Delta Zeta Sorority has an exciting future!

On behalf of the National Council and myself, we appreciate the opportunity to serve Delta Zeta in our elected positions. As we move toward our Centennial year it is such a special time for all of us in Delta Zeta, but it's a particularly exciting time to be a leader. We gratefully acknowledge the strength of purpose each of our members brings to our sisterhood and for exemplifying our high standards and commitment to excellence in all that they do.

As Delta Zeta has done for the past ninety-eight years, we will continue lighting the pathways of friendship. At our 44th Convention in Phoenix, we celebrated excellence and a commitment to excellence that will lead us through the next biennium. Along the way we shall remember and honor all that is the best, and those remarkable young women whose vision and determination made possible what we embrace so lovingly today. Not only those six, however, but the thousands of women who have shared and continue to share a vow for excellence, harmony, faith, and loyalty.

As we honor excellence, we do so secure in our sisterhood and its future. We do so with pride in past accomplishments, joy in recognizing today's achievements, and faith that what follows will reflect that same commitment to excellence that has served us so well these many years.

I am proud to serve as your National President for the coming biennium. Working together, we ensure that our Sorority continues to grow and remains strong through our sisterhood.

SUNSHINE & sisterhood

Delta Zetas Convene in Phoenix, Arizona for the 44th National Convention

The bright Phoenix sunshine streamed through the atrium of the Delta Zeta Convention registration area at the Squaw Peak Pointe Hilton in the late morning of Friday, July 7. Outside, amidst tall palms and stucco, a pink and green banner proclaimed, "Welcome Delta Zeta!" In twos and threes, Delta Zeta members in colorful summer clothes filtered into the atrium, their heels clicking on the terra cotta tile floor as they claimed registration packets and stopped at the Foundation table to make a donation in a sister's honor at the Rose Tree. Excited voices filled the air, and laughter came from a corner of the room where friends hugged each other in a heartwarming reunion.

The thrill of Delta Zeta's 44th Convention continued to build as visitors and delegates arrived. This year marked the third time Delta Zeta had convened in Arizona. Phoenix was home to our Convention in 1970; then Scottsdale hosted Delta Zeta in 1985. The Convention Committee worked closely with the Phoenix Alumnae Chapter in preparation for the Convention. Their tireless efforts and attention to detail created a Convention experience that no one would forget. Delta Zeta would like to thank the members of the Convention Committee and the Phoenix Alumnae Chapter for their work.

Focus on Our Philanthropy

On Friday evening, an elegant opening banquet would begin with a processional of Delta Zeta's National Council and Chairmen. National President Karly Burns welcomed the delegates and visitors to Phoenix at this, our first Convention of the new century.

The evening focused on Delta Zeta's philanthropy for speech and hearing. Heather Whitestone McCallum, Miss America of 1995 and the first woman to be crowned as such with a disability, spoke of her experience as a speech and hearing impaired child, and how that challenge strengthened her as an adult. She also praised Delta Zeta for the Sorority's work for the speech and hearing impaired. "I am so impressed by Delta Zeta's work with the hearing impaired and in bringing awareness to the public about the hearing impaired community," she said. "This work is so important."

In keeping with that tradition, Karly Klemp Burns and Marjorie Klingensmith Lovewell, Delta Zeta Foundation President, presented a check in the amount of $5,000 to the Phoenix Day School for the Deaf from the Delta Zeta Foundation. The donation was the result of a Convention philanthropic campaign called "Dream Catcher," based on the Native American legend of the woven web that captures a sleeping person's dreams. The money helps the school purchase audio/video and computer equipment, giving speech and hearing-impaired children and young adults the opportunity to learn.

The Delta Zeta Foundation presents $5,000 to the Phoenix Day School for the Deaf.

After the formal opening of the Convention and business meetings on Saturday, the Carolyn Barnes Gullatt Symposium featured Tom Balzer, Project Coordinator for Alcohol/Substance-Free Housing for Phi Delta Theta Fraternity, and Lissa Luton Bradford, outgoing chairman of the NPC and former grand president of Kappa Alpha Theta, as they discussed the NIC's Alcohol/Substance-Free Housing Initiative.

Delta Zeta's Newest Members

Delta Zeta's alumna initiate is Sue Lange Pickles. Sue's mother, Karen Hansen Lange ΔM, is a long-time member of the Phoenix Alumnae Chapter. Wearing the same dress her mother had worn for her initiation, Sue was initiated into the Gamma Lambda Chapter. Gamma Lambda has special meaning to Sue because she grew up in the San Jose area, and Phoenix Alumnae Chapter Co-President Patricia Knowles Wells is a member of that chapter. Sue thanked Pat for her help in making her initiation a reality.

Saturday evening saw a beautiful initiation service led by Ritual Chairman Patricia Menendez Tector. Chris Kolodgie Kern ΙΞ, delegate for the St. Louis Alumnae Chapter, said, "My hat is off to Patricia Tector and the Initiation Team for the most meaningful and beautiful initiation ceremony I have ever witnessed." Delta Zeta's newest sisters are the colony presidents from the Alpha Theta Chapter at the University of Kentucky, Reagan Mallaney, and Gamma Tau Chapter at Bowling Green State University, Rachael Fogle.

The Lamplighting Banquet followed, the banquet room ethereal with candles and Delta Zetas dressed in white. Sunday morning began with an early call (to beat the heat of the rising Phoenix sun) for the Convention picture taken in the South Garden of the Pointe Hilton. A moving memorial service was presided by Ruth Weider Patterson, paying special tribute to Helen Woodruff Nolop Γ, Past National President; Hazel DuVal Buffmire AA, Past National Treasurer; and Maurine Brown Neuberger Ω,

Delta Zeta's 1961 Woman of the Year. Also commemorated were Marcia Campbell Harrison  $\Delta Y$ , former PAD, Mid-America AAD, and member of the National Structure Committee, and Milton Nesbitt, husband of Past National President Sandra Nesbitt. The Rose Luncheon on Sunday honored Delta Zeta's alumnae and ended with a touching farewell to Pamela McClure Cronenwett, as outgoing National Vice President of Alumnae Affairs. On Sunday night, Delta Zetas relaxed at a Western-style barbeque held at the River Ranch pool area.

Building Leaders for Today

Monday, July 10th dawned hot and bright as alumnae and collegiate workshops began. Topics such as, "Building Excellent Scholarship Programs," "Recruitment for Undergraduates," "Forget Sprite: Image IS Everything," "Effective Communication: The Key to Great Committees," and "Visionary Leadership" provided excellent programming and learning tools for the Convention delegates. Sylvia Leigh Pardue AE, President of the Oklahoma City Alumnae, said, "I learned a great deal from the workshops about what we can do and what we can do better.

I was impressed with the way alumnae chapters work with collegiate chapters, and realized how important it is to maintain a really close and supportive connection between alumnae and collegians."

Collegians, too, found the workshops invaluable. President Kelly Edwards of the Theta Nu Chapter at Minnesota State University/Moorhead, said, "I learned more about Risk Management policies and fundraising ideas. I also learned more effective ways to keep my sisters motivated. I hope to become a better sister and show the chapter actives how to become better sisters, too."

And the Winner Is . . .

Monday night saw a glittering evening of awards. Using a Hollywood Oscar-awards theme, the banquet room was decorated with touches of black and gold, and film cans and gold stars adorned the tables. National Music Chairman Julie Stewart Pride began the evening with a musical tribute to the history of motion pictures. Banquet guests were treated to songs from Oscar-winning movies such as The Wizard of Oz, My Fair Lady, The Pink Panther, and Titanic.

See pages 9-11 and the "On Campus" and "Alumnae News" sections for major award winners.

A New Biennium

On Tuesday night, the Installation Banquet confirmed the power and potential of Delta Zeta Sorority. As our National Council was installed amidst the soft glow of candlelight, each woman present treasured the honor inherent in membership in Delta Zeta Sorority. We appreciated the work done by outgoing Council members Pamela McClure Cronenwett as our National Vice President of Alumnae Affairs, and by Ruth Weider Patterson as our National Treasurer, and welcomed new National Directors Karen Kind Veitch and Susan Hein Feuerherm.

National Music Chairman Julie Pride led the Convention singers in song as the assemblage rose to join them. When Delta Zeta's 44th Convention came to a close, Delta Zeta pride swelled in each member's heart, and sisterhood was strengthened by the bond of the experience.

2002: The Centennial Countdown

On Tuesday, July 11, Delta Zeta Convention delegates and visitors gathered for the Centennial Countdown Luncheon, hosted by National President Karly Burns. Mrs. Burns announced that the official Centennial kickoff date is October 24, 2001.

The Centennial Committee is planning events to coordinate all year long with the Centennial celebration. The Centennial logo was unveiled at the luncheon, and Mrs. Burns outlined plans for a special collegiate project for all college chapters, a time capsule, special displays and commemorative items, a video production, an alumnae reunion, a special presentation to the NPC, and the publication of a 100-year history. Every Delta Zeta is invited to participate in the celebration of the Centennial. The Centennial Committee welcomes your ideas and comments. Please share them by sending your suggestions to National Headquarters in Oxford, Ohio, in care of the Centennial Committee.

Delta Zeta will return home to Oxford, Ohio for our Centennial Convention on July 19 – 24, 2002. What more fitting tribute to Delta Zeta Sorority than to celebrate her 100th anniversary in the place of our founding, Miami University! Look for more information in the near future about our Centennial celebration.

A First-Time Convention Experience

*Ashlee Prater, Zeta Psi College Chapter President
(Stephen F. Austin State University),
Relives Her Convention Experience*

I attended the Delta Zeta National Convention for the first time this summer. It was the most positive, remarkable, and educational experience of my lifetime. Never before have I felt so honored to be able to attend a certain event.

I learned so much about Delta Zeta, and my confidence in being president increased dramatically. I was reminded of the importance of our values and encouraged to live by them, but also to help others remember how significant they are. Convention shined a new light in my eyes, and now all the historical and ritual information that I once learned has come into place and made Delta Zeta an organization that I want to grow, nourish, and exist forever.

It was exciting and educational to meet other chapter presidents, and discuss what was successful for their chapters. I acquired so much knowledge that both my chapter and I will greatly benefit from the experience.

Every workshop I attended was beneficial. The program on scholarship was excellent because I learned not only how to enhance study habits, but also how to better reward personal achievement. The program on "Image IS Everything" was also great in helping members to acknowledge how they behave and how the chapter is represented. Image is more than just a pretty face—it is how you live up to your values and morals.

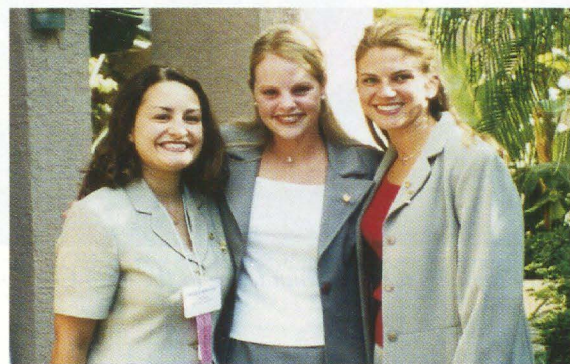

My most memorable experience was being able to meet Florence Hood Miner. There are only a select few members in Delta Zeta who will ever receive the honor of meeting our "Living Legend."

Convention . . . A Redefining Moment

*Fayza Elmostehi
Gamma Kappa President, Kent State University, Kent, Ohio*

Convention was such a wonderful experience and a redefining moment for me as a Delta Zeta.

Convention made me keenly aware of the inexplicable connection between all Delta Zetas, young and old. It made me realize that no matter how different we appeared, and no matter when we were initiated in our sacred Sorority, we all hold the same special bond. I knew immediately that Convention was going to be unparalleled by any other event in my life. As I settled in my seat on the airplane, I quickly discovered that I was surrounded by Delta Zeta women from Eureka College in Illinois and Northwood Institute in Michigan. I suddenly felt at ease.

Fayza Elmostehi ΓΚ, Kent State; Meredith Fynewever ΓΨ, Central Michigan University; and Liz Champa ΒΓ, University of Louisville.

There were so many events that I loved at Convention that I couldn't possibly pick a favorite. Heather Whitestone McCallum delivered an inspirational keynote address that gave all of us new faith to achieve our dreams. Business meetings run by our National President, Karly Burns, were a privilege to attend. The initiation ceremony was positively wonderful, and made me proud to know that my chapter still carries out our ritual ceremony as it was meant to be by our Founders.

Convention was so utterly precious to me that I only wish my entire Gamma Kappa Chapter could have joined in the experience with me. However, I shared it with almost 500 sisters nationwide who could have been strangers otherwise, and it was just as meaningful because we also had in our hearts the flame of Delta Zeta. That is what sisterhood is about.

THE COUNCIL AWARD

This award is presented to a chapter for six years of consistently high achievement. The National Council is proud to announce Truman State University, Delta Sigma Chapter as the recipient.

THE CREST AWARDS

These awards are presented to outstanding collegiate chapters that have excelled consistently in all areas of college programming. The recipients of the 1998-2000 Crest Awards are: Louisiana State University, Sigma Chapter; Nebraska Wesleyan University, Beta Tau Chapter; St. Mary's University, Omicron Alpha Chapter; University of South Carolina/Spartanburg, Omicron Mu Chapter; University of Tampa, Delta Beta Chapter; Texas A & M University, Lambda Xi Chapter; Truman State University, Delta Sigma Chapter.

THE FOUNDERS AWARDS

The Founders Awards are six candlesticks commemorating our six founders, and are awarded to the chapter or chapters with a high record of achievement over the previous two-year period, based on membership, financial standing, cooperation, college programs, philanthropies, and standing on campus. Texas A & M University, Lambda Xi Chapter and Nebraska Wesleyan University, Beta Tau Chapter are the recipients of the award.

THE GERTRUDE HOUK FARISS AWARD

This award was established in Gertrude Houk Fariss' name, recognizing her many years of service to Delta Zeta as National President and as a Panhellenic Leader. The award recognizes outstanding alumnae-collegiate chapter programming and activity. This traveling trophy was presented jointly to St. Louis Alumnae Chapter; Lindenwood College, Omicron Omicron Chapter; University of Missouri/St. Louis, Iota Psi Chapter.

THE ADELAIDE SEE LOVING CUP

The Adelaide See Loving Cup is given to the chapter which has shown unusual improvement since the last Convention, in one specific area or a combination of areas. DePaul University, Theta Theta Chapter is the recipient of this award.

THE GENEVIEVE SCHMITT MEMORIAL PLAQUE

The Genevieve Schmitt Memorial Plaque was established by her chapter in her honor as an outstanding member, and is given to the college chapter with the highest academic rating. Nebraska Wesleyan University, Beta Tau Chapter is the recipient of this award.

THE BETTY HEUSCH AGLER PRESIDENT'S AWARD

An award established to honor Betty Heusch Agler's service as National President, it is given to a chapter which has shown special achievement or has handled an unusual/critical situation in an exemplary manner, bringing credit to Delta Zeta Sorority in general and chapter members individually. The 1998-2000 recipients of this award are: East Carolina University, Zeta Lambda Chapter - In recognition of their work in helping their community and campus after a devastating flood caused by Hurricane Floyd. Texas A & M University, Lambda Xi Chapter - In recognition of their help on their campus after the bonfire logs collapsed before Homecoming Weekend.

Caryatides Awards Presented at Convention

The Caryatides Awards, which were given at the Lamplighting Banquet held after the Initiation ceremony at Convention, honor chapters which have planned and fulfilled a New Member Education Program that has brought enrichment to its new members. The Caryatides statues were presented to Delta Zeta in 1960 by Ruth Simering E, establishing the tradition portrayed by the six maidens of the Porch of Maidens on the Acropolis of Athens, Greece. This year's six awards go to:

Delta Chapter at DePauw University

Iota Xi Chapter at University of Missouri/St. Louis

Beta Tau Chapter at Nebraska Wesleyan University

Iota Phi Chapter at University of Nevada/Las Vegas

Delta Phi Chapter at Northeastern Oklahoma State University

Delta Sigma Chapter at Truman State University

Chapter presidents and CCDs represented their chapters as they accepted the Caryatides Awards.

The Alice C. Huenefeld Award For 2000

The Alice C. Huenefeld Award was given to Lisa Bergeria Blankenship EA, College Chapter Director for the Epsilon Delta Chapter at Concord College in Athens, West Virginia, at the 44th National Convention. Established by Margaret Huenefeld Pease, Past National President, past Editor of The LAMP and other national offices, in memory of her sister Alice, the award is given to an outstanding CCD who has given long and dedicated service to her chapter.

Karen Starner Jacobson IO, CCD to the Iota Theta Chapter at Mansfield University and the 1998 Convention recipient of the award, presented the traveling bracelet, which symbolizes the award, to Lisa. Karen read from one of the recommendations Lisa received for the outstanding CCD award. "She's one of the most trusted, dependable CCDs I've ever had working with me. She has so much knowledge and experience, but most importantly, she has the right heart and the right attitude for this position.' I am thrilled to pass on the Alice Huenefeld Outstanding CCD Award to the woman who has been CCD for 19 years at Concord College, Lisa Blankenship."

Lisa Blankenship accepts the Alice C. Huenefeld Award from Karen Jacobson

FOUNDATION AWARDS

*"To those whom my life may touch in slight measure,
May I give graciously of what is mine."*

Delta Zeta Creed

The following Collegiate and Alumnae Chapters were recognized at the 44th National Convention for outstanding philanthropic work. Congratulations to these chapters for their continuing efforts and achievements in philanthropy, as they embody the best of Delta Zeta.

A NEW BIENNIUM for Delta Zeta

National President Karly Klemp Burns began her State of the Sorority speech by praising the sisters who have given so unselfishly of their time and talents to Delta Zeta. "As we enter this new millennium and prepare to celebrate our Centennial, we remember the sisters who have gone before us to bring Delta Zeta to this position of strength as a Greek organization," she said. Here, in excerpts from her State of the Sorority speech, Mrs. Burns discusses the future of the Sorority, and what this new biennium means to Delta Zeta.

Recruitment is the lifeblood of Delta Zeta, and the quality of that recruitment effort is paramount.

As we move closer to 2002, our Centennial, optimum membership in all of our chapters is a national priority. With this in mind, National Council has directed that beginning in the coming academic year, all Delta Zetas shall be involved in at least one other campus activity in order to provide a positive and involved image of Delta Zeta on each campus. Leadership within those other groups will be encouraged. The National Program Development Committee has been directed to provide programming for the next biennium which will enhance membership recruitment including image, public relations, self-esteem and other related areas.

Additionally, there will be a National Recruitment School (held in mid to late winter of 2001), which will be a membership/retention focused weekend session and will be attended by Collegiate Vice Presidents of Membership, College Chapter Directors and Regional Collegiate Coordinators.

Delta Zeta is prepared to meet the challenges of recruitment on today's campus.

Recruitment of new members remains the key to the growth of Delta Zeta and the stability of each college chapter. During the last biennium, chapters reaching quota increased, and chapters obtaining the total membership allowed by their campuses also increased.

In this coming biennium there will be an increased emphasis on utilizing our talented College Chapter Directors and our Regional Collegiate Coordinators, the National Recruitment Committee and the Chapter Consultants to provide assistance and support to those chapters in their recruitment efforts.

The Delta Zeta National Council for the biennium 2000-2002. Susan Hein Feuerherm, Karen Kind Veitch, Katherine Sermersheim, Sonja Nay Wise, Debbie Raziano, Denise Williams McCullars, Jamie Hammill Pyne, and Karly Klemp Burns.

Communicating with our members is crucial to maintaining membership, connecting our alumnae with Delta Zeta, and publicizing news outside of our organization. It is essential to utilize today's communications technology to keep our members informed and connected.

We are continually evaluating and upgrading our website, located at www.deltazeta.org, to reach high-caliber potential members and to keep our collegiate and alumnae members connected to each other and to the Sorority.

We have recently completed Phase I of our website redesign, and continue with additional phases of redesign for the future. The most recent upgrade, unveiled at Convention, includes "For Sisters Only"—Delta Zeta's private side for members only. Members access this private side using a password of their choosing, and can register their e-mail address in the directory and search to contact sisters. The website is and continues to be one of the crucial components of our overall communications plan. The LAMP is another important component of this plan. We continue to refine and redesign The LAMP to meet our membership's needs and keep them informed.

Communications programs are being designed to increase visibility for Delta Zeta outside of the Greek world, and just as importantly, increase communication between our Sorority and other Greek organizations.

Over the past biennium, Delta Zeta has demonstrated her support for the Greek affairs and student development officials whose work is invaluable to our collegiate chapters around the country. Our donation of $25,000 to the Association of Fraternity Advisors (AFA) Foundation reaffirmed that commitment. Equally strong is our commitment to the National Panhellenic Conference.

Delta Zeta continues as a large and strong group in the National Panhellenic Conference. Our delegation serves on the College and Alumnae Committees in NPC. Our NPC Delegate, Jamie Pyne, also serves on several additional committees and as a presenter at regional Panhellenic meetings. Our Past National President, Sandi Nesbitt, who will now serve as the NPC delegate, has also been appointed the NPC Housing Chairman, a major and visible position within NPC. We are also very proud of the women who hold officer positions and represent Delta Zeta well in alumnae and college Panhellenics.

This biennium has seen the establishment of a listserv for the NPC delegates and one for the NPC National Presidents. This communication tool has enabled the delegates and the National Presidents to communicate immediately with one another about any campus problem.

I have personally enjoyed the opportunity to know and work with the other twenty-five National Presidents. We are also pleased to announce that our Foundation President, Marge Lovewell, has been asked to serve on the Investment Committee of the NPC Foundation.

To ensure Delta Zeta's future growth, education is essential. Our training programs help our collegians and alumnae do the best possible job for Delta Zeta.

For the past several years Delta Zeta has had increased emphasis on training for the Official Family. Our National Secretary, Katie Semersheim, has served as our National Trainer and, in concert with the National Training Committee, has made impressive strides in providing quality training. The Norma Minch Andrisek Leadership Conference is held in non-convention summers. Last summer, at the recommendation of our National Secretary, we held only one conference so that all resources, talent and personnel would be at one conference to allow for optimum success. And what a success it was! We had the highest number of chapters send representatives to the weekend at Purdue University than ever before in the history of the Conference. A resounding 100% of the participants said the conference met or exceeded their expectations.

The National Training Committee, working with the Vice President of College Chapter Operations, shifted their attention to Nicholls State University for the College Chapter Director Conference. Again, the evaluations reflected a positive experience for the attendees. An equally successful leadership session was held for the Area Alumnae Directors and the Area Development Chairmen in Oxford, Ohio.

The Delta Zeta Foundation has had a terrific biennium. The 1999-2000 Loyalty Fund reached an all-time high in the amount of donations received.

The Foundation continues to play a vital role in funding educational components of the Sorority, scholarships for our members, support of speech and hearing, and the National Historical Museum in Oxford, Ohio. It is gratifying and rewarding to see the positive results of our public relations programs, of the increased circulation of The LAMP, and of the superb work of our Area Alumnae Teams in reaching out to reconnect with all of our alumnae. These actions have directly impacted gifts to the Foundation from previous non-donors, which have increased dramatically.

Donations from recent graduates have also increased because of the newly developed undergraduate-only giving program, the 1902 Loyalty Circle. Delta Zeta has been very fortunate to have had a number of extremely generous gifts from several individual alumnae which have been designated for specific program areas. We are looking forward to another successful year, made possible by members and friends of Delta Zeta.

This is an exciting time for Delta Zeta, and the future is most promising.

We are in a new century, and on the brink of our Centennial. The opportunities for Delta Zeta to continue to grow are very exciting. Each of our members play a role in this growth. At the same time, we are highly respected both within and outside the Greek world. Our members are committed to the values of Delta Zeta, and to strengthening our organization as a whole. We have the opportunity to enrich the lives of the women who join our Sorority, and through our educational and leadership programs, lay the groundwork to allow these women to become leaders, not only within Delta Zeta, but in their respective communities as well. Our members are the responsible and caring citizens who make a difference in the world—today and in the tomorrows to come.

REACH

REACH (Raising Expectations And Creating Horizons) In The Year 2000

The REACH initiative was instituted at the 1996 Convention to provide for changes within the structure of the Sorority, resulting in new ways to connect with and reach our membership.

During the business meeting, Norma Minch Andrisek, Past National President and Chairman of the Structure Committee, reported on the REACH initiative.

"REACH is a resounding success, for it has become what we hoped—a catalyst for action and a springboard for change," Mrs. Andrisek said.

How has REACH made a difference? "In no area has REACH been more effective than in defining the need for training. The commitment to training as one of its major components has led to the development of an outstanding Delta Zeta program for educating volunteers, chapter officers, alumnae, coordinators and directors. Without exception, training has been exceptionally well received," Mrs. Andrisek continued.

The alumnae emphasis is working. Money is one way to measure success, and the records show that donations to the Delta Zeta Loyalty Fund have continued to increase since 1996. Through the national website and in utilizing updated postal services, we are identifying lost alumnae and making it possible for them to reconnect with the Sorority. Chapter Associations, composed of all initiated members of any given chapter, are a new and exciting way for alumnae to come back to Delta Zeta.

National Council has directed that all college chapters shall elect a member in the position of Alumnae Relations Chairman. Now all of our chapters will have an Alumnae Relations Chairman to serve as a contact for local alumnae and the Chapter Association, to publish a newsletter and to arrange Homecoming and reunion activities.

The decision to send The LAMP to every Delta Zeta has been a major step in implementing REACH and reconnecting with our alumnae. New communications programs are being designed to allow alumnae to connect in new and exciting ways. Mrs. Andrisek concluded her remarks by saying, "REACH needs to be dynamic, not static. Its implementation needs to be continually readjusted to meeting needs. We must allow for some trial and error, and we must be patient. The structure is sound, and it takes a tremendous effort to implement REACH. That effort has been made." REACH is a work in progress, and one in which all Delta Zeta members have an important part.

Major Donors' Centennial Gifts Commemorate Delta Zeta's Heritage

A Challenge to All Delta Zetas

At the 44th National Convention, the Delta Zeta Foundation acknowledged the gifts of our generous sisters. Anne Marie Jones Gavin, Secretary and Treasurer of the Foundation, recognized the donations of $300 each given by individuals and of $2,000 each given by chapters. Mrs. Gavin said, "It is through the continued generosity of chapters and individuals such as these that many of the workshops you experienced here at Convention and the special programs of our Sorority can continue and do continue to grow." She challenged the audience to triple the number of donors present by the next convention.

Major Donors Honored

President Karly Burns honored four women as lead donors for Delta Zeta's Centennial Campaign at the Centennial Countdown Luncheon. Marjorie Klingensmith Lovewell Γ, President of the Foundation, and Sandra Sebrell Bailey Θ, Vice President of Development for the Foundation, were thanked by Mrs. Burns on behalf of Delta Zeta for their donations of $25,000 each to fund the Centennial celebration.

Carol Sharpe Harper ΒΓ established the Harper Endowed Lecture Fund, which brings distinguished speakers/lecturers to Delta Zeta Sorority's national leadership conferences and conventions to present educational topics. At Convention, another generous gift of $50,000 from Mrs. Harper to the Centennial was graciously acknowledged by Karly Burns.

Carol Sharpe Harper with National President Karly Burns.

Florence Hood Miner AB, National Historian and Past National Officer, was honored for her $50,000 gift to Delta Zeta which will be used to establish the Florence Hood Miner Communication Development Fund. The Fund will provide support for the development of communications programs for college chapters, to promote Delta Zeta's philanthropic work, and for publicity campaigns for our Centennial.

Florence Hood Miner and Karly Burns

Mrs. Burns said, "The generosity of these women means so much, and it means so much to our Centennial celebration as well. Words just aren't enough to say thank you to all of these women who have been so very generous, not only with their treasure, but with their time and talent to Delta Zeta over the years. We are truly blessed to have sisters such as these."

How Can You Be a Part of the Heritage?

Think about your Delta Zeta experience and what Delta Zeta has given to you. Now is the time to be a part of our heritage. Your gift to the Delta Zeta Foundation supports scholarships, leadership and educational programs, philanthropic projects, and the preservation of the National Historical Museum and Headquarters in Oxford, Ohio. Every contribution is important to the Foundation. Through your generosity, Delta Zeta continues our tradition of values and excellence.

On Campus with Delta Zeta

Delta Zeta's collegiate chapters conclude the school year, and share news of awards, risk management education, and recruitment successes with our readers.

Grace Mason Lundy Award Winners Honored

The Grace Mason Lundy Award Winners were honored at the Initiation Banquet at the 44th Convention. April Freeman AK and Susan White EY were present at the banquet and were honored as Award recipients.

The Awards were established in recognition of Grace Mason Lundy's many years of service as National President, Historian, and other offices, and are given to collegiate members of Delta Zeta in their senior year who have given greatest evidence of loyalty, devotion, and service to their chapters and the Sorority.

The ALPHA CHAPTER at Miami University of Ohio initiated all 51 members of the 2000 new member class at a special ceremony on campus. These new members coached fraternities and sororities on campus in the chapter's fundraiser, Puttin' on the Hits, held a Bingo philanthropy at the Oxford Senior Center, and participated in a number of leadership conferences. The new member educator was Sarah Schuster, assisted by Heidi Magnuson and Nikki Tyler.

The ALPHA GAMMA CHAPTER (University of Alabama/Tuscaloosa) was featured in a recent article in the Tuscaloosa News about its work in renovating a nature trail for special-needs students at a local school. "We were so excited that we got to work with the school and improve the nature trail," Chapter President Emily Roberts was quoted as saying. "We had a lot of fun working with the younger students because it is always neat to get their perspective on different activities." The article reported that, "The school declared the day Delta Zeta-Oak Hill Day, in honor of the students from both schools working together to create a better environment."

At Convention, the ALPHA ALPHA CHAPTER (Northwestern University) received the Special Merit Award in Membership Recruitment.

SARAH IRLE AB was crowned as Miss Illinois County Fair Queen for the year 2000. Sarah won a $1,000 scholarship as part of the title's prize package. The 19-year-old sophomore at the University of Illinois is majoring in animal sciences. She wants to work as a veterinarian with exotic animals, perhaps at a zoo. In her official capacity, she spoke to the Illinois House of Representatives and to the state FFA Convention.

Information for this story from the Champaign Illinois News Gazette.

ALPHA RHO CHAPTER (Ohio Wesleyan University) has one of its own members on the local Panhellenic Council, Rachael Survoy. As Vice President of Recruitment, Rachael has been a tremendous information resource when questions about rules and regulations arise. The chapter knows that Rachael will help them make next school year a successful recruiting year. The chapter was awarded the Excellence in Programming Award and the Award in Academic Achievement for the Biennium.

On Campus With Delta Zeta

The ALPHA THETA COLONY (University of Kentucky) is sponsoring its first annual philanthropy event, the "Mr. University of Kentucky" pageant. Proceeds from the event will be donated to aid the speech and hearing impaired.

The Alpha Theta Colony at the University of Kentucky.

ALPHA UPSILON CHAPTER (University of Maine) members have been busy celebrating their 75th birthday on campus. A Delta Zeta flag was flown in their honor over the U.S. Capitol. They received the Greek Life Award for Sorority of the Year, had the highest sorority G.P.A. on campus, placed second in the Sigma Chi Derby Days (an annual competition which raises money for the Children's Miracle Network), and raised an additional $2,000 for other charities during the school year.

The BETA DELTA CHAPTER (University of South Carolina) is proud of member Jessica Lentini, who is a member of the Order of Omega and was elected to the position of Panhellenic Secretary. Jessica is also active in Student Government, serving as a senator for the College of Liberal Arts for the past two years, and is chair of the Student Services Committee. Community service remains her passion as she helped found and now oversees a campus-wide community service project called "Clean Carolina." Jessica has started another community service organization called Circle K. She is also a member of Mortar Board, and is secretary for the Golden Key National Honor Society, in addition to serving as Secretary, Sisterhood Chair, Chapter Editor, and Webmaster/Technology Chair in her own chapter. A member of the College Republicans, she will work on George W. Bush's campaign in the fall.

The Florence Hood Miner Awards

The Florence Hood Miner Award was established in recognition of Mrs. Miner's many years of service as National Vice President, Editor of The LAMP, Historian, and other national offices. The award is given to collegiate members in their junior year who have made the greatest contribution to their college, chapter, and Delta Zeta through outstanding leadership in on their campus while maintaining a good academic record.

This year's recipients for the 2000 academic year are:

Michelle Ballard ΒΞ

On Campus With Delta Zeta

BETA GAMMA CHAPTER (University of Louisville) member Rachel Shee is the second Beta Gamma to be selected as a Kentucky Derby Festival Princess. Last year, Shannon Bullock served on the Princess' Court. Rachel, the Vice President of Membership for her chapter, made an appearance on the NBC Today show, and is an exemplary ambassador for Delta Zeta as she meets celebrities through her association with the Kentucky Derby. At Convention, the chapter won the Excellence in Philanthropy Award.

The BETA KAPPA CHAPTER (Iowa State University) was awarded the Risk Management Award for Excellence in Programming and Compliance at the 44th Convention.

BETA TAU CHAPTER (Nebraska Wesleyan University) member Shelby Robinson accepted a prestigious internship at Cooper's Institute for Aerobics Research in Dallas, where she will participate in the Division of Epidemiology and Clinical Applications Research. Shelby, a junior with a 4.0 G.P.A., is the second Wesleyan student ever to be selected for a Cooper's internship. She is also a member of Phi Epsilon Kappa honorary, Alpha Mu Gamma honorary, the cross-country team, and the tennis team. Shelby's major is exercise science with minors in psychology and German. At Convention, the Beta Tau Chapter won awards for Excellence in Philanthropy, Excellence in Programming, and the Award in Academic Achievement for the Biennium.

Information for this story from The North Platte Telegraph, North Platte, Nebraska.

At Auburn University, the BETA XI CHAPTER was represented in the Miss Auburn competition this year. Kelly Doeppner, a junior majoring in Public Relations, was among the top five candidates. "Not only was Kelly's campaign a great way for Beta Xi to show its achievements on campus," says Chapter Editor Nicolette Harvey, "but it brought all the sisters closer together." Past National President Sandra McAlister Nesbitt was the guest speaker at an informational risk management meeting held by the chapter.

The DELTA DELTA CHAPTER (Georgia State University) won the distinction of "Greek Chapter of the Year" on its campus at the Greek Awards. In addition, the chapter won the Dean's Cup for Academic Excellence, and the award for Outstanding Executive Officer of the Year went to Erica Braun.

The Delta Delta Chapter poses after winning the "Greek Chapter of the Year" Award on the Georgia State University campus.

DELTA OMEGA CHAPTER sisters at Fort Hays State University keep all members of their chapter involved with many activities. Recently, they attended the unveiling of the school's mascot at the Fort Hays State Sternberg Museum, and are involved in other activities to continue their visibility on campus.

The Delta Omega Chapter.

The DELTA PHI CHAPTER (Northeastern State University) proudly accepted the Superior Membership Award for achieving quota, maintaining campus total and initiating 100% of their new members for both years of the biennium.

DELTA SIGMA CHAPTER (Truman State University) members received commendation from the Greek Advisor for Panhellenic on their campus for their community service activities. The chapter hosted the "Big Man on Campus" contest, which raised $2,500 for Gallaudet University. A portion of the money was also donated to community members to offset their medical care expenses associated with hearing loss. At Convention, the chapter won awards for Excellence in Philanthropy, Excellence in Programming, the Risk Management Award for Excellence in Programming and Compliance, and the Award in Academic Achievement for the Biennium.

At the 44th Convention, the DELTA THETA CHAPTER (University of Houston) won the Excellence in Philanthropy Award.

On Campus With Delta Zeta

DELTA UPSILON CHAPTER (Marshall University) celebrated a successful fall recruitment. Sisterhood events and an ice skating party highlighted the year. Everyone in the chapter was involved in Greek Week, and most of the members participated in at least one event. The effort paid off when they were named second-year champions on their campus.

The DELTA XI CHAPTER (University of Northern Colorado) won first place for the second year in a row in the Sigma Chi Derby Days contest. The Chapter also opened its doors to a number of speakers who educated members about depression, suicide, rape, and eating disorders with question-and-answer periods following the topics. The chapter members post pertinent articles about these events on campus to inform other students and visitors about these risk management issues.

The EPSILON DELTA CHAPTER (Concord College) won the Special Merit Award in Membership Recruitment at the 44th National Convention.

The EPSILON NU CHAPTER (Southwest Missouri State University) participates with other Greek organizations on their campus in several risk management awareness programs. The chapter incorporates fun and sisterhood into its events, and keeps the community involved by participating in community service events such as the National Multiple Sclerosis Walk.

Epsilon Nu members Lori Chronis, Jen Wilferth, Katelyn Swezy, Sarah Diggs, and Jill Mansell before the Multiple Sclerosis Walk.

The EPSILON OMEGA CHAPTER (University of Wisconsin/Eau Claire) addresses risk management education with seminars on date rape and hazing. The chapter members look forward to a creative and spectacular recruiting theme for Fall 2000, and encourage everyone in the chapter to be involved in different projects. The chapter has a student area where upcoming events and reminders are posted for members.

The EPSILON RHO CHAPTER (Northwest Missouri State University) uses e-mail as one means of keeping members updated on risk management issues, in addition to seminars and review sessions.

EPSILON SIGMA (Wayne State University) members report that Greek Week was phenomenal for the chapter. Alumnae, including recent graduates, joined the collegiate members to help them become the new champions on campus. "During Greek Week, many of us realized that, by working side-by-side, we can make a difference and accomplish our goals," says Chapter Editor Selvana Yaldo.

Epsilon Sigma members are ready for Greek Week at Wayne State University.

On Campus With Delta Zeta

The EPSILON TAU CHAPTER (Longwood College) won the Special Merit Award for Membership Recruitment at Convention.

EPSILON UPSILON CHAPTER members at the University of Central Oklahoma won several awards at the Region XI Convention: "Most Sisterly Chapter," the Tulsa Alumnae Award, and awards for philanthropy and recruitment. Former President Susan White '97 won Region XI Dream Girl and the Grace Mason Lundy Award. Vice President of New Member Education Christie Castille won the Light of the Lamp Award.

The GAMMA ALPHA CHAPTER (Baldwin-Wallace College) reports: "In order to educate our members about risk management issues, we have sponsored and attended risk management programs in our chapter and throughout campus, and have been involved in "Midnight Madness," a program which develops healthy alternatives to drinking and drug use. We work with other Greek organizations on campus to support the Alcohol/Substance-Free Housing Initiative."

GAMMA KAPPA CHAPTER (Kent State University) works with Alpha Tau Omega, a fraternity on campus which has adopted the NIC's Alcohol/Substance-Free Housing Initiative. The chapter says, "We had a 'kindergarten' social with the fraternity at their house. We had milk and cookies and show-and-tell, bringing stuffed animals and other items to show, and watched a movie. It was a lot of fun, and was a creative way to sponsor a social event. We believe the NIC Initiative will spark more creative ways for fun socials!" The chapter also received praise from the Office of Campus Life for donations raised for the hearing impaired during its successful Lip Sync Contest.

The GAMMA LAMBDA CHAPTER (San Jose State University) is proud to be the only house on their campus which reaches recruitment totals on a consistent basis. In order to continue this success, recruitment education is emphasized during "Recruitment School." End of semester recruitment parties allow prospective members to meet chapter members, and chapter representation and participation in campus-supported recruitment information booths also support Panhellenic fall recruitment, and Delta Zeta in particular.

At Eastern Illinois University, Sarah K. Skala of the GAMMA NU CHAPTER was named Greek Woman of the Year. The Greek Woman of the Year designation is the most prestigious award available to a Greek Woman at Eastern Illinois University. Sarah was also crowned 2000 Greek Week Queen. Sarah has served on the campus Panhellenic Council cabinet as the Faculty Senate liaison, is a member of the honorary Order of Omega, the Rho Lambda Honorary, and is the treasurer of Lambda Pi Eta, a national speech communication honorary.

Sarah K. Skala

At Convention, the GAMMA THETA CHAPTER (Carroll College) proudly accepted the Special Merit Award for Membership Recruitment.

GAMMA XI CHAPTER member Melissa Clack received the first-ever New Mexico State University Outstanding Sorority Senior award. The award is presented to one sorority member per year who has made a significant contribution to the NMSU Greek community and her chapter, as well as serving as a role model for Greek involvement during her senior year. As the Area V Co-Chair of the Western Regional Greek Conference, Melissa planned and executed the largest-ever area conference with 300 participants from among nine schools. She has also served as her school's Panhellenic president, as chair of the Greek Awards ceremony, and served as president of the Gamma Xi Chapter for two years.

IOTA IOTA CHAPTER members (Middle Tennessee State University) hosted a successful mixer with the members of Alpha Kappa Alpha on their campus. Since both sororities' colors are pink and green, they did a philanthropic "Pink and Green, Campus Clean" mixer, which was a campus clean-up effort. "This allowed us to expand our friendships with members of the NPHC and get to know them better. It also enabled us to give something back to the school," writes Paige Weese, Social Chairman for the chapter. The chapter also won the "All Sing" award for the second year in a row, using the theme "The Wizard of Oz."

On Campus With Delta Zeta

The IOTA PHI CHAPTER (University of Nevada/Las Vegas) won the Excellence in Programming Award at the 44th National Convention.

The IOTA PSI CHAPTER at the University of Texas/Arlington works with its Risk Management Chair, Jill Howe, to plan seminars and workshops and keep members informed about risk management issues. The chapter has instituted the "Sober Sister Pager," a pager which is kept by a different volunteer sister every weekend to ensure a safe way home in case of an emergency at any time during a weekend.

KAPPA ALPHA CHAPTER members (Nicholls State University) learn the best way to handle risk management situations in seminars which allow them to discuss practical approaches to these issues. Member Kristie Oncale recently reigned as queen of the Krewe of Christopher Mardi Gras ball held in Thibodaux. Both collegiate and alumnae members attended the event.

At Convention the KAPPA CHI CHAPTER (Youngstown State University) received the Excellence in Philanthropy Award.

The KAPPA IOTA CHAPTER (Wright State University) has the distinction of having four members serve on the campus Panhellenic Council, out of eight offices on that Council. Nicole Schwenk is Treasurer, Shellie Sherman is Philanthropy Officer, Christina Welch is Vice President of Recruitment/Logistics Officer, and Tiffany Duncan is the senior delegate for Delta Zeta.

The KAPPA PHI CHAPTER at the University of North Carolina/Charlotte held its annual philanthropic event, "Most Eligible Bachelor," in which all Greek organizations on campus are invited to participate. The event promotes Greek unity while raising money for the speech and hearing impaired. At Region Day, Kappa Phi received the award for the largest donation given to speech and hearing. At Convention, the chapter won the Superior Membership Award for achieving quota, maintaining campus total and initiating 100% of their new members for both years of the biennium.

The KAPPA PSI CHAPTER (Shippensburg University) participated in two university community service projects: "Children's Fair" and "Ship Shape." The sisters of Kappa Psi ran games during the fair for the children of the community. During "Ship Shape," Kappa Psi helped the local fire department plant flowers along the downtown streets of Shippensburg. The members of Kappa Psi enjoy strengthening their sisterhood while giving back to their community through these events.

The KAPPA THETA CHAPTER (Virginia Tech University) received the Superior Membership Award for achieving quota, maintaining campus total and initiating 100% of their new members for both years of the biennium at Convention.

At Convention, the KAPPA XI CHAPTER (Duquesne University) was proud to accept the Award in Academic Achievement for the Biennium.

LAMBDA ALPHA CHAPTER members at Arkansas Tech University sponsored the 45th annual Miss Tech Scholarship Pageant. They also accepted donations to the National Cancer Society. During the past school year, members volunteered time working with hearing-impaired children in their area, making cards and friendship bracelets for them. They also held a car wash with all proceeds donated to Gallaudet University in Washington, D.C.

On Campus With Delta Zeta

The LAMBDA BETA CHAPTER (University of Southern Indiana) won the Excellence in Philanthropy Award and the Superior Membership Award for achieving quota, maintaining campus total and initiating 100% of their new members for both years of the biennium at Convention.

At the 44th National Convention, the LAMBDA DELTA CHAPTER (University of Virginia) won the Award in Academic Achievement for the Biennium.

The LAMBDA KAPPA CHAPTER (University of Alabama/Huntsville) participated in a "self-defense" program in which the chapter's Risk Management Chairman enlisted the assistance of the Huntsville Police Department. The police department demonstrated several maneuvers to escape from an attacker, and discussed how to purchase door locking mechanisms and personal alarms. At Convention, the chapter received the Excellence in Programming Award.

The LAMBDA LAMBDA CHAPTER (The College of New Jersey) recently participated in the Mercer County Adopt-a-Highway program. Through this program, the chapter is responsible for cleaning a section of a local highway at least four times each calendar year. In addition to the pride the sisters gain from their efforts, the Adopt-a-Highway program will erect a sign along their strip of highway to inform drivers of the service.

Lambda Lambda members Theresa Banbor, Julia Vaccarro, and Loriann Cattafi work on the highway clean-up program.

The LAMBDA NU CHAPTER (Auburn University/Montgomery) works on Valentine's Day cards for the local nursing homes in Montgomery. Members expressed their love and thoughtfulness for older generations on each of the cards, which were presented on Valentine's Day. This is one example of the many events that the Lambda Nu Chapter takes part in to reach out to the community.

Lambda Nu members show the Valentine cards they have made for local nursing home residents.

The LAMBDA OMICRON CHAPTER (Angelo State University) celebrated its 25th anniversary on campus by inviting founding alumnae members and Delta Zetas who have supported the chapter every step of the way. A formal dinner and an awards ceremony made the event a memorable one.

The LAMBDA THETA CHAPTER (Michigan Technological University) works with the Houghton City Police Department to discuss how the chapter can avoid involvement in alcohol-related incidents. A recent recruitment party included a Hawaiian luau theme, and chapter information is posted on an e-mail list, allowing all members to stay connected and active.

The OMICRON ALPHA CHAPTER (St. Mary's University) initiated a campus-wide "Alcohol Awareness Week" which is in its second year. The chapter invites other campus organizations (Greek and otherwise) to get involved by co-hosting speakers from local agencies, posting statistics citing alcohol-related deaths, etc. The chapter members teamed with campus police to hand out red ribbons to students leaving campus this past spring, as reminders to make smart choices about alcohol. A "Prospective Members" party allowed members to meet many women who are interested in Delta Zeta. Members also stay in touch with potential new members over the summer.

On Campus With Delta Zeta

The OMICRON DELTA CHAPTER (Bryant College) works closely with its campus Panhellenic and Sojourner House, a local shelter for battered women, to educate all women on campus about verbal and physical abuse in relationships. The chapter plans to hold workshops in the fall to educate all students (including men) about how to help someone who is involved in an abusive relationship. The chapter has also sponsored a highly popular self-defense class for women.

The OMICRON EPSILON CHAPTER (Arkansas State University) received the Region XI Risk Management Award, and held their annual Emerald Ball.

The OMICRON MU CHAPTER at the University of South Carolina/Spartanburg incorporates counselors and Alcoholics Anonymous members into its risk management programs to reinforce the importance of risk management. Chapter members participated in the March of Dimes WalkAmerica and sponsored a water station for the 4,000 participating members.

Omicron Mu members Kati Whitaker (Past President), Marie Dunaway, and Charlianne Wyatt at the March of Dimes rally.

The OMICRON NU CHAPTER at the University of Windsor (Canada) is working on its own chapter web page to keep members informed and connected. Chapter members also participated in the AIDS walk, and held their annual formal in the spring, at which alumnae were cordially welcomed.

OMICRON PHI CHAPTER members at Alfred University held a 24-hour teeter-totter-a-thon to raise money for the speech and hearing impaired. The chapter was given the Award in Academic Achievement for the Biennium.

The OMICRON PI CHAPTER (Frostburg State University) received the Academic Award, the Recruitment Award, the Educational Programming Award, the Outstanding Sorority Award, and the Chapter of the Year at the Greek Awards Reception held on campus. The chapter also participated in activities such as "Into the Streets," a clean-up program for Frostburg and surrounding communities, and an advisor fashion show.

Omicron Pi members Clare Dougherty, Cori Zinner, Cory Van Dyk, and Sarah Weichert go "Into the Streets" to clean up Frostburg.

On Campus With Delta Zeta

The OMICRON ZETA CHAPTER (Randolph Macon College) won the Excellence in Programming Award at the 44th National Convention.

The PI CHAPTER at Eureka College sponsored a college weekend for the Kickapoo Council Girl Scouts troop, and the event was well received. Chapter member Rachel Solheim taught the participants sign language, and members worked on centerpieces to donate to a local nursing home.

The SIGMA CHAPTER at Louisiana State University won the most improved GPA award for the new member class and for the whole chapter overall at the Order of Omega awards banquet, in addition to the Community/University Service Award. In their second year of hosting the Miss LSU pageant, Delta Zeta Erin Hardy was the winner, and the chapter donated $3,000 raised from the pageant to the Delta Zeta Foundation. Regional awards received by the chapter included awards for scholarship and speech and hearing. Chapter members won a fraternity-sponsored competition to raise money for a homeless shelter, and were recognized as ambassadors for SERTOMA (SERvice TO Mankind) because of their work with the speech and hearing impaired.

Jessica English, President of the Sigma Chapter, with Doraine Bonnecaze Wilson, CCD and Angie Saponara, Philanthropy Chairman, with the Samaritan Award given to the chapter by a local church for their work with underprivileged children.

THETA CHAPTER members at Ohio State University participated in the Columbus Race for the Cure, a breast cancer awareness walk which raised money for research.

The THETA ETA CHAPTER at Creighton University held its fifth annual Turtle Tug, its largest philanthropy event of the school year. Money raised for the event was donated to the Omaha Hearing School Early Childhood Center. The chapter also won the Superior Membership Award for achieving quota, maintaining campus total and initiating 100% of their new members for both years of the biennium at Convention.

The THETA KAPPA CHAPTER (University of New Orleans) created a workshop on minimizing sexual abuse, which was very well received by all members. The chapter's Regional Collegiate Coordinator, Phyllis Sundberg Davis AG, is in turn making the workshop available to the entire region. Chapter Editor Anamaria Brandon writes, "The chapter is educated about looking out for one another and being there for our sisters when they have undergone a stressful situation."

The THETA NU CHAPTER (Minnesota State University/Moorhead) members have a "Sober Sis" agreement among all members to make sure everyone stays safe and understands risk management issues. They also invite members of other Greek organizations to their risk management capsules, which present information on various risk management issues. At Convention, the chapter won the Risk Management Award for Excellence in Programming and Compliance.

The Theta Nu Chapter.

THETA PHI CHAPTER (Old Dominion University) member Susan Rew was instrumental in getting a bill approved by the General Assembly of the state of Virginia which requires every public college board to appoint a nonvoting student representative. Susan, the administrative vice president of Old Dominion's Senate, worked with other students on Senate to persuade legislators to support the bill as it goes before the governor of Virginia for approval.

The THETA RHO CHAPTER at California State University/Los Angeles hosted a risk management program about sexual assault, bringing in a guest lecturer who is a counselor in this area. Leah Lisa Nunez, Chapter Editor, says, "Many of the girls and I found this program to be a really eye-opening one." Members of a fraternity on campus also attended the program.

The THETA THETA CHAPTER (DePaul University) received the Risk Management Award for Excellence in Programming and Compliance.

XI ALPHA CHAPTER members (University of Massachusetts/Amherst) were commended for their efforts in working for the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Western and Central Massachusetts. The Make-A-Wish Foundation grants children with a life-threatening illness a wish of their choice. The chapter also volunteers at Brightside Residential Treatment Center, a shelter for children who have been sexually abused.

The XI ETA CHAPTER at Northwood University received the Risk Reduction and Greek Academic Excellence Award at the annual Golden Greek Awards. The chapter also placed first during Greek Week at the university.

XI IOTA CHAPTER (Muhlenberg College) members were named the Greek Week champs at their school. Some of the events the chapter participated in were athletic; other events included a lip sync contest, tug of war, relay races, and Jeopardy. Other members were cheerleaders for their chapter. The chapter was the proud recipient of the Superior Membership Award for achieving quota, maintaining campus total and initiating 100% of their new members for both years of the biennium.

At the 44th Convention, the XI OMEGA CHAPTER (Purdue University) was awarded the Risk Management Award for Excellence in Programming and Compliance.

The XI UPSILON CHAPTER (Northeastern University) has members complete "Sober Sister" forms to answer any questions they might have about risk management issues. One of the chapter's members is President of GAMMA (Greeks Advocating Mature Management of Alcohol), an organization which is promoting information about alcohol-related risk management issues on campus.

The ZETA PSI CHAPTER at Stephen F. Austin State University received five regional awards, including awards for philanthropy and achievement. "We go to the West Ridge Manor Nursing Home and play bingo," said Cristina Famulari, Public Relations Chairman about the Philanthropy Award. "We're involved with Special Olympics and we do blood drives. We do whatever we can to help out." The Achievement Award recognized significant overall accomplishments. At Convention, the chapter received the Special Merit Award in Membership Recruitment.

The ZETA RHO CHAPTER at William Jewell College has established the "Turtle Taxi" program, designed to aid sisters who need a safe ride home. Members Kimberly Farrell, Heidi Haynes, Amie Hoge, Jennifer Humburg, Kristen Jackson, Rachel McQuown, Amanda Rostine, Karen Tannehill, and Andria Walruff were initiated as Mortar Board members, a national honor society of college seniors. Senior Ann Pittman recently finished recording a CD that benefits a children's charity. In the cover insert, Ann thanked "her sisters in Delta Zeta for 'love that is ever steadfast.'"

Zeta Rho members at the Academics Banquet to honor academic achievement.

Shelley Deines Hunt ΔΩ '82 has been elected as Chairman of the Board of Ft. Hays State University Alumni. Shelley is past president of the Wichita Alumnae Chapter. The chapter also volunteers to support WIN (Women Initiative Network). This organization employs women who are homeless or who are from low-income or abusive homes.

Chris Martin BT '74 recently received the Melvin W. Jones Mentoring Award at the Leadership Lincoln recognition ceremony for her work with children in special education and in the Special Olympics. The award honors those who influence others through mentoring, and who encourage and inspire others with their leadership. Chris has been a special education teacher for 20 years and coaches a Special Olympics team. In addition, Chris is the CCD for the Beta Tau Chapter at Nebraska Wesleyan University. "She is very enthusiastic and is a dedicated leader," said one parent whose son has participated in the Special Olympics.

Northeast Area (CT, MA, ME, NH, NY, RI, VT)

Dr. Elaine Anne Pasquali AZ '59 is a cultural anthropologist and nurse, and works as a professor at Adelphi University in Garden City, New York. Since 1982, she has volunteered as a humor therapist working with mentally disabled patients at Stepping Stones Psychiatric Day Treatment Center. Her "Laugh Group" session uses humor as a vehicle for facilitating problem-solving and communication skills, self esteem, and insight. She has worked with other health care workers throughout the country to establish groups similar to hers at Stepping Stones. She has been recognized for her work with a commendation from the Family Service League of Suffolk County, and has published articles in the United States and overseas about humor therapy.

Beta Omega members reunited at New York University's 168th Commencement recently. "Commencement ended with the singing of 'The Palisades.' The words, 'But college friendships all must sever, And fade as does the dying day,' definitely do not apply to our group. We are approaching 60 years of friendship. Our affections and memories have not faded," writes Joy Cerreta Bacci '46 of the reunion.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Welcome Back, Xi Nu Chapter Alumnae!

The Xi Nu Chapter (Tarleton State University) would like to welcome our alumnae back to Stephenville, Texas for our annual Alumnae Luncheon on October 21st at 12:00 p.m.

The luncheon will be held in the new Student Center (Room 22D). We look forward to celebrating our 15th anniversary with you.

To RSVP, please e-mail the chapter at DELTAZETA@tarleton.edu or phone 254/918-0734. Can't wait to see you in the fall!

Mildred "Millie" Storm Boland EY '60 became a paraplegic after an accident in 1984. While at Integris Baptist Medical Center for physical therapy, she began helping others at the Center when she could. Millie eventually registered as an official volunteer at the Physical Medicine Services Department, where she has given of her time and talent for the past seven years. While reticent about saying whether or not she has influenced others, Millie admits that people have told her she is an inspiration to them. "I concentrate on the positive, not the negative, and am grateful for what I can do," she says.

Millie Storm Boland EY '60.

Courtney Morrow Colbert ZY '96 was chosen as a representative to the "American Women Living Abroad Conference," which was held in Germany recently. Courtney is the wife of Lt. Justin Colbert USMA 98 and has been living in Buedingen, Germany since her husband's assignment with the First Calvary. She has been actively involved in the military's Family Supports Group (FSG) and was a speaker at the FSG Conference in Heidelberg.

Sheryl Welch Fisher ΔΘ '76 is the president of Celebration Ministries in Houston, Texas, a woman-to-woman ministry which mentors and assists women. Sheryl works with a team of 200 women to organize rallies where women gather to hear dynamic speakers. One of Sheryl's Delta Zeta sisters interprets through sign language at each rally. Sheryl has also received a lifetime PTA award for her involvement at her children's school, and led a major fundraising effort that garnered $10,000 for children at the Center for Speech and Hearing. To find out more about Sheryl's ministry work, visit the web page at www.celebrationministries.org.

Phyllis Berens Ross ΔΩ, Past National Vice President, was recently installed as the Austin Alumnae Panhellenic President.

Phyllis Berens Ross ΔΩ '64.

Arlington Alumnae Chapter members' lives were affected by the tornadoes that struck the Fort Worth area earlier this year. No one was injured, but some members were displaced from their offices for a few weeks, and one sister's home was destroyed. The members continue their philanthropic events, including donating school supplies to the local school district and canned goods to the Arlington Food Bank. The chapter also held its annual Alumnae/Collegiate Dinner with the Iota Psi Chapter.

The Houston Alumnae Chapter hosted their 13th annual "Spring Swing" fashion show and luncheon, raising $8,200 for Camp Hope, a project of AIDS Foundation Houston, and for the Center for Hearing and Speech Summer Camp.

If you need contact information for a Delta Zeta sister for whom you are searching, please contact
National Headquarters, 202 East Church Street,
Oxford, OH 45056, by phone at 513/523-7597, or

CONNECT WITH A CHAPTER ASSOCIATION!

An easy way to connect with your sisters in Delta Zeta is through Chapter Associations. Alumnae who belong to the same college chapter can form a chapter association. It's really just a chance to meet whenever you want to—chapter associations don't have the formal structure of an alumnae chapter, but give alumnae the opportunity to connect with sisters from their college chapter at their convenience.

If you'd like more information about forming a chapter association in your area, you can contact:

In Tribute

Maurine Brown Neuberger  $\Omega$  '28, whose passing was noted in the Spring 2000 issue of The LAMP, was Delta Zeta's 1961 Woman of the Year. Maurine served as a senator from Oregon from 1961-66, working on the Foreign Relations Committee with Senator Albert Gore (Vice President Al Gore's father), and sponsoring a National Wilderness Preservation bill to conserve wildlife areas. After her political career, she worked for the Consumer Product Safety Commission and on the advisory commission of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency.
