

The President Writes

Dear Delta Zeta Sisters,

From the Delta Zeta Constitution, Article V, Section 2:

The National Convention shall have the power to exact laws in accordance with this Constitution for the government of the sorority and to make amendments thereto; to transact business necessary to the development of the sorority; to formulate policies; to elect the officers and members of the National Council; to provide for the creation, administration and audit of all funds of the sorority; and to cause to have published and distributed records of its proceedings.

The National Convention is the governing body of our sorority and as such has much responsibility. So often we hear "National says" or "National does" -"National" is comprised of . . . one delegate and CCD of each college chapter in good standing; Province Collegiate Directors; Province Alumnae Directors; the Chairmen of standing and special committees; the National Council and former members of National Council. Each member is entitled to one vote in convention regardless of dual classificiation (Article III, Section 3).

National is you, represented by all the above categories.

The National Council invites each of you to attend the 1983 National Convention in Dallas, Texas, June 17-21. Come to your Convention.

In Delta Zeta,

Carolyn S. Sullet

Adrienne White

The Dallas alumnae chapter would like to take this opportunity to welcome each Delta Zeta attending the 1983 National Convention in Dallas. We are honored to have you visit our city and hope you will enjoy our Texas hospitality.

When National Convention meets in June, the building of an exciting future for our sorority will continue. It is my hope that you will renew old friendships and develop new bonds through this Convention. I am looking forward to both a successful Convention and to meeting each of you.

Best wishes to each Delta Zeta sister, and may the 1983 National Convention be a most pleasant and memorable experience.

In Delta Zeta,

Adrienne Jamieson White Stephen F. Austin-Z Ψ President, Dallas Alumnae Chapter

Delta Zeta from Coast to Coast Meet $\Delta \Phi$ at Northeastern Oklahoma

by Donna Baker NSU- $\Delta \Phi$ '82

Cradled in the scenic foothills of the Ozark Mountains there lies a small city—Tahlequah, Oklahoma ... capitol of the Cherokee Nation. Tahlequah, a town of 12,000 people, is rich in the tradition and ancestry of the most civilized of Oklahoma's Five Civilized Tribes. Picturesque old houses and street signs written in both English and Cherokee (the only written Indian language) are just two of the distinctions which set Tahlequah apart from most other small Oklahoma cities. In the heart of Tahlequah stands a town square, complete with gazebo, which is the site of the still standing Cherokee capitol building. (The square is now a center of native American artwork displays on weekends.) Tahlequah is also famous for its Illinois River tourist attraction: canoe trips. Every season, thousands of people from all over the world flock to the banks of the Illinois River to take advantage of the clear water and sunshine by "floating" down the river. But being the capitol of the Cherokee Nation and the canoe center of the world are not the only distinctions of Tahlequah...

of Tahlequah... Nestled on 200 acres of beautiful wooded grounds on the outskirts of Tahlequah is Northeastern State University. NSU has a long and distinguished heritage which began in 1846 when the Cherokee National Council authorized establishment of the National Male and Female Seminaries. Like Oklahoma, which offers tourists and residents alike a wide variety of scenes-from the hills and valleys of the Kiamichi and Ouachita Mountains in the southern part of the State to the rolling plains of wheat in the north and including numerous lakes and resort areas in between-NSU has grown and prospered through the years to become the fine educational institute it is known as today. In fact, NSU has recently established one of the few fully-accredited Schools of Optometry in the nation.

Although the university has grown through the years, it centers around the original Female Seminary Building (now called Seminary Hall) and maintains its original goal: to provide the very best individually-tailored educational opportunities the State has to offer. Its small size, 6,000 students, allows an intimate atmosphere with a ratio of students to instructors at 22:1.

Growing right along with NSU for the past 60 years has been Delta Phi chapter, the 115th chapter of Delta Zeta. Delta Phi originally began as the Xi chapter of Delta Sigma Epsilon, an Association of Educational Sororities member, on July 12, 1923. With 10 charter members, $\Delta\Sigma E$ was the first national sorority on campus. When it came time for Fall rush that year, the chapter started a long-time tradition by taking the two local sororities by storm and pledging 18 young ladies for their very first pledge class.

Then in August of 1956 Delta Sigma Epsilon changed its name to Delta Zeta. When National Panhellenic Conference suggested some former educational sororities think in terms of combining with NPC sororities, Delta Sigma Epsilon was the first to take the step and chose Delta Zeta for its union. Background and ideal similarities between the two sororities made the merger a natural one. They were both founded at the same Miami University. Delta Sigma Epsilon collegians and alumnae were initiated into Delta Zeta in early September of 1956 and the Xi chapter became Delta Phi.

The versatility of the NSU student population has always influenced Delta Phi membership. The chapter has pledged girls from almost every walk of life - from beauty queens to class brains, athletes to armchair addicts, and everything in-between they're all represented in Delta Phi. But even though the chapter's membership is so varied they all share one goal... maintaining Delta Zeta sisterhood and love.

NSU does not allow Greek houses. but in 1960 they "bent the rule a bit" and allowed the then three sororities one wing of Leoser Hall dormitory for their own. Each of the three floors has 20 bedrooms, a community bathroom and an extremely roomy activity room. Delta Phi's floor, which is in the middle, also has a kitchen. The activity room is the gathering place of Delta Phi sisters for television watching and study sessions and also doubles as the chapter's meeting room. Although it is routinely redecorated, one thing remains constant: the many trophies accumulated over the years are not to be moved except to be dusted and polished!

Delta Phi naturally stresses scholarship, but maintains that a member should be as active as possible in campus and community activities. Almost every one of NSU's 75 campus organizations has at least one Delta Phi as a member. Delta Phis have been presidents of many of the organizations in the past few years and have gathered more than their share of Who's Who and activity awards. In fact at one time recently, five of the eight NSU cheerleaders were Delta Zetas.

Although Delta Phi members are not the best athletes in the world, they do hold their own during Greek Week games and intramural sports. At least they're willing to give a big ΔZ go at it! But when it comes to homecoming floats or banners, Greek Awards, and scholastic and beauty awards, Delta Phi comes out ahead of most of the other Greeks on campus. In fact, when the old Pride of Province trophy was retired at the 1982 Oklahoma State Day to the chapter in the State which had won it most often, it went to Delta Phi (along with the new 1982 one!)

Traditions vary from chapter to chapter, but all have them. One of Delta Phi's is its "Candle Lighting" ceremony. Members and pledges sit in the dark in a circle on the activity room floor. The president passes a lighted candle to her right and it moves slowly around the circle. When it comes to the girl who is either "pinned, promised or engaged" she blows it out plunging the room in darkness. By the time someone remembers to turn the lights on the poor girl has been nearly hugged to death by her sisters. They then show their congratulations by giving her a "shower" the hard way-full force and cold! But it's all in fun.

Another tradition includes the annual Christmas banquet usually held in the chapter room and immediately followed by a mad rush to the presents under the Christmas tree. One tradition the new initiates enjoy is cleaning the ritual closet. They are always amazed at how much can be crowded into such a little space. Of course they have to tread gingerly because it is only cleaned once a semester and can accumulate all manners of things.

Delta Zeta from Coast to Coast

These smiling Delta Zetas are Lambda Kappa members at the University of Alabama in Huntsville.

Meet Lambda Kappa University of Alabama-Huntsville

by Michele Gentry Jones UAH-AK

The University of Alabama in Huntsville began January 6, 1950 in West Huntsville High School as the University Center. The original enrollment was 137. After three years, enrollment had reached 675 and due to a lack of classrooms, classes also had to be held in a vacant store building, City Hall, and at Lee High School Auditorium. It was soon realized that the Center needed a facility of its own. In 1958 the City of Huntsville offered 83 acres of farmland to the university for future development. The main building, Morton Hall, was completed in 1961.

Due to technological development in Huntsville, the University of Alabama Research Institute was created. On January 24, 1961 the Marshall Space Flight Center funded the first work done by the institute. A building was supplied when the state legislature provided a 3 million dollar bond issue to cover construction and equipment costs. The building eventually became a part of the university.

On September 1, 1966, branch status was officially accorded to the school and it was named University of Alabama in Huntsville. 1968 marked the school's first graduation ceremony. Since the university became autonomous in 1969, it has continued to grow. Today it is composed of ten buildings and over six thousand students are enrolled.

Like the university, Lambda Kappa is relatively new. Delta Zeta was colonized at UAH in the Fall of 1976 and was the first sorority on campus. January 7, 1977, twenty-seven girls were initiated by members of Alpha Gamma chapter from the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa. Every year since then initiation has been held near the seventh to honor the first initiates.

Philanthropy projects are a major part of the Lambda Kappa chapter's activities. Every year the collegians pariticipate in several fund raisers. They answer phones for the Cerebral Palsy Telethon and sell raffle tickets to raise money for the Sherrif's Boys Ranch. The girls also attend a day long outing with the youngsters. In the Spring, an Easter Egg Hunt and party are given for the hearing impaired children of University Place School. A picnic is held in the Fall for the same children and the afternoon is topped off with dodge ball, the hot potato game and a three legged race.

Marla Miller, this year's scholarship chairman, used an incentive program called the Pizza Challenge to encourage high marks. The big sisterlittle sister team with the highest grade point average for Fall quarter is treated to a pizza lunch by the other Delta Zetas. The grades were very close but the winners were Felecia Francis and Teresa Hinkle with a 3.0 and a 2.8 on a 3.0 scale.

All chapters of Delta Zeta have social events throughout the year. The Lambda Kappas have mixers, the Spring formal, a famous couples costume party and Christmas parties to fill up the social calendar. This year however, a new event was added: Pledges were honored at the Sheraton ballroom with a Fall pledge formal. The newest Delta Zetas were special guests for the evening and presented roses before a spotlight dance.

others cheer from the sidelines. The football team placed second overall but they were first among the sororities. The sorority also participated in intramural basketball during Winter quarter and softball in the Spring.

A very special tradition was begun in the chapter by Cheryl Hart. She presented to Felecia Francis a necklace which was engraved with a rose and the Greek letters for Delta Zeta. Since then the necklace has been given to a different sister each week. The recipient is chosen for her contributions to the chapter, or for something special she has done for one of the members. Since all the sisters may wear the necklace at sometime, it is called the sisterhood necklace. It is a symbol of the bond that all Lambda Kappa sisters share. Philanthropy, scholarship, social events, and sports activities all help make a well rounded Delta Zeta. But the most important aspect of sorority life is the closeness felt by the members ... love that only sisters can share.

Delta Zetas helped at the 1983 Cerebral Palsy Telethon in Huntsville.

Delta Zeta from Coast to Coast Meet Kappa Psi at Shippensburg

by Lori Laughlin, SU-KΨ

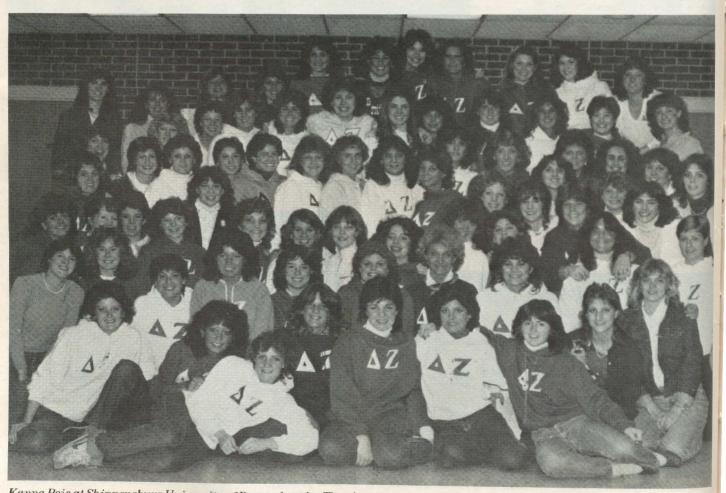

Shippensburg University is located in south-central Pennsylvania adjacent to the borough of Shippensburg, a community of approximately 7,000 residents. The town is known as the Hub City of the Cumberland Valley because of its central location between Harrisburg and Hagerstown in the picturesque twenty-mile wide valley bounded by the forested North and South mountains of the Appalachian Range. Shippensburg is the oldest community in the Cumberland Valley and the second oldest West of the Susquehanna River in Pennsylvania.

Shippensburg University was founded in 1871 under the Normal School Act of 1857, and it is a private institution approved by the Commonwealth. The first class was graduated in 1874.

Shippensburg has a 331-member professional staff and an enrollment of approximately 4,667 undergraduates and 1,040 graduate students.

Kappa Psi chapter was colonized in the spring of 1971 with the hard work of Field Representative Linda Graham Fisk, Mansfield—IO, and Judy Sherin, Kappa Psi president, who played vital roles in assisting the young women to become the second national sorority on the campus. Installation was on September 30, 1972 with 42 initiates.

Kappa Psis at Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania. They just celebrated their 10th birthday on campus.

Delta Zetas teamed with Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity in their Homecoming float.

There are 70 active members in the Kappa Psi chapter of Delta Zeta today, and each girl is uniquely different. Although we have differences, we do have one thing in common. WE ARE PROUD TO BE DELTA ZETAS.

The Kappa Psi chapter has won the President's Cup four years in a row. This award goes to the sorority with the highest cumulative grade point average.

Also, the Kappa Psi chapter is the proud owner of the Pride of the Province which has been the chapter's property for three consecutive years. Some of our other awards include best standards projects, best philanthropies project, and the Mary M. Brace award for the largest membership in the Province.

Even though we are extremely honored by our awards, we are more proud of some of our own sisters. One of these sisters includes Monica Loaiza. Monica is a beautiful exchange student from Mexico who has filled our hearts with love and happiness. Monica has made us laugh because of her confusion of some words in the English language. But, more importantly, she gave us a whole new outlook on the meaning of a "friend."

In addition to Monica, we are also very proud of a very successful sister named Suzie Zink. Suzie was crowned the 1982 homecoming queen, and she was the Kappa Sigma fraternity sweetheart. Suzie is a senior public relations major with a 4.0 average.

Another very important part of our sorority is our CCD, Judy Kline. Judy is a very warm and understanding person who has helped to shape Kappa Psi into the great chapter it is today. We are all so thankful to have a leader like Judy.

Another person we are proud of is our adopted grandmother, Margie Weiner. Margie is 90 years old and is living at the home for the elderly in Shippensburg. Margie has no living relatives, so we became her adopted children. Every week, a group of sisters visit Margie and keep her company. She loves our sorority and we really do love her.

There are three sets of sisters in our chapter: Dana and Amy Lily, Lisa and Val Snook, and Lisa and Lil Aiello.

The Kappa Psi chapter has been a part of many activities this past year, however, it is impossible to name them all. Here are some of the highlights: winning first prize in the float competition with Lambda Chi Alpha; receiving first place in Greek Week; having a winning group in the Phi Sigma 500 race; being involved in intramurals; having a Kappa Sigma sweetheart (Suzie Zink): a Sigma Tau Gamma sweetheart (Judy Breski); a Lambda Chi Alpha sweetheart (Robin DeRogatis); and having a variety of leaders in cheerleading, bandfront, drill team, sports, and student government.

It is not hard to pick out the Delta Zeta at Shippensburg University she is the enthusiastic girl with the happy smile on her face!

The Empty Chair

This article is reprinted by special permission from the Tomahawk of Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity. How apropos for all Greeks to heed!

It sits there, empty, at too many meetings of Alpha Sig chapters.

It's the advisor's chair. And that vacant chair is the biggest threat to the growth and development of Alpha Sigma Phi (and the fraternity system) today.

Where it's filled, chapters are healthy, stable and growing; members are enjoying and learning from their Fraternity experience.

Where it's empty, there are problems.

And that chair is empty at well over half of the Fraternity's chapters.

With a third to a fourth of a chapter changing every year, an advisor is vital for continuity. A chapter is a complex, living, fluid organization. It needs on-thescene guidance, consistently, to achieve its full potential. Without an advisor, the impact of national programs, manuals, programs, materials and annual consultation visits is often lost.

A national need

Shelley Sutherland, Indiana State University, president of the national organization of deans, the Association of Fraternity Advisors, sounded a warning to the Greek system recently: "With more and more national headquarters staffs being reduced and travel costs reducing field work, the role of the chapter advisor becomes critical to the future of the system."

Why haven't more Alpha Sig alumni come forward to help? Perhaps because they haven't been asked. As you read this article, consider yourself asked.

Alpha Sigma Phi has been aggressively trying to find and recruit advisors wherever it can. Sadly, the Fraternity is often having to turn to non-members for candidates.

"You may see an advisor listed for a chapter," Executive Director Robert M. Sheehan Jr. points out. "Don't let that stop you from volunteering. We have prevailed upon many to remain because no suitable replacement has come forward. Or it may be a case of an advisor in name only."

"Ideally," says Sheehan, "We'd like to see each chapter with multiple advisors—a financial advisor, an operations advisor, a housing advisor and an alumni liaison advisor." But the ideal and the real are far apart. And it is a concern. As Bill Butler, Executive Director of Delta Upsilon fraternity says: "Please don't wait to be asked to help your chapter; they might die during the wait."

What is an advisor?

A friend. Someone who believes in young people and will offer the benefit of his common sense and experience.

An advisor is not a director or a dictator. The major role is to offer advice when it is requested and when it is critical that the chapter hear it. Those two situations do not always occur simultaneously. Undergraduates often make decisions without the experience to consider liabilities or ramifications. The advisor is there not to make the decision but to make sure all issues are considered.

One of the greatest advantages of membership in Alpha Sigma Phi is leadership experience. A good advisor bites his tongue to let a group learn from mistakes but gauges the impact and intervenes when necessary.

An advisor is a role model—a living illustration of the fact that Fraternity continues after graduation and the values and principles taught in the chapter have a very real application in the everyday world. An advisor helps the chapter see the world beyond their own campus—in terms of the Fraternity, in terms of life.

An advisor is a resource—not just an authority. He's a counselor, available to turn to when an individual or the group has need.

Why be an advisor?

The pay is lousy. The job can be frustrating. It takes some time. (Not necessarily a lot: an hour or two a week. Consistency to build rapport and provide continuity are more key than time investment.)

The motivation of many advisors is loyalty to the Fraternity—they want to see Alpha Sigma Phi continue and grow, they want to "pay back" something that they received. Something that they got, often, because there was an advisor there.

Columbus, Ohio banker Charles Vohs, Penn State '72, points out another reason: "It's really neat to see undergraduates being so intent on absorbing what I know. They really go after my thoughts. I never realized but undergraduates are forming their values and opinions on matters from A to Z. I have become a truly meaningful and positive force in their lives."

Pharmacist Jimmy Sain, Alpha Psi '72, Florence, S.C. underscores that: "Civic clubs are fine. But why get involved in committees and never know if you're making a difference? Through my Fraternity work, I can see immediate, direct results. It's stimulating. It's a joy to watch a new pledge mature into one of the chapter's leaders."

Barbara Robel, Advisor for Greek Affairs at Kansas State University, suggests being an advisor is an opportunity to stay in touch with the college generation—to know firsthand what the perceived issues and concerns are. She says: "The position is one of the few jobs that will turn one's hair gray while keeping a person young."

Attorney Gordon Beeman, Indiana '68, Ann Arbor, MI, suggests another reason: "A good advisor helps a chapter stay healthy so it isn't a drain on the Fraternity's resources and staff... so those resources and staff can be concentrated on expansion and new programs, which is what a healthy chapter needs and wants anyway."

There are rewards

Automotive association executive Jim Hammond, Washington '66, Seattle, says: "As an advisor, I get a chance to pass on ideals and principles. I can point out that one can be in business and have standards and ethics. It's important that the next generations learn true values."

Advisors talk about other rewards. Seeing a group respond and improve. Helping with career choices. Having men they've worked with call years later to announce a marriage, a birth or a personal success and to say "thanks".

One advisor, who asked not to be identified, expressed his reactions in a very personal manner:

"A shocking percentage of young brothers today come from broken homes. Many have never identified with an adult figure. Many have had little training in managing their lives or anything else.

"The campus can be a pretty cold, impersonal place. The campus may provide some highly-trained professional for them to turn to, but they're not comfortable with them. They're comfortable at the Fraternity. And with me. They know I care. I may not be highly-trained, but I've kept an awfully lot of kids in school, kept a lot from making some serious mistakes. I've had a lot turn to me with some pretty startling personal problems and together we've handled them. Through Alpha Sigma Phi, I've changed lives in a way I couldn't do anywhere else.

"What do I get in return? Love. Brotherly love is what it's all about, isn't it?"

It is indeed.

There's an empty chair waiting. It's just your size.

"Undergraduate officers tell us that their single most pressing problem is the need for more alumni advice, assistance and help. Now undergraduates aren't perfect; their organization often doesn't provide the best leadtime in planning alumni events, and you may go back to the chapter house and be 'turned off' by the lack of housekeeping, but don't make fast judgments. Remember when you were in college ... was the chapter house spotless ... was it really? Or is that just the warm, wonderful way in which you like to remember it?"—Bill Butler, Executive Director, Delta Upsilon Fraternity.

Barbara Robel, Advisor for Greek Affairs, Kansas State University, provides this funny-but-serious profile of a successful chapter advisor:

- -Must be able to bite tongue frequently and effectively.
- —Must have good eyesight and be able to distinguish a mountain from a molehill at 50 paces every time.
- -Must have a tough hide, for he will frequently take the brunt when things go wrong.
- -Must have an adjustable hearing aid and be able to tune out loud stereos during a serious conversation, yet be able to pick up the slightest rumblings of chapter unrest.
- -Must have flexible timetable, for many meetings and serious crises will occur between 11 p.m. and 4 a.m.
- Must have complete set of fingernails, which are helpful for chewing during chapter meetings.
- —Must have a relatively poor memory, and never begin a sentence with "When I was in the chapter . . . "

The American College Personnel Association asked undergraduate leaders to rank functions most important for their advisor. Here are the results:

- 1. Provide advice when called upon.
- 2. Teach techniques of good leadership and fellowship.
- 3. Provide continuity with the history and tradition of the group.
- Help members develop self-discipline and responsibility.
- 5. Prevent the group from breaking university rules.
- 6. Supply the organization with information, expert knowledge and insight gained through experience.

Why Not Make a Gift to Delta Zeta?

by Lawrence C. Bragg, Esq.

Why not make a gift to Delta Zeta? You can do it during your lifetime or by your Will after your death. Depending on your financial situation, there can be advantages to you and your heirs by making a charitable gift.

This article is to explain how you may save taxes and be of service to your sorority. These ideas are general only and are made simply to show you a few ways to save taxes through making a worthwhile charitable gift.

This is not an exhaustive treatise. Please consult an attorney who specializes in Estate Planning before changing your Will or taking any action that may be suggested in this article. Estate Planning-gift giving is very personal and must be planned and carried out based on your personal financial situation.

I cannot emphasize too strongly that you must have the advice and assistance of an attorney who specializes in this type of legal work. Most attorneys are competent to write simple Wills and give basic advice on disposition of your estate. But where tax and estate planning is involved, most attorneys would agree that an attorney who specializes in this area is needed. This is a changing complex area of the law.

To begin with, we should probably define some terms so that we understand each other and so that you will understand your lawyer. We spend our lives working and accumulating property so we can live comfortably and provide for our loved ones. This accumulated property is your estate. Estate Planning involves planning for the disposition of your wealth in a sensible manner for you. Properly done it will reduce taxes, leave more for your loved ones and possibly benefit your sorority or other charity in the process.

There are several categories of estates you should be aware of. Your "Probate Estate" includes everything you own at your death except certain categories of property such as Life Insurance proceeds, Joint Tenancy property where the other Joint Tenant survives you, Pension or Annuity accounts payable to a designated beneficiary and such other items that are not controllable by a Will. Your "Gross Estate" includes everything you own including the items which may be excluded from your Probate Estate. The "Adjusted Gross Estate" is what is left after deducting from Gross Estate all funeral vour expenses, costs of administering your estate, claims against your estate for outstanding obligations, and mortgages or other indebtedness existing at your death. The "Taxable Estate" is the Adjusted Gross Estate less any charitable and marital deductions available to the estate. This amount, the Taxable Estate, is the basis on which your Federal Estate tax is determined.

Naturally, your estate will be reduced by any gifts you make during your lifetime. You can make a $10,000 gift every year to each individual recipient without paying a gift tax. A husband and wife together can make a $20,000 per year, per individual recipient tax-free gift. If you can afford to, this is an excellent way of reducing your estate size and thus estate taxes on your death with the added benefit of participating in the joy of giving during your lifetime.

We now have what is known as the Unified Estate and Gift Tax. This means that all gifts of more than $10,000 per recipient per year are included in your estate at your death as if the gift were never made. Thus, any such gift does not save any later taxes. It used to be that such gifts were taxed at a lesser rate than your estate so many people made large gifts prior to their death to reduce the overall tax. Such is no longer the case with one very large exception. That exception is charitable gifts. You can make gifts to a charity in amounts almost without limit, without paying a Gift Tax and which reduces your estate and thus your Estate Taxes. Some states place a limit on the size of these charitable gifts. Your attorney will, of course, know what limits you are bound by.

Gifts can be made during your lifetime as well as after your death. There are advantages to doing both.

For instance, you may wish to leave part or all of your estate to the Delta Zeta National Historical Museum. If you made part of this gift during your lifetime, it would qualify for the gift tax charitable deduction for income tax purposes. The income tax deduction would thus increase your estate by the amount of income taxes saved. As an example, if you had a $900,000 estate and planned to leave $100,000 to a charity by a bequest in your Will, your federal estate tax would be reduced by $39,000 because the estate tax charitable deduction eliminates estate tax on the amount that is left to the charity.

If, instead, you make a lifetime gift of $100,000 and you are in the 50% income tax bracket, then you would have saved the $39,000 in estate taxes plus $50,000 in income taxes, thus costing you $11,000 for a $100,000 lifetime gift.

This situation can be even more beneficial to you if you give appreciated property, i.e. property that has increased in value since you acquired it. This can be illustrated by this situation. If you had acquired stock at $2,000 which is worth $10,000 and want to make a $10,000 gift to the Delta Zeta Founders Memorial Foundation, a gift of that stock would give you a charitable deduction of the full $10,000 even though you only paid $2,000 for the stock. You would not pay capital gains tax on the increased value of the stock. If you kept the stock, eventually you would have to pay income tax on the appreciated value of the stock if it were sold prior to your death.

If you have paintings, art work, or collectibles that have appreciated in value, you may want to give these items to a charity. However, you will only get the full market value deduction of the item if it is given to a charity whose use of the property will be related to its exempt function. In other words, if you have items that would be suitable for inclusion in the Delta Zeta Museum collection, you can get a deduction of 100% of its appraised value. If you gave that item to a different charity that had no immediate use for it, than your deduction would be reduced to 60% of its appraised value.

An interesting method of making a charitable gift is to combine the gift with a life insurance policy. The policy premium can be paid out of the income tax savings and the interest on that tax savings. Your life policy may equal or exceed the value of your gift. This way you can make your lifetime gift and still maintain or increase the size of your estate. If the property you give has increased in value since you acquired it, your beneficiaries will be receiving life insurance proceeds free from income tax instead of appreciated property which may carry a potential capital gains tax when sold. Please note however, that to avoid having the policy proceeds included in your estate, the purchase of the insurance, and the making of the gift, should be coordinated so that you do not own the policy or have not transferred the policy within three years of your death.

I should also mention that there are many different ways of giving property, such as your residence, to a charity while maintaining the right to live in it during your lifetime. Also, you can give the income from an asset during your lifetime with the asset itself to go to someone else on your death. Obviously, there are many variations on these themes. Which approach you use depends on your needs, goals, and the ingenuity of your lawyer. These variations include the use of trusts and lifetime annuities. These approaches are all legitimate and can be tailored to your circumstances.

In closing, let me draw attention to two charitable organizations which qualify for non-profit status under the Internal Revenue Code. These charities are the Delta Zeta Founders Memorial Foundation, Inc. and the Delta Zeta National Historical Museum, Inc.

The Memorial Foundation makes scholarships to Delta Zetas and supports Gallaudet College for the Deaf. Mary Lou Barth is president of the Memorial Foundation and can be reached at 1662 Villa South Drive, West Carrollton, Ohio, 45449.

Lucile Cooks is president of the Delta Zeta Historical Museum. The Museum includes the restoration and furnishing of an 1890's Victorian residence in Oxford, Ohio which will serve as Delta Zeta National Headquarters. The residence will house artworks, furniture, and furnishings, authentic to the 1890's Victorian era. Mrs. Cooks can be reached at 7400 Sun Island Drive South, The Ambassador, Apartment. 404, South Pasadena, Florida 33707.

Both of these charities will gladly provide authentication to you or your lawyer of their tax exempt status. They welcome your contributions.

Successful Secret Sis Program

by Becky Griffith Gohring

After many years of close cooperation between Clay - Platte (MO) alumnae and William Jewell-ZP collegians, a program started 3 years ago has brought these chapters even closer together. The Secret Sis program has been a major link in strengthening alumnae and collegiate relations.

This year Pat LaHay Bullock, ZP, Secret Sis chairman from the alumnae chapter, worked with the undergraduate pledge trainer, Becky Martin, in matching Zeta Rho pledges with alumnae. Each alumna made contact with her Secret Sis by mailing cards, letters, or small gifts.

The Secret Sis chairman made weekly trips to the Zeta Rho chapter to take messages and bring back the pledges' excited replies. At monthly alumnae meetings, the alumnae were kept informed of activities at the college so that the alumnae had up-todate events with which to correspond with their pledge. As the pledges prepared for initiation, the Secret Sisters met each other at a pizza party hosted by the Clay-Platte alumnae.

The benefits of the Secret Sis Program have been numerous. Besides strengthening the collegiate-alumnae relationship, it has also provided support to the pledges during their pledgeship. The alumnae have become better acquainted with the collegians and look forward to seeing them at sorority functions. One of the main benefits reaped from this program is that the collegiate chapter has proof that there is an important role which a Delta Zeta can have after college; that is the role of an active alumna.

Loyalty Fund Supporters

The Loyalty Fund offers alumnae an opportunity to contribute to the growth of Delta Zeta. Following is a list of donors for the years 1980-1981 and 1981-1982. The asterix indicates a contribution was made both years.

The Rose by Judy Solarz, SIU- $\Gamma\Omega$

Delta Zeta is, a rose, beautiful in a simple manner. Yet amazingly complex. One looks at it with wonder-as if Something so perfect, so unified could not be tangible. But the simplicity is often as striking-for it is within this One small bloom that life itself can be witnessed.

And this we see in Delta Zeta, the beauty of the rose, The simplicity of life within it, and the love That pours forth like fragrance from deep within its petals.

As the rose grows and opens its petals, so we grow and Open to each other. Our vines intertwine and intertangle. Although sometimes there's a thorn or two, the softness of The petals overcomes the hurt and love grows even stronger-More fragrant-more beautiful.

As our vines grow thicker, we grow together, until our Bonds of friendship and love form an ever blooming field Of beauty, that neither winter, nor years gone by, Can ever destroy.

Meet $\Delta \Phi$ (con't)

Delta Phis fondly dub their college chapter director "the oldest living CCD in the State" and the rest of the Province agrees! Mary Malone Snider graduated from NSU in 1968 and returned to the chapter as CCD in 1974. At 34, she is the "oldest" CCD in Oklahoma, no doubt about it ... but she takes the teasing well and rejoins, "who else could have weathered ten such varied and challenging executive councils?"

Known for leadership, Delta Zetas at NSU will always be found in the center of campus happenings, whether it is on the cover of the campus Calendar Girl calendar or chairing a university committee. But their leadership ability pales beside the love and genuine friendship they give each other on a daily basis.

It was this love for each other and sorority which brought alumnae from all across the state back to Tahlequah in November of 1973 to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the founding of Delta Phi. It will be this same love which will bring them back this Fall for the celebration of 60 years.

Delta Phi has seen NSU sororities come and go and although it has had its share of hard times, it has weathered them and remained virtually unscathed during the many years of its existence. Those first young ladies of the raccoon coat and Charleston era of the 1920s made the dream and kept the everlasting flame burning, setting standards for excellence which Delta Phi has maintained for the past six decades. The chapter now stands at its total of 50 members.

From then to now Delta Phis have shared the special bond of Delta Zeta sisterhood which sets us apart from others and lasts a lifetime.

Field Representatives to Wed

by Nancy Walker, Field Representative

Traveling as a National Field Representative means meeting many interesting and special people. Take, for example, Colleen Quinley, one of the traveling representatives for the 1981-1982 school year. She met someone very special while visiting Gamma Lambda chapter at San Jose State.

Jon Lee, a traveling representative for Delta Sigma Phi fraternity, was on the same campus visiting his chapter. They met one evening quite by accident. The story of Jon and Colleen after that is anything but an accident, more like a fairytale.

Fortunately after their initial meeting, their travel schedules were similar enough so they were able to see each other at several locations during the Spring. Things were going great for this traveling couple and then it was Summer and the end of their contacts. Colleen went home to work as a lifeguard and Jon took a position as a resident counselor for Delta Sigma Phi at Arizona State. However, last Fall Colleen moved to the Tempe area and is currently working for the Parks and Recreation Department. They also became engaged last Fall.

Colleen, a Wichita, KS native, was a collegiate member of Delta Xi chapter at the University of Northern Colorado. A very active member, she served her chapter in several offices, including the presidency. After graduation in the Spring of 1981, she accepted a position as one of Delta Zeta's Field Representatives and started her traveling in August.

Colleen's younger sister, Patty, is now a ΔZ pledge at Creighton- ΘH chapter.

Jon is no stranger to the world of Delta Zeta as he too is from an active Delta Zeta family. While attending Iowa State University where he was an urban planning major, he was a favorite visitor to the Beta Kappa chapter house, always willing to help out. He graduated in 1981 after serving his fraternity as president for two years.

Colleen Quinley, UNC- $\Delta \Xi$ and Jon Lee, $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$.

Jon's older sister, Jodi Lee Moore, was BK chapter's pledge trainer, president and dream girl, graduating from Iowa State in 1979. Mary Lee, his younger sister, was the first recipient of the Golden Anniversary scholarship at BK, was pledge trainer and Panhellenic rush counselor coordinator. Mary will graduate in May, 1983.

Robert and Clarine Lee, Sioux City, IA, Jon's parents, have been Delta Zeta fans and active supporters since Jodi first pledged. They have held offices in BK's very active Colonnade Club, including the presidency. For the past eight years, BKs and their parents have looked forward to Moms and Dads Weekends and Parents Weekend and other family activities with the Lee family and all of the fun they bring to these occasions!

The happy ending of the fairytale romance is that Jon and Colleen will be married on August 13, 1983 in Wichita. They will reside in the Tempe area-while Jon finishes his master's degree at Arizona State. After his graduation, they are hoping to relocate in Colorado. The National Council of

She coordinates advertising and public relations for a range of accounts, including Big Valley Marketing, Boles and Company, The Clorox Company and Teletex Communication Corporation. She has also recently been appointed as a Commissioner on the Belmont Parks and Recreation Commission for the city of Belmont where she and her husband Neil now reside. Her husband is a consultant in direct mail and advertising. They both enjoy tennis, music, traveling and the great variety of living and working in the Bay Area.

JOANN WADIKE MILLER, Eastern IL- Γ N, is office manager/editorial assistant for National Forum, the Phi Kappa Phi journal. She correspondends and talks with authors (authorities in their fields), prepares manuscripts for the printer, proofreads and issues invitations to authors. Her husband Larry is a college professor and their children are Kirsten, Becky and Michael. Joann likes reading, houseplants, the Western square dance, cats and movies. The Millers live in Jonesboro, TN.

Are you unemployed, burned out in your present job, or entering the labor market after an absence of years? "Job Satisfaction: a Plan for Success" is taught by LOLA M. COXFORD, North Dakota, Y, a member of the counseling staff at Fullerton College and a career counselor in the Career Planning and Placement Center. She teaches classes on Changing Careers, Career Exploration and Creative Job Search. Lola is the mother of two children, lives in Villa Park, CA and is a member of the Orange County alumnae chapter.

ANN ZAMARIA CARBONE, Bowling Green-IT, a former kindergarten teacher, is married with two children and still doing substitute teaching. Ann, active in Cleveland Eastside alumnae chapter, finds time to work on all money raising projects such as garage sales, fashion shows and luncheons, sale of cookbooks and other products. For fun she plays racquetball, sews and reads. Church affairs take her time also as she teaches a class on religion. At her child's school she acts as chairman and coordinates various committees.

JANE ANCINATTI, Cincinnati- Ξ , also of the Cleveland Eastside alumnae chapter, is active in such varied hobbies as scuba diving and renovating and updating old houses, doing much of the work herself. Among her activities for the chapter are editing the chapter newsletter, arranging an alumnae-collegiate picnic and serving on an array of committees. She is office manager and administrative assistant at Marymount, a large Cleveland hospital.

LONA PHILLIPS MEISTER, Eastern Michigan-ΓΣ, a member of the South West Florida alumnae chapter, is an Orff-Schulwerk clinician who participated in the making of the first film for the American Orff-Schulwerk Association of America. While teaching elementary vocal music in East Cleveland, OH Lona became a recipient of an award which gave her the opportunity to spend her year's sabbatical at the Orff Institute in Salzberg. Lona prepared two age groups for this film. The Orff system is an approach in which the concepts of music (melody, harmony, rhythm, form, expressive elements) and the skills (listening, moving, singing, playing, creating, reading) needed to comprehend the concepts are incorporated into a full participating theory - that one learns by doing faster than by being told. The film, American Odyssey, is an experience of music and movement in a child's growing awareness of the world.

Alumnae:

Our collegiate chapters need your voluntary reference on a special young woman you know who will be attending college where there is a Delta Zeta chapter. Your time spent in notifying that chapter about a valuable rushee is priceless. Each year many of our pledges are the direct result of a personal reference before rush. Please help all our Delta Zeta chapters and forward your completed reference for those special young women in your neighborhood, school, church, etc. to the college chapter director or chapter president for that college or university. They are listed in the directory in this issue of the LAMP. On behalf of all our Delta Zeta chapters, thank you.

DELTA ZETA SUBSCRIPTIONS

P. O. Box 24145, COLUMBUS, OHIO 43224

OPEN LETTER TO DELTA ZETAS:

As subscribers to hundreds of nationally popular magazines, are you aware you can support your college or alumnae chapter just by renewing your magazines through the sorority? That's worth repeating! Each time a magazine subscription is ordered through DELTA ZETA SUBSCRIPTIONS...

A 10% COMMISSION IS EARNED BY A DELTA ZETA CHAPTER, AND

A 10% COMMISSION IS PAID TO THE EDUCATIONAL FUND TO PROVIDE SCHOLARSHIPS FOR DELTA ZETA MEMBERS.

Here's how it works. Delta Zeta, an authorized magazine agent, pays lower rates for more than 700 magazines with national circulation. These lower rates are passed on to chapters in commissions, and to subscribers in money-saving offers. STUDENT-EDUCATOR RATES are available on several hundred magazines, an additional savings to those who qualify.

This is a practical way for members to support a college or alumnae chapter, and an exceptional opportunity for chapters to raise money. Since members are not required to buy or sell NEW subscriptions, success in this program should be assured once members understand they can renew their favorite magazines through Delta Zeta and earn a commission for their chapter.

Mind-boggling success would be a reasonable goal if every Delta Zeta who receives this issue of The LAMP magazine renewed just one of her favorite magazines through the sorority this year. Gross sales for approximately 75,000 orders would exceed $900,000 and $90,000 in commissions would be paid to participating chapters. Another $90,000 commission would be paid to Delta Zeta's Educational Fund for scholarships. If this sounds too good to be true, hear this: In 1982, one of the national sororities passed the quarter-million-dollar mark in gross orders. It's high time for Delta Zetas to reach for fundraising dollars already theirs for the asking. For more information, write to DELTA ZETA SUBSCRIP-TIONS, P. O. Box 24145, Columbus, OH 43224.

NH staff members gather around Dick Lord,

Coopers-Lybrand Management Consultant, as he selects the winning chapter sweepstakes entry from Vicky Gust. Columbus (OH) alumnae chapter was selected. College and alumnae chapters are automatically entered in the annual CHAPTER SWEEPSTAKES when they reach gross magazine sales of $300 (presently about 25 orders). Orders postmarked between January 1 and December 31 are posted for chapter credits. Two entries are earned by chapters who reach gross credits of $600, three for $900, etc. The minimum requirement has been set so a reasonable number of orders can be reached by chapters with small memberships without penalizing a chapter of any size that has reached a high gross sales credit.

What happened to you after college?

Completed questionnaires provide information for our Alumnae Profile section and are also used as a guide to finding Delta Zetas to interview for other stories in the LAMP.

Ruth Simering 1897—1983

Ruth Simering was a devoted member of Delta Zeta, initiated into Epsilon chapter at Indiana in 1917.

Ruth will be remembered for her study and promotion of a flag which would display more truly the symbolism of the Delta Zeta ideals. Encouraged by National Council, Ruth worked with Betty Ann Turner and Marguerite Wherry Havens in designing and making the new flag. The flag was completed and appropriately presented at the Golden Anniversary Convention in 1952.

Another project of Ruth's was the Caryatides Awards given to "Those six chapters who have best envisioned and fulfilled a pledge training program that has brought enrichment to the new members and thus strength to our Delta Zeta Sorority."

Ruth researched the history of the Erechtheum Temple built in Athens in 405 B.C. She was especially interested in the six magnificent statues known as Caryatides which supported the roof of the portico. To her the figures symbolized our six founders and the beauty and strength of young womanhood. Ruth donated the first six statues at the 1960 Convention.

Ruth became a psychiatric social worker and worked with the Red Cross in the Armed Services. Her foreign service in 1942 was in Australia. Upon her return she was with the Veterans service at Downey Hospital in Chicago.

When Ruth retired, she moved to Evanston, Illinois. She followed AA chapter activities with interest along with many contacts with National Council, alumnae and other chapters. She spent many hours at the ΣAE National Headquarters studying the history and activities of the fraternity work.

Her consistent and sincere desire was always for our members to gain maturity and fulfillment and for Delta Zeta to gain in stature.

Violet Sharratt Whitfield, Wisconsin-T

Fern Riley Wilson 1900-1983

Fern Riley was initiated into Epsilon chapter at Indiana in the Spring of 1918 and from the very first was a person who found in her sorority a certain fulfillment of enjoyment and appreciation ... the kind of delight that is customarily summed up in "she loved every minute of it."

When she left college to become Mrs. Rodney Wilson she began a trail that took her, during the next 25 years, to 25 different homes in each town or city where she sought out and allied herself with the local Delta Zetas.

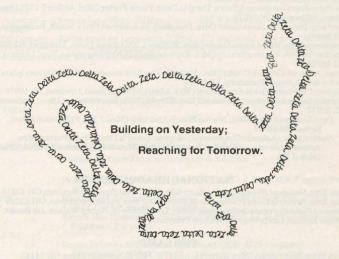

She served as chapter advisor, house corporation organizer, alumnae chapter president among other things but will be remembered as long time chairman of the Mothers Club which became the Colonnade Club for parents in 1966. During Fern's chairmanship from 1946 to 1957 she was instrumental in greatly increasing the number of clubs, of instituting. a newsletter, Column News, for developing a ritual for inducting members and for the creation of a national scholarship. The Golden Circle Scholarship is given to upperclass Delta Zetas of special need and merit. Fern also gave Delta Zeta her daughter Jacqueline, NU-AA, who is a former province director.

In the Spring, 1969 LAMP, Sandra Lowe Bowdle, OSU- Θ , wrote of Fern: "The wonderful quality about Fern Riley Wilson is that with her, Delta Zeta is for life: for all times and for all places."

National Historical Museum Board of Trustees toured the house at Oxford before the restoration started.

The Lampwriter

Do you remember the picture of the crowds at Daytona on Spring Break '82 which clearly depicted a Delta Zeta (Fall 1982 issue of The LAMP) and I asked if anyone recognized the ΔZ in the front row? From Dawn Walters at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, came this message:

"To answer your question. Yes, we do! She is Jamie Linden from the Epsilon Kappa chapter in Whitewater." There's a bit more about Jamie in the On Campus section.

My dear friend Bess McDonald Townsend wrote from Denton, TX: "The fruit of your labor has been truly enjoyed this afternoon - it provided a most pleasant and interesting time of reading. Also, inspired some action. In the mail is an order request for two copies of the new History of Delta Zeta, one for my own, and one for the chapter, KZ. The girls are being given a bit of a pat-onthe-back for the nice accounting they sent to The LAMP." What a nice gesture, Bess. Perhaps more will want to do the same?

At this point I feel inclined to show you a picture Field Representative Nancy Walker took of History author "florencehoodminer" in her lovely home in Nevada, IA. And I can verify to the authenticity of the "stacks and stacks." I was there and saw them! The Miner dining room looked this way (and sometimes worse!) during the months and months it took to compile our new History of Delta Zeta. And you only see half the room!

Historian Florence Hood Miner, IU-AB

Incidently, the "cameo lady" featured on the card insert in the last two issues of The LAMP and which brought to your attention our History in the writing was quite frankly "lifted" from the DeZert Alumnote of the Phoenix newsletter. My thanks to the alumnae and to Mr. Ty Bowers who drew the lovely lady!

From the Allegheny Mountain Association of the Amateur Athletic Union came news that our Vee S. Toner (Pittsburgh-O) has received a special award from the Armstrong County Sports Hall of Fame. She was honored at their annual sports award banquet for her contributions to amateur sports in both Olympic and Pan American games as well as a stadium umpire for United States Tennis Association and Wimbledon, England. Vee was the first woman to be inducted in the Pennsylvania State Sports Hall of Fame last Fall.

Space in this issue does not permit stories on all the wonderful undertakings of our alumnae chapters and only a brief sketch for Alumnae Profiles. Do know that I still want to include your news whenever possible, so don't give up on writing to me. I just regret we can't share more! Would that we had an unlimited budget for The LAMP production!

Lucky 13! Karen Parks was named Miss Morehead State University 1983 in an April pageant.
