PRESENTING . . .

Delta Zeta "Woman of the Year" 1955

ON OCTOBER 24, 1955, Delta Zeta again paid tribute to the ideals upon which the sorority was founded by announcing Marion W. Worthing as the winner of Delta Zeta's top alumnae award by naming her "Woman of the Year." Miss Worthing is the sixth Delta Zeta to be so honored.

Chief of the Commodity Staff in the Research Area in the Department of State, Miss Worthing holds a position of trust and responsibility not commonly open to women in Government. She directs economic research relating to foreign industrial, mineral and agricultural problems. Analysts on her staff deal with such heterogeneous subjects as gold, petroleum, electric generators, and a host of other commodities. Because of the confidential aspects of most of her work, it is not possible to give complete details of this work.

In speaking of her job, Marion explained some of the organization of the State Department in an interview conducted by Harriet French of the Sunday Star, Washington, D.C. She said, "The so-called action bureaus carry on the day-to-day business of our government with foreign countries. They regularly deal directly with the foreign missions in Washington and keep close touch with our embassies abroad. Some of the officers deal almost exclusively with individual 'country' problems, and others deal with general problems such as trade policy and U.N. activities.

"The action officers frequently do not have the facilities for preparing the detailed reports which are necessary before foreign policies can be set; therefore, they must get this kind of information from the research divisions. For example: An officer concerned with petroleum problems in Iran, might come to research people for a detailed study of the Iranian petroleum industries." Miss Worthing supervises and directs analysts who do this type of work.

Marion has been responsible for representing the United States on several bi-lateral and multi-lateral international negotiations. Three of the first six months of 1955, our "Woman of the Year" spent attending conferences in London and Paris for the State Department.

Marion was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan, where her father was studying for his doctor's degree. Her childhood was spent in Cleveland. She graduated from the University of Wisconsin with a degree in economics. There she became a member of Phi Omega Pi. When this sorority merged with Delta Zeta, Marion was initiated by the Washington Alumnae and Alpha Delta chapters. She is also claimed by Tau chapter at Wisconsin as one of its alumnae.

Following her postgraduate work at the University of Pittsburgh, where she received her M.A. in 1933, she was on the staff of the university's Bureau of Business Research, then with the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry. She worked several years with the United States Steel Corporation, and did volunteer teaching in the industrial extension courses at Bryn Mawr's summer school. During the war, Marion came to Washington, D.C., where she had been employed in several departments of research before she was appointed to her present position.

The Washington, D.C. Alumnae chapter, her sponsors for this national award, are especially happy that Marion has received this honor, because along with the many demands on her time she has been a devoted member of Delta Zeta. She has served this chapter as vice-president, finance chairman, social chairman, and treasurer. One of her unusual talents is put into action each year when she assumes the role of "auctioneer" for Delta Zeta's money-raising project. One of Marion's hobbies is the making and showing of films, and she is using this talent to benefit Delta Zeta, for she is over-seeing the making of the new film on Gallaudet College which will be available for chapter use.

Marion has also taken a very active interest in her church. She was one of the charter members of the Chevy Chase-Bethesda Unitarian Church when it was established nearer to these communities. She has been on the committee for selecting a pastor, has assisted with the church music, and has been one of the leading workers in the successful bazaars held by the new church. She maintains a home with her mother and sister in Chevy Chase, Maryland.

When Mrs. Harold Cook, new president of the Washington Alumnae chapter, responded to the announcement that their candidate Marion Worthing had been chosen as Delta Zeta's "Woman of the Year," she wrote: "What wonderful news!! I think it is the nicest thing that has ever happened to the Washington Alumnae, and it couldn't have happened to a nicer person than Marion Worthing." Delta Zeta sisters everywhere will agree.

Beta Upsilon Is Now "At Home"

FOR MANY years the sororities on Newcomb Campus have longed for permanent residences. Previously no sorority was allowed to own a home under Louisiana State Law. This year, however, we were able to purchase homes to be used only for sorority functions and not as living quarters. Zoning restrictions limited our selection to a great extent, but a month before Rush Week, we found just the place. When rushing began, our home was shining and new to greet prospective Delta Zetas.

Now the Beta Upsilon are busy enjoying their new home, a typical Southern mansion with high ceilings, large rooms, and long windows opening upon a marble porch. Between classes the girls enjoy relaxing on the lovely tree-shaded porch. The leaded front doors so typical of Southern architecture open upon a large and inviting entrance parlor. A green love seat flanked by two leather-topped mahogany end tables beckons weary students to relax in a peaceful atmosphere. Visitors may sign an open Guest Book placed on our oval planter table near the door.

What a pleasure it was to rush this year in the spacious, comfortable living room. The rose beige carpet is set off by a toast sofa placed before our charmingly draped bay window. Two brown arm chairs bring out the darker shades of the figured drapes.

Opening from the living room is our combination dining and recreation room. While all of the tables in our living room are the traditional mahogany, our drop-leaf table in this room is solid cherry. Two cherry chests adorned with candles stand on either side of the archway. At the far end of the room two large Audubon prints overlook a toast sofa. The brass lamps on either side of the sofa shed a soft light on the cool green walls. In this room we found the perfect spot for our spinet, which is constantly in use during frequent song fests.

The girls were delighted to have such a nice kitchen for rushing. The better facilities enabled us to serve with a minimum of confusion and a maximum of enjoyment. Another wonderful feature of our house is the nice bedroom where we always have accommodations for our visiting national officers.

During free hours many of the girls congregate in the den at the rear of the house. Here amid leatherette chairs and modern durable tables, they chat while watching television on a set donated by one of the pledges. Needless to say, this is the most frequently used room in the house.

On November 19, the chapter and alumnae group entertained at an open house. This was our first opportunity to show off our dream to the other sororities and faculty of the college. We were also proud to use our punch bowl and sterling silver  $\Delta Z$  ladle given us by one of the parents.

Oh yes—if you're ever Way Down Yonder in New Orleans, you are welcome any time at our house. Hanging over our column there's always a shining brass  $\Delta Z$  made by a  $\Delta Z$  man!

All the others are alternate delegates, members of the various national councils and editors and executive secretaries.*

Lights On in the National Panhellenic Conference

By Julia Fuqua Ober, K Δ

THE Panhellenic light was re-fueled at The Greenbriar, White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, November 14-18, 1955. Members departed at the end of five days in session with a feeling of plan, of promise, and an eagerness to get on with the job. The entire Executive Committee earned the appreciation and admiration of the Conference for their work so well done. The members were Mrs. Robert Carlton Byars, Δ Γ, chairman; Mrs. Cicero F. Hogan, Γ Φ B, secretary; and Mrs. Darrell R. Nordwall, Α Χ Ω, treasurer.

Dr. Kenneth McFarland, educational consultant to General Motors, was the speaker at the final banquet of the Conference. His limitless supply of anecdotes furnished mirth and message. Dr. McFarland said that "no person can be successful in any job he is doing unless he can put light in people's faces. It is that light which lets you do the right thing with finesse."

He also stated: "There are two ways of doing the right thing, one of them with finesse and dividends . . . When there are two sets of rules, that is the formula for 'no morale' . . . You have to be so well anchored that other folks can lean on you—that's leadership . . . It isn't what you know, it's what you feel that makes the drive . . . Hand the light that shows the way."

Mrs. Byars' message at the opening of the Conference set a tone of dignity, of friendship, and workmanship. She called attention to the value of reviewing and evaluating the National Panhellenic Conference and determining the course for the next biennium. She referred to these as "troublesome times when fraternities have been hurt by a hostile press and certain segments of the motion picture industry who deliberately sought controversial material for monetary reasons. Fraternity leaders thought it wise to refrain from rebuttal. The lack of a good press has not served to block progress of fraternities, however, for on an average, one chapter has been added every two weeks."

A different Conference program was inaugurated whereby there were three afternoon workshops, one each on College Panhellenics, Housing, and Administration. The parliamentarian, Mrs. Gano E. Senter, conducted seminars in parliamentary procedures each morning.

Mrs. Hogan, the secretary, noted that the total membership figure of 815,695 recorded by 31 active members and one associate member, showed a little more than nine per cent increase for the biennium. As of June 1, 1955, there were 1,767 college chapters with 75 new chapters added, and 4,202 alumnae groups with 397 added during the period. Iota Alpha Pi was greeted as a new associate member.

Throughout the Conference responsibility for each member was stressed. Mrs. Byars referred to the college enrollment of 2,629,000 students today as the highest in history and looked ahead to the 4,667,000 in 1965 and 5,443,000 in 1970, asking: "What should be the chapter size? How can we maintain intimacy, loyalty, teamwork and scholastic supervision?" She answered that "NPC can help, but the final answer as to the rise or fall of the fraternity system lies with each national council of the member groups."

The report of the Extension Committee mentioned the increasing significance of joint installations of fraternity chapters when a new field opened, which offered opportunity for the introduction of a true Panhellenic spirit from the beginning of fraternity life on the campus and served also to focus favorable attention upon the fraternity system as a valuable asset in college life.

"Building Administrative Understanding of Fraternity Objectives" was the title of the NPC-NADW committee's report. One dean was quoted as saying, "The strong and helpful influences of the sorority on a college campus can be readily recognized in college life."

The College Panhellenics Committee noted an increase from 245 to 255 college panhellenics during the biennium. "A Realistic Approach to Panhellenic Problems and Questions" was the title of the panel conducted by the committee. The consensus was that a well established all-year Panhellenic office was the answer to problems on campuses. A short rush season after matriculation was again approved since deferred rushing defeats one of the fundamental purposes of a fraternal group—substituting for the family circle. Deferred rushing generally results, too, in abnormal and stringent rules, causes a new distrust among groups, and rushing is sometimes carried on by unqualified influences.

The summer party given by city panhellenics, of educational nature, was explained as not being a rush party. Therefore, it does not infringe on the no-summer rushing rule of some college panhellenics.

Judge Frank H. Myers (Kappa Alpha Order), chairman of IRAC, addressed the Conference at dinner the second evening. This was also the occasion for the presentation of The Fraternity Month Award which is given by Mr. and Mrs. Leland F. Leland. The University of Kentucky Panhellenic received the award, with Iowa State College and Alabama Polytechnic Institute Panhellenics receiving honorable mention.

Judge Myers' subject was "The Weak Sister." He pointed out the importance of membership selection to avoid the weak sister. He said: "Because of the continued turnover in the college chapter, there is need for alumnae support (which a weak sister does not give). Every prospect for membership should be carefully screened and after selection should be given adequate pledge training and post-initiation education. Each member is a living example of her fraternity's ideals. Her conduct can be charged against all fraternities wherever they exist. The American fraternity is native to America. Failing to mold character, we contribute to the weak sister."

The City Panhellenics Committee reported that there are 219 city panhellenics affiliated with NPC, an increase of 34 in two years and a net gain of 21. Scholarships in a total amount of $44,986.36 were given during the biennium. Twenty-five panhellenics have loans totalling $21,060.75. Seven city panhellenics outside the United States reported to the NPC City Panhellenics Committee.

The Housing Committee reported 23 new houses built, 10 houses purchased, 82 houses remodelled during the biennium. Construction costs ranged from $78,972.00 for a house accommodating 28 persons to $250,000.00 for a house for 50 persons.

At the closing session the Executive Committee of the National Panhellenic Conference for 1955-57 was presented: chairman, Mrs. Cicero F. Hogan,  $\Gamma \Phi B$ ; secretary, Mrs. Darrell R. Nord-

Mrs. Hogan stated in her acceptance message: "Our thinking must extend ever further into tomorrow as to what is best for the fraternity system. On this note the 34th National Panhellenic Conference adjourned.

The Executive Secretaries had as their guest speaker at dinner, Mr. Cecil J. Wilkinson, Executive Secretary and Editor of Phi Gamma Delta. Miss Helen Glenn,  $\Lambda \Delta \Pi$ , chairman, presented Miss Irene C. The Editors' Conference, like the Executive Secretaries', held daily meetings with Mrs. George L. Burr, Jr.,  $\Sigma \Sigma \Sigma$ , as chairman. The editors burned their candles at both ends, but the secretaries exceeded them by burning theirs also in the middle. It was at that time, also, that two former editors, who had gone into presidencies of their respective groups, told what they considered the responsibility of each officer to the other in the editor-president relationship. These editors-to-presidents were Mrs. Noel Keys,  $\Lambda \Phi$ , and Mrs. Julia Fuqua Ober,  $K \Delta$ . Incidentally, the Editors' Brass Tacks Dinner honored persons who had served their groups as editors and also as presidents. Gertrude Houk Fariss, Delta Zeta's NPC delegate and past national president, was among the seven present.

Delta Zeta was represented at the National Panhellenic Conference by Gertrude Houk Fariss, delegate and new chairman of the College Panhellenics Committee; Evelyn Adams Costello, national president and alternate delegate; Irene C. Boughton, executive secretary; and Ellen Kroll Jenkins, editor of the LAMP.

Campus Leaders With Talent Plus

JANICE PATTISON, a sophomore from Clovis, New Mexico, has made herself known as a campus leader to S.M.U. and Alpha Psi.

Janice is a very accomplished musician on the organ, piano and has a lovely voice besides. She is enrolled in the School of Music where she is studying music education with concentration on the organ. Janice has recently been elected to the Student Council as the representative for the Music School. Other offices held by her are recording secretary of Alpha Lambda Delta and Mu Phi Epsilon, and treasurer of Alpha Psi.

Janice is a member of Zeta Phi Eta, Beta Kappa Gamma, Cogs Steering Committee (a service organization), and Methodist Student Movement. Rally Committee is a service organization for the improvement of School Spirit with a limited membership of one hundred students who are chosen on the basis of leadership abilities. Janice is a member of this group, also.

Again Janice proved to be among the chosen few when she was picked to go to the Leadership Conference and was a recorder for one of the groups. The number of activities and leadership qualifications were the basis of selection.

In the first two weeks of her Junior year Janice was chosen to be a member of Kirkos, a service organization of junior and senior members that have made outstanding contributions on our campus.

With all these honors and offices to her name in only two years of college life as a Delta Zeta, you can imagine what an outstanding record she will have in the future.

KAY PITTS turned down $2000 worth of scholarships in order to come to Memphis State College, and all members of Gamma Iota chapter are very glad she did. We don't know how we could have gotten along without her.

Kay's qualities of leadership were immediately recognized, and she was chosen corresponding secretary, and later first vice-president. In January she assumed the responsibilities of president of the chapter.

Last March, Kay was chairman of the Delta Zeta Follies, an almost professional variety show consisting of skits written and performed by members of the different school organizations. A girl of lesser calibre might have faltered when confronted with the utter bedlam that reigned during rehearsal, but not our Kay! She took a deep breath, pitched right in, and produced the most successful Follies the Memphis State campus can remember.

Not content with one major subject, Kay has two—English and journalism. She has been both religious editor and associate editor of the De-Soto, college yearbook, and is a member of Phi Delta Epsilon, honorary journalism society. She was also the recipient of the Robert H. Talley journalism scholarship.

An active member of the Student Religious Council, she is president of the Newman Club. She also belongs to Tassel, senior honor society, and her name has appeared on the Dean's List innumerable times. A senior, Kay plans to do graduate work after leaving Memphis State.

Beta Pi Aids Gallaudet

EDITOR'S NOTE: This report was sent to Mrs. Odis A. Johnson, Director of Philanthropies and is being reprinted in the LAMP as a suggestion of what a chapter might do to aid Gallaudet College as well as itself.

FOR MORE than a year, Beta Pi chapter, Albion College, had been racking its collective brain, trying to dream up some way of acquiring a new and much needed piano for our lodge. Then, one meeting last April, Mrs. Paul Hawes, our much-loved CCD came up with a suggestion to solve the problem.

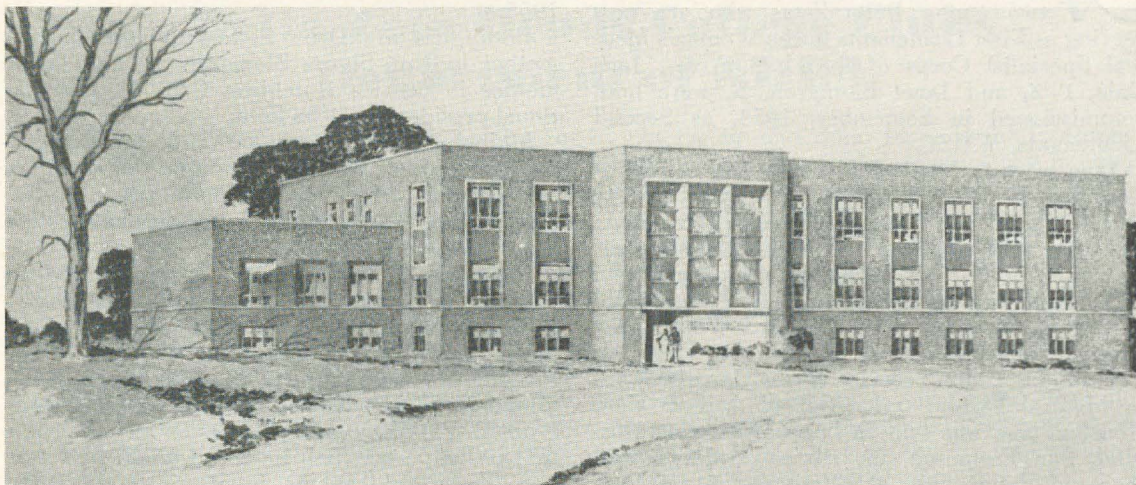

Before we went home for summer vacation, she would give each of us a brand-new one dollar bill. This we were to multiply in whatever way we could—but, of course, the more ingenious and original the way—the more fun the whole project would be! The idea captured the chapter's enthusiasm immediately, and with further discussion the idea of donating 10 per cent of whatever we earned to the Gallaudet College Library Fund was suggested. The group accepted this plan wholeheartedly because, considering that we would probably be earning quite a bit, we wouldn't have felt right keeping it all for ourselves.

Beta Pi girls used practically every conceivable method of earning money for the "Piano Fund." Some of the methods which brought in considerable amounts were washing cars, babysitting, selling magazine subscriptions, giving bridge luncheons and desserts, teaching playschool, selling home-baked goods, and mowing lawns.

About a month after we returned to school, at Homecoming, Mrs. Hawes announced that a total of $331.20 had been raised during the summer, and that she planned to have the piano in the lodge by the new year. For earning the most money Judy Butler received a necklace. When the piano arrives, we plan to post next to it a list of the ways and means used to earn the money for the piano for future Beta Pi girls to see, and, of course, we will include in the list, the contribution of 10 per cent of the amount to the Gallaudet College Library Fund.

Jane and Jan Rate Salutes

ARMY life has become most familiar to two young Delta Zetas who are now serving as First Lieutenants in the Women's Medical Specialist Corps of the U. S. Army. Jane Gale, T Z, and Janet Blomgren, Δ, were both commissioned in September, 1953, as Second Lieutenants, WMSC.

Jane went to Medical Field Service School at Fort Sam Houston, Texas; then to Brooke Army Hospital, Fort Sam Houston, for clinical training; and then to Fitzsimons Army Hospital, Denver, Colorado, in October, 1954. She was promoted to First Lieutenant in March, 1955, and transferred to Station Hospital, Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, in September, 1955.

Paralleling Jane's service career, Jan also went to Medical Field Service School at Fort Sam Houston. She was sent to Letterman Army Hospital, San Francisco, for clinical training, and then met Jane again at Fitzsimons Army Hospital. Promoted to First Lieutenant in March, 1955, she was transferred to the U. S. Army Hospital, Fort Benning, Georgia, in September, 1955.

Both girls are Delta Zeta daughters. Janet's mother is Ruth Shortz Blomgren, Δ; and Jane's mother is Bernice Hutchison Gale, M, past national president of Delta Zeta.

Majoring in zoology at DePauw, Jan was corresponding secretary and standards chairman for her chapter. She belonged to WRA and the Shakespeare Club, and was president of Beta Beta Beta (biology honorary).

President of her chapter, Jane majored in physical education at Southwestern University. Her campus activities included Pi Delta Epsilon, Mask and Wig, Kappa Phi, Cardinal Key, P.E.M.S., Interfraternity Council, Panhellenic Council, and president of the Women's Advisory Council. For four years she was on all star teams in baseball, basketball and volleyball, and was also active on campus publications staffs. In 1952 Jane was named to the Florence Hood Honor Court. ## Delta Zeta Heads College Clubs Department of AHEA

JOYCE LOUISE COLLINS, a member of Beta Alpha chapter, at the University of Rhode Island, was installed as president of the College Clubs Department of the American Home Economics Association during the annual meeting held in Minneapolis, from June 28-July 1, 1955.

As president, Joyce will be a member of the AHEA Executive Board. She will be responsible for the planning of the program for the department's annual meeting, which is held at the time of the AHEA's annual meeting. Joyce will also preside at the annual Department Council meeting, act as chairman of the program of work, appoint committees and act as an ex-officio member of all committees.

At the present time, Joyce is the treasurer of Beta Alpha chapter. She is very active in campus activities, and is president of the Home Economics Club, president of the Home Economics State College Clubs of Rhode Island, and a leading figure in the Modern Dance Club on the URI campus. This year, Joyce was one of the three girls in her junior class who was elected to Omicron Nu, national home economics honor society.

Enrolled in the home economics curriculum, Joyce is particularly interested in textiles, clothing and related art. Upon graduation, she would like to do work in the textile chemistry field.

OSU Honors "Mom"

By Flo Beatty Rowe

(This is a condensation of a feature appearing in The Columbus Citizen)

A SILVER-HAIRED widow who never had any children of her own is "Mom" to 36 Delta Zetas living in the chapter house near the Ohio State University campus.

Mrs. O. J. Lybarger insists she has never found any real problems with her girls, the members of Theta chapter.

Her philosophy is the positive approach.

"I don't think it is a good idea to say, 'thou shalt and thou shalt not' to them. They would resent being treated that way and so would I.

"Don't you think so?" is a far better approach," she explained in her room in the newly-decorated and remodeled Δ Z House.

The girls often gather in her room to talk over their problems. And after they graduate, they return to see "Mom" again.

"Once I forgot an alum's name, but she didn't live in the house. Usually I remember. There have been so many."

"Mom" Lybarger sees that university rules are followed but she believes "the fewer restrictions, the better. When you forbid something, it becomes fun to do. College students should be treated like adults. The trouble is," she smiled, "many of us forget what we did when we were their age. It's just youth."

Responsibility at Theta is divided. A House Council of four girls and Mrs. Lybarger meets regularly and forms policies together. If a girl breaks a rule, she appears before the entire Council.

"This is better than if I had to enforce rules alone," she said.

"I keep in close touch with my girls and try not to be partial. Each girl should be treated as if she's the most important one in the house. They're wonderful and I feel as though they are completely honest with me."

An admitted bridge addict, "Mom" nevertheless doesn't join a game unless they need a fourth.

A native of Columbus, O., Mrs. Lybarger has been a widow for 16 years. Previous jobs were at a men's dormitory at Muskingum College and with Phi Mu at Ohio State.

The sorority seems to like Mrs. Lybarger as well as she likes its members. Four years ago she was chosen the outstanding Δ Z housemother, a recognition she recalls as "a terrible shock."

She was given a week's course at a workshop for housemothers at Purdue University.

"Mostly new housemothers were there. I spent the evenings telling them being a housemother wasn't as bad as the experts had warned. It's a wonderful job."

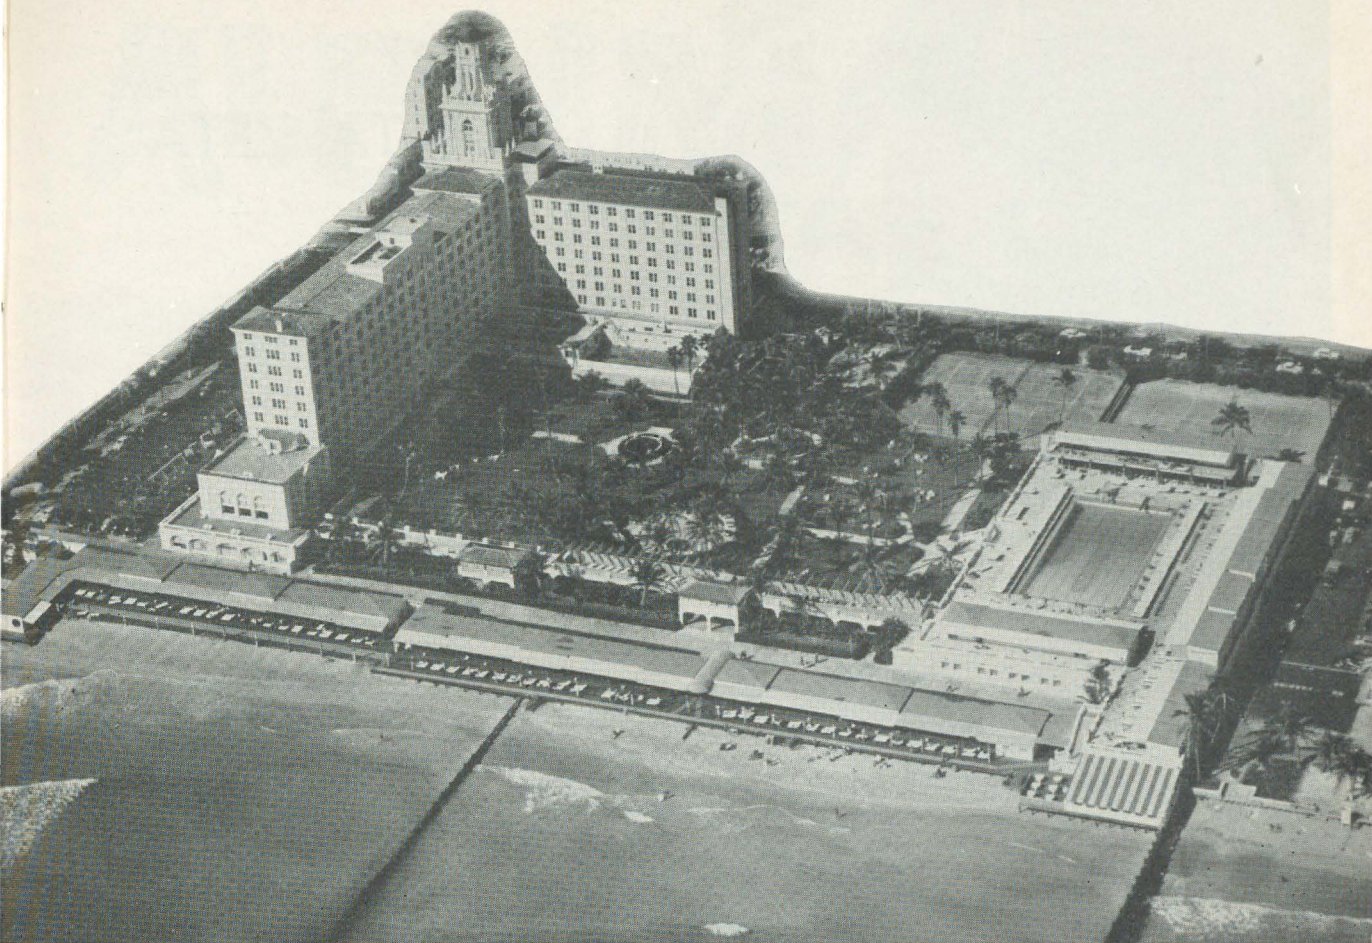

"Mom" has charge of the nine person staff at the house and is official hostess at dinners and parties.

"After all, I'm not just an ornament you know."

MRS. O. J. LYBARGER is "Mom" to members of Theta chapter.

Liberian Patterns Inspire Woman Ceramist

NOTE: This story of Esther Warner Dendel, B K, appeared in the "Los Angeles Times," February 26, 1955, and was written by Elza Schallert.

PRIMITIVE forces are still the strongest factor in inspiring originality in artistic work," said Esther Warner, who has probed the secrets of Liberia in the west of Africa and turned them to good account in work she is doing in ceramics.

Out of a trip she made to this still remote land more than 13 years ago, she not only derived lasting patterns for her highly commercial dinnerware and other ornamental creations but also has written two books published by Houghton Mifflin Co. reflecting on her adventurous contacts with the native population of the Dark Continent area.

One of these books is "Seven Days to Loma Land." The other, issued much earlier, is titled "New Song in a Strange Land."

Her husband, Jo Dendel, who was her partner in the ceramic business before they were married, designed the striking art decorations for both these books.

"Liberia has fascinated me from the days when I was in college," said Miss Warner, when I saw her in her home at Costa Mesa where she also has her large ceramics plant which she calls her "backyard factory."

"Actually I majored in home economics at Iowa State College. I was born in Laurel, Iowa, and won a scholarship at Columbia University. There I had my choice of subjects and studied sculpturing. During an exhibition I saw some 50 or 60 carved ritual masks from the interior of Liberia.

"They took a deep, almost hypnotic hold on me and I made up my mind that I simply had to get to their source to find out how the people thought and believed and lived who made them. I knew such a race of people would have a handicraft culture worth studying and exploring. My problem was how to get to Liberia. I even thought of becoming a missionary.

"One day my prayers were answered. My first husband who was a botanist was offered a position with a vast rubber plantation near Monrovia, capital of the African republic. We both had been teaching but when the magic word came, we dropped everything and got ourselves Liberia-bound and didn't care whether we made any money. We felt we were realizing a dream.

"We arrived in Monrovia a month before Pearl Harbor. The impact of the war hit us in a strange way, because it acquainted us dramatically with native life. We learned shortly after getting settled that the natives were using drum signals to convey information over great distances about the march of Rommel, even as nearly a half century before, information was communicated similarly by them concerning the death of Queen Victoria. We were, indeed, in a fabulous country.

"It grew more fabulous as I became acquainted, because I actually walked across the country through the bush and jungles with escorts who were part of our household.

"Again and again on this and other trips I found not only my masks, which first lured me to far off Liberia, and which are used in secret ritualistic meetings, but also a wealth of patterns created for pottery, wood carvings, batiks and everything that spells handicraft.

"The designs and colors of the batiks used in women's wrap around skirts, or lappas, are excitingly beautiful. They are impressionistic, ultra-modern, Daliesque, however else one might wish to describe them. But above all, the designs have singular style and form.

"The natives' model of beauty is the egg, symbol of the life-giving influence, and much of their work employs the egg pattern or various deviations. I use it myself extensively in my ceramic dinnerware and it is considered an arresting artistic device.

"The Liberians' habits of life and thinking are filled with quaint wisdom not the least of which is their pidgin English language. A flat tire is described as 'The breath has left the foot of the motor car.'

"A note of odd criticism is sounded in 'The thinks and acts of white man have got big swamp between and no way to cross over.' And again, referring to the white man, 'The says-es and thinks-es and does-es are stranger, all stranger, one to another.'"

ESTHER WARNER, author and ceramist, holds a batik designed by Liberian natives.

Miss Warner also learned that the natives' drums have other uses than being modern radios. They alert the populace to the arrival of that eternally unpopular figure in any land—the tax collector. Whereupon the inhabitants immediately hide out their belongings which might be subject to a levy. They even go one step further by tearing their houses down.

Regarding houses, Miss Warner and her husband are building a new place of their own by hand at Costa Mesa, in addition to making all the furniture, drapes, rugs and china, of course. They have even hauled 16 tons of decorative rocks from Bouquet Canyon, many miles away, for their huge fireplace.

They refer to this little labor as "having a picnic"!

Santa Monican Receives Alumnae Service Award

YVONNE McFADDEN MICHEL, A I, honored at California State Day.

YVONNE McFADDEN MICHEL, A I, won the Annual Alumnae Service Award for 1955. The honor was conferred upon her at the California State Day held in May at the Bel Air Hotel. The geographic area for this award extends from Fresno south to San Diego for the Southern California alumnae chapters.

Yvonne Michel was one of the founders of the Santa Monica Alumnae Chapter and first president of this group. She organized the second State Day held in Santa Monica in 1937.

In her community she has served as president of the local Charity League and as chairman of the Women's and Children's Committee of the Welfare Council. Among this group's activities has been the sponsoring of a symposium of doctors and social workers to discuss "blackmarket adoption."

Besides her contributions to social and community activities, Yvonne is the mother of Jack, Noralee, Clare, and Bill. The day before State Day, Noralee Michel Clinton made this an eventful week for Yvonne by presenting her with her first grandchild, Anita.

Introductions Are in Order

INEZ WHITE FRITZE, N, is Director of Alumnae Region Three (Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Wyoming, North and South Dakota).

Her fine record of service to Delta Zeta shows a list of offices held in every community in which she has lived. She was Rho chapter adviser, president of Denver Alumnae, and province director. Her most recent office is the presidency of the Des Moines Alumnae. She has also been a civic leader in Girl Scout work and has served on several social agency councils.

Two other facts are also of interest in her Delta Zeta career. She was Evelyn Adams Costello's room-mate in college, and her daughter Paula is now a member of Nu chapter at Knox College. She received the "outstanding pledge" award.

Ruth Seats Hansen is the Director of Province XI, comprising the states of Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas, and New Mexico. She is also serving as vice president of the alumnae chapter in Kansas City, Missouri.

She has previously served on both the national pledge training and rush committees for Delta Zeta. Ruth is an alumna of Beta Kappa chapter at Iowa State. At present she is very active in the affairs of her church, belongs to a Bowling League and the Wives Club of Midwest Research Institute. Her husband Chuck is an associate chemical engineer with the institute.

Darlyne Hamilton Hariman, Y, is the Director of Province X (North), comprising the states of Colorado, Minnesota and North Dakota. In college she was president of Phi Chi Theta, secretary of the Women's League, and chapter treasurer.

She has been adviser to the treasurer of Upsilon chapter for five years, state chairman for two years and CCD for one year. She has also been active in the program work of the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church and this year was elected first vice president. The membership committee of the local chapter of AAUW is another of her interests. Perhaps the two most important interests, however, are Robert Donald and Ann Maria, her children.

Hollis Huddle O'Neal, A Θ, Director of Province XV (Kentucky and Tennessee), has many activities in professional, educational and social groups. She has twice been president of the Lexington Alumnae and has served Kentucky as state chairman for five years.

She is a teacher of the fifth grade, president of the Lexington and Fayette County Classroom Teachers' Association; immediate past president of Kappa Delta Pi; secretary of the Lexington branch of AAUW; secretary of the Lexington BPW Club; publicity chairman for the Women's Club of Central Kentucky; member of the NEA, Kentucky Education Association and the Central Kentucky Education Association. Lastly, Hollis has been commissioned a Kentucky Colonel. (See picture, Vol. 44, No. 2, p. 101.)

Keeping track of alumni all over the world is part of the public relations job at the American Institute for Foreign Trade where Emily Brown, Θ, dictates to Gloria Peterson Shuman, I.

Public Relations Is Their Job

IN A SMALL office in one of the nation's most unique schools, two Delta Zetas pour over an assortment of words and pictures or go through frantic gyrations to put a weekly newspaper to press. The Delta Zetas are Emily Brown, Θ, and Gloria Peterson Shuman, I, who make up the Public Relations Department of the American Institute for Foreign Trade in Phoenix, Arizona. It is in this school that young Americans are trained in foreign languages, techniques and documents of international business administration and comprehensive studies of foreign countries. From there they go on to serve U. S. business and government abroad.

Gloria, who graduated from the Institute with honors in June, 1955, is now a working wife who gets up an hour early every morning to twist her mouth in strange sounds for Portuguese class. She worked as a secretary-translator in the importing business in Kansas City, Missouri, and then came to the Institute to school herself for employment overseas, but after meeting Robert Shuman, she switched her career course to that of a wife—still with destination abroad. Robert and Gloria are able to express themselves fluently in either Spanish or Portuguese, so that they will feel at home anywhere in Latin America. They can even manage a passable version of the rhumba.

From a newspaper career of ten years, three of them (1946-1949) spent in the Far East, Emily came to the American Institute for Foreign Trade in 1950 as Director of Public Relations and Assistant Professor of Far Eastern Area Studies. During the war she served as a public relations officer in the WAC.

Emily's sister, likewise a Theta, is also an Arizonan. She will be remembered as Betty Brown, now Mrs. Arthur J. McGuire of Tucson and the mother of three children.

Thirty-Eight Continuous Years of Service to Delta Zeta

IN THE fall of the year following the installation of Mu chapter of Delta Zeta on August 5, 1915, a group of chapter mothers met and began a series of meetings for which no records were kept. The next September 3, 1917, Mrs. Hattie Myers assembled a group of mothers and the Mu Mothers' Club was organized, with Mrs. Myers serving as president. Mrs. Howard, the housemother, was chosen secretary and Mrs. Reis named treasurer. Dues were one dollar a year.

As is typical of mothers everywhere, they were interested and spent their efforts in helping to solve problems and furnishing many things for the comfort and pleasure of Mu chapter. Money raising events were planned with card parties the most popular affair and an occasional fashion show. Mrs. Howard was housemother for seventeen years and in her lovable understanding way was interested in all the girls' problems. With the help of the Mothers' Club many things were accomplished. No official records are available, but from the memories of alumnae mothers, the activities were much the same as at the present time.

The club proved its great value to the chapter when the Berkeley fire of 1923 involved the chapter house. When the house was rebuilt, the mothers furnished bedding, table linens and other items. One mother recalls that two years later meetings were well attended and dishes were bought and curtains made.

Another mother, reminiscing, said that in 1930, "The girls were in the big brown house at Arch and Le Conte Streets, and it was very evident that new drapes were needed. So, we shopped for good, economically priced material. Mrs. Howard furnished the pattern and we made lovely drapes of which we were very proud. Also some bridge tables were needed, and Mrs. Howard said to be sure to get tables that would be strong enough for the boys to sit on!"

There was little change in the organization until September, 1925, when a committee was appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws. Yearly elections have been held and the club has been an active organization for the benefit of Mu chapter. Continuous records are available since the meeting of January, 1946. Among the accomplishments of that year were piano repairs, purchase of fire screen and andirons and crested china for one hundred twenty-five, ash trays provided and magazine subscriptions given to the house for Christmas. Dues were changed from $2 yearly to $2 a semester for active members and $1 yearly for alumnae mothers.

During that year, in cooperation with the Pi Beta Phi Mothers' Club, a letter was sent to the Dean of Men, requesting that chaperones be present at fraternity parties when girls were guests!

New ideas in 1947 included the revision of the constitution and by-laws. These are the models used for all present day clubs and are included in the Mothers' Club Manual. A year book was printed with a roster of members names and addresses.

As the club gained experience, we find it establishing several traditional affairs and customs. An Acquaintance Tea for pledge mothers is held yearly. An exchange meeting with the Mothers' Club of Gamma Lambda at San Jose, California, is another event looked forward to by both groups. The year book is sent yearly to the membership with a letter telling of the activities, purpose and dues. All mothers are urged to join, since each Mu girl benefits equally from the Mothers' Club gifts, though the local mothers carry on most of the work.

A great increase in interest and membership was noted in 1949. Thirty-seven mothers attended the October meeting. Plans were made at this time for the first Family Buffet Dinner which has become the highlight of the year. Mu members, families and friends are asked and it is a catered event for which all pay, and is one of the club's best money raising affairs. Warm friendliness prevails and everyone enjoys the Delta Zeta contacts and fellowship. Another traditional event begun that year was the spring fashion show and luncheon. A third event, added in 1950, is the Dad and Daughter Dinner. Each year also, a Delta Zeta member is asked to discuss phases of the sorority program or history to keep the club informed. They are often guests of the local alumnae group and coordinate their efforts with them for the chapter's benefit.

The long list of gifts to the chapter recalled by early members and now recorded includes crested china, electric sewing machine, magazine subscriptions (annually), radio-phonograph, curtains and bedspreads (made by the club), banquet size tablecloths, redecoration of the chapter room, furniture and drapes, candelabra, reupholstery, silverware, redecoration, kitchen remodelling and an intercommunication system. The total expenditure amounts to $3,100.

Plans for the coming year are to include the daughters at tea time so that the families can become better acquainted; an evening or Saturday meeting to be held so that mothers who work can attend; a sizable savings bond to be given the chapter's most outstanding Delta Zeta.

It is very evident that Mu Mothers' Club has made itself an invaluable asset to the chapter. Tactful, understanding, and constant, they have become completely integrated in the Delta Zeta life of their area and hold an enviable place in the chapters' history. Many thanks to them for the splendid example they have set for the Delta Zeta Mothers' Clubs all over the country!—Compiled by MRS. C. A. TEMPLETON, April, 1955.

Pianist Wins Honor in Wales

A PRETTY Delta Zeta from Theta chapter at Ohio State University won honors as a pianist this summer in an international music festival in Wales.

Carol Pierce, of Columbus, and another Theta chapter member, Beverly Bailey, of Lima, Ohio, were at the Eisteddfod in Wales along with other members of the OSU Symphonic Choir.

The choir, with Beverly singing soprano and Carol alto, won second place among youth choirs in the competition.

"I thought I wouldn't have a chance in the piano contest," said Carol. "But since I would be at Eisteddfod with the choir, my instructor convinced me I should at least give it a try."

So Carol and 39 other talented pianists, mostly Europeans, played one selection, Beethoven's Opus 10, #1, in a chapel before the judges.

Carol captured third place and with the other two winners performed before the huge festival crowd.

A senior, she plans to study for a master's degree later so she can teach in college. She also is intrigued by the possibility of a radio or TV career.

Taking part in activities at the Delta Zeta House and the "eternal" practicing keep Carol pretty well occupied.

However she confided that, in addition to a career in music, she always has wanted to marry a violinist. "But that would be silly," she laughed. "I'll marry someone for what he is, not what he does . . . though it might be best if he were at least a little interested in music."

Missouri Holds First State Day

MISSOURI's First State Day was observed with a luncheon Saturday, May 7, at the University Women's club in Kansas City, with eighty-three Delta Zetas, representing twenty-four chapters, attending.

Chairman of this highly successful affair was Beatrice Funk Jourdan, A Φ, who worked diligently for several months in promoting and organizing an excellent program and surprising attendance.

Groups from St. Louis, Marshall, Manhattan, Topeka and other cities arrived early for affectionate reunions that were too brief. Among the alumnae, Lambda chapter had the largest number present, with Eta a close second. The girls from Gamma Gamma chapter presented a clever skit and led the singing. Treva Vogt Reinschmiedt, Γ Υ, sang three solos, concluding with the Rose Song.

Beatrice Jourdan presented a rose corsage to Faye Bunyan Black of Alpha chapter, with a tribute to her loyalty through the years. Faye's membership and friendship date back to the founders' college days.

Virginia Tittsworth Baker, M, reported on the hearing aid purchased by Kansas City alumnae for a 9-year old boy.

Our own Province Director, Ruth Seats Hansen, assisted the committee at the door in distributing name cards and greeting the guests.

Beatrice then introduced the visitors from out-of-town, then asked the committee that assisted her to stand and take a bow: Evelyn White Olmsted, A Δ; Margery Vaughn Kiene, H; Kathy Janes Maurer, Γ Γ; Peg Maslan Stadler, A A; Norma Schmalhausen Leeds, Γ N; Ruth Bryant Powell, A Φ; Jane Coburn Mercer, A; Virginia Tittsworth Baker, M; Dorothy Crans Burke, Δ; Marion Burns Deuser, H.

The guest of honor, Velma Lockridge McKee of Dallas, whose time had been fully occupied meeting and greeting Lambda sisters and other old friends, was introduced. What a delightful talk—humor and fun—combined with serious thoughts and goals for the future, but all Delta Zeta from start to finish. It was a rare privilege to listen to Velma's wit and sparkle, coupled with her deep appreciation for today's problems in sorority life. While Beatrice thanked Velma personally, on behalf of the luncheon guests, for this excellent address, we wish to thank National through the LAMP for assigning her to our State Day.

Yes, Missouri had its first State Day but not its last—and we believe this is only a beginning of many more happy occasions like this one.—MARION BURNS DEUSER, President, Kansas City Alumnae

"Mary Lou of Atherton"

STUDYING amidst a Bohemian atmosphere of walls lined with travel posters, and Bach's "Brandenburg Concerto," playing in the background, Mary Lou Hobelmann,  $\Gamma \Delta$ , claimed she, like other students, was "becoming aware of the pressure of rising scholarship standards."

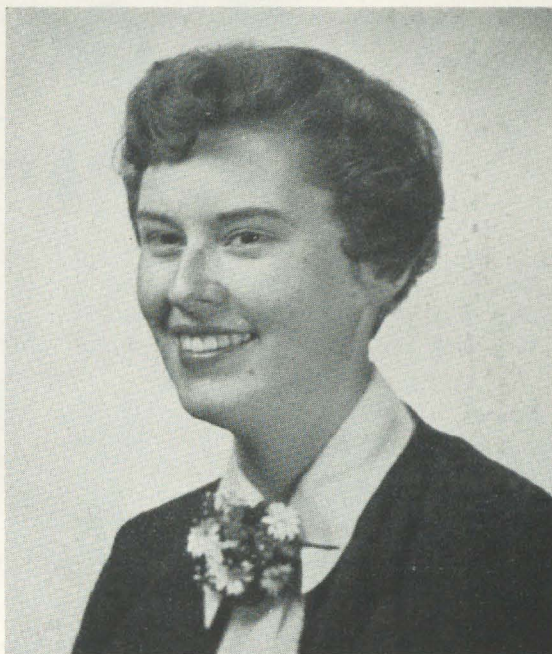

However, aside from this age-old student complaint, Mary Lou is enjoying life, completely. Her present major is interior decoration, and her hobby is making enamel-ware. At this time she is not certain which one she will establish as her vocation.

Mary Lou's enamels are one of the things that makes her so unusual. In her senior year at San Jose State College, she has made a substantial start in setting up a business in enamel on copper—ash trays, candy dishes, small and large bowls, and plates. So far most of her success has been through private interest and sales, but she soon hopes to have work on sale in some large San Francisco stores.

Mary Lou signs her work as "Mary Lou of Atherton," but although her home is there at present, she is originally from Baltimore, Maryland. When she was three years old her family moved to New Jersey, and from there ensued a series of moves involving Syracuse, New York, Massachusetts. She attended all four years of high school in Redwood City and afterwards went to Mills College in Oakland for a year.

It was at Mills that Mary Lou first began enamelling under the guidance of Antonio Prieto, one of the country's leading ceramartists. She was then a fine arts major, and her change to interior decorating prompted her to attend San Jose State, possessor of one of the three leading decoration departments in the United States.

During her junior year she took one course on enamelling, and is a member of Alpha Gamma, social art organization, and Delta Phi Delta, national honorary art fraternity. Mary Lou's work has been on display at Mills Museum, and is now being shown in the San Jose State art wing.

Although she has other hobbies of bicycling, cooking, classical music, and traveling (a trip to Europe planned for next summer), the enamels are her favorite. She may some day use them to make her living, but as she states, "A lot depends on chance and good luck."

THALIA SMITH, BARBARA CHENEY, HELEN CARNES, AND MERRILL SMITH of Alpha Psi chapter are high stepping majorettes with the Mustang Band of SMU.

Highsteppers

ALPHA PSI has been stepping high with four majorettes in the Mustang Band of S.M.U. Tau Beta Sigma, National Band Honorary, has three of the four in its membership. Our girls and their activities are listed below.

Thalia Smith is not only social chairman for Alpha Psi but she is head majorette, Pershing Rifle Sponsor of ROTC, member of Student Center Fashion Committee, and worked for Campus Chest (a fund raising drive by students to help our sister college, Little SMU). She was also chosen to go to the Leadership Conference held in Mineral Wells, spring of 1955.

Merrill Smith is recording secretary for Alpha Psi, treasurer of National Math Honorary, Kappa Mu Epsilon, is a member of Psi Chi, National Psychology Honorary, and is on the Student Union Publicity Committee. And last, but most important, she is a University Scholar.

Helen Carnes was historian and is now corresponding secretary of Alpha Psi, warden of Tau Beta Sigma, vice president of Arden Hall, recorder at the Leadership Conference and a member of the Methodist Student Movement.

Barbara Cheney, a freshman from Raymondville, Texas, will be heard of again in the future, for she is really a high stepper.

Far Meadows - A New Collection of Poems

Written by Gail Brook Burket

Published by The Dierkes Press

Reviewed by Frances Brown

WHILE Mark Van Doren cautions students at Columbia, "The self-respecting poet is no waster of words; he moves as swiftly and directly as he can toward the end, whatever it may be, that he has in view," Lawrence Zillman admonishes students in Seattle, "There is one valid aim in versemaking and that is to aim high." By whatever yardstick the critic measures poetry, whatever tools the poet-craftsman chooses—the pen of Gail Brook Burket, author and teacher, passes all tests. Hers is the concentrated mind, the generous imagination, the listening ear that Mr. Van Doren lists as "musts."

If the reader has chanced upon Mrs. Burket's earlier publication, You Can Write a Poem, designed for instructional use, notably among patients in the Veterans' hospitals, he will readily understand that here is one who has mastered all the skills of an exacting craft.

Sensitive to the "glistening wonder that pervades every atom," with true artistry she word-paints the joys of summer in the country "with cheerful thrush and catbird coteries" as well as the hopes and fears of massing humanity "where life has a neon glow." At this point the poet performs a real social service to a poetry-reading public. The experts currently concur—with apologies to Wordsworth—that the initial step toward mental health and poise is the enjoyment of Nature through the senses.

... "Earth's poorest pilgrim sees
Forsythia branches blaze with yellow flame
And spring's green miracles on leafing trees.
What debtor's coin could ever fully pay
For one brief moment's loveliness in May?"

With no attempt to moralize or finger point, the author of Far Meadows appeals to the reader's auditory sense through reference to "the feather choirs" . . . or perchance in tribute to the wind:

"My heart goes dancing with a light foot breeze;
We do a do-si-do above the trees.
And some vexations have been wafted higher
Than weathercocks upon the tallest spire.
I whisk through all my work at double pace,
While joy pirouettes in smiles across my face."

Those in the publisher's trade consider Mrs. Burket to be at her lyrical best in this most recent collection. The mother of three beautiful daughters, Mrs. Burket was chosen Delta Zeta's Woman of the Year for 1954.

DELTA ZETA'S WOMAN OF THE YEAR 1954, GAIL BROOK BURKET, has been honored by having her portrait hung in the Headquarters of the International College of Surgeons, 1516 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago. As first president of the Woman's Auxiliary of the United States and Canadian Sections of the I.C.S., she is the only woman to be honored in this manner. The portrait was painted by the distinguished artist Count Gregorio Calvi di Bergolo of Italy. Mrs. Burket sat for him during his stay in Chicago in September, 1954, when the murals he had painted for the I.C.S. Hall of Fame were dedicated. Mrs. Burket's gown of ice blue silk brocade is highlighted against the gold background. The artist has caught the poise and dignity of a leader in this picture.

Oregonians Learn "Effective Use of Woman Power"

ONE HUNDRED Delta Zetas, representing eleven chapters, registered at the Omega chapter house, April 30, 1955, for the annual Oregon State Day.

Feature of the day was Mrs. Frederick Young of Portland who spoke on "Effective Use of Womanpower." Emphasizing the growing importance of women's activities in contemporary society, she asked that women not refer to themselves as "just housewives," but as "home makers," thereby pointing out the importance of the challenging job. A home maker, Mrs. Young pointed out, does more than household chores. She serves her family by meeting her civic responsibilities, and participating in local affairs.

Mrs. Young recently returned from the U.S. Labor Department's conference on women's affairs, where she was a representative for Oregon. The former Jean Kitts,  $\Omega$ , she is chairman of the Oregon Wage and Hour Commission.

A panel discussion, "Super Drive for '55," followed morning registration and a coffee hour served by Omega chapter and the Eugene alumnae. The four R's, Reorganization, Recommendations, Rush, and Relationships, were presented by Helen Boelts, Z; Ann Roderick, Chi vice president; Dorothy Allen, Omega rush chairman; and Elaine Hebner Wensley,  $\Gamma \Pi$ ; respectively. The panel was planned by Genevieve Rall Leveton, X, Region Six Director; and moderated by Doris Augustus Derthick,  $\Lambda$ , state chairman.

At noon the group moved to the University of Oregon campus for the luncheon and afternoon program. Welcome was given by Elaine Drake Mohr, X, president of Eugene Alumnae and chairman of the luncheon. Faith Burke Fors, X, served as toastmistress. Reports of the Regional Alumnae Director, State Chairman, alumnae and college chapters were presented. Entertainment was by Chi and Omega collegiates. Kay Butterfield Larson,  $\Lambda A$ , former LAMP editor, gave a short, inspiring message.

Peggy Neilson Wood, X, received the Oregon Delta Zeta of the Year award for her outstanding work as Omega chapter adviser for the past nine years. Genevieve Leveton, last year's recipient, passed on the locket she has worn the past year to Peggy, who will have the honor of wearing it during the coming year.

—DORIS AUGUSTUS DERTHICK,  $\Lambda$

At the speakers' table for Oregon's State Day were Charlotte Martin, Omega president; Eleanor Jackson, Chi president; Elaine Drake Mohr, luncheon chairman; Jean Kitts Young, speaker; Doris Augustus Derthick, state chairman; Faith Burke Fors, toastmistress; Genevieve Rall Leveton, Regional Alumnae Director; and Kay Butterfield Larson, former LAMP editor.

Student Who Fled from Reds Reigns As OCU Queen

A LATVIAN girl who escaped the communists on a race across Europe reigned in March as queen of Oklahoma City University's Keshena Kapers.

Sky Paegle, nominated by her Gamma Upsilon sisters for this campus yearbook honor, left her homeland in 1944 when the communists invaded the country, and traveled across Europe by bicycle with other school children. She was separated from her parents at that time and has not seen them since. She spent five years in Germany in a DP camp, and came to Oklahoma City in 1951 to join her sister.

When she came to this country, she could not speak English. Now she is active in OCU's French Club, and Future Teachers of America. In the Kapers program of stunts, the Delta Zetas won second place with "Three Ring Circus" which was written by Sky. A senior in education, the queen lives with her sponsor, Catherine Alexander.

ALUMINATIONS BY GRADABOUTS

Carolyn Florea, II, who taught the past two years in Chenoa, Illinois, high school, is now teaching in Babington House school on the outskirts of London, England. In an article for her home town paper, she described the differences between a private girls' school in England and public high school in the U.S. Earlier she had spent the summer "youth hosteling" or hitchhiking through Sweden, Norway, Denmark and Scotland.

Another teacher and alumna of Pi chapter is Esther Culp Hatch who was recently honored by Fullerton Junior College (California) for her 8 years of service on the faculty. "Expert on composition and literature and speech, counselor, stage director and drama coach, dean of women, soul of the college Y, ace organizer of any type of social or educational activity, all these chores and countless more, have been within the bounds of her limitless energies. And classroom teaching has only been the beginning of her interests, for, as a friend and confidant of hundreds of students, her home has been filled with students almost every evening."

Lucia Keller Bolt, Δ, and her husband Don spent six weeks in the summer of 1955 on a "South of the Border" goodwill mission in Central America. Appointed to make the mission by Indiana's governor, the Bolts sought to promote better relations between countries through contacts with alumni of their alma maters who are now living in Central America. Mrs. Keller is head of the speech laboratory at Indiana State Teachers' College.

Norma West Henderson, A, past president of Cornelia Greene Chapter, D.A.R., was a delegate to the state conference of the Missouri Society and to the Continental Congress of the National Society, D.A.R. During the past two years, she has served as the secretary of the College Club of St. Louis, and was recently installed as treasurer. She is a founder of the St. Louis Alumnae of Delta Zeta.

Mary E. "Betty" Morris, M.D., Θ, appeared on the St. Louis educational television channel with a book review group and was also a panelist in a discussion before the St. Louis branch of A.A.U.W. This busy Delta Zeta is also a member of the recently organized Physicians' Orchestra, serving as pianist and doubling on 'cello.

MABEL SCHMITZ OBENCHAIN, A A, honored by Northwestern University

DR. W. LESLIE GARNETT, working on teacher education in Cambodia.

LOIS L. SPELLMAN,  $\Psi$ , assistant biologist.

Mary Ruth Van Natta Hun, E, was one of seven Indiana women who attended the International Convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs, which was held the latter part of May, 1955, at the Palais des Nations, Geneva, Switzerland.

Edna Moore Colby, E, by writing food processing articles in The Hoosier Farmer won the top award in the annual "life line" competition of the Grocery Manufacturers of America. The award, a sterling silver reproduction of the London Bowl, was presented to Mrs. Colby, who is the women's editor of the magazine.

Three prominent Delta Zetas took an important part in the national convention of AAUW held in Los Angeles this past summer. Dr. Eunice Roberts, AB, assistant dean of faculties and director of women's educational programs at Indiana University, was program chairman for the convention. In this position she planned and supervised the entire convention program.

Gertrude Houk Fariss,  $\Omega$ , who is the national chairman of the status of women committee for A.A.U.W., presided at the general program planned for this committee. She was also toastmistress at the luncheon at which representatives from branches throughout the U.S. reported on the community uses of their "Money Management" portfolio.

Mildred Freburg Berry, I, participated in the standards and recognition panel at the convention.

Gertrude and Eunice, in an interview program, appeared on "Listen, Los Angeles," a Sunday night radio program. Their subject was "Women in Public Affairs."

Gertrude was again re-appointed national chairman of the Status of Women Committee, and Dr. Roberts was appointed national chairman of the committee on Standards and Recognition for the coming biennium.

Joining the ranks of Delta Zeta authors, is Virginia Schmitz Pasley, A A, who has written 21 Stayed, recently published in both the U.S. and England.

Mabel Schmitz Obenchain, A A, promotion manager of Famous Features Syndicate, was honored by Northwestern University, her alma mater. She was presented with the Merit Award in "recognition of worthy achievement which has reflected credit upon Northwestern University and each of her Alumni."

Ruth Miller Scott, A A, was a member of the Alumni Day Committee at NU and is president of the Associate Alumni.

Marie Spencer, CCD for Gamma Mu, had charge of the state conference of A.A.U.P. which met at Illinois Tech in November, 1955. She was elected secretary-treasurer of the Illinois Conference of A.A.U.P.

Lois L. Spellman,  $\Psi$ , is a new assistant biologist with Eli Lilly and Co., Indianapolis. She is performing microbiological assays of vitamins and antibiotics in the biological control department. She is a member of Chi Beta Phi, professional scientific fraternity.

Evelyn White Olmsted, A A, was elected for her second term as president of the University Women's Club of Kansas City. At the national A.A.U.W. convention she led five panel discussions on programming.

Mrs. Ardith McGinty, B T, is an occupational therapist at the Gateway Center of Dunn School, Fort Collins, Colorado. The Gateway Center was one of the philanthropic projects of the Fort Collins Alumnae.

Mrs. Gwen Roberts, M, is executive director of the Pomona Valley Council, Girl Scouts of America. Previously she had been active in scouting work in Pasadena where she was president of the League of Women Voters for almost four years.

Viola Sommermeyer, I, was chairman of a general section at the Southwest Regional meeting of the American Chemical Society held in Riverside, California. Viola, who has served this group since it was chartered in 1941, is the first woman chairman of an American Chemical Society Section in this region.

Dr. W. Leslie Garnett, professor of English at Kent State University, has a two years' leave of absence from the university. She will be affiliated with the Foreign Operations Administration of the U.S. government at the newest mission at Phnom Pemh, the capital of Cambodia. She will work directly with Mr. Chet Chem, Supervisor of Primary Education in Cambodia. Technical and cultural assistance will be given. Teacher education for grades one through six will be organized. Dr. Garnett did her graduate work at the University of Iowa.

Two Birmingham, Alabama, pediatricians have changed some of their college-learned views about children. Reason for the change? Dr. Doris Sturgis Phillips, A II, and Dr. Carey W. Phillips, Jr., became the parents of Anne Sturgis Phillips in July. "It was quite an experience," sighed the proud father. "We just hope she won't be a problem child. It would be embarrassing." adds the second half of the medical team.
