The
Delta Zeta Creed

To the world,

I promise temperance and insight and courage,
To crusade for justice,
To seek the truth and defend it always;

To those whom my life may touch in slight measure,

May I give graciously
Of what is mine;

To my friends,

Understanding and appreciation;

To those closer ones,

Love that is ever steadfast;

To my mind,

Growth;

To myself,

Faith

That I may walk truly
In the light of the Flame.

Our Beloved Founder . . . JULIA BISHOP COLEMAN
May 19, 1881-May 1, 1959

To an almost ideal degree, Julia Bishop Coleman's life could stand as an exemplification of the American way of life at its best. She lived it happily, helpfully, in a typical town in a typical state; and in a typical house, the generous, spacious, hospitable, unself-conscious home in which she was the third generation to carry on the tradition of a gracious American mother, wife of the beloved community physician. The life pattern of love and service shows progressively through her days—a lively and popular young girl, a leader in college life, a devoted worker in her church, a loyal and active member of sorority and other organizations, the creator of a busy and harmonious home life, constantly spending herself in all that meant the welfare and especially the educational progress of her community and her fellow man.

This quality of giving herself wholly, unreservedly, to whatever engaged her heart, was a natural gift outstanding through her whole life. It lent to her associations with others a quality that communicated itself, and the consequence was that fine human accomplishments were realized because of the complete trust and respect mutually created and activated.

Her service as a member of Delta Zeta Council was not as long in years as it was lasting in influence. During these four years she traveled widely on chapter visits and presided over a number of installations, province conventions and State Day gatherings. Though she declined re-election as President, feeling that her first duty then lay with her home and growing family, she continued that active interest in the sorority and especially enjoyed National Conventions, of which she missed only those of 1942 and 1956.

Through these fortunate circumstances she was probably known by more Delta Zetas

than any other Founder. Her always delightful fund of reminiscences, her words of praise, counsel and vision, were invaluable features of the national meetings. Unforgettable among the Conventions in which she took part were 1928, at which Delta Zeta observed its Silver Anniversary, and four Founders attended; 1933, at which her daughter Mary was initiated; 1936, when her daughter Jean was the initiate; the Golden Anniversary Convention, creating the Order of the Golden Rose, at which the Honor Initiates were Julia Bishop Coleman, Mary Collins Galbraith and Alfa Lloyd Hayes. (It had belatedly come with some surprise to Delta Zetas that the Founders had not, after all ever been formally initiated!) And finally, the Convention of 1958, largest in our history and first to be held after the union of Delta Zeta and Delta Sigma Epsilon, was highlighted by the presence and the blessing of this truly ideal Founder.

No Delta Zeta at Convention entered more wholeheartedly into its events and spirit than did Julia Bishop Coleman. By her own request, she had been given no official part on the program, but the warmth and sparkle of her personality made her company much sought by members of all ages and areas. As the Convention progressed and she became better acquainted with so many of the younger members, there came a moment when it was inevitable that they ask her for a message to the Convention. How we wish, now, that a record of those words had been kept! What did she say? Today none of us knows, absolutely; but we all know she spoke from her heart to ours, and that she said what our hearts had been waiting to hear, and will never forget, though the actual words be not recalled. Looking every inch the lovely lady and inspired leader that she was, the light in her eyes and the sincerity in her voice caught and held her listeners, so that it is safe to say the dimensions of their dedication expanded lastingly under the influence of that message so simply, lovingly and confidently given. We know this to be the truth from its having been confirmed by many members at various times and places since. Some were in personal letters sent her, which gave her much pleasure and comfort. She had been concerned, so Jean Coleman Lisle later revealed, lest she might fall short of the expectations of old friends or new members, in any attempted speech, for she felt time had made it harder to say what she wished in the way she would like. But the occasion itself had sustained her, and her luminous parting words were the capstone of the Convention.

To Dr. Coleman and to Mary and Jean must go the sorority's appreciation for Mrs. Coleman's continued activity. The unity which has always marked this family in its support of each member's interests was especially generous in the matter of sharing their wife and mother with her sorority. Dr. Coleman has his own place in Delta Zeta history and in its Founders' early experiences, and has always been untiring in his interest and encouragement of all that his wife and daughters undertook to do in Delta Zeta. As for Mary and Jean, they grew up in the lore of their parents' college romance, in the events and places which associated Delta Zeta and Miami University, and in the hospitality which their home constantly offered to Delta Zeta visitors, singly or, as sometimes happened, the Council en masse. Both attended Stephens College before going to Miami to complete their college work; each was a Convention initiate. Mary served overseas with the Red Cross in Holland and Belgium in World War II, was later a member of the sorority's Vocational Guidance Committee while on the administrative staff of Stephens College. Their unofficial family committee has been responsible for easing the way for Mrs. Coleman's trips in these later years.

In her memory, the family have established at Miami University a Julia Bishop Coleman Memorial Fund, to be used for some purpose which shall meet a need of the University and serve as a lasting testimony to the lasting love of her Alma Mater. Friends have been given an opportunity to share in this memorial and the generous response from hundreds who loved Mrs. Coleman already assures that this will become a tribute worthy of her.

As she served her sorority and held its love and respect, so all her life long she had served her home community and equally held its love and high regard. A lifelong member of the Presbyterian Church, she gave three years of devoted service to preparing a complete history in observance of its Centennial and was herself the member with the longest record of membership. She gave peacetime and wartime service to the Red Cross; helped organize the first P-TA in the town schools, shared the activities of the Eastern Star, helped form the local chapter of PEO Sisterhood (an organization which promotes the higher education of girls) and was later its state president. She had time, always, for her friends and deeply loved the close ties with the many who, like herself, loved and cherished the rich life of their home town. She continued to share in the activities of the Delta Zeta alumnae chapter in Cincinnati as often as possible, and was always in demand when an event of importance was scheduled for Ohio Delta Zetas.

The illness which in the fall of 1958 first appeared and could not, eventually, be conquered, afforded additional instance of the extent of her friendships and the support they gave. In her repeated stays in Christ Hospital she won the admiration and devotion of all nurses and doctors

JANET SMITH OTWELL
She'll Tend the Editorial Flame

Your New Lamp Editor

The LAMP of Delta Zeta, official magazine of the sorority, will have a new editor, as of the 1959 fall issue. She will be Janet Smith Otwell, a native of Ardmore, Pennsylvania, and now a resident of Evanston, Illinois, who received her B.S. in 1950 from the Northwestern University Medill School of Journalism and her M.S. from that institution in 1951.

On the N.U. campus, Jan served as night editor and then managing editor of the Daily Northwestern, school paper. She is a member of Mortar Board, Theta Sigma Phi, professional fraternity for women in journalism, Pi Alpha Mu, advertising and management fraternity, and Kappa Tau Alpha, journalism honorary.

Professionally, Jan spent one summer on the Saturday Evening Post in Philadelphia, worked on the Hotel Monthly, a trade magazine published in Evanston, and spent a year and a half as reporter on the Main Line Times, weekly suburban Philadelphia newspaper. For four years, she served as assistant editor of Home Life magazine printed by the U.S. Savings and Loan League, Chicago, for savings and loan associations across the country.

Alpha Alpha chapter initiated this remarkable young woman in 1947 and proceeded to make excellent use of her talents as publicity chairman, standards chairman, and chapter president. As an alumna, she served on the chapter advisory board and, since 1956, has been the College Chapter Director.

Her husband, Ralph, also a Medill graduate, is assistant city editor of The Chicago Sun-Times and recently won a Neiman fellowship to Harvard for the coming school year. Son Brian was born in October of 1958. Current interests, outside family circle, include League of Women Voters, Mortar Board Alumnae Association board, and North Shore Alumnae Panhellenic.

Jan is capable and efficient in a warm, friendly sort of way that makes any assignment or task seem simple and uncomplicated. The alumnae and collegiate members of AA will miss her guidance and leadership, but realize that Jan is equal to the opportunity and the challenge offered as editor of the LAMP and wish her the best, for nothing less will do for their Jan Smith Otwell.

Zeta Delta of Wagner College

"BEAUTIFUL UPON A HILL, looking out to the sea" stands Wagner College, on one of the highest points on the entire Eastern Coast. The campus, originally the site of the estates of Vanderbilt, Ward and Edward Cunard, founder of the Cunard Steamship Line, prides itself in its imported English soil and Japanese cherry trees which bloom across the 72 acres of campus each spring.

Wagner College was founded as the Rochester Preseminary in 1873 and moved to its present site on Staten Island, in Sept., 1917. Located in the least-congested borough of New York City, Wagner enjoys the cultural advantages of the great metropolis, with the tranquility of a residential area. From the majestic heights of its campus, Wagner commands a striking view of the Atlantic Ocean, the Narrows, the New York Harbor and the jutting Manhattan skyline.

On May 24th, 1958, Wagner College welcomed the Zeta Delta chapter of Delta Zeta Sorority to its campus. This weekend, from the initiation to the elaborate banquet in honor of the newly formed chapter, will always remain a memorable event to all the charter members. The initiation itself was performed through the cooperation of the A Z and A E chapters of Adelphi College and Queens College.

At the formal banquet which followed the initiation Dr. Delo, president of Wagner College, delivered a memorable speech officially welcoming Delta Zeta to the college. Dr. Nemeschey, Dean of Men, and Miss Manship, Dean of Women, extended their congratulations. Further words of welcome and congratulations were offered by May Gegenheimer, Province Director, Marguerite Wherry Havens, College Chapter Administrator, and Gladys Varty, our chapter sponsor and now National Treasurer. Appreciation on behalf of the chapter was expressed by the president, Ruth von Rusten. The New York chapters from Adelphi, Queens, Hunter, and New York University and the alumnae from various chapters in the metropolitan area, added their presence to the honors bestowed on the Zeta Delta chapter at the founding banquet.

On Sunday, May 25th, the Zeta Delta Chapter was formally presented at a tea. This ended a memorable weekend, and began a new phase in the lives of our charter members: Renate Behrens, Janice Deich, Alice Campbell, Marilyn Harper, Ruth Hellyer, Patricia Hiller, Shirley Hursh, Madeline Ignozza, Barbara Johnson, Sue Levy, Carol Marschhaus, Lucille Mastropiero, Sue Mocko, Linda Murray, JoAnne McAnn, Anne Nelson, Mildred Nelson, Susan Patchin, Carolyn Rosa, Ruth Sprague, Theresa Stiano, Betty-Jean Thompson, Carol Trachte, Ruth von Rusten, Marlene Yearwood, Florence Grouzalis, Audrey Kirsch, Eleanor Willecke.

The Zeta Delta chapter is presently trying its utmost to uphold the standards of both college and sorority. The first step toward this goal has already been achieved. Zeta Delta has won the Delo scholarship trophy for the highest accumulative average among all the Greek organizations on campus. Honors have also been bestowed on two of its members; Carol Marschhaus has been named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and Sue Mocko has been elected vice-president of the campus Panhellenic.

Two Grassroots Ambassadors Who Wear the Lamp

Two outstanding Delta Zeta college members, from Oregon and Indiana, will spend the summer as grassroots ambassadors from this country to Japan and South America. Myra Jean McBride and Jane Alley have been selected as delegates of the International Farm Youth Exchange.

Myra Jean McBride . . .

On June 11 Myra McBride left on the S. S. President Cleveland for Japan where she will spend the next six months.

An intensive orientation course in Washington, D.C. was given to the delegates before going overseas. On Myra's return home, she will spend at least six months speaking to civic, 4-H, and other groups about her experiences.

Myra is a 13-year veteran of 4-H club work, and in 1956, she attended the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago as a state winner in the food preparation division. She graduated in June with a Bachelor of Science degree in elementary education.

Chi Chapter is very proud of Myra for her many contributions to the house and campus. Included in her many honors and activities are: Finalist for one of three "Ag Weekend" court hostesses; dramatic roles in "The Crucible," "Anastasia," "Present Laughter," and "Rain," which gave her membership in Masque & Dagger, local drama honorary; and National Collegiate Players. Myra is also a member of Euterpe, local music honorary, and M B B, national 4-H honorary.

—DOROTHY A. GIMBOL

Jane Alley . . .

Psi Chapter of Franklin College, Indiana, is happy to have as one of its members, Jane Alley, selected to participate in the IFYE program.

Our Jane is off to South America this summer. Jane, a twenty-year-old farm girl, will go to Ecuador and become a part of a family there, sharing in the daily farm work, community activities, and their everyday life from June until December of this year.

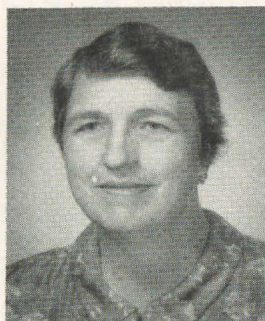

We are proud of Jane for having been approved for this outstanding national award. Her active achievements in 4-H work and her scholastic ability were reflected in her sorority work. Jane will continue her studies after her return from Ecuador, South America.

Home Demonstration Agents Choose Esther LaRose

ESTHER NORDIN LAROSE.
Included in her tour: A trip to DZ Headquarters—and a visit with new grandchildren.

Esther Nordin LaRose, Cornell-B, was named the recipient of the Grace Frysinger Fellowship award given by the National Home Demonstration Agent's Association last fall. The fellowship provides an opportunity for home demonstration agents to study and observe work in other states and carries an award of $500 for a month of travel and study.

Mrs. LaRose has been a home demonstration agent for the past fifteen years in West Virginia and Virginia. She has been agent in Augusta County, Virginia, with headquarters at Staunton since 1952 and is a member of the newly-chartered Shenandoah Valley Alumnae Chapter.

ROBERT RIENOW AND LEONA TRAIN RIENOW

"... a guided tour through the strange new landscapes created by nuclear energy."

"Our New Life With The Atom"

An Important New Book by Robert Rienow and Leona Train Rienow

The Atomic Age is here. We must live with it—there's no longer any choice about that.

But each of us does have a choice about which direction it will take—and we had better make that choice quickly.

With this as their thesis, Robert and Leona Rienow have fashioned an atomic "primer" for the layman. "Our New Life with the Atom," published by the Thomas Y. Crowell Co., is a remarkable book.

For one thing, it is amazingly easy to read, for anyone who may think of atomic energy as an abstruse subject far too mysterious for any but deep-thinking scientists to comprehend. The Rienows fervently believe that each and every average citizen must take responsibility for the atom and that in order to do this he must understand it. Their book attempts to give him that understanding and succeeds by presenting a thorough, definitive treatment which is readable and dynamic. It could serve as a textbook in an underclass course on atomic energy—except that few textbooks are so attractively presented.

What others say . . .

Dr. Ralph W. Sockman: "It is indeed a timely subject and intrigues one's imagination. I am sure its subject alone will invite a wide reading public and its content will bring authentic information to a bewildered world."

Edward R. Murrow: "... it is already clear that you have made a most significant contribution."

Norman Cousins, editor of the Saturday Review: "This book is in the nature of a guided tour through the strange new landscapes created by nuclear energy. It is a helpful book—an enormously helpful book."

About the Authors:

A Charter Member of Gamma Chapter and Her Professor Husband

Leona Train Rienow, whose new book deals with a "hot" subject, was one of the original "sparks" that ignited Gamma Chapter at the University of Minnesota and the former roommate of a Delta Zeta who is now "rather" well known.

"How proud our original 13 are to have our own Gamma Chapter Founder, Helen Woodruff Nolop, the National President of Delta Zeta!" writes Mrs. Rienow.

She received her master's degree from Minnesota in 1929, in French, and soon thereafter married a West Pointer who shortly became a school principal in Wisconsin and, after going on to a Ph.D. at Columbia, a professor of political science at New York State College for Teachers.

They live on a farm, mostly woodland with a tumbling creek through it, about nine miles out of Albany, N.Y. They have redone a rambling 240-year-old farmhouse in knotty pine, with walls covered with bookcases, fireplaces in the kitchen and front room, exposed beams, plank floors and all the trimmings of country life. They are great bird watchers and claim their greatest extravagance is sunflower seed for evening grosbeaks, purple finches, nuthatches, chickadees and other visitors.

During World War II Bob Rienow went overseas as a private; he is now a colonel in the New York National Guard. He has about eight books to his credit, mostly texts for high schools and colleges. Mrs. Rienow's first two books were "The Bewitched Caverns" and "The Dark Pool"—"both cave man novels for kids between 9 and 13," she says.

This is their first tradebook and collaboration, and they researched a full year to do it.

"What actually got us excited," she says, "was the gross ignorance of the American people regarding this exciting and dangerous new age. Most people don't know 'fission' from 'fusion'—or strontium 90 from cesium 127—though it is much to their advantage to know all the angles—and without delay."

For another, the Rienows offer a constructive approach to this power which has been associated with so much terrible destruction. They have outlined eight practical suggestions for controlling the atom, some of them on a national level, others related to the community and a few directed at the individual.

"Can you think of a better project for a woman's club than this?" asks Mrs. Rienow.

Feeling a great need for more information among the laymen in regard to this very vital phase of our modern life, the Rienows studied for a year among an ocean of research, bulletins of the atomic scientists, Congressional hearings and in the laboratories of Brookhaven and General Electric. The result is an overall, concise view of the atomic age for the average citizen, to help him protect himself and his nation.

LOUISE DAVIS BRADLEY:

Social Arbiter to Many Thousands

LOUISE DAVIS BRADLEY
She stresses the "why" of etiquette

Louise Davis Bradley's syndicated column titled "Today's Etiquette," appears in seventy newspapers throughout the United States and Canada, and as far abroad as Brisbane, Australia, and Manila, P.I. She uses Louise Davis as her professional name, and is listed this way in Who's Who of American Women.

As society editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, Louise Davis has long been the social arbiter of northeastern Ohio.

Just after World War II, she began to receive an unsolicited avalanche of etiquette calls and letters, which convinced her and the editors of the need for a column beamed at the 170,000,000 rather than the 400. The Plain Dealer gave birth to her question and answer column in May, 1955. The avalanche immediately grew to a deluge. More than 70 newspapers are publishing this up-to-date, down-to-earth etiquette advice.

A trained reporter on the daily beat, Miss

Davis has her finger on the public pulse. She is inherently democratic. She loves people, is interested in what they do, what they think and why. She believes in flexibility of rules when needed. She stresses the "why" in her columns, thus helping readers think for themselves.

Her columns are short, folksy and human. Her mail is flooded from readers from all walks of life and she takes a personal interest in each. The answers are popular with all classes, including teen-agers.

A graduate of Ohio State University in 1922, she has worked for the Plain Dealer thirty-three years. Special interests include Il Cenacolo Italiano, an Italian cultural group where she is able to practice her speaking knowledge of Italian (she also speaks French and German); and her special hobby of weaving drapery material, upholstery and novelty fabrics. She has had fabrics in the Cleveland Museum of Art May Show.

Jeanette Washburn: A Noted Florida Artist

Jeanette Washburn is a well-known artist and judge of art shows in the Jacksonville, Florida, area, and is listed in Who's Who in American Art as well as the new listing of outstanding American women.

She attended Florida State University, received her B.F.A. from Syracuse University and studied at the Art Students League in New York City. She taught mechanical drafting in Jacksonville Senior High School in 1943, and during World War II was an arts and crafts specialist for the American Red Cross, teaching leather work, jewelry making, and basketry to convalescents in Army hospitals. Recently she has been staff artist for the Florida State Board of Health, the Division of Health Information, doing drawings and cover designs.

Her paintings hang in the permanent collection at the University of Alaska, and her works have been shown in exhibits at the Butler Art Institute in Youngstown, Ohio, Tampa Art League, Florida Southern College, Norton Art Galleries in West Palm Beach, St. Augustine Art Association, Southside Branch of Jacksonville Library and Manatee Art League in Bradenton.

Miss Washburn has received many awards from the Jacksonville Art Museum exhibits. She was the museum's president in 1948 and is a member of the St. Augustine Art Association. She judged the St. Augustine exhibit this spring and was also a judge for a large art show on TV last year.

She is a member of St. John's Lutheran Church, where she is recording secretary for the United Lutheran Church Women, and of the Jacksonville Delta Zeta Alumnae Chapter.

Past Editor of the LAMP

Ellen Kroll Jenkins: Librarian and Teacher

Ellen Kroll Jenkins is well-known to Delta Zetas as past National Editor of the LAMP and current Indianapolis Alumnae president, but her service to DZ has been in addition to a full-time and distinguished career in teaching, which has won her an honored place in the new Who's Who of American Women.

Ellen's honors began at the University of Indiana, where she was initiated into Epsilon Chapter in 1944 and was a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Phi Beta Kappa, Mortar Board and Pi Lambda Theta, and president of the campus YWCA. She received her A.B. degree with a major in English literature and later her M.S. in library science from the University of Illinois.

She has been at Thomas Carr Howe High School in Indianapolis for 12 years, as librarian, teacher and yearbook adviser. In the latter capacity she has taken her students to the Indiana University High School Journalism Institute, where they have won a number of honors and where she became a staff member.

She became editor of the LAMP in 1953 and served until 1957. Through her post-graduate work in journalism, with the LAMP and the school yearbook, she was honored with an invitation in 1954 to become an associate member of Theta Sigma Phi, the national journalism fraternity.

Helen Merrill: Dean and Teacher

The field of education has been enriched by the talents of Helen L. Merrill, who for the past three years has been dean of students at Jacksonville University, Jacksonville, Fla.

Mrs. Merrill received her A.B. from Asbury College and her M.A. in chemistry from Florida State University. She has had graduate work at the University of Florida, Johns Hopkins University and is currently admitted to candidacy for a Doctor of Education at the University of Maryland.

Her teaching experience has been in the fields of science and English in secondary schools and college. She has also published a book, "The Science Teacher in Action."

Mrs. Merrill holds membership in DAR, AAUW, Altrusa, Pen Women and the Jacksonville Delta Zeta Alumnae Chapter.

Florida Dean of Students

Married to Paul L. Jenkins in 1949, Ellen was elected president of the Indianapolis Alumnae Chapter last year and is a member of the Indiana State Teachers Association, Indiana High School Librarians Association and the Marion County Librarians Discussion Group, of which she is past president.

Delta Zeta Sorority
All over the U.S.
Summer, 1959

Dear Ruthie Rushee:

This letter is to you because you, your dreams and your future happiness, are very much in our thoughts just now, as this exciting, somewhat mysterious business called "rush" gets underway. You are about to be transformed—the lovely teen-ager will soon become the glamorous collegiate. Welcome to Greekdom! May your stay bring you everything your heart desires.

What will you find in the happy life that is sorority? Friends? Yes, enough to last a lifetime. Thousands of friends are waiting for you—eager to know you and to love you—and, what is even more exciting, there are thousands more friends to come—the sorority sisters who will join you in the years ahead. Sorority membership is forever, and your friendships are lasting and ever-increasing. Have you ever before had so many sisters to share with, to laugh with, to tell your dreams to?

Your sorority will lend you a helping hand. It will help you keep up a good scholastic standing—indeed, it will insist upon it! Your sorority will help you become an outstanding and respected woman on campus by encouraging you in the most worthwhile activities. Charm and grooming programs will keep you ever at your best; standards programs will keep you up-to-date on what is going on in the world about you—culturally and politically. You may even get an assist in your love-life if you need it!

It is our hope that in your sorority you will find a true "home away from home." May you find the closeness and togetherness of your family circle—multiplied many times and bringing you the wonderful feeling of belonging and being loved for the kind of person you are. Choose wisely, for a whole lifetime of happiness can be yours.

I bring you the best wishes of Delta Zetas everywhere in your new venture.

Cordially,

Louise A. Bianchi

The Flame of Delta Zeta never burned brighter than when alumnæ joined the members of Tau Chapter last May at a banquet celebrating the 40th anniversary of the founding of Tau at the University of Wisconsin! The highlight of the occasion was the burning of the mort-

ALABAMA

Howard—Alpha Pi

Homecoming was a big event this year at Howard, with the new stadium ready for use. A II won second place in Homecoming Lot Decorations and an honorable mention in float decorations.

Sandra Smith Bass was named Orchid Girl by Pi Kappa Alpha in recognition of her outstanding contributions on the campus through editing the college paper. Sandra was also elected to Who's Who.

Barbara Cantor was elected to the Volleyball All-Stars and the honorary English fraternity. Other A IIs elected to honoraries this semester are Judy Breckenridge and Linda Williams in biology (Beta Beta Beta), and Sandra Bass in journalism.

Alpha Pi Chapter is very proud of her fall pledge class for winning the Scholarship Cup awarded by the college.

This year A II instituted a new tradition on Howard's campus in giving teas for each of the other sororities during the fall. In this way we hope to cement firmer Panhellenic relationships.

Gail Massey Pugh was named a beauty in the college newspaper. Sue Wheeler was named Dream Girl of II K A.

Alpha Pi initiated seven girls into membership on March 9. They are Arline Appling, Joyce Goodwin, Linda Harris, Carole Horne, Stevie Kahre, Gail Massey Pugh, and Linda Williams.

Winter rush saw five more pledges to Delta Zeta. They are Annette Arendale, Gloria Allen, Diane McGuire, Carolyn Kendrick, and Lucy Carol Moore.

Auburn—Beta Xi

The weatherman certainly wasn't on our side as we collected pennies for votes in A Φ Ω's annual Ugliest Man On Campus contest. However, the hard work and wet feet paid off and the B Ξs took home not only a trophy but also an UMOC plaque!

Beta Xi had a very good year for honors. Sandra Stacy, Maxine Lott, and Robbie Lovvorn, a pledge, were chosen as "Loveliest of the Plains" of the Plainsman (Auburn newspaper). Joyce Reynolds, Sandra

Ross, and Barbara Harris were chosen Glomerata (year-book) favorites. Sandra was also a finalist in the Miss "A" Day contest. She is now serving as Auburn's Panhellenic president.

Several B Ξs were fraternity sweetheart finalists, Judy Fuller for Δ Σ Φ, Rita Maldonado in the Φ K T Dream Girl contest, and both Cynthia Browning and Robbie Lovvorn for Σ Π.

As Joyce Reynolds' term as president of WSGA came to an end Sue Ward, another DZ, was chosen WSGA secretary. Joyce was elected to K Δ Π (education), along with Jo Ann Vaught, B Ξ's past treasurer.

Beta Xi had two girls elected to Who's Who this year, Pat Hall, our past President, and Joyce Reynolds.

ARKANSAS

Arkansas State—Epsilon Xi

Spring is bustin' out all over and so are the honors the Delta Zetas have received on the Arkansas State Teachers College campus!

First, let's give special mention to our Homecoming royalty of which we were so very proud. We had as our queen, Carolyn Banks; Linda Worden, senior maid; D. Ann Moore, sophomore maid; and Jo Ann Caldwell, freshman maid.

Coming back to the present, we take great pride in our newest honors: Katie Black was elected Scroll Queen by the student body. Shelvie Bell and Ann Bone were elected by our brother fraternity, Φ Δ X, to represent their chapter in the Sweetheart Contest. D. Ann Moore was elected Best Dressed Girl on Campus with eight other Delts competing for the honor—Shelvie Bell, Katie Black, Ann Bone, Jo Ann Caldwell, Ima Jean Carter, Carolyn Ford, Mary Ann Hall and Bette Wright. (There were sixteen girls in said contest!) Deltas elected to Who's Who are: Bette Wright, Carolyn Banks, Susan Eidson, and Linda Bush.

New Student Christian Association officers include: Betty Berry, president; Fran Phillips, secretary; Sharon Muzzy, treasurer; Jackie Jones, music chairman. Susan Eidson was tapped for Δ X, and D. Ann Moore is a member of the debate team.

Bette Wright, Susan Eidson, Jane Jones, Linda Bush, Drazie Horn, Sharon Muzzy, Jo Ann Caldwell, Connie Plummer, Carol Ann Smith, and Carolyn and Evelyn Hambuchen rate high in scholarship for last semester. Martha Stobough was elected to represent us in the Miss Conway Contest and La Rose Miles is our candidate for beauty.

The pledges also have their share of honors: Barbara Duerson is a cheerleader, Cissy Hazzard is a majorette, Judy Bennett is editor of the Scroll, and Beth Borden was a candidate for Miss Secretary. Pledges in T-Steps are Nelma Davis and Shelvie Bell.

Our "DZ School Daze" informal rush party and the traditional "Legend of the Lamp" formal party contributed to filling our quota with sixteen wonderful girls: Shelvie Bell and Judy Bennett, North Little Rock; Beth Borden, Carolyn and Evelyn Hambuchen, Conway; Nelma Davis, Clarendon; Barbara Duerson and Nellie Flynn, England; Mary Ann Hall, Harrison; Cissy Hazzard, DeWitt; Jo Ann Caldwell, Wynne; June Neal, Marianna; Linda McCain, Camden; Carol Smith and Connie Plummer, Hutchinson, Kansas; and Carol Ann Robertson, Little Rock.

LA ROSE MILES, editor
BETTE WRIGHT, president

CALIFORNIA

University of California—Mu

Mu Chapter has participated in many activities this semester as a group and individually. As a group the chapter helped give a wonderful Christmas to a cancer-stricken family in the area. We gave our Christmas tree to the family along with money for gifts.

During the semester DZ has worked hard for good scholarship in the house. Our honor scholars include Loretta Shippy and Sue Hjortsvang, A M T; Jane Semple, Panile; Ann Howard and Evelyn Hollingshead, Prytanean; and Carol Schmid, Honor Students Society.

Evelyn Hollingshead, editor-in-chief of the Blue and Gold, Ann Howard, copy editor, and ten other DZ's worked very hard to make the yearbook the most successful ever. Jane Semple, night editor of the Daily Californian and the outstanding reporter for fall 1958, has been very busy writing her weekly column "So What's Up!" Melinda Martin, an Oski Doll, has been showing dignitaries around the Berkeley campus and appearing as a hostess at campus affairs. She has also worked with Viven Hurd and Stephanie Telford, who hold sophomore appointments on the Pelican, the campus humor magazine. Viven is also the secretary of the ASUC Student Judicial Committee. Carey Edson and Pat Vartanian head the ASUC Student Union Committee and the Social Recreation Board. Pat also has attended all of the college athletic events as a member of Rally Committee. Harriet Hops, another active DZ, is a member of the Mask and Dagger Society, the drama honorary, and has held leading parts in many campus plays.

Mu chapter has had a very successful year with its many activities not to mention the fun the girls had competing against other sororities and living groups in intramural sports, attending our wonderful formal, and just playing bridge in our den and talking about daily happenings.

Long Beach State—Delta Alpha

Our spring rush brought six sharp new pledges into our chapter. They are: Sherry Crider, Joyce Kampe, Betty Benz, Judy Gaul, Kathy Cameron, and Pat Stafford. Already they have begun to work like bees, accomplishing, among other things, a full-page spread in our school paper on the annual State Day Convention held at San Diego this year.

Our fall semester pledges were initiated at the Disneyland Hotel which featured a banquet afterward.

Again we are very proud to announce that we have won Sweepstakes in the annual Spring Sing. Delta Zeta at Long Beach is indeed a singing group, for we also repeated in the Σ II Quartet Contest last fall, with a second-place trophy.

We are equally proud of Nancy Synicky who was Homecoming Queen this year, and who was also last year's chapter president. Shirley Graham served on her court as the very lovely junior princess.

We have been very busy as of late with our philanthropic project of helping in the city-wide cancer drive here in Long Beach. We distributed over 500 posters during March and showed a cancer film to our members in hopes of becoming more aware of the cancer problems our nation is facing.

Our annual Riverboat Rendezvous dance, co-sponsored with Φ K T, was a very big success. We are proud to announce that through the efforts of Lynne Young (chairman) it was the best dance that State has had.

DZ Claims 7 out of 10 Women In Wisconsin Who's Who

When Wisconsin State College at Eau Claire unwrapped this year's choices for the college Who's Who, Epsilon Kappa Chapter proudly learned that nearly a third of their campus' outstanding leaders are Delta Zetas!

This capped a year which saw Epsilon Kappa win over 22 other campus organizations to capture the Winter Carnival trophy. They accumulated 106 points in five events, had their own Doris Morimoto crowned queen and their king candidate, Ben Sowaske, named runner-up, and then finished off with second place in Stunt Night competition with a take-off on Mickey Spillane.

Criteria for judging in Who's Who are a scholarship minimum of 2.5, recognized leadership in at least one organization, citizenship and service to the school and promise of future usefulness and success. Of 24 students chosen for this honor, including 14 men and ten women, seven were Delta Zetas.

Gretchen Solie: President of Kappa Delta Pi and the senior class; Little Theatre, best supporting actress in 1957 and best actress in a major role in 1958; Pi Kappa Delta; business manager of National Collegiate Players; Wisconsin Legislative Scholarship; vice-president of Delta Zeta.

Marlene Splatt: Secretary and treasurer of Gamma Delta; Primary Club; SNEA; Scherzo Club; band; Homecoming attendant; Prom attendant; Wisconsin Legislative Scholarship; Primary Club Scholarship; Chapter secretary.

Janis Dittmer: Chapter president; LSA; SNEA; Primary Club; Prom attendant; Homecoming attendant; social committee.

Kay Christie: Head cheerleader; past president, Art Club; ORC, college public relations committee; FT-A; Primary Club; Convocation Committee.

Patricia Crittenden: Active in Delta Zeta, Square Steppers, Art Club, Primary Club, SNEA, past member of Ski Club.

Lynda Gunderson: President of the Primary Club; LSA; SNEA; Delta Zeta.

Shirley Nelson: Vice-president of the senior class; past chairman, prom decoration committee; president of Art Club; Kappa Delta Pi; Student Government.

Honored in All the Arts

Beta Nus are very proud of Virginia Behney, a senior majoring in drama and minoring in journalism.

Her college days began by winning the "Voice of Democracy" speech contest, which entitled her to a scholarship to the University of Miami. Since Virginia has been in college, she has participated in numerous activities. To mention just a few: Alpha Epsilon Rho (radio-TV national honorary), Theta Sigma Phi (journalism), treasurer of Zeta Phi Eta (speech arts) and fine arts editor of school weekly newspaper, The Hurricane.

Virginia has also received a number of awards. One was the "Best Actress Award" presented by the Radio-TV film department of the University. Her outstanding performances in Boat Without a Fisherman, La Borca Sin Pescador, The Tender Trap, and Twelfth Night will long be remembered on the University of Miami campus. In addition Virginia has done television and radio commercials for local stations and has written a radio play entitled "Concert For One."

Virginia has helped fill our trophy case by winning first place in poetry, prose, and oratory in intramurals. She is also the first recipient of the award for the "Most Outstanding Woman in Forensics."

This year Virginia has added to her list of honors and is listed in Who's Who and is president of Pan-

Western State College—Epsilon Alpha

Epsilon Alpha has had the highest scholastic average on our campus for the past four years. At a breakfast given to honor Mrs. Cadwell, the alumnae director for Colorado, she presented us with a silver tray for our accomplishment.

We now have an active alumnae chapter. Epsilon Alpha sincerely wants to thank Mrs. Cadwell for the time and effort that she put into this.

Panhellenic Council gave a tea and style show for freshman girls. Four members modeled and Ada Moyle wrote the very entertaining script.

Pauline Frost was elected for Who's Who, and Nancy Kishiyama was a candidate for Miss Press Photographer.

Individual Honors this year include: Marietta Schwickert—University Scholar; Maureen Schackner—Who's Who, Outstanding Catholic of the Year Award; Barbara Subjack—Who's Who; Carol Huettner—Junior Class Secretary; Barbara Ceppitelli—Sophomore Vice-president, speaker of the House of Representatives.

We won first place in the Winter Weekend display, and second place for our Homecoming display.

Our winter pledge class is taking trips to Mansfield Training Center, a school for the mentally deficient, to hand out small inexpensive gifts to the patients individually. We thought that going in person to the school with our gifts would be more meaningful and effective for the patients.

We of Gamma Beta have had so many wonderful rush parties that it is difficult to select one to tell about. The informal coffee, our last rush party in every rush period, is always very beautiful and serene. In winter rush 1958, the theme was winter. The rushees were given snowflake-shaped nametags made out of pastel nylon and wire sprinkled with tiny beads. In the lounge was a silver Christmas tree decorated with pastel glass balls. The centerpieces were large square candles with pine branches and colored beads around them. The rush was very successful in that we pledged 22 girls.

Other Delphi members are Viia Voesar and Patricia Holmes. A majority of the girls this year belong to Big Sis, and Martie Mitchell, our treasurer and another member of $A \Theta N$, is the newly-elected Big Sis social chairman.

Our girls are also active in such religious organizations as the Wesley club, Canterbury association, and the Luther club. Delta Zetas are active in the International Students Society, the Russian club, to which Pat Holmes is class representative, and dormitory councils, with Kathy Herckner the treasurer of Strong Hall and Viia Voesar on the social committee of Madison Hall. Delta Zeta is also a member of Emanon, an organization which coordinates the social activities of fraternal organizations.

The treasurer of the Women's Athletic Association is Karlota Koester, one of our new initiates who also was assistant to the director for the University's production of Anastasia, treasurer of the Luther club and secretary of WRGW radio workshop.

Our other new initiates are Kathryn Young, Lyndall

Our newly-elected secretary, Anna Jirgens, was honored at the awards dinner with the Alpha Zeta Omega award for the highest average in pharmacy school during her first two years. Anna is also a member of A A Δ.

One of the biggest projects for the year was the toy drive sponsored by Student Council in which Delta Zeta placed second among the sororities. However, throughout the year the chapter has participated in car decoration contests, pep rallies, and exchanges with fraternities. Other important events have been the annual Mothers' club Christmas party, the tea for the alumnae, the Rose Formal, at which Norma Engberg was crowned Delta Zeta Dream Girl, and the Mothers' Club dinner in March.

As the highlight of the year, Alpha Delta Chapter was honored by a visit from Mrs. Helen Nolop, National President.

Our year has been a busy one, to say the least. Last summer Homecoming plans began, and soon after school started we were caught in a whirl of floats, house decs, and campaigns. One of our girls was attendant to the Homecoming queen, and one was elected head greeter for the visiting football teams. Our house dec won third place in an all-school contest. We won first place in the pep rally.

Every year we sponsor an all-school dance called the Fall Fantasy. It was a success, and it helped us meet the incoming freshman girls.

At Christmas time all of the sororities on our campus joined forces to go caroling.

We tried something new on our campus this year. We exchanged houses with one of the fraternities for a weekend. The next morning we all had breakfast at the fraternity house with our pledges cooking it and the fraternity pledges serving it. Everyone had a good time, and the administration supported it wholeheartedly. In fact a few of them dropped in for breakfast.

Oscar, the Nebbish, payed off for Delta Chapter in October. Our eight-foot-tall Nebbish earned us third prize in the annual Homecoming decoration contest.

During the Christmas season our chapter was hostess to the $\Delta X \Omega$ and $\Pi B \Phi$ sororities at an after-hours party. We were all entertained by the Foreign Students and the Men's Hall Association who sang for us. We also entertained eighteen mentally retarded children and their mothers from the Greencastle area. The girls sang Christmas carols and told stories to the children, and Santa brought gifts for them.

We are proud that many ΔZ 's are outstanding in campus activities. Marge Verhulst has been elected Panhellenic historian. Pete Kerns was appointed to the freshman dorm staff. Pete was also swimming director for the spring Naiad Show. Jo Riechers and Karen Tyler were initiated into $M \Phi E$, music honorary. The Dean's List for the first semester included Thelma Hunter, Mary Jane Stubbs, Emilie Savage, Barbara Rust and Jane Meyer. Jane, Barbara, and Emilie Savage were chosen as members of $\Delta A \Delta$.

Martha Snavelly won first and third prizes in ceramics in the Putnam County Art Show. Carol Kearney played one of the leads in the Little Theater presentation of "Mouse Trap." This spring Elise Medlin, Trudy Daugherty and Barbara Prescott went on the Methodist Student Fellowship's Spring Deputation to the South and Eastern United States. Helen Lockhart has been elected president of the WRA Officials Club.

Drake—Gamma Epsilon

Gamma Epsilon was kept busy last spring planning and playing hostess to Province Day. It was a lot of work, but all worthwhile; even better than the exchange of ideas was the chance we got to meet girls from all over our province.

Our song chairman also kept us hopping with rehearsals for Sweetheart Sing, an a cappella choral contest which is the highlight of Greek Weekend. We sang "All Honor Delta Zeta," "Imagination," and "Lullaby of Δ Z"; the whole chapter wore pastel floor length formals and long white gloves, making a very pretty effect.

She is a member of K Δ II and served as its historian this year. Kathy is also a member of A X, II Γ M, and TSEA. She was selected as outstanding woman student in the field of social science for 1957-58.

She served as Pioneer Round-Up Association Representative for her sorority this year, and she has been on the honor roll from 1955 through 1959. Kathy also represented Sam Houston at the Student Conference on National Affairs held at Texas A & M in 1957.

Four Zeta Thetas also made the honor roll for the fall semester. They are Katherine Kopecky, Joy Campbell, Margaret Roescher, and Susan Seale. Susan had a 3. average, while Kathy and Margaret each had a 2.7 average. Joy had a 2.6 average.

and pumpkins. In order to get in, couples had to climb ladders, crawl under bales of hay and chickenwire, and finally enter by way of a window. Hanging on pegs in the kitchen were cans painted with each person's name which were used for favors. The extremely casual air of the party made everyone feel relaxed and contributed a lot to its success.

The pledges surprised the initiated members with a space dinner, called "Out of this World." The decorations were simple but cute, with stars and sputniks hanging from the ceiling and signs scattered around with such sayings as "Earthman go home." Supper consisted of such things as Martian cutlets, space greens (salad), and whipped clouds (mashed potatoes dyed blue). Entertainment was one of the meetings from the "universal convention."

One of the most successful parties this year was an intersorority dessert. Each Δ Z invited a girl from another sorority; it was lots of fun and everyone made new friends.

Gamma Epsilon has achieved many honors through the efforts of individual members. Ellene Guze has been elected a member of P X (honorary pharmacy) and president of A K Ψ (professional pharmacy). Jan Goodman is president of Φ Γ N (professional business) and a member of B Γ Σ (honorary business). Maryanne Mastendrea was elected to B Σ Φ (journalism) and Pat Boss to T A Φ (drama). Edith Grousta is rush chairman for Σ A I (music) and Barbara Paxton is chaplain of M Φ E (music). Judy Opdyke and Pat Rauth were elected to A Δ Δ (freshman women's honorary).

Drake's Student Faculty Council claims Edith Grousta on its special events committee, and Dee Melby on its religion in action committee. Jan Monacelli is women's fashion editor for the Times-Delphic, the school newspaper.

Beauty is abundant in our chapter, too. Barbara Paxton was elected first runner-up for queen of the Interfraternity Council dance. Margi Glancy was a semifinalist in the Miss Drake contest and a finalist in the Honorable Cadet Colonel contest, sponsored by the Arnold Air Society, an honor section of the Air Force ROTC.

Morningside—Delta Mu

Delta Zeta is keeping up the pace set last fall on the Morningside College campus when we took all honors in the Homecoming festivities. Mary Lou O'Connor reigned as Homecoming Queen, our float won first place, and four out of eight cheerleaders are Delta Zetas.

On March 1 Delta Mu Chapter initiated twelve new girls: Diane Bushyager, Sioux City; Elaine Carter, Sergeant Bluff, Iowa; Dianne Conway, Karen Dudley, Carol Jean Duff, Sandra Hubbs, Karen Inman, Sue McMurray, Martha Macfarlane, and Judy Marsh, all of Sioux City; Mary Lynn Mossengren, Webb, Iowa; and Barbara Sanborn, Sioux City.

Diane Bushyager, our Pledge of the Year, was also elected historian of A Δ Δ. Another new initiate, Mary Lynn Mossengren, reigned as Morningside Queen of Hearts at the annual dance on February 13.

Agora Carnival was held on March 13, and again Delta Zeta came out ahead. The new initiates presented a skit depicting the important things in a college co-ed's life—those being clothes and men! We received a trophy for first prize and earned more money than any other campus organization.

Two seniors, Charlotte Johnson and Mary Lou O'Connor, have been honored by election to Who's Who and initiation into the new honorary society for senior women, Lass, which stands for leadership, ability, service and scholarship. Mary Lou is featured in the Delta Zeta Album in this issue. Charlotte is past president of Δ Z, Panhellenic and her sophomore class and has been active on the newspaper.

KANSAS

Kansas State—Delta Pi

Our spring pledge class has six members: Janis Kostner, Kingman; Donna Feese, DeSota; Carolyn Russell, McPherson; Kay Kallial, Wichita; Karen Erbus, Bison; and Frances Watson, Kansas City.

Delta Pi's first annual Kiddie Party was a tremendous success.

Darlene Shoemaker was our candidate for the Σ T Γ White Rose Queen. Darlene was also chosen outstanding pledge of the fall pledge class.

Our big event of the year was formal rush week. We topped all sororities on campus by filling our quota and getting 16 pledges. The girls who were initiated include Dianne Amos, Sheryl Applegate, Janice Ball, Dawn Brush, Myra Krentzel, Patti Percival, Sandra Reddick, Vickie Rogers, and Virginia Wood. Pledges are Beth Fellers, Elaine Getty, Sue Hinz, Joyce Philip, Dona Stevens, Beverly Suchy, and Sue Sutton.

Our president, Dianne Miller, was honored at a scholarship tea for all the sororities. Dianne was given a rose bowl for her 3.0 (A) grade average. Diane was also selected for Who's Who.

Our latest fund-raising project was a rummage sale. We find great satisfaction in working together toward a common goal. Each year the initiates challenge the pledges in grades to a steak and bean dinner. In years previous, the pledges ate the beans. But this year the initiates were awarded the "honor."

Our chapter members were also very active on campus. Topping the list of campus doings were: Kathleen Anderson, secretary-treasurer of sophomore class, treasurer of Newman Club, and vice-president of Campus Boosters; Dixie Brown, president of Campus Boosters; Mary Desbein, vice-president of Panhellenic; Sandra Harkness, secretary-treasurer of Math Club; Virginia Moletor, vice-president of Nurses Club; Karen Lofstead, cheerleader and secretary of Students Affairs Committee; Dianne Amos, vice-president of freshman class; and Janice Ball, secretary-treasurer of freshman class.

KENTUCKY

Kentucky—Alpha Theta

Jane House was honored twice this year. She was first chosen by Mademoiselle Magazine for its College Board and later picked by the University for the "Committee of 240." This committee consists of two outstanding students from each county in the state to speak to high school seniors interested in attending the University.

Our candidate for Miss Christmas Seal, Margaret Ann Wyse, placed in the top three. This contest was supported by the community of Lexington, as well as the campus, in connection with the annual Christmas Seal Drive.

Each year the chapter plans an evening program of recreation for the patients at Eastern State Mental Hospital. This includes entertainment, refreshments, and passing out cigarettes, which is very much appreciated by the patients.

A standards program concerning "what to wear when" was held soon after pledging to acquaint the pledges with the appropriate dress for campus activities.

Louisville—Beta Gamma

We had a very successful open house at which time we held our annual "Sweetie Pie" Contest. This is a pie eating contest and a representative from each of the fraternities competes.

Nancy Mayrose was elected historian of the Air Force Sponsors. Bessie Lee Turner is a new member of the corps.

Our newly-initiated members are Anita Bratcher, Beverly Eaton, Nancy Hanks and Jean Slusher, all from Louisville, and Julia Hougland, who hails from Michigan. The pledges are Rose Crowley, Jean Kneesy and Mary M. Wood, Louisville.

The highlight of the spring semester was our formal dance, at which we presented our new actives and pledges. At the breakfast, we announced the names of the four boys who were to receive honorary pledge degrees. This award was given to the four because they had helped B I throughout the year.

LOUISIANA

LSU—Sigma

We held a very successful house party at Camp Merrydale this year for orientation of the pledges who joined us back in the fall. Despite the rather brisk weather, we had a grand time canoeing, exploring the woods, and roasting hot dogs over a bonfire.

As always, we celebrated Founders' Day with a banquet. After dinner, each of the pledges presented an original toast to honor Delta Zeta. Then, two very much coveted scholastic awards were presented: one for the highest average, and one for the most improved average of the year.

Right now Σ's scholarship program is better than ever. We think that even the best scholarship can always stand a boost. This year every pledge had at least a B average. We keep a weekly check on the pledges' grades during their first semester, and if anyone has difficulty, she gets help from the Σ tutors. We keep a strict study hall for members who do not make a 1.5, the average of all women students, at mid-term. At the end of the semester, we planned a "Chicken-and-beans" supper. Already our scholastic program has proved to be very effective.

The entire chapter was honored with an annual party by our brother fraternity, Σ X. The boys picked us up in cars from Panhellenic and escorted us through a delightful evening, with a football game, a delicious chicken supper and social dancing.

Just before the Christmas holidays began, we were kept quite busy. The initiates collected toys which we sent to the Baton Rouge Welfare for their Negro Day Care Center. The pledges gave a Christmas party for an Old Folks Home, with little gifts, refreshments, and everyone singing carols. The chapter, as a whole, presented a Christmas gift to Miss Janet Fields, a patient at Carville who has become a special friend of Sigma Chapter. The members also sent Christmas cards individually to Miss Fields.

McNeese—Zeta Gamma

Zeta Gamma, after its first year of existence, held its first initiation on March 7, when eight pledges and one alumnae were initiated. Afterwards the new members were honored at a banquet, at which the Gertrude Meatheringham Award, named for our province director, was presented to Adrienne Parra as the pledge with the highest scholastic average. Coleen Wayne was presented the Best All-Around Pledge award. The alumnae received a special award for their sincere and untiring interest in the chapter.

On the following day Zeta Gamma held a pledging service and our pledge class went up to ten. The pledges and new members of Delta Zeta and Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity were then honored at a party.

Marie White was named to Who's Who and ROTC Little Colonel. Chosen as ROTC sponsors were Brenda Bailey, Judy Poole, Sheila Sarver, and Anita Jo Sanner. Adrienne Parra, Sharon Phillips, and Marie White made 3.5 averages and were honored on the President's Honor Roll.

Our chapter is very proud of our two new members who transferred from the University of Texas and SMU to help our young Delta Zeta chapter get organized. The girls are Garrah McMahon of Dallas and Beryl (Kit) Lee of Austin, who came to the McNeese campus full of Delta Zeta spirit and were indeed an inspiration to the chapter.

Omicron's Delta Zeta "Doll"

Shining bright in the sky over the University of Pittsburgh is the golden star of Omicron's Carol Smart. This brown-eyed senior played the lead in the Pitt Players production of "Guys and Dolls."

As Sarah Brown, Carol's portrayal of the mission worker was simply great. Her beautiful voice did justice to the songs in the show. After her opening night, Carol received a bouquet of red roses from her DZ sisters.

In the years that Carol has been a DZ, honors have come both to Omicron and to her. At Pitt's Carnival in her sophomore year, Carol won the award for the best female lead. This year, too, Carol sang the lead in the Pittsburgh Bicentennial Carnival Δ Z- Θ X show. This likeable Delta Zeta sings soprano solo for the world famous Heinz Chapel Choir.

Past recording secretary in her sorority, Carol belongs to B B B, honorary biology fraternity, and manages to maintain an over-all B average in her studies. In the annual Greek Week sing this year, Carol sang a solo with our wonderful sing team, bringing home a second place trophy with "How Are Things in Glocca Morra."

Always busy (almost dizzy!) DZ Carol Smart's beautiful voice, whimsical smile, and reassuring wink will be missed next year—an outstanding senior whose success was predicted when she was voted "the most outstanding pledge" of her pledge class.

sororities on campus last semester with a point average of 2.93.

During the Christmas season, our DZs played Santa Claus to the children at Mrs. Wall's School for Exceptional Children in Bangor, Me. Eating refreshments and trimming the tree proved to be as much fun for us as for the children!

One of our sisters, Joan Currier, who was fortunate in taking a voyage to Europe last summer, made us all a little envious with slides and descriptions of her trip. We spent another enjoyable evening in the company of Prof. Niven, head of the dept. of music, who gave an analysis of a symphonic concert held the next night.

Our pledges were honored with a pledge formal at the newest fraternity house on campus, Σ Φ E. Lovely decorations, good refreshments, and the crowning of our immediate past president as Dream Girl were the trimmings on a perfect evening.

Recently we initiated ten pledges and now have eight more in training which will fill our quota in every class.

In early February the DZ pledges held a Valentine's party in the sorority room to which all pledges were invited. Valentines, which were the tickets to admission, were pasted into an album and sent to the Children's Home in Bangor.

Tufts—Delta Iota

Mary Urbanowicz was elected to Σ Ξ , national honorary society. Deborah Williams, a senior biology major, won a Woodrow Wilson Scholarship for graduate work. Delta Iota placed 15 girls on Dean's List, two of them having all A's, and three girls were on the Freshman Honor Roll.

Delta Iota is a group of busy knitters and sewers. Some are making mittens and afghans for a children's mental hospital. Others are sewing ditty bags in which the children can keep their belongings. Some dolls are also being sent in the package.

Delta Iota went on a trip to foreign lands through a standards program. Three members showed slides and photographs from their recent trips to Europe. Another showed slides of Israel. All the pictures were accompanied by humorous and factual comments, conducive to a very relaxed and enjoyable trip for all.

Our alumnae worked with a small committee of girls on a post-initiation banquet. The alumnae provided a delicious home-cooked dinner with an exotic dessert while the committee provided a program of singing and monologues. After the entertainment, the girls were asked to do some acting too. They were divided into groups of six. Each group was given a paper bag containing six items (for example, a bar of soap, miniature fire engine, a doll, a ruler, a mirror, and a garter) and was asked to make up a five-minute skit using all of them.

The winter schedule at Albion College was a busy one right into the warm spring months.

met at the chapter lodge to discuss man's adjustment to the complex world of today.

Musical events captured the interest of many of the members at the beginning of the second semester. First, Ann MacKenzie was elected to $\Sigma A I$, women's national music honorary. Then Judith Connelly sang a repertoire of works of two composers, Henry Purcell and G. F. Handel, for her senior recital in the local Goodrich Chapel. The following week the entire chapter tied for first place in the annual $\Sigma A I$ songfest. The group, under Ann's direction, sang "The Lord is My Shepherd" and "Sing Delta Z." The latter was written and composed by Ann. That night the Jenny Worthington cup for the most outstanding woman majoring in music was presented to Judith. The award was shared with another student on the campus.

Intramural sports were more in keeping with the interest of some members. In the WAA bowling tournament, the B II team tied for second place with nine groups participating.

For the first semester of the '58-'59 year, Beta Pi held the campus scholarship trophies for the sorority with the highest scholastic average. Keeping the scholastic average right up there, Jenne Emeric was elected to $\Lambda \Lambda \Delta$. Suzanne Williams Treadwell was elected to $\Lambda \Phi \Gamma$, national dramatics honorary.

Spring activities included Parents' Day, a picnic-standards meeting, a scholarship dinner for all members, the Brides' Tea and the formal dinner-dance held in Marshall, Mich.

Winter term started off with rush. In January we pledged seventeen lovely girls: Nancy Anderson, Barbara Boyles, Suzan Brundage, Jackie Carreras, Sharon Coats, Sally Curnalia, Linda Erskine, Sue Ferris, Jane Larson, Sandra McLaughlin, Maureen McMullen, Judith Mautz, Sharon Stuble, Lynn Stutzman, Mary Vielmetti, Alix Watson, and Ginny Mills.

Initiation was held on February 15 for Cecelia Watson, Barbara Burda, and Shirley Croston.

Each member is selling two boxes of candy for our philanthropies project. The profit from these sales will be divided equally and sent to Carville and Gallaudet. For our local philanthropy we try to send little favors to the Bogue Nursing Home each month. This month we baked cupcakes with a cherry on top for George Washington's birthday.

The fraternities and sororities on campus tried out a new scheme for better relation with the administration. A big convocation was held with all the Greeks present, plus a panel consisting of the dean of women, dean of men and others. It was only a start, but it did make for a better relationship between the Greeks and the administration so that further work could be done.

Western Michigan—Gamma Pi

Sophomore Honor Chocolates (honoring scholastically outstanding sophomore girls) were received by Sandy Jo Filer, Sally Markey, Phyllis Van Gemert and Carol Schmidt. Student Council Administrative Assistant is Carol Schmidt. Dale Nettum is province Secretary of the National Home Economics Association. Molly Newland was on the Snow Carnival Court. Carol Mendels was Ernest Burnham Hall Girl of the Month. Carol Pardee is secretary of Davis Hall. Cindy Mosestick is historian of Ernest Burnham Hall. Judy Richards was star of the Water Sprites Show.

Two girls participate once a month in a party under the direction of Panhellenic Council at the local juvenile home. Games, refreshments and entertainment are part of our responsibility.

An extensive scholarship program has been carried on by our chairman, Molly Newland. This year we had the pledges challenge the members for grades. The losers had to buy the winners a steak dinner. We also had the members participate in pledge study tables.

Gamma Pi started a new Standards tradition at Western Michigan University this year. Upon our suggestion Panhellenic Council gave their approval for an inter-sorority Standards meeting. We assumed all the responsibility for this successful event and hope to continue with a similar program next year.

The Kalamazoo Alumnae held a toy party for Gamma Pi in the Panhellenic house which was a big success.

Another first for Gamma Pi this year was a successful party with the Π As (colony of Σ A E). This was the first Friday night fraternity and sorority party ever held at Western. The evening was spent collecting canned goods and clothing for needy families. After this we met in our Student Center for hot chocolate, donuts and singing.

This year Gamma Pi added something new to their fund-raising projects—car washes. This was a big success and a lot of fun. Other projects were selling ash trays, first aid kits, candy, and earrings. This was one of the most successful years for money-raising for Γ Π .

This year Greek Week was one of the biggest and best in Western's history. The week was packed with new and exciting events such as a chariot pulled by horses, delivering all Greeks to and from classes; bike race, jazz concert benefiting muscular dystrophy. This is the first time any college or university has had a benefit such as this which received nation-wide publicity. Roy Hamilton and Kai Winding Septette were the stars. That night the fraternities turned over their houses to the sororities for Slumber Parties. The next morning we cooked breakfast for the Δ Xs, our Greek Week partners, and cleaned their house. The week was topped off with the Greek Week Ball, of which we were co-chairmen, and the Greek Week Picnic.

Central Michigan—Gamma Psi

Our chapter certainly brought out their Christmas spirit this year with a delightful party at the home of Barbara S. King, Gamma Psi, and another party at the home of Francis Martin and Grace L. Ryan. We really set off the Christmas season by caroling with T K E Fraternity. Ours was not all take, however. We brightened Mr. Stiene's Christmas at Carville with cards, letters and a gift.

Something new at Central Michigan this year was the introduction of snow sculpturing. The theme was Disneyland, and Gamma Psi entered "Dumbo, the flying elephant."

Initiated in January were nine wonderful girls: Dawn Derhammer, Lansing; Shirley Ewing, Stanton; Jackie Kinney, Trenton; Ellen Phillip, Dearborn; Barbara Rann, St. Clair; Kay Ritter, Clare; Ruth Rowe, Pleasant Ridge; Norma Stein, East Lansing; Gail Vanderbeck, Royal Oak.

We were happy to welcome twenty-one more pledges: Barbara Abbernante, Grand Rapids; Linda Amstutz, Rothbury; Joyce Baird, Petosky; Ponja Bartlett, Midland; Joyce Beal, Dearborn; Jane Bielawski, Warren; Sally Cooper, Muskegon; Karen DeVault, Battle Creek; Judy Dressel, East Jordan; Dianne George, Harrisville; Judith Hansen, Fife Lake; Mary Leslie, Allen Park; Nancy Lowery, Pontiac; Ann Lowrie, Clarkston; Diane McDowell, Saginaw; Carol Olson, Grand Rapids; Kathy Pastori, Muskegon; Gertrude Schuette, Pigeon; Judy Slattery, Mt. Pleasant; Donna Tait, Deckerville; Judith Taylor, East Jordan. We couldn't be happier with our success.

We have been trying very hard to reach a higher achievement scholarship-wise. We began a new tradition this year. Each semester a new girl will be honored for improving her point average to the greatest degree, by being allowed to wear a traveling Delta Zeta bracelet. Carolyn Taylor and Margaret Fortina were the winners for the past two semesters. Honored for a whole year with a loving cup was Shirley Brumwell, with the highest accumulative point average. We hope that this new tradition will inspire our girls to greater study and higher marks.

Olive McLauchlan was elected recording secretary of AWS and president of the Senior Board. Assisting Olive as vice-president of Senior Board is Beverly Smith, past president of E Σ. Our newly elected president, Claire Brittingham, also holds the offices of vice-president of Panhellenic Council and secretary of Student Faculty Council. She is also AGU's sweetheart. Other fraternity sweethearts include Fran Emmi, A Σ Φ, and Dorothy Wesich and Velva Burson, sweetheart court of K Σ K. Lovely Velva is also Wayne's new Snow Queen and candidate for AFROTC Honorary Major. Lois Wynne is T K E's sweetheart. Christine Colditz was a finalist in the Senior Division for Miss Wayne State University. Priscilla Masonis represented us in the Freshman Division.

Homecoming festivities at Wayne brought us third prize in the Sorority Float Division. Our 120-foot dragon representing "St. George and the Dragon" with a slogan of "Keep Buffalo Dragon" did the trick.

E Σ chapter has adopted 19-year-old Julia Rivera, a patient at Carville Hospital. In order that we all may have an opportunity to become better acquainted with her, each week a different member writes her a letter. We also send along a monthly allowance and gifts at the various holiday seasons.

Our rushing theme party had a definite Western flair. The invitations were in the form of a cowgirls' head. Across the lower part of her face was a mask with the word "wanted" at the bottom of the page. As you flipped the mask over, it revealed the girl's entire smiling face and our message to attend. When the night arrived, our members were magically turned into authentic cowgirls complete with brown fringed skirts, guns and hats. The cherished Delta Zeta jewelry was displayed very cleverly in a frying pan which rested on a pile of rocks. The sign in front of the rocks read "There's gold in them thar hills." After refreshments from the chuck wagon, our sextet serenaded the rushees with Delta Zeta songs describing college life, ending with Nitey Nite and We Don't Want You To Go Home.

They certainly didn't either, for we "rounded-up" nine wonderful pledges! They are: Tony Costa, Judy Fess, Barbara Kwiat, Priscilla Masonis, Nancy Kotkowski, Nancy Sandacz, Bunny Stafford, Sally Wendland, and Marty Willis.

At the twenty-fifth birthday celebration of the College Women's Volunteer Service at the Merrill Palmer School, a group of E Σ girls presented skits depicting C.W.V.S. volunteer work. The C.W.V.S. founder, Mrs. Pauline Wilson Knap, was present to view the presentation.

Detroit—Epsilon Phi

Epsilon Phi is happy to announce the names of its December initiates. They are: Kathy McBrady, Mary Ann Corby, Lucy Krolicki, Ann Meridith, and Pat O'Connor.

Delta Zetas helped put the campus in the holiday mood by taking the entertainment chairmanship for the Coed Christmas Party. Participation in the campus-wide Christmas Basket Contest brought third prize. Marilee Saylor was general chairman of the Snowshoe Shuffle, U of D's Sadie Hawkins dance.

The new year rang in a bright and busy year for Epsilon Phi. Jan Roland, Lucy Krolicki, and Mary Ann Corby were candidates for Air Force Sweetheart. Carol Klinicki is society editor of the Varsity News. Pat Blossom is president of the Sociology Club and treasurer of Panhellenic Council. Carol Hoffman is a member of A I T, national literary honor society.

Rush started on a happy note with Pat Blossom holding a chairmanship of the intersorority tea. A formal tea, a Parisian Party and a cocktail party made a successful rush that ended with the pledge initiation of 23 co-eds at the home of Judy Lee.

Epsilon Phi was busy this spring conducting the Asian Book drive and planning for Spring Carnival, the Easter Basket drive and Maytime Ball. Marilee Saylor was Carnival secretary. Three Delta Zetas were candidates for Carnival Queen: Pat Blossom, Carol Klinicki and Marilee Saylor.

Before fall quarter the chapter held an informal, overnight rush school at a cottage overlooking the Mississippi River. The colorful formal rush, featuring circus, Greek, and Japanese theme parties, gave Delta Zeta five new pledges: Nan Ottenbacher, Marge Oswald, Mary Lee Short, Gretchen Ulrich, and Carol Velz.

After a week of judgments and eliminations, Carlene Clayton was chosen Dream Girl of ΔT .

To add to the excitement of the quarter, we welcomed fall initiates Carol Henrikson, Jackie Anderson, Marilu Felland, and Louise Velz.

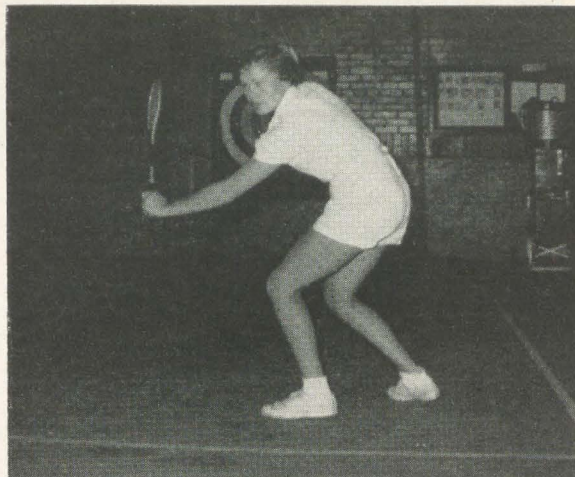

In the spirit of the Christmas time our chapter chose to feed and clothe a needy family. Gifts and toys decorated with colorful wrappings made a mother and her five children have a happy Christmas.

Activities, a Delta Zeta field secretary, and election of new officers were the center of Gamma chapter living this past term. Headlining the list of activities is a second-place basketball trophy proudly displayed on our fireplace mantel in the music room. Tall, slender, and glittering, it represents three evenings of fun, excitement, and exercise in the invitational tournament sponsored by $\Delta T \Delta$ fraternity.

Greek week was a week of songfest, exchanges, progressive parties, and Greek Olympics culminated by a banquet and dance at the Radison Hotel in Minneapolis.

GAMMA PLEDGES got off to a good DZ start by taking first place with this Homecoming float at the University of Minnesota. It featured Paul Bunyan and Babe, the Blue Ox, after the centennial theme, "Minnesota 1858-1958."

A BADMINTON CHAMPION at Minnesota, Carol Henrikson gave Delta Zeta a third-place in the shot-put event at Greek Week. They also took a second-place basketball trophy in the Delta Tau Delta tournament.

lis. Most thrilling of the relays were the sorority baby buggy race and the fraternity chariot race.

Campus Carnival was a special event for ΔZ and ΔT fraternity. With our Polynesian restaurant concession and floor show, musical entertainment, and atmosphere we planned to draw thousands to our glorified pizza palace.

Nancy Burrige, a gracious, vivacious Texas belle, visited the chapter house for two weeks giving us tips on rushing. Everyone more than enjoyed her stay and can really say, "Nancy, do come again."

We are also proud to mention a copy of the LAMP of Delta Zeta history, Oct. 1934, received from Mrs. Dwight Minnich, daughter of our Grand Patron Dr. Guy Potter Benton. Our thanks to the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Minnich for adding to the library of Gamma.

Mississippi Southern—Epsilon Mu

Several new annual events were initiated by Epsilon Mu Chapter this year. One was the "Apple Polishing Party" which we held for faculty members and another was the "Bermuda Bop" at which we entertained fraternity men. Both were successful and had a large attendance.

We participated in Religious Emphasis Week by asking two of the visiting ministers to speak to us at two weeknight seminars and then taking them to supper. Betty Clifton and Emily Williams represented us on the committee of 100 which planned for the Religious Week.

To help in the March of Dimes campaign, we made and sold hotdogs in the dormitories, making a profit of $25.00 which we contributed. Lynn Sumerlin was nominated by her dormitory as March of Dimes Queen. She won and was crowned at the dance.

Also bringing honors to Epsilon Mu was Ann DeGraaf who was chosen by the student body from among 78 candidates as one of the Top Ten Beauties.

Missouri Valley—Gamma Gamma

Four $\Gamma \Gamma$ women were given the honor of being chosen to Who's Who. They were Deanna Carr, Dianne Hackler, Sharon Kennedy, and Amy Martin.

Our chapter was proud indeed to have these six members chosen to $\Gamma \Gamma \Phi$ because of their high scholastic standing: Marcia Rissler, president; Sharon Maitland, secretary-treasurer; Rose Marie Fischer; Dianne Hackler; Sharon Kennedy; Amy Martin. Scholarship, a distinctive trait of Gamma Gamma, was shown again when seven of our members made the Dean's Honor List and when Marcia Rissler received the President's Scholarship and the Distinguished Scholarship Award.

Mardi Gras was the theme of Missouri Valley's Basketball Homecoming, which proved to be a success for us when Carra Sue Heiman was crowned queen of the event.

The "Delta Zeta Isle of Golden Dreams" was the theme of our annual Coronation Ball. At this time the new officers were announced and the president was crowned queen of the ball.

Sharon Maitland is the new Panhellenic president.

Northeastern Missouri—Delta Sigma

Delta Sigma goes onward and upward in all campus activities! Delta Sigma girls elected to student council were: Sharyl Mogg, senior class secretary; Anita Wolfe, junior class representative; and Doris Williams, sophomore class secretary. Blanton Hall Dormitory officers were Karen McAllister, president; Sandy Swank, secretary; and Dorie Roberts, treasurer.

In sports, $\Delta \Sigma$ placed second in both the volleyball and basketball intramurals. Also, we're very proud of Doris Nelson who received the Sports Award.

One of the highlights of this year was the Fun Festival on the MSTC campus. With our theme centering around a "Jailhouse" booth, we received first prize for the highest total proceeds.

In the music line, Delta Sigma is very proud of its Delta Chorus, which sang over station KIRX on their "College Life" program.

Next, we salute Karen McAllister, Jan Finke, Doris Nelson, and Judy Paradise for making Who's Who. Also, congratulations are in order for two $\Delta \Sigma$ beauties, Dorie Roberts and Sharyl Mogg, who are candidates for the yearbook Echo Queen.

We have had a very active pledge class this year. One of their projects was a basket for the needy at Christmas.

Harris Teachers—Epsilon Eta

The chapter was happy that one of its members, Adrienne Juerling, was elected to Who's Who. As Helene Westermann retired as Masked Knight Queen, she was succeeded by former DZ, Jeanette Webster.

Last December 14 marked the end of many weeks of hard practice for the annual Inter-Fraternal Sing, but then, it was worth it, for the DZs won for themselves a lovely second-place loving cup.

Epsilon Eta is also rather proud of her athletic achievements. Last term she captured first place in the volleyball tournament under the captainship of Kathy Friend. This term they won the basketball championship, with Jan Coughlin as captain, for the third year in a row, which means that now the trophy is theirs to keep.

Nebraska Wesleyan—Beta Tau

Elaine Wittig, Anne Gilbert and Wilma Vodehnal were our candidates in the Nebraska Wesleyan Beauty Queen contest, and Elaine was one of the six finalists. Elaine Kirchhoff was T K E Girl of the Month. Mary Jean Johnson was elected to $\Phi K \Phi$.

Gail Schultz was elected to $K \Delta \Pi$, education honorary; Dorothy Tarrell was elected to $\Pi \Gamma M$, social sciences honorary; Gail Schultz was on the dean's honor roll and Linda Frank and Dorothy Tarrell were on the honorable mention honor roll; Mary Kluver had a lead in "The King and I." Susan Witschey and Mary Kluver were chosen for chapel choir (highest honor in singing groups on campus).

The final night of "Courtesy Week" preceding the initiation of our first semester pledges, the initiates entertained the pledges at a surprise party at the chapter house. The pledges had arrived expecting some type of "Courtesy Week" activities, and were really surprised when the initiates rolled out the red carpet for a party in their honor. The special feature of the very informal party was the taffy-pull in which every girl participated. The rest of the time was spent playing ping-pong, party games and cards. The pledges were really impressed by the party and the thought behind it and want to make it a tradition in our chapter—being careful that it is kept a secret from all the pledges until the night of the party.

Friday, March 13, was a lucky night for our non-superstitious Beta Tau Chapter. It was the night of our formal and fortunately preceded by only about 12 hours one of the worst snowstorms of the season. The night was beautiful and so were the dinner and formal. One of our highlights was the presentation of our "Ideal DZ Couple" award, given to an alumna and her husband who have been of special assistance to us through the years. This year Frances Day Callen, Nebraska Wesleyan-B T, and her husband, Dr. E. Glenn Callen, were revealed as our ideal couple. Dr. Callen is the head of the political science-sociology department at Nebraska Wesleyan University and has been of special assistance to Delta Zetas whenever they are having difficulty in their school work. Mrs. Callen has been one of those wonderful alumnae who is always ready and willing to help us in every and any phase of sorority life for which we call on her.

NEW MEXICO

New Mexico State—Gamma Xi

Our top honor members this year include Laura Vigil, president of AWS, Who's Who, New Mexico IFYE delegate; Bobbie Howell, president of Freshman Dorm; Helen Abaskin, president of Panhellenic; and Ann Paxton and Kay Lizer, Mu Beta, equivalent to Mortar Board.

We won third place in Greek Stunt Night.

A non-conformist theme made a very interesting party for us. Streamers were hung from the ceiling and candles were burned in bottles. Everyone wore something that they had always wanted to wear to a party.

Gamma Xi initiated twelve girls into Delta Zeta this year. They are Josefa Munoz, Dorothy Ortiz, Barbara Witte, Glenda Beach, Janice Buckner, Margaret Gilbert, Barbara Hughes, Shirley Mitchell, Joan Ross, Ida Saucedo, Connie Stevens, and Marilyn Noble.

We were honored by a visit from Mrs. Helen Nolop in November.

Hunter—Gamma Eta

The following members of Gamma Eta hold offices at Hunter College: Patricia D'Ambrosio, Panhellenic treasurer; Theresa Angeloro, Junior Class treasurer and winner of 1958 undergraduate scholarship; Carmen DeLemos, treasurer of Pre-medical Society; Elaine Celmer, president of Sociology Club; and Aracelis Colmenares, secretary of Pre-medical Society.

Scholarship and extracurricular activities are equally emphasized in our chapter with the result of a well-rounded college student and a more active Delta Zeta.

Two ΔE 's, Laura Jehn and Lucrezia DiGrazia, brought honor to Delta Zeta this semester. Laura added Who's Who to her already long list of accomplishments. Lucrezia's faithful participation in the Inter-Sorority Council was rewarded when she was elected to the presidency of the first Panhellenic Association at Queens College.

Each year, the organizations at Queens College are asked to participate in a show for the benefit of a charity. ΔE , in conjunction with Phi Epsilon Pi fraternity, presented a skit which was based on the characters from "Li'l Abner." Anne Healy played the lead as Nellie, the small town girl who returns from college as a full-fledged Bohemian. Under the able direction of Honey Rudler, ΔE placed second in this annual competition, the proceeds of which were sent to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. ΔE was also the winner of the Women's Recreational Association Sports Day in which the sorority competed with the other fraternal organizations on campus.

A very successful philanthropy program was planned by Yvonne DiFranco, the chapter philanthropy chairman. ΔE joined forces with the Dead End Boys fraternity and sold pretzels on campus for the benefit of Muscular Dystrophy.

Standards chairman, Anne Healy, planned an extremely interesting program for ΔE 's last standards meeting. Laura Jehn, an English major, lectured on William Butler Yeats. She opened with a brief biographical note, and then an explanation of his cosmology and philosophy. Copies of several of Yeats' poems were distributed, and Laura and the audience analyzed them together. The questions were incorporated into the discussion as they occurred. This helped the unity and enjoyment of the lecture. Everyone had both an enjoyable and an enlightening time.

Wagner—Zeta Delta

Only one semester at Wagner College and already the Delta Zetas are on their way to achieving a respected position on campus.

This year our Zeta Delta Chapter, competing against all other Greek organizations, won the Delo Scholarship Trophy for the highest accumulative average. Over one third of our members made Dean's List, with one sister, Pat Hiller, attaining a straight A average.

We were most happy and honored to learn that Carol Marchhaus, was named to Who's Who. Carol was also elected treasurer of Varsity Players.

As our part in "Adventures in Friendship," we made colorful scrapbooks to distribute to the Staten Island orphanages. We also donated our Homecoming float, a replica of the "Queen of Bermuda," to St. Michael's Children's Home.

This spring the Zeta Deltas have been busy with a schedule which included Campus Community Chest Carnival, Annual Greek Song Fest, our open dance, "Diamond Fantasy," and spring rushing.

Miami—Alpha

Our new initiates are Carol Garr Alexander, Youngstown; Shirley Anderson, Columbus; Nancy Christy, Elmwood City, Pa.; Connie Cooks, Cleveland Heights; Beverly Crane, Norwood; Sue Dotson, Wapakoneta; Carolyn Dykstra, Allentown, Pa.; Judy Gettle, Mt. Healthy; Karen Hart, Lanham, Md.; Jane Johnston, Darien, Conn.; Rosemary Kienle, Piqua; Linda Klepper, Lawrenceburg, Ind.; Jackie Kupper, Montclair, N.J.; Anne McKnight, New Castle, Pa.; Dagnija Miske, Cleveland; Carol Mitchell, Frederickburg; Marianne Mouser, Washington Court House; Lee Schaefer, Youngstown; Betty Senicka, Oak Park, Ill.; and Sigred Sletteland, Pigeon Falls, Wis.

Our new pledges are Barbara Bates, Kirkwood, Mo.; Elizabeth Finlayson, Dayton; Barbara Mansfield, Elyria; and Mary Solomon, Mt. Vernon.

Alpha Chapter is very proud of the honors her girls have received. Sally Pagen, our vice-president, has been selected for ΨX , psychology honorary. Kay Amund-son was elected treasurer of AWS. Jan Cook has been selected assistant house chairman of one of the freshman dormitories. Whitney Gorden, Kay Amundson, and Pat Mannasmith were initiated into Les Politiques, government honorary.

Again this year we journeyed to Hamilton school for our Christmas project. Hamilton school has many underprivileged children. We decorated a large Christmas tree for them and we handed out candy canes to all of the children. We received thank you notes from several of the homerooms.

Our chapter always looks forward to the Christmas party which the pledges give each year. The pledges demonstrated their talents by singing their individual songs and presenting their skit. They were all identically attired in red elfin outfits. Santa Claus distributed the gifts for the exchange between big and little sisters to climax the enjoyable afternoon.

At our scholarship banquet, the meal was served according to point averages, with the dinners ranging from steak to roast beef to spaghetti to hamburgers. The Delta ring for highest scholarship was presented to Barb Gibson Emery who had a four point and the Zeta ring for most improvement went to Nancy Christy.

For our booth at the ODK carnival we worked with Delta Upsilon on Jamaican theme, with a wheel of fortune, a musical show, and paper leis for favors.

"Holiday in Haiti" was theme of an informal rush party. The suite was decorated with bananas and coconut trees. Pineapple juice and white cake were the refreshments. A trio did a version of "Jamaican Farewell" followed by group singing with an ukulele. Four girls were pledged from this party.

Last semester we started a monthly newspaper called the Lamplighter. This contains various doings of the DZ's on campus, honors, and interesting sidelights. Also included is the DZ of the month. This is an honor bestowed on a girl who has done outstanding work for the month or who has contributed in many small ways perhaps unknown to the rest of the chapter. Our DZ's of the month have included Ann Brown, Jane Parker, Jackie Kupper and Kay Amundson.

Although rain dampened Oxford on Homecoming, it did not dampen our spirits because we had the prize-winning float. Paired with A Σ A, our float consisted of a huge plastic bottle with an Indian pounding a cork in. A girl dressed as a falcon was the victim inside. Our slogan was "Bottle Bowling Green" and "Alums, You're Corkers."

Delta Zeta took the spotlight during Greek Week. We won the Greek Week Sing, and Rosemary Osborn was one of the three finalist in the Greek Week Queen competition.

Eight of our girls are spreading the name of Delta Zeta throughout Ohio. These girls are members of "Sis' Group" under the direction of Sis Korney. They have been asked to sing at the Military Ball and for many conventions here in Columbus.

Individual honors go to Kay Rapp who was chosen director of public relations in Student Senate.

As a new addition to our philanthropic program we have adopted a patient at Carville. We have been carrying on a correspondence with him and doing whatever we can to help brighten his life.

Recently we initiated six girls: Pat Capdeau, Emmerlin Howe, Barbara Koepp, Marsha Schomberg, Pat Whitney, and Pat Wilson.

We have been hard at work on plans for our Spring

"Now I'm a Delta Z!"—And these lovely pledges of Ohio State—Theta couldn't be happier about it. The chapter was pretty happy, too, about pledging 28 girls in spring rush, one of the few sororities to fill quota. First row, from left: Cynthia Strayer, Cindy Brown, Kay Rapp, Jane Furis, Linda Hizey, Sharon Riggs, Marcia Berkey and Joan Glazer. Second row: Linda Gordon, Sharon Allion, Lyn Warner, Fran Goschinski, Barbara Wolfe, Gail Grossman, Jackie Schwartz, Carol Gearhart and Eve Walker. Third row: Sally Casto, Becky Kerr, Diane Hahn, Louise Larrimer, Marilyn Erlenbusch, Jane Nuske, Bev Copp and Jan Tuck. Not pictured are Marty Cline, Deloris Barrett and Darla Dorr.

"DEPRESSION IS NOT HERE" was the theme of Xi's Homecoming float, which won second place at Cincinnati. The theme of Homecoming being the "Roaring Twenties," they chose to show that education is still more valued than money, with Emmerlin Howe tipping the scales with the Lamp of Learning.

Individual honors have been many. Alpha Lambda Delta chose Diane Westfall, Sandra Anderson, Lynn Meister and Judy Hough. A Woodrow Wilson Scholarship, for graduate study was awarded Ruth Ann Weider. President of Art Club is Diane Westfall. Girl's basketball team and Pep Band claim Carol Koontz.

Frencliff Dormitory president is Elizabeth Wilcox, and layout editor for Witt is Barbara Sheperd.

Our annual housecleaning spree consisted of scrubbing and polishing for our faculty as well as getting better acquainted with them. We have found that this project was not only a success in what it accomplished but also served as a time when we worked together and had fun doing it.

The Rev. Roland Carter recently visited Russia and at an interesting Standards meeting was able to give us a vivid personal account of what he actually saw. Besides his interesting commentary, he showed a non-professional file taken on the trip. We enjoyed our trip to Russia.

An innovation was tried this year, that of having a dual formal. We held ours with Δ Γ Sorority.

We participated in the Muscular Dystrophy Drive and the Heart Fund Drive.

Annually we undertake a Greek-wide bridge tournament. Each group sends a representative, and trophies are awarded. Each year the alumnae also sponsor a night of bridge. This program is held at the chapter house and the initiates solicit for the prizes and help serve refreshments.

Wittenberg went to "Oklahoma" for her annual musical. Four of our DZ's became Oklahomans and created the characters of that play superbly. Ado Annie was portrayed by our own all or nothing gal, Lucy Musser. Gertie, with her affected giggle, was played by Lynne Bodry. Judy Baunach and Helene Ettlinger danced and lent their voices to the ever-alive music of Rodgers and Hammersteins' "Oklahoma."

Baldwin-Wallace—Gamma Alpha

Once again Gamma Alpha girls have important places on Student Council. The out-going vice-president, Gloria Taylor, administered the oath of office to another Γ A, Betty White. This, incidentally, is the fifth consecutive year that this particular office, the highest women's office on campus, has been held by a Delta Zeta girl! Also occupying important seats on student council are Muggsy Bade, Judy Arnold, and Nancy Trapp Schraibman.

Among queenships on campus, Delta Zetas are prominent. Muggsy Bade was Homecoming Queen, Nancy Eckerman was elected Sweetheart Queen, Donna Kier was named Crescent Queen by Δ X A and Lorraine Berhent was honored as Paddle Dance Queen for Δ Σ Φ. Judy Arnold and Betty White have been chosen to the May Day court.

In athletics, Gamma Alpha has again shown itself proud. Polly Armstrong and Muggsy Bade were again chosen to participate in the annual all-star basketball game. Connie Wagner is director of the Aqualene show, the water ballet presentation, which is well supported by her sisters as Nancy Eckerman, Sue Turner, Norma Shahan, Kergi Felt, Judy Arnold, and Polly Armstrong participate. Muggsy Bade, Dorothy Opalich, and Judy Hancher won the fowl-shooting contest.

Active in campus dramatic productions are Connie Wagner, student director of "Mr. Roberts;" Betty White and Joanne Lindeman, the Family Health Series; and Linda Perry, "The Terrible Meek."

Gamma Alpha is fortunate to have five representatives on both the campus newspaper, The Exponent, and the campus yearbook, The Grindstone. Judy Hancher is business manager of The Exponent, while Georgie Harris and Sally Horton serve as reporters. Judy Ducharme is literary editor of The Grindstone, while Linda Fodor is also on the staff.

In scholarship, Gamma Alpha attained a long-time goal of a 3.04 accumulative average and placed tops on campus for the fifth consecutive quarter.

Kent State—Gamma Kappa

Barbara Evans and Joan Hartzell were awarded scholarship bracelets. Jean Depp received the Joan Sehlinger guard from the chapter. Elizabeth Kirk was co-chairman of Kent's Greek Week. Pat Flint was elected senior class secretary. Barbara Evans pledged K Δ II, education honorary. Cynthia Grossman and Sue Stevens pledged Sigma Alpha Eta, Speech & Hearing honorary.

Dee Fix was elected chairman of the Student-Faculty relations committee and vice-president of the English Club. Chairman of Kent State's Semi-centennial Committee for 1960 is Beverly Law. Jill Loveland is on the executive board of the sophomore class, second vice-president of Golden K, and also serves as a varsity cheerleader. Vice-president of Moulton Hall and the secretary of the President's Council is Katy Keir. Pat Chadwick is a member of Student Council and was elected treasurer of the National Association for Women Students. Sally Doran was elected Rose Girl for Fall Quarter.

In the area of queen judgments, Lynn Loushine was a finalist for the Cover Girl Contest at Kent State University. Connie Morris was elected Pershing Rifles sponsor for the coming year. Pat Flint was chosen a finalist for Miss Kent State.

The Little Sisters treated their Big Sisters to a dinner when their "Sis's" out-did them in scholarship.

The following girls were initiated into the chapter: Dee Fix, Pat Chadwick, Nancy Thomas, Sue Simon, Tillie Umbach, Connie Morris, Jo White, Linda Ritchie, Cynthia Grossman, and Jill Loveland.

The chapter received second place in the annual swim meet on campus.

The chapter gave a party for the hard-of-hearing children at the University School, Kent, Ohio.

The alumnae and the college chapter sold refreshments at a basketball tournament at Kent State University and earned money to finance the chapter's newsletter.

Rushing was very successful this year. We filled our freshman quota, with 16 girls.

The chapter is saving tax stamps and we have collected over $150 worth.

Bowling Green—Gamma Tau

Other sorority and fraternity houses received Christmas wreaths from the Delta Zetas and private homes near our house enjoyed our caroling. Gamma Tau gave the Outstanding Greek woman award.

A major achievement of our chapter this year was the originating of the "cozy" on our campus. These meetings between sororities are held one evening a month and last about an hour. The girls chat and drink coffee and learn each other's sorority songs. It is an evening of fun, but more than that, the members from the different sororities meet each other, find things in common and learn to get along together. Our campus, we believe, will certainly benefit from the "cozies."

Honor girls are Betty Breneman, B B B, the biology honorary; Joyce Sue Powell, B II Θ, French honorary; and Diane Sotu, Δ Ψ K, physical education honorary.

Speakers at our standards meetings are usually well-informed faculty members and also last fall we had a special treat when Florence Hood Spears came from Illinois and was with us for four days, helping us with good grooming, clothing and personal appearance.

During Thanksgiving and Christmas vacations all the members gathered clothing and sent three large parcels to Carville.

New initiates are Diane Sotu of Cleveland and Dorothy Lehman of Lorain.

Our spring pledges were: Carol Bay, Toledo; Priscilla Beatty, Fairview Park; Mary Gray, Shelby; Anna Grim, Bryan; Miriam Hawk, Rockford; Lynne Heimer, Fairview Park; Joan Hobbs, Elida; Joyce Marcell, Cleveland; Patricia Morrissey, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Kathryn

OKLAHOMA

Oklahoma State—Alpha Epsilon

Alpha Epsilon had a very active and exciting spring semester. We had an exchange dinner with other sororities on campus, sponsored by Panhellenic. During finals week we had a special surprise party for a break between studies when our housemother served snacks.

The pledges had a special project this semester of re-decorating a room in the house. They repainted, shelled, and refinished the ironing room, which was an improvement on the looks of the house, and made an impression on the members.

A big heart with the names of the girls and their dates and a red heart accented with fluffy dyed feathers were the outstanding decorations at our Valentine party. Dale Milligan and Revelle Taylor were crowned as our King and Queen of Hearts.

The Panhellenic Spring Reception was held in the Student Union Ballroom. Roll call was answered by the sororities singing a song. Our chapter sang "Halls of DZ."

At an informal rush party the girls wore peddlepushers and sportswear as we roasted wienies and toasted marshmallows in our own fireplace in the newly re-decorated lounge. After eating, we had games and group singing. It was a big success and was loads of fun.

Upon receiving the semester grades, the chapter enjoyed a scholarship dinner. Those above a three-point enjoyed steak while those below ate beans and provided entertainment. The tables looked pretty in our dining room, arrayed with our Christmas gifts or pieces of crested china, 48 place settings of silver, and four crystal candelabra from alumnae. (We surely appreciate our alumnae and want to thank them for their generosity!)

We feel proud of the honors bestowed upon the girls this semester. Revelle Taylor was elected a Varsity Revue Girl (school talent show), Dionne Dobson was a candidate for Engineering Queen, Kathy Wooster is in O N (home economics), Ellen Brinker is the new historian of Σ T Δ (English) and nine girls were on the Dean's Honor Roll with over a three-point.

Our pledges and members exchanged their status with a "Pledge-Member Day." The members were required to do house duties, fulfill orders, and answer the telephone with a song. The pledges and members both enjoyed the fun.

A money-making project was sponsored by the mothers for us. We all helped collect items for a rummage sale held in Oklahoma City. Profit on the sale amounted to $69.00 which is going toward improvements in the house.

A style show was held in our house in February. Tickets sold at one dollar each (open to the public). It was sponsored by Vanita Cocanougher, a DZ alumna. Mrs. Cocanougher designs and sells all of her clothes exclusively. They were all lavish and very beautiful. The proceeds went to our philanthropy, Gallaudet.

COFFEE FEATURE FOR FACULTY

Two successful coffees were given this fall honoring our faculty. The first one, held in our sorority apartment, was a welcome-back-to-school coffee. To help celebrate the yuletide a second faculty coffee was held in December. Because of a faculty meeting the Arts and Science faculty was unable to attend; so we took coffee, rolls and Christmas favors to their meeting. Above, Dr. Robert Jones learns all about DZ from Kathy Rives, Carolyn Dietz, Eleanor Scott and Janice Fox. At right, Betty Smith, chapter president, serves Mrs. L. D. Melton, Dean of Women.

THREE FRESHMAN QUEENS

What could be more of an honor than to have three Freshman Queens—not all in the same year of course. For the last three consecutive years $\Gamma\Upsilon$ has been honored by having their candidate elected Freshman Queen. K. Dean Walker, left, the 1956-57 Queen, is a percussion major from Stuttgart, Ark. She plays in the Oklahoma City Symphony and is our chief drummer. Our new little Freshman Queen, Carol Thompson, is a religious education major from Oklahoma City. Also from Oklahoma City is our 1957-58 Queen, Janice Fox. She is a business major and a cheer leader. We are mighty proud of our three Freshman Queens.

SANTA'S PIXIES

These four Delta Zetas were busy being pixies last Christmas. OCU Open House took place December 14 with the dedication of four new dormitories. Santa Claus was on hand to distribute gifts with them to the children. The pixies were also in a skit given by the chapter for a Christmas legacy party. Seated are Joyce Holland and Frances Henderson. Standing are Clair Sevier and Donna Scott.

MATH CONVENTION HOSTESSES

Gamma Upsilon chapter again became hostesses for the annual Oklahoma-Arkansas meeting of the Mathematics Association of America. All preparations for the convention were made by the Delta Zetas. We arranged for the meeting place, refreshments, and were there bright and early to register and welcome the teachers. Ellenmarie Myers is shown welcoming a delegate.

junior class secretary, Janice Picket; junior treasurer, Lois Tomlins; senior treasurer, Carole Frederick; cheerleaders Clara Sevier, Janice Fox, Kathy Rives; and Carole Frederick: Jewels Block Music Award, NATS advanced division winner and All College Basketball Queen.

We won first place with our float in the NW Chamber of Commerce Halloween parade.

We held our annual benefit musical to raise money for an audiometer and are continuing work at the Crippled Childrens Hospital with the pre-school children.

Delta Zetas gave two afternoons to helping the Public Relations Office. We worked in the president's office stuffing envelopes, saving them the cost of hiring additional help.

In December we had initiation for Joyce Holland, Jan Miller, and Lynne Shomell. The Mothers' Club had dinner ready for us in the sorority apartment after initiation.

Scarabs, local honorary service organization, claimed Jeannie Roe, Clara Sevier, Betty Smith, Edith Countryman, and Carole Frederick.

New members of Cardinal Key are Carole Frederick and Shirley Hedges. Who's Who selected Carole Frederick, Rella Faye Merrill, Myrtle Foster, and Nell Caldwell. Jeannie Roe was candidate for OCU Princess.

Verona Brown and Kaylin Dupree were selected for membership in Who's Who and Cardinal Key, and Carolyn Irwin and Verona Brown were initiated into K Δ II. Representing the ZH's in beauty contests were Helen Chadwell, a candidate for the Girl with the Prettiest Smile, and Verona Brown, in the Ten Pretty Girls contest. Helen Chadwell was in the Homecoming Court and is an alternate cheerleader.

The ZH's honored the faculty with a Christmas coffee which we plan to make a traditional event.

OREGON

Oregon State—Chi

Chi Chapter received an engraved revolving trophy as first-place winner in the AWS booth contest at the annual Carnival; Shirley Wright was chairman. We won second place in the Homecoming sign contest with Judy Stadler as chairman.

Myra McBride was selected as an International Farm Youth Exchange delegate and had a role in "Rain." Lillah Ball was initiated into O N, national home economics honorary, and she was elected president of Euturpe, local music honorary, and secretary of Westminster House, church youth group. Joan Westberg was initiated into Daughters of Minerva, service honorary organized by Σ A E; only seven sophomore girls are selected each year. She is a member of the MU poster committee. Sharon Wood had a role in "Rain" and was elected dormitory representative. Sue Davis and Laurie Cropsey were presented in recitals.

Janet Pearsall, our president, is a chairman for the annual Honors Convo, on the steering committee for our first "Greek Week" and is the recipient of an organ scholarship given to promising students in music. Dorothy Gimbol was awarded an Oregon Legislative scholarship, is chairman of posters for the Sophomore Cotillion, and publicity chairman of Newman Club, church youth group. Margaret Shadler is president of the campus

NANCY WEST

Delta Theta's Nancy West is a junior who began making her mark very early on the huge University of Houston campus. Although her major is education, she is an outstanding journalist and has recently been appointed editor for the second year of the Houstonian, the school yearbook.

Nancy is continuing a DZ tradition at Houston, for she succeeded another much-honored Delta Zeta, Wilma Hartman, in this important post.

Nancy also reigned as Headline Hop Queen for 1959, is on the board of directors of Journalism, Inc., the student journalist governing body, and a member of Gamma Alpha Chi, women's advertising fraternity.

She has served Delta Theta Chapter as scholarship chairman, rush captain and president, 1959 press and public relations chairman, and as a speaker at this spring's Texas State Day.

Her chapter elected Nancy Dream Girl of Delta Zeta for 1959, and she was also queen of this year's Frontier Fiesta, "crowning" DZ's sweep of Fiesta honors.

camping group, president of Bernard Daly, Lakeview scholars group, and a member of the Women's Recreational Association Council. Shara Loomis is publicity chairman of the Home Economics club and she and Cathy O'Farrell were co-editors of the Home Economics handbook. Carol King is co-editor of the "Oregon Pharmacy" annual and was recently tapped for Δ K Σ , pharmacy honorary. Carol is publicity chairman of AWS and secretary of Θ Σ Φ , journalism honorary. Pat Walter is in the chorus of the Mayhem Operetta, spring production, on Westminster Council and a member of the Campus Religious Council. Margie Olson is secretary of T-Round Table, a member of the Homecoming button sale committee, and was an AWS delegate.

Honored at State Day were Janet Pearsall, Judy Stadler, and Kathleen Wilcox for work in DZ; Myra McBride, Celestia Onsdorff, and Dorothy Gimbol for church and community work; and Margaret Shadler, Lillah Ball and Myra McBride for college honors.

The pledges gave a successful and delightful winter term dance, "Buttons and Bows" featuring centennial dress.

Pittsburgh—Omicron

Omicron Chapter is happy to have pledged ten girls in March. They are: Mary Ferguson, Carol Pettinato, Mary Anne Tighe, Lucinda Weyandt, Bettianne Heidler, Florence Warfel, Connie Michael, Judy Taylor, Edith Geisler and Lois Sankey.

At the University's Honors Convocation students were honored whose scholarship on a cumulative basis meets the standard for graduation with honor. Delta Zeta is proud to have had twelve girls recognized: Kathy Mazer, Marjorie Adams, Marina Giordano, Eleanor Gochis, Carol Henry, Martha Hood, Marjorie Ransick, Nancy Raynor, Mary Ann Tighe, Judy Taylor, Carol Pettinato and Marcia Getting.

Sandra Mattern, senior class secretary, was elected to $\Sigma K \Phi$, honorary language fraternity. She and Patricia Elkin were elected to $\Pi \Delta \Theta$, for women in education.

Several DZ's were elected to various offices at Pitt this spring. Our new chapter president, Helen Tasevich, was elected Committee Co-ordinator of the School of Education Association and president of S.E.A.P. Marjorie Ransick is the newly elected secretary of Quo Vadis; Kathy Mazer, treasurer of Panhell; Theresa Bozzo, chairman of the Senior Class; and Lois Peterson, Chapel Representative from the School of Education.

We are proud of one of our sophomores, Kathy Mazer, who was chosen to be this year's Greek Week chairman at Pitt. For Kathy, and for Delta Zeta, this was an honor, indeed.

This year two of our girls are on Senior Court. Marjorie Adams and Carol Pettinato were chosen, and Margie is Chief Justice. At Pitt, being chosen for Senior Court is a great honor.

In April, we were happy to pledge a new DZ, Vivian Turner. Vivian is a freshman.

Temple—Delta Tau

The DZs won second place and a lovely trophy for their float presentation at Homecoming. They were very proud of this, as it was the result of some hard work by less than a dozen girls (with an assist from Bill Warning, Sigma Phi Epsilon, who earned this year's Delta Zeta Dream Man crown). The theme was Bucknell's Grave Situation, with the sisters dressed as very palatable pall bearers.

This has been an industrious semester for the Delta Taus. They began with six, but with spirit, and are now sixteen; they balanced the books with the annual chicken leg sale for fraternity boys on campus and with a large candy sale at Christmas; a successful rush party was the Pink Lady Fashion Show last fall with tiny DZ originals as favors.

Their motto this year is one that's been in every motto since Delta Zeta's birthday (it's short)—"Scholarship! Scholarship! Scholarship!"

Recently Z E elected Dena Morris and Janet Bristor for their Delta Zeta Hall of Fame. This special annual award is designed to honor those Delta Zeta members who have made outstanding contributions to the sorority. Dena Morris was president of the local $\Delta \Sigma E$ Sorority, and made many of the preparatory arrangements for the sorority to unite with ΔZ . Janet Bristor was the first president of the sorority after it became an affiliate of Delta Zeta.

The Delta Zeta's of California State Teachers College would like to publicly congratulate these girls having

The Drexel Delta Zetas had a very active fall term. We had two sisters nominated for Inter-Fraternity queen—Lynn Meyers and Sue Holcombe. Sue was chosen by the fraternities as their queen.

For our philanthropic project we prepared a Thanksgiving Basket for a needy family. We also collected old clothing and toys for the children in the family.

Each month our chapter elects a "Delt of the Month" for special service to the sorority. The girls who have received this honor this year are Betty Eby and Sue Holcombe.

Sharon Gorton is Assistant Coordinator of Rhody Review (campus variety show). Gail Austin is the junior class vice-president. Judy Feroce is the sophomore class social chairman.

We won girls basketball intramurals and were undefeated all season. Betsy Baxter helped us win the co-rec. badminton title, and we also won second place in bowling intramurals. We received a hi-fi set by winning the Marlborough contest.

We raffled off an afghan made by one of our mothers and the Mothers' Club printed the tickets for us. We gave a tea for Miss Marion Fry, one of our alumnae who decorated our downstairs of the sorority house. Many faculty members came to see our beautiful house. It was a very successful tea.

Vicki Woodall was named Baptist Student Union Member of the Month, a great honor on our campus. Vicki is very active in all campus activities and, among other things, is national president of the Pat Boone Fan Club. Seven girls were selected to participate in the annual beauty review, two representing our chapter and five sponsored by various fraternities. Four made the semi-finals in a group of fifteen, narrowed from thirty. Betty Jane Winter was elected to the Hall of Fame, for outstanding seniors, and Diane Dickens to Tassel. Patricia Williams had the leading dancing role in the music department opera.

The annual Delta Zeta Follies was held and the proceeds given to the World Literacy Fund on our local educational TV station. This is an outstanding campus event. We also participated in the auction of services as part of World University Service. Each group on campus donated some service, sold to the highest bidder, and Delta Zeta's errand service was bought for $20 by a fraternity.

The chapter initiated eleven girls and pledged six more in open rush.

SMU—Alpha Psi

In a recent all-school election the three executive positions of the Campus Y were filled with Δ Z's. Pat Dawson was elected president, Elaine Wreden vice-president, and Margaret Randel secretary. Also named to the Y Cabinet was Bev Kitchens, chairman of the Worship Committee. This is the first time in the history of the Y at SMU that any one sorority has gained a majority representation as a result of a popular election.

For the past two years the presidency of the largest women's dormitory at SMU, Shuttles Hall, has been filled by DZ's. The first year the dorm was opened Pat Dawson was elected president by the 208 women students who live at Shuttles. This year Margaret Randel, Pat's little sister, is president. Lois Andrews, DZ initiate, was chosen to serve on the dorm council.

Two of the ten 1958-1959 SMU Rotunda Beauties are DZ's. Peggy Ryan, who was chosen as a beauty nominee during her freshman year, and Anne Galbraith were named beauties this year. Kay Adkins, new DZ initiate, was chosen as a beauty nominee.

Final exams found the usual accompanying depression dispersed by an exchange of surprise breakfasts on the part of the initiates and pledges. Daybreak, curlers, pajamas, donuts, and coffee characterized these.

With the beginning of the spring semester, new honors came to Δ Ψ's. Paula Dupree, Mary Nan Stanley, Sharon Woodruff, and Becky Blackwell were initiated into Α Α Δ. Elaine Wreden and Pat Dawson were chosen for membership in Kirkos, an all-campus organization composed of the top forty girls on campus. Loma Kenney was elected recording secretary of Rally Committee. Mary Hanford Baldy, Peggy Ryan, and Lois Moeller were chosen for the SMU modeling squad.

Initiation of twenty-one pledges was a big event on the Alpha Psi calendar.

Southwestern—Gamma Zeta

Gamma Zeta is very proud of the fifteen girls recently initiated: Marcia Campbell, Corpus Christi; Connie Sue Collins, Houston; Joyce Glasscock, Houston; Gail Marie Hamme, Edinburg; Linda Hutsell, Amahuae; Barbara Kobs, Houston; Carolyn Lawson, Port Arthur; Anne Maresh, Houston; Joanna May, Edinburg; Mary Beth Reifschneider, Houston; Judy Schaper, Houston; Terry Schoenemone, Houston; Barbara Sing, Houston; Susan Stark, Lake Jackson; and Sharon St. Lawrence, Houston.

Joining the ranks of Gamma Zeta are two new pledges, Virginia Macmillian, Houston, and Jenny Parris, Pasadena.

The pledges gave the initiates the greatest "Out-of-the-world" party. It was the traditional Barn Party, but they adapted it to the space age, making it an outer space Barn Party, which everyone agreed was the best ever.

These Γ Z's have recently been honored: Margie Scott, elected Miss Southwestern, the highest honor a girl may attain here at Southwestern. Ruth Schmidt was runner-up. We considered it quite a compliment to Delta Zeta that two of our girls would be in the final run-off of the top five girls nominated. Margie was also elected to Who's Who, and Jane Harris was elected president of Cardinal Key. Also in this honorary are Margie Scott, Virginia Reifschneider and JoAnn Irving. Prella Mays was recently elected social chairman of Women's Advisory.

The Γ Z's were well represented in the recent play, "Lilliom" given by the Mask and Wig Players. Gayle Haden portrayed the part of Lilliom's daughter. Also in the cast were Sharon St. Lawrence, Jenny Parris, Fran Fuller, and Marty Adams. Ruby Lee Pyle was cast for the next production, "The Diary of Anne Frank."

Recently elected officers of the Womens Recreation Association are Margie Scott, president, and Irene Dinnin, archery chairman.

We had the honor of pledging our new chapter at Sam Houston State Teachers College in Huntsville. It was a wonderful experience to welcome these fine girls to Delta Zeta.

An Illinois Music Master

An outstanding record of scholastic excellence and service to the University of Illinois School of Music has marked the college career of Sandra Jean Eppard, a June graduate of Alpha Beta of Delta Zeta.

Sandra has been recognized for high scholarship at the Honors Day programs for four years and holds the coveted scholarship key awarded students who have ranked at the top of their classes. Sandra was honored at the end of her junior year.

She has maintained a 4.3 average (based on 5.0 scale) in the music education curriculum. Her majors are pipe organ and choral music.

Sandra is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota and Pi Kappa Lambda, both music honoraries, and Kappa Delta Pi.

She has been a member of the 65-voice Women's Glee Club for four years and has been tour manager this past year. She also served as accompanist for University chorus, most highly-skilled mixed singing group on campus, and as secretary of McKinley Foundation (Presbyterian Student Center) choir.

Sandra's hobbies include playing the flute, horseback riding and an interest in fashion. She makes a lot of her own clothes and spent two summers as a college board model at Farnum-Barr & Co., St. Louis. This year Sandra has also been putting herself through college by working half-time in the Teacher Placement Office of the College of Education.

West Texas State—Zeta Zeta

It is a great thrill, with special meaning to each individual, to become members of Delta Zeta. We are very proud of the Z Z chapter, especially for the individual honors brought to DZ this past semester. We have broadened the fields in which we are outstanding, having placed second in scholarship among sororities and fraternities on campus this semester, holding first in the fall semester. We have especially been honored this year to have such an active chapter in the many different campus organizations.

We have almost 100 per cent membership in SEA and 50 per cent membership in $\Phi \Gamma N$ (business honorary). One of our girls, Ellie Maddox, received the title, "Miss FTA." She was secretary-treasurer of SEA and recently made a trip representing WTSC at the Texas State Convention of SEA in Houston. Ellie, Linda Barbee and Charlotte McElroy hold posts on WTSC's senate. Pat Sparks is president of one of the dorms, art director of the Thanksgiving dinner, dorm counselor, a candidate for homecoming queen, and a member of K Π (art honorary). Shining in the art field was Sue Carroll, receiving an art scholarship given by the Texas Federation of Womens' Clubs. Sue was also selected for Who's Who. The fine arts held a special interest when one of our spring pledges, Ann Smith had the leading role in a recent play, "The Innocents."

Margaret Earle and Frankie Campbell are being featured in WTSC's synchronized swimmers. Margaret was elected president of the P. E. Majors Club and represented WT at the Texas Tennis Tournament this past year. Frankie will serve as WTSC's Panhellenic president for the coming year.

LaWanda Wheeler has held the spotlight quite a lot this year, as Sun Princess Candidate, E B Fraternity Sweetheart, and president of her pledge class. She is followed closely by one of our new pledges, Charlotte McElroy, who was Band Sweetheart candidate, freshman

We have wonderful coordination in the journalism field with Jo Moore an employee of the Amarillo Globe News. DZ is going to really shine because of Glenda Northcutt, a spring pledge, who is staff reporter and Society Editor of the Prairie, our college paper. She has recently been elected to M K A (journalism honorary) and Buffalo Gals, service club at WT.

There have been numerous office holders, with Mikala Faville, Pat Pigg, and Loubel McMurtry on the Inter-Dorm council; Marilyn Carruth, secretary of the Ski Club; and Virginia Leake, secretary of $\Phi \Gamma N$.

There has been a bright Lamp glowing in the music department when Donnis Plunk brought DZ honors by being selected as MENC Student of the Month, secretary-treasurer of MENC, a member of the Starlighters Trio, Madrigal Singers, and chapter song leader. Donnis has the leading part in the Opera and Senior Recital also.

Vada Bell and Carolyn Vance were selected by the ROTC to represent the boys as their sponsors. Karen Bell also swayed the popularity polls when she was a candidate for campus sweetheart, named best pledge, and elected to the Most Beautiful Court. Mikala Faville was a nominee for Sweater Girl.

Judith Cleavinger, Nancy Rivers, and Martha Sansing are members of Mary E. Hudspeth, honor society for freshmen and sophomores. They were also named on WTSC's Honor Roll. Carole Blair and Nancy Rivers were named to SEA Committees and also won the doubles in badminton. Loubel McMurtry brought home a winner in the sororities' and fraternities' Intramural Rodeo. She is also secretary-treasurer of Cousins Hall and chapter historian.

Our annual Delta Zeta Bowery Ball was a HUGE success on campus, featuring Dixi Rhoades, who has taught dancing in Amarillo. Most applauded was Marilyn Barton and her sultry "blues" songs.

The ZZ's gave a needy family our annual project, the Christmas tree—and a box of food.

Perhaps most delightful of all were the two retreats this year. Our wonderful alumnæ made them possible by furnishing their homes to us. We had an exciting time getting better acquainted with DZ at these "rush schools."

Eleven of our members went to State Day and came back really in the spirit to go onward to many more greater things for ZZ chapter and the DZ's on WTSC campus to do!

Wisconsin—Tau

This spring Tau chapter was hard at work on the Spring Rose Formal held at Chula Vista, a resort near the Wisconsin Dells. This is the first time we have taken our formal out of town. We also stayed busy practicing for the Tournament of Song contest held during Parents Weekend in May. Last year we won first place in the Greek eliminations contest. Campus Carnival, from which all the proceeds go to various charitable organizations, was another important event. We planned a participation booth on an Oriental theme with ΦK fraternity.

Initiation this spring gave us five new members: Mary Bradford, Carolyn Ewald, Ann Garlock, Judith Roland, and Marlene Skagan.

Tau Chapter is proud in having one of its members selected as Daily Cardinal editor-in-chief, Bonnie Barstow. Bonnie is the fifth woman editor in the 69-year history of the campus newspaper. Other outstanding Tau members include Julie Anderson, who is Panhellenic secretary and has a supporting role in the Wisconsin Players production of "The Corn is Green"; Martha Bullamore in the Dolphin water ballet show; Marian Clark, chairman of the UW Memorial Union Folk Fiestas; and Joan Fischer, editor of Calvary Lutheran Chapel and Student Center's Clarion.

With Noraleen Wendelborn as our president, our chapter is proud of its accomplishments this year. New initiates were Judy Conway, LaCrosse; Sue Jackson, Bellwood, Ill.; Janice Sundberg, Deerfield, Ill.; Jean Butenhoff, Milwaukee; Gail Clapham, Kenosha; Lynn Collette, Wausau; Pat Dunn, Wauwatosa; Joy Henderson, Elkhorn; Karen Landmann, Ashland, Ky.; Carol Meyer, Tinley Park, Ill.; Margaret Peterson, Wisconsin Rapids; Joann Potviet, Beloit; Karen Raht, Mukwonago; Mary Anne Rheault, Racine; Marie Solis, Gladstone, Mich.; and Marjorie Willard, Oregon.

Our members kept busy this year winning trophies. Out of the four trophies given to women's groups on our campus, we won three of them. We won first place in the WAA volleyball tournament with Nancy Flintrop as captain, and first place in the WAA basketball tournament with Kay Meiselwitz as captain. Jean Giebink was sports chairman for our chapter. We received our third trophy for first place in the all-school Winter Carnival with Pat Greenwald as chairman of our booth. Our theme was "Catch a Falling Star," complete with angels and the golden gates.

Activities didn't take precedence over the academic side of our college year. Ann Handley as scholarship chairman helped our chapter rise from last place to first place in all-women's scholastic average. The bracelets for top active and pledge scholastic averages are now being worn by Arlene Loth Cassidy and Jean Butenhoff.

The following girls won individual campus honors this year: Kay Meiselwitz, Homecoming Court; Noraleen Wendelborn, Winter Formal Court; Janis Hirsch, Junior Prom Court; Lee Piellusch Radtke, Who's Who, Scroll, and chairman of Union Policy Board; and Judy Conway, Roberta Rabenhorst, and Caroline Zimmer, Religion in Life Week Committee.

Our philanthropic work consisted of helping the Waukesha Alumnæ plan and give a Christmas party for the handicapped children of the Waukesha area. We also had the pledge class make picture cards for a local doctor working in speech therapy. This was one of their Greek Week projects.

The pledge class gave a date party for the members. The theme was "Heavenly Hell." All members had to dress as devils and their dates as angels. Everyone had to pass the inspection of Saint Peter in order to get into the party.

We had a swimming party at the new high school for all members and a few unaffiliated girls. After swimming we came back to the house for refreshments and informal entertainment consisting of listening to records, singing, playing cards, dancing, etc.

Stout—Zeta Beta

Zeta Beta chapter has been busy since last fall taking part in campus activities. At Homecoming, our own Mina Claseman was elected "Football Princess." Although we did not place with our float, a lot of fun was had making it.

The Greek Dance in November found us all draped in Nile green sheets with laurel wreaths on our heads.

Christmas found us making stuffed toys to send to the children's colony at Chippewa Falls. Formal initiation was held shortly after Christmas vacation.

Winter Carnival—and was it cold! Our pink elephant snow carving with the caption "Have Ears—Will Travel" delighted many children if not the judges. Our queen candidate was Nancy Fruit. We also tied a quilt and sold suckers for it. For each sucker purchased, you submit your name. The winning name was drawn by the queen.

February came and this meant Stunt Night. For the third consecutive year, Delta Zeta walked away with first place with their adaptation of "Alas, Good Knight." Our own "Kelly" Keliher received the award as outstanding actress of the evening.

On March 10, the annual Heidelberg Tea was held. Red-checked table cloths, candles, beer and ale (root and ginger) gave the atmosphere of old Germany.

Stout Student Senate campaigns are under way now and Avis Cahill is the Delta Zeta candidate. Semester pledges are Candy Sjaggerud, Judy Deis, Marilyn Watts, Diane Fencil, and Carol Stallard.

Jan Berg is the University's first Panhellenic president, and Barb Gonion is president of $\Sigma E \Sigma$, honorary sorority. Epsilon Chi won third place in the ice sculpture contest with Prudy Diliberti's Ice Devil.

Three wonderful winter pledges were added to the growing chapter rolls. They are Carla Overstreet, Janis Roberts, and Marietta Sherman.

A Stanley demonstration was presented to mothers and friends of DZ. The party was a profitable venture for the chapter and for those who bought some of the useful and pretty articles.

This spring the first Panhellenic Formal was held at UW-M. EX's own Jan Berg, president of Panhel, was honored at the dance. All of the girls looked lovely, and were a credit to sorority life on our fast-growing campus.

Diana Olson and Delores were selected as two of the ten best dressed co-eds at White-water.

Koshkonong Mounds was the scene of the Christmas party for DZ's and their dates. About 40 couples attended the event which consisted of dancing, chatting and enjoying the 25¢ nonsense gifts each person contributed to the "grab-bag." Before the party, several of the girls prepared a pizza supper for their dates and had souvenirs of rolling pins for their dates.

A House of Stuart cosmetic party held at the sorority house in October added $20 to the treasury. Our January 15 meeting was preceded by an all-sorority cost supper at the house. A delicious ham dinner was served and the members enjoyed dining together.

We pledged nine girls after our second semester rush period. They are: Ann Clay, Mary Feiter, Conny Florence, Marybelle George, Helen Kerr, Jane Marquart, Doris Severson, Mellanie Waite, and Shirley Williams.

who gave the best of their skill and their spirit to her and to the family. She left to them as to all who came within the circle of her influence a precious memory. As she herself had quoted in her tribute to Dr. Guy Potter Benton at the 1928 Convention:

"Tears are the showers that fertilize the world,
And memory of things precious keepeth warm

The heart that once did hold them.
They are poor
That have lost nothing; they are poorer far
Who, losing, have forgotten; they most poor
Of all, who lose and wish they might forget."

She left us rich, for we have memories of her

Now, Delta Zetas everywhere have their own official Blazer—a beautiful bond of pride—with the elegant DZ coat-of-arms woven right into the pocket.

This indispensable addition to a college wardrobe, available only through Robert Rollins, fits sorority life as well as it fits your figure—perfectly! It speaks volumes about how proud you are of your chapter, gives you a wonderful sense of belonging to DZ. Your Robert Rollins Blazer is so handsomely tailored it can go anywhere, do anything—campus or town, sorority meeting or weekend date, classroom or stadium, rushing, pledging—it varies its outlook to suit the occasion. Best of all, it only looks expensive. You'll want your whole chapter to have the distinction and prestige of a Delta Zeta Blazer by Robert Rollins.

Fashioned of the finest fabrics in officially approved colors to suit your favorite color strategy: White wool tweed, White flannel, White "doeskin" flannel; Menswear flannel in Mint Green, Forest Green, Coral Pink. PIPINGS: White, Bright Green, Dark Green or Plain Edge.
