

LAMP

OF
ZETA
SUMMER, 1982

from Mary Margaret Calhoun Fore, National Vice President of Alumnae Affairs

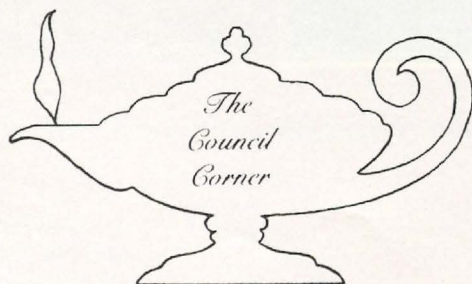

Writing for "The Council Corner" is a special privilege and I am grateful. It is also a frustration, for as National Vice President of Alumnae Affairs, I have so many areas of emphasis and concern.

Just as there are more than 100,000 Delta Zetas (according to our new computer membership record), there are almost that many different needs and goals to be met. Many of these goals are essentially the same, however, and all are relative to those of our Founders in the beginning of our sorority.

Have you reread the Purpose of Delta Zeta recently?

"The purpose of this sorority shall be to unite its members in the bonds of sincere and lasting friendship, to stimulate one another in the pursuit of knowledge, to promote the moral and social culture of its members, and to develop plans for guidance and unity in action; objects worthy of the highest aim and purpose of associated effort."

Each of us has several aspects of our lives which give us our unique identity. As we bring the combination of our talents, skills and potential together in our Delta Zeta sisterhood, we accomplish our purpose.

To unite our members in the bonds of sincere and lasting friendship, we need understanding, respect and cooperation, all undergirded by love for one another, in every area of our endeavor. These same attributes are necessary as we strive to stimulate our minds and grow toward the highest moral, social and spiritual values.

An understanding of our individual and group needs and aims, respect for each member's position, and cooperation with the majority opinion are imperative in the development of plans for guidance and unity in action. This principle must be applied in every area of our sorority, from the individual college chapter pledge class to the National Convention, if Delta Zeta is to continue the growth and significance we all desire.

There is an alarming percentage of Delta Zetas who have neglected to take advantage of the privileges and pleasures afforded them by the mutual acceptance of membership. Privilege and pleasure always require responsibility. If you are not now participating in some Delta Zeta activity, I challenge you to remember the investment you made in terms of money, mind, energy, talent, time, interest, personality and experience which should be paying dividends indefinitely. The dividends of Delta Zeta membership are intangible. Only by our active participation in any one or more phases of our sisterhood can each of us share in preserving that which has been and is an integral part of our lives. We preserve this treasure not for ourselves only, but for future generations of college women to enjoy these same privileges, pleasures and opportunities "worthy of the highest aim and purpose of associated effort."

Over and over again, whenever I am with Delta Zeta collegians and/or alumnae, in small or large groups, the one refrain I continue to hear and to experience is, "The closeness and friendship of our group is its greatest asset."

Let us remember the dreams of our Founders and so many who have dreamed these dreams and worked for their realization through these almost eighty years. Our enthusiasm and dedication to these dreams will continue to produce the experiences of "sincere and lasting friendship."

ABOUT THE COVER

It is time to start thinking rush! Toni Cates and Mindy Mertel of the Zeta Psi chapter at Stephen F. Austin College are ready in true Texas style!

Five Chosen to Receive GML Awards

Jill Banks, Florida State University, AΣ

Donna Frerichs, Nebraska Wesleyan University-BT

Five Delta Zeta seniors have been selected to receive the Grace Mason Lundy award for 1982. This award, given annually, is presented to those outstanding Delta Zetas who fulfill requirements for loyalty, devotion and service to their chapters and to Delta Zeta.

Our congratulations and best wishes for continued sorority service go to Jill Teresa Banks, Florida State University-AΣ; Kim Volmer Jensen, Ferris State College-ZN; Terry Jane Mellen, Eastern Illinois University-ΓN; Brenda Ann Tobias, University of Houston-ΔΘ, and Donna Marie Frerichs, Nebraska Wesleyan University-BT.

Jill Teresa Banks Florida State University-AΣ

Jill Banks first served Delta Zeta as a member of the judicial and standards boards, then as assistant rush chairman, corresponding secretary, rush chairman and finally, as president. As president, she led the AΣ chapter's initiation team for the installation of ΔB chapter at the University of Tampa.

Jill has represented Delta Zeta in several beauty pageants and has been involved in the campus Greek Fellowship group. She is an officer of Rotaract, a career oriented service club, belongs to Garnet and Gold Key (leadership and scholastic honorary) and is a member of Rho Lambda, Panhellenic honorary.

Dean Stephen S. Winters wrote of Jill: "I have known her since her freshman year and, in the best meaning of the word, she exemplifies the sorority woman; soft spoken, well mannered, highly motivated, academically capable, completely loyal and with impeccable character. Without being stuffy, she is serious about her work and her sorority responsibilities and interests."

Donna Marie Frerichs Nebraska Wesleyan University-BT

Donna Frerichs also served as her chapter president, preceded by offices such as rush chairman, Panhellenic delegate and scholarship chairman. She was instrumental in initiating the sister sharing program and positive point system adopted by Beta Tau. The sister-sharing is a program designed to bring members closer together through activities planned just for Delta Zetas. The positive point system was designed as an alternative to a required activities/fining system. Under the point system no activities are required, but each member chooses those activities she wishes to attend. The only requirement is that each member must earn 44 points per semester.

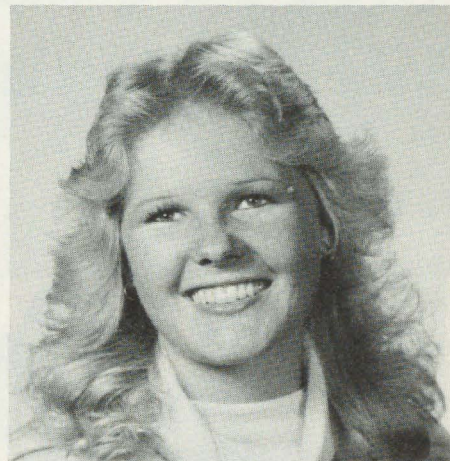

Donna was a Student Affairs Senator and was secretary of Ionians honorary, which honors outstanding Greeks on campus. She is a member of Cardinal Key, is a senior class officer and president of Omicron Delta Epsilon (economics). Continuously on the Dean's List, she has received several Wesleyan related scholarships and was a University of Nebraska - Lincoln David scholarship winner. More recently she was invited to join Pi Gamma Mu (international honors in social sciences.)

Donna will be married in the summer but will be Beta Tau's rush advisor in September. As Beverly Carlson Swanson, BT's current rush advisor wrote, "Donna is the embodiment of what I believe the Founders had in mind for Delta Zeta . . . this girl is a 'one of a kind' sort of person."

Brenda Ann Tobias University of Houston-ΔΘ

Brenda Tobias served Delta Theta as president and as chairman of the chapter's 25th anniversary celebration. She was named Dream Girl and was nominated for Miss UH. She received a Houston Alumnae Panhellenic scholarship and a Founders Memorial scholarship. As Senior Panhellenic Delegate, she was Panhellenic rush chairman and was named the outstanding Panhellenic officer.

Brenda is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta/Phi Eta Sigma (freshman honorary) and Beta Alpha Psi (professional accounting fraternity). Maintaining a place on the Dean's List for six semesters, she also was named to Beta Gamma Sigma (business and management) and Phi Kappa Phi, the national honor society for recognition of superior scholarship in all academic disciplines.

Arlene Newman, Past National Officer living in Houston, wrote of Brenda: "Brenda is a young woman of impeccable character. Of greatest importance is the love she has for Delta Zeta and her sisters - this love is genuine and just radiates from her all the time. She is gifted with the ability to handle herself graciously in all situations."

Terryll Jane Mellen Eastern Illinois University-ΓΝ

Terry Mellen was immediately recognized as a leader when she was elected vice president of her pledge class. As an initiate she was elected Panhellenic Delegate and became involved in committee work and was an outspoken leader for Greek unity. When the newly elected president of Gamma Nu resigned in late Spring of 1981, Terry was the unanimous choice to fill the vacancy. At that time, chapter morale was low and little was being accomplished. Terry grasped the situation without hesitation. She had little formal training for her new office but seemed to know instinctively what to do. Before she went to convention as a new president, she read through all officer and committee manuals. At Convention no one could have guessed she was a novice at her job!

When she returned home, she organized all her notes and materials and began contacting each officer and chairman. She worked with each to set goals and develop programs. When school began she worked with the rush chairman to reorganize rush plans and as a result, Gamma Nu had one of their most successful rushes in years . . . 43 "cream of the crop" young women.

Terry was Tau Kappa Epsilon sweetheart and a member of the Society for Advancement of Management and ASPA. She hopes to continue working for Delta Zeta after graduation . . . a college chapter director, perhaps? Her PCD-CCD Gail McKee wrote: "I feel I have been very fortunate to have had the opportunity of knowing and working with this young woman. She is truly an outstanding Delta Zeta."

Kim Volmer Jensen Ferris State College-ZN

Kim Jensen was elected secretary of her pledge class and shortly after initiation became corresponding secretary.

by Tracy White, III

It is a pleasure to announce that Iota Pi chapter has returned to the campus of West Virginia Institute of Technology. Originally installed in February, 1967, the chapter had been dormant for several years.

West Virginia Institute of Technology is located in Montgomery, WV, along the Kanasha River. The school is noted for its excellence in engineering, dental hygiene and printing. There are five fraternities and Iota Pi makes the third sorority. Because of the engineering programs, the campus is male oriented with a ratio of 3 to 1. Thus, with a relatively small female enrollment, it wasn't all that easy to bring Iota Pi back.

Penny Payne, president of the chapter, was a transfer student from Delta Upsilon chapter at Marshall University. Terry Davis, a transfer from Epsilon Iota chapter at Fairmont State and now the pledge training vice president, worked with Penny and with alumna Dr. Virginia P. Gray to form a local colony of Iota Pi. With the assistance of the two collegiate Delta Zetas and with Dr. Gray as faculty advisor, the first eight young women pledged for a year!

Even before chartering, however, Iota Pi colony prided itself in being active in the community. They participated in the Run for Children race (approximately three miles), and won the first place trophy for group participation. At Halloween they dressed in costumes and visited the pediatrics ward at Montgomery General Hospital. They also actively participated in campus blood drives and won the title of best decorated float in the Homecoming Parade.

And so, it was only natural that on Campus and community guests at the reception to welcome Iota Pi to the campus of West Virginia Institute of Technology.

Anne Leine, National Field Representative and Sherry Hornsby Miller, Province Collegiate Director, welcomed guests to the reception.

February 13, nineteen pledges became Delta Zeta sisters as Iota Pi was reissued its charter. As in 1967, Delta Upsilon chapter from Marshall University performed the initiation ceremony.

At the installation banquet that evening the charter was presented to Penny Payne, president, by Norma Andrisek, Past National President, who presided as toastmistress. Taking part in the evening's presentations were Sherry Miller, Province Collegiate Director; Anne Leine, National Field Representative, and Dr. Virginia P. Gray, College Chapter Director. National President Carolyn Gullatt presided at the installation service.

Dr. Leonard Nelson, President of West Virginia Institute of Technology, accepted and welcomed the chapter to the campus. Included in the gifts to the chapter were a silver punch bowl from the National Council and a silver tray from Province IV.

The banquet was highlighted with a Rose Ceremony conducted by Anne Leine. She was accompanied by Epsilon Delta chapter from Concord College who sang, "It Only Takes a Spark."

Representatives from campus fraternities and sororities and members of the campus and community attended a reception on Sunday afternoon at the Conley Hall Art Gallery on the West Virginia Tech campus.

The Iota Pi chapter of Delta Zeta would like to sincerely thank everyone who made the chartering possible and with the fondest of wishes to the first pledge class for making installation a special success.

Meet Delta Alpha at Cal State - Long Beach

California State University-Long Beach's Delta Alpha on Presents Day.

by Laura McMullen, ΔΑ

California State University, Long Beach was established to serve the needs of Orange County and the southeast portion of Los Angeles County. The instructional program was initiated in the fall of 1949 with one hundred and sixty-nine upper division students, and twenty-four administrative, instructional and clerical members. The first graduation class of 1950 included thirty-two candidates who received a BA degree. Presently, Long Beach State has an enrollment of over 33,000 and there are more than two hundred student organizations on campus, which reflect interests in politics, religion, recreation, cultural, social, and academic areas. C.S.U.L.B. is known for its excellence in art, nursing, and teacher's education.

On March 20, 1950 twelve women founded Omega Phi Delta which was dedicated to promote social activity, friendships, cooperation, growth of womanly character and further good scholarship among the members. Omega Phi Delta was the third sorority to be founded at C.S.U.L.B. The adopted colors were yellow and green with the yellow carnation as the flower. Four years after the founding of Omega Phi Delta, on January 31, 1954 the members, pledges, and alumnae were pledged into Delta Zeta. The sorority was installed as the Delta Alpha chapter of Delta Zeta, the first National Panhellenic sorority on the Long Beach State campus. Maintaining their original founding date, members and alumnae of Omega Phi Delta were initiated on March 20, 1954.

Delta Alpha is known for being a very active chapter, besides participating in activities with fraternities and campus groups, Delta Alpha also does many things with just themselves. Every fall semester, Delta Alpha holds a Hawaiian Luau in honor of the pledges. This starts the year off with a strong feeling of togetherness and sisterhood. The pledges are again the center of attention as Delta Alpha celebrates Halloween with a big and little sister pumpkin carving contest. Awards are given for the most original, scariest, and funniest pumpkin. Afterwards, the chapter goes serenading and presents the pumpkins to local hospitals.

Another major event for the fall semester is the father and daughter football game. The fathers are treated to the game and to pizza after the game. The mothers are not forgotten! Every spring semester we have a mother and daughter tea and fashion show at the Delta Alpha house. Delta Alpha also has activities with the Long Beach alumnae chapter. This year we are planning a joint fundraiser with the alumnae. Also every semester we honor them with an alumnae dessert at the Delta Alpha house.

Other activities for the fall semester include an all sorority powder puff football tournament, a weekend mountain retreat and a big and little sister Christmas party. In 1980 Delta Zeta took first place in the football tournament and we are looking forward to recapturing the title in 1982. The mountain retreat is one of our most memorable activities every year. It is a time where sisterhood abounds and Delta Alpha's strength and spirit is renewed. The weekend includes skits, songs, all night talks, and other inspirational activities. The fall semester concludes with the big and little sister Christmas party. Every member brings an ornament for the Christmas tree and gifts for special people. There is always a visit from Santa.

One of the most exciting events of the spring semester is Derby Days, which is an all sorority competition sponsored by Sigma Chi fraternity. The purpose is to raise money for philanthropies. The events include selling ads, spirit and publicity contest, derby swipe, "Miss Venus", sorority feud, cake decorating, and games day. In 1981 we placed first in five of the events and second place in the remaining two events. This gave Delta Alpha the most points for the week and we were given the first place trophy! This year we are working hard to take first place two years in a row, a feat that no other sorority has been able to accomplish.

Delta Alpha has also received first place for the most spirited house during Greek Week for two out of two years. Other competitions that Delta Alphas participate in include that of the Theta Chi fraternity, the all sorority softball tournament and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon volleyball tournament. During the three year history of the volleyball tournament Delta Alpha has placed first two times and second once. We are practicing now in hopes of bringing home the first place trophy again! Finally, one of Delta Alpha's most prized awards was given to the chapter at National Convention for reaching quota five years in a row.

One of the most enjoyable events during the spring semester is Flame Fantasy. It is a fashion show put on by the Southern California Lamp-lighters, where Delta Zeta collegians work as volunteers. This year's commentator was Nanette Fabray and honored guest National President, Carolyn Gullatt. After the fashion show, the day was concluded with a dinner at the Delta Alpha house honoring Mrs. Gullatt. Additional guests who attended the dinner were Betty Bragg, PAD, Karen Dessel, PCD, Diane Harris, president of Long Beach alumnae, and Cindy Johnson, CCD. After dinner, Mrs. Gullatt led a candid question and answer session, with tales of her early Delta Zeta years. She delighted everyone and allowed us the opportunity to learn more about different phases of sorority life. The evening was concluded by serenading Mrs. Gullatt in a friendship circle singing "Dream Girl of Delta Zeta."

Amidst all of Delta Alpha's involvements, sisterhood and friendship remain the primary foundation of the chapter. Our love and concern for each other help us to achieve our goals.

Delta Alpha pledges dressed up their big sisters as a rose, a diamond, a pledge pin, a turtle and the ΔZ Executive Board.

Beta Xi sisters (Auburn University) and 46 great new pledges posed for a picture on "Squeal Day" following formal rush.

Meet Beta Xi at Auburn University

by Janet Fondren, AU-BΞ

Waaaaar Eagle! The members of the Beta Xi chapter of Delta Zeta at Auburn University can be heard joining in this battle cry in true Auburn tradition. One of the largest universities in the South, Auburn University is located in Auburn, Alabama, just 60 miles northeast of the state capitol, Montgomery.

The Auburn University campus is well known for its beauty and small town friendliness. Chartered in 1856 and called East Alabama Male College, the school was begun as a single four-story building with an enrollment of 100 students, all males, and six faculty members. After the War Between the States when the building was converted into a Confederate hospital, the school was reopened but the economic ruin of the South had reduced the finances of the school considerably.

This problem was solved when the Morrill Act was passed in 1872, making Auburn the first land-grant college in the South. The name of the school was changed to The Agricultural and Mechanical College of Alabama. Placing great emphasis on the liberal arts and growing steadily, Auburn changed its name again in 1899 to Alabama Polytechnic Institute. This name stayed with the college for 61 years until the state legislature changed the name permanently to Auburn University in 1960.

The Beta Xi chapter of Delta Zeta was begun on the campus of Auburn, then the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, in 1939. When Beta Xi received its charter in 1940 there were twenty sisters and four other sororities on campus. last fall.

Another Auburn tradition that Beta Xi gets involved in is the annual Step Sing song contest. Step Sing is held at the first of winter quarter and the contestants are sororities and fraternities who have all practiced long and hard to "polish up their act" for the judges and spectators.

Beauty pageants have become a tradition at Auburn, with over ten different ones held throughout the year ranging from Miss Fall Rush to Miss Watermelon Bust. One contest, the Miss Glomerata pageant, selects twenty girls as Glom Beautys who compete in the pageant and have their pictures taken for the school annual. Beta Xi has always been well represented in this contest and this year, Suzanne Nash was selected as a Glom Beauty out of the hundreds of girls who entered.

Beta Xi activities are as varied as are Auburn traditions. Each fall the new pledges are honored at a Pledge Formal dance, and Winter Formal always proves to be an exciting annual event for the sisters. Spring quarter will be filled with fun this year with a retreat and a special spring party in the works.

Other activities include two fund raisers held last year to support the chapter's national philanthropy and the All Campus Fund Drive. Campus activities, such as the annual Blood Drive, receive a large percentage of participation from the Beta Xis. An Easter Egg hunt for underprivileged children will be held in the spring as another of the chapter's service projects.

One very special Auburn tradition is Aubie, the team mascot. Aubie is a cartoon tiger who appeared in 1959 on the cover of a football program. Brought to life in 1979, Aubie has become a symbol of the true Auburn spirit.

The annual Alabama Delta Zeta state convention, Province Day, was hosted this year by Beta Xi and the sisters worked hard to organize the meeting and show the other Delta Zetas from all over Alabama what being an Auburn Delta Zeta really means.

The Wreck Tech Parade takes place the week before the Auburn-Georgia Tech football game. Sorority and fraternity pledges build floats and march in the parade and the judges grade them on spirit as well as overall group appearance. The Beta Xi chapter has done well in this and the Burn the Bulldogs Parade, placing first in both last fall.

"Fantasy in Flight"

California has 26th Flame Fantasy

by Rae Sweet Templin
Oregon State—X

It was a year of "firsts" for the 26th annual Flame Fantasy sponsored by the Delta Zeta Lamplighters of Southern California. The event was held in late February in the elegant ballroom of the Beverly Wilshire Hotel in Beverly Hills.

Leading off the innovations was a change of philanthropy to the House Ear Institute, Los Angeles, internationally noted for its research in disorders of the ear. Knowing of her interest in aid to the hearing impaired, actress Nanette Fabray was contacted and she consented to be the fashion show commentator for the benefit ... another first for Flame Fantasy.

Undoubtedly, the most meaningful "first" was the presence of Delta Zeta National President, Carolyn Gullatt, who captivated over 800 Delta Zetas and friends with her gracious remarks and special Southern charm.

The Flame Fantasy committee, chaired by Rae Sweet Templin, Oregon State—X, of the Orange County alumnae chapter, was composed of representatives of the eight alumnae chapters who comprise the Lamplighters of Southern California. Members of the committee included Ruth Wilt, Los Angeles - stage and table decor; Marty Mirabal, Santa Monica - reservations; Ruth Thomas and Mary Lou Markling, Orange County - financial manager and invitations, respectively; Alethia Brill, Whittier-West Covina - opportunity tickets; Barbara Gates, San Fernando Valley - table prizes; Catherine Carstens, Pasadena-Foothill - public relations; Ruby McKee, South Bay - patron donations, and Althea Miller, Long Beach - publicity.

Another innovation to the fashion show was the use of models from Sonance, an HEI support group of professional models who donated their $1,000 fee to the Institute. With the inclusion of that amount, HEI, real-realized nearly $10,000 in proceeds from Flame Fantasy.

Collegians from CSU-Fullerton-IY, CSU-Los Angeles-OP and CSU-Long Beach-ΔA were on hand to help with the sale of opportunity tickets. Proceeds of $3,491 went into the Housing Fund which is used to refurbish chapter houses.

The theme of "Fantasy in Flight" was carried out with a hot air balloon onstage and table centerpieces of beribboned glass bubbles filled with silk flowers. Grand prizes of two weeks in Hawaii with airfare, a Cybis porcelain of Pegasus and a hot air balloon flight were awarded with the theme in mind.

"Coming of Age" The Founders Memorial Foundation

by Sarah Jane Shank Houston,
National Director and Secretary,
Founders Memorial Foundation

This year the Delta Zeta Foundation "comes of age" - it was incorporated in March, 1961, by Mary Collins Galbraith, Alfa Lloyd Hayes and Helen Woodruff Nolop. Since two of the original incorporators were Founders of Delta Zeta Sorority, it is entirely fitting that the term "Founders Memorial" be added to the Foundation name.

It has taken a while, but the "machinery" of the merger of the Delta Zeta Foundation, and the Delta Zeta Founders Memorial Fund is now in place and in working order.

The intent of the Foundation is to provide a place of safekeeping for the legacies and bequests which have been made to the Delta Zeta Sorority for the purpose of providing scholarships and financial assistance to members of the sorority. As indicated at the time of the merger - all of the Foundation scholarships have been retained, adding the Founders Scholarships to the list, and increasing the amount of these scholarships to $500.00 each. Also the Edith Head Scholarship has been added, this for continuing studies in Fashion Design. Delta Zeta's long interest in Gallaudet College continues unlimited.

With the curtailment of funds from other sources, members will be looking for further assistance from their sorority to help them finance their education, and continue to be active within their campus chapters. All contributions to the Foundation are tax deductible. And no amount is too small - for it can be matched, or placed with other contributions to build a special scholarship or grant, or build toward a special scholarship.

Many of our scholarships were established long before these days of high interest rates, and the principals do not generate the returns which would be available if they were invested in the current market. A point which is very important is that these funds be kept intact so as to produce continuing monies for established scholarships or grants. Security and continuity are assured with the Foundation. It is our aim to help as many sisters as possible, and it would be wonderful indeed if we might be able in the future to assist every qualified young woman on every campus where Delta Zeta Sorority has a chapter. It can be done - with your conscious and determined help.

Edith Head Scholarship to be Presented

Founders Memorial Foundation

Through the Foundation, the Delta Zeta Lamplighters of Southern California have established the EDITH HEAD SCHOLARSHIP, to be awarded to a young woman majoring in Fashion Design.

Mr. Truman E. Hinton, P.E. has contributed a trust fund to the Foundation in memory of his wife, Hazel Haskell Hinton. The interest from this trust will be paid to Gallaudet scholarships. Hazel Haskell Hinton and her sister, Peggy Haskell Benjamin, both long time Delta Zetas were related to Elizabeth Coulter Stephenson.

Listed are those who have made contributions to the Delta Zeta Founders Memorial Foundation from September, 1981, through February, 1982.

Gallaudet College, Washington, DC*

The annual Founders Day luncheon has taken on a special meaning for Washington area alumnae. It is now the day they have the privilege of representing all of Delta Zeta, alumnae and collegians, in presenting the Delta Zeta Founders Memorial Foundation's Endowment scholarship awards to deserving Gallaudet students.

Since the award of the first scholarship of $200 in 1976 to Deirdre Blaylock, scholarships have been provided annually to the following deserving young women: Pamela Kovash, Victoria Magliocchino, Christine Otness and Brenda LeMieux. By 1981, the fund has increased to the extent that two scholarship grants of $1,000 each were awarded from the interest in the Endowment Fund alone, attesting fully to generous commitment on the part of Delta Zetas everywhere.

Winners of the two $1,000 scholarships were Sarah Schrock and Jodee Scharfenberger. Both able and industrious juniors, Sarah has elected to major in art history and museum science while Jodee's major is in secondary education. Both young women have diverse interests which extend beyond a personal career focus to include poetry, needlepoint and sports, as well as involvement with numerous organizations. As with the previous scholarship winners, Sarah and Jodee exhibit the qualities of intellect and character that will mark them as future leaders in their chosen fields and citizens of the world.

Delta Zeta on Campus

Bowling Green University-IT chapter members say "hello".

ALABAMA

Alabama, Alpha Gamma—The entire chapter traveled to Auburn to receive the top activity award, philanthropy award and scrapbook award at Province Day. Alpha Gamma enjoyed a visit from National President Carolyn Gullatt, who conducted an officer and chairmen workshop, highlighted with helpful rush hints. Members jumped rope at the American Heart Association Jump-a-thon to win first place in the charity event. Delta Zeta raised $530 from donations. Campus Senators are Laurel Kurtz, social work; Sandra Rodgers, home economics; and Debra Nesbitt, new college. Lauren Jorgensen is president of Commerce and Business Administration, while Sheree Martin serves Panhellenic as second vice-president. Carole Pinckard and Cherie Reeves are rush counselors. Sarah Carlucci is SGA spirit chairman and Paula Bishop is Crimson Kadets treasurer. Lisa DeBardelaben is a member of Greek Board and Sigma Theta Tau. Beth Wilson is a member of mass communications honorary and Rosanne Kivette is a AXA Crescent Girl. Leigh Ann Harrison is Miss Jefferson County, in the Miss U of A Top Ten, and vice-president of communications school.

Auburn-Montgomery, Lambda Nu—For the third consecutive year, a Delta Zeta reigned over Homecoming festivities at AUM. Cathy Eagerton was queen, with Rubyanne Sachar and Cindy McClean as runners-up. Tammy Sullivan, past chapter president, was named Miss Province at the Auburn Province Day. Danielle Rowe received the individual scholarship award, while the chapter won the Dee Porter Krop Award for outstanding rushing and pledge retention. The chapter also won the Grimes-Sturkie Award for outstanding campus positions in all areas. Lambda Nu enjoyed the Rose Ball Formal at Arrowhead County Club. Children at the Speech and Hearing Clinic were feted with a Delta Zeta party. Elena Bass is serving as a senator for Student Government Association. Darla Deason received a pledge scholarship award.

Livingston, Kappa Lambda—All the tears and fears of low membership were rewarded when Province XXIII gave Kappa Lambda a standing ovation at Province Day. Kappa Lambda had returned last fall with three initiates, one CCD and no pledges. The chapter then pledged 13 girls, out of quota of 16, in formal rush. The warm and loving response from the province and PCD Sandi Nesbitt, says chapter editor Donna Haley, made us rededicate ourselves to Delta Zeta. At Province Day KA won the May award for perfect attendance, second place for scrapbook, the spirit award, and outstanding pledge, treasurer, pledge trainer, president and CCD. Four Delta Zetas placed in the top twenty in Paragon Beauty Review, where Donna Haley was named second alternate and Roxie Luker Miss Congeniality. Roxie was also Livingston's Loveliest for March and is Miss Livingston University. Donna is a member of Blue Key Honor Fraternity and a representative to Washington, DC to a campaign for college financial aid. Debbie Downing is a member of LU Singers, concert choir.

Jacksonville, Lambda Gamma—Scholarship Chairman Regina Norris organized the chapter's first scholarship banquet. The dinner, at the Wagon Wheel, was followed with the presentations of awards to Michelle Nix, scholarship award; Nancy Mann, most improved initiate; Susan Driskel, highest initiate; Pam Champion, highest grade point for the semester; and Malinda Smith, highest pledge grade point. Province Director Sandi Nesbitt joined the chapter for initiation, which was followed with a tea. Nancy Bougrand, pledge trainer, is busy including pledges in special projects. Members made signs for the pledges' rooms and wrote letters of support to them. Nancy is also planning a pledge handbook for the Fall. The chapter enjoyed dressing as cartoon characters for a KA mixer and pledge swap. At Province Day, Nancy Bougrand received the top officer award for the Province. Faculty Adviser Linda McAnally was named to Outstanding Young Women of America. Michelle Nix captured one of the leads and Amy Uhl another in An Italian Straw Hat. Anne Hubbard made costumes for the production.

ARKANSAS

Arkansas Tech, Lambda Alpha—A variety of fund raising events are aiding chapter members Sharon Mabry and Joyce Minnick, whose mobile home was destroyed by fire. One catchy fund raiser is the sale of slogan shoestrings. The strings are printed with the school name, mascot and Delta Zeta slogan. In February's formal rush, Delta Zeta pledged 22, quota, bringing the sorority to total membership of 65.

Central Arkansas, Epsilon Xi—The chapter was honored to include Mrs. Nannette Rollins, assistant professor in the Psychology Department, among its 18 initiates this Spring. Mrs. Rollins, a member of Delta Sigma Epsilon from UCA, is a faculty advisor for the chapter. Delta Zeta had only four openings in Spring rush and proudly pledged four, who have already raised enough money through candy sales and small projects to pay their initiation fees. Fall pledges were honored with a western party where they sang a song especially composed for the event. EZ again presented its philanthropy style show, with Kay Bright as chairman. Half the profit went to UCA's speech and hearing department. Jane Tiefel and Beth Hayes coordinated "The Night on the Town" fundraising project. The raffle earned $650 for the chapter, and the 10 winners received elaborate dinners and gift certificates from area restaurants and movie theatres. Donna Reedy organized the annual Hidden Hearts Party for Valentine's Day, with little and big sisters creating decorations. In sports activities, Delta Zeta has several top contenders. Cathy Woodard, president of the Spring pledge class, helped lead the Sugar Bears swim team to the championship of the AWISA swim and diving tournament. Cathy swam in the 200-yard medley relay, which set a record time. She also holds school records in the 50-yard, 100-yard, and 500-yard freestyle events. Terri Conder lead the Sugar Bears basketball team to the Arkansas Women's Intercollegiate Sports Association championship. The team then traveled to regional play in San Angelo, Texas. Terri was named to the all conference squad at the AWISA tourney. Debbie Conder was one of the five finalists in the Miss Body Beautiful contest. Jayme Darnelle was named Miss Congeniality in the Miss Conway Pageant, where Tamara Morris was named Miss Conway. Tamara travels to the Miss Arkansas pageant this summer.

Henderson, Epsilon Pi—Pledges treated initiates with a big sis-little sis cookout, and the chapter traveled to Conway for Province Day. The Christmas formal was held in Hot Springs. Dee Bunger is a HSU cheerleader.

CALIFORNIA

California State-Los Angeles, Theta Rho—Chapter domination in sports continues this year. Of the six events participated in, Theta Rho copped first place in tennis, basketball and volleyball. Second places came in racquetball, handball and bowling. The basketball team remained undefeated for the third consecutive year. Members enjoyed a snowy retreat at Lake Arrowhead in February. The weekend was aimed at strengthening the bond of friendship among Delta Zetas and, according to Alisa Rubin, chapter editor, was a weekend filled with fun and love. National President Carolyn Gullatt visited ΘP during her tour of the Province. The chapter enjoyed a wonderful evening getting to know the National President and Panhellenic honored Mrs. Gullatt with a reception.

Chico, Delta Chi—In philanthropy projects, Delta Chi answered phones for the Jerry Lewis Telethon and presented a check from the chapter on a local television station. Canned goods for Thanksgiving baskets were collected from campus fraternities.

San Jose, Gamma Lambda—As a fairly young chapter, Gamma Lambda recognizes many opportunities to begin chapter traditions, reports chapter editor Nancy Webster. In the three years since installation, many pledge customs have evolved.

One of these is the Rose Girl award given every two weeks by initiates to the most inspirational pledge. At the end of the semester, a plaque is given for the Rose Girl of the semester. The winner wears a necklace with a pink coral rose. The tradition began with the chapter's Alpha pledge class. By the same token, pledges award a Diamond Girl as the most inspirational initiate. The Diamond Girl wears a diamond necklace during her two weeks. Pledges also give a Diamond Girl of the semester award. Both honors are memorialized on plaques displayed in the chapter house. Each semester the scholarship chairman honors top scholarship for initiate, pledge and most improved with a plaque. The most inspirational executive officer receives the Lia Sundling Officer award each semester. Lia was president of Gamma Lambda during its colonization period. Each Spring, ΓΑ holds a traditional Rock-a-thon to benefit Gallaudet College and Expanding Horizons and Parents Helping Parents. Rocking chairs go non-stop for ten hours for pledged donations. I Want to Rock With You by Michael Jackson has become the theme song for the event. Delta Zeta also boasts a chapter tradition for winning. The short time on campus, ΓΑ has won every major campus event repeatedly. During the colony period, Delta Zeta won ΑΧΑ Derby day with half the number of the largest house on campus. ΓΑ won Derby Days again the next time it was held, two years later. At presstime, members were ready to win the third year in a row. Delta Zeta wins Greek Week almost every year and has captured the Homecoming Spirit Award for the last three years. Delta Zeta pledged the largest number of girls this year in Spring informal rush. Panhellenic Rush Director is ΓΑ Nancy Wagner.

FLORIDA

Florida State, Alpha Sigma—After climbing from ninth to fourth place in scholarship, Delta Zeta finally captured first place scholarship honors among the 16 sororities. Twenty-six ΑΣ's were on the Dean's List! Dawn Alderman, Frances Bosbyshell, Carolyn Carter, Sally Graeff, Karen Hartzfeld, Vicky Acherer and Donna Stewart all earned perfect 4.0s. Delta Zeta won the Best Sportsmanship Award for the second year in a row, and won first place in intramural darts, and third in intramural bowling. ΑΣ's team made it to the basketball play-offs, and the chapter placed number one in overall points. Delta Zeta contributed the most signatures on a Seminole-Gram Telegram to Coach Bobby Bowden and placed second in IΚΑ's banner contest at Pike Pig Roast. The chapter has donated over \$1200 to charities this year and volunteered its time for the Special Olympics. Lou Ellen Combs directed all campus organizations for the MDA Dance-a-thon, while Susie Woodruff, Suzanne McCall and Donna Stewart were dancers in the charity event. Diane Flowers was Delta Zeta dance representative. At Province Day, ΔZ received awards for excellence in reporting, and rush and was named Outstanding Chapter in the Province. Melonie Mathias received the Lucile Crowell Cook Award for outstanding service by a member that has not held an executive office. Delta Zeta joined $\text{KA}\Phi$ for a Barn Dance, and enjoyed socials with $\text{X}\Phi$, $\text{PK}\Phi$, $\Sigma\Phi\epsilon$, ΣN , and the School of Law. While pledges enjoyed a retreat, initiates formed closer bonds with a ΔZ Huddle lock-in. Members of honoraries are Jan Keeney, Liz Bowers, Garnet and Gold Key; Joanna Barone, Marilyn McIntyre, Colette Thomas, P.A.; Suzy Bean, III^{M} , $\text{II}\Sigma\text{A}$; Carolyn Carter, ON ; Sharon Knieberg, Student Foundation; Kathy Moon, ΨX . Colette Thomas is Rho Lambda treasurer and a member of the Greek Week Steering Committee. Layne Salvador plays on the FSU women's softball team. Joanne Barone is Panhellenic rush chairman. Linda Ruffini was named outstanding senior in the marching band. In Sigma Phi Epsilon Queen of Hearts competition, ΔZ placed third in banner participation, while Jackie Guignard was second runner-up to Queen of Hearts. Jackie, chapter standards chairman, has started a chapter aerobic program.

GEORGIA

Georgia College, Lambda Pi—Delta Zeta, the only sorority to reach quota in formal rush, pledged 23 fantastic girls. Following bids, they enjoyed a picnic and were later honored with a Pledge Debut Party. A Parent's Tea and Alumnae Weekend were great successes. Alumnae were also honored with a tea on Founders Day. Delta Zeta placed first in volleyball intramurals and Lambda Pi hosted Province Day in April. Panhellenic Council sponsored a fashion show benefitting Galaudet College. Gingery Gregory was third runner-up to Homecoming Queen, and Rhonda Doster and Betty Ann Allgood won the Homecoming theme entry competition.

ILLINOIS

Eastern Illinois, Gamma Nu—Thirty-four beautiful pledges were initiated in February. Outstanding pledge was Kelli Ryan, while Miss Congeniality honors went to Loretta Heagy. Jaylee O'Neill won the pledge scholarship honors. Pledges and initiates enjoyed a lively game of "Family Feud" with questions concerning Delta Zeta. It proved a good opportunity for brushing up on sorority history and traditions. Terry Mellen served as State Day Chairman, when Eastern Illinois hosted the event. Last year's Miss Charleston, Kim Mitchell, is coordinating this year's pageant for the Delta Chis. ΔZ Laura Knapp will be among the contestants. Chapter spirits are high, as members hope to win Greek Sing, Greek Week games and again bring the Greek Queen crown to Delta Zeta.

Illinois, Alpha Beta—National Secretary Dianne Guild, joined four University officials to present seminars for a two-day chapter workshop. Delta Zeta and Sigma Tau Gamma began preparation for their entry in Atius Sachem Mom's Day Sing last November. This year's try-out number is Generations, a ten minute song and dance show featuring a variety of songs from Time Warp to Let Me Call You Sweetheart to Peppermint Twist. Delta Zeta has earned participation in the show more than any other house on campus. ΔZ and $\text{PK}\Phi$ joined forces for a raffle and mug sale at Kam's. Proceeds went to Founders Memorial Foundation. House neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stanley, are Delta Zeta's first official grandparents in the newly devised Adopt-A-Grandparent Program. The program provides dinner once a month, a house picture and birthday, anniversary and Valentine gifts. AB enjoyed the company of Chi Psi in a Great White North exchange and AEII in a Foreign Exchange Student exchange. The 84.50 and 85 pledge classes sponsored a Speak- ΔZ dance featuring Charlie Chaplin movies, lively decorations and continuous dance music. Members of American Advancement Association of Science are Kim Arrington and Robin McCorkle. Cathy Nott won the Panhellenic Scholarship Award, a cash prize. Beryl Schnierow was named one of eight Outstanding Greek Women, earned membership in Phi Kappa Phi and won the Beth Dohme Wallin Memorial Panhellenic Award. Katherine Wright is one of seven senators from College of Engineering and managing editor of the Illio yearbook. Gillian Menees serves on Panhellenic's public relations committee.

Northwestern, Alpha Alpha—Members traveled to Eastern Illinois campus at Charleston for State Day and came home with the scholarship award, for a 3.13 chapter average, the philanthropy award, the best pledge program honor and most improved chapter honor. Karen Hagmann won the best treasurer award and Mary Beth Madewell was runner-up for the cinderella award. AA initiated 19 new mem-

Listed were Sue Baushke, Alexandra Cowen, Nora Fitzgerald, Sue Glatter, Julie Grosse, Janel Guehler, Karen Hagmann, Ellen Lesser, Cindy Murphy, Leila Onbargi, Mary Beth Samuel and Ellen Silverman. Anne Leine, AA, is a National Field Representative for Delta Zeta. Katherine Carlis serves as alumnae relations chairman for Northwestern's Panhellenic. Delta Zeta and Triangle fraternity placed fourth for money raised in the Multiple Sclerosis Dance Marathon. Hoagies and candy were profitable fund raisers.

Southern Illinois, Gamma Omega—"Sisterhood . . . a special sense of belonging; a sense of being needed; and most of all for being loved for who we are and not who others want us to be. Add Delta Zeta and it is knowing that no matter where you go if there is a Delta Zeta, there is an open door." These were thoughts of Debbie Wood as she wrote that members of Gamma Omega met other Midwestern Delta Zetas at the Greek Christian Leadership Conference in Chicago in February. "Many of us were reminded about the true beginning of Delta Zeta and the foundation on which we stand as a national organization. It is a beginning of which many of us need to be reminded and then take a hard look at our chapter and how it exemplifies our high standards of Delta Zeta. Most of all, our love for Delta Zeta was deepened."

Western Illinois, Epsilon Omicron—Members traveled to Eastern Illinois for the annual State Day and enjoyed many valuable workshops, a luncheon, award ceremony and song swap. EO won a membership award and Carol Menne was runner-up for outstanding collegian honors. The women of Delta Zeta joined to campaign for Danna Aliano's vie for SGA vice-president. EO's Danna won the close contest by a slim margin proving that Delta Zetas on campus can make a difference. Jill Yentes is vice-president of Panhellenic.

INDIANA

Ball State, Gamma Chi—Members and pledges are busy creating a suite mural of blue denim shaped like a Levi's pocket. Sisters decorate small pockets, place them on the large pocket to use to transfer messages between members. Fall pledges enjoyed a retreat in Crawfordsville and celebrated their initiation at Shakey's Pizza Parlor. During Christmas, members caroled at a nursing home and rang bells for the Salvation Army. In fact, this year's Salvation Army drive raised more money than ever before. Members participated in a Bowl-a-rama for American Heart Association, where Julie Overlies won a prize for two consecutive strikes and Bonnie Risinger won a prize for two consecutive gutter balls. The 20 other Greek organizations on campus enjoyed a fried chicken picnic in the Delta Zeta suite during Greek Exchange dinners. During other Greek Week events, Julie Oberlies and Glenda Hartman participated in the Skate-a-thon and all members enjoyed Senator Richard Lugar's speech at Grand Chapter, which concluded with an exciting multi-media presentation of Greek life on campus.

DePauw, Delta—Activities Chairman Jennifer Yoakum is helping Delta honor its seniors. Special dinners are prepared for pairs of seniors, who choose the menus. Other special activities included honoring Delta music majors with receptions following recitals. New house activities include aerobic dance classes and a Bible study group. Chapter scholarship includes 15% at 4.0 and 47% at 3.0 or better. At presstime, members were preparing for the annual Little 500 Bike Race with hopes that last year's Rookie of the Year, Kerri Arndt, would lead the chapter to another first place trophy. Delta Zeta is paired with ΔKE for the festivities. Twenty-two pledges, a diverse group whose pledge activities included a chapter Valentine dance and several fund raising projects, were initiated in late February. Phi Beta Kappa tapped Jennifer Webb, Alison Herrold, Sue Ludwig and Nancy Gregory. Catherine Reece is a semi-finalist in concerto competition at the School of Music. Campus leaders are Sue Haney, president of Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and Nancy Gregory, president of Chaplain's Living Unit Council. Sue Ludwig's paper was accepted by the Midwestern Psychology Association, and Lisa Hildebrand, Tanya Seslar and Mary Daly are all licensed by the FCC in broadcasting.

Franklin, Psi—Jenny Foster reigned over Homecoming festivities and received the crown from last year's queen, Delta Zeta Elizabeth McDonald. Psi finished second in the all-around Homecoming festivities. Pledge Tonya Rondot won AXA's honors as Miss Watermelon Bust. Members active in women's sports are Lee Ann Hadley, Mary Kay Thanos, Lori Hadley, Janet Muston, tennis team members. Playing field hockey were Theresa Puchley, Roberta Thompson, Kim Carroll, Sheryl Krachinski and Susan Overmeyer. Chris Chastain and Karen Kenley played volleyball. On the basketball team were Chris Chastain, Becky Whitney, Lee Ann Hadley and Teresa Melgard. Members again carved pumpkins for fraternities at Halloween. The hand-delivered pumpkins arrived with special serenades. At presstime, members were excited about upcoming May Sing, hoping for the sixth consecutive win.

Indiana, Epsilon—A successful Spring rush brought 30 pledges into Delta Zeta. ΔZ and Phi Delta Theta paired for IU Sing, finishing sixth in campus competition. Delta Zeta songleader Sonnie Sicklesmith won a $300 scholarship for excellence in choreography at the event. Epsilon, with a sound scholastic record, placed fifth among the 18 sororities in academic standings. The chapter traveled to De-Pauw for Province Day and were busily preparing for the Mini 500 and Little 500 in April. Chapter President Karen Thomas was one of 33 finalists at the Indianapolis 500 Festival Queen Pageant. Meg McNichols is Publications Director for Panhellenic. Selected as directors for Student Athletic Board are Carolyn Doyle, Karen Gustafson and Anita Walters.

IOWA

Iowa, Iota—Chapter editor Heather Frantz reports "Iota can proudly say that we doubled our strength since the beginning of the school year. With 14 pledges, it almost seems as if there are more pledges than actives. The large pledge class really put the sorority back on its feet and Iota is hoping to repeat the good fortune in the next pledge class." And, upon initiation, the new members brought boundless energy, enthusiasm and fresh ideas, and stepped right in and settled to the business of expanding the chapter and making their pride in Delta Zeta known. Kim Peterson represented Delta Zeta in the Bowl-a-thon for National Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, sponsored by Alpha Chi Omega. Delta Zeta also participated in the Dance-a-thon for Muscular Dystrophy and Delta Gamma's Anchor Splash.

Iowa State, Beta Kappa—For 18 minutes the women of Delta Zeta and the men of Delta Upsilon sang and danced their way through the streets of New York in their Varieties rendition entitled Adam and Eve Bite the Big Apple. The second place winning number, directed by ΔZ Lynnae Reed and LuAnn Schutte, depicted memorable characters passing by Adam and Eve who finally succumbed to temptation and bit the apple. Rehearsals for the show began four months before the event. This was the second consecutive second place for Delta Zeta. This year's field had 12 entries. Varieties Central committee included Mary Lee, public relations, Ann Porter, secretary. Joyce Johannson is co-editing the Greek Line, Greek newspaper. Officers in National Agri-Marketing Association are Janet Soorholtz, membership, and Marla Dille, secretary. Mary Lee is a rush counselor coordinator. Karmel Hoffman captured a role in the Wizard of Oz. Paula Petras serves Home Economics Club as president. Lynda Paxton is co-chairman of publicity for Greek Week.

KANSAS

Emporia, Delta Pi—Members welcomed nine new initiates and a new pledge in February and were busily preparing Fall and Spring rush plans. Pre-school children at a local church enjoyed a Delta Zeta Easter Egg Hunt. Delta Zeta moms were treated to a Mothers' Weekend. Parents' Weekend was held in the Fall. Donna Rae White is a member of Cardinal Key.

Fort Hays, Delta Omega—Senior honorary Mortar Board tapped Vicki Melkus, Marisa Thurman, Lisa Lessman and Nicki Clumsky. Shelly Deins was honored by Delta Omega as outstanding pledge. Initiates sewed matching white dresses and ceremonial robes for the initiation of 11 pledges in February. Spring activities on the busy calendar included Province Day, Greek Week and Derby Days.

KENTUCKY

Kentucky, Alpha Theta—Sisters of Alpha Theta proudly initiated a new chapter of Delta Zeta at Eastern Kentucky University. Fall semester, AΘs helped the colony by rushing potential pledges and performed the Muppet Skit from their own successful Fall rush. The two chapters, only 30 miles apart, have planned a joint mixer with Sigma Chi and Phi Kappa Tau fraternities at EKU. Amey Hugg and Pam Baker are two of the 13 finalists in the Miss Lexington Scholarship Pageant. Julia Breeden danced for ΘΧ in the Farm House Fraternity dance contest for the American Cancer Society and won first place in the fraternity division. Delta Zetas placed second among sororities in the Greek Night at the Oscars. AΘ teamed with KA Fraternity and performed their original production of "Greakse." The take-off of the musical Grease received a standing ovation from the sell-out crowd at the 1000 seat Memorial Hall on campus.

Louisville, Beta Gamma—Jeanine Peterson was named by the University of Louisville faculty as typifying the best all-around female student at the University, and earned the Miss Cardinal title. She is a student representative to University College Student Council, member of ODK Greek honorary, and is listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Holding seats in the Arts & Science Student Council are Sherrill Adwell and Barbara Corchoran. U of L Marching Band includes Christy Frankenberger, Cathy Barth and Kim Williams, co-captain. Kim was named an Arts & Science Student of the Month. Beta Gamma initiated 12 new members in February and won the Homecoming spirit contest. Following the campus theme of "A Night on the Town," Royce Cruce organized ΔZ's depiction of Gilley's Bar. Decorations included a Louisville cardinal riding a mechanical bull and catching a Tennessee tiger by the tail. Members celebrated Founders Day at Masterson's Restaurant, sold donuts as a fund raiser, and dressed outlandishly at a tacky party benefitting Louisville's Deaf Oral School. Members again sponsored Toys for Tots and treated 40 children from St. Joseph's Orphanage to dinner at the house and an evening of skits at the Panhellenic Dorm.

Morehead, Kappa Tau—Ohio Valley's Coach of the Year, Morehead Basketball Coach Wayne Martin received a framed certificate and ΔZ coaching jersey from Delta Zeta. University newspaper, local press and yearbook representatives attended the presentation. Delta Zeta supports the Coach and the Eagle team with signs, cheers, and good luck notes for all home games. Kim Dye, sophomore, was chosen Pi Kappa Alpha Sweetheart in a campus wide contest, where students voted after viewing contestants' photos. Kim recently established a dance troupe at Morehead that has evolved into "The Golden Girls", official dance troupe of MSU. Headed by squad leader Kim, the troupe adds an extra dash of glitter and glamour to area meetings, conferences and sporting events. Kim plans all routines and directs practice sessions. Debi Ison and Robin Lambert are also on the squad. At presstime, ΔZ rated second overall in intramural standing, after Mary Charles Crockett placed first in racquetball singles, and teamed with Patty Eckert to win doubles in the same sport. The pledges placed second in ΛXA's Decadron, a series of crazy games for pledges. Candy sales, bake sales and rummage sale were profitable fund raisers for Spring. As a philanthropy project, the chapter is adopting grandmothers. Each sister is matched with a resident of Morehead Convalescent Center and visits the adopted grandmother and sends notes and cards. Tina White and Kim Van Hoose are members of the Miss MSU Scholarship Pageant Executive Committee. Kim McElfresh is one of this year's contestants. Jana Sturgill is a member of ΦΚΦ and Tina White is a student representative to MSU Scholarship Committee.

LOUISIANA

Louisiana Tech, Xi Epsilon—Chapter members are delighted at the enthusiastic involvement of Shreveport and Alexandria alumnae groups. "The support and encouragement has boosted our morale and productivity," reports chapter editor Susan Ferry. Collegians and alumnae enjoyed a "Getting to Know You" party hosted by Alexandria alumna Mrs. Mae Pearson. The Alexandria group has also contributed financial aid for initiation fees. Shreveport Alumnae have been extremely helpful in formal and informal rush and have donated flower arrangements for various activities. The Alexandria alums were still supporting Xi Epsilon when formal time arrived, as the chapter was showered with gifts at the award ceremony at the formal. The dance was held at Alexandria Golf and Country Club. "The bountiful help of the alumnae has been so appreciated by our chapter," Susan concluded. During Christmas holidays, members retreated to the Lakeside cabin of Julie Millsaps, where they enjoyed craft workshops and practiced rush conversation. Members also enjoyed a Christmas party with Sigma Kappa and Kappa Delta. New initiates were welcomed with a reception at the lodge. Throughout the year, weekly devotionals held at the lodge featured guest speakers and singers. To promote interfraternity relations, one devotion included Sigma Nu. Philanthropy Chairman Lois Winfield organized this year's Toys for Tots Drive. Collection boxes were placed around campus and in the community, and the drive was advertised in newspapers and on radio. Toys went to Ruston State School. Phi Kappa Phi honorary tapped Mary Hathorn and Sandra Williams. Chapter awards went to Janet Gerami, outstanding initiate; Laurie Alexander, outstanding pledge; Lisa Brouillete, pledge scholarship award; and Lisa Downey, active scholarship award. A new chapter tradition brings a bit of humor into meetings as each week some member's "Goof of the Week" is related.

New Orleans, Theta Kappa—Theta Kappa took second in Greek Week Wacky Wednesday and placed second in Homecoming Week's Wacky Wednesday and third for best homecoming float. The big sis-little sis team of Rhonda Wediner and Marla Rizzo was named to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Kathy Krotzer was named entertainment editor of Driftwood, school newspaper. Kathleen Bryan, Sheila Judge and Rhonda have literally taken over UNO and Community Theatre, starring in five UNO shows in the 82 theatre season. Rhonda Weidner is also co-hostess for UNO video-campus TV-video magazine. Marla Rizzo was Homecoming Chairman, hosting the most successful Homecoming ever. The chapter welcomed six new pledges in open rush and is now preparing for the opening of the intramural sports season.

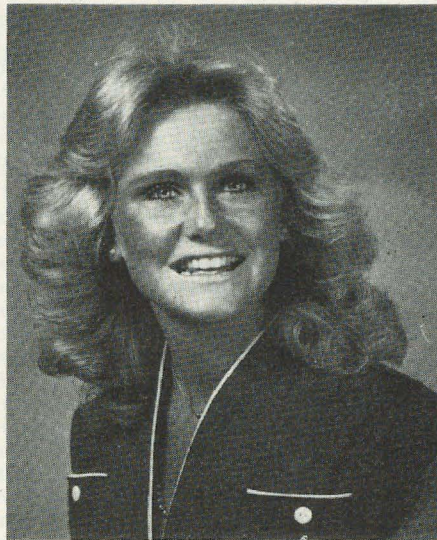

Nicholls, Kappa Alpha—February was a joyous month as members welcomed 13 new pledges in formal rush and had a terrific time selling singing telegrams at Valentine's Day. Members sold the Valentine pins and telegrams on campus, and then telephoned the singing messages to recipients. Kappa Alphas also enjoyed a costume party Mardi Gras social with IKA. The annual Harvest Dance featured a military theme providing a spectrum of attire ranging from paratroopers to M*A*S*H personnel. The room was decorated with military turtles and hay. Members enjoyed a hayride before the dance. Phi Eta Sigma honorary tapped Mary Lengendre.

MAINE

Maine-Orono, Alpha Upsilon—The chapter returned from Province I Weekend in New Hampshire with the Betty Agler award for the highest percentage of pledges initiated. Tracy Harvey captured the outstanding corresponding secretary award. Debbie Wintle, Karen Reid and Tracy Harvey teamed to win second place in the Sorority Education Bowl. Delta Zeta joined Phi Kappa Sigma Fraternity to build a chainsaw and tree trunk of snow following the theme of Maine Pastimes for Winter Carnival. Sisters and dates danced the night away in a room decorated to the theme of Purple Passion at pledge formal. Wendy Dwyer was chosen Dream Girl. Delta Zeta prepared a fifties Grease skit for formal rush. Julianna FreeHand, former chapter president and author of A Seafaring Legacy, returned for a chapter visit. Her book contains letters of a sea captain and his sweetheart in days of wooden sailing ships.

MICHIGAN

Michigan Tech, Lambda Theta—The weekend before finals, Lambda Theta provided housing for 18 students participating in the 17th annual Upper Peninsula Community School Winter Olympic Games. 2200 olympians needed housing, and Delta Zeta answered the challenge from other Greeks to help house the students. Delta Zeta, who led the Greeks by housing the most students, was the only sorority to provide housing. Responsibilities included picking up the olympians Friday night, providing them dinner, enforcing curfew, feeding them Saturday breakfast, transporting them to the Student Development Center, then later picking them up at their event, 20 miles from campus. The chapter also provided Saturday night dinner, Sunday breakfast, and marched them back to the SDC for Sunday departure. Olympians ranged in age from fourth graders to high school seniors. Historian-Editor Jennifer Kuchta's Lambda Theta Laughter newsletter has been well received by alumnae, who she thanks for their generous support. In fact, the support was so generous she received enough funds to publish a special March edition just for alumnae. Delta Zeta joined Sigma Phi Epsilon for a Christmas party for underprivileged children, and enjoyed a standards program on table and dinner etiquette in conjunction with their holiday progressive dinner. For Valentine's, members dressed in I♥ΔZ t-shirts, sold candy (Sweets for your Sweetie!). Barb Stover, a counselor and advisor from the Ad Building, led the chapter in an assertiveness workshop. Lisa Zetye, Marie Popa, and Sandy Brooks all made perfect 4.0s.

Northern Michigan, Zeta Omega—Delta Zeta joined with Chi Omega and Alpha Xi Delta for a secret sis exchange and dessert party. The Spring Dinner Dance was at the Holiday Inn in Marquette. ZΩ worked their last NMU home hockey game in late February. Once a month, five to six members work at "Ask the Lawyers" aired on NMU's television station. Members decorated NMU's speech and hearing clinic for Valentine's with chapter created decorations. Tami Bender was named Outstanding Junior Medical Technology Student with a 3.57 cumulative grade point average.

Wayne State, Epsilon Sigma—Five inches of snow, tobogganing and hiking were just some of the highlights of the ΕΣ retreat at Brighton Boy Scout Camp in upper Michigan. All 25 Delta Zetas attending enjoyed rest, relaxation and getting back to nature. Members raised funds with M & M sales and are earning extra money to sponsor a turtle at the Detroit Zoo. A bake sale netted funds for Detroit Rehabilitation Center. Kappa Delta and Delta Zeta co-sponsored a standards program on understanding the handicapped.

MINNESOTA

St. Cloud, Theta Mu—In -100° wind chills, Delta Zeta joined other Greeks for an early January retreat. Though Theta Mus were cold, they did learn effective techniques for rush and group cooperation. In contrast to the cold, Delta Zeta cashed in on warmth and sun as they sold four busloads of people trips to Florida's Daytona Beach and Texas' South Padre Islands for Spring break. Allison Enderle was graduated Cum Laude at Winter Quarter.

MISSISSIPPI

Southern Mississippi, Epsilon Mu—Collegiate Province Director Marlene Allen visited the chapter in February and left many great ideas for rush, which EM is excited about. More excitement comes with the addition of new carpeting and couches in the chapter room. The pledge class gift is wallpaper for the foyer. Activities included a pledge swap with USM's new chapter of Sigma Chi, a Famous Couples party and the Rose Petal Ball in Mobile. Letricia Carruth was named outstanding pledge and Kathy Ware was outstanding big sister. For High School Day, members performed their Wizard of ΔZ skit, complete with a rose and green road. When Alison Estrada pledged Epsilon Mu, she became the third member of her family to do so. Sister Tenderly pledged in 1974, and sister Angie was named outstanding pledge in 1978 and outstanding initiate in 1981. From Angie comes this poem, "If the Shoe Fits, Wear It!"

*Do you attend the meetings
And mingle with the flock?*

*Or do you stay at home
To criticize and knock?*

*Do you take an active part
To help the work along?*

*Or are you satisfied
To only just belong?*

*When business session comes around,
Do you pretend to be sick?*

*Then leave the work to just a few
And talk about the clique?*

*Think this over, member,

*Are you an active member,
Or do you just belong?*

MISSOURI

Central Missouri, Epsilon Gamma—Student Ambassadors are Lori Freeman, Sue Jolly, Mary Mudd, Sandra Singer, Gail Spotts and Ann Yendrek. Sue and Sandra are both members of the editorial staff of Pleiades, campus literary publication. Anne co-directs Mulekickers. Debbie Cooper is one of top 12 finalists in Miss Missouri-USA pageant and Mary Mudd is Missouri's State Pork Queen. Phi Eta Sigma tapped Michelle Munkirs for membership. Following winter initiation, members and new initiates enjoyed a sister retreat at Pertile Lodge on CMSU's campus. Members participated in the CMSU phone-a-thon raising loan and scholarship money for the school. Delta Zeta reached the play-offs in intramural basketball and planned Spring formal festivities with the theme "Cruising into Spring" incorporating new sailor suit fashions.

Missouri-St. Louis, Iota Xi—The Blizzard of '82 hasn't deterred Iota Xi's determination, though informal rush parties were postponed. Almost a month late, the first party was possible. It included five rushees, and those five pledged Delta Zeta within the week. Members joined pledges for a Delta Zeta night at the movies, while eight members and one alumna enjoyed a ski trip to Colorado. Members treated children at St. Joseph's Institute for the Deaf with a Christmas party. Rhonda Gasser reigned over the Homecoming festivities. Three of the last four Homecoming Queens have been Delta Zetas. Winners of Student Affairs awards were Pat Kinamore, 1982, and Marie Hoffman, 1981. Barb Leudde is secretary of UMSL Senate and Janet Neuner is president of Panhellenic Council. The members celebrated the chapter's 14th anniversary in March. Members Pat Kinamore and Linda Buckmueller were interviewed by KSDK Television at a student organized Day of Concern where Lt. Gov. Kenneth Rothman and several state congressmen spoke. Chapter members had attended the rally as a group.

Northeast, Delta Sigma—For the first time in the past six years, an all female team placed in the Blue Key sponsored Campus Bowl. And the team, copping third place honors, consisted of Delta Zetas Kelly Drury, Peggy Schoen, seniors, and Beth Harmon and Lisa Heath, sophomores. Peggy was named to Blue Key's All Star Team. Delta Sigma received the President's Scholarship Cup for sorority scholarship at the Panhellenic Banquet. The chapter initiated 18 new members in February. Peggy Schoen is Valedictorian of this year's graduating class, the first Greek ever to earn the honor. Her cumulative grade point is a perfect 4.0! Cardinal Key honorary tapped Jane Barry, Julie Moore and Dee Werts. Members participated in the blood drive for the American Heart Association.

Northwest Missouri, Epsilon Rho—Delta Zetas held their informal dance at the university's new alumni house, the first group on campus to utilize the new facility. They participated in intramural volleyball and basketball programs, taking 4th place in the campus-wide volleyball tourney. Five members who attained a 4.0 grade average Fall semester are Susie Ward, Suzie Zillner, Sally Waller, Tricia Foley and Jeri Linn. Plans for Greek Week are being handled by Panhellenic President Sandie Montgomery. Two new Spring pledges filled quota. Michaela Neal is a member of Delta Psi Kappa (physical education honorary) and Lisa Volkens and Karen Bredemeier are members of Kappa Omicron Phi (home economics). Karen is also assistant editor of Tower, NWMSU yearbook. Kelly Hamilton is editor. Robi Chiles holds the University scholar scholarship and Nance Villirillo the University scholarship. Tracy Duggan, Amy Bruun, Yvonne Rinke, Diana Bishop and Anne Carroll will be participating in the "Air Rock Concert" sponsored by KY 102 (Kansas City radio) and Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

William Jewell, Zeta Rho—With the theme of Famous Firsts, Lambda Chi Alpha and Delta Zeta reminisced to the first Tatler skit at Tatler Review. The chapters worked for months producing the musical and were ecstatic when they copped top honors among the stiff competition. Diana Viani placed second in In-Between Skits for Tatler. Tatler Review is a fund raising production for the yearbook. The semi-formal Valentine's Dance was entitled Heart to Heart. Delta Zeta joined AXA for a beach party mixer. Five tons of sand, music, shrimp and crab highlighted the costume affair. Nineteen pledges were initiated in February and honored with a dinner at Dolce's Restaurant where pledge awards were presented. Patti O'Dell won the outstanding pledge award, while Lee Ann Wiggins' perfect 4.0 earned her the scholarship award. Melissa Scott received the behind the scenes award and Julie Evans won the standards award. Mortar Board tapped Kim Durnell and Deanna Steinbeck. Angie White is hospi-

NEBRASKA

Creighton, Theta Eta—Senior Patty Helke was honored at the Panhellenic Luncheon at Joslyn Museum as Creighton Girl of the Year. She also received the highest grade point average award. Theta Eta welcomed new initiates with a chili dinner and later added seven new pledges to bring the chapter to total membership. A successful parents' weekend included a mother-daughter tea, daughter-dad volleyball game, a dinner-dance and Sunday mass. The theme of the mass was gratitude for parents. Money making projects included a Valentine sucker sale. The French messages attached to the suckers read Je t'aime beaucoup (I love you very much) or Joeyeux de St. Valentine (Happy Valentine's Day). Donuts and M & Ms were also profitable fund raisers. A heartwarming chapter tradition is a Pearl Box. The box is present at every meeting and sisters are welcome to contribute notes of thanks or congratulations to the box. The comments are read at the end of each meeting, and may be as simple as "Congratulations to Gina for getting an A on her bio test."

NEVADA

Nevada-Las Vegas, Iota Phi—Delta Zetas and Sigma Chis symbolized the beginning of a new semester and renewal of friendships with a New Year celebration in early February. Balloons fell and confetti flew at the fraternity exchange. Members raised funds for Gallaudet and Founders Memorial Foundation with bake sales. Members are learning to sign the Delta Zeta Creed at their sign language class. Lisa Griffith is managing editor of Quick Silver arts magazine and Catherine Clay serves as Student Services Committee Chairman for CSUN student government.

NORTH CAROLINA

Atlantic Christian, Theta Omega—This year a seven-year-old first grader, Coleman Fonville from North Carolina School for the Deaf is ΘΩ's "philanthropy." The chapter attended a Christmas party at the school and presented Coleman with a large stocking filled with toy cars, coloring books, crayons, games, candy and an outfit complete with shirt, sweater, socks, jeans and coat. Future projects included a birthday party, kite playing party and Easter Egg hunt for Coleman and his classmates. Spring activities included performing Fifties Rock at Greek Sing, participating in Greek Week and Greek Activities Day, and the annual Rose Ball. Nine Fall pledges kept busy with bake sales, candy sales, delivering of Christmas message stockings and pumpkin serenades. Three more pledges were added in Spring rush. Valentine's Day was busy for ΘΩ's as they sold message daisies to add a little sunshine in the middle of Winter. In the true Greek spirit, Theta Omega helped sell tickets to a Sweetheart Ball for a new campus sorority. Ticket profits helped the new group reach their financial obligations. The chapter enjoyed socials with Sigma Phi Epsilon, Delta Sigma Phi and Alpha Sigma Phi. Sweethearts are Jody Eggeston, ΣΦΣ, and Lori Coleman, ΔΣΦ. Delta Zeta placed first in intramural volleyball, sold crafts, donuts and candy as fundraisers, and attended church services on special occasions.

East Carolina, Zeta Lambda—A Morale Corral promoted chapter spirit for Spring rush. Beta Zetas joined Kappa Alphas for a social with a luau theme. Valentine balloons with messages inside proved a profitable fund raiser. Members also raised money for the Heart Association at a party at Heart's Delight Ice Cream Parlor. Housemother Marie Dennis was treated to a birthday luncheon in January. Some of the sisters are getting into shape with weekly aerobic dancing classes at the house. The pledge class honored Susie Boyd as best sister. Chapter president Jill Britton and treasurer Sue Richards attended a leadership council meeting at North Carolina State. Along with Jill, Sherri Daugherty and Jo Beth Rambo were tapped for Rho Lambda honorary at the Panhellenic Scholarship Banquet. Cindy Cook won Panhellenic's Artemis Award. Sue Richards will be Panhellenic's new secretary. At presstime, members were preparing to defend their first place title at ΑΞΔ's Greek Sing, and were currently leading in sorority softball.

ing members remember how much Delta Zeta means to them, reports Alison Pitts, chapter editor. The Doozie intramural team finished a successful season of volleyball and basketball, and the chapter traveled to Greensboro for Province Day. Fundraisers included sales of candy and BBQ sandwiches, while pledges washed car windows and sold cookies for cash. Holly Sink and Kim Christopher represented the chapter in Circle K's Dance-a-thon benefitting the Heart Fund. Chapter president Bilye Rae Jackson also serves Phi Beta Lambda as president. Lisa Watkins, Laurie Jenkins, Mary Jane Lawson, Alison Pitts and Deby Wright are members of the choir. Pam Martin and Cindy Chaney are Junior Varsity cheerleaders, while Cindy and Pam join Valerie Austin and Myra Jenkins on the drill team. Myra is active in Playmakers drama group.

North Carolina-Charlotte, Kappa Phi—Charlotte's Rehabilitation Hospital needs $16,000 and Delta Zeta came to the rescue raising approximately $4000 for the facility's speech and audiology department. The major fund raiser was a Player Ball Walk, a basketball marathon relay walk covering the 25 miles from Davidson College to UNCC. The basketball carried was first autographed by Davidson's basketball team and then autographed by the UNCC team at the finish point. Each sister had collected sponsors for each mile walked, and a banner was made in appreciation of all donating over $25. The banner was displayed at the basketball game, where the ball was raffled off. And, KΦs are still planning projects to raise more

The Carroll campus in Wisconsin reverberated with the sounds of singing voices recently as members of Delta Rho Upsilon fraternity (above) and the Delta Zetas of Gamma Theta chapter gave a serenade for the engagement of Lori Mantz and Dave Rosenwald. money for the hospital. "Delta" is the new turtle at Discovery Place, a hands-on nature museum in Charlotte. And, as the name implies, the $85 turtle came from Delta Zeta contributions. The chapter was invited for a free tour and photography session at the museum. Nancy Kennedy serves Panhellenic as president, while Tammy Fraley is a member of Accounting Honor Society. Donna Stringer holds membership in Criminal Justice Honor Society. Candy McGinnis participated in UNCC's Dance Ensemble winter concert and Donna Stroupe captured a part in UNCC Theatre Ensemble's production of Wind in the Willows.

NORTH DAKOTA

Minot, Theta Pi—At the Flameman Fantasy Ball dinner-dance eighty alumnae, collegians and dates were present to see Carol Sims honored as outstanding pledge, Karen Foley named outstanding active, and Del Rae Williams chosen outstanding alumna. Alumna Jaime Lee, a Las Vegas teacher, recently appeared on Television's Price is Right and won $5000 worth of merchandise. At presstime, the ΔZ bowling team was vying for the overall championship after winning two league championships. Members participated in a blood drive and aided the Mothers' March of Dimes.

OHIO

Ashland, Theta Psi—Province Collegiate Director Lynnda Hoefler and College Chapter Director Alice Fetzter were present at the initiation of 18 pledges. Following initiation, parents who had been invited by Pledge Trainer Laurie Lee, joined the chapter for a luncheon. Terri Kapple was named most appreciated, and Jani Boyd was most outstanding pledge. Elizabeth Cunningham won the peppiest pledge award, and Penny Wyrick and Carol Wenrick won the fun titles of Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum. Chapter members hosted rushees to a taco dinner at the house. Balloon-a-grams were sold as a Valentine's Day fund raiser. And, the raffle of a black and white television set earned $500. Members volunteered to aid the Special Education Olympics held at Ashland. Inducted into Alpha Omega, Greek woman's honorary, at the Panhellenic Inter-Fraternity Banquet were Carla Henning, Marcy Miller, Martha Sisk and Erin Watson. Lisa Kast, Martha Sisk and Sally Woodie were selected for Who's Who in Greek Women. Twenty chapter members earned Dean's List honors. Included with their perfect 4.0s were Cathy Abonyi, Pam Booth, Carla Henning and Julie McCombs. Terri Kaple is Freshman Class President and Marcy Miller is Panhellenic Rush Chairman. Michelle Levere and Dorlores Henning serve on the Greek Affairs staff, and Janet Iley is Greek Editor for the Collegian campus newspaper. Jean Schyster is president of Myers Hall and Kelly Rettig is a resident assistant. Eva Gaw and Dawn Pinkley are participants in Eagle Exchange, sports center snack bar. Joni Bodell is manager for varsity basketball and Julie McCombs is Administration Assistant of Admissions. Student Ambassadors are Julie McCombs, Marcy Miller and Denise Hawbecker. Julie is also state treasurer for Council for Exceptional Children. Other members of the council are Beverly Parillo, Margie Penn, Karen Hurd and Pam Booth. Terri Kaple and Martha Sisk are on the orientation staff. Beta Lambda home economics honorary includes Cindy Burnley, Lisa Kast and Kim Lundquist. Members of the Campus Activities Board are Lori Cain, Tracy Johnston, Terri Kaple and Marcy Miller. Kappa Delta Pi education honorary includes Pam Booth, Sue Carini, Tracy Johnston and Mary Jane Ondich. A special touch at weekly chapter meetings is Jessie Brubaker, pep chairman, awarding the "crutch of the week." This special crutch is given to any sister who is sick, upset or depressed as something to "lean on" during her times of trouble.

Baldwin-Wallace, Gamma Alpha—The chapter took 2nd place honors at Interfraternity Sing, which is in its 50th year of competition at Baldwin-Wallace. Gamma Alphas sponsored a Valentine's Day carnation sale and sold over 300 carnations on campus. The campus Speech and Hearing clinic received a donation as a result. Graduating Senior Carol Biederman has expressed her thoughts in an essay which will be found elsewhere in the LAMP.

Bowling Green, Gamma Tau—Anne Marie Sferra, IT, is one of 45 students named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities at Bowling Green. Twenty-six of those named were members of Greek organizations, according to Wayne S. Colvin, Director For Small Group Housing & Greek Life at Bowling Green. He mailed this resume of Anne Marie's activities to ΔZ National Headquarters. In her years on campus, she has won the Ohio Board of Regents Scholarship, Bowling Green Supplemental Scholarship, Youngstown Youth Scholarship, Lewis F. Manhart Award, McDonald Scholarship College of Business, and Youngstown Panhellenic Scholarship. She holds memberships in $\Phi H \Sigma$, $\Lambda \Lambda \Delta$, $B \Gamma \Sigma$, $\Phi K \Phi$, ODK and Mortar Board. She served ΔZ as president and Human Relations Alliance as vice-president. She serves as chairman of Orientation Leader Selection for the Orientation Board, participated in a national student exchange program to New Mexico State, and is a University Tour Guide, Academic Peer Counselor and Summer Pre-registration volunteer. She also holds membership in Law Society and International Business Association. With a 4.0 average in her major of international business, she carried a 3.8 overall average. Anne Marie was recipient of a Golden Torch Award from Panhellenic Council, along with Marianne Jones and Judy Market. Panhellenic also honored Judy with the Florence Currier Award. Serving on Panhellenic Council are Cindy Nelson, Faculty Relations chairman, and Paula Stewart, University Activities organization chairman. Judy Market is a representative-at-large for student government. Philanthropy chairman Dolly Luxon organized a Presidents' Acquisition Dinner for fraternity presidents. After a filling meal, the men were weighed and charged five cents a pound. The \$165 collected went to Gallaudet College. Standards chairman Denise Stefanec arranged a chapter fitness class with Corky Strong, women's cheerleader coach, as instructor in aerobic dance. Gamma Tau honored a string trio with a reception following a concert in the Musical Arts building. ΔZ is the first Greek organization to coordinate an event with the Bowling Green music department. Delta Zeta won both the $\Gamma \Phi B$ Bowling Tournament and the $K \Sigma$ Curling Tournament. Other philanthropy activities included participation in the Tip-Over for Hemophilia and Delta Gamma Anchor Splash.

Findlay, Theta Tau—The chapter welcomed Ohio Northern-ZK, and Province Collegiate Director Lynnda Hoeffer for a joint Founders Day celebration. Maureen Galvin received the Dean C. Morey Award. A chapter team participated in a domino tip-over for Hemophilia and raised $73 for Northwest Ohio Hemophilia Foundation. Members Christmas caroled for the elderly and donated to the March of Dimes. Theta Chi chose Maureen Galvin as their sweetheart. Holly Harshman is publicity chairman for Circle K. Sharyl Renner is Freshman Class President. Jacquie Pence is a Panhellenic officer and resident assistant. Who's Who and Aristos Eklektos tapped Pam Morgan, president of the Marketing Club. Alumnae Linda Smith and Barbara Shelton provided some interesting chapter standards programs. Barbara taught the chapter's history, while Linda taught basic sign language for the deaf. Alumnae and collegians joined for a jazzercise session one night. Collegians helped alumnae with their annual Christmas bazaar and treated parents to dinner at the house during Parents' Weekend.

Miami, Alpha—Thirty-one new initiates increased the chapter size to 127. Delta Zeta teamed with ΣAE and $B \Theta \Pi$ in Songfest 1982. Nancy Prittie choreographed the event. Delta Zetas donned gangster and flapper costumes as they stepped back in time at the Great Gatsby Date Party. Patty Schaeffer is president of Panhellenic Council, and Beth Ballreich is a member of Order of Omega Greek honorary. Mary Beth Miles was named outstanding pledge among all sorority pledge classes. Marketing honorary Mu Kappa Tau tapped Lori Eyler. Michelle Roberts is treasurer for Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman honorary.

Wright State, Kappa Iota—Shelly O'Meara, president of Kappa Iota, was crowned 1982 Homecoming Queen. The University Center Board sponsored a Wright State Dating Game and Shelly was selected to be a contestant. She was chosen as a "date" and they dined at Chi Chi's Mexican cuisine restaurant.

OKLAHOMA

Central State, Epsilon Upsilon—More than 100 people attended Delta Zeta's Bean Supper in February. Members and pledges had spent all afternoon preparing pot after pot of beans and pan after pan of cornbread to feed the hungry customers. The $250 earned was used to offset expenses for Killarney. Members also raised $800 for Killarney expenses with a chapter slave sale. Any winning bid of $20 or more bought a pie in the face and the fraternities loved it! Delta Zetas collected $900 in all campus campaign for the American Heart Association, which totaled $3750. Sweethearts of Sigma Tau Gamma are Sherry Spencer and Nina Pitezel. Polly Pitezel is School Spirit and Social Activities chairman for the Student Senate. Sheryl Kudy serves Alpha Chi as president and Sigma Delta Chi as treasurer. Jamee Neal is chairman for campus beautification for the Student Senate. Ipek Ucucu, president of Toastmasters, was one of the finalists for outstanding senior woman. Kelly Gordon was honored as most active member of High School College Relations Board. Lori Holman is secretary of American Women's Society. Spring chapter events included an alumnae slumber party, masquerade party, candy sale, car wash and Killarney Rose Ball.

Northeastern, Delta Phi—Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities lists five Delta Zetas: Joyce Golding-Jolly, Donna Baker, Tammy Gilstrap, Beth Williams and Kay Wilson. Four members, selected from a field of more than 50 contestants, are pictured in the Phi Sigma Epsilon calendar.

They are Doreen Curry, Brenda Ballew, Sherrie Hogan and Heather Turner. For the 13th consecutive semester, Delta Phis volunteered the most hours and the most blood in the Student Senate sponsored blood drive. For NSU's Kaleidoscope Week, Delta Phi will sponsor a "turtle toss" booth during Carnival Day events. Donna Baker is editor of The Northeastern and Joan Billington is catcher on the varsity women's softball team.

PENNSYLVANIA

Drexel, Epsilon Zeta—Delta Zeta received the award for scholarship at Panhellenic's annual ball. Cheryl Adey was named Panhellenic Woman of the Year and Karen Winter won the scholarship award. Members participated in a program outlining the use of cardiopulmonary resuscitation in medical emergencies.

Edinboro, Iota Delta—Esther Wilson Campbell, IΔ '58, was recently honored by the college and IΔ Chapter. Mrs. Campbell, previous chairman of the Edinboro Music Department was invited as guest conductor at the college's Annual Choral Union Christmas Concert. The concert included music presented by her at the college 50 years ago. At the conclusion of the concert, she received a plaque in her honor from the college, and a rose and green corsage from Delta Zeta. Following the concert, friends and alumni from as far as 500 miles away attended a reception in honor of Mrs. Campbell hosted by Delta Zeta, Faculty Wives and Faculty Women's Association. Mrs. Campbell retired in 1968 and later moved to Seal Beach, California. Rho Lambda honorary tapped Vaune Pelletier, treasurer, Cathy Caplinger and Amy Hollingsworth. Amy received Delta Zeta's Senior Dream Girl Award. Suzanne Easler organized a Panhellenic Council fashion show, which all sororities used as a rush function. Maria DiOrio, representing the Harborcreek School for Boys, won first place (a membership for the Billie Jean King Center in Erie) in a citywide racquetball tourney. Chapter activities included a Halloween costume party for children of Sara Reed's Home, a brown paper bag collection for the Food Co-op, and money for a Thanksgiving dinner for a needy family. Members Christmas caroled for the elderly and homebound. The Theta Chi-Delta Zeta Homecoming float, King Kong, won second place honors.

Indiana of PA, Gamma Phi—Junior Trisha Balochko recently won a $300 scholarship from Pittsburgh Alumnae Panhellenic Council. The award is offered to women in a 30 mile radius of Pittsburgh carrying a 3.0 or better average. Trisha's qualifications included a 3.6 average. The scholarship is based on fraternity and campus involvement and financial need. Trisha is active on the IUP campus as a member of the Student Accounting Association and the advanced group of the Concert Dance Club. She served Delta Zetas as ways and means chairman, assistant pledge trainer and activities chairman. Pledges participated with the Christmas Seal League of Indiana County in the annual Tag Day fund raisers. Pledges lined corners in town and on campus handing out literature concerning the Christmas Seal League and its efforts to overcome respiratory disease.

Pittsburgh, Omicron—At presstime, members were working with Phi Kappa Alpha and Pi Kappa Theta in Greek Week activities. Omicrons attained 100% in blood donation for Greek Week and provided an entertaining performance at Greek Sing. Tracey Charles is chairman of Rush Revision and was reappointed to the Judicial Board. Laura Vaglia and Jane Hartline are members of Phi Sigma Iota, honorary language sorority. Jane serves the group as treasurer. Laura is chairman of RSA for Amos Hall.

Robert Morris, Xi Chi—The Fall pledge class of 12 was initiated into Delta Zeta in February, Xi Chi's first initiation since their installation in the Fall. "It was very exciting and inspirational," chapter editor Antoinette Scacchitti wrote. ΞΧ also participated in the 8th annual Greek Week festivities and concluded the week as first place winners. Although Xi Chi has been a part of Delta Zeta just a short time, this is the eighth time the group has placed first in Greek Week activities. They collected more than $500 for Muscular Dystrophy.

Shippensburg, Kappa Psi—You win some and you lose some, reports chapter editor Susie Zink, and Kappa Psi had its share of losses in intramural basketball. Their fancy footwork included tripping over shoelaces, falling flat on their faces and scoring points for the opposing team. The girls had a 0-5 record, but as far as being good sports, they were true champs. And, all was not lost, because the sisters had a lot of fun and that made all the difference. Seniors were saluted at the annual Spring Rose Formal at the Holiday Inn in Harrisburg. A successful rush brought 12 pledges, with Monica Loaiza, an exchange student from Mexico included. Monica and her sister are both attending Shippensburg. Members also welcomed their new chapter grandmother, Mrs. Margie Weiner, a resident of the Episcopal home. Each week, members visit Margie, who delights in the 63 new grand-daughters who love her dearly.

College Chapter Director Judith Kline has been named to 1981's list of Outstanding Young Women of America. The publication honors exceptional young women between 21 and 36 who have distinguished themselves in their homes, professions and communities.

Slippery Rock, Zeta Phi—Delta Zeta attained the highest overall quality point average among Greek organizations and was selected by the Student Government as Outstanding National Greek Organization on the campus. The later award is based on scholarship, activities and campus and community projects. Both awards were announced in the same issue of The Rocket, college newspaper. Sisters celebrated Valentine's Day with a Valentine Crush Party. Zeta Phi sponsored a campus-wide blood bank drive in late February, and enjoyed a pajama party sleepover with Spring informal pledges. The sleepover was held at a sister's apartment and provided a wonderful get-together, complete with punch, vegetables, dip and games. Delta Zeta's Golden Crest Awards went to Jan Kline, Lisa Moschella and Gretta Graham. Robyn Lawther was named outstanding Zeta Phi senior. Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities lists Christian Beres, Amy Freisleben, Gretta Graham, Lynn Jobe and Deborah Marcius.

SOUTH CAROLINA

South Carolina, Beta Delta—Jamie Hammill, BD, will represent the city of Charleston in the Miss South Carolina Pageant this summer. Jamie plays the grand concert harp in talent competition. She also represents Delta Zeta as a Panhellenic rush counselor in Fall rush. Katie Eaton serves the Women in Business as co-chairman of fund raisers. Tina Fountain represented Delta Zeta at a luncheon honoring volunteers of Project Scooter, school for hearing impaired children. Leish Stump is active in dorm government. Cheryl Roberts, marched with the Carolina Marching Band this fall and is currently a clarinetist in the USC Symphonic Band I. Christine Murphy is a member of the University Chorus and Sheryl Foreman was a member of the Carolina Coquettes dance line. Diane Kunst won the all-star award in Buster Bowl, sorority football. Gamma Beta Phi honorary chose Roberta Gause as a member. Beta Delta initiated 25 pledges at the first of the year, bringing initiate total to 70. At an initiation banquet at Carolina Townhouse, senior Tina Fountain and freshman Carol Monson won the best big and Little Sister award. Ten sisters represented ΔZ in Follies, a musical dance production during Greek Week. At a recent standards program a speaker from Sistercare, a home for abused women and children, spoke to the chapter. BD's are adding Sistercare to their list of philanthropy projects.

Winthrop, Lambda Sigma—Homecoming was the biggest event on campus during second semester and Delta Zeta won the overall spirit award for participation during the event. Sallie Warren represented Delta Zeta on the Homecoming Court, and the chapter placed first in promotion, second in poster competition, and first in float competition. Activities chairman Teresa Taylor directed Homecoming plans for Lambda Sigma. Thirteen pledges filled with love and spirit were added in Spring rush. The Kappa Pledge Class attended church together every Sunday. Delta Zeta placed first among Greek organizations during the blood drive, and sponsors three grandparents at a nursing home in Rock Hill. The chapter celebrated its fifth year on campus with a ceremony and party. Kim Lewis is in her second year as head cheerleader, and is joined on the squad by Carol Sharp. Lisa Darling placed fifth nationally in Pi Kappa Phi's Rose Ball Queen competition. Nell Smith is Sweetheart for Pi Kappa Alpha. Robin Shealy is a member of Alpha Epsilon Rho and announcer for Winthrop College radio. Phi Kappa Phi honorary tapped Karen Giles. The President's List included JoEllen Cannon, Mary Durr, Nancy Lubitz and Mary Katherine Phillip. Mary Katherine joins Karen Giles, Lisa Cheek, Robin Shealy and Carolyn Dorsey as resident aides. Karen Giles is a Chief Marshall, one of ten top students in the class.

Karen Keith, North Texas State-KZ freshman will be participating in the Miss Texas USA Pageant in August.

TEXAS

Angelo State, Lambda Omicron—The chapter hosted a Province XVII President's Retreat and enjoyed meeting the new chapter presidents and executive officers. An inspiration night at ASU Lakehouse found big sisters presenting new initiates with paddles and poems. Lambda Omicron has continued its monthly philanthropy project — bowling day for the mentally retarded adults in San Angelo. The event has become a big and little sister project and all sorority families are encouraged to attend. Delta Zeta placed second in Greek Volleyball Tournament and first in the Greek Softball Tournament. Melody McDonald holds nine first place medals in solo and strut competitions from the National Baton Twirling Association. Laine Bayer and Pam Walker were tapped for Alpha Chi Honor Society, for juniors and seniors with top grade point averages.

Houston, Delta Theta—Delta Zeta swept every event in the 26th annual Sigma Chi Derby Week to capture first place overall for a record-breaking sixth time. The event provided an opportunity for sororities to compete in events as fraternity house decoration, a Mystery Sig Contest (where girls find the ΣΧ hidden somewhere on campus), a Derby Chase, skit contest and series of games. Sororities are judged on spirit, participation, skill and originality. Cynthia Lynne Yohe, ΔZ, reigned as Derby Day Dolly. Contestants are judged on poise, scholarship and general knowledge of ΣΧ history. Cheryl Hawinson was named Sigma Chi Fight Night Queen at the annual all-school boxing extravaganza. Earning Dean's List honors with perfect 4.0s were Rebecca Brauer and Janet Mosely. Delta Thetas joined Sigma Chis to sponsor a Trampathon during Homecoming to raise money for the ΔZ-ΣΧ scholarship fund at U of H. The Fall pledge class raised over $200 with a car wash and bake sale, and presented the chapter with a color movie camera at the Rose Formal. Kay Fink, Southwest-IA, is new College Chapter Director of Delta Theta. Kay succeeds Merry Westbrook Adamcik, ΔΘ, who now serves as Province Collegiate Director.

North Texas, Kappa Zeta—Several good ideas are turning into exciting and rewarding programs. Standards chairman Marsha Day has established an exercise class, led by Karen Keith, and members could tour Ft. Worth or Dallas Art Museums on Sunday Museum Day. Chaplain Jean Morris has started a Sunday night Bible study group to discuss areas as relationship, family, love and marriage. To promote spirit, a sunshine box is available for notes of encouragement and fun to sisters. Comments are read at Monday night meetings. Sisterhood-Spirit chairman

Laurel Bartels, North Texas State-KZ freshman will be participating in the Miss Texas USA Pageant in August.

Gaye Leonard, organized the sunshine box and also honors a sister of the week. And, there's a complaint and criticism box, too, to help keep the chapter running smoothly. Corine Cesario was one of the organizers of a workshop of self acceptance and group communication presented to KZ by North Texas Leadership Training. Kappa Zeta honored Ft. Worth, Denton, Lewisville and Dallas alumnae with an alumnae brunch. Members traveled to Fort Worth for Province Weekend. The catchy Texas theme was Delta Zeta Round-Up. Nineteen pledges were initiated in February and six girls pledged for the Spring. A Parents' Day in March included a parent-daughter volleyball match games, songs, and a picnic, and concluded with a parent-daughter banquet at the Golden Eagle Suite in the Union. Delta Zeta sold tickets for the IKA third annual chili cook-off and participated in the North Texas State Blood Drive. Nina Pruitt and Kim Koger represented Delta Zeta and won the All Greek title in racquetball. The Greek system honored Delta Zeta by choosing its design for the annual Greek Week t-shirt. Debbie Watson is Outstanding Greek Woman, a Panhellenic honor, and Susan Resley won a scholarship as one of top five sophomores in the Marketing Department. Donna Gilbert is copy editor for the yearbook. Laurel Bartels was runner-up in IKA's Calendar contest, and Leann Berry captured roles in drama productions of Winnie the Pooh and Medicine Show. Lori Banister is a member of the Student Education Association. Laurel Bartels and Karen Keith travel to the Miss Texas-USA pageant in El Paso this summer. Kim Koger was chosen a teaching fellow in the Spanish Department at NTSU.

Pan American, Theta Omicron—Chapter president Gloria Garcia is a member of the Honors Program. Members invited all other Greeks to an open house on Founders Day. The festivity was held at the home of College Chapter Director Jane Cross. Members baked Halloween cakes for Pan American deans, filled trick or treat bags for the students at the regional speech and hearing center, and sold M & Ms as a profitable, but fattening, fund raiser.

Stephen F. Austin, Zeta Psi—Delta Zeta did it again! In Spring formal rush, ΔZ again pledged quota, 25, becoming the only sorority to fill quota during both Fall and Spring formal rushes. The new deferred rush system offers all coeds a chance to see sororities and their activities on campus the first semester before participating in rush. The system has proven that Delta Zeta appeals to girls both in rush and on campus as well. Fall pledges added excitement to the normal weekly routine by surprising initiates with a midnight snack, complete with bonfire, hot chocolate and s'mores. Fundraising chairman Lisa Smith took a new approach to raising money, as she eliminated car washes and bake sales, and got Zeta Psi's to "light up your life" with the sale of light bulbs. Members prepared tray favors for patients at Memorial Hospital for Christmas and Valentine's Day. Two cute, but slow, armadillos were Delta Zeta's entries in Sigma Tau Gamma's first annual Armadillo Race. The event benefitted Muscular Dystrophy. Fraternity sweethearts are Peggy Johnson, ΣX and Sally Chevis, ΠKA. Leanne Hunter was Homecoming Junior Duchess. Elaine Elder was named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Lucinda Simmons placed second in a national makeover contest featured in the January issue of

What does it mean to be a Graduating Delta Zeta?

There is a sudden, unexplained sentimentality that overtakes senior sisters. It strikes at unlikely times, while sitting around a dorm room watching an old horror movie or during an informal dinner meeting that brings everyone together. The pride and admiration I hold for my sisters always comes through at our Rose Banquet, while performing at Interfraternity Sing or even during a simple candlelighting ceremony.

One poignant example of sisterhood occurred when Sandy, of our Gamma Alpha chapter, recently lost her father. During the inspiration of a candlelighting ceremony, Sandy's poem was accompanied by a tearful "thanks" to her sisters—her friends—who had supported her and helped her through a very difficult time. This is the true meaning—and function—of sisterhood.

When we, as seniors, know that we'll be graduating with such wonderful, heartfelt memories, we'll be ready to accept life's new challenges. In gaining our alumnae status, we can begin to help our chapter and our sisters in broader, more far-reaching terms. That love and support we felt among our chapter members will extend itself as we move to different parts of the country, into career and family settings, and—best of all—into new opportunities to show others that Delta Zeta sisterhood does, indeed, endure.

Woman's Day.

Southwestern, Gamma Zeta—Membership increased to 37 when Delta Zeta pledged quota of 11 in January rush. Competition is still strong on campus during rush, so ΓZs were especially delighted to secure quota. Delta Zetas were among the 75 to 100 Greeks that attended the All Greek Dinner in the Upstairs Commons to hear a speaker on personality, humanness and consideration of others. Delta Zeta and the four other sororities held chapter open houses in conjunction with the Parents Weekend Program. Fraternity and sorority pledges enjoyed Pledge Line, an opportunity to meet all other Greek pledges. The event ended with hot chocolate and donuts in the Union. Gamma Zeta excelled in intramural basketball, losing the finals to an independent team by only three points. Team members were Donna Taylor, Robyn Hall, Susan Hilgeman, Vicki Vickers, Kim Dykes, Sonya Smith, Kaye King and independent Patsy Garrison. House Manager C. J. Forbes directed a massive chapter room clean up following rush. The "Cage", storage area for large and little used items, was even tackled! Delta Omicron music honorary honored Martha Isbell and Beth Biar as Stars of ΔO. Leigh Anne Horton was initiated into Psi Chi, sociology-psychology fraternity.

Texas-Arlington, Iota Psi—Many pleasant surprises came from three mystery Delta Zetas identifying themselves only as "Turtleteers." The hardworking, industrious and loving mystery members boosted and promoted sorority spirit by anonymously doing good deeds for members. They left only the mark — the Turtleteer had struck again. The mystery-trio even decorated the house with colorful posters and adorned the Student Union Building, site of weekly meetings, with streamers of rose and green. Iota Psi initiated 11 fall pledges and added 13 new pledges in informal Spring rush. Delta Zetas were ready for intramurals when basketball finally rolled around, and captured third place. In Sigma Phi Epsilon's Water Carnival, pledge Terri Hatfield placed first in the Beautiful Beast swimsuit contest and pledge Cindy Bates endured a 24-hour bath tub sitting contest.

VIRGINIA

Virginia, Lambda Delta—Delta Zeta pledged a quota class of 32 in Winter rush. At presstime, ΔZ was in 6th place among 14 contenders in intramural sports standings, with high hopes for their traditionally outstanding bowling and basketball teams. Members welcomed their new pledges with classified ads in the Cavalier Daily. Here's a sample of their catchy ads . . . Well, Leslie Harper, welcome to sisterhood and a lifetime of Delta Zeta Fun and Friendship. I love you, Lois . . . Gina, sugar and spice everything nice. Believe me, you more than suffice. Love, Rebecca . . . A display ad in the Cavalier also welcomed the pledges. Members participated in a dance marathon and enjoyed potluck, a salad bar and a breakfast with the pledges.

Old Dominion, Theta Phi—Campus leaders include Lynn Vines, a student senator for the School of Education and representative to the University Council. The Council is an advisory committee to the president of the University. Diane Shiley is listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Alumna Sophia Bassil is representing Delta Zeta in the Court of the Azalea Festival. Alpha Chi honorary tapped Karen Adkins. Knights of Columbus chose Patti Twyman, transfer from Longwood, to represent their group in Norfolk's St. Patrick's Day Parade. Anna Stacy is Panhellenic second vice-president and handling Greek Week. ODU Interfraternal Council and Panhellenic held a Greek slave auction to raise funds for Greek Week. Theta Phi's representative, Karen Jackson, went for $21, the second highest bid. A car smash in the parking lot raised money for local and national philanthropies. The Fall pledge class volunteered their time as "Go-fors" for Superdance, an annual event benefitting Muscular Dystrophy.

WEST VIRGINIA

Concord, Epsilon Delta—Elizabeth White, president, and Janet Sneed, intramural chairman, captured first place honors in a talent show held by the Social Work organization benefitting the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation. Karen Tramel, Susan Hutson and Janet Seen participated in the Diabetes Drive. In fact, Susan was responsible for the talent show idea. Six Delta Zetas, the highest number among sororities, were named to the Dean's List. Included were Rennee Warden, Patty Riffle, Cindy Parker, Sarah Pate, Katrina Bragg and Barbie Cline. Cindy Parker was crowned Sweetheart of Concord College at the College Center Board's Valentine Dance, after students cast penny votes at the college Candy Corner. Cindy had used a lucky collection jar passed down to her from last year's winner, Delta Zeta Carmella Rasi. Carmella recently placed second in the Christmas Queen contest. Pennies collected in the Christmas Queen contest went to Muscular Dystrophy. Delta Zetas participated in the Heart Fund's Jump-a-thon and served on the Food Donation Committee for the Muscular Dystrophy Super Dance.

Glenville, Theta Xi—Dena Jo Dunlap was appointed by Gov. John D. Rockefeller IV to serve as chairman of the West Virginia Governor's Advisory Board of Students. The board, comprised of student body presidents of all colleges and universities in the state, discusses issues concerning each institution and higher education in general. Michele Bruce edits the Mercury school newspaper, while Donita Cox and Paula Bush are members of the Lady Pioneer Basketball Team. Mary Grose reigned as Sweetheart Princess during basketball season. Mary joins Donna Bumgardner on the Glenville cheerleading squad. Capturing roles in the campus production of Music Man were Vicki Parrish, Dena Dunlap, Doretta Pugh and Sandi Gainer. Sandi is parliamentarian of Student Congress and Susie Ballangee and Donna Bumgardner are senators at large.

Shepherd, Kappa Mu—Pledges were entertained by members attired in their summer finery (in spite of cold weather) to carry a Summer Fantasy theme. Even "Tattoo" and "Boss" attended! Kappa Mu welcomed five new pledges and joined them for an enjoyable evening of animated movies. Delta Zetas filled Shepherd's small bowling alley for a pledge-initiate party. Though gutterballs were the main attraction, it was a successful sisterhood get-together. Kappa Mu participated in Winter Carnival.

West Liberty, Iota Tau—Senior Tammy Okel won the Miss TKE Waterfollie title, a swimsuit competition. Delta Zeta also won the swim competition at the event. Sandy Albert is first runner-up to Miss Liberty. Iota Tau initiated 20 pledges.

Barbara Roach is captain of the varsity cheerleaders at UW-LaCrosse-ZO and is a Calendar Girl.

basic training and four weeks of technical school, she is trained as an Aero Space Control and Walking Systems Operator. She is a Senior Airman, club officer, expert rifleman, and member of the Outstanding Unit of the United States for Forward Air Control Posts. Zeta Betas participated in two fundraising events ... candy sales and first aid kit sales. Both were great successes. Rush parties included a lively volleyball game followed by a banana split social and a cookie bake, where rushees helped members bake and decorate turtle and heart shaped cookies.

Wisconsin-Whitewater, Epsilon Kappa—The chapter initiated seven new members and honored them with a gift giving session following the ceremony. New initiates received hand made gifts from big sisters, turtle plaques signed by initiates, and red crested t-shirts from their secret rose buddies. Members brainstormed for ideas for chapter goals and activities at an inspirational retreat. Connie Gretzinger arranged a Back to School Bash cook-out as a fundraiser. Buttons were sold for admission and the event turned out to be a successful fund raiser and great rush party. More women students now eat in the Union, and so do the Delta Zetas ... always looking for a great way to meet new girls. Members also enjoyed a Casino Night Rush Party, Make Your Own Sundae Party, bowling party, salad party and Inter-Greek Council Round Robin party. In Flake-fest, winter carnival game competition, Delta Zeta placed first in biggest snowball, pyramid build and caterpillar roll. Fraternity exchanges included a Phi Mu Alpha South of the Border party, Phi Chi Epsilon Toga Party and Phi Sigma Epsilon Shower Party. Others were planned with ΔΣΠ, TKE and AXA. Newspapers reported that Whitewater students donated a record amount of blood in the annual campus blood drive, and the EKs were among the donors. Members are aiding the Association for Disabled Students by reading tests and materials to the students. Members present storytime to community preschoolers at the library. Epsilon Kappas found a way to take a normally nasty chore and transform it into something exciting. The job of ripping up the attic for new insulation turned into fun as the Delta Sigma Pis pitched in a helping hand. Delta Zetas treated workers with pop and sloppy joes following the task. Jamie Linden and Annette Boyer received Hawkettes recognition awards.

WISCONSIN

Carroll, Gamma Theta—Campus traditions continue and perhaps the most traditional of all for Greeks is the serenade. In mid-February Delta Rho Upsilon serenaded Delta Zeta upon the engagement of Dave Rosenwald and Lori Mantz. The campus newspaper, The New Perspective, published two photos covering the serenade. For the second year, College Chapter Director Donna Agnelly crocheted a blanket for ΓΘs to present to the first baby of the New Year born at Waukesha County Hospital. The baby arrived at 12:01 this year — in the hospital parking lot! Light snow began at the end of a hayride, so members gathered around a huge bonfire to keep warm. Members and dates also enjoyed a semi-formal in November. Members liked selling balloons with Valentine messages, but the most fun was finding a place to store 400 helium filled balloons before the sale began.

Wisconsin-Eau Claire, Epsilon Omega—Delta Zeta initiated nine pledges in February, bringing the total number of initiates to 16. Women of Epsilon Omega presented an afghan, donated by alumna Denise Suenkel, to the first baby born on Valentine's Day at Luther Hospital.

Wisconsin-Stout, Zeta Beta—Sandra Jean Bullard has traveled to Hawaii, Germany and Canada since she joined the Air National Guard in 1980. After six weeks of Spencer Wright, IKA and Karen Johnson of ΘΓ chapter at University of New Hampshire, were recently elected president and vice president of the NH Student Government Association.

Meet Gelaine Smock

Indiana's PAD: A Lady of Talent

by Ellen Kroll Jenkins, Indiana-E
former LAMP editor

Province VII's Alumnae Director didn't get a bicycle built for two as a wedding present. But she did learn to balance on hubby's shoulders while he pedals his unicycle, one of his show biz routines. She also assists him as he performs on his bicycle during the show.

No her name isn't Daisy. It's Gelaine Listenberger Smock (Mrs. Steven). The petite brunette with sparkling brown eyes was initiated into Epsilon chapter at Indiana University where she earned a B.S. degree in Nursing. After graduation Gelaine and Steve spent a year in Anchorage, AK where she worked as a staff nurse while he was in the Army. That was in 1964, the year of the great Alaskan earthquake which, happily, they survived unharmed.

While Steve studied for his degree in engineering from Purdue University, Gelaine taught nursing there for four and one-half years. It was in Lafayette, IN that she first became active in Delta Zeta alumnae work. After moving to Fort Wayne, Gelaine joined the alumnae chapter there and added the joys of motherhood to her list of activities and interest with the arrivals of daughters Cinda and Christy. As soon as the family moved to Indianapolis, she was on the phone to locate the nearest ΔZ alumnae chapter and has now been an active member of the Indianapolis South Suburban chapter since 1973.

Despite Gelaine's involvement with school and community activities such as 4H, health programs and Delta Zeta, and Steve's job as a mechanical engineer, the Smocks still have time for show business. He began riding bicycles and unicycles as a hobby at the age of 9, but did not perform professionally until after he and Gelaine were married. They have appeared on television, at street fairs, shopping centers, industrial shows and night clubs in Chicago and throughout Indiana and Michigan. She enjoys rubbing elbows with full-time entertainers and bringing enjoyment to audiences of all ages.

When she began her PAD duties in the summer of 1979, Gelaine was putting the finishing touches on the new home which she and Steve built and decorated. To relax she enjoys reading, canoeing, camping, hiking, working in her garden and decorating.

Province VII is fortunate to have such an enthusiastic and hard-working Delta Zeta as Alumnae Director. And one with a bonus: if the energy crisis gets too severe, our PAD just might make her visits by cycling from chapter to chapter.

Harbingers of spring are the golden daffodils which have been lining the wrought iron fence in front of "our home" in Oxford for the past 75 years. With good weather, exterior work can begin on the house, such as painting and repairing the stone and brickwork. Restoration on the interior cannot be undertaken until the contracts of the students now living in the house expire in August.

We now have an architect, Mr. C. H. Barcus, a partner in the firm of Barcus and Swift, Associated Architects and Engineers, located in Oxford. Mr.

Barcus is the Acting Chairman of the School of Architecture at Miami University and his firm has built a number of the buildings on the Miami campus.

National Council has appointed the following Delta Zetas to serve on the Board of Trustees of the Delta Zeta Historical Museum: Norma Minch Andrisek, Carolyn Barnes Gullatt, Florence Hood Miner, Aurel Fowler Ostendorf, Doris Ellingson Riede, Dr. Elizabeth Rogers, Mary Lou Ragel Vineyard and Lucile Crowell Cooks, President.

Lillian C. Barna

A Superintendent of Schools

Lillian Carattini Barna, Hunter-TH, is superintendent of schools for San Jose Unified School District, one of the largest urban school districts in the state of California. She received her B.A. in foreign languages at Hunter of New York and her M.A. in school administration from San Jose State University.

Lillian began her career as a secondary school and adult education teacher in New York City. She later moved to California where she taught preschool, elementary, junior high and high school levels. Following these diverse teaching experiences she served for 13 years in various administrative roles including Early Childhood Education Coordinator, Principal and Administrator of Categorical Programs.

Lillian has been a consultant to numerous organizations including the Ford Foundation, National Academy of Science, Stanford University and the National Association of Educators of Young Children. She is a member of Phi Kappa Phi (honor), National Association of Administrators of State and Federal Programs, Women Leaders in Education and is presently vice president of San Jose Civic Light Opera. Currently she serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the California Association of Student Councils.

She was recognized by the California State Legislature for being the first Hispanic woman superintendent in the state. She has also been honored by the legislature of the state of New Mexico and recently was named Woman of the Year by Soroptimist International. She was elected to the Hunter Hall of Fame for outstanding professional achievement in 1981. Governor Brown recently appointed her to the Block Grants Advisory Committee for the state of California.

Her personal life closely parallels her professional life. She recently celebrated a thirtieth anniversary with her husband Eugene, a nuclear engineer. She is justly proud of her two sons, Craig, a student at the University of Arizona and Keith, a student at the University of Southern California.

She was an active member of the alumnae chapter in Long Beach from 1952 through 1960 where she served as president. A current member of the San Jose alumnae chapter, she has served as treasurer of the house corporation for Gamma Lambda chapter at San Jose State University.

tary for Zeta Nu. She served as vice president of membership for two years and as Panhellenic president. She was elected president of Zeta Nu and attended Convention in New Orleans where she was one of two undergraduates on the election and tellers committee.

Kim was a resident advisor for her dorm and served on the dorm council. She was elected vice president of the Ferris State Finance Association and was nominated for Omicron Delta Kappa (leadership).

Kim would like to live in New England when she settles down after graduation and wants to continue to serve Delta Zeta in some capacity. Terri Severy, National Director and Province Collegiate Director for Michigan wrote about Kim: "She is a vivacious young woman with a gracious loving spirit. It has been my privilege to work closely with Kim and share Delta Zeta with her. She is the Delta Zeta's Delta Zeta."

Interestingly enough, all five GML winners this year were presidents of their chapters and many of you had the opportunity to meet them at Convention in New Orleans. It will be interesting to follow their Delta Zeta "careers" ... they have each indicated the desire to continue because as they all said, "Delta Zeta is forever."

Fort Collins, CO alumnae chapter is proud of Golden Rose member Frances Sundt Rickard, New Mexico Highlands University-ΔP. Fran was recently awarded a gold and diamond pin by women of the First United Methodist Church for her years of church and community service. The group also presented $1,000 to the United Methodist Women's Division of the Board of Global Ministries in her name.

Fran has been active in Fort Collins church and community activities since 1945, serving on parent-teacher organizations in the local school district and as a volunteer for Foothills-Gateway Rehabilitation Center, as well as serving in all offices of the United Methodist Women's organizations and as a church building committee member.

She is also an active member of Delta Zeta, having served in various offices and strongly supporting the

As an undergraduate member of Beta Kappa chapter at Iowa State Ruth Horine didn't know that her marriage to Loren Book would be prophetic of her present business.

The mother of two children and a farm wife, Ruth has her own business which she calls Bookland, operating out of her home and reaching out with her Successful Living franchise. In October, she was recognized as their top dealer in the nation.

Ruth and Loren are an adventurous young couple, so it wasn't surprising when they joined the Peace Corps and spent two years in Micronesia where Loren taught animal science and family gardening. Ruth taught native teachers how to teach English. On their return the Books invited Maria, age 13, a Micronesian who lived across the road from them, to live in Iowa with them and attend local schools. Ruth admits it was difficult at her age to be the mother of a teenager of another culture.

While Husband Loren raises grain and livestock, Ruth reports for the USDA service on Iowa Crops and Livestock. She has recently written a profile of her famous father Bill Horine, wild life writer and commentator.

Opening her own book business came about when she tried to find books and records for her children. Through Successful Living, she is able to order the kinds of books, tapes, records and games that she thinks will appeal to her friends and neighbors who, like her are young mothers with small children. She especially likes books that answer questions.

activities of the Fort Collins alumnae chapter. She and her husband, F. D. are now retired from their business and travel extensively.

pleasing.

The petals collected the morning
dew, and sparkled as the sun shone through.

Nothing bad could ever be found in the lovely rose, so it never wilted and died away.

God looked down on the wonderful rose and was very touched by its great beauty.

He named it the Killarney Rose because it never grew the thorns of evil.

God wanted the whole world to see this special rose for it could bring happiness to everyone.

So he turned the rose into a Delta
Zeta.

Not just any Delta Zeta . . . but one as rare as you.

Former Alumnae Director Dies in Ohio

Delta Zetas are saddened to learn of the death of Sarah Stahl Beach, a former regional alumnae director and a charter member of Gamma Alpha chapter at Baldwin-Wallace College.

Sally worked with a Baldwin-Wallace student staying in her home to organize a group that was to become Gamma Alpha and she became a charter member when the group was initiated. She served as the first college chapter director and was a founding member of the Berea alumnae chapter. She later served as State Reference Chairman for Ohio and then as alumnae director when Delta Zeta was divided into nine regions.

Sally studied speech and drama at Emerson College in Boston and graduated from the State Normal College in Philadelphia. She moved to the Cleveland area in 1928 and left the teaching profession upon her marriage to Robert A. Beach, who was an attorney and realtor in Berea before his death in 1963. She is survived by her daughter Elizabeth Ellen (Betty) Beach, who is also a member of Gamma Alpha chapter, and her son, Robert A. Beach, Jr.

She was a past president of the Radio-Television Council of Greater Cleveland and was involved in numerous volunteer activities.

Alumnae Profiles

MARY LOUISE MOORE DONALDSON, MIAMI-A, is an associate dean for graduate/professional studies at the Vanderbilt University School of Nursing. She coordinates all activities for the master's degree in the nursing program and chairs the committee planning a doctoral program in nursing. She has served as a member and officer of the Faculty Senate of Vanderbilt and as a national officer of Sigma Theta Tau (nursing honorary.) Mary Louise's husband is Hale, a vocational rehabilitation director, and their daughters are Kathleen, Laureen and Maureen. Laureen and Maureen are members of Iota Iota at Middle Tennessee State.

THERESA (TAMMY) RYAN LOSKO, UCLA-AX, is currently employed by Quinn Martin Productions in Hollywood. She is Research Assistant to Executive Producer Bill Brade-man, but since they have a small staff, her duties are not only researching facts and literary rights, but range from story analysis to secretarial chores. Her husband David is a professional musician. As a matter of fact, she mentioned that while he was in college in Pennsylvania he played for several ΔZ dances at California State.

KRIS BARKER CARLTON, Concord-EA, is a full time mother and homemaker involved in all the activities she never had time for when she was a working medical social worker. Besides all the hours spent in the sandbox and on the swingset, she is on the Board of Directors of the Northside Girls Club and spends many hours actively working with the girls. She is also helping start an after-school day care program for underprivileged children. She feels strongly that with so many social service programs suffering cutbacks, volunteerism is more important than ever and feels fortunate to be able to be "unemployed" so that she can give of herself to others. Her husband Calvin is in oil field equipment sales and they live in Wichita Falls, TX with their young son, Cody.

GEORGETTE BUCKWALTER SANDIFER, SOUTH CAROLINA-BA, lives in Columbia where she is a senior travel consultant with Ask Mr. Foster Travel. She finds the business fascinating, glamorous and very hard work! Duties consist basically of booking air, hotel and cars for commercial travelers. For pleasure travel she helps people decide where to spend vacations (image the thrill of planning trips to the Caribbean, the Riviera or Tahiti) and also issues tickets and assists in passport or other documentation necessary for travel. Her husband is Gerald, a medical technologist.

PRISCILLA POHLMANN MARVIN, UCLA-AX, lives in Scotia, NY where she is vice president-owner of Waterwheel Village, Ltd. - a country store in Upper State New York. They age cheddar cheese, sell a full array of unusual candy, imported cheese and bake their own cheese bread. Also they heat with an old school wood stove in an old building that was once a water powered foundry. She is clerk and manager and reports typical conversations like the past around the old wood stove with her folksie customers. Her husband Langdon is a tannery owner and their children are Langdon II and April Leigh.

MARY KATHERINE SLATE McMEANS MacDOUGALL, OKLAHOMA STATE-AE, is a minister with the Unity Center of Positive Prayer in Austin, TX. Her background consists of newspaper and magazine work, secondary and university teaching, writing and lecturing. She has had seven books published and has more in the process. Her interest is people. She is a widow with five children and six grandchildren.

MARY FEICK HOWE, OHIO STATE-O, now lives in Spring, TX with husband John, an airline pilot, and daughters Laura and Katherine. She is a professional dental hygienist but is retired and volunteers within the Klein school system, demonstrating PET computers to 3rd, 4th and 5th grade classes. She has been treasurer of the parent-faculty organization for several years and occasionally is called upon as a substitute surgical assistant for a veterinarian friend. She's a Brownie leader and an assistant Camp Fire-Adventurer leader and her interests lie in computers, sailing and the piano.

ANNMARIE ROGERS PITTMAN, CONCORD-EA, is a professional meeting planner. She manages conventions and meetings around the country for associations, private corporations, societies and the government. This involves site negotiations, program arrangements, exhibit management and on site staffing. Her husband Clarence is a business executive and their son is Tony. They live in Arlington, VA. She also likes travel, dancing and the theatre.

JANE SOOTER WALLER, SOUTHWEST MO-EN, is one of three veterinarians in a mixed practice in Marshall, MO. She has been in practice more than nine years and her duties are mainly involved with small animals. She does clinic work as well as surgery. She also teaches an evening class for junior high students at the local vocational technical school. Her husband Wendell is in farming and their daughters are Wendy and Amy. Jane is interested in all things pertaining to animals and also enjoys gardening and needlepoint.

JANELLE HICKS STELTZLEN, GEORGIA STATE-AA, is an attorney in solo practice in Tulsa, OK, specializing in tax planning, estate planning, real estate, oil, gas and corporate business. She is also a registered dietitian and consultant for two hospitals for emotionally disturbed teenagers. Janelle's husband Gerald is a medical science liaison and their children are Gerald III and Christa Diane. She is interested in children's activities, swimming, jogging and needlework.

AUDREY YONKUS KARNES, MICHIGAN TECH-AO, lives in Bismarck, ND where she is a consultant in the horse industry. She instructs riders in Western and English styles of riding. Her major area of interest is combined training and show ring jumping. She also enjoys horse show judging. At home she custom designs riders' show ring outfits. One major interest is keeping in touch with her ΔZ sisters, past and present. Her husband Kenneth is a surveyor and their children are Courtney and Kelley.

PAT HIGGINS LEECH, MIAMI-A, personifies the word volunteer. She has recently been appointed to the Cuyahoga County Advisory Committee on Children's Affairs and is helping to establish the Bellflower House, a place where parents can go to learn better parenting skills. Pat has served as president, treasurer, counselor and ways and means chairman of the Cleveland Eastside alumnae. She and her husband John enjoy traveling with their daughters Carlyn, 10; Kris, 12 and Kathy, 14, and their foster daughter, Karolyn, 14. In her spare time, Pat plays tennis.

CHRISTINE COLE CURTIS, MIAMI-A, was an air weapons controller officer in the U. S. Air Force from 1975-1979, controlling air force interceptors flying against intruders in United States air space. She supervised 40 enlisted people at one time. She was stationed at King Salmon, Alaska when she met her husband, David, who is an F-15 pilot in the Air Force. They now live in Hampton, VA where she is manager of a jewelry store.

Alumnae Profiles

JOLLY ANN HORTON DAVIDSON, DRAKE-IE, lives in Clarinda, IA where she is a member and past president of the Iowa Board of Public Institution. Appointed by the governor in 1973, she was reappointed to serve until 1986. She's chairman of the governing board of Iowa Public Broadcasting Network, member of Public Broadcasting Service Board of Directors and member of the board of National Association State Boards of Education. She also serves on the Drake University Alumni Board of Directors. Husband Richard is an attorney and children are Julie, Nancy and Richard. She's active in community theatre productions and in local and state levels of the Miss America Pageant. She also likes to travel and entertain. Jolly Ann wrote, "working on the state and national level in the fields of education and public broadcasting is indeed challenging and exciting. I feel most fortunate to be, what my family calls me, a professional volunteer. Not only do I strongly believe in the importance of volunteer service but am convinced that my ΔZ and campus responsibilities prepared me well for these fascinating appointed and elected positions."

SHEILA HILLIS NIXON, CENTRAL ARKANSAS-EE, lives in Tulsa, OK where she has been an elementary art instructor in the Jenks public schools, teaching art, practice and theory to 524 4th and 5th graders. She recently resigned for domestic duties and ΔZ legacy work with new daughter, Barrett, who was born in November. Sheila does free lancing commercial art work and was recently selected for Outstanding Young Women of America. She likes watercolor painting, her music (singing, guitar playing, violin and piano) and calligraphy.

MARGARET PEDERSEN ALFORD, CORNELL-B, taught school before she was married. She and her husband bought a farm and she went to work at Kodak to supplement the farm income "for a year or two." As it turned out, she worked at Kodak 29 years, retiring in 1971. She always enjoyed flowers so now owns a part-time, by appointment only, flower shop. The Alford's have a 165 acre game refuge, open by appointment to responsible persons. It is used for a local community college for bird study classes and the local schools for nature projects. Margaret and Ray live in Honeoye, NY.

TISH VIELMETTI OSBORN, MICHIGAN STATE-BP, is a free lance decorator working out of her home with her own hours. She does primarily residential, but some commercial offices, schools and churches. Her husband Rich is a pilot and their children are Mark, Katie and Jennie. Tish likes cross country skiing, biking, cooking, traveling, sewing and recently became interested in a study of the Bible.

JANE SEMPLE WOOD, CALIFORNIA-M, is the Community Information Officer for the city of Shaker Heights, OH. She writes the city newsletter, designs other types of informational literature and acts as press secretary to the mayor and city council. She has done free lance writing and has been published in the Cleveland Plain Dealer, the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, the Denver Post and the Chicago Sun-Times. She also does occasional volunteer publicity for local civic and charity organizations. Her husband James is associate editor of Cleveland Magazine and their sons are James, Jr. and Robert. Jane's interests are cooking and traveling.

Former Oklahoma City student is Moderator at TCU Seminary

Barbara Nowland, OCU-FY, has been elected Moderator of the Student Government at Brite Divinity School, Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, TX. She was installed at the Brite spring banquet in late April.

Barbara is from Oklahoma City, having grown up in the Pennsylvania Avenue Christian Church and First Christian Church and received her B. A. Degree in Religion from Oklahoma City University in 1979.

She is a Middler at Brite working on a Master of Divinity with a concentration in Christian Education. She is one of 53 women at Brite with a total student body of 200.

As Moderator her duties will be to conduct all Steering Committee and Student Government meetings and to be the liaison between the student body and the Dean of Brite. This includes meeting with, talking to and listening to students and their concerns and then relating these to the Dean and other faculty members.

Barbara will soon be a licensed minister and that means that the Dallas Area Association of Christian Churches issues her a license for a one year period which can be renewed. She can perform weddings then - the only thing one has to be licensed or ordained to do in the Disciples of Christ church. She already has performed baptisms and regularly leads communion.

Barbara Nowland, OCU-FY

Alumnae:

Our collegiate chapters need your voluntary reference on a special young woman you know who will be attending college where there is a Delta Zeta chapter. Your time spent in notifying that chapter about a valuable rushee is priceless. Each year many of our pledges are the direct result of a personal reference before rush. Please help all our Delta Zeta chapters and forward your completed reference for those special young women in your neighborhood, school, church, etc. to the college chapter director or chapter president for that college or university. They are listed in the directory in this issue of the LAMP. On behalf of all our Delta Zeta chapters, thank you.

Campus Sights and Sounds

A CONCERT UNDER WATER was conducted at Dartmouth College. Music was piped into the college pool via three special low-voltage underwater speakers. Concert-goers swam, floated, and snorkeled in the water heated to 93 degrees in the New Hampshire winter. Many were quoted as enjoying the experience but the music was also described as "sounding something like an off-key, warbling sound track to an outer-space movie performed in a small bathroom with the sink running."

VARYING TUITION could be charged at several Midwestern universities says the College Press Service. Schools trying to cope with budget cuts are considering charging more money for popular majors like engineering and computer science than for liberal arts majors that are less in demand. Some schools, like the University of Minnesota, already charge differing tuition rates based on program cost. (On-Campus Report)

WHEN THE OIL BILL topped $6,000, the Sigma Nu chapter at Maine/Portland insulated their 1812-built house and added a wood-burning furnace. They buy wood in cheaper eight-foot lengths, cut it to two-foot lengths with a chain saw, and then split it. The cost for heat and hot water last winter was only $450—and the brothers' hard work.

AN EXCHANGE PROGRAM encompassing research and teaching in marine science has been set up between the University of South Carolina and Stockholm University in Sweden.

TELEVISED SPORTS began with a 10-inning Princeton-Columbia baseball game broadcast May 17, 1939 on NBC from New York City. Princeton won. (TV Guide)

CLOSE TO HALF of the 286,000 foreign students in this country are majoring in science or engineering and, according to a recent study by the National Science Foundation, almost 50,000 foreign graduate students are studying in those fields.

WOMEN NOW OUTNUMBER men on American campuses by nearly half a million. This year 52 of every 100 students are women compared to 45 of every 100 six years ago. (Chronicle)

BLACKBURN COLLEGE (Illinois) students work at least 15 hours a week on construction, cutting grass, cooking, etc. It's estimated that they save the college one million a year. With a 500 student enrollment, they have built eight buildings including a library, swimming pool, and student union.

MORE WORK was done by eight students at Southwest Missouri under the direction of the home economics and industrial education departments. They renovated two houses used as girls' dorms. The physical work included plumbing and wiring repairs, stripping wood, painting and papering. The students also prepared research papers on some aspect of their work.

THE FIRST full-time, paid college fire department was established in 1935 at the University of Illinois. A volunteer unit had existed from 1900 when engines were drawn by horses.

THE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE at the University of North Dakota has received an award of merit from the Association of American Indian Physicians for contributions to improve health care for Indians and Alaskan natives. For eight years, the school has operated INMED (Indians into Medicine) to help young Indians prepare for a career in health care.

SIGN LANGUAGE. A Michigan State alumnus proposed to his girlfriend via the card section during halftime at a football game. The card section provided the service for a donation to the Student Foundation. The alumnus then reported "Yes" by a giant sign of his own. (Collegiate Hedlines)

ALPHA TAU OMEGA at the University of Nebraska sponsored the 3rd annual "Week of the Wagon" which included a Saturday night "Dry Dance" to show that there are alternatives to drinking. (Collegiate Hedlines)

EXXON EDUCATION FOUNDATION has given $15 million to 66 U. S. colleges and universities in support of engineering, geology, and computer science education. The money will be used to create 100 teaching fellowships and to provide 100 salary support grants for junior faculty. The grant is a special funding in honor of the centennial anniversary of Exxon's founding.

CIVIL ENGINEERS at Ohio State say "geotextiles" (as substitutes for some of the asphalt in roads) can lengthen road life two to three times. They estimate that using polyester layers will cut costs of building a single lane road as much as $35,000 a miles. (U. S. News)

THE FIRST WOMAN to be dean of a graduate school at Harvard was named recently as dean of education. (Chronicle of Higher Education)

JUST FOR SHOW. The marching band at the University of Georgia sports 16 tubas but only half of them are played. The rest are merely carried "for visual effect."

THE SAILING CLUB at Oklahoma State has volunteered its time and equipment to the university's medical and counseling programs for drug abusers. The club volunteered its eight sailboats, six sail boards and 46 members to help drug abusers master a sport and build a positive self-image.

A HISTORY CLASS project at the University of Missouri resulted in a city ordinance requiring a 5¢ deposit on all beer, soft drink, mineral water, and soda water containers. Columbia is the only city in the country with its own deposit ordinance.

"Campus Sights and Sounds" is provided as a service of the National Panhellenic Editors Conference.

from the lampwriter

Do you know what really makes an editor's day? All it takes is a delightful letter like the one I received from Betty Vinje Day of Ames, IA.

"Can it be possible that another quarter has passed since the Winter 1981 issue of the LAMP arrived? Evidently!! The Spring 1982 copy arrived today. I had planned to send a note of appreciation your way when I first learned of the change back to Miami for national headquarters.

"That was really a super copy of the LAMP for me. I thought Debbie Bruce's message on the inside cover was so warm and understanding. Then to see the possibilities in the current appearance of our future home and historical museum was exciting. I was truly appreciative of the next two pages of Mary Margaret's article about Alice Hanson Jones because I first knew Alice when I was a Beta Phi Alpha many years ago. (After I graduated and was married, my husband and I visited the Joneses in Washington and found them both friendly and interesting.) Mary Margaret Fore was my roommate at one of the Delta Zeta conventions a few years back when I was serving ΔZ as a Province Director. She, too, is a remarkably able and charming person.

"Turning the page again I discovered a delightful account of Beta Kappa chapter and its history. Since we've lived in Ames, Iowa for the past 15 years, it has been a bonus to have been involved with such an active and "going" Delta Zeta chapter. Of course, I always look for news of those collegiates where I once enjoyed visiting as a PCD, and was not disappointed. To top off everything, the back pages of my copy revealed additional news of BK's 50th anniversary! You can understand why I was so impressed with the Winter 1981 copy.

"Beginning with the spring issue that came today I was again reminded of my earlier resolve to write you, when I read about the Woman of the Year award. How nice it might have been to have been present in St. Louis when the award was presented to Alice Hanson Jones. I am so happy with the caliber of woman who is recognized annually by Delta Zeta in this fashion.

"Must not fail to mention that I certainly like the Campus Sights and Sounds feature in the last issue. Helps to keep us old alums a little better informed and thank you for including the NPC Editors information.

"It was 50 years ago that I was a college initiate and became a part of the sorority membership over the nation. Throughout the years, as we lived in a number of different states, I have enjoyed the friendships and activities that have been a part of my life and find it difficult to understand those few who do not choose to be part of such a group..."

Thanks, Betty Day. You made my day!

And then there are some more notes I feel prompted to share. From Claire Dixon in Warner Robins, GA, came this one: "Thank you for including the bit of Delta Zeta history with its reference to Theta Upsilon on your 'lampwriter' page in the LAMP.

"Perhaps there was coverage of Theta Upsilon at the time of the merger in 1962, but I was outside the U. S. at the time (air force wife) and could not join ΔZ until later. I have enjoyed tremendously my association with ΔZ and the experiences I've had but this takes nothing away from the college days as a Theta U and my many wonderful alumna activities there, too.

"When I turned to your page, the words 'The Walnut Shell' seemed to leap out at me, and a lot of nice memories about learning that in pledge class came back to me. Thank you."

And another one... "Thanks for your interest in Delta Zeta history which included the groups that make our sorority the great one it is. As an old Delta Sig, I appreciated our not being lost forever!

"So glad to see you are editor of the LAMP. Seeing your name brings back fond memories of our meeting in the Bahamas. My youngest was a baby when I flew off to Convention and now she is a Delta Zeta sister!" This one was from Wilma Robinson of Norfolk, VA.

From Avis Cullen in Oxford, OH I received this note: "We are very glad that the Delta Zetas plan to occupy the house at 202 East Church Street in Oxford. Many persons are looking forward to seeing this property nicely taken care of once more.

"We owned the property for over 25 years and have a sentimental fondness for it..."

Maria Ann Popa, who pledged Lambda Theta at Michigan Tech last fall and who was initiated in early January, wrote the following... I think you will enjoy it:

The Sisterhood of Delta Zeta

S is for my SORORITY which gave me sisters and friends.

I is for the INDIVIDUALS that I will stand by 'til the end.

S is for the SMILES of us all when we have fun.

T is for the TIME which I will spend with everyone.

E is for the EXCITEMENT of my love and sisterhood.

R is for the RESPECT I will show, for without this it's not good.

H is for the HAPPINESS I have found with one and all.

O is for the ONENESS that prevents us from a fall.

O is for OUTSTANDING, it is plain for all to see.

D is for DELTA ZETA; the sisterhood for me.

My friend Gus Kelleway (she was National Vice President of Alumnae and offered me my first Delta Zeta job, way back when) wrote, "You say you are not going to read anything but LAMP mail. Does Lamp-related count??? If not, skip the rest." Mercy yes... please keep those cards and letters coming. I love 'em!
