New Idea

DEAR EDITOR:

As a Delta Zeta alumna (B  $\Lambda$  '55) who has been quite busy since graduation with profession, marriage, children, various community activities, etc., and all the joys and problems attendant to them, I have often thought of Delta Zeta sisters with whom I have lost contact.

Many times, as I have read my issues of THE LAMP, I have wished that it had some small section devoted to "Keeping in Touch"; to which alumnæ could send brief items of personal data such as marriages, new jobs, new addresses, children, etc., subject, of course, to editing. Has this been suggested or tried before? I'm very curious to know how other Delta Zetas feel about this type of feature. I know that I have been quite impressed with such a section in my husband's Cal Tech alumnæ magazine. It has helped him retain and reestablish contact with many of his old school friends. It was also the inspiration for the writing of this letter.

THE LAMP does a marvelous job of presenting college chapter news and the feature articles about the outstanding accomplishments of Delta Zeta alumnæ. Surely every Delta Zeta is proud of these women and the example they set for us and the world.

Unfortunately, all of us are not so talented; or have not had time or opportunity to achieve such honors. Yet we also feel a bond with Delta Zeta and would like to hear news of others like us; we would perhaps like to meet other Delta Zetas in our new location; or renew contacts with members from our own chapter.

I sincerely believe that such a section would benefit the sorority nationally, inspiring more interest, new alumnæ chapters and increased growth of those already formed.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely, PAULA JEAN YOUNG (Mrs. Franklin E. Gillespie)

(ED. NOTE.—THE LAMP is interested in knowing how the rest of you feel about such a "keeping in touch" type of column. Let us hear your comments on this. And thank you, Paula, for your nice letter.)

Small But Mighty

This group in Beloit might be very small in numbers but that does not discourage anyone from doing just as many things as if we were a larger group. In the past year we have:

Helped with the Beloit City Panhellenic Bazaar and cleared one thousand dollars. This was the first project for the Panhellenic. The money went for the student aid fund which covers emergency aid, initiation fees, dues for the sororities on the campus and Delta Zetas at Epsilon Kappa chapter and the Alpha Gammas at Whitewater State.

We have made tray favors for the hospital which were very much appreciated.

Rockford, Ill., group invited us to their Founders' Day dinner and we had a wonderful time meeting different Delta Zetas.

We are all keeping in contact with a disabled person and trying to cheer him up by writing to him, etc.

There are only about four of us who are active and yet we are proud to say that we keep the spirit of Delta Zeta growing. We are small but mighty. Thank you. Your's in Delta Zeta,

MRS. ELIZABETH KERWIN

Beloit, Wis.

(ED. NOTE.—It's our firm opinion that it only takes one DZ to start an alumnæ chapter. We were particularly interested in an article tilled 'One Lonesome Theta' which ran in the Kappa Alpha Theta magazine a few issues ago. Seems that one lonesome Theta found herself in a strange town with no Theta chapter but that didn't last long. She spotted a Theta sticker on a car window at a laundromat, hunted up her sister inside, and before too many months they had an alumnæ chapter going. It can be done, and size is no problem, when sisters want to. We'd like to know where our smallest and largest alumnæ chapters are located. Anyone have any nominations for the honor? If you do, we're all ears. We especially approve of Mrs. Kerwin's choice of words . . . "we keep the spirit of Delta Zeta growing. We are small but mighty." How true they are. Look what David did with his slingshot.)

Laurels to The Lamp

DEAR EDITOR:

The members of Cleveland Eastside Alumnæ chapter are delighted that so many of our news items and pictures have been included in recent LAMP issues. We are proud of our alumnæ and their enthusiastic support of Delta Zeta projects and philanthropies . . . and to have our projects mentioned in THE LAMP gives us an added stimulus to continue to serve Delta Zeta.

Yours in Delta Zeta,

MRS. M. C. DAVIES, LAMP EDITOR Cleveland Eastside Alumnæ

(Thank you, thank you, thank you. It warms the cockles of our hearts to hear that.)

DZs Go Hawaiian

The Honolulu Alumnæ Chapter has received numerous requests during the past few years from the active chapters on the mainland for information, flowers, props, etc. to be used for rush parties, floats, and spring formals.

We love being able to assist our girls in their rush activities! This service has made us feel just a little closer to the initiates and the contact helps us realize that we are actually a part of a national organization. However, the burden of carrying on personal correspondence with all the college (and alumnæ) chapters requesting aid becomes greater each year. (One East coast chapter even wired "Please ship enough orchids to cover float. Understand you furnish free.")

Therefore, we have undertaken to assemble the best sources of information on Hawaiian food (recipes), entertainment, decorations, flowers, costumes, music, etc. that we could find in the islands. We have organized it and packed it into mailing tubes (including 2 large Hawaiian travel posters) which we are making available to college or alumnæ chapters at cost plus postage charge. We have gotten some of the material at a discount for bulk quantities, some at cost, and the remainder has been donated so that the actual value of the Hawaiian Party Kit is about triple our cost. We decided to offer 2 prices; $1.00 for surface mail, and $1.50 for airmail (since there is likely to be a premium on quick replies).

Our members have put quite a bit of effort, time and love into producing their Hawaiian Party Kit and anxiously anticipate the service it will provide for our "Mainland" sisters.

Yours in Delta Zeta, ALICE SHELLY, President Honolulu Alumnæ Chapter of Delta Zeta

Lost Sister

DEAR EDITOR:

I was informed by one of my sisters of an article that appeared in a past magazine of Delta Zeta offering a house in New York to any sister who might be visiting the World's Fair. If at all possible I would like your help in securing her name and address. Thank you.

Sincerely,

IRENE RICKSON, Epsilon Gamma 4504 Claremont, Kansas City 33, Mo.

THE LAMP is always on the lookout for interesting letters for the Editor's Desk. If you have suggestions, information you think we'd enjoy passing along to your sisters or even complaints (perish the thought), we'd appreciate hearing from you.

On The Cover . . .

They were definitely tired (after a fast-paced convention) but you'll note that the Delta Zeta ladies on the cover were still smiling when this portrait of them was made. These fourteen ladies are the members of National Council, some old and familiar names and faces to you because they were reelected, some brand new. They will guide us for the next two years and in return, ask from us our whole hearted support. Let's meet them. They are (from left, on floor) Doris Ellingson Riede, Augusta Piatt Kelleway, Jean Ericsson Schlosstein and (from left, seated) Gwen Moss McKeeman, seated) Gwen Moss McKeeman, Evelyn Adams Costello, Violet Sharratt Whitfield, Betsy Brad-ley Leach, Lisbeth Francis, and (standing, from left) Marjorie Doyle Bergman, Dorothy Varley Breitweiser, Grace Mason Lundy, Betty Heusch Agler, Gertrude Houk Fariss and Mary Lou Ra-gel Vineyard. For the offices they hold see the convention story hold, see the convention story.

Attention All Chapter Lamp Editors:

Send all material for publication to Miss Eddi Parker, 74 Maplewood Rd., Akron 13, Ohio; all changes of address and advertising information to Miss Irene C. Boughton, 3561 N. Pennsylvania St., Indianapolis 5, Indiana. Deadline for Summer issue is June 1, issue will appear in late August. Deadline for Autumn issue is Sept. 1, issue will appear in late November. Deadline for Syring issue will appear in late March. Deadline for Spring issue is March 1, issue will appear in May.

Smiles were plentiful when silver awards were handed out Tuesday evening of convention. We hope your delegate is here with an armload of silver for your chapter. If she is, congratulations.

AT CONVENTION

Violet Sharratt Whitfield Re-elected

THE FLAME from the Delta Zeta Lamp burned bright and vigorously for six days in Cincinnati, 0., at the 28th biennial national convention.

Over 500 delegates and visitors saw Violet Sharratt Whitfield reelected to a two-year term as national president. Serving with Mrs. Whitfield will be these newly-elected National Council officers: vice president (alumnæ) Gwen Moss McKeeman, former province vice president for province XVI, Oklahoma; vice president (college), Betsy Bradley Leach (reelected); vice president (membership), Betty Heusch Agler (reelected); secretary-treasurer, Jean Ericsson Schlosstein, former province president of Povince VIII, Wisconsin; director, house corporations, Augusta Piatt Kelleway (reelected); director, philanthropies, Marjorie Doyle Bergman (reelected); director, public relations, Mary Lou Ragel Vineyard (reelected); directors-at-large, Dorothy Varley Brietweiser, former national deputy; Lisbeth Francis (reelected), Grace Mason Lundy (reelected), and Doris Ellingson Riede, former Province president X North. The position of Panhellenic delegate held by Evelyn Adams Costello was not up for election.

There was so much hard work accomplished and so much good fun had at convention that we can only hit the highlights for those of you who couldn't attend. But come along now through convention week with us and let's see what those highlights were.

SUNDAY . . . Registration began early on Sunday morning at the Netherland-Hilton Hotel in downtown Cincinnati. By 2 p.m. most of the delegates had arrived and were assembled in the Hall of Mirrors (where many of our luncheons and all our business sessions were held) for the opening ceremonies and initiation service. The convention was opened by Mrs. Whitfield and the initiation was conducted by an illustrious group of Delta Zetas which included Gertrude Fariss, Evelyn Costello, Helen Nolop, Irene Boughton, Frances Westcott, Grace Lundy and Margaret Pease, all past presidents, Augusta Kelleway and Eleanor Fariss acted as guards and Louise Bianchi as pianist.

The two honor initiates for this service were Mary Gail Hobbs, namesake and god child of Gail Patrick Jackson, and Martha Lewis Barker who was a Theta Upsilon at Westminster College and whose mother, Mrs. Thelma Henderson Lewis, is a Delta Zeta from Alpha Eta at University of Michigan.

Sunday evening the initiation banquet was held in the Pavillon Caprice in the hotel with national vice president Gloria MacNeven Frymire in charge. Lending her assistance were Ohio Delta Zetas. Arrangements chairman was director of pledge training, Evelyn White Olmsted.

The program was packed with entertainment and surprises. Claire Palasek of Cincinnati's Xi chapter won the "What Delta Zeta Means to Me" contest and read her essay, an essay which we hope you'll watch for in the Fall issue of THE LAMP. Speaking on the same subject from the alumnæ point of view was Olive McCune of Columbus (Alpha chapter) who asked those in the audience to rededicate themselves in a mutual love and sisterhood.

As a complete surprise to Olive, she was awarded the Order of the Golden Rose certificate honoring her 50 years in Delta Zeta and as an additional surprise, she received the golden rose pin from Cleveland alumnæ friends.

It was thrilling to note, as the speakers' table was introduced, that seven past national presidents were present, an all time high for convention. It was these same women who conducted the initiation service.

Achoth Awards for outstanding alumnæ service went to: LaVonne McClain Heghinian of Alpha Iota chapter, Los Angeles alumnæ; Hazel Buffmire of Alpha Alpha chapter, Evanston, Illinois; Ruth Dary of Lambda chapter, Manhattan, Kan.; Betty DeCoursey, Gamma Beta, Storrs, Conn.; Marguerite Pote of Theta, Boston, Mass.; Iva Olson of Gamma, Minneapolis, Minn.; Bertha Berg Sprong of Alpha Iota chapter, La Puente, Calif.

Receiving Caratydes Awards based on their pledge training programs were: Zeta Epsilon, California State, Pa.; Beta Sigma, Colorado State University; Gamma Beta, University of Connecticut; Alpha Theta, University of Kentucky; Gamma Rho, Northern Illinois University; Theta Theta, De Paul University.

The reception and province meetings followed the banquet.

MONDAY . . . Taken up with a morning business session at which the resolution was made and passed to abolish the titles of directors of scholarship and pledge training and return these duties to chairmanships under the direction of vice president of college programs. The title of director of recommendations was also deleted and its duties given over to a committee chairmanship.

The latter part of the afternoon was taken up with alumnæ and college workshops which would continue the rest of the week and would cover a variety of subjects such as rush, standards, social patterns, DZ traditions, fund raising, philanthropies, state days, Panhellenics and any other subject a delegate might be interested in.

The largest group of Past National Presidents of Delta Zeta ever in attendance at a national convention gathered in Cincinnati. They are (from left) Margaret Huenefeld Pease, Irene Caroline Boughton, Grace Mason Lundy, Frances Elizabeth Westcott, Gertrude Houk Fariss, Evelyn Adams Costello and Helen Woodruff Nolop. The eighth smiling DZ is our present National President Violet Sharratt Whitfield.

Listening intently is a group attending an alumna workshop.

Firesides closed out the late evening hours and covered many subjects. Both workshops and firesides were repeated on several days and nights so that delegates would have a chance to cover as many as physical endurance allowed.

All serious thoughts were put away Monday evening when the traditional Pups and Hounds dinner, under the director of Florence Hood Miner, was held. Iowa DZs helped her hostess it.

You never heard so much barking and howling as that which went up as all hounds vied for the honor of receiving a pair of hounds ears. Every DZ must be a pup for two years and at her second convention she automatically becomes a hound. Lots of ribbons were handed out at this dog show but top prizes of all went to Grace Mason Lundy and Irene Boughton who had 19 conventions each to their credit.

The evening closed out with prizes going to collegiate chapters for original songs. Taking top prizes for songs were: 1st, provinces XXI and XXII, Alabama, Georgia and Florida; 2nd, provinces XVIII and XIX, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee and Arkansas, and 3rd, provinces XIII, XIV and XV, Washington, Oregon, Montana, Idaho, Northern California, Hawaii and Southern California.

TUESDAY . . . An American Citizenship program at which the Hon. Judge Charles T. Smith of the Long Beach, Calif., Municipal Court, spoke, was the highlight of the morning session. The judge, who is a Phi Delta Theta, discussed the future of Greek organizations and spoke of tightening administration controls which result in a loss of freedom for such organizations.

Such control, he said, undermines the hard won freedoms of not only fraternity affairs but entire society. Judge Smith feels confident that fraternities will survive the challenge being put forth today but to do so may have to make drastic changes in their structure. They are, he said, self perpetuating friendship organizations and membership in them is a privilege, not a right. The Judge and his remarks were warmly received by the delegates.

We had a chance to meet the new Mothers Club Chairman, Mrs. Alice Feike Wieman, at a Mother-Daughter luncheon and if you want to know about the charming Mrs. Wieman, just turn to page 17 where we have a brief biography on her.

The formal awards banquet was held Tuesday evening and was presided over by Evelyn Adams Costello. Hostessing for her were the Oakland County (Mich.) alumnæ.

WEDNESDAY . . . General business sessions on Wednesday covered everything from Panhellenic, recommendations and rush techniques to house corporations and Delta Zeta Foundation. But business went by the wayside in the afternoon when DZs boarded "The Chaperone", a paddlewheeler, for a trip upriver to Coney Island, Cincinnati's amusement park where alumnæ and collegiates alike screamed on the roller coaster and laughed on the Tilt-a-whirl. Then everyone sat down in the waterfront park and ate a chicken supper under the trees.

In the early evening we all tramped back aboard the boat and took the hour trip back to Cincinnati to get back to the business of convention. Playday was over. Its memories will live on. Who can forget the Fariss girls, Eleanor (province XIII president) and Gertrude (past national president) together in a car on the Wild Mouse or Evelyn Costello on the thriller called the Calypso . . . or the ride our hardworking convention chairman Lois Westerman Schrank took with the entertaining clown who dogged our footsteps in his little automobile.

The evening hours were filled with fireside chats on a number of subjects, some of which we will run down for you in this issue.

THURSDAY . . . The morning session was given over to a report by Marjorie Doyle Bergman who presented a most inspiring program on philanthropies, one which included talks by several representatives of the Cincinnati Hearing Center and a demonstration of teaching the hard of hearing by a young girl, Kathy, and her teacher.

Voting on National Council followed luncheon. In the afternoon business session the membership statement which Delta Zeta has carried but which had never been voted on was taken under advisement, later voted on and unanimously passed in its original form.

The biggest night of them all finally rolled around . . . the formal awards banquet. A night when all the sisters look sparkling in their gowns and excited as they anticipated awards they would receive. Betsy Bradley Leach and Augusta Piatt Kelleway were in charge of the banquet assisted by members from West Virginia.

Taking awards were:

Gertrude Houk Fariss Award is a citizenship award (silver punch bowl and ladle) presented to the chapter making the most outstanding record in community serv-ice for the past two years. Winner was Delta Eta at Eastern Tennessee State University.

The Arlene Davis Award going to an outstanding girl intending to make a career in aviation went to Kathryn Anne Hack, Gamma Alpha at Baldwin-Wallace, Ohio.

Founders Awards for most improvement went to Zeta Kappa at Ohio Northern and Gamma Chi at Ball State Teachers College, Ind.

Council Awards for continued excellence in all fields went to Theta at Ohio State University; Delta Delta at Georgia State College and Gamma Psi at Central Michigan University.

The Genevieve Schmitt Memorial Plaque, former Delta Sigma Epsilon award for scholarship, went to Westminster College, Pa.

The See Loving Cup, named for a former Delta Sigma Epsilon president, was shared by Alpha Tau, University of Texas, and Gamma Rho at Northern Illinois University. It goes to a chapter for most co-operation.

The Florence Hood Award going to the outstanding junior girl went to Jeanne Hahn, Alpha, Miami University. Ohio, who is president of her chapter.

Grace Mason Lundy award which goes to the most outstanding senior girl went to a quartet. They were Carolyn Galbraith, Theta, Ohio State; Karen Hamme, Gamma Zeta, Southwestern Texas University; Linda Hootman, Zeta Epsilon, California State College, Pa., and Judith Thomas, Epsilon Epsilon, Fresno State College, Calif.

Florence Hood Court includes: Kristi Bown, Alpha Epsilon, Okla.; Carole Doll, Beta Kappa, Iowa, Appa Epsilon, Okla.; Carole Doll, Beta Kappa, Iowa State; Nancy Flaiz, Theta Theta, De Paul; Diana Haskinson, Alpha Tau, U. of Texas; Gaynelle Hasselmeier, Delta Lambda, Lamar Tech; Barbara Kleinschmidt, Delta Mu, Fla. Southern; Sherrill Williams, Beta Xi, Auburn.

Grace Mason Lundy Court includes: Jean Wick-strom, Alpha Gamma, Alabama; Sue Johnson, Epsilon, Indiana U.; Nancy Hodges, Delta Upsilon, Marshall; Claire Palasek, Xi, Cincinnati; Priscilla Elder, Beta Delta, U. of S. Carolina; Mary Fowler, Theta Epsilon, La. Tech.; Kay Morrow, Alpha Tau, U. of Texas.

The evening was capped by rush skits directed by Betty Heusch Agler and providing just the right note for a perfect and inspiring evening.

FRIDAY ... The final day of convention began to roll in the morning with the report of elections and introductions of new council by chairman of the nominating committee, Frances Westcott. Following this Mary Lou Ragel Vineyard, national director of public relations, presented her program on public relations and LAMP editor Eddi Parker presented hers on THE LAMP.

Council was formally installed at a luncheon which brought convention to a close. Violet Sharratt Whitfield was toastmistress for the affair at which Helen Woodruff Nolop did the installing. Dorris Silverthorne, national deputy, and the Indiana alumnæ were responsible for the luncheon decorations.

This was the formal close of convention but many delegates and visitors remained in Cincinnati for that which so many of us had looked forward to all week-the pilgrimage to Miami University at Oxford to see our birth place.

Traveling in two buses the group toured the campuses, seeing many of the fraternity houses (sororities are housed in suites) and making stops first at the DZ suite and later at the Chapel where local alumnæ had prepared punch and cookies for us.

This chapel houses the chimes donated by Delta Zeta as a lasting memorial to our founders. It was a memorable trip for all those of us who made it . . . one we shall always remember. Time will come when we must part and say farewell,

But our hearts with thee will ever dwell;

Sing, Oh, Sing to Delta Zeta, good and true Delta Zeta for me and you.

Delta Zeta dear, Our Delta Zeta dear,

To thee may we be loyal and to thee sincere.

May we pledge ourselves, that we may nevershame. But honor, bless and keep thy good and noble name.

Gertrude Houk Fariss presents her citizenship award to the delegate from  $A\ H$  at East Tennessee State, for the chapter making the most outstanding record in community service for the past two years.

Skits, Songs Good Fun!

Convention wasn't all business by any means. Original songs were presented one evening and delegates were entertained by such as the Beatles (above), and Texas cowgirls (below) and Province XIX gals (opposite, bottom). They also laughed and learned when rush skits were presented on another evening. One skit took the guise of a puppet show (opposite, center) and another was Disneyland (opposite, top). See yourself or anyone you know?

Some Sidelights to Convention

Delta Zeta was honored to have Mrs. Gano Senter of Denver, Colo., as official parliamentarian for the convention. Mrs. Senter is parliamentarian for National Panhellenic Conference. In addition to her regular duties at the business sessions, Mrs. Senter held special sessions on parliamentary law each morning for those interested in learning more about the intricacies of the law.

Agatha Activities was introduced to delegates by Patti Phillips, national activities chairman. Activities, leadership training, responsibility, spirit, prestige and public relations are all characteristic of Agatha. Agatha says active Delta Zetas should be recognized. A sign of appreciation offers more encouragement than any other thing.

Alumnæ delegates were reminded of their importance in strengthening college chapters and assisting them. Adequate provision of recommendations is one of the most important aspects of an alumnæ program.

One of the main objectives of a sorority is to teach its women to live without friction—teaching them to live with small annoyances as well as to avoid making annoyances is important, also. One can be intemperate about nothing whether it is alcohol, promiscuity or idle chatter. These thoughts were conveyed by Evelyn Costello in her workshops.

$$\Delta Z \quad \Delta Z \quad \Delta Z$$

Jean Schlosstein tells us that there are lots of ways to raise funds. For dormitory campuses where food service is limited to certain hours, you can sell coffee and doughnuts on weekends in the dorms, have chili or spaghetti suppers on Sunday nights, sell sandwiches to the night owls or how about providing a birthday service for girls away from home. Parents ask DZ to provide a party or cake for the girl.

Some chapter may wish to sell services such as ironing shirts or shining shoes. And then there's always lots of things such as candy, flowers, etc. you can sell.

$$\Delta Z \quad \Delta Z \quad \Delta Z$$

If you want to shop the DZ way, says Endowment Fund Chairman Virginia Voelker, buy (and sell) stationery, records, and seals from Delta Zeta. They make wonderful gifts for friends and family and give you a chance to display Delta Zeta.

 $\Delta Z \quad \Delta Z \quad \Delta Z$

Education begins when we're born and continues throughout our lives. Judy Noble, national course of study chairman, who is also an instructor at Iowa State, tells us that sorority education encompasses every phase of Delta Zeta. And only by continual education can we keep our place of leadership in the world of fraternities. "The strength of Delta Zeta lies in the heart of each Delta Zeta. Each one of us is responsible for growth, for bonds of friendship and for courage."

$$\Delta Z \quad \Delta Z \quad \Delta Z$$

Public relations are only as good as a chapter's standards programs and the standards programs are only as good as the standards chairman makes them. Standards, our ethics, ideas and values held in actions and expressions each day, show us as we really are. How are your standards? In what way can they be improved. These questions were brought forth at convention by Frances Gregory, national standards chairman.

$$\Delta Z \quad \Delta Z \quad \Delta Z$$

Tradition is important to every Delta Zeta and Grace Mason Lundy explained some of ours. Traditions give us a feeling of individual importance, making us more secure in our convictions, giving us something rich, glowing and dear. You are a Delta Zeta and will be for the rest of your life so it is fitting that you talk about Delta Zeta. Know the background of events like Lamplighter Week, the wearing of rose and green on Founders' Day, mother-daughter relationships. Our traditions will add to your appreciation and understanding of Delta Zeta.

$$\Delta Z \quad \Delta Z \quad \Delta Z$$

Velma McKee built a Delta Zeta dream house for those at convention. A house that projects a favorable DZ image, important during rush. The foundation is scholarship. The first floor, leading to the street is our showcase. Activities fill this floor. Service floods this floor with light and love. Community and philanthropic service turns girls into women. Topping the dream house is a penthouse and garden, the glamorous area of social activity. We are not ready for this floor unless we have the other three. How's your DZ dream house?

She's DZ All the Way

by MARILYN Moss, Epsilon

Mrs. Alice Feike Wieman, new National Mothers' Club Chairman, is well versed in sorority history and fraternal good works; indeed Delta Zetas are as common in her family as trees in Oregon.

While an undergraduate at Oregon State University, Mrs. Wieman was a charter member of Chi Chapter during its first years on campus. True to family tradition, her two daughters— Mrs. Zelta May Adams and Mrs. Betty Jane Morrison—attended OSU and pledged Chi.

Mrs. Wieman also has two sisters, two nieces and two sisters-in-law in the fold.

Her active interest in Delta Zeta, and civic affairs as well, earned her a nomination for DZ Woman of the Year honors in 1950.

In addition to her duties as National Mothers' Club Chairman, Mrs. Wieman serves on the state board of the Oregon State University Mothers' Club. She is secretary of the OSU Federation and public relations chairman of the Oregon Home Economics Association. (She was graduated from OSU in 1922 with a BS in Home Economics.)

Mrs. Wieman was a partner and secretarytreasurer of John Wieman Holly, Inc., Portland, until 1962. She previously had been head of the home economics department at Lewis and Clark College from 1944 to 1951.

Now a grandmother to two legacies and three grandsons, Mrs. Wieman's leisure time is reserved for home, friends, bowling, and travel.

Representatives of Theta at Ohio State University, Delta Delta at Georgia State College and Gamma Psi at Central Michigan University accept the Council Awards for continued excellence in all fields.

An Adventure In Friendship

"MEALS ON WHEELS" bring food and cheer every day to elderly and handicapped persons of Hartford and West Hartford, Conn. In the last year 139 people have received a total of 24,942 meals.

Among the nearly 400 volunteers who deliver the meals on five routes, five days a week are the Delta Zeta Alumnæ of Greater Hartford.

Among those who have so faithfully devoted their time and effort to delivering the "Meals on Wheels" are Barbara Hill (President of the Greater Hartford Delta Zeta Alumnæ), Gamma Beta; Grace Warren, Beta Tau; Marian Glidden, Xi; Ruth Killoran, Gamma Beta; Isabel Bowsza, Gamma Beta; Liz Payne, Delta; Lois Young, Gamma Beta; Joy Bacci, Beta Omega; Ruth Rosmarin, Gamma Beta; and Bert Davidson, Delta Omega.

The first Tuesday of each month, without fail, Delta Zeta Alumnæ arrive at the YMCA in Hartford where the "Meals on Wheels" are prepared. They load their car with the thermal containers of hot food for dinner, a thermos bottle of hot coffee and the paper bags containing sandwiches, salads, puddings, and milk for the suppers.

A route has been carefully mapped out ahead (with as many as 10 to 12 stops) by Anna Fiori, the director of "Meals on Wheels." The meals are then delivered to the clients of this project who are physically or psychologically handicapped, preventing preparation of well-balanced meals.

It is neither a charity nor a commercial project. Each client pays a small amount ($1.25 a day) if he is able. The project is sponsored by a sub-committee of the Health Service Committee and is recipient of some federal funds allocated by the State of Connecticut. About 50 persons are served daily with quite a number on the waiting list.

The Delta Zeta Alumnæ become acquainted with the people on their routes and often stop a few moments to visit with each lonely person. Also they baby-sit for each other to allow more of the membership to take part in this service.

A sample menu for dinner is baked chicken, gravy, cranberry sauce, oven-browned potato, cauliflower, tossed green salad, bread and butter, apricot upsidedown cake, and coffee. A sample menu for supper is sliced ham, bread and butter, purple plums, and milk.

For three and a half years the Delta Zeta alums of Hartford have found this service most rewarding.

IN TEXAS

Another DZ Lamp Lighted

SIXTY-FIVE new diamonds lighted Delta Zeta Lamps on the campus of Southwest Texas College in San Marcos in April when Iota Alpha became the ninth chapter in Province XVII and the one hundred fifty-eighth on the National roll.

More than two hundred fifty college members and alumnæ of Delta Zeta from Texas and Louisiana attended the installation. The chapter was formerly Alpha Delta Chi, local sorority which had begun as the Allie Evans Literary Society in 1927. In 1957 the clubs were allowed to choose Greek letter names and began looking forward to the time when they could become affiliated with National Panhellenic sororities.

Thirty-three girls were pledged into Delta Zeta by a like number of Alpha Tau members from Austin. The group decided to rush as Delta Zetas and in the formal rush week with all groups competing Delta Zeta received their choice of thirty-two girls to meet the chapter quota of sixty-five. Another large pledge service was held with the help of the Alpha Tau girls and rose and green ribbons were all over the campus, especially prominent in the spring elections, where, with the backing of the College Star (editor Mary Hale, Delta Zeta) Kathy Alford was elected vicepresident of the student body and Ann Marie Keesler, Patricia Kessler, and Millie Cobb were elected Senators.

On installation weekend Mrs. Marguerite Havens, CCA; Mrs. Larry Frymire, national vicepresident (alumnæ); Mrs. Katy Blanche Stallworth, Province vice-president; Mrs. William B. Carr, province president; Mrs. M. J. McKee, former national director of public relations; Mrs. T. J. Bianchi, state recommendation chairman, and Jane Ann Maxwell, state public relations coordinator, arrived to help with the installation of the chapter.

Assisting with the preparations were the San Marcos alumnæ, seven of whom were initiated in Austin on March 15. Ruby Henderson, retired head of the Education Department of SWTC, and first sponsor of the Allie Evans Literary Society; Laura Whittenberg, co-sponsor of ADX and faculty member in the school of business; Mrs. Fred Richan and Mrs. H. G. Jackson, teachers in the elementary school, Mrs. Roland Manske, honorary sponsor; Mrs. Sam Leggitt, mother of a pledge, and Mrs. Frank Edwards of Martindale. Long time faculty member of the school of music, former AT, Mrs. James Buchanan (Mary) was invaluable in her help to Delta Zeta through the four years of contact with this campus.

Additional alumnæ initiates were: Mrs. Ralph Erickson, French teacher in the high school; Mrs. Douglas Harris, wife of SWTC history department professor; Phyllis L. Brown, Libarian of Texas A&M University; Mrs. Thurmond Glascow, Miss Sally Jo West, Mrs. Donald Swisher, Miss Ina Miller, Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. Kenneth Chance, Catherine Compton, Mrs. Robert Cromwell, Mrs. G. W. Touchstone Jr., Claudine Nelson, Doneta Darnell, Sharon Richey, Peggy Jo Stapp, Mrs. Nick Carr and Mrs. Al Mustin.

Initiation services were conducted by a team from University of Texas led by Kay Morrow in the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church. Officers of Iota Alpha initiated were: Karen Jo Kneupper, president; Judy Browning, pledge trainer; Sarah Sherman, rush chairman; Judy Seidel, recording secretary; Ann Keeler, corresponding secretary; Glenda Griffith, treasurer; Pat Garrett, philanthropy; Pamela Mc-Kinley, press chairman; Millie Cobb, social chairman; Stephanie Catalani, historian; Dede Armentrout, activities chairman; Deann Hilton, standards chairman; Cindy Alviset, scholarship chairman; Cookie Matthews, courtesy chairman; Mimi Miller, public relations; and Barbara Canion, parliamentarian.

Other initiates were: Christine Andrae, Mary

Jane Alexander, Kathy Alford, Patricia Arnold, Carolyn Bond, Sandra Cahill, Elizabeth Carter, Cynthia Jo Charlton, Joane Czichos, Bobbie Delaney, Peggy DeMarais, Betsy Fisher, Julie Forsythe, Frances Kay Foster, Barbara Jane Gafford, Ann Gordon, Barbara Guerrero, Mary Hale, JoAn Henry, Jon Ann Hilburn, Cecilia Houk, Carol James, Sally Jackson, Ann Keeler (Houston), Ann Keeler (Ozona), Kitty Kelly, Carol Jean Kreneck, Mary Kay Larson, Kathy Lindsey, Karen Little, Faye Love, Kathy Lykins, Sharon McCauley, Roxanne McCown, Yesa Mirando, Carol Northington, Glenda Perser, B. J. Redell, Sandy Rasbarry, Nancy Rogers, Barbara Jane Ryon, Nedra Schott, Linda Shoemaker, Betty Ann Smith, Carol Sulik, Helen Sommer, Patricia Talbert, Becky Walling, Elizabeth Webb and Jane Woodress.

Immediately following initiation, the patroness ceremony was held in the church sanctuary for Dr. Azelete Little (Mrs. Byron) Head of the Home Economics Department, and mother of Karen Little. Dr. Little had served as co-sponsor of A  $\Delta$  X for a number of years and will continue as an advisor.

The installation banquet was held at Hill Restaurant with Mrs. Frymire serving as the national installing officer and Dr. Little as chairman. Mrs. McKee, toastmistress, introduced Dr. J. G. Flowers, president of Southwest Texas College, who welcomed Delta Zeta to the campus and reminded the members of their responsibility to the College as sorority women.

Greetings were read from Delta Zetas all over the states by Mrs. Bianchi and a welcome from national and state officers was given by Mrs. Havens, Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Stallworth. Iota Alpha chapter of Delta Zeta was accepted for SWTC by Marjorie Stewart, Dean of Women, with wishes for happiness and success in the years to come.

Guests included Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Flowers; Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Wilson, Pastor First Methodist Church; Dr. and Mrs. Leland Derrick, Dean of Graduate School; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoganson, Music Department; Mrs. Eleanor Johnson, Music Department and soloist for the banquet and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zimmerman, society editor of San Marcos Record.

Several husbands and parents of initiates were among the 218 admiring guests who witnessed the presentation of a beautiful silver service to Betty Smith, president of the chapter by Mrs. Frymire on behalf of Delta Zeta National and college and alumnæ chapters. There were many other silver gifts.

Sunday morning Mrs. Carr held a model chapter meeting in the Student Union and later all members and guests attended church services together at the First Methodist Church with the Rev. Wilson, father of Delta Zeta, Evangeline Wilson, Alpha Psi, conducting the morning worship.

Many faculty, parents and friends came to the presentation tea held Sunday afternoon in the ball room of the Union. Mrs. William Leach, Mrs. Joseph Bosch, and Mrs. Howard Payton, representing the Austin Alumnæ, were hostesses for the tea.

San Marcos is situated on the clear, cool San Marcos river. Its streets are shaded by giant oak, pecan, elm and sycamore trees draped with Spanish moss. Established first as a mission by the Spanish priests in the early 1700's, the town was destroyed twice, once by flood waters and once by an Indian raid. When Stephen F. Austin brought the early settlers to Central Texas, the settlement which grew into present-day San Marcos was established.

Atop the hill on the Southwest Texas campus stands "Old Main"—a red brick building which originally was San Marcos Normal School, established in 1899. In 1923 the name of the college was changed to Southwest Texas State Teachers college. The State Legislature again changed the name of the college by deleting the word "teachers" in 1959. "Old Main," because of its charm and quaintness is unforgettable both to visitors and students.

SWTC, alma mater of President, Lyndon Baines Johnson, has an enrollment of between 3,000 and 4,000 students with an increase every semester. New buildings are going up at the rate of three or four at a time and the future of the College shines as brightly as do the diamonds in the Lamp of Delta Zeta.

Flame Fantasy on the Move

The Illinois Council of Delta Zeta is planning a Flame Fantasy. It will be held at the fabulous Sheraton O'Hare Motor Hotel in Des Plaines, Ill., on November 14, 1964. The Sheraton O'Hare is just two minutes from Northwest Expressway and Illinois Tollway exits.

This will benefit the hearing philanthropy of Delta Zeta. A fashion show will be given by Bonwit Teller and many prizes will be awarded. Tickets will cost $5. An information flyer and ticket blank will be sent to all Delta Zetas in the area. So you gals in Illinois and surrounding territory keep your eyes on the newspapers and your mailbox. You'll want to attend this gala affair, which of course is patterned after Southern California's famous Flame Fantasy.

KAPPA GOLDEN GLOW

May 30th had that golden glow for members of Kappa Alumnæ Chapter in Seattle. It was 50th anniversary time and the chapter marked it with a reception at the Kappa college chapter house at University of Washington.

Honored guests were those who had been initiated into Delta Zeta in 1914 and Golden Rose certificates were presented by alumnæ president, Leah McGraw Stewart, to Mareta Havens, Hilda Knausenberger Baldwin, Frances Ringer Lee, Clara Knausenberger Holmes, Fanny Berglund Forsman and Olga Liska Springsteen. Also honored was Emily Neighbor Dullahant who joined at Theta Chapter, Ohio State University, 50 years ago.

Honored in absentia were Gladys Hitt Durrant of St. Helens, Ore.; Eugenia Bassett Dana, Phoenix, Ariz.; Hertha O'Neill Cartmell, San Jose, Calif.; Christine Pollard Quattlebaum, Columbia, S.C., and Elsie Morse Stuart of Seattle.

Doris Gillespie was general chairman for the reception assisted by Zoa Straw and Eleanor Fariss. Marcia Hooper Lewis handled the decorations and Dorothy Wolf Carpenter and Verna Jensen Crisp officiated at the tea table.

Library Honors Late Cleo Rogers

A library to be built in Columbus, Ind., this Fall will be named the Cleo Rogers Memorial Library in memory of the longtime librarian there.

Miss Rogers, who joined Delta Zeta at Franklin College's  $\Psi$  chapter served the Bartholomew County Library since 1936. She died this year. The library will be designed by I. M. Pei of New York City.

Miss Rogers was active in many organizations in the Columbus area and is fondly remembered by all whose lives she touched in however slight the manner. All Delta Zetas are honored that the library board and citizenry of Columbus would see fit to name their library after Miss Rogers so that it may serve as a memorial to her.

You cannot climb uphill by thinking downhill thoughts. If your world is gloomy and hopeless, it is because you are gloomy and hopeless. You must change your mind to change your world.

POLLY WALDRON is director of Women's Activities for radio station KWKH in Shreveport, La. A woman of unbounded energy and enthusiasm she is also active in innumerable civic activities. But then Polly has always been active in whatever she's undertaken.

Back in Paris, Tex., she was president of her high school class of 1942; president of her speech club, president of her Latin Club and named best all-around senior girl and friendliest senior girl. She was in "Who's Who in American High Schools and Colleges," also.

When she moved up to Paris Jr. College she was just as active. She was a cheerleader, vice president of Phi Theta Kappa honorary society, president of Curtain Club and president of the sophomore class, among other things.

It was at the University of Texas that Polly joined Delta Zeta's Alpha Tau chapter. Her interest in speech that eventually brought her into the radio field was evident here where she was active in the Forensic Society.

As an ambassador of good will for station KWKH, she has done an extraordinary job. She has traveled throughout the station's 71 county coverage area; been featured on convention programs; appeared at fairs and festivals; addressed club meetings and met thousands of her fans in person.

Her services as a speaker and book reviewer are eagerly sought by women's organizations.

Just one of her jobs is "Open House," the housewife's program of which Polly is hostess. She offers her listeners 90 minutes of entertainment and wanted information daily. Each broadcast includes a recipe of the day, a feature on menu planning and problems and solutions, a telephone participation feature and other features on a variety of subjects of interest to women.

The program also offers interviews with visiting celebrities and discussions by guest professionals on music, art, home decorating, nutrition, fashions, gardening, etc.

Polly Waldron

Outside the radio station Polly is married to an independent consulting geologist and has two children, a boy and a girl. Homemaking is her hobby and she enjoys cooking. Polly is active in American Women in Radio and Television, and is a member of East Texas Tourism Committee as well as chairman of the subcommittee for the Shrevesport Chamber of Commerce.

Her husband is a deacon in the Shreve City Baptist Church and she is superintendent of the married young peoples' department in Sunday School and is a counselor to young single people. She's a real Southern lady with a vibrant personality and we're happy she's a Delta Zeta.

The Week That Was

Posed with the seven trophies Zeta Alpha received in as many days, were (from left) Mary Hildeman, Betty Kolves, Arlie Gaut, Lynne Mahlig and Marsha Rensck.

Saturday, April 11, began the "week that was" and quite a week it turned out to be. Zeta Alpha Chapter of Delta Zeta at Bradley University took seven trophies home.

It all began with the chapter winning first place for the sixth year in the booth competition at Campus Carnival. DZ's "Baby Haven" took in 1,422 tickets during the two-day carnival which is a charity fund raising event. Lynne Mahlig was chairman.

Next came the carnival dance at which Marsha Rensch, copped a trophy for being named "Lady Fair." The following week Marsha was chosen "Darling of Delta Upsilon" by Bradley DUs.

A few days later, at the Panhellenic Scholarship banquet, Delta Zeta was presented the trophy for the highest sorority grade point average (for the second year). In individual awards, Betty Kolves was honored (with a trophy, what else?) for senior girl with highest grade point average.

The fifth trophy was won by Mary Hildeman who received the Arnold Air Society Angel for 1964. The "Angel" goes to the co-ed who has shown outstanding service to Angel Flight, honorary auxiliary to Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps. Mary has been commander of the Angel Flight.

But moving on . . . Arlie Gaut was crowned "Dream Girl of Theta Chi" at the local chapter's Spring formal and received two trophies to mark the occasion, making seven trophies in all for the Zeta Alphas.

The gals are still walking on cloud nine.

Delta Zeta Profiles

JOYCE MORTON

Joyce Morton, Gamma Gamma chapter at Missouri Valley College, was graduated in June from Missouri Valley College after a very busy four years on campus. In her own chapter she served as first vice president and by-laws chairman. In addition she was (taking her activities by years) in her freshman year: class secretarytreasurer, a member of student senate and class Queen. Understandably, we can only hit the high spots since this DZ has been so active in everything. In her sophomore year she was again in student senate, was cheerleader and again class Queen. Along came the junior year and she was still in the senate along with disciplinary board, WAA, Liaison Council, head cheerleader, Sigma Tau Delta and an attendant to May Queen. Then she was a senior and was Sabidura Queen (yearbook), the outstanding senior woman, a member of Who's Who, on the dean's list and still a member of senate. Joyce plans to work towards a master's degree in physical education. One additional interesting note. Joyce is a charter member of Gamma Gamma chapter and is now CCD for it.

KATHLEEN DUGGAN

Kathleen Duggan is a hardworking assistant yearbook editor, one of the offices that won her the New Mexico Highlands University Woman of the Year Award. (This award is presented to one woman student each year on the basis of her scholarship, leadership qualities, and campus activities.) "Dug" will study in Germany on a Fulbright fellowship next year. She is an active member of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatic honorary fraternity, and the French Club.

BRENDA MENGES

Brenda Menges, Alpha Upsilon, University of Maine, was graduated in June with a degree in education. She is also a student of languages—French and Russian. During her senior year Brenda was called upon to become a three-day a week French teacher at nearby Orrington, Me., junior high school, while carrying a full load of six courses. To prepare the 8th graders for high school language courses, she was asked to teach beginning oral French to 120 students. She did. The experience thrilled this Dean's list student. Brenda is an active DZ who loves music, gymnastics, all sports and the domestic sciences. The experience gave her a chance to find out if teaching was really for her. "And you know what?" she says, "It is."

Mrs. Jason Smith

Mrs. Jason (Idella) Smith, Alpha Epsilon, 18 years-ago launched an intensive, two-year study of the Bible. She never went on to another line until she understood the line she had read. She agreed to share her new-found interest in the Bible with a few friends in her hometown of Tampa, Fla. Word got around. As a result, she's still teaching a class at First Presbyterian Church. And, as a result, The Tampa Times "Churchwoman Award of 1963" was bestowed upon her. Tampans cited her for the award because, "She's one of the truly fine women of Tampa," they said. Idella Smith, Kentucky born, was reared a Methodist and married an Episcopalian. She's a Florida State College for Women graduate, a prominent Tampa civic leader, an enthusiastic traveler with a sense of humor and she's a Delta Zeta.

Come with us this issue for a look inside Province XIX, Tennessee and Arkansas. Here we find five college chapters and seven alumnæ chapters. You'll also find lots of southern hospitality here and pretty southern belles. Mrs. Gilbert Strode Jr. of Memphis is Province President and Mrs. Frank Quin Jr. of Shreveport, La., is vice president.

East Tennessee's DZs

DELTA ETA Chapter was installed on the East Tennessee State University campus on January 29, 1956. There were 10 charter members, including sponsors, who prior to this date, had been members of Delta Pi Delta, a local sorority.

Co-CCD's are Mrs. Pat Henry Barnes and Dr. Constance Mynatt. Dr. Mynatt is head of the Women's Physical Education Department on campus. The collegians are an active group. Two are in the ETSU Sponsor Corps, the president, DeAnna McCrary, and Honorary Lt. Col. Pauline Stanin, who is commander of the Corps. This year, Linda Crawford is President of Panhellenic Council. The chapter also has a senator and two members of the House of Representatives in the student government. Cheryl Williams and Judy Groves are majorettes in the Band.

Four Delta Zetas, Phyllis Moore, Pauline Stanin, sisters Ann Crawford and Linda Crawford, are listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities for 1964. Ann, Linda, Sue Bernard and Jilda Creed were also on the Dean's List with straight A averages. Two members serve on the ETSU Collegian school newspaper and there are Delta Eta members in most of the campus honor societies.

The chapter's philanthropy work on campus consists of supporting the Speech and Hearing Clinic. A Christmas party is held each year for the children of this clinic and a check presented to the Clinic to be used in connection with their work. Members are also responsible for maintaining the nursery at the First Methodist Church on Sunday mornings.

Other activities include participation in Pi Kappa Alpha Pike's Peak, Lambda Chi Alpha All-Sing, Homecoming Display, DZ Dinner Dance, houseparties, and various school-sponsored activities, all of which gives the DZs a well-rounded program during the year.

EPSILON PI

Henderson State

Henderson State Teachers College is located at Arkadelphia, seventy miles southwest of Little Rock, Ark., and thirty-five miles south of Hot Springs, America's oldest national park.

The college was established by an act of the General Assembly in 1929 as a college for the education and training of teachers for the public schools of Arkansas. It occupies a campus donated to the state, along with some buildings and equipment, by the city of Arkadelphia. The property had reverted to the city from the Methodist Conferences of Arkansas' Henderson Brown College, an institution which the church had maintained since 1890.

Part of today's active campus is Epsilon Pi chapter of Delta Zeta, which, as a former Delta Sigma Epsilon chapter, was installed in September, 1956, by the then national president, Evelyn Adams Costello. She initiated two girls and one alumni member, Ruth Guthrie, who received an Achoth Award at the 1958 convention in Chicago for her outstanding service as an alumna to the growth of Epsilon Pi. Mrs. Lucy Finley, who has served as faculty adviser of Epsilon Pi for many years, was initiated into our sisterhood last year, and is presently CCD.

From a membership of two on that day of installation, Epsilon Pi has grown steadily with many members displaying outstanding leadership and honors. At the 1962 convention Suzy Glover was the recipient of the Grace Mason Lundy Award.

The chapter is active throughout the year with holiday parties, rummage sales, school activities, and many other events, including an annual mother-daughter banquet and DZ-Phi Lambda Chi Luau. The highlight of the year comes in May when the Epsilon Pis travel to Hot Springs, Arkansas, for a fun-filled weekend, including annual rush school.

Among our members many double honors have come to Epsilon Pi as campus groups hold spring elections and contests. The retiring Miss Henderson State gave her crown to the 1964-65 winner, Brenda Richey; Anna Beth Silliman handed the Associated Women Student president's gavel to Dana Countz; Homecoming Queen Edie Perry also passed the title of Phi Lambda Chi Sweetheart to Dana. The title of Outstanding Senior Woman, not to be revealed until the yearbook is released, is certain to be a Delta Zeta, for the run-off is between Anna Beth and Edie.

The high caliber of Delta Zeta leadership on the Henderson State campus is also indicated by the inclusion of six girls this year in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Joyce Gaddy, Nancy Wallis, Edie Perry, Dana Countz, Anna Beth Silliman and Sue Spann. Nancy, Jean, Anna Beth, Dana, Linda Sowards, Jean Edler, Lanell Hillman and Guylene Cameron are in Alpha Chi, campus honorary for the top ten percent of the Junior and Senior classes, and eight of the thirty members of the campus service honorary for men and women, Heart and Key,

Gamma Iota: Memphis State University

Nestled in the heart of the world's cotton capital on the banks of the Mississippi River is Memphis State University, home of Gamma Iota of Delta Zeta.

Contrast is characteristic of the school, with its old campus, such as the 52-year-old Administration Building along with the 10 modern classrooms and resident structures which have been completed within the last five years. This theme also underlies enrollment, which has skyrocketed to an expected 10,000 for this fall.

One of the new facilities is the Panhellenic Building, which is the chapter's "home." From 1948, when DZ came to MSU, to 1960 the Gamma Iotas had rooms first in Mynders Hall and then in the Student Center. Decorated in modern tones with an Eastern flavor, the suite in the new building has a spacious living and meeting room, and office, a kitchenette and two large closets.

A friendly atmosphere pervades the campus, and the DZ's are especially known for promoting this attitude, with the annual tea at Christmas for foreign students, open houses for the athletic teams, pledge swaps and popcorn parties with the fraternities, and various other social and philanthropic projects during the year.

are Delta Zetas. With members such as these, it is not surprising that the chapter won first place in scholarship and a first place award of $50 for the homecoming float decorated in cooperation with Phi Lambda Chi fraternity.

Like Province XIX as a whole, Epsilon Pi is a well-rounded chapter, with each member contributing to its success and being rewarded with personal growth and the bonds of sisterhood in proportion to the service and love she gives.

Competition is keen, however, among the 11 sororities and nine fraternities, and DZ has taken her share of honors. In the spring the chapter took first place in scholarship for the year. In Sigma Chi Derby Day last Fall the pledges took third place, as well as the Sigma Chi Derby Doll trophy, won by freshman Gail Mitchell. A stereo provides music for the chapter's suite as the result of its winning first prize in the Marlboro contest.

Individuals have brought home trophies also. Beauty contest winners include Bette Dillon, "Miss Frayser" (a "Miss America" preliminary), and "Miss Fire Prevention" first alternate, as well as "Miss Congeniality" in three contests: Merrill Ann Leslie "Miss City Beautiful" one year, and Sydney Campbell first alternate to the title the next year. "Miss Dance of Memphis" was won by Stephanie Smithey and "Miss Fire Safety" is Kaye Ferguson, who is also sweetheart of Lambda Chi Alpha. Bette Dillon and Dee Dotson have been sweethearts of  $\Sigma P \to D$  and  $\Sigma \to D$ respectively, and Dee was elected May Queen by the student body last spring. Ginger Toombs was selected as S P E's Diamond Princess and Glo Ervin was "Miss August" on their 1964 calendar. The 1964 Sweetheart of Sigma Chi at Memphis State is Carolyn O'Briant.

On the campus, DZ has many leaders. Marilyn Winn served as President of Panhellenic in 1963-64, Jane O'Neil was president of Tassell, Glo Ervin was Associate Editor of The Tiger Rag, campus newspaper and Gail Bishop was elected president of the Student Education Association.

Majorettes for three years have been Bette Dillon and Ann Taylor. Members of the Angel Flight are Martha Jackson, Anita Accardi and Kaye Ferguson.

Co-Captain of the cheerleaders, Patti Gail Oliver has been elected Secretary of the Student Government Association. New SGA representatives from the school of Arts and Sciences are Gail Bishop and Carolyn O'Briant. Marsha Wilkinson and Valerie Oehm are on dormitory councils.

One distinction of the group is its "DZ Man of the Year" trophy, given each year at the spring formal to a student who is elected by secret ballot for being outstanding in his contribution to Delta Zeta.

"DZ Follies" is Gamma Iota's unique claim to fame on the campus. An event comparable in size to All-Sing and Homecoming, the Follies is a project started in 1952 involving 8-to-10 minute skit productions from sororities and fraternities competing for first and second places.

In 1960 the Gertrude Houk Fariss citizenship award was given to Gamma Iota for its outstanding work through the Follies. Biggest honor to come to an individual of the chapter was DZ's own Florence Hood award, given to Jane O'Neil in 1963.

The chain of sisterhood is strong in Gamma Iota, with the big-little sister program serving as a vital link, along with the merit system, slumber parties, kidnap breakfasts, pledge parties for the actives, "hot dog" dinners after standards meetings or at especially long meetings, songfests, study halls, "Lamplighting Week" before initiation and many other activities which constantly provide new experiences for the girls to share. All this, the girls will tell you, is the real glow in the life of those who walk "in the light of the flame."

U. of Tennessee

by BRENDA CLIFT

The University of Tennessee is actually older than the state of Tennessee itself. In 1794, two years before Tennessee became a state, a charter was granted to Blount College, named for William Blount, Governor of the territory. After changing the name to East Tennessee College and then to East Tennessee University, the school became the University of Tennessee in 1879. With this change in name, the school became the state university as well as the state's Federal Land Grant Institution.

"The Hill," as it is known to its 12,000 students, is indeed situated on a hill high above the city of Knoxville. Today the university is rapidly expanding down the side of this age old monument, "The Hill." Recently completed have been the warmly welcomed Panhellenic Building, the new and modern Physics, Engineering, and Biology buildings and women's dormitories. Plans are presently under way to relocate the Music and Fine Arts departments.

In addition to the Main Campus here in Knoxville, the University also has campuses in Nashville and Martin, a Medical College in Memphis and a Space Center in Tullahoma. The total enrollment on all these campuses and the extension branches in Oak Ridge and Kingsport is about 20,000, making the University of Tennessee one of the South's largest universities.

As the song, written by our sisters, goes, "Up on a Hill at U. of T, a Sorority was meant to be . . .," Alpha Theta in 1933 became the Beta Lambda Chapter of Delta Zeta at Tennessee.

The sisters at Tennessee have a unique project which they host each winter quarter. In the interest of welcoming the several hundred foreign students on campus, Beta Lambda presents an International Tea. It is attended by all the sororities and fraternities on campus as well as the deans of the university and their wives. The foreign students look forward to this tea each year and it is always a great success.

In 1963, Beta Lambda was declared the Peppiest Sorority on campus and we were presented Adawayhi's "Spirit of the Hill" trophy. In 1964, however, we had to settle for an extremely close second place.

The talents of our sisters Susan Follett, Laurie Potter, Nancy Troxell and Cathy Anderson, sing-

April Gardner, a University of Tennessee DZ, who is listed in Who's Who, is a Vol Beauty and is Panhellenic president. She is shown with the "Spirit of the Hill" trophy won by Beta Lambda chapter for outstanding school spirit. ing "I've Got Rhythm," brought us second place in small group competition in the 1964 All Sing.

Combining the efforts of a tall pledge class and our rather short initiated chapter, Beta Lambda also brought home the 1964 Women's Intramural Basketball Championship. Francis Gill, Ginny Keen, Sally Prentiss and Liz Hendrickson, all freshmen and all over 5'6", were backed by 4'11" Carol Carr, and 5'5" Martha Carson, initiates. The pledges also brought in the first trophy of the year by winning the campus paper's subscription contest.

Beta Lambda's Lanna Vineyard has been elected to Angel Flight, Air Force Auxiliary, and is also a candidate for treasurer of the senior class. April Gardner, a 1964 Vol Beauty, is the outgoing President of Panhellenic and Carol Carr and Chris Harrison are the sorority's representatives to Adawayhi, the Student Pep Club. Sandy Cronin and Lynda Waldrop were selected by a faculty committee to serve in the Vol Corps, a campus public relations group.

Blonde Sophomore, Brenda Clift, has been elected president of Beta Lambda for the coming year. Serving with her are Pledge Mother, Brenda McClard, Rush Chairman, Lanna Vineyard, Corresponding Secretary, Jane Tigert, Recording Secretary, Sandy Cronin, Treasurer, Martha Carson, and Historian, Lynda Waldrop.

Excitement is mounting as Beta Lambda prepares for its first year in the new Panhellenic building. On the fourth floor, our suite affords a beautiful view of "The Hill" and the city of Knoxville.

Epsilon Xi : Arkansas

IN MAY 1907, with 107 students and ten faculty members, the Arkansas State Normal School was established in Conway, thirty miles from Little Rock. In 1925, the name of the institution was changed to Arkansas State Teachers College. The school has since expanded to include a 200-acre campus.

Delta Phi Delta, a local sorority and the grandmother of the present Epsilon Xi chapter of Delta Zeta, was organized on the Arkansas State Teachers College campus in 1929. Colors were green and gold; the flower was the rose. Pledges were required to carry green and gold paddles, which was the local custom.

In 1944, Delta Phi Delta merged with Delta Sigma Epsilon, becoming an educational sorority. As Delta Sigma Epsilon, the customs and symbols remained the same. It may be thought of as the mother of the DZ chapter.

Then September 21, 1956, a "new generation" was born when Delta Sigma Epsilon merged with Delta Zeta. The Greek letter Delta and the rose are very symbolic to the chapter because they have remained constant throughout its history.

For many years faculty sponsors Mrs. Nolen Irby and Dorothy Long have watched the chapter change and grow while they provided guidance, support and encouragement. Mrs. Jeff Farris, Jr. is the CCD. Dr. Silas Snow, President of ASTC, is a "DZ Man," as his daughter Sue is an alumna of Epsilon Xi.

Epsilon Xi has an active philanthropy program. This year's projects consist of aiding in a recreational program at a Children's Colony. Also, the chapter sponsors a patient at Carville, Louisiana, a colony for victims of Hansen's disease.

Epsilon Xi chapter is proud of the many world, national, state and city titles which are held by its members. Brenda Peacock is the former World Champion Duck Caller; Dianna Arey was chosen as the National Phi Lambda Chi Sweetheart; Edye Addington is a former Miss Arkansas; Sue Ann Wright is the State Fair Queen; Kay Mauldin is Miss Speedbowl of Arkansas, and Dianna Arey is the former Miss Hospitality of Arkansas. Charla Ray represents her hometown as Miss Booneville and Linda Davis is Miss Stuttgart. Charla was also second runner-up in this year's Miss ASTC pageant.

The chapter's participation in campus activities is made apparent by the following. Sue Cummins, Judy Janes, Linda McKnight, Carolyn Edison, and Betty Rose Burns are members of Alpha Chi, a national honor society. Sue is secretary of the organization. Dianna Arey, Marsha Pratt, Margaret Mitchell, and Kay Mauldin are members of the national honorary dramatic fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega. Pat Cantrell and Kay Mauldin are cheerleaders. Deltas on the T-Steppers, the school's drill team, are Rockie Rauert, Judy Janes, Carolyn Hazel, Janie Mazanti, Linda Stanfield and Dianna Arey. Pam Bohart, Linda Davis, and Terri Robnett serve as majorettes with the college band.

Three Delta Zetas were in this year's homecoming royalty. They are Dianna Arey, June Terry, and Pat Cantrell. Constance Gilbert was chosen as second runnerup in the Best Dressed Coed Contest. Dian Jennings is Vice President of the Women's Recreation Association. Marsha

Province XIX Alumnæ

LITTLE ROCK, ARK.—This chapter, very active in City Panhellenic, helps to operate the Children's Library and sponsors a Christmas party each year for the Girls' Industrial School. The members are annual hostesses to Arkansas State Day, which is attended by DZ's from Arkansas' two college chapters, Epsilon Xi and Epsilon Pi, as well as the Arkansas alumnæ. Little Rock alumnæ have also been active in extension work for Delta Zeta.

TRI-CITIES ALUMNÆ—Delta Zetas from three east-Tennessee cities, Johnson City, Briston and Kingsport, gather to make up the membership of this chapter and to give support to Delta Eta college chapter.

MEMPHIS, TENN.-Down in the opposite corner of the state, over 500 miles from the Tri-Cities group, is the Memphis alumnæ chapter, which gives an annual party in the fall for Gamma Iota's pledges and in the spring for this college chapter's graduating seniors. Interesting programs keep the meeting attendance high, and members particularly enjoy the Christmas party to which they bring toys for a children's hospital. Another philanthropic project is the adoption of a Carville patient, Mr. Schnell, an elderly jazz fan who this year sent a message to the group by way of a tape recording. An addi-tional highlight of the past year was a coffee for Delta Zeta's recording artist and concert pianist, Til Dieterlie, when she was in Memphis. The coffee's hostess, Jackie Andrews, Alpha Gamma, is serving as president of the Memphis City Panhellenic this year.

OAK RIDGE, TENN.—Although there is no organized Delta Zeta alumnæ chapter at this famous atomic energy center, Lee Collins Porter, Beta Lambda, is serving Delta Zeta's term as president of the Oak Ridge City Panhellenic.

NASHVILLE, TENN.-Continuing the roll

call of Panhellenic presidents in Tennessee, we come to Gertrude Daugherty, Delta, who served as president of the Nashville City Panhellenic this year, and who was also a charter member of the Nashville DZ alumna chapter when it officially organized in 1951. Nashville alumnæ were hostesses for Tennessee State Day this year, including a congenial coffee hour, lively workshop, and inspiring luncheon. Other special events, interspersed with meetings which drew many times on the very talented local alumnæ, were the Founders' Day dinner, Christmas party to which they brought gifts to be distributed to stranded families during the holidays by the Travelers' Aid, and a family picnic in May.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN.—The Chattanooga alumnæ chapter, like the Nashville organization, is not located near a college chapter, but provides an opportunity for Delta Zetas who have moved into the area to meet. Some of their members are drawn from such famous points as Lookout and Signal Mountains, Tennessee. Proceeds from their annual benefit contribute to a hearing aid for a local child.

KNOXVILLE, TENN.—This chapter, whose past president, Carol McSpadden, Beta Lambda, applied her industry and sense of humor to the job of Knoxville City Panhellenic president this year, lends its support to Beta Lambda college chapter. This activity has included a beautiful Legacy Tea, and a Founders' Day surprise kitchen shower for the girls, who plan to move into their suite in the new Panhellenic Building at the University of Tennessee this fall. Another college-alumnæ get-together was a fashion show last fall with the children of alumnæ, both boys and girls, as the little models. Collegiates, dressed as clowns, went through the store advertising the children's fashion show. The event was so successful, and the models so precious, that the store asked several little DZ men and legacies back for other shows.

Love is a special feeling that stays inside your heart for the rest of your lives. This is our feeling for each of you." Miss Mitchell and her sorority little sister, Linda Blalock, a pledge, also of Charlotte, were killed in an automobile accident last Fall, along with two other university students. Each year since its beginning three years ago, the Delta Zetas have won the "Miss Cutie Pan" Contest which is sponsored by the national service fraternity, Alpha Phi Omega at William Jewell College, thus retiring the trophy to Zeta Rho's chapter room. The winners of Miss Cutie Pan are (from left) Sharon Vulgamott, 1962; Janet Webster, 1963; and Shirley Williams, 1961.

Around the College Campuses

by SUSAN ERION BURGER

Sigma Chapter at Louisiana State University is bubbling over with excitement at the news that both the "Darling of LSU" and the "First Maid" are Delta Zetas. The "Darling" (that's Ruth Lynn Rummery with the flowers) is traditionally presented at the Gumbo Ball held this year in the new student union building. The "First Maid" with the lovely smile is Bonny Bridges. Both are from New Orleans. As we said before, Sigma Chapter is so happy about the state of affairs they just want to share that happiness with their DZ sisters.

STATE DAY AND FOUNDERS' DAY NEWS

Gamma Omicron, San Diego State, attended State Day at Sherman Oaks, Cal., and received the Most Improved Chapter award.

The entertainment portion of Nebraska State Day was carried out by Beta Tau, Neb. Weslevan. It consisted of skits showing different types of rushees, songs for rush, and a demonstration of a floating circle.

Epsilon Alpha, W. State of Colo., hosted the State Day for 1964. The program included an hour workshop for everyone, then three additional workshops, covering housing, standards and rush. These were followed by a banquet, at which Epsilon Alpha won the scrapbook award.

Founders' Day activities were held at the Seattle Tennis Club by Kappa, U. of Wash. Speaker was Mrs. L. Collins, Panhellenic Executive Secretary.

A banquet at Menomonie, Wis., was the scene of the Epsilon Omega, Wis. State-Eau Claire, Founders Day, held with Zeta Beta.

After State Day, Gamma Psi, Central Mich., returned to the campus with the Province award. This is the third year in a row that  $\Gamma \Psi$  has received this honor.

The Delta Alpha, Calif. State-Long Beach, State Day was centered around the theme, "Bonds of Sisterhood." Mrs. Howard Wittenburg, president of Gamma Phi Beta was the speaker.

Delta Zeta State Day in Georgia was held at the Georgia Center for Continuing Education, in Athens. The program began with a coffee and registration, followed by workshops, and panel discussions. Next a luncheon was held, at which Mrs. Verle Meatheringham, national  $\Delta$  Z deputy officer, spoke. The festivities ended with a tea and open house at the Zeta Pi, U. of Ga., chapter house in Athens.

Many Delta Thetas, U. of Houston, attended State Day in San Marcos, Tex. The convention consisted of displays, workshops, a luncheon, banquet and the installation of the new Iota Alpha chapter at South West Texas State College in San Marcos.

Founders' Day celebration at Mu, U. of Cal.-Berkeley, included a brunch at the Kaiser Center in Oakland, where Gail Patrick Jackson spoke about the philanthropic work of Delta Zeta.

Beta Rho, Mich. State., as well as other Michigan chapters were the guests of the Kalamazoo alumnæ and Gamma Pi, W. Mich. U., for State Day. The day began with workshops for initiates and pledges, designed for the purpose of better understanding of the various activities, public relations and scholarship.

State Day in Charleston, brought honors to Delta Upsilon, Marshall U. A trophy was presented for the individual highest scholastic average in the state to this chapter. In addition they received the silver bowl for the best scrapbook.

Ohio's State Day was held at Beta Chi, Wittenberg. Gamma Tau, Bowling Green, won the Membership Trophy.

An important event at Gamma Omega. S. Ill. U., was State Day in Carbondale. Mrs. Whitfield helped conduct informal discussions covering rush, standards and philanthropic projects.

West Virginia State Day was held on the campus of Morris Harvey College. Chapters present were: Delta Upsilon, Marshall; Epsilon Delta. Concord; Epsilon Iota, Fairmont State; Theta Xi, Glenville; and Zeta Tau, Morris Harvey.

Awards for Grades and ACTIVITIES

A trophy for spirit and originality of costume was presented to Gamma Tau, Bowling Green, on Sigma Chi Derby Day. The girls came dressed as midgets, wearing cut-offs around their knees, white shirts around their waists and pillow cases with faces drawn on them over their heads.

Beta Theta, Bucknell, attained the highest scholastic average of all sororities and fraternities first semester, with an average of 3.034 on a 4.0 system. Beta Theta was the only chapter to have higher than a 3.0 average.

During Greek Week, Zeta Phi, Slippery Rock, won first place in the sing contest, May Queen and two in May court.

Second place in volleyball, Ice-O-Rama, basketball and third place in soft ball went to Epsilon Kappa, Wis. State-Whitewater. Theta Nu, Moorhead State, won first place in the annual Songfest.

Long Beach College Panhellenic awarded Delta Alpha with the scholarship prize . . . for the second year in a row.

First place over all in U. of Houston's Sigma Chi Derby Day activities went to Delta Theta. This group also won first place in Intramurals.

Delta Pi, Emporia, was especially victorious in that school's Intramurals, winning the allsports trophy and the Sportsmanship trophy.

Five members of Beta Rho, M.S.U., rolled up another trophy in the bowling finals.

For the first time in 21 years, a sorority won the annual Beta Variety show at Wis. State-La Crosse, and it was Zeta Omicron who took home the honors. The last time the \$25 first place was won was in 1943 when Lambda Sigma Chi, which became  $\Delta$  Z in 1961, presented the first place skit. This year's winning skit was "Screamers Through The Ages," a scientific report on feminine reactions to popular singing idols. Idols included were Rudy Vallee, who "hihoes" back to the roaring twenties, Frank Sinatra who provoked heartfelt sighs in intimate scenes with the microphone and induced one young lady to carry him from the stage in her arms, and Elvis Presley who brought the screaming crowd to its feet with "Heartbreak Hotel." Bringing the skit to a climax were the Beatles. (What—no Russ Colombo?)

Greek Week at Western Ill., was an active and rewarding week for Epsilon Omicron. They won first place in the Sing, watched a member be crowned Greek Goddess, and brought home the trophy for the relays. In addition, this chapter has won that school's scholarship trophy for the sixth time out of nine.

Homecoming brought awards to Theta Theta, De Paul. They presented the winning skit, which was a take-off on Bonanza, with "Ma Cartwheel" and her three unmarried daughters. A member was crowned Homecoming Queen, and they won first place in the float contest.

First place in ice carving and second place in women's division sports were won by Epsilon Kappa-Wis. State-Whitewater, at that school's Ice-O-Rama.

As a group, Gamma Omega, S. Ill., has earned a number of honors, receiving first place in the Greek Track meet, bowling championship, and Grand Champions of the Midway at the Spring Festival.

Gamma Beta, U. Conn., won first place in the Homecoming Display.

An average of 2.88 brought home scholarship honors for Theta, Ohio State.

For the second year in a row, Theta Epsilon, La. Poly. Tech., won the province Scholarship trophy.

Żeta Phi, Slippery Rock, are proud of their chapter this year. They achieved three awards, which were the Homecoming Float Award, Greek Sing Award, and May Queen. Delta Iota, Jackson College, is well-represented

Delta Iota, Jackson College, is well-represented in athletic events, winning the inter-sorority basketball and volleyball trophies this year.

Delta girls, De Pauw, won an extra hour by taking first place in the Mortar Board Late Hours Contest, to raise money for women's scholarships. They have won first for the past three years. This year they added the hour to their Spring House Dance and served a midnight chicken dinner to all.

Epsilon Omicron, W. Ill. U., has been awarded the traveling scholarship trophy.

The Scholastic Improvement Award at Oklahoma State was awarded to Alpha Epsilon, for having a .21 grade improvement.

Third place in the Colorado State University sing went to Beta Sigma. They also won a trophy for submitting the winning theme for College Days.

Interesting and Varied Standards Programs

One of Georgia's leading hair stylists visited Alpha Omicron, Brenau, at a recent standards meeting.

Courtship and Marriage was the topic selected by Dr. Charles White of the Ga. State Sociology Department in a standards meeting speech at Delta Delta.

How to Study Effectively. The Importance of Scholarship, Manners at a Wedding, Fashion and Fads, and New Hairstyles were all included at various standards meetings held by Theta Kappa, L.S.U.-New Orleans.

A discussion by Dean of Women at St. Norbert, on etiquette, and The Role of Women in the World, by Rev. Brendan J. McKeough, were presented at meetings held by Theta Lambda. In addition, this chapter opened one standards meeting to the whole campus, when an attorney came to speak on Civil Rights.

One of the most exciting standards programs held by Delta Iota, Jackson, was a cosmetic demonstration, using one of the girls as a subject.

A sophomore member of Delta, DePauw, presented a standards meeting when she demonstrated the harp.

Something new in standards meetings has been used by Beta Sigma, Colo. State U. A fiveminute capsule is given every Monday evening which includes reminders on study, etiquette, and other areas.

Elizabeth Fleming of Delta Theta at University of Houston receives Mayor Louie Welch's Proclamation for National Transportation Week to be observed in Houston, May 10-16. Elizabeth served as Chairman of the Women's Traffic Club of Houston and as Secretary for National Traffic Week.

The most successful standards program held at Zeta Phi, Slippery Rock, was a demonstration of hairdressing. It was open to all girls, for a slight admission, and more than \$30.00 was added to the  $Z \Phi$  treasury.

Manners, properly used, make people feel comfortable with one another, so a standards program speaker pointed out to Gamma Psi, Central Mich.

Standards programs at Cal. State College Pa., included a study of the new Panhellenic Constitution, attending an honors program, and a session on how to improve study habits. Zeta Epsilon enjoyed them all.

Etiquette was also the topic of standards programs at Theta Xi, Glenville.

A question and answer period on social graces was conducted at Zeta Phi, Slippery Rock.

Cal. State College—Long Beach, girls, the Delta Alphas, heard discussions of grooming and commonism in standards programs this year.

Folklore of America was selected by an Anthropology Professor of U. of Cal.-Berkeley, when he presented a standards program to Mu girls.

Since many Beta Rho, M.S.U., girls are approaching voting age, a representative of the League of Women Voters was invited to present a standards program. She gave instructions on registration and told about the League and its work.

An outing to the theatre was part of a standards program when Gamma Phi, Indiana State-Pa., attended "Oedipus Rex."

Zeta Chi, Wis. State-Stevens Point, heard a pastor discuss morals in romance. Other standards programs were based around  $\Delta Z$  Reflections, and a make-up demonstration.

A beauty consultant from J. L. Hudson's in Detroit spoke to Epsilon Phi, U. of Detroit, on grooming, fashions and etiquette.

A professor of Political Science at Northern Michigan U., presented a Zeta Omega standards program on what women can do to combat communism.

A panel discussion on the meaning of Delta Zeta, a review on President Kennedy, and a demonstration of china, were included in the standards programs of Epsilon Theta, Clarion State.

PARTIES AND MISCELLANY

A Halloween party was enjoyed by Theta Delta, Westminster College, and their dates.

The quadrangle on the campus of St. Louis U. was the site of a Hootenanny attended by some 2,500 students. This affair was given by Epsilon Phi, with the help of Alpha Delta Gamma. It was originally intended for incoming freshmen, but was enjoyed by the whole campus community. This group also hosted a reception for the St. Louis Soccer team.

Each year Beta Rho, M.S.U., holds an informal

A scene from Beta Rho, Michigan State University's Alice-in-DZ-land rush party. The pledges from each house worked on decorations and entertainment.

Recently at the annual faculty auction, Alpha Sigma, Fla. State U., bought a Professor of Geology for $64. As a result, he was the scholastic advisor for the year. Proceeds from the event go to the Campus Chest.

The latest change at Kappa, U. of Wash., has been the formation of a Dad's group—the Do Dads. Their purpose is to help the girls and the house in whatever ways they can.

The Gamma Phi chapter, Indiana State-Pa., needed a rug for their sorority room. Since they did not wish to buy one, they did something new and different. Each girl brought as many rug samples as possible back to school. Each initiate was asked to help sew these rug samples together. In a very short time, they had a beautiful rug which was the envy of the other sororities. In time, the initiates hope to enlarge their rug and make it wall to wall.

Gamma Tau, Bowling Green, held their Rose Ball in Toledo, at which time these selected a  $\Delta Z$  man of the year and a Rose Couple.

Another honor came to this chapter when the GE College Bowl asked the college to participate in that television program. One of the members was selected to be on the four man team.

Efforts are being made at Moorhead State College to formulate a dress code. Theta Nu has set up a code for the sorority, and hopes that the whole school will adopt one. This group also enjoyed a weekend at a lake nearby.

The annual  $\Delta Z$  Steak Fry was held by Theta Eta, Creighton, for their dates. This event also included a hootenanny.

Spring Social events at Tau, U. of Wis., included Mother's Weekend and Father's Weekend at the house. Both started with lunch at the house and festivities during the afternoon. Dinner was held at a local restaurant, followed by an evening on the town.

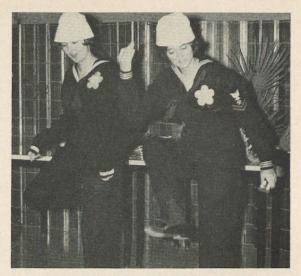

Theta Epsilon, La. Poly. Tech., has begun what it hopes to make a tradition . . . a pink rose ball. The Rose of the Ball was elected by secret ballot as was the man of the year.

Activities at Beta Sigma, Colo. State U., have included a spring formal, a fashion show, and other money-making projects.

Zeta Chi, Wis. State-Stevens Point, climaxed their annual Snowswirl with a dance of the dolls. The dolls were displayed in a toy shop and were brought to life for a child.

The faculty and scholars were honored by Epsilon Phi, U. of Detroit, at a tea and special dinner, respectively.

Goblets with  $\Delta$  Z etched on them were the favors at the first dinner dance held by Zeta Omega, N. Mich. U. This group also held a Mothers Day-First Anniversary tea.

Delta Zeta Sorority and Sigma Nu fraternity took all the honors in the 1964 Tatler Revue at William Jewell College, Liberty, Mo. The team took first place in the skit competition, "In the Bee-ginning" depicting the life and problems in a bee colony, with its best actor and best actress (Miss Janet Webster,  $\Delta Z$ ).

Tatler Revue is a show of student written produced skits sponsored by the college annual. Best actress during the evening was Janet Webster of St. Joseph, Mo., and the best actor was Tom Trotter of Centerville, Iowa.

DZs Share with Others

Zeta Phi, Slippery Rock, held a party for the children of the faculty. This party is given each year by this group and is a huge success.

Theta Lambda, St. Norberts, joined with the other sororities to produce a very successful tour show. The troupe traveled by bus to put on half hour shows at six institutions including the orphanage, the Odd Fellows Home, sanitarium, etc. It was a rewarding experience.

The most successful philanthropic project of the year for Delta Iota, Jackson College, was the annual Christmas party for children of the Boston area. Toys were given to each of the children and the turn-out was successful.

Members of Gamma Psi, Central Mich., have had some rewarding experiences at the State Home and Training School in Mt. Pleasant. Before Easter vacation, girls worked on the Cancer Drive by stuffing envelopes. They also made favors for the Broomfield Memorial Convalescent Hospital.

As part of their philanthropic program, Gamma Theta, Carroll College, helped the Easter Seal Society by stuffing envelopes.

Pledges of Delta Omega, Ft. Hays Kansas State, are helping with the Heart Fund Drive.

Delta Zeta sisters of Gamma Lambda, San Jose, held a Christmas party for patients of the Rehabilitation Ward of the county hospital. During the party, the girls assisted the patients in trimming a tree, and singing Christmas carols.

Theta Delta, Westminster, has recently donated $70 to the Youngstown Hearing Center to be used toward the construction of a glass wall. This will act as a two-way mirror, where the parents—unseen—will be able to watch the progress of their children. These girls also visited the old people's home to chat with the patients there.

Christmas time found Delta Deltas, Ga. State College, at the home of Our Lady of Perpetual Help to visit the patients there.

Theta Kappa, Louisiana State U.-New Orleans, gave a charity dance with the proceeds going to an orphanage.

Several deaf students were invited to the Beta Rho, Mich. State, Christmas tree trimming party. These students were from the Better Hearing Association. In preparation for them, the girls learned hand signals which helped with communications. The party was especially appreciated because most of the deaf students live by themselves.

Pledges of Theta Lambda, St. Norbert, visited the Brown County Mental Hospital in Green Bay. The people at the hospital were very glad they came.

Pledges of Chi, Oregon State, carved and delivered pumpkins to all 33 fraternities and 17 sororities on that campus.

A traditional Christmas party was held by Kappa, U. of Wash., with each girl bringing a gift for distribution for needy children.

New initiates of Epsilon Omega, Wis. State-Eau Claire, donated two hours of time to reading or writing letters for elder patients in the Eau Claire hospitals. The chapter received a certificate in appreciation for work done in collecting money at the Eau Claire bowling alleys for the Wisconsin Council for Retarded Children.

Zeta Epsilon, Cal. State College—Pa., were invited to usher for the campus Graduation ceremony and also for the Pittsburgh Symphony and Opera production of "Madame Butterfly." This group also campaigned for the Kennedy Memorial Library Drive.

Epsilon Gamma, Central Mo. State, honored their retiring College Chapter Director at their annual Spring banquet. She was presented with a plaque appropriately inscribed.

Mothers of Zeta Chi, Wis. State-Stevens Point, were honored at a tea, program and taped tour of the campus on Mother's Day. The film was a class project showing the buildings, classrooms and students.

Delta Lambda, Lamar Tech., and Pi Kappa Alpha jointly honored Miss Celeste Kitchen, Registrar at that school for her 25 years of service. As a Delta Zeta and honorary Pi Kappa Alpha dream girl, she has especially been helpful in every way possible to these two organizations. This group also gave $100 to Gallaudet College.

The annual Parent's Day was held by Gamma Tau, Bowling Green, in Findlay, Ohio in May.

Minerva Sebastian, of the Philippines, is being sponsored by Beta Theta, Bucknell, through the Foster Parent's Plan. This chapter also received the Panhellenic cup for having the most members participate in the Bloodmobile.

A Christmas party for children was held by Gamma Beta, U. Conn., at the Mansfield State Training School.

Theta Eta, Creighton, has added a new philanthropic project to the annual clothing drive. This year they served at the annual fund-raising spaghetti dinner put on by a nearby parish. The parish is a poor one, and this is their single source of income during the year. The girls acted as waitresses and liked it so much, they're planning to participate again next year.

Members of Zeta Tau, Morris Harvey, gave a banquet in honor of Mrs. Virginia P. Gray, who has been their college chapter director since the chapter was founded in 1962.

The pledges of Gamma Chi, Ball State, made Easter baskets for the children in the hospital in Muncie. They also traveled to Yorktown with the rest of the chapter to visit an orphanage there.

Deaf teen-age girls were the guests at a spring picnic held by Mu, U. of Cal.-Berkeley, girls. It proved to be a very educational, stimulating, fun-filled day.

Spring quarter pledges of Theta Nu, Moorhead State, had a very successful ice-cream sale as their money-raising project. It was held in the center of the campus on a beautiful day—a great day for an ice cream cone.

Epsilon Phi, U. of Detroit, sponsored its annual Easter Basket Drive. All campus organizations were asked to contribute baskets of food or candy which was distributed among needy children in Holy Trinity parish. The baskets were judged on originality and content. Trophies were awarded accordingly.

Stuffed animals were sent to pre-schoolers by Tau, U. of Wis., girls. They also sent letters and gifts to a patient at Carville. In addition, clothes were sent to a Navajo family.

Zeta Omega, Northern Mich., participated in Bay Cliff Health Camp clean-up campaign, to get it ready for the summer session.

A trick or treat drive was held by Epsilon Theta, Clarion State. More than 125 pounds of candy were collected. For Easter, they collected money for the heart fund.

At Christmas time, Theta, Ohio State, held a Christmas party for children. The sisters and their dates seemed to have as much fun as the children. Santa made his appearance and gifts were distributed to the children.

Hospital visitations by collegiate members is a weekly thing with Zeta Theta, Sam Houston State. Representatives of the group visit with and perform little tasks for the patients of Huntsville Memorial Hospital. At Christmas, the entire chapter went caroling to the hospital.

This group also gave a dinner party honoring their house mother, Mrs. Bess Emley, who is retiring. Many campus members were in attendance.

Children of Charleston, Ill., were special guests at an Easter party hosted by Gamma Nu, E. Ill. U. The children were delighted by an afternoon of egg hunting and story telling.

friendly police cars . . . including the submarine USS Trepang!

Pledge parties at Tau, U. of Wis., included a session at the sorority house to stuff animals for distribution to children, and a scavenger hunt in the spring.

Pledges of Zeta Omega, N. Mich. U., entertained their "Big Sisters" at a party held "Beside the Sea." Each initiate was presented with a beach robe made as a pledge project.

Epsilon Theta, Clarion State, women were also honored at a party given by their pledges.

The song written by pledges of Beta Tau, Neb. Wesleyan, placed second in the annual May Fete celebration.

One of the special pledge projects of Zeta Phi, Slippery Rock, was the selling of donuts and orange juice in the dorms on Saturday mornings.

Theta Eta, Creighton, initiated a new custom. They present new-initiates with  $\Delta$  Z crested stationery as a welcome-in present.

Pledge parties at Tau, U. of Wis., included a session at the sorority house to stuff animals for distribution to children, and a scavenger hunt in the spring.

Pledges of Zeta Omega, N. Mich. U., entertained their "Big Sisters" at a party held "Beside the Sea." Each initiate was presented with a beach robe made as a pledge project.

Telephone directories, skating parties, slumber parties, bonfire and Christmas party have been but a few of the things keeping the pledges of Theta Kappa, L.S.U.-New Orleans, busy.

Some of the pledge projects of new Delta Zeta chapter, Theta Lambda, St. Norberts, included studying one hour a week with big sisters, money making projects, service projects and making a  $\Delta Z$  pillow for the big sisters. For Valentine's Day, pledges made a spiritual bouquet for the Dean of Women and the C.C.D.

Sophomores at Chi, Oregon State, gave the fall Term house dance in honor of the pledges. The latter returned the favor in December with a walk-in and breakfast for the big sisters.

Alpha Sigma, Florida State, has devised a "pledge point" system to encourage pledges to excel in extra-curricular activities as well as in scholarship. In this system, they give a certain amount of points for such things as attending dorm teas, for performing a worthwhile duty for the sorority, going to pep rallies, participating in contests, for making As and Bs each week and for many other such activities. As a reward for participating in these activities each week, a silver charm bracelet is presented to "The Pledge of The Week."

In addition, this group held a retreat honoring the new girls at the FSU Reservation.

All of the initiates of Beta Sigma, Colo. State U., started a secret pal idea to form closer relationships with the pledges.

A very successful pledge reception was held to introduce the new members of Epsilon Omega, Wis. State-Eau Claire, to the faculty, the administration and various organizations on campus.

A "winter picnic" was held by the pledges of Gamma Phi, Indiana State College, for the sisters and their dates.  $\Delta Z$  man of the year was selected at this event.

This summer, Gamma Psi, Central Mich., will devote its time to revamping the rush and pledging program. Pledge manuals and National reports will be reread so that they can compose a stronger program for their chapter.

Zeta Epsilon, Cal. State-Pa., was entertained at a Lua party given by the pledges. Big sisters and sponsors gave the pledges  $\Delta Z$  pillows and pajamas. The party was held at the sorority house, complete with Hawaiian food, costumes and decorations.

Spring pledges of Epsilon Kappa, Wis. State-Whitewater, made a special effort to salute the Big Sisters, by singing a special song and presenting them with favors at their pledge dance.

A party, " $\Delta$  Z After Dark," was presented for the initiates by the Spring pledges of Gamma Phi, Indiana State-Pa. After dancing and refreshments, the Outstanding Initiate was chosen.

Zeta Chi, Wis. State-Stevens Point, was invited to a hootenanny by their pledges. Besides being assigned false names, the initiates were asked to entertain the pledges with songs and skits.

Pledges of Theta Xi, Glenville State, have been most active. They've placed a welcome sign at the city limits, held slumber parties, made wooden plaques for their Big Sisters, and attended Pledge School.

Pledges of Beta Theta, Bucknell, held a carwash in front of the engineering building as a money making project. As a gift to the suite, the pledges presented a ceramic tile pledge pin for the wall.

Pledges of Gamma Omicron at San Diego State College "hard at work" during a pledge car wash.

Delta Zeta Sorority and Sigma Nu fraternity took all the honors in the 1964 Tatler Revue at William Jewell College, Liberty, Mo. The team took first place in the skit competition with its entry, "In the Bee-ginning," depicting the life and problems in a bee colony. Janet Webster of Zeta Rho chapter was named best actress of the show.

Theta Theta of De Paul University took first place in the Homecoming Variety Show with their entry, "Adult Western."

Occasions are rare indeed when a sorority chapter receives not one but two scholarship trophies in a school year. But Beta Nu Chapter at University of Miami did it. The chapter placed first on campus in scholarship for Fall and Spring semesters of 1962-63 and as a result received a trophy presented by the Dean of Women on behalf of City Panhellenic for the highest Panhellenic average and another from Alpha Chi Omega sorority in recognition of highest improvement among sororities. Proudly displaying the trophies are (from left) Aleda Pintavalle, scholarship chairman; Judy Young, president; Jane Everitt, former CCD and now representative to City Panhellenic, and Yvonne White, past scholarship chairman.

Mary Browning Scanlon, Omicron, passed away in Pittsburgh in January. She was a nationally known musicologist and has been written about in several biographical dictionaries because of her contributions in research on Early American music and her authoritative writings on Lowell Mason and Thomas Hastings, among others. Her sister, Pauline Scanlon Gardescu, also from Omicron, writes that Mary's music and papers have been given by Mary and accepted by the Music department at Carnegie Library in Pittsburgh as a memorial collection to the memory of their father, Dr. Charles Scanlon who studied at the New England Conservatory in Boston some 80 years ago. The memorial is also in honor of their mother. We deeply regret Mary's passing.

Arlene Davis is shown in an early picture in a typical pose. She was close to that which she loved best, an airplane and was using her hands to illustrate a flying manuever.

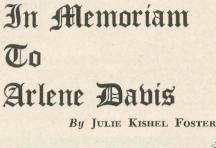

On July 3, in Cleveland, Ohio, Arlene Palsgraf Davis (Mrs. Max) lost her battle with cancer. With her passing Delta Zeta lost one of her most sincere and inspiring members.

Of all the many honors she received, the Delta Zeta Woman of the Year Award she received in 1960 was the one she treasured most. She wore her Woman of the Year medallion proudly. Arlene, who was initiated at Gamma Alpha, Baldwin-Wallace, Ohio, was always sincere in her devotion to Delta Zeta. Being a Delta Zeta meant so very much to her. Even the letters on her license tag for her car were  $\Delta$  Z. She was very pleased when the West Side Alumnæ chapter of Cleveland made her an honorary life member of their chapter.

She was a deeply religious person and had great humility. At her memorial service, the minister revealed that when their church needed a new steeple, Arlene donated the money for it, but asked that the donation be anonymous. The more we read or learn about her many and varied interests and activities, the better we can appreciate her national prominence and the esteem in which she was held.

She had great enthusiasm for everything she did. Many in their lifetimes would settle for lesser goals, but achievement in everything she undertook was one of Arlene's outstanding characteristics. She was an accomplished golfer, horsewoman, ballet dancer, artist, and swimmer.

Her national prominence, though, was earned in the field of aviation, and was marked by spectacular achievements from the time she received her private pilot's license in 1931. Her aviation trophies, now permanently displayed in the Air Force Museum in Washington, D.C., tell highlights of some of the achievements which made her one of our nation's leading aviatrixes.

The Women's National Aeronautic Association honored her as Woman of the Year in Aviation in 1953. Her achievements to that date were written into the Congressional Record of the 83rd Congress. In 1954 she was one of the first members of the Air Force Jet Clan. She was one of few women represented in "Who's Who in Aviation." She was the first woman to receive the National Aeronautics Association's "Certificate of Elder Statesman of Aviation" in 1961.

Arlene was also affiliated with The Woman's City Club, Zonta, National Intercollegiate Flying Association, the Society of Women's Engineer, and the Soaring Club of America.

The Arlene Davis Aviation Scholarship, the only aviation scholarship in the country, is awarded to a Delta Zeta at each National Convention. Arlene was also a charter member of the Delta Zeta Foundation.

We shall miss our vivacious flying lady with her charming smile and flashing eyes.

ED. NOTE: Julie Foster has told you the facts concerning Arlene but sometimes how we feel about a person is best described in our afterthoughts . . . in the note we scribble at the bottom of a sheet to an editor. In her note Julie said, "Arlene meant a great deal to me, but it's hard for me to put in writing. She would always end her letters to me with 'stay as sweet as you are.' She was the one who was sweet." We think that tells how a lot of DZs felt about their sister, Arlene.

ALUMNÆ GROUPS You'll want the distinctive Robert Rollins Delta Zeta Blazer too--it's fashioned for the lives you lead!

Chosen As The Official Delta Zeta Blazer ROBERT ROLLINS

Now, Delta Zetas everywhere have their own official Blazer—a beautiful bond of pride—with the elegant DZ coat-of-arms woven right into the pocket.

This indispensable addition to a college wardrobe, available only through Robert Rollins, fits sorority life as well as it fits your figure perfectly! It speaks volumes about how proud you are of your chapter, gives you a wonderful sense of belonging to DZ. Your Robert Rollins Blazer is so handsomely tailored it can go anywhere, do anything campus or town, sorority meeting or weekend date, classroom or stadium, rushing, pledging—it varies its outlook to suit the occasion. Best of all, it only looks expensive. You'll want your whole chapter to have the distinction and prestige of a Delta Zeta Blazer by Robert Rollins.

Fashioned of the finest fabrics in officially approved colors to suit your favorite color strategy: White wool tweed, White flannel, White "doeskin" flannel; Menswear flannel in Mint Green, Forest Green, Coral Pink. PIPINGS: White, Bright Green, Dark Green or Plain Edge.

Send for exact prices, and order blank.
