stage (where even the Metropolitan Opera has performed many times). Its opening was "2001: A Space Odyessy"; the Pleasure Seekers, including a beach scene was highlighted by James Darren, singeractor! Denim clothes fit beautifully in "How the West Was Won," the Marlboro Man Bill Thourlby was a perfect model and "Quick Draw" Finch, a character actor from "Deliverance" was the rhinestone cowboy. Skinny Bobby Harper of WGST was the shiek in "The Road to Morocco." Bellydancers surround personalities like Poncho Contreras, tennis star and president of Eastern Airlines of Mexico; Pat Quinn, captain Atlanta Flames; Bob Hope of Atlanta Braves; and Ted Fritsch, Atlanta Falcons. "A Man for All Seasons" was Oscar. The "leading men" were Judge Ray Norvell, Atlanta Magazine editor Norman Shavin, Eastern's Vice President W. L. Cambre, state revenue commissioner Nick Chilivis, former Vietnam POW Quincy Collins, former congressman Ben Blackburn, president of Underground Atlanta Jack Patterson, architect Henri Jova. "A Star is Born" featured Bob Neal of WXIA-TV, Harmon Wages former Atlanta Falcon of WAGA-TV, Aubrey Morris of WSB, Tony Taylor of WGST and WXIA-TV, Carl Sell of WSB-TV, Jeff Winter of WKLS. "That's Entertainment" was the musical scene with a life-like wax figure of Marlene Dietrich in silver sequins. Gayle Sayers, former Chicago Bear, also modeled. Other big names included popular University of Georgia football coach Vince Dooley with his ΔΔ wife Barbara, Everett Millican, Jr., former president Atlanta Golf Classic, Ken McQuilken, Atlanta Falconand Steve Bartkowski, the hero quarterback of the Atlanta Falcons.

The show ended with a real wedding on stage. Through Ludlow Porch's WRNG radio talk show many couples volunteered to be married in the show! Marie Cardinal Hanson, wife of Ludlow whose real name is Bob Hanson, almost became the mother of the bride. She chose Rachel Gordon and Philip Cook—and they had a free wedding and honeymoon compliments of our donors. The pink and white theme was even carried out on the balcony of Egyptian Ballroom where they had a private reception overlooking the bank and dance floors.

ALUMNAE PROGRAMS—Variety and Ingenuity in Meeting the Needs.

Delta Zeta alumnae take part in meetings monthly. Each day of every week from east to west, north to south, finds a Delta Zeta alumnae chapter. gathering together to enjoy programmed activities. Similarities in program topics indicate the matters of general interest to women.

Plants—how to take care of them, decorate with them, make them grow, earn money with them—have captured the fancy of many groups. By far, this is the most popular program topic today! Agronomists, florists, neighbors and members with a talented green thumb have met the increasing demand for more information as meeting speakers.

Speakers on safety for women, how to prevent crime and discussions on rape with its effect on women, reflect social concerns.

Couples parties, tours of restaurants, demonstrations, ongoing bridge games, instructions in various crafts and art fairs are planned for fun and profit.

In many alumnae chapters, the nation's Bicentennial has inspired programs devoted to historical topics, antiques, refinishing furniture, heirlooms and quilting. In some areas historical preservation of buildings is an object of interest with projects designed to benefit continued assistance in preserving historical architecture.

Delta Zeta's Diamond Jubilee celebration in 1977 has inspired alumnae to take renewed interest in the sorority's traditions and history with programs devoted to our Founders and fashions featuring the high styles popular over Delta Zeta's 75 years.

With ingenuity and imagination, groups have shown the breadth of their interests to include information sessions on government, environment, schools and physical fitness. Alumnae found something for every Delta Zeta at gathering during the year while continuing to enjoy the fun, the activities and warmth of close friendship.

The National Council takes pleasure in announcing the chartering of the following Delta Zeta alumnae chapters during 1975-76:

Bloomington-Normal Alumnae Chapter Bloomington, Illinois

> Las Cruces Alumnae Chapter Las Cruces, New Mexico

Bayou Alumnae Chapter Thibodaux, Louisiana

The Cobb County Alumnae Chapter Atlanta, Georgia

Milledgeville Alumnae Chapter Milledgeville, Georgia

Central Texas Alumnae Chapter Waco and Temple area, Texas

Alumnae chapter charters were reissued this year to the following Delta Zeta alumnae chapters:

Bloomington Alumnae Chapter Bloomington, Indiana

Memphis Alumnae Chapter Memphis, Tennessee

Phoenix, Arizona: "A lot of blisters, a lot of hot dogs, but a lot of fun" reported Delta Zetas who participated in a successful Panhellenic fund raising activity by helping run the concession booths for the Thunderbirds' Phoenix Open Golf Tournament. Interesting meetings this year included a tour of an alumna's ceramic studio and a speaker who discussed diggings and artifacts of local interest. Jennifer Bath, BN-Miami, won the 1975 Outstanding Sales Representative for Hunt-Wesson Foods. She was also selected as one of the Outstanding Young Women of America for 1975.

Tucson, Arizona: The Alum-Mums joined their pledge daughters of Beta Iota in promoting a Fireside Get-Together before spring initiation. The collegiate chapter surprised the alumnae by treating them at the initiation luncheon. Throughout the winter and spring, members have had seasonal parties for the children at the Center for Hearing Impaired Children. Because of a successful Card Party, the alumnae also bought some living room chairs and a screen for the CHIC building.

Pasadena Foothills, California: Here's a good idea for an informative husband-wife meeting. At their May meeting, couples listened to a local psychotherapist and licensed marriage, family and child counselor discuss child management and methods of handling problem behavior. He also offered preventive advice on how to avoid development of problem behavior.

San Jose, California: Louise Lapp Grattan, $\Gamma\Lambda$ -San Jose, has been installed as Panhellenic president. The fund raising project this year was a wine tasting dinner in May. Alumnae donated time and money to Project Idea, a pre-school for deaf children. Fun meetings included a trip to a figure salon, where everyone was able to try out the machines, and an egg decorating demonstration.

Denver, Colorado: Appropriate for 1976 was a program on Citizen Involvement and Voting Rights presented by a member of the League of Women Voters. A rewarding evening was spent at the Hope Center for the Retarded, where alumnae learned about the special training available for these individuals. Nina Pate Lenon showed slides taken by her and her husband while scuba diving around the Grand Cayman Islands! Sixteen volunteers administered the Hearing Test to about 2000 metropolitan preschoolers for the philanthropic project.

Fort Collins, Colorado: The children at Beattie School for the Deaf are looking forward to seeing Delta Zeta alumnae this coming school year. The children and alumnae had fun together visiting a greenhouse, a doughnut shop and the Coloradoan, a newspaper. Elenor Chaney Gardner, AA-George Washington, gave a demonstration on spinning and Eleanor Damer Baker, ZΦ-Slipperv Rock, gave one on the recorder, a forerunner of the flute. Most of the children have hearing with their audiometers and were interested in all types of music presented. The children and their instructors presented a program to the alumnae about their progress at the school.

Gold Coast Area, Fort Lauderdale, Florida: A luncheon, fashion show, and bazaar netted over $1000 for alumnae philanthropies. Bazaar items were sold at a garage sale in six "shops": Tennis World, Children's Favorites, Reef Shop, Kitchen Korner, Plant Paradise, and Poverty Pocket. A national fast food chain provided a tasty treat for the alumnae; for their participation in sampling and evaluating chicken, they received $100!

Atlanta, Georgia: As one of their philanthropy projects, the newly-chartered Cobb County Alumnae held a crafts bazaar to raise money for the Georgia Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf. The \$350 donated will be used to train police officers in sign language. The presentation of this money to the Georgia Registry was covered in three newspapers. Chairman for the bazaar was Linda Hill, $\Delta\Delta$ -Georgia State. Alumnae were proud to win the Attendance Award at the Province XXII meeting.

Chicago South Suburbs, Illinois: Alumnae made drapery ring miniatures at two monthly meetings, which were then sold on consignment at a local gift shop, to raise funds for the chapter. For philanthropy work, each member contributed two handmade wash cloth puppets to the pediatrics section of a local hospital.

DuPage Valley, Illinois: With the current emphasis on saving grocery money and doit-yourself ideas, here is a timely subject for a meeting—a demonstration on cooking and canning your own vegetables. At their May meeting, new gardeners picked up valuable information and expert gardeners had a good review!

West Suburban, Illinois: It was a busy year here with a variety of activities from quilling and macram'e demonstrations to making bed pads for the American Cancer Society to attending a dinner theater with husbands. The work plus the fun equalled a successful year.

Anderson, Indiana: Jane Gustafson Thompson, BN-Miami, was general chairman of the Indiana Flame Fantasy luncheon held in Indianapolis, which netted $1500! Alumnae collected stamps and coupons during the year. These will be used to get door prizes for the next Flame Fantasy. Alumnae helped the Gamma Chi collegians during final exams by furnishing midnight snacks for those burning the midnight oil.

Bloomington, Indiana: The alumnae chapter was recently rechartered at Province Day. Bloomington alumnae hosted the event that was held at the Epsilon house and in Alumni Hall of Indiana University. The alumnae feted the pledges at a traditional pledge supper—all forty-seven pledges! Charms were presented to seniors at a salad supper in their honor. Funds were raised for the year at a "book and bake" sale.

Muncie, Indiana: Here are some thoughtful ways to remember collegians and to develop closer ties with the collegiate chapter near you. These alumnae put a couple of sacks full of snacks in the house during vacation times so that when the collegians return, food is waiting. They sponsored a party for the pledges. During the party, they all formed a circle to pass a candle and as each alumna was given the candle, she recited a friendship verse. When the regular monthly meeting closely precedes a vacation or a special day; alumnae send cards to the pledges to let them know that they are being thought about.

Des Moines, Iowa: "Eat with Big Bird" proclaimed posters around the city in April! And many youngsters and parents did eat with Big Bird helping alumnae net over $750 for the Speech and Hearing Center. This was the first year for this money raising project and the response was so good that plans are to make it even bigger and better next year. Alumnae rented a costume and hired a student from Drake to impersonate Big Bird. In addition to poster publicity, Big Bird appeared on a local cartoon show and visited the children's ward at a local hospital. (Kay Morrow Wright, AT-Texas, alumnae president, is an administrator at the hospital and arranged that.) One television station filmed Big Bird with the children for the evening news. With the help of the collegiate chapter, alumnae served three breakfasts and two lunches to those who wanted to see Big Bird. Since it was May Day, Big Bird gave each child a small May Basket. In addition to this, when the children and parents were done eating and taking pictures, the alumnae ran a bake sale and sponsored an Artist's Alley through which they could browze and buy. Everyone working really was on her toes and helped make the day an enjoyable success! Jane Becksfort Brown, AN-Parsons, was chairman of the event.

Johnson-Wyandotte, Kansas: From the Jo-Dotte newsletter: "We joined the sisterhood of Delta Zeta in college, but the full realization of that bond becomes apparent when as alums we reach out and find a friend through Delta Zeta." Lillian Shrout McCune was awarded the Alumna Service Award at Province Weekend. She was the first president of the alumnae chapter. Other awards won by the chapter included Best Pressbook, Best Scrapbook, and Philanthropies. Money making projects this year were product testing for Consumer Research and collecting aluminum that could be recycled. A meeting in honor of the Bicentennial featured discussion of American Revolutionary Women.

Lawrence, Kansas: The chapter was named the Most Improved Alumnae chapter at Province Weekend and also won first place in the newsletter. Panhellenic sponsored a brunch to honor fifty year sorority women this spring. Those honored from Delta Zeta included Evelyn Wilson, Helen Keens, and Hazel Tarpley.

Clay-Platte, Kansas City, Missouri: A very successful year began with a Flame Fantasy that raised money to purchase a hearing aid for a local student. In the spring, flowers bloomed as alumnae made artificial flowers to be sold at the bake sale and at State Day. The local Special Olympics team is wearing T-shirts purchased by the alumnae. The last project of the year was selling tickets to a local dinner theater.

Marshall, Missouri: Alumnae hosted Missouri State Day in April. At the annual spring brunch honoring seniors, each girl received a rose and was welcomed into the alumnae group. Esther Cassity Reid, ΓΓ-Missouri Valley, and Josephine Lawless Reed, BN-Miami, were chosen by Beta Sigma Phi for Outstanding Women of the Year. Margaret Sutton Waters, ΓΓ-Missouri Valley, was elected vice president of the Marshall Chamber of Commerce.

Topeka, Kansas: About $300 was spent for gifts for sixteen children of the Kansas Children's Service League. The KCSL provides a list of the wants and the alumnae did the rest—selection, purchasing, and delivering. In addition to buying the toys for the children from ages 20 months to sixteen, alumnae purchased blankets for the 24-hour emergency foster home program.

Wichita, Kansas: Those with brown thumbs picked up tips on how to become green thumbs at a spring plant party. Two enlightening programs this year were the discussion of the Equal Rights Amendment and the presentation of the YMCA's Big Sister program. Spring was celebrated with a Crazy Couples' Bridge Party—or was it Couples' Crazy Bridge Party?

Shreveport, Louisiana: At the Province Conference, the alumnae won achievement awards for Programs and Panhellenic Contributions and honorable mention for Newsletter and Yearbook. Alumnae donated $100 to the Special Olympics and helped three children get badly needed hearing tests. Ginger Bryan was elected chairman of the Junior Members' Roundtable Section of the Louisiana Librarians' Association.

Reno, Nevada: Alumnae gave \$500 to the Dr. Mary Scholarship Fund at the University of Nevada-Reno, in honor of Dr. Mary Fulstone, M-California, '15. This scholarship has been maintained for the past five years. In addition to this fund, \$100 was given to the Speech and Hearing Scholarship Fund at the University of Nevada and to the local Special Children's Clinic. Lynn Ballard, $Z\Gamma$ -Humboldt, and her husband Jerry are the backbones of the Fund Raising Drive.

Southern New Jersey: The "Out for Lunch Bunch" had a fun-all-day meeting in April. Those who met for the Craft Mini-Meetings learned how to make corn husk dolls and how to sand craft. Interesting general meetings found the alumnae learning how to cake decorate and relaxing with a Las Vegas Night. After gaming and nibbling, the winnings from the night were used to bid for items in a zany auction.

Las Cruces, New Mexico: Since its chartering in June of 1975, the alumnae have been busy with all sorts of plans and activities. Alumnae hosted parents of Gamma Xi members at an informal get-acquainted luncheon, earned money with a successful handicraft bazaar and bake sale, and held a surprise appreciation dinner for Janet Moore who has served as CCD for the Gamma Xi chapter since 1972.

Tri-County, Garden City, New York: Philanthropy projects included making hand puppets for young children and a donation of small gifts for a grab bag for teenagers at the Caritas Center for Deaf Persons. Early spring saw a social evening and fund raising event combined. Each couple attending the evening party brought an item to be auctioned as their ticket to be admitted. The evening was a success financially and socially.

Berea, Ohio: Alumnae honored new pledges in January at an Ice Cream party; many tasty sundaes were devoured! Alumnae sponsored a reception for Baldwin-Wallace May Queen Barb Charles. "The Animals Are Coming" was a favorite program for parents and children this spring. The Cleveland Zoo provided a speaker and animals for a petting zoo. Movies and songs added to the gaiety. Profits of $160 went to the Speech and Hearing Clinic at Baldwin-Wallace.

Cleveland, Ohio: Julie Foster won the Olive McCune Loyalty Award given to the Ohio alumna who has given much of herself to promoting Delta Zeta objectives and activities. She is currently Alumnae Director of Province V and has held all offices in the Cleveland Westside Alumnae. She was nominated by both the Eastside and the Westside however!

Cincinnati, Ohio: Want to increase your membership? Want to have something new for a change? Try this. At the end of the sorority year a questionnaire is handed or mailed out for members' comments. Things that each person is asked specifically to comment on are "what day and time would be good for meetings and what would make them attend more meetings." Program ideas for the coming year are listed and members are asked to cross out those they feel will not draw a crowd. Speakers and ideas for tours are also listed. The next section asks them what they would like to learn and lists ideas to check. Also asked is "what members know about that they could teach others about." Last, but not least, alumnae are asked to circle moneymaking project ideas that they like and to cross out those that are not of interest. And here is the clincher! To make sure that these are returned, they are used in a door prize drawing at the last meeting of the year!

Findlay, Ohio: At State Day, the chapter received first place Newsletter, the College Chapter Assistance Award for actively assisting both Findlay and Ohio Northern University, and the attendance award for the sixth consecutive year. Here are some words of wisdom about herbs that appeared in the Findlay newsletter that more of you might want to know. 1) Young herb seeds die easily. Keep them in a quiet, shady place with no drafts. After they are an inch high, they can be put in sunlight.

(This takes 3-4 weeks.) Be patient. 2) Mint is good in tea and for stomachs. Line the bottom of a cake pan with mint leaves, put in cake mix, bake, turn over and peel off leaves. Cake will have a mint flavor. 3) Wear pads and gloves when you work in the garden. Dampness eventually causes arthritis. 4) Store dried herbs (spices) in opaque containers to preserve vitamin content.

Lake County, Ohio: The April Bicentennial meeting really had historical atmosphere as the alumnae met in the home of President James A. Garfield. The induction of officers was held right in the library surrounded by all sorts of memorabilia from that era.

Bartlesville, Oklahoma: Ninetta Sherwood Dack was the 1976 Gwen McKeeman Award winner for the Outstanding Alumna. This was the first State Day she had missed for many years when the award was presented. So the alumnae surprised her the next day at her home and presented the silver tray to her. Verna Holstrom Wilhelm was also surprised when the alumnae presented her with her Golden Rose certificate. rose, and purse that the alumnae had designed and embroidered with fifty roses. Are you puzzled by the new scarf craze? If you want to learn how to wear and tie those different scarves, try what these alumnae did-a demonstration by someone in the know. Mabel Flaherty Loy and her husband are tour guides in the United States and Europe. Elderly patients at a local manor were entertained at a St. Patrick's Day Book Review Tea.

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma: Mary Ann French was named Panhellenic Woman of the Year. Alumnae had fun raising money for philanthropies with their Casino Party. Such a deal—for only $2.00 each member got $5000—play money, of course!

Rochester alumnae honored Mabel Osler Priest, AM-St. Lawrence, and Ruth Shattuck Lucy, AK-Syracuse at a recent luncheon with the Golden Rose ceremony.

Sarah Fife Blaney, AP-Ohio Wesleyan, was honored by alumnae and collegians when Tamazine Crum Kinneman, $\Gamma\Delta$ -Penn State, presented her Golden Rose certificate in the chapter suite. Sarah was instrumental in four ding the Penn State chapter and was their adviser. Tamazine was a charter member and first president.

Greensboro alumnae Sandra Godwin Taylor, $\Theta\Omega$ -Atlantic Christian, Gayle Crawford Bicknell, A-Miami, Clara Reilly Baker, $\Theta\Omega$, Debra Hanson Maher, ZZ-Lenoir Rhyne, and Margaret Morton McIntyre, ZZ-Sam Houston serve the children of Central North Carolina School for the Deaf at a cook-out.

Katherine Raichle Rue, Φ -Wash. State, and Vivian Steele Cornwall, K-Washington, present Seattle Alumnae's gift of $500 for special projects within the Seattle Community College program for the deaf.

Stillwater, Oklahoma: The annual Smarty Party honored collegians with a 3 point average or better. Alumnae were dressed in attire according to the year in which they were initiated and they related what they remembered about the initiations. The featured speaker at the alumnae meeting in celebration of International Women's Year was Francine Irving Neff, treasurer of the United States. Carolyn Gang, AE-Oklahoma State, is serving as secretary of the graduate student council.

Portland, Oregon: An outstanding book review highlighted a luncheon with the Alpha Delta Pi alumnae. Delta Zeta volunteers were "stars" for an evening when they answered telephones for a local television telethon. Two spring events that are much looked forward to were held again this year, the Chi Rendezvous and the Strawberry Brunch. Special attraction for the Las Vegas Night was an authentic Japanese Pachinko game. To encourage all to wear their Delta Zeta pins, alumnae passed a "pin bag" to collect 25¢ if you weren't wearing your pin: a good way to add some pin money to your treasury!

Memphis, Tennessee: Joyce Lockhart Gary, ΓΙ-Memphis was named Best Alumna at Province Weekend. An evening at a belly dancing class, a theater night out with city Panhellenic, and Saturday lunches at local unique restaurants sparked interest with alumnae this year.

Beaumont, Texas: The chapter received the "Adventures in Friendship" silver tray, the traveling award for philanthropy projects, at State Day. Alumnae manned booths at the Neches River Festival Flea Market to earn money for a macrame wall hanging donated to the Lamar Speech and Hearing Center.

Dallas, Texas: A Tennis Interest Group was added to the other mini groups that meet monthly. At State Day, the chapter received a certificate for Sustained Chapter Excellence for two years and a special commendation for collegiate chapter assistance and increased paid membership. Is that treasure in your attic worthless or priceless? Delta Zetas found out some of the answers in a program "An Introduction to Antiques" held in April. The speaker allowed them to bring small "treasures" for an on-the-spot opinion. The meeting for the following month tied in with that as the speaker was from a local furniture store, for a presentation on "How to Plan a Room."

Houston, Texas: We've all heard home decorating parties and Tupperware parties to raise money, but now there's the plant party. Plants are for sale in all price ranges and a percentage of the profits goes to the group's treasury. In addition, there are expert tidbits about water, light, bugs, and fertilizing. Maybe it will turn some of us into green thumbs! These alumnae are really immersed in the plant craze; a few weeks following the plant party, they toured and had lunch at a Hilltop Herb Farm. Lunch in the gigantic greenhouse was an experience not to be missed they said.

San Antonio, Texas: Here are two ideas to vary your money making efforts: a Needles and Pins Craft show and a telethon. The craft show included tables rented to individuals and groups interested in selling needlecraft items. The alumnae had a table for themselves at which they sold items they had made. At the telethon members who wished to make a contribution to philanthropies called and made their pledges. Alumnae and children enjoyed the Easter Egg Hunt planned for the children. Amy Reeh Glasgow, IA-Southwest Texas, received the Texas Alumna Service Award at State Day. The chapter received first place for Best Pressbook, Best Scrapbook and Best Display. Locally, Betty Gieson Green, IA, received the Amy Glasgow Award for outstanding service.

Salt Lake City, Utah: A successful event this year was the Potluck Supper. Instead of playing games after dinner, the alumnae sponsored a household shower for the new Girls' Village Home. The home was built strictly from donated funds and services with the help of a great many volunteers. The facility was built for girls who could not live at home and for whom a foster parent situation was not appropriate.

Washington, D.C.: President Ann Winstead arranged for a tour of the new exhibit The Look of Sound, which opened at Gallaudet College. The exhibit was planned to provide a visitor with an educational experience using sight, sound and touch to convey the story of deafness. As part of the Panhellenic program, the alumnae donated homemade birthday cakes to Walter Reed Center. In May, the alumnae attended the annual Gallaudet College Dance Concert and were impressed by the talent and enthusiasm. Alumnae were fortunate to tour the International Headquarters of the Order of the Eastern Star, located in the former Belmont mansion. Completed in 1909 at a cost of $1.5 million, it has housed distinguished foreign visitors. There is even a squash court with a marble floor. You've heard of Christmas in July, of course. But have you heard of Christmas in June and really celebrated it then? These alumnae did by making the items that they plan to sell at the Christmas auction in November at the Christmas in June Bazaar Workshop. With all this, don't forget that Christmas is really in December! Golden Rose members honored at the May luncheon were Margaret Fuller Dodderidge, Y-North Dakota, Ruth Rothenburger Ferguson, Π-Eureka; Esther Woodruff Hines, Θ-Ohio State, Elizabeth Drake Kenyon, A \Delta - George Washington, Beulah Chamberlain Robertson, Gladys Lewis Smith, all AA-George Washington, Florence Osgood Rumbaugh, AX-UCLA, Joy Ismond Tod, AA-Northwestern, Genevieve Johnson White, AA-Colorado, Ruth Dieckmann Willer, A-Miami, and Blanche Lees Windham, ⊖-Ohio State.

Seattle, Washington: Phi Chapter Alumnae held their biennial reunion dinner at the Kappa chapter house. Greater Seattle's entry in the annual table decorating contest by City Panhellenic was awarded second prize. The two hundred guests of the Bicentennial Flame Fantasy admired the creativity of co-chairmen Kitty Ide and Gerry MacAdam. The event included a fashion parade, luncheon, and silent auction.

Committee chairmen for Atlanta Alumnae's Evening at the Fox were Ellen Johnson, Carolyn Clark, Rita Shook, Barbara Baughman, Leah Richards and Helen Atwood, with Laurie Eidson Dillard and Carolyn Lee Wills holding the posters which promoted the event.

Wheeling, West Virginia: Here is another group that has been involved in telethon work this year. Alumnae participated in the Easter Seal Telethon by contacting all workers to give them job assignments and arranging for speech therapy students to be in telethon advertisements. In addition, alumnae assisted the day of the telethon by helping the children there, manning the phones, and checking credentials. To help Iota Tau, the alumnae made new gowns for the formal parties and planned a rush school.

Sheboygan, Wisconsin: The newly formed group has had six meetings since an Open House in September to meet all those interested in starting an alumnae group. As their philanthropy project, they have begun working with and learning about the local school for the hearing impaired. A family picnic was held during the summer for the families to get better acquainted.

Whitewater, Wisconsin: The annual EK reunion was held this spring-a good time and good food. Alumnae played bingo with residents of a nursing home and danced an Irish jig, among other things, at a St. Patrick's Day Party. Here's a good recipe for children from Sandy Emerson Grosspietsch called Finger Jello. They can handle the pieces of jello like cookies and the jello does not melt. Ingredients are 4 envelopes of Knox unflavored gelatin, a 6 ounce package of flavored jello and 4 cups of boiling water. Combine gelatin in large bowl. Add water and stir until all gelatin is dissolved. Pour into jelly roll pan or large baking pan. Chill until firm. For holidays, cookie cutters can be used to make different shapes when you cut the firm jello.

SORORITY TIGHTENS PURSE STRINGS DURING DEPRESSION

rom prosperity in the twenties to austerity in the thirties, a large part of the United States learned what it meant to be desperately poor. Following the stock market crash in 1929, the banking system of the richest country in the world collapsed and thousands of small businesses were wiped out overnight. Everywhere there was hunger. Destitute people foraged cities for food, and many families walked from town to town in search of work. These wanderers were denied government "doles," as well as their voting rights, because they had no legal residence.

The wonderful make-believe world of children did not falter during the Depression years. Kids thrilled to the exploits of Flash Gordon, Tom Mix, Buck Rogers and Little Orphan Annie each week in the Sunday funnies. It was a time when inexpensive, homemade toys showed imagination and ingenuity. Orange crate scooters were "standard equipment" with most youngsters. They were fun, even if you did wear out some shoe leather dragging your foot to stop them.

nder the Roosevelt administration, the country gradually rallied and regained its economic balance. Business go back on its feet and by 1939 dozens of new inventions came on the market. With the threat of World War I descending upon us, wonder products such as television, frozen foods, synthetic detergents and lightweigh metal were not yet to become a part of daily living for Americans. Instead the United States plunged its resources and energies into all-out military defense preparation.

Radio listeners in the '30's nad no difficulty envisioning the pictures while the 'big box' in the living room supplied the sound. The whole country listened and laughed at Amos' n Andy, Fred Allen, Jack Benny and a talented ventriloquist named Edgar Bergen with his life-like dummy, Charlie McCarthy. Young fans found suspense and excitement in the radio adventures of Tarzan and the action-packed episodes of Jack Armstrong, 'the all-American boy.'

uietly, without fanfare, woman's progress was unwavering despite the nation's troubles. After women received equal opportunities in education and gained the right to vote, they actively sought a voice in making the laws. When Mrs. Nellie T. Ross, of Wyoming, and Mrs. Miriam A. Fergus, of Texas, became the first women elected governors in the United States, new vistas in politics were opened. In 1932, Mrs. Hattie Caraway of Arkansas was elected to the United States Senate, and in 1933, Frances Perkins became Secretary of Labor, the first woman Cabinet member. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt was appointed to the United Nations General Assembly in 1945, and in 1949, Mrs. Eugenic Anderson was made America's first woman ambassador.

ach year the demand grew for college-trained personnel in business. New professions and callings stimulated a widespread interest in higher education, increasing the student enrollment in American colleges and universities which spiraled to 1½ million just before World War II. Membership in Greek sororities and fraternities grew proportionately, climbing to 82 nationals in the early forties.

y careful management, Delta Zeta came through the economic crisis of the thirties, and by the end of the decade. Delta Zeta chapters numbered 63 with a total membership of over 10,000. At a time when women actively sought equal opportunities with men as students, as well as citizens, the sorority woman gained valuable knowledge and experience in her chapter's activities. Here she learned and practiced the concept of service which promotes leadership, independent action and a sense of community responsibility. This training ultimately had a profound effect on her entire life as an individual, and as a citizen.

$75,000 DELTA ZETA FOUNDERS MEMORIAL FUND TO SPONSOR COLLEGIATE SCHOLARSHIPS

ith growing college enrollments and a constant rise in operating costs in the seventies. it is inevitable that students pay more for lees, tuitions, books and board. It may be hard to beeve, but one of the early and widely approved ideas in America was that a college education be inexpensive. t's still a popular idea . . . it's just no longer feasible. Perhaps when you were in college, you were never in mancial peril, at least to the extent you worried about completing your education. Perhaps now you would ke to help a Delta Zeta sister who faces this dilemma. The DELTA ZETA FOUNDERS MEMORIAL FUND has been created to sponsor collegiate scholarships for leserving collegians throughout the nation. Every indergraduate member of every Delta Zeta chapter will eeligible to apply. The honor of receiving a Founders Fund scholarship transcends gift giving. It is so much more. It will not only assist, but will inspire the Delta Leta lives of our collegians. Our Delta Zeta family has always united in a common cause. With the economic crisis our sisters face today, there is no more fitting tribute we can make.

A new type of glamour girl, essentially a "swinging debutante," caught the country's attention in the '30's. People liked to read about her glittering social life in "Cafe Society" where she mingled nightly with movie stars and gossip columnists in the chic new super clubs which had supplanted the old speak-easies from Prohibition days.

his is a personal appeal to you, a Delta Zeta sister, for generous support in this $75,000 drive. If you can't send as much as you'd like, please what you can. Complete and send the form provided with your contribution to:

GIVE A LITTLE - HELP A LOT!

Whatever you give is tax deductible.

Big bands became big business in the late '30's and their leaders were as famous as movie stars. Benny Goodman was the first big band leader to introduce swing to mass audiences. The new swinging sound was actually a revival of jazz music popular in the '20's. The tremendous popularity of swing introduced the big band era which brought us musical greats like Glenn Miller, Jimmy and Tommy Dorsey, Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Artie Shaw, Harry James and Kay Kayser.

Hollywood's movies acted as a healing balm to a nation down in the dumps during the lean years of the Depression. Hard times were temporarily forgotten when movie goers watched such delightful films as Walt Disney's "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." Clean films were the order of the day. Indecent speech and behavior banned from movie making in the mid '30's was to be absent from the screen until 1968 when the Motion Picture Association of America adopted the classification system.

ALABAMA

Auburn, Beta Xi-More than 300 contestants entered Delta Zeta's Ben Franklin Kite Flying contest in honor of the Bicentennial. At another Bicentennial event, Philadelphia Square, members joined alumnae to provide refreshments. Proceeds benefited national philanthropies. A wholehearted effort earned a $1000 cash prize in an ecology drive and can pick-up. Pledges earned first place honors in the Wreck Tech Parade for Spirit and finished first in volleyball intramurals. Philanthropies include a Half Way House for women released from prison, a party for Head Start children and donation to Relief Fund for South America. Campus leaders include Charlotte Davis, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Phi Kappa Phi and Omicron Delta Kappa member. Barbara K. Carl is president elect of Student Section of Alabama Recreation and Park Society and president of Auburn Recreation Major's Club. Hazel Blair is projects chairman of . Tau Beta Pi honorary, secretary-treasurer of Southeastern Conference of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers and member of Mortar Board. JoAnn Michalik is a member of Alpha Epsilon Delta pre-med honorary, Mortar Board and a Greek Forum Panelist. Other members of honoraries are Ellen A. Cliburn, Donna Mc-Cauley, Phi Kappa Phi, Elizabeth Spencer, AEΔ; and Cynthia Mahery, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Organization officers are Susan Hazenfield, veep of School of Home Economics and member of ON, Amoret Eiland, first vice-president of Kappa Epsilon pharmacy honorary and secretary of the Pharmacy Council; and Margaret Carter, first veep of American Student Pharmaceutical Association. Kathrine Owens is a senator, while Edna Jordan is a Union Hostess. Kim Hanson is also a Union Hostess and joins Debra Michalik in Capers ROTC Auxiliary. Teresa Nave is a member of Angel Flight. Patricia Brooks is a varsity softball player and a volleyball all-star, while Janis Jackson placed first in intramural billiards.

Samford, Alpha Pi-Alpha Lambda Delta freshman scholastic honorary includes Kris Mihelick, president, Mary Keown, secretary-treasurer, Suzanne Moon, Rebecca Jarrell, Lisa Jones and Leslie Lockman. Beta Beta Beta biology honorary lists Dana Patrick, Mary Keown and Kris Mihelick. Mary Keown and Pam Lewis are chairmen for Student Center Board with Sandy Durham and Shasta Parker also members. Amanda Redman is Student Government Association secretary, while Brenda Somers is a senator. Judiciary Board includes Shasta Parker and Shannon Jackson. Hypatia members are Sandy McKinney and Lynn Olive. Pam Lewis is secretary-treasurer of Sigma Tau Delta. Members raised funds for Gallaudet with a car wash. They also sponsored an Easter party for children of Ealeton Village Housing Project and presented a rousing rendition of I Am Thankful to Be An American in this year's Step Sing.

ARIZONA

Arizona, Beta Iota-Delta Zeta teamed with Delta Chi during Spring Fling and won first place trophies for skit, food booth and booth facade. A second place trophy came for campus public relations. During Greek Week, BI won cheerleading first place honors with members from five other houses, along with several individual awards. Spring Fling proceeds went to U of A sponsored philanthropies. Three Beta Iotas, Candy Beumler, Mary Jensen and Tricia Mealka were selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities giving Delta Zeta the largest representation among sororities. Elaine Holub will be serving as a Freshman Orientation leader on campus this summer. Members of the 1976 Homecoming Steering Committee include Vicki Reichert, chairman, Shirley Weichmann, secretary, Barb Fonder, treasurer, and Barb Schenning, art consultant.

Elaine Holub is currently serving as an RA and Cindy Spiegelhoff has been named as a Head RA for next fall. Ora Jones, EK advisor, was honored at the annual mother, father, daughter banquet and presented with a Golden Rose Award for her fifty years of service to Delta Zeta. Denise Rinaldi and her partner Mark Jeffries were the winners of the annual dance marathon for Muscular Dystrophy. They raised over $400. At a recent meeting, chapter members learned the fundamentals of sign language. The program coincided with a philanthropic project to aid deaf children at Delavan.

Dear Trumpet Editor:

Before the school year comes to an end, I wish to thank the members of Delta Zeta sorority and Delta Chi fraternity for their excellent work in serving as a welcoming group for the on-campus freshmen last fall.

The welcome which they extended consisted primarily of long hours of carrying luggage into Shaw, Rogers, and Bonar halls.

If this work had not been done voluntarily and so efficiently by Delta Zeta and Delta Chi, the College would have been faced with a massive traffic jam around Main Hall while cars were being unloaded only by their passengers.

In my opinion, the kind of student spirit which is displayed in the above efforts, as well as during the recent Greek Week activities, continues to contribute greatly toward making one's work here a rewarding experience.

> Sincerely, Frank J. Harrar Director of Student Personnel Services West Liberty State College

CAMPUS SIGHTS AND SOUNDS are momentary things, fleeting, soon replaced by other things to see and to hear. These bicentennial moments dateline the sights and sounds of other days. . .

1888: Though coeducation is growing in all areas, the men students at Adelbert College in Cleveland are violently opposed and have held demonstrations to exhibit their wrath at having young ladies in their classes. It is quite likely that the vote will be against women when the Board of Trustees reviews the case.

1890: Tennis is a chief amusement on college campuses this year. From the State University of Iowa comes the report that the different literary societies, fraternities, etc., each have their own court.

1890: Sorority women at Cornell held a Fancy Fair for the furnishing of a department at the city hospital for sick students. It is reported that all students, professors, and ladies of the university were interested and over $1,000 was raised.

1893: The period July 17-22 was designated as Fraternity Week at the World's Fair in Chicago. Many of the men's fraternities held conventions and reunions and didn't seem so interested in the discussion sessions as the women felt that might have been. Held at the Art Institute, the meetings Wednesday morning, July 19, were designated as College of College Fraternities while the afternoon was devoted to a Special Session of Fraternity Editors. The Congress of Women's Fraternities, its second such meeting, was the event of Thursday, the twentieth, concluded with a reception and banquet at the New York Building at the Fair.

1918: The epidemic of Spanish influenza which has ravaged the United States and Canada this fall has caused severe curtailment of academic curriculum on most campuses, strict quarantines of dormitories and fraternity houses. At Albion College the sorority lodges were offered for use as temporary hospitals, and, after inspection, one was chosen for this purpose.

1921: With women's suffrage established now, many campus groupspanhellenics especially—are finding a fine fund raising device is the publishing and selling of a pamphlet entitled "How to Vote."

1925: There are 823,000 students enrolled in American colleges this fall, nearly double the 437,000 on campuses four years ago for the 1921-22 school year.

THE DIAMOND JUBILEE COMMITTEE IS PROUD TO PRESENT SPECIAL COMMEMORATIVE ARTICLES AVAILABLE NOW THROUGH THE 1977 DIAMOND JUBILEE CONVENTION

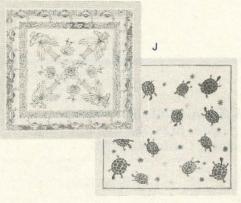

JUBILEE

- A. Never before has the official Delta Zeta Seal been used on a jewelry item. Now for this very special event, a ½" round disc has been designed for use as a charm or pendant. The front of the disc is a reproduction of the official Delta Zeta seal with the back engraved DIAMOND JUBILEE 1902-1977. Disc is available in yellow gold filled or sterling silver. $8.00
- B. Bent glass pin tray, 2½" square, crystal with dark green printing. These make attractive, inexpensive Delta Zeta gifts. $.50
- C. A special item for plate collectors is the 10" gold rimmed china plate with a black and white artist's sketch of the Sesquicentennial Chapter at Miami University. This unique addition for your collection is available now until the end of our Diamond Jubilee Convention. $10,00
- D. Wear on your blouse or lapel this embroidered rose and green rose. It has adhesive backing and is about 1" high. Order several for all your friends. Each rose is 25¢ with a minimum order requirement of 5 roses.

5 roses for $1.25

- E. Many requests have been received for an embroidered crest in authentic Delta Zeta colors. This crest is approximately 2%" x 3" and has many uses—jackets purses, etc. $2.75
- F. This 6" silver plated teaspoon is adorned with the Delta Zeta Crest and engraved 1902-1977. A very special collector's item. $4.50
- G. Genuine Walnut plaque with raised wooden crest in color. Polished metal plate is engraved, "DELTA ZETA DIAMOND JUBILEE 1902-1977. Overall size 14%" x 6".
- H. Seal all your letters with this Founders' Memorial Fund Diamond Jubilee seal and remind all your friends of this exciting Delta Zeta Celebration. Self-adhesive seals are silver with rose and green, and come in sheets of 48. Each seal is 1" x 1¼".

 Per sheet $1.00
- I. The Diamond Jubilee Dangle with a white spinel % carat size stone, set in yellow gold is the same size dangle as our officer pendants. The quantity is limited and will not be available after our Diamond Jubilee celebration. Get one for yourself and maybe your "shiny pin" little sis or your Delta Zeta legacy. $5.00
- J. A real delight are these polyester, drip-dry scarfs designed by Lois Westerman Schrank, Theta, Ohio State. The turtle scarf has light blue, green and bright, bright red turtles on white background and is 27" x 27" square. The classic scarf is 22" x 22" square and has shades of rose, green and gold on white background. Do your Christmas shopping early and order several. $6.25

Of course, AFTER the June issue with all of its delightful Delta Zeta men was in the mail, we were reminded of several husbands and fathers who were not included, like a Nobel prize winner, president of a huge Southern university, and three outstanding football coaches. We won't mention them here but hope to have pictures for future issues. And with the Olympics in full swing, we heard of a Delta Zeta daughter who competed in Montreal. Ugh! Forgive us, please!

We are indebted to the Tri Delta Editor Eileen Rudolph for the good publicity our Iota Tau chapter at West Liberty on page 49.

Preservation News tells us that "the caryatids on the Acropolis in Athens are being moved to a museum. The five stone maidens, which have held up the portico of the Erectheum since the fifth century, B.C., are suffering from air pollution and will be replaced by replicas."

Hurray for the National Association of Parliamentarians meeting in San Francisco for declaring that CHAIRMAN is in. Their resolution declared that, since Parliamentary Law has a language all its own. In olden times the one presiding was the only person provided with a chair. Since time immemorial the term "Mister Chairman" or "Madam Chairman" has always been employed to differentiate between the sexes (further effort toward sex differentiation is redundant and contrived). The word Chairman belongs to the title of the office the same as the title of President or Secretary.

May we pass on quotes from the alumnae newsletters that seem to hit the spot. Friendship is the only cement that will hold the world together. Or how about-Happiness is the art of making a bouquet of those flowers within reach.

And the Northwest Flame tells us that our National Treasurer, Eleanor Strickler Fariss has garnered a bowling trophy, special recognition for being a member of the championship women's team of her league.

Do try the Findlay Ohio bit about mint leaves on page 29. Delta Zeta newsletters do make the most interesting reading!

Marie Klapperich Jackson, AB-Illinois, had a question concerning the chapter roll but brightened our day by writing, "My issue of The Lamp arrived in today's mail. As usual I sat right down and read it. I promise myself I will ration it when it arrives, but I never do. As a result after the first day, I am finished and must wait for the next issue."

In case any of you have wondered what the H in H Avenue in Nevada stands for—we received a piece of mail from Miami University addressed to this editor at 1040 Hood Avenue. Now you know, although Nevada doesn't!

The mail after this June issue has been super good. Gallaudet President Edward Merrill thanked us for including him in our list of Delta Zeta men and wishes us success in our Diamond Jubilee project.

Incidentally, are you putting your rose and silver Jubilee stamps on all of your correspondence? If you haven't ordered yours yet, turn to page 60 and see all the goodies. Some of the items are in short supply so don't delay.

And last, and the least in size, we have an addition to the staff. Little Colin Skelton arrived June 24 in the midst of Mother Diane's forty five typed pages of Campus notes for this issue.
