DR. HELEN JOHNSTON
1957 Woman of the Year

Meet Dr. Helen Johnston

Delta Zeta "Woman of the Year"

"A woman of great generosity and skill . . ."

FOR many years Iowa Delta Zetas have known Dr. Helen Johnston's accomplishments at home and in the international scene. All Delta Zetas may now come to know her and take pride in her achievements because Delta Zeta judges from Illinois, Texas, and New York wish you to meet our Delta Zeta "Woman of the Year" for 1957, Dr. Helen Johnston of Des Moines, Iowa.

Iowa Delta Zetas honored Dr. Johnston at a lovely tea in the Gamma Epsilon Chapter house at Drake University. The collegiate Delta Zetas served as hostesses to the friends and sorority sisters of the honoree. In the receiving line with Dr. Johnston were Mrs. Edwin Hodges, President of Des Moines Alumnae Chapter, Diane Wickhorst, President of Gamma Epsilon, and Mrs. George C. Havens, College Chapter Administrator.

The lovely "Delta Zeta Woman of the Year" medallion was presented to Dr. Johnston by Mrs. Havens.

Dr. Johnston has been a physician in Des Moines since 1920, specializing in Internal Medicine. The preparation for her profession came at a time when women were not readily accepted by their associates in the field of medicine.

Our honoree received her B.S. degree from Drake University in Des Moines in 1913, where she was a member of Mortar Board, and her first two years of medical training were received at the University of Iowa at Iowa City. She completed her work at Cornell University College of Medicine in New York City and interned at Memorial Hospital, Worcester, Massachusetts in 1919-1920.

She became a member of Delta Zeta at Iota Chapter, University of Iowa, and has continued her devotion to her sorority throughout the years. She assisted in the sponsoring of the Des Moines Alumnae Chapter and Beta Kappa at Iowa State College at Ames and at Delta Zeta State Days. Her interest and support could be depended upon by all of the Iowa chapters, but Iota chapter has enjoyed her visits most frequently in recent years because her niece, Virginia Foss of Columbus Junction, is a senior and treasurer in the chapter. Her sister, Pauline Foss (Mrs. Lewis E.) of Columbus Junction, Iowa, is also a member of Iota chapter.

Because Delta Zeta has been one of Dr. Johnston's first interests, she served as national treasurer of our sorority from 1930 through 1936. However, another society of international importance as a women's service organization has shared her abilities. Dr. Johnston was elected to the presidency of Altrusa International in 1928 and again in 1929. She has retained her active role in Altrusa and is known to many people outside of the medical circle because of this interest.

Our Woman of the Year also retains membership in the PEO Sisterhood, Des Moines Professional Women's League, AAUW, Business and Professional Woman's Club, the Des Moines Chamber of Commerce, the Embassy Club, and the Des Moines Women's Club.

The range of Dr. Johnston's interests are amply exemplified by this listing. However, her profession has heaped honors upon her which few women doctors have achieved. Since 1947, she has been listed in "Who's Who in Medicine," "Who's Who in America," and "Who's Who in the Midwest." One of the most important honors came to Dr. Johnston last year when she was named "Iowa Medical Woman of the Year" for 1956.

Dr. Johnston's record of service in her profession reveals the reason for the honors she has

“And the Flame Grows” At Bradley

ZETA ALPHA, Delta Zeta's 121st chapter, made its bow on Bradley University campus when it was installed on May 19, 1957. The fifth national sorority at the “Hilltop” university in Peoria, Illinois, it joins the Panhellenic group which includes Chi Omega, Gamma Phi Beta, Pi Beta Phi and Sigma Kappa sororities.

Bradley, founded in 1897, is a fully accredited university. Enrollment figures include over 4,500 students with 200 staff members, of which more than a third have earned Doctor's degrees; more than a third of the remainder have earned at least one master's degree. The faculty is headed by the youthful and energetic Dr. Harold P. Rodes, who became president of Bradley University in 1954.

Dr. Rodes, speaking for the University said, “We are certainly proud to add Delta Zeta to the national sororities already on the Bradley campus. We feel this new chapter will play an important part in the social and educational life of the University.”

Bradley offers more than 50 major fields from which to select a course for a degree. Since World War II the campus has expanded with the addition of new buildings to form a modern quadrangle, and construction is ever increasing. Although Bradley is non-sectarian, the school provides at least 25 courses in religion and has 16 religious organizations to provide discussion and entertainment for the various religious groups. Extracurricular activities are many and varied: special interest clubs, departmental groups, honorary organizations, speech and debate, school paper, yearbook, plays, music, concert and marching bands, chorale, radio singers and chorus.

Through the zealous efforts of four Peoria alumnae, comprising the advisory board, whose motto was “And the Flame Grows,” Zeta Alpha chapter was pledged, trained and installed within five short months. Betty Schimpf Reynolds, Franklin-Psi, in charge of installation plans, Helen Calvert Bliss, Northwestern-Alpha Alpha, Beverly Brouer Hammel, Northwestern-Alpha Initiated on Saturday in a ceremony conducted by Northern Illinois-Gamma Rho chapter from DeKalb were: Penny Butterfield, Barbara Dooley, Andrea Geef, Carole Sue Hendrian, Ruth Monahan, Ann Spencer, Beverly Mateer, Claire Stellas, July Wormood, Marilyn Mooberry, Ruth Dlouhy, Sylvia Jurkovich, Diane Litwiller, Joy Grabow, Leona Burns, and Janette Kreuger.

Alumnæ initiates were: Doris Davis Esslinger, Pekin; Mary Jo Ewalt Tanner, Morton; Eleanor Heder, Chicago; Carole Petri, Chicago; Betty Jean Hedden, Farmington; Vera Zyznieuski, Lois Jane Strayer, Shirley Stever Rice, Lillian Norris Schwarz, Maurita Irwin, and Marion Borin, all of Peoria; and faculty advisor, Dr. Lou Agnes Reynolds, Chanute, Kansas. Two alumnæ of Delta Sigma Epsilon were also initiated: Jean Doubet Brentz, Peoria; and Mrs. Henry Higgins, Galesburg.

Highlighting the installation banquet on Saturday evening was the presentation of the charter by Violet Sharratt Whitfield, national secretary and installing officer. Juanita Kelly Bednar, national director of public relations, was guest speaker, her subject: "In the Flame—A Dia-

The Sunday tea presented the chapter to Bradley faculty and campus and to friends in the Peoria area. Galesburg alumnae handled arrange-received. Besides her devotion to the local patients to whom she administers, she has served as national president of the American Medical Women's Association in 1946-47. In 1934 she was a delegate to the Medical Women's International Association in Stockholm, Sweden, and in 1947 and in 1952 councilor for the same organization to meetings held in Amsterdam and in Vichy, France. She holds memberships in the Polk County Medical Society, Iowa State Medical Society, American Medical Association, American Geriatrics Society, and American Medical Women's Association.

The esteem in which Dr. Johnston is held was exemplified in 1954 when she was chosen by Charles E. Wilson, then Secretary of Defense, to serve on the Defense Advisory Committee on Women in Services for a four-year term. This important committee of 50 outstanding women of the country meets at the Pentagon twice each year.

Friends marvel at her stamina when so many demands are made on her time by patients and activities. Perhaps her diversified activities and hobbies may account for this, as she is an avid fisherwoman plying her luck in recent years in the Gulf of Mexico, Pacific, Canadian and Minne-

"Thank You, Ellen"

ELLEN KROLL JENKINS brought to the editorship of the LAMP a wealth of Delta Zeta as well as journalistic background when she assumed the editorship of the magazine with Volume 32, No. 3 back in March of 1953. She has maintained the high standards set by previous editors while maintaining a full time position as teacher and homemaker. Her resignation after several years of service involving hour upon hour of time given freely and ungrudgingly is understandable.

While a student at Indiana University Ellen was initiated into Epsilon Chapter. She brought outstanding honors to herself and to her chapter through membership in Mortar Board, Phi Beta Kappa, and the presidency of the Y.W.C.A. She graduated in 1944 with honors and received her A.B. degree with a major in English Literature.

During the summer months she attended the University of Illinois where she received her M.S. degree in Library Science in 1951. Now in her eleventh year she is continuing her duties as librarian, year book advisor and teacher of English at Thomas Carr Howe High School in Indianapolis. In her capacity as year book advisor she has taken her students to Indiana University during the summer for the High School Journalism Institute and her students have won several honors in their classification group for layout, editing, and business managing.

Through her work in the journalistic field, evidenced in her year book sponsorship and her editorship of the LAMP, she was elected to an associate membership in Theta Sigma Phi in 1954. This was an honor earned through her work in this field after college graduation, since her undergraduate work was not in this area.

Many Delta Zetas have met Ellen at convention and she was the very capable editor of the 1954 and 1956 editions of the convention Lampkin.

What many Delta Zetas have not met is Ellen's delightful sense of humor. As a punster of long standing I am inclined to greet her efforts with deprecation—but it is an attitude of sheer admiration for she is one of those who constantly make the remarks you wish you had made. She has the ability to shatter the tenseness of a discussion with a phrase or two that reestablishes perspectives. While her job, her husband, and her Indianapolis Alumnae are glad she shall have more time for them, Delta Zeta says "well done, and thanks for all you have given of your time and talents."

sota waters. Among her enjoyments are travel and gardening. She is also interested in the operation of the Johnston family farm of 700 acres. This farm has been owned by her family for well over 100 years.

Not only because of her professional achievements, but also because of Dr. Johnston's unflinching loyalty to Delta Zeta throughout the years, our Des Moines Alumnae Chapter, and collegiate chapters at the University of Iowa, Drake University, and Iowa State College felt that no more deserving member could be presented for this top honor for alumnae of Delta Zeta.

Judges for the award wrote glowing commentary in their choice of Dr. Johnston for Delta Zeta's "Woman of the Year" for 1957. The chairman of the committee concluded their decision with this appropriate line, "For first place, Dr. Helen Johnston. Her amazing scope has brought her international, national, state and local acclaim. A woman of great generosity and skill, she has literally sown her life into the furrow of the world's great need."

A Continuing Tradition:

Joyce Ewald, Lynn LaFrombois Win "New" Scholarships

IN A DSE tradition which Delta Zeta is proud to continue, Joyce Ewald of Cincinnati-Xi chapter has been awarded the Dean Harvey C Minnich Scholarship and Lynn LaFrombois of Wisconsin State-Epsilon Kappa is the 1957 winner of the Delta Sigma Epsilon Founders Scholarship.

Both awards are made annually to outstanding undergraduates. The Founders Award is named in honor of the seven DSE founders at Miami, and the Dean Harvey C Minnich award honors the man who helped them establish the sorority.

Lynn has maintained an impressive scholarship record ever since she graduated in the top four per cent of her Green Bay, Wisconsin, high school class and placed among the top five per cent in the state-wide scholastic aptitude tests given to some 30,000 high school seniors. A junior in business education, she has a 2.49 average ($A = 3$) and ranks at the top of her class.

Although working her way through college with jobs in the school cafeteria and dean of men's office, Lynn has still found time to serve her chapter as treasurer. She has also been active as vice president of her dormitory, secretary of the homecoming committee, and as a member of Future Business Leaders of America and pledge secretary of Mercier, Catholic religious group.

Joyce, a senior majoring in classics and education, is another outstanding scholar who has been on the Dean's List every semester and attained a cumulative average of 2.67 ($A = 3$). Cedric Boulter, professor of classics at Cincinnati, wrote, "She has maintained a consistently high standard, and this in one of the more demanding fields in the college curriculum, especially in this university, where a classics major must demonstrate attainment in both Latin and Greek. She has elected a broad and diversified program in addition to her field of concentration. . . . She is personally endowed with energy and enthusiasm."

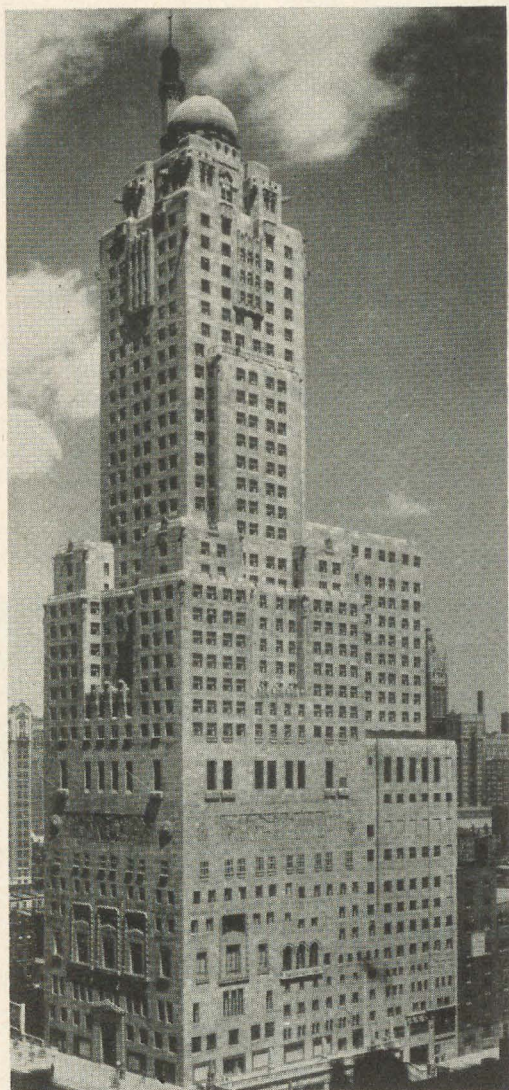

Joyce is also helping her own way through school with summer jobs and work in the library, and has served Xi chapter as Panhellenic representative and philanthropic chairman. On campus she is president of the Classics Club and a member of Kappa Delta Pi education honorary.

Hi! Welcome . . .

DELTA ZETAS

FROM EVERYWHERE,

TO CHICAGO!

THIS WILL BE the "Sheraton-DZ" during June 29-July 4. Located across the street from the famed Wrigley Building and next door to the Tribune Tower, the Sheraton Hotel's meeting and sleeping rooms are all outside rooms and will give conventioners a view of Lake Michigan on one side, Michigan Avenue and the "magnificent mile" on the other.

THE Chicago Alumnae Chapter looks forward to welcoming all of you personally next June at convention time.

There's an interesting and inspiring convention being planned for you in our wonderful city of Chicago, a city whose motto is "I WILL!"

Chicago WILL entertain, instruct, amuse or relax you, whatever you seek, because it is the "Convention City" of the world. We hope that you will plan to spend extra days, beyond the activity-packed convention time, to visit places like the Art Institute, the Museums of Natural History, Science and Industry, Planetarium, and many others just as instructive and interesting.

There are beautiful parks, the lovely drives along the shore of our one and only Lake Michigan. Especially, you must visit Lincoln Park Zoo, where the "Zoo Parade" you love to see on TV originates, as well as Brookfield Zoo.

Perhaps you'd like to visit the campuses of Chicagoland's famous universities—the University of Chicago, Northwestern and Illinois Institute of Technology.

For entertainment you will have a wide variety to suit your taste and pocketbook, and don't forget the free beaches, and park playgrounds with moderate daily fee golf courses. The foreign neighborhoods add international flavor to our exciting "Vacation City of Chicago," with their traditional eating places and shops.

Last but not least, for the gal who wants to shop—"What do you want to buy? What do you want to pay? State Street's got it—every day!" So goes the chant of the radio and TV announcers and how true it is with fabulous Marshall Field and Co., Carson Pirie Scott and Co. and the many other department stores and specialty shops.

It's a wonderful town—our Chicago!

Chicago is the transportation center of the United States, so Delta Zetas, plan to hop your favorite means of travel because they all lead to Chicago and the best Delta Zeta convention ever!

We'll be seeing Y O U !

THE CHICAGO ALUMNAE CHAPTER
Margaret Fry Griesel,
Kentucky-Alpha Theta, President

P.S. Plan to bring your families; they'll have a wonderful time doing the town while you are attending the convention, and after it's over, they can show you around.

"Miss France" (of the U. S.) Is a New Orleans DZ

Michele Renee Bailliet, a native of Guadalope, French West Indies and member of Beta Upsilon Chapter at Newcomb College in New Orleans, was elected Miss France of the United States. The election was held at the Waldorf Astoria in New York City where candidates from many states vied for the honor. The qualifications are similar to those of Miss America with the exception that she should be of direct French descent, and that she should speak the language.

Michele is to be guest of honor at three festivals. The first being the fifth bicentennial celebration of the birth of Lafayette in Chavaniac. From there she will go to the festival of Orleans where she is delegated by Mayor de Lesseps Morrison of New Orleans to present to the mayor of Orleans a letter of citizenship and a gold key to the city of New Orleans. In return she will receive a Gien vase engraved "Orleans to New Orleans" and as a personal gift the collected poetical works of Charles Pegay, a well known poet of Orleans. Michele will also attend a presentation at the Castle of Chambord called "Son y Lumiere," a pageant of sound and light depicting the castle in the height of its glory.

Later she will go to Paris where she will continue her studies at the Sorbonne in Newcomb's Junior-Year-Abroad Program. Michele, who has been active in many campus organizations, is an economics major and eventually hopes to enter the diplomatic service.

Alice Will Be a Candidate For "Best-Dressed" at Ball State

Alice Abroham of Gamma Chi, a senior art student, put her sketching pencil to work and came up with a winning wardrobe of clothes. Alice noticed a newspaper ad last summer announcing a contest in which entrants were asked to list a dream wardrobe that could be purchased for $500. She decided that her list would have to include some sketches, and the judges must have agreed with her choices because she was given the opportunity to select those clothes as first prize winner.

As a final word, Alice was offered a job with the store sponsoring the contest, but she refused, as she prefers elementary teaching.

Alice is vice president of Delta Phi Delta and a member of Kallista.

Two other Gamma Chis have also made news. Toots Pickett was honored as an outstanding art student at the annual Junior Convocation. She is president of Delta Phi Delta, chapter vice president and art editor of the Orient, the school yearbook. Ethel Jean Carmack, chapter historian and secretary of Pi Omega Pi, the business education honorary, was awarded the Panhellenic Scholarship at the Convocation.

DZ Hostess Is Member

When Mrs. Otto Ueberroth was initiated into Delta Zeta sorority she was one of the first hostesses to become a member. She has been hostess for Alpha Epsilon for a year and a half.

Mrs. Ueberroth came to Stillwater, Oklahoma three years ago from Wilmette, Illinois, after her husband's death. Her son, Chris, chose Oklahoma State University as the school he wished to attend.

The new member is a graduate of Forest Park University in St. Louis, Missouri, and majored in music under Ernest R. Kroeger. She also took

When her son attended the National College of Education in Evanston, she organized the Boy Scout group at National and served as den mother for three years. She was also a member of Arden Shores, Chicago Junior's and Infant's Welfare in Wilmette, Illinois.

Her Stillwater home is at 810 S. West Street. She is a member of Lahoma Club, Round Table Study Club three, and AAUW.

Delta Zeta Ambassador

Molly Newland, Western Michigan-Gamma Pi, was Kalamazoo's 1957 Community Ambassador to Switzerland.

The nineteen-year old blonde co-ed toured Europe seeing many wonderful places, including the Bohemian city of Paris, and went hiking in the Swiss Alps. In fact, one of the prized souvenirs of her trip is a pair of the best grade of Swiss hiking shoes, which she expects to find useful on the campus of Western.

Molly is a member of Student Council; elected as Freshman Class Secretary; Sophomore Class Representative; Daisy Chain; Judicial Board, Honor Roll; and elected as A.W.S. first vice-president.

BARB NOXON, MARY RUSSO AND LEE PEARAH put the finishing touches on gifts for the Bucknell Christmas Bazaar, after months of planning and work.

Bucknell Works Year-Round For Christmas Bazaar

For a number of years the Beta Theta chapter, Bucknell University, has sponsored a Christmas Bazaar to raise money for the Gallaudet College Library.

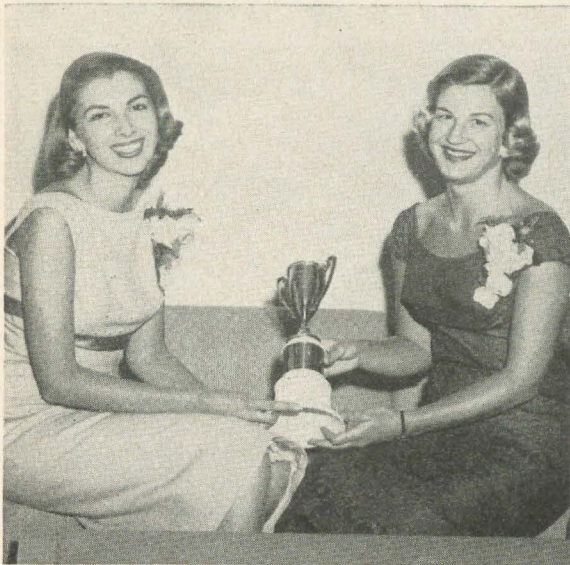

The bazaar, which is usually held in early December, is the chapter's most important philanthropic project; the girls begin making their plans the preceding spring. Almost everything sold at the bazaar is hand-made either by the girls themselves or contributed by mothers and alumnae. New ideas are discussed at the spring meetings and in the fall the girls return with stuffed animals, aprons, ceramic jewelry, baby clothes and more new ideas which they have found during the summer.

At the reopening of school, work on the bazaar begins in earnest. Sunday evening work sessions are held in the suite, during which more items and posters for advertising purposes are made. The serving of refreshments and the fellowship makes the time go fast.

Last year a week end was set aside for a retreat at Cowan, the university recreation center. There the girls were able to spend almost two full days on the preparations for the bazaar, which proved to be worth the effort for the chapter netted $120.

"Ugly Man" Contest Is a Big Event at Cal

This year we're going to WIN, gang! That spirit sped through Mu chapter house, filling heads with ideas and plans. candidates for the highly honored title of Ugly Man and the winner is chosen at a penny a vote. The money thus collected this year went to aid Hungarian refugee students.

The chapter had earned second place for their candidate in 1956 and planned for victory in 1957! We chose to support Bob Shopelein, Theta Xi president and vice president of InterFraternity Council as the ugliest boy we knew. The girls carried out innumerable projects to add money to the growing "Ugly Man Fund."

A continuous paper drive filled the basement with potential income. A gay white elephant auction added more, Perpetual candy sales and popcorn "parties" brought more pennies to add to the total. Added to these projects were cake sales, and inventory and advertisement work for a local store which hired members en masse. More than half of the money that swelled the fund came from the sale of blood to the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank, San Francisco. The sum raised by all these projects was wonderfully big!

We were happy and proud when Bob was crowned "Rex-Ugly." The trophy rests in a hallowed place! And we enjoyed sharing the victor's spoils with the Theta Xis, plus the special thought that not only did we benefit from "Ugly Man" but it was a service aiding others less privileged.

Hoosier Jalene Joyce Felt at Home in Tokyo

A trip to the Orient was a never-to-be-forgotten thrill for Jalene Joyce, a senior at Ball State-Gamma Chi, who was one of ten western-swing entertainers chosen for a U.S.O. tour of the Far East last summer. Jalene plays the accordion and has been entertaining since junior high with her sisters, Janet, 20, who plays the steel guitar, and Joetta, 18, who plays the Spanish guitar. Their TV appearances on "Uncle Bob Hardy's Hayloft Frolic" in Bloomington, Indiana, led to Jalene's being asked to join the Bob Hardy band for the tour.

After six months of planning and rehearsals, the group headed for the East via the West, stopping off at Hawaii and at Wake Island where Jalene saw the ruins of a Japanese World War II battleship still marooned in the harbor. Their first "show" was a special request performance for the servicemen on the plane while at an altitude of 20,000 feet.

In Tokyo Jalene found the people friendly and quite willing to extend their warm hospitality to American strangers.

"The Orient is altogether different from Indiana, and yet I felt at home," says Jalene. "The Japanese are hard-working people and try to put all available soil to good use."

The first thing Jalene saw as they landed in Kimpo, Korea, was a war-ravaged building which still stands—partly as a reminder and partly because there are mine traps in it. The people of Korea live in mud, thatch and tin shacks, and oxen are used as they were thousands of years ago.

"Most of the houses weren't even as good as the shelter my father gives his livestock," said Jalene, who lives on a farm near Camden, Indiana. "I actually had the feeling that I had been put in a world some centuries earlier."

The group usually played two shows a day in Korea and sometimes traveled six hours a day. They entertained for the Army, Marines and Air Force in both Japan and Korea, and Jalene says she never had the satisfaction of really being of service as she did at those shows.

"Our servicemen are lonely and feel forgotten sometimes, and they genuinely appreciate some 'stateside music.' They thanked us over and over and told us we didn't realize how much it meant to them. Up on the front lines, I finally found out just how much it did mean. Those men are almost isolated from the rest of the world and felt that we were a heavenly gift!"

PAT ELIASON of Wesleyan-Beta Tau was in the Miss Nebraska contest as "Miss Wahoo" of 1957. A senior music major, her activities include Wesleyan Dance Band, Girls' Glee Club, band, chorus and piano soloist for the Wesleyan Touring Band. She has also received two scholarships and was on the Wesleyan Honor Roll.

Nancy Magnusson Is DZ's Third Fulbrighter

Nancy Magnusson of Northwestern-Alpha Alpha is Delta Zeta's third Fulbright Scholar this year and is studying voice at the Academy of Music in Munich, Germany, under the auspices of the State Department.

Her selection as a Fulbright representative for the United States comes on top of such honors as winning second in the Metropolitan Opera auditions in Chicago. Nancy has also been featured soloist with both the Chicago and Cleveland Symphonies.

Delta Zeta's other Fulbrighters this year are

KAREN HUKKALA IS MIDWEST BEAUTY WINNER. The lovely Northwestern University blonde who is being featured in many national magazines this fall is Alpha Alpha Chapter's Karen Lee Hukkala, one of three regional finalists in Campana's Solitair College Beauty Queen Contest. She is representing the midwestern schools. The contest runs through May 1, 1958, and the winner will receive a trip to Hawaii along with her national College Beauty Queen title.

Valerie Becker of Missouri Valley-Gamma Gamma and Carol Neese of Franklin-Psi, 1957 winner of the Grace Mason Lundy Award, whose stories were in the summer issue of the LAMP. Both are studying in France and took a three weeks' orientation course in Paris before beginning their studies.

NOTICE

All nominations for National Council offices and all recommendations of any kind (regarding changes of policy or other business to be brought before the membership) should be sent to these chairmen before convention:

Nominations:

Mrs. H. M. Lundy, chairman

Bloomington, Indiana

Recommendations:

Miss Frances E. Westcott, chairman
549 East 84th Street
Indianapolis, Indiana

The object of all this attention is a turtle, if you please—but a turtle of some distinction at Colorado State. No sluggard he, “Fabian” took his cue from these spirited Delta Xi DZs, hoisted high the Rose and Green and trudged to victory in their All-Greek Day Turtle Race. Congratulating their champion are: front row, from left—Jo Steinmark, Sonja Benson, Marilyn Smith, Gwyn Mawery, Maryann Baird and Jeni Lantz; back row—Ellen Bundy, Babbie Burns, Sally Uhler, Jane Nelson, Luanne Woolard and Kathy Yeorous.

AND SO, with hardly a pause for the Asian Flu, busy DZs plunged into everything from winning a “gorgeous gams” contest at Fresno State to throwing a highly successful “Melon Mess” at Iowa . . . Homecoming found Eastern Michigan exulting over “Trophies! Trophies! And more trophies!” . . . Sophie Newcomb welcomed Vice President Nixon as a new DZ brother-in-law. . . . Missouri Valley elected Delta Zetas to five out of six senate posts. . . . Illinois Tech, Long Beach, SMU and Alabama were among those beaming about filled quotas. . . . Kent State found time to test hearing in schools, plan parties for deaf children and make speech notebooks. . . . Oklahoma City pledges were entertaining weekly at the Old Folks Home. . . . Florida Southern sponsored circus tickets for underprivileged children and distributed an official guest list as a campus service project. . . . Washington State DZs looked forward to visiting the elderly bedridden man they’ve “adopted.” . . . And Pittsburgh DZs claimed their fourth consecutive scholarship cup! In all, it was a year to make every DZ proud to wear her Golden Lamp. For more reasons why—including a look at some of the loveliest pledges anywhere—read on and learn about . . .

University of Maine—Alpha Upsilon

Alpha Upsilon's first big project of the fall semester, our annual animal fair, turned out to be very successful. On sale were a large variety of stuffed animals and dolls, all made by the DZs during the summer months. In the evening of the same day our chapter held a stag dance at the Memorial Gym following the first football rally of the year.

Proceeds from this fair will be sent to Gallaudet College.

JUDITH CLAYTER, president

University of Rhode Island—Beta Alpha

Judie Smith was chosen to be co-ordinator of the annual Rhody Revue. DZ's minstrel act was titled "Dixieland." Judie was awarded a plaque and flowers for her hard work.

On April 13, an Easter party was held for underprivileged children of Providence.

Beta Alpha was extremely proud of their past president Judy Henry, who was chosen Miss U. R. I, on the basis of an all-campus election. Judy was also elected to Who's Who. Judie Smith served on the Miss U. R. I court.

Dorian Sundquist and Janice Marcille were elected to Sachems, an equivalent of Mortar Board. Dorian, Judy Rhoades, and Nancy Higgins were elected to Omicron Nu. Judy Nowakowski was elected vice-president of Blue Key, and Helen Sparhawk became a member. Dorian Sundquist was also elected president of W. S. G. A.

We were all proud to see our pledge, Nancy Gordon, reign as queen of the Freshman Ball. Rosanne Cohen served on the queen's court for the Junior Prom.

KATHRYN H. BARBER, editor
JANICE E. MARCILLE, president

University of Connecticut—Gamma Beta

The new officers of Gamma Beta Chapter are C. Nydia Ruperti, president; Grace Bidwell, first vice-president; Grace Bonomo, second vice-president; Dale Strack, recording secretary; Carol McCollom, corresponding secretary; Pauline McGrath, treasurer; Eddi Prokuski, historian.

Eunice Whitney has been elected to Phi Upsilon Omicron. Marie Panciera is president of the Biology Club, and Lois Fox has been made first in command of Angel Flight. One of Gamma Beta's biggest thrills was the election of Dale Strack to the presidency of the Women's Student Government Association, which is one of the biggest offices a woman can hold on the UConn campus. Maureen Shackner was elected WSGA treasurer.

Penny Peninger and Ruth McClellan were both finalists for the University's 75th Anniversary, and Lynne Penek copped beauty awards as Co-Captain of the Military Ball and in the Miss Jaycee of Willimantic contest.

The outstanding pledge award was given to Marietta Schwicect, who earned the honor by showing outstanding leadership and cooperation in her pledge class.

At the annual Panhellenic Tea at UConn, Delta Zeta was awarded second place in activities. We are also very proud of the fact that Gamma Beta came in second place in scholarship achievement which included the entire campus.

Hunter College—Gamma Eta

New initiates are Theresa Angeloro and Elaine Celmer.

Sheila Butler, Dawn Fritz and Erica Richter were on the Dean's List, and girls holding offices on campus include: Audrey Bisson, treasurer of Sociology Club; Sheila Butler, sec.-treas. of senior class, chairman of the Traditions Committee; Dawn Fritz, Roosevelt House chairman; Rosemary Nathan, assistant chairman, Traditions Committee; Carol Powell, vice president, senior class; and Erica Richter, president, senior class. Erica was also named "Miss Hunter."

Right now the initiates are planning for their annual Christmas Formal, which has always turned out very successfully in the past. They are also planning a trip to Florida in January.

Queens College—Delta Epsilon

Delta Epsilon is looking forward to a busy and successful term. At our first standards meeting the subject "How Scholarship Can Be Improved" was discussed by four panelists, Drena Weber, Patricia Peter, Marilyn Sederberg, and Ethel Manuelian. Dr. Emily Philpott, Queens College Student Personnel Counsellor, was moderator. Dr. Philpott is our faculty advisor and was initiated into Delta Zeta last term. It was an open meeting and was well attended by the members of other organizations on campus.

A new NOTE for Delta Epsilon! Helen Kliegl, our treasurer, has taken on a new and more "spiritually" rewarding job. She has organized a Delta Epsilon Glee Club and will serve as its conductor. The club has begun practice for the annual Queens College Song Fest. Every organization on campus participates and the winners are chosen by the faculty and are judged on originality of words and appropriateness as well as the presentation. We won first place last term and third place (although first and second place were won by fraternities and therefore we were the only sorority to win) the term before.

Our winning words were written and arranged to music by Margaret Graham, Marylin McGee and Drena Weber.

Helen was also elected to Phi Beta Kappa and passed the Language Literature and Arts exam with distinction.

QUEENS COLLEGE—DELTA EPSILON pledges won third place at the campus-wide Hell Day show. Margaret Graham did the lyrics and choreography for the Shoe Shine Boys number.

Marylin and Margaret passed the Contemporary Civilization Comprehensive exam with distinction.

Other DZs in the news are Joyce Martinez, treasurer of the Education Club; Marilyn Bock, finalist in the New York City Collegiate Queen Contest; Patricia Peter, on the varsity basketball team; Lorraine Muller, sports chairman of the WRA; and Ann Malone, treasurer of the Home Economics Club and chosen one of three representatives to its national convention in Albany, N.Y.

Marie Ryan is a cheer leader and also won first place for us in the women's relay races in the Sports Jam-boree, in which all campus organizations participate. The chapter won second in the co-ed basketball competition.

Pipe and Bowl Fraternity asked Delta Epsilon to hostess for them at their Coronation Ball, an annual event.

PROVINCE III

Bucknell University—Beta Theta

Fall activities began with hard work on the annual homecoming float with Kappa Delta Rho fraternity. Preparations are also in full swing for our traditional DZ Christmas Bazaar, a big event of the year. Other activities have included "cozies" with other sororities and active participation in inter-group sports: tennis, volleyball and bowling.

Sigma Delta Pi (Spanish honorary) initiated Carolyn Nelbach. Our group proudly welcomed two new pledges, Jane Adams and Elinor Michael.

ROBERTA EADS, editor
SUZANNE BOWMAN, president

George Washington University—Alpha Delta

We initiated three of our Spring 1957 pledges in the beginning of June: Imogene Creech, Norma Engberg, and Patricia Holmes.

Fall pledges are Katherine Herckner and Martha Mitchell.

This past summer, with assistance from National, our apartment was completely redecorated. Mrs. Margaret Dodderidge, of the Washington, D.C., Alumnae, took charge of this large task. The Washington Alumnae worked directly with the chapter on redecoration. Their most generous and excellent help is greatly appreciated by the girls in Alpha Delta. The apartment looks really beautiful and we all are very happy with it.

Drexel Institute of Technology—Epsilon Zeta

Pledges initiated fall term include: Sue Holcomb, Rosalie Foti, Nancy Rebert, Pat Delaney, Mary Jarvis, and Pat Cavanaugh. These pledges put in their work hours by improving rooms in the Panhellenic house.

On October 23 a Founders Day social was held at Temple University with the Philadelphia alumnae and Delta Tau collegiate chapter.

Temple University—Delta Tau

Delta Tau chapter held its rush party and dinner recently. The party was based on a "Gay Nineties" theme. The members were dressed as bartenders, complete with moustaches and bow ties. A chorus line composed of all of the members was the hit of the evening.

Delta Tau took rushees south for its dinner in "Old New Orleans." Alumnae prepared the dinner which featured southern-fried chicken and cherry flambeau.

PROVINCE IV

University of Pittsburgh—Omicron

We won the scholarship trophy, awarded by the Panhellenic Association of Pittsburgh, for the fourth consecutive year, and also were awarded the province scholarship trophy. A championship team of DZs placed first in the inter-sorority volleyball and basketball tournaments.

Cwens, sophomore women's honorary, tapped Marjorie Adams and Virginia Fowler. Marjorie is also corresponding secretary of the class of 1960 while Virginia is treasurer of Idaka, pre-nursing sorority. Patricia Link was tapped by Phi Beta Kappa. Six DZs were tapped by Pi Lambda Theta. They were Patricia Pettigrew, Mary Vichich, Francis Hedges, Joyce Schelm, Lilene Lewis and Barbara Walton. Marcia Getting is president of Quo Vadis, student hostessing organization. Carol Smart is president of Women's Recreational Association.

The DZs at Pitt also have fun. At Spring Carnival with Delta Sigma Phi fraternity we took third place for show front. Carol Smart, female lead in the show, won a second place singing award. At our spring formal, Nancy Parks, president, was chosen Dream Girl.

NANCY LOCKHART, editor

Pennsylvania State University—Gamma Delta

Spring Week was the major event in the schedule of the Delta Zetas at Penn State last semester. The theme was "Tomorrow Land," so we all donned our space helmets and joined in the fun. Our booth, entitled "Jimmy on Jupiter," was a great success. Nine couples represented 9 planets and others represented the moon.

Our new initiates are Carol Wilson, Jane Benson, Jerry Hartman, Rita Witmer, Judy Ewing, Pat Roth, Mary Rohrbeck, and Barbara Easter.

Barbara Drum was newly initiated as president of the Women's Recreational Association. Jane Heltman and Diane Barnhart were initiated into Omicron Nu, Home Economics honorary.

Much fun was had by all at our farewell party for our seniors. The idea was to dress as crazily as possible. There was everything from mock "football" pajamas to bathing suits and sneakers.

We all spent many evenings shooting basketball or participating in some other activity, in the intramural sports program; but we were greatly rewarded by receiving the W. R. A. participation trophy.

Pennsylvania State Teachers College—Gamma Phi

Gamma Phi began its autumn activities with construction of its float for the Homecoming Day Parade of Nations. With Japan as its theme, the float, complete with pagoda and kimono-clad DZs, struck quite an impression on Homecoming Day viewers. Helping with the float this year were our four new fall pledges: Phyl Calterone, Marge Boring, Betty May Maddox, and Sally Chima. Gracing the KDR float was their Sweetheart, Jan Escott, along with Lorraine DeForno, member of her court. Wanda Kalamas, Sweetheart of Sigma Phi Epsilon and Char Weiser, member of Sigma Tau Gamma's court, also appeared in the parade.

Among the senior class officers are Carole Huk, secretary, and treasurer, Jan Snyder.

Money-raising projects for the year include a magazine sale, rummage sale, car washes, and the sale of sorority aprons made by girls in the chapter.

Since Gamma Phi wishes to continue holding a full-quota membership, good second semester rushing procedures are beginning early this year with a DZ Rush School.

Clarion State Teachers College—Epsilon Theta

On homecoming day, two of our junior class attendants, Sally Bryan and Pricilla Burns, will be riding the Queen's Float, and Doris Calhoun will be represented as Sig Tau White Rose Queen.

One of our projects this fall is a leave-raking contest with all the girls divided into teams and working in competition with each other. The girls will select certain sections of town, and they will be divided among the girls. The team to rake the most yards and collect the most money will be treated by the other girls.

Marshall College—Delta Upsilon

We won first place in the annual Mother's Day Sing. Along with the honor, came a beautiful trophy and telegrams of congratulations from the other Greek organizations on campus, who were competing against us.

Ann Garrity was selected to Who's Who, and Shirley Mitchell was one of the eight persons of her class to become a member of Fagus (equivalent to Mortar Board). Janice Hawgate was initiated into Alpha Lambda Delta, and Freda Akers became a member of Fourth Estate (journalism honorary).

To start the 1957-58 school year, we initiated our 1957 second-semester pledges. Amelia Loretta received a bracelet for model pledge, and Nola Kay Graves received the scholarship bracelet. We also initiated twenty-two Delta Sigma Epsilon alumnae.

University of Kentucky—Alpha Theta

Alpha Theta got off to a flying start! The rush parties began with "DZ Dreamboat." After walking up the gang plank the rushees boarded the stern of the Dreamboat. There they saw Captain Sandy Stiles at the helm, as she announced the exciting show.

"A look into the 20's with DZ," took the rushees back to 1923, to a Charleston Party. They soon learned that it was in 1923 Alpha Theta Chapter was founded at the University of Kentucky. Highlighting the evening was a style show featuring the perfect attire for the DZ freshman of 1923. Everyone enjoyed the Charleston

MARSHALL—DELTA UPSILON's second rush party had a "Disneyland" theme. The front porch of the house was made into a castle, and the rushees had to slide down a slicky-slide into the hallway. The house was divided into Tomorrowland, Frontierland, and Fantasyland. The favors were large stuffed Mickey Mouses, and the members were dressed as Walt Disney characters. Kneeling left to right are Mary Hanna and Pat Blackburn, and standing, starting with Dumbo, are Lucy Stevens, Kitsy Buckner, and Amelia Loretta.

as it was so ably done by Barbara Kohl and Charlott Bailey.

Out of the darkness and into the Sultan's Palace the rushees were magnetically drawn. There they felt the mystical atmosphere of the soft colored lights, the weird music, and the yards and yards of exotically draped colorful material, which set the scene of the Arabian Nights Party. The rushees were delighted to peer into the Sultan's Treasure Chest to see precious Delta Zeta jewelry. When the Sultan rubbed her lamp the DZ Genie appeared and told about the Delta Zeta Harems of the past and future.

Rush was dramatically climaxed at the end of the week by the beautiful and impressive Rose Ceremony.

Sunday, September 28, 1957 Alpha Theta pledged the following girls: Mary Collins, Fredwyn Creech, Patricia Dolwick, Alice Evenburgh, Betty Greene, Valerie Hembree, Martha Keffer, Gloria Knuckles, Anne Loomis, Linda Lucas, Patricia Ann Pelfrey, Margaret Quisenberry, Joyce Sangston, Earlean Sneegas, Cecily Sparks, Linda Stevens, and Sarah Taylor.

At Panhellenic Pledge Presentation on October 4, Alpha Theta was awarded a silver tray for having the highest sorority pledge standing. Also at this time, two of her girls were awarded Panhellenic scholarships.

New officers are: Patricia Rice, president; Mary Wilhoit, first vice president and historian; Hilda Hulett, second vice president and Panhellenic delegate; Alice Cooke, recording secretary and social chairman; Barbara Schwier, corresponding secretary; Barbara Bowen, treasurer and scholarship chairman; Gail Wagoner, standards chairman; and Frances Rhodus, press chairman. We are also proud to announce that Donna Catherine Strain is president of our Panhellenic organization for the year 1957-58.

Mary Wilhoit and her mother, Mrs. S. E. Wilhoit, formerly a Lambda Omega, were initiated together on Saturday, October 12, 1957.

Our chapter has engaged in several fund-raising campaigns, the latest being a rummage sale. All the girls have participated in our fund-raising campaigns and have gotten a great deal of enjoyment in working together toward a common goal.

The return to school in September brought pleasure as we surveyed the redecoration work in the chapter room and kitchen.

Our new pledges are Bette Skeen, Bessie Turner, Wanda Edwards, Diane Johnson, Mary Ray Douglas, Mary Katherine Wong and Julia Bartlett. Beta Gamma also initiated Lynn Callahan recently.

Between our annual open house and homecoming, everything is buzzing. The pledges are preparing for the DZ Sweetie-Pie contest sponsored at our open house and the initiates are planning a cake and cookie sale to raise money for the Miami Chimes.

Outstanding girls within the sorority include Barbara Bailey, editor-in-chief of the Cardinal (school paper), Outstanding Junior Woman, and Mortar Board awards; Della Homans, Cwens, society editor of the Cardinal, Outstanding Freshman Woman; Della and Pat Negilski, co-organization editors of the Thoroughbred (yearbook); Barbara Abbott, Colonel, Air Force Sponsors; Nancy Curry, Secretary, Air Force Sponsors.

Within the neophyte Marching Cardinalette's are nine

Delta Zetas: Lynn Callahan, Nancy Curry, Mary Ray Douglas, Della Homans, Diane Johnson, Carol Jungbert, Betty Meenach, Bessie Turner, and Ann Walls.

Bonnie Reed, Sonya Sidorec, Carol Sutphin, Myra Taylor, Linda Terry, Katherine Tesarik, Kathryn Thompson, and Sara Wesley.

This year we had many "Sweethearts" on campus. Sharon Shea, our vice president, was sweetheart of Lambda Chi Alpha. Tommie Thompson, president, was sweetheart of Alpha Delta Phi and Pat Wenzel was sweetheart of Zeta Beta Tau.

Each spring, freshman girls are chosen to be counselors for the coming year. This year Louise Kaiser, Sally Pagen, Dottie Sheets, and Pat Mannasmith were chosen for the honor. Tommie Thompson was honored by being tapped for Mortar Board. Tommie is also a member of Cwen, Psi Chi, and Delta Phi Delta. Joyce May is a Sper this year and is also a member of the Student Senate.

At the ATO circus we were presented with a trophy for our skit, "Eloise." Shirley Miller was chosen Sigma Phi Epsilon Queen of Hearts, Donna Parent was on the court. Karen Mercy was a member of the Theta Kappa Phi sweetheart court and Phoebe Cheffy was an attendant on the court of Phi Kappa Sigma. Martha Louttit gained a position on the highest student judicial body at Ohio State and in addition was elected a senator for the senior class.

We held our spring formal at Lincoln Lodge and a picnic the following day at Blendon Woods. Ann Evans, chosen outstanding pledge, was presented with the pledge ring at the dance.

University of Cincinnati—Xi

Tops among our many projects was the complete remodeling of our sorority house. We now have a beautiful new home with much added space and room for 13 girls to live.

During formal rush we pledged the following girls: Frederica Syler, Barbara Berk, Helen Jaegi, Arlene Jaspers, Patricia Whitney, Miriam Harris, Sandra Riddinger, Marilyn Snow, Joan Querner, Mary Ellen Page, Nancy Edwards, and Sandra McPeck. We also pledged in open rush Carol Sweezey.

We recently initiated three girls: Joan Rinckel, Arlene Kelsch, and Rosalie Ernest.

We are very proud of two Xi Delta Zeta's who won national awards. Joan Sisk won the Arlene Davis Aviation Award and Joyce Ewald won the Dean Harvey C Minnich award.

Three of our girls were chosen as Junior Advisors. The selection is made on the basis of scholarship, interest, and campus activities. Those chosen were Joan Sisk from Applied Arts, Janet Gray from Teacher's College, and Barbara Bleier from Business Administration.

This year we started something new. We had a retreat over the week end at one of the lakes in Ohio. This was to get the actives and pledges better acquainted. We spent it discussing sorority life and the responsibilities and fun that was ours in joining Delta Zeta. We all felt that this was a big help in uniting the group and bringing us just a little closer together.

Wittenberg College—Beta Chi

A chartered bus provided transportation of 33 DZs to State Day at Toledo where we received the Scholarship Improvement award in our state.

Barbara Anderson received the Outstanding Senior award of Beta Chi at our annual Honors Day, and Phyllis Froelich received the Service award, Janet Burnside the pledge scholarship and Martha Hiltbrand the Outstanding Pledge award.

Lucy Musser has been selected as student director for the "King and I" while Arlene Fabian will be assistant technical director. Arlene also is student director for "Boy With a Cart." Included in the chorus for this drama are DZs Diane Westfall, Karen Stiles, Helene Ettlinger, Judy Baunach and Phyllis Carl.

Sue Allion has been elected treasurer of the A Cappella Choir, vice president of Kappa Delta Epsilon and was also a candidate for Homecoming Queen.

Beta Chi's new pledges are: Sandra Anderson, Judy Baunach, Sandy Brackenbush, Alice Danford, Clarice Dittmar, Helene Ettlinger, Judy Greim, Marilyn Heinz, Joan Hendrickson, Janet Knight, Carol Koontz, Ruth Lehman, Karleen Newton, Carol Raster, Sandy Scattergood, Pat Shirley, Karen Stiles, Margaret Voigt, Diane Westfall, Ann Williams, Janice Winans.

"All I See Is Tigers, Tigers Tigers!" came from a battered Muskingum player as he lay on the couch of Dr. Ezra's psychiatric office. This was the theme of the Homecoming display which the whole chapter erected for the pleasure of the alumni.

The Delta Zeta Quartet, consisting of Pat Flint, Pat Adams, Nancy Yockey and Eleanor King, won first place in the annual all-university quartet contest.

The chapter placed third of eight sororities in scholarship spring quarter.

Bernie Ohlin was elected secretary of Phi Gamma Nu, professional business sorority. Elinor Nelson and Mary Ann Eichenberg were elected to Kappa Delta Pi education honorary, and Mary Hannah is its new president. Mary and Mary Ann were also initiated into Phi Alpha Theta, history honorary, and Karlyn Vaughan and Jeanne Bishop pledged Kappa Omicron Phi, home economics honorary. Karlyn was also elected president of Laurels, Kent's Mortar Board equivalent, and she and Mary Ann pledged Cardinal Key.

Marilyn Witzler and Sally Doran were finalists in the ROTC sponsors contest. Joe Ann Metcalf was Sweetheart of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and during the summer Marilyn Burrell, a recent initiate, was a finalist in the Miss Lake Placid Contest.

In the all-university elections, Pat Flint, our president, was elected junior representative to Student Council and Mary Ann Eichenberg is the senior representative. Mary Hannah was chosen the senior AWS representative.

Philanthropic projects last spring included continued testing of hearing in the schools, parties for deaf children and making speech notebooks. This work was also continued this fall.

The entire pledge class was initiated May 5. Doris Miscoe was named model pledge, and Marilyn Burrell received the scholarship award.

This fall, after whole-hearted participation in Greek Week, our Pat Flint was elected co-queen and presented at the dance which climaxed festivities. Libby Kirk was secretary of the Greek Week committee, and Nancy Yockey was appointed editor of the Greek Week paper for next fall.

Western Michigan College—Gamma Pi

Gamma Pi has initiated many wonderful girls into sisterhood. They are: Carol Axford, Sue Bachi, Dee Braames, Phyllis Boccia, Jean Carr, Brenda Christie, Helen Couturier, Betty DeBoer, Karen Fitting, Frankie Harper, Shelia Henderson, Jean LaBranche, Jackie Mallette, Katie Mileski, Fran Miller, Molly Newland, Freddy Phieffer, Sue Pearson, Judy Schander, Mitzi Smith, Sidney Smith, Sharon Spann, and Jan Young.

Our chapter took many honors on campus such as: honorable mention on our top hat float; won first place in Freshman Carnival; won third place in Sorority Sing with a peppy song, "Surrey With The Fringe On Top." Delta Zeta was the only sorority in the Snow Carnival to place. Greek Week, the Delta Zetas took honors in various activities such as canoe racing, pie eating contests, egg throwing contests—in fact, we just about won everything!

This year, Helen Couturier is president of Kappa Delta Pi; Patricia Carpenter and Barbara Barnes were in Arista; Sharon Wurfel was on the Dean's List; Sally Meyers graduated Summa Cum Laude, and Jean Briney graduated Cum Laude; Joanna Barinotti was AWS Outstanding Senior and Girl Of The Month. Jo Nederlof and Jane Milliman were on the court for Delta Sigma Phi Sweethearts. Mitzi Smith was the state champion rollerskater in Michigan.

Gamma Pi gave a hearing aid to the Constance Brown Hearing Society as part of their philanthropic project.

We started off the spring term by having our Delta Zeta sisters, Marilou Taylor, Mary Jo Searles, and Miriam Stelzer admitted to the new Women's Honorary, Adaki.

Our entire chapter was assigned to rush committees in preparation for this fall's rush. The plans were all set up before school was out last June. We had an Italian theme and everything ran smoothly.

Our theme for homecoming this year was, "Of Thee I Sing." For the second consecutive year, Gamma Sigma won first prize for sorority floats, and this year won Gamma Sigma would like to thank Mrs. Agnes Kelly, for the use of her recreation room in building our float. The coffee and cookies really gave us the energy to work on our prize. Thank you, Mrs. Kelly.

Gamma Sigma really played a big part in Eastern Michigan's Homecoming this year. We are very proud to congratulate our Delta Zeta sister, Barb Youngerman, who made Homecoming Court.

Central Michigan College—Gamma Psi

Judy Smith was chosen to appear on this year's Homecoming Queen's Court. Gamma Psi's float is a Mississippi River Showboat, complete with a water wheel. The slogan—"Wheel Show 'em!"

Every afternoon Gamma Psi members can be seen out on the field practicing football. We're getting ready for our annual "Powder Puff Bowl" with Zeta Tau Alpha. Every year this traditional event draws a large body of spectators. We're hoping to repeat last year's victory and keep the "Jug" which is passed back and forth to the winner.

Our chapter has also volunteered to help with recreational activities out at the Children's Home and Training School here in Mt. Pleasant. This hospital is for mentally retarded children and should be quite an educational experience for all of us.

Nancy Bell and Karen Gast were elected to Pleiades, national honorary for organized upperclass women. Karen is also secretary of Panhellenic and received Phi Beta Kappa recognition. Janet McGeorge was elected to Enonome, freshman honorary. Dorothy Kretsch is a director of the senior class and vice president of Pleiades. Aldora Graf is president of Psi Chi, national Psychology honorary, and Nancy Bell is vice president of the Y.W.C.A. Marsha Spruill is associate editor of the Indiana Daily Student, the campus newspaper.

Gretchen Felger was initiated last May and is studying this year in Switzerland. Jane Baker transferred to Epsilon from Gamma Nu at Eastern Illinois State College.

Our chapter events have included the spring formal dance, "Chant de la Mer," the annual faculty dessert, and the Founders' Day banquet. We gave $25 to Gallaudet College in honor of Mrs. Mary D. Campbell, 1956 Woman of the Year and Epsilon alumna. Outstanding pledges for 1956-57 are Marilyn Otterbach and Janet McGeorge. Northwestern University—Alpha Alpha Alpha Alphas returned to campus this fall to find the house beautifully redecorated. The new wallpaper and upholstery in the entrance hall, living room, and library have received much admiration from visitors.

Under the enthusiastic drive of Rush Chairman Carol Tomko, we filled our quota and obtained one of the top pledge classes on campus!

New pledges are: Arlene Anton, Bea Badger, Constance Bastian, Charlotte Brown, Mary Jane Brown, Juanita Cox, Ann Dalrymple, Betsy Dobrik, Frances Fuller,

Marilyn Collins is a new initiate.

After the initiation luncheon, there was a pizza party for the girls at the home of alumna, Mrs. Richard Stafford. One of the pledges, Marian Strickland, was our Delta Tau Delta Pajama Queen candidate.

Another beauty, blonde Karen Hukkala, is one of the three finalists in the national Campana beauty queen contest, and four of our girls are candidates for Homecoming Queen. Combining good looks with intelligence, med student Nancy Staley became a Phi Beta Kappa this year. Pi Mu Epsilon, national math honorary, initiated Karen Schroeder, and the Elsie Eckstein music scholarship was awarded to Dorie Nielsen. To top these honors off, our soprano, Nancy Magnussen, who graduated last June, received a Fulbright and is currently studying music in Germany.

This fall 98 per cent of our chapter became Big Sisters to new students, and Randy Irmis was chairman of the campus' Big Sister-Little Sister party, while Pat Stein was public relations chairman. Comedienne Pat has also been humoring the A & O Board, the Elections Commission, and last spring carried the Student Congress' Junior Class Vice President nomination by a white ballot. Pat began her acceptance speech with: "Like the girl who's just through a screen door, I feel so strained!"

After a summer spent working, in summer school, or in Europe, our girls came back to school ready for fall rushing. Tau pledged nine new girls: Lois Kaercher, Martha Crawford, Marion Clark, Martha Bullamore, Helen Johnson, Laurelyn Schellin, Marilyn Duwe, Judi Lenz, and Barbara Williams.

Our social activities began with exchange suppers, listening parties and football game coffee hours. The next big event was our open house which followed the traditional theme of Club 142. Pink lemonade was served in cocktail glasses by candlelight and menus from famous restaurants decorated the house.

Activities girls included Alice Carswell, campus judicial chairman; Margaret Mullen, Home Economics Council president; Bonnie Barstow, Daily Cardinal photography editor; and Janet Sheperd, Country Magazine home economics editor.

We recently moved into a new sorority house, in which fourteen of our members live. Our first dinner at our new house was made even more memorable by the fact that it was held on the first anniversary of Epsilon Kappa's initiation as a chapter of Delta Zeta.

We enjoy our new house very much. Two spacious living rooms afford much opportunity for relaxation, watching television, gathering around the piano and entertaining.

Our fall dance, held after the first football game of the season had as its theme "September Song." The dancers whirled under a ceiling decorated with huge colored leaves which sparkled and swayed as the breeze caught them. Real branches lined the walls and entrance giving a lovely forest effect.

Sandra Olson is our candidate for Homecoming Queen. Our homecoming float has as its theme, "We'll Hatch a Victory," and depicts a large egg which opens to show "Miss Victory." Our house decorations will depict a huge banjo with the caption "We'll String Up a Victory."

University of Illinois—Alpha Beta

We at Alpha Beta have been "busy bees" since last spring. In April we entertained at two special banquets—a faculty dinner in honor of our favorite faculty members, and our semi-annual scholarship banquet, at which those who boasted a 4.0 (B) average or better feasted on steaks, the rest rating hamburger.

April also was the start of a very successful co-rec softball season with the Theta Delta Chi's, in which we took the sectional top spot. We had loads of fun planning our Spring Carnival booth, "Etc., Etc., Etc.", again with the Theta Delts. The main attractions were cha-cha lessons, shoe shines, and poloroid pictures.

In May we honored our moms for the annual Mom's Day Weekend on campus and held our annual Rose Formal in the Urbana-Lincoln Hotel.

Barbara Skalski was chosen by the Lambda Chi Alphas as their "1957 Crescent Girl." Gloria Marshall was one of the finalists in the National College Queen Contest and went to Asbury Park, N.J., for the final judging. Terry Butler received a major chairmanship appointment in the Illini Union Student Activities organization. Sharon Reeves received first place honors with her wood sculpture in the Christocentric Arts Festival. June was the departure month for one of our 1957 graduates, Dawn Butler, who received an appointment to teach in Hawaii!

We pledged 15 girls from May and June rush.

Bradley—Zeta Alpha

In May the Zeta Alpha chapter presented its first annual "Crown Jewel Ball." We took our cue from the jewels in our active pins.

At Bradley's Campus Carnival for charity, Judy Womood reigned as "Old Maid." The Delta Zeta booth gave away gold fish to winners.

Wakapa, the Senior honorary, asked two of our eligible members, Sylvia Jurkovich and Penny Butterfield, to belong.

Last summer the chapter moved from their house which accommodated six girls to a colonial type house, a few blocks away, which will house twenty-eight girls. As one proceeds from the newly decorated rose-beige living room to the upstairs, one notices the individual tastes. These rooms vary from the strictly feminine, with pink walls and frilly cafe curtains, to an oriental room, which possesses an Italian rooster and a voodoo doll from Venice (of all things).

During fall rush we took in thirteen new pledges. They are Judy Le Grande, Annette Palmgren, Ruth Robards, Judy Unruh, Sharon Simpsen, Marilyn Allen, Marilyn Traub, Barbara Meier, Jean Pottle, Linda Lander, Sandy Dragisic, Sondra Porch, and Carol Walter. New initiates are Mary Lou Stuebe and Beverly Streeter.

Before the rush of Homecoming the chapter gave Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity an "Odd Ball Party." Janice Goldman won first place dressed as a potato sack, and Annette Palmgren won second place as a towel.

University of Iowa—Iota

Piles of work to be done greeted all returning Iotas, as we prepared for formal rush. It was worth the effort, though, as Delta Zeta received 28 pledges, the largest pledge class on campus, and was only 4 short of having quota. Informal rush yielded one more as this letter went into the LAMP.

New pledges are: Mary Lou Ales, Judy Andrews, Mary Birkbeck, Chris Carstensen, Nancy Collins, Janet Conklin, Vicki Driscoll, Patricia Dvorak, Katherine Erwin, Carolyn Fash, Barbara Grob, Jacqueline Jenkins, Jule Leonard, Charlene Martin, Barbara McIntyre, Joan McNeil, Dorothy Meek, Linda Miller, Marilee Olson, Sally Reinhart, Nancy Rhodes, Sharon Rhodes, Sheila Sawdey, Mary Ellen Shaughnessy, Mary Lou Simms, Joan VanderNaald, Joan Vogt, Judy Whitmer, and Nancy Zearing.

New initiates are Esther Forbes, Iowa City, Ia., Suzanne Hill, Forest City, Ia., Sandra Sprague, Newton, Ia., and Melvene Weld, Clarion, Ia.

Three of the new pledges were in "Profile Previews," an all-campus style show for which the girls must try out, go to modeling sessions, and model before any of the student body that attends. Nancy Collins, Carolyn Fash, and Sally Reinhart were the DZ entrants.

Judie Klingberg was one of approximately 12 girls on campus who participated in the annual Dolphin Swimming Fraternity's Homecoming water show.

The DZ "Melon Mess" was again held on October 9 and was well-attended by members of several social fraternities and sororities, with about 250 in all. We obtained a truck-load of melons and rented the City Park Pavilion for the evening. The DZs brought records and a record player, and there was dancing in the shelter, lots to eat, and lots of fun. It is the only event on campus where one sorority acts as hostess to all the other groups. A watermelon fight "highlighted?" the event which was advertised in all the social Greek houses by skits put on by members. Blackface was worn and several girls went barefoot, to their later sorrow (some of those gravel driveways were just too much!).

Iotas are well represented in the famed Scottish Highlanders, with Nancy Collins, Joan McNeil, Nancy Rhodes, Margaret Osborn, and Jacky Norgaard wearing the kilts of Stewart clan plaid.

Iowa State College—Beta Kappa

One of the first nights we were back, a chapter picnic was held at a local park where we enjoyed hot dogs and tales of the summer.

We now have a wonderful pledge class of 24 top girls, 11 pledged during formal rush and 13 during informal rush.

The first week end after school started, the Delta Zeta house at 2138 Sunset Drive was empty, for its regular inhabitants were touring the hillsides, jumping across creek beds, balancing themselves on an old tree stump and even bird-watching and leaf-collecting in the surrounding colorful hillsides, for it was our first annual retreat with our pledges at the 4-H Camp near Boone, Iowa. In the evening, we split up into four groups and discussed social, alumnae relations, philanthropies, and scholarship. Many good ideas were received and it sounds like a good year in Delta Zeta. Skits and songs were given by each class, including the new pledges. It was a wonderful week end and drew us all closer together as we begin a new year.

Marilyn Werner, our president, was one of six sorority girls tapped for the first Greek honorary at Iowa State. Last spring during the annual Veishea celebration, which is the largest student managed festival in the nation, Marilyn was tapped president of Mortar Board. This is the highest honor that can come to a girl in her four years at Iowa State.

Parents' week end was another special event for the Beta Kappas. All of our parents were invited to attend the football game with their daughters and then a tea was given at the chapter house by our Mothers Club. A buffet supper followed.

It looks like a good year for the Beta Kappas. Best Wishes to DZs everywhere.

Drake University—Gamma Epsilon

Gamma Epsilon of Delta Zeta at Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa, had an exciting spring semester.

In the annual Drake Relays parade float competition, the DZs were awarded second place for their colorful float. It was a big brown chicken and yellow and brown basket full of gigantic eggs, with the slogan reading "Don't Count Your Chickens Before They Hatch." In the eggs were DZ's dressed in yellow and white to add more color and life to the float.

The spring initiates were Mary Lou Calabretta, Kathie Merillat, Gayle Hedtke, Rosemarie Gargano, Jenice Savage, Virginia Ruehl, Patricia Theis, Perth Amboy, Sharon West, Ruth Buzinski, Renetta Ross, Janet Pojman, Ellene Guse, Caroline Baker, Beverly Barnard, Margaret Ann Miller, Belinda Bergdahl, Edith Rae Groustra, and Barbara Paxton, and Janie Walker.

Nancy Casey was one of five finalists in the Miss Drake Contest and Caroline Baker and Nancy Casey were two of the five finalists in the ROTC's Cadet Colonel Contest. Dixie Meyer was a finalist in the Homecoming Queen Contest.

Jo Ellen Renich, our past president, was elected to Mortar Board, and Ellene Guse, Edith Rae Groustra and Patricia Theis were pledged to Alpha Lambda Delta. Nancy Casey was initiated into Phi Gamma Nu, honorary business sorority. Paula Pivonski was made a member of Mu Phi Epsilon while Edith Rae Groustra became an active member of Sigma Alpha Iota, both honorary professional music sororities. Delta Zetas also held many offices in the Student-Faculty Council and on the newspaper and yearbook staffs.

The drama students in Delta Zeta had many leading parts in University and Des Moines productions, the foremost being Paula Pivonski who played the lead in the Des Moines Community Playhouse production of the "Desperate Hours."

All in all, it was a semester to make every Delta Zeta at Drake proud to wear her golden LAMP.

Outstanding during this fall's rush week was the Roman Party given by the DZ's at which all of the DZs wore Roman togas and the rushees sat on mattresses covered with pastel colors. It was a very impressive and rewarding party. The DZs were rewarded for their diligent efforts with a pledge class of nineteen: Connie Wild, Lois Limbaugh, Marynell Reifel, Gayle Graff, Janet Davis, Connie Mikkelsen, Beverly Pomperger, Dolores Melby, Nancy Phillips, Bette Jean Stone, Janet Monticelli, Susan Casey, Sally VanOosten, Judy Frease, Roberta Johnson, Linda Gerhardt, Judy Klinefeldt, Shirley Remele, and Margie Glancy.

The Delta Zetas started off the year with a "bang" by having Susan Casey chosen as one of the twenty-one finalists in the Miss Drake Contest.

With our new class of initiates and our new class of pledges, the coming year promised to be one full of honors and good times for all of us Delta Zetas here at Drake University.

This fall Delta Zeta topped all sororities on campus with 29 new pledges! These new pledges are very out-vice president and pledge trainer; Marjorie McManamy, second vice president and rush chairman; Marilyn Hennings was reelected treasurer; Karen Hansen, recording secretary; Jo Ann Srb, corresponding secretary; Vicky Alberding, historian; Barbara Lewis, standards and scholarship chairman; Barbara Adams, Activities chairman; Kay Kelly Brown and Anita Kalskett guards.

Our Homecoming float theme is "Signed and Sealed," using a seal to coincide with the parade theme, "Morningside Menagerie." The day of the Homecoming game we are holding a banquet and tea for alumnæ and initiates.

Our annual Spring Formal was held with our brother fraternity, Sigma Phi Epsilon. At this time we elected a Sig Ep Knight.

At the annual Agora Carnival the pledges produced a talent show with the slogan, "DZ Darlins'."

BETA TAU AT NEBRASKA WESLEYAN topped all the other sororities on the campus this fall with 29 pledges, who are pictured above. The returning initiates were pleased to be the owners of a new hi-fidelity set along with some improvements in their room decorations.

The social calendar featured a retreat for the 29 new pledges and a hayride which was a lot of fun.

New initiates are Anne Gilbert, Elaine Wittig, Patricia Arth Wolfe and K'Anice Hill.

Stout State College—Zeta Beta

On April 13, 1957, the Gamma Chapter of the University of Minnesota initiated the proud girls of the Hyperian Local Sorority at Stout State College into Delta Zeta as the Zeta Beta Chapter.

Among girls gaining recognition for activities on campus are Carol Bibby and Mary Hitesman, Phi Upsilon Omicron, national home economics honorary fraternity; Kathy van Doorn, Panhellenic president; Mary Hitesman, Home Economics Club treasurer; Beverly Spry, Symphonic Singers treasurer; Ruth Olson, vice president of Symphonic Singers; Alma Dearth, Women's Recreation Association Board; Carol Bibby, vice president of YWCA; Marlys Vieths, secretary of YWCA; Ruth Stratman, Gamma Delta secretary; Marval Klecker, Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatics fraternity; and Carolyn Greinke, Panhellenic Council and ex officio member of the Women's Recreation Association.

The Delta Zeta skit for Stunt Night last April was titled "The Left Arm of Budda." The skit won first place among all of the organizations on campus.

"One Mint Julep" was the theme of the annual formal-dinner dance held May 25, 1957, at the Menomonie Country Club. To climax the year, Delta Zeta presented an award to an outstanding junior girl, Charlotte Pengilly, in an award's convocation for seniors.

After coming back to school in the fall and working very hard on our float for the homecoming parade, we took first place as the "most beautiful," the theme being "Orchids to our Team!" Also, the alumnae were honored at a Homecoming Breakfast. To top everything all off, the Homecoming Football Princess of 1957 was our own Delta Zeta, Dori Aramori from Hilo, Hawaii.

Recently the Zeta Beta Chapter decided to purchase Joan Marie matching Nile green sweaters and skirts, which will be worn every Thursday—known as sorority day—on campus.

Two of our members, Jan Jackson and Valerie Becker, were chosen for Cap and Gown, an honorary senior women's society organized only last year. Valerie was a charter member and also chosen outstanding senior of her class.

We also wish to congratulate Dorice Willoughby who was elected dormitory president and Diane Johnston, secretary. We also have five out of six senators in the Student Senate and five members on the Women's Student Government Association. Coradean Czechin is now vice president of the Women's Athletic Association and Sharon Maitland is second vice president of the newly-organized Viking Pep Club.

During the spring semester all students participated in a carnival to raise money for CARE. We are happy to announce that Gamma Gamma was tops.

With all the outside activities and offices held by Gamma Gamma members, it is evident that we have not forgotten our major purpose. At the beginning of this semester our grade average was not only a "B" but we now have eight on the Dean's honor list.

After a Big Jim Party this spring, four girls were pledged and initiated. They were: Donna Jo Garner, Kathleen Goforth, Mary Jane Shaw, and Carolyn Barr. Two alumnae, Mrs. Grover Redford and Mrs. Milo Milanovich, and Sue Green, a DSE, were also initiated.

Fall rush was based on the theme "Around the World in 80 Days," and nine girls were pledged, bringing our total membership to 32. The new pledges are: Shirley Musgrave, Maryln Randall, Sandra Moore, Helen Stockton, Judy Newmyer, Julie Rodina, Jenelle Reed, Suzanne Marshall, and Grace Reilly.

Right now Gamma Gamma is working on plans for a hayride and also a serenade for one of our pledges, Jenelle Reed.

Epsilon Gamma began its fall activities with a gay Calypso dance, Delta's Drumbeat, welcoming new freshmen and old friends back to school. Everyone came in their best Calypso attire to have a wonderful time, particularly in the Congo Line which completed the program for the evening.

Many of our mothers and dads were happy to meet each other and the members of our chapter at the annual Parent's Day Tea.

Phyllis Day was the DZ candidate to the Acacia colony's Pajama Festival and Alice Jean Priefert represented us in the SSS Carnival.

Our chapter had the opportunity of visiting Epsilon Nu Chapter in Springfield and attending their rush party. Everyone had a wonderful time making new friends and exchanging ideas. We also gained an even closer feeling of sisterhood in Delta Zeta through this experience.

Offices held this term by Deltas on the CMSC campus include: Kay Bosler, associate editor of Rhetor; Karen Crosslin, corresponding secretary of Todd Hall and treasurer of CMSC Players; Shirley Eberting, chairman of Student Center and Student Government Executive Council; Sue Hyatt, Missouri state president of SNEA (Student National Education Association); Shirley Kirkpatrick, president of Crescendo Club; Carolyn Koester, secretary-treasurer of Dolphins; Mary Kay Mustard, feature editor of Student; Pat Snyder, vice president of Panhellenic Council.

We love being Delta Zetas! Our alumnae who have been initiated love being Delta Zetas too. Together we will hostess Delta Zeta State Day, April 26 at the Student Union.

Last State Day we were impressed with Manhattan's Delta Zeta alumnae chapter and we think they liked us as well. They are buying and making initiation robes for us. Wichita Delta Zeta alumnae chapter gave us fifty dollars to apply on new living room draperies. We are very grateful to both alumnae chapters.

We used the theme "Round the World With Delta Zeta" for rush week. Rush week was wonderful with Delta Zeta to guide us. Things went unusually well; we have twenty-two exceptionally fine pledges.

Our first Delta Zeta reunion was held in August. Luncheon and initiation were at the Hotel Broadview; those who missed the buffet supper at the house the night before went back to the house to see the new construction work.

Mrs. James Fraley (Evelyn Emerick) of Floral Park, Long Island, New York was introduced to us and our guests. She and her husband have influenced over one hundred boys to come to K.S.T.C. This year James Jr. and several of his friends came. Evelyn was initiated the next day. Can any other school match this loyalty?

Initiates and alumnae combined forces for homecoming November 2. We fed over 150 members and husbands at a buffet supper. Three parents were also guests, as were a few brothers and sisters. Our guests toured the house from top to bottom as the husbands hadn't seen it and some of the alumnae had not been back for thirty years. The next day seven were initiated at the chapter house.

We have made many changes since we bought our house. It was Boyle's Music Conservatory and came furnished. Two years ago a wing was built with a dining room for forty, kitchen and house mother's room, with a dorm for ten or more, a bath and two study rooms upstairs. We were not able to use the upstairs until this winter as it was incomplete. We are very proud of our house and the furnishings.

Fund-raising projects consisted of a rummage sale and the sponsoring of a concession stand on the campus during the State Music Festival.

Since the fall term began, the chapter has given a tea for our new housemother, Mrs. Leila Ady. Alumnae members of Delta Sigma Epsilon and our pledges were initiated into Delta Zeta October 6. We entertained our parents with a tea at the sorority house, October 12.

To start the year off with a bang, our campus has an All Greek Week. Jeni Lantz was one of the co-chairmen in charge of planning the many activities designed to acquaint new students with Greek social groups on campus. Our girls participated in every event. The highlight of the week for us was when our turtle, Fabian, won a shiny new trophy for us by taking first place at the annual turtle race at Fun Day. Maryann Baird, Bobbie Burns, and Elaine Robinson were chosen by various fraternities to represent them for Homecoming Queen. Dal Davis was chosen by the Sophomore class as one of the five finalists for Sophomore Ball Queen. Marilyn Smith, runner-up in the Miss CSC contest last year, will be one of the featured models in the AWS fashion show. Darlene Baker was chosen by the sorority as our second model.

We came up with a novel idea for our fall rush party. We had a Roman party, which was a roaring success.

Maryann Baird is co-chairman of Helzabruin, the variety show for Homecoming. Darlene Baker, Louanne Woolard, Jo Steinmark, Bobbie Burns, Carolyn Cooper, Eleanor Early, Tess Hay, Ellen Bundy, Dal Davis, and Gwyn Mowery will be the dancers for Helzabruin—all Delta Zetas! Right now, we are deep in preparation for Homecoming with our house and float decorations.

By requiring at least two outside activities for every girl, we are well represented in the various activities on campus. Jeannie Coleman, who is representative-at-large in Student Council was chosen to represent our campus at the N. S. A. Leadership Conference held in Michigan last Summer. Gwyn Mowery was Sigma Phi Epsilon's Queen at their fraternity homecoming.

During the summer, several members travelled to Grand Junction where an initiation for Delta Sigma Epsilon alumnae was held at the home of Mrs. H. Summerfield Day, Province Director.

Every year, approximately once a month, we hold a raunch dinner of some sort. Last spring our last "fling" was an International Dinner, at which each girl dressed in the costume of a different country. This really turned out to be the best one of the year, as you should have seen some of the wierd costumes which were ingeniously thought of. One of the girls was especially clever. In fact, she frightened our housemother half to death before she realized it was only Kathy Crawford in her portrayal of an African Mau-Mau!

Rush season was very successful this semester. Delta Chi Chapter pledged its full quota of twenty girls just in time for them to join in the homecoming activities which were only a week away. A very successful luncheon was held in the Oaks Hotel for the returning alumnae.

Cynthia Reeves, a DZ from Auburn, California was a candidate for homecoming queen. She was sponsored by Iota Sigma Fraternity.

The semester was rounded out with the installation of six new patronesses, after which all of the sorority members serenaded the patronesses by candlelight on the front lawns of their homes.

Our girls have been busy redecorating our new sorority home.

This last school year has proved to be successful in many ways. First place trophies were awarded us at the annual blood drive, blood rally assembly, gorgeous gams contest, Greek sing, spring sing, and Lambda Chi Push Cart Relays.

Our pledge class ranked highest in scholastic average among the other sororities. Our house altogether earned the second highest grades on campus. Kris Thomsen, pledge, received the highest individual pledge record.

Pat Grusdat is the Chapter president, with Pat Popen-dorf, first vice-president; Joan Brooding, second vice-president; Fran Heffernan, recording secretary; Shelia Carpenter, corresponding secretary; and Monya Cozad, historian.

Dixie Lou Herbert received the outstanding pledge award.

"Friendliness personified," our unwritten law of rushing, produced extremely good results from the 1957 rush season. We pledged twenty new girls, an enthusiastic pledge class of five juniors, two sophomores, and thirteen freshmen. Our apprentice Delta Zetas are already showing enthusiasm in house activities. Taking a working interest in this category are Donna Weitz, pledge president, and Terry Dillon, pledge social chairman.

Campus responsibilities also have been undertaken by new pledges with leadership qualities, as exemplified by Linda Dunbar, who is running for freshman vice president in the coming elections.

Prominent initiates on campus this fall include: Pris Pohlman, who was appointed executive secretary by Dave Gorton, student body president; and Lida Swaney and Carol Sickels, who have been initiated into Spurs, the sophomore women's activity honorary.

erly Opsahl who was chosen Orchid Ball Queen by Sigma Pi Fraternity.

Our scholastic labors brought Panhellenic honors to both our active chapter and our pledge class. Both made the highest scholastic average among their respective groups.

We have enjoyed many trips together, among these are: a snow trip to Big Bear Mountain Resort area; a camping trip in the nearby Idyllwyld mountain area; and a rush retreat to a beach city during the summer.

We filled our quota of fifteen pledges who are already full of Delta Zeta spirit and loyalty. We are enjoying many activities with the pledges who are sponsoring the annual Delta Zeta pledge dance for the benefit of all of the Greek pledge classes on campus.

Many honors have come to our chapter. Holding school offices are: Kathy Eggers, Commissioner of Cultural Activities; Faye Krater, AWS president; Virginia Cole, student body secretary; Connie Garr, graduate class president; Valjeanne Worden, graduate class vice president; Micky Carter, senior class president; Margie Harmon, senior class treasurer; Donna Weber, sophomore class vice president; Decla Gallagher, sophomore class treasurer. Two members of Tillicum (soph honorary) are Rona Ruddach and Barbara Shira, who is president. Jo Ann Ivanovich, Valjeanne Worden, Connie Garr, Faye Krater, Patty Carey and Rose Ann Wood Johnson are members of Califias (honorary). At present ten of our girls are preparing to act as delegates from various campus organizations at our annual Leadership Conference at Idyllwyld, California.

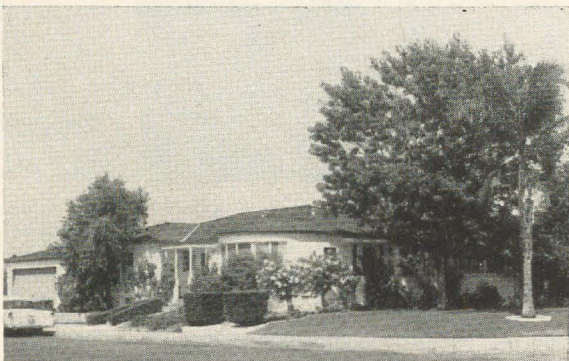

Yvonne Skillman recently departed for Brigham Young University where she received a scholarship. Toby Brightman was pledged to Phi Beta, a speech and music honorary. Eileen Medevic, past president of Phi Beta, received the annual Hollywood Bowl Award for musical excellence in the area of voice.

Oklahoma State University—Alpha Epsilon

The new officers of Alpha Epsilon are Julie Fitzgerald, president; Karen Steichen, first vice president; Barbara Whaley, second vice president; Patsy Comer, recording secretary; Glenna Ross, treasurer.

Last April we held our annual Rose Formal. Wilma Hudnall was chosen our DZ Dream Girl and Jimmie Hughes was chosen our DZ Dream Man. The annual "New Yorker" party was held for the pledges as the first party of this school year.

We were happy to have Mrs. Marguerite Havens, National College Chapter Administrator, and Miss Marianne Hurst, Delta Zeta traveling secretary with us during formal rush. We pledged 12 girls. "Big" and "little" sisters were chosen and formal pledging was held. Our pledges also took a dinner sneak at Fair Park.

We studied manners and had a style show for our first standards program this year. Mrs. Vinita Cavanaugh, Oklahoma State University art instructor and dress designer, presented the style show.

A dinner was held for the standards chairmen of the different sororities to prepare for the standards program to be held during Greek Week October 13-19. We were honored to have Mrs. Evelyn Costello, National Delta Zeta President, as our guest for part of that week.

Muffin Hicks was chosen one of the 15 semi-finalists in the Redskin (yearbook) contest. Wilma Hudnall was one of the five finalists for Acacia Sweetheart.

Ann Brous is YWCA publicity chairman and is on the staff of the Oklahoma State Engineer magazine. She has just recently made a trip to Chicago to a convention for staff members on engineering magazines. Karen Steichen is serving as Panhellenic president.

Wilma Hudnall was chosen the model pledge of Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalism fraternity, and also was the outstanding initiate of Mortar Board. She is now serving as editor of Mortar Board. Revelle Taylor is State Grand Worthy Advisor of Rainbow. Julie Fitzgerald, Wilma Hudnall, Karen Steichen, and Ann Brous served as campus leaders during Freshman Orientation. Muffin Hicks and Judy Beard modeled in the AWS style show.

We held our Founders' Day Banquet on October 27 in the Student Union. Guests were the alumnae, and charter members were honored. Katie Jo Hargrave and Dionne Dobson furnished the entertainment. Initiation for Delta Sigma Epsilon members followed the banquet.

Mrs. Guy Prichard is our new College Chapter Advisor. Our rush advisor is Mrs. Joseph Adair. We want to express our thanks to all the alumnae for all the many wonderful things they have done for us.

Gamma Upsilon meetings were continued through the summer months and a successful summer rush program was carried out. The main summer rush event was the August South Pacific Party.

We opened the fall term with a wonderful week of rush. Pledged were: Beverly Button, Barbara Sue VanHorn, Frances Fox, Jerry Sue Goodwin, Ellen Marie Myers, Joan Hinz, Lynn Hardesty, Sue Chilton, Janice Fox, Jeanie Roe, Anna Lynn Stewart, Clara Sevier, Shirley Hedges.

This now gives us a full quota.

After bid house we held a brunch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Atkinson, and the following afternoon we left for Lake Murray at Ardmore, Oklahoma, for a week end retreat honoring our new pledges. It proved to be not only fun, but a fine opportunity to become closely acquainted with our new girls. Sunday morning we attended church in a body at the First Methodist Church in Ardmore. Happy memories will be cherished by all from this activity which we plan to make an annual event.

Honors have come to several of our sisters recently. Joan Hinz was selected "Miss Congeniality" in the 1957 Miss Oklahoma City Contest. Marianne Smith was chosen "Miss Swimsuit" in an annual contest held for San Antonio models. Carol Sue Fredrick was selected to attend Aspin Music School for five weeks of intensive study in voice. Also she has been selected to be a guest artist for the Oklahoma City Ladies Music Club. She was in state-wide competition and was the only girl selected of the four winners. Earlyn Ward was elected Queen of the 4th of July Celebration at Estes Park, Colorado, where she counseled this summer. Also she has been selected to become a member of Cardinal Key. We have been holding our monthly coffees in honor of the faculty, and our annual open house, honoring our new pledges, was held for the fraternities.

Philanthropic projects have included bi-weekly work at Crippled Children's Hospital, and as a pledge project, entertainment has been provided weekly for the County Old Folk's Home.

We serenaded Epsilon Upsilon at their preferential party, and our Delta Zeta Combo played for Alpha Epsilon formal rush parties.

We sponsor the student (Ranger) directories sold here on the campus annually. The cover will picture Delta Zeta officers in front of the billboard with the college slogan, "Learn Today, Lead Tomorrow." This is one of our main money-making projects—the directories sell for 35 cents.

Scholastically, we were the highest rated group on the campus the last semester with a 3.09 grade average for both actives and pledges. Our first standards program was a panel discussion of "How to Study" conducted by four of our honor members.

Individual honors are the following: Sonya Kirkland and Charmaine Baldonado are two of the cheerleaders this year, Eunice Taylor is President of the Home Ec Club and Judi Brown is president of the pledge class.

Founders' Day, we were hostesses to the alumnae and patronesses with a covered dish supper. The candlelight service honoring founders was very impressive.

Members from our chapter to work on the Inter-Greek Council in planning for the Christmas Dance are Charmaine Baldonado, Peggy Cook and Sonya Kirkland.

Rush parties of the Delta Phi chapter began in Las Vegas and terminated in Spain.

"Las Vegas" was the theme of our first coke party. Six rooms in the Delta end of the girls dorm were used, each representing a different night club.

Our second coke party had a "Circus" theme. The program was based on the famous "three rings" in which skits of past activities and honors won by the sorority were portrayed.

The theme of the formal rush party was "Spanish Fandango." A Spanish combo was the main attraction. We have twenty-one pledges.

This year we started a new tradition in our sorority, a pledge retreat. The pledges and members spend a week end together at a cabin for the purpose of getting better acquainted.

Some of the Delta Phi members are honored to hold offices on the Northeastern campus. They are: Harriet Terry, secretary of the junior class; Carolyn Sigle, treasurer of the junior class; and Janice Reynolds, Wilson Hall president.

University of Texas—Alpha Tau

With shouts of excitement and joy the Alpha Taus welcomed home forty happy new pledges. As you can see we had a most successful rush week. This was only the beginning, however. Close after rush came a breakfast honoring the Alpha Tau pledges and all of the fraternity pledge classes. The Austin Mothers Club also honored our new pledges one evening with a dessert party.

We are very proud of two outstanding Alpha Taus who have gained distinctive honors this fall. Julie Hallmark, a sophomore, won the Dow Chemical scholarship for outstanding work in the field of chemistry. Jody Camp, a senior, has recently won a trip to Hollywood and a screen test.

Our standards program got off to a wonderful start with a very inspiring talk on scholarship by the Assistant Dean of Women.

Among our social activities has been a fabulous date party with the Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity. More recently we have serenaded several fraternities. Our theme was "Holland" and was carried through very effectively with white Dutch caps and wooden shoes. We are looking forward with eagerness to our retreat to be held at the Bar K Ranch near Austin.

Our new pledges are: Ann Ball, Barbara Barnes, Sydney Bass, Earle Bishop, Wanda Breed, Mary Carter, Carolyn Coker, Katherine Franzen, Kathryn Giddens, Joyce Johnson, Lynda Jones, Bing Kutchback, Susan Kutchback, Janie Lee, Kit Lee, Joyce Logan, Verline Luetge, Judy Lyle, Donna Beth McCormick, Jewel Melton, Jan Miller, Sally Painter, Janet Peavy, Robbie Pell, Jeanne Raney, Ruth Rawlins, Becky Reagan, Judie Reaks, Linda Richardson, Julia Salter, Mary Ann Snell, Dorothy Stroup, Lillian Tampke, Billie Traweek, Diana Vollentine, Janelle Warren, Patti Watkins, Mary Jo Weber, Jean Whitley, and Charlene Whitstine.

Alpha Psi is very proud of its 34-member pledge class which was quota for the year. Kitty Smith will lead the pledge class. Margaret Randel is vice president. Alice Baird is secretary, and Charlotte Blaha is treasurer.

The school year started off with a bang with the pledge breakfast given in honor of our new pledges. Right away the whole chapter was off on a retreat at Wiley's Dude Ranch. We spent the day making plans for the coming year and got back to Dallas in time for the slumber party at the house that night. Sunday we all went to church in a group.

Sandy Morgan, Judy Reese, and Sarah Sides have recently been initiated, and we honored them with a dinner at the Dolly Madison Tea Room.

At Manada, the spring carnival at SMU, Alpha Psi won the plaque for the best spirit out of all the sororities on campus. We also won the first place cup in baseball.

A new member of Alpha Lambda Delta is Anita Roberts. Pat Dawson was elected to Tau Kappa Alpha, speech honorary, and is also our Panhellenic representative. Rally Committee now boasts Elaine Wreden and Pat Dawson as members. Margaret Tasto was one of Sigma is especially proud of her president, Judy Noble, who was elected to Mortar Board. Added to her other honors, this is really a suiting tribute to her hard work and energy. Three Delta Zetas, Dianne McLeod, Cynthia Cutlip, and Jean Parker were initiated into Alpha Lambda Delta. Sigma moved up another three notches in scholarship competition among sororities here on campus.

The school year got off to a bang with the fall rush season and Delta Zeta added another outstanding pledge class. We are especially grateful to all the alumnae, patronesses, and mothers who helped us so much to make rush the great success that it was.

State Day, the first to be held in Louisiana, was a great success, with Sigma playing host to alumnae and active chapters from all regions of the state. Linda Renfroe received an award as outstanding Delta Zeta in the state.

Rush Workshop was held at Oak Manor Motelin, Baton Rouge, and was really a huge success. Everyone enjoyed the air-conditioned rooms and especially the swimming pool. Everyone had a great tan to begin fall activities here at school.

Our president elected for this year, Gay Lynn Woods, of New Orleans, Louisiana, was married to Edward Nixon, Vice President Nixon's brother, in Pensacola, Florida, on June 1. Anna Retif, Patricia Hale, Michele Bailliet, Joycelyn Grossman, Frances Whidden, Lynette Orr, Mary Carolyn Winfield, and Betty Bronson drove over for the wedding which was also attended by the Vice President, Richard Nixon.

This fall we elected Anna Retif president in Gay Lynn's place. Our College Chapter Director is also new. She is Jan Rieke Faust, Northwestern-Alpha Alpha. We are very happy to have her advice and help.

In August Michele Bailliet and Mary Carolyn Winfield left for their junior year of study abroad. Michele, from Thibadoux, Louisiana, is studying economics at the Sorbonne in Paris. Mary Carolyn, from Birmingham, Alabama, is studying mathematics in Birmingham, England.

In early September, Delta Zeta traveling secretary, Nancy Burridge, accompanied us on our three-day house party in Waveland, Mississippi. We had a wonderful time trying to cook, working on rush, and talking until all hours at night. It was especially fun because we are not able to live together during the year.

The year 1956-57 was quite an eventful one for Delta Kappa Chapter of Delta Zeta. It began with a Sailor Hop, sponsored by one of the sororities on the campus, in which all other sororities participated. The object of the Sailor Hop was to have those girls interested in sororities learn more about each of the sororities and the girls in them.

We are quite proud of several of the girls in our chapter who were representatives in several area festivals. For instance, we have in our group a past Dairy Queen, a past Yambilee Queen, and a participant in this year's Yambilee Festival. Also, Delta Zeta was represented in both the Camellia Pageant and the Mardi Gras Ball, local campus event. One of the girls is also top beauty on the campus, another, Blue Key Darling, and still another, a cheerleader.

Our entry won first place in the Sadie Hawkins parade, an annual event. The stunt which we presented for Stunt Night, a must each year on the campus, won first place. The award was a silver tray which is displayed in the sorority room and often used. Delta Zeta was also responsible for the successful Cancer Drive held on the campus. Other important events in which Delta Zeta participated were Religious Emphasis Week and Panhellenic Workshop.

The members had something special for the pledges several times during the year. The members had a "come-as-you-are" breakfast one morning at six. A scavenger hunt was also held one night at a pledge meeting.

An awards banquet was held at the latter part of the year for the giving of awards to outstanding members and pledges and to honor graduating seniors.

Mississippi Southern College—Epsilon Mu

Formal rush brought the addition of sixteen wonderful girls to Epsilon Mu. These girls are Barbara Blount, Lynn Tanner, Jo Ferrel Tyner, Carolyn Baker, Frances Emerson, Ann Watkins, Mary Ellen Owens, Jane Burford, Emily Williams, Pat Fairchild, Sharon Grimes, Jane Lynn Pierce, Glenda Netherland, Linda Hamilton, Rose Setaro, and Lois Ann Walker. Rush parties included Le Chat Noir Cafe and our annual Pink Tea. A banquet was given October 5 honoring the new pledges.

Another addition to the Delta Zetas on campus is Miss Betty Jackson, Southern's new organ teacher.

In the cast of "Brigadoon" are Molly Ross, Dorothy Juillerate, and Jane Lynn Pierce.

Mo Mitchell, our president, has been nominated to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Lois Ann Walker is a member of the famed Dixie Darlings. Mary Stewart is a member of Tau Beta Sigma, honorary music fraternity. Betty Clifton is an active member of the debate team.

Dormitory elections placed Molly Ross in the position of House Chairman of the junior dormitory.

Anne Adams won the scholarship ring which was given to the chapter by Peg May, our province director. The ring is awarded each quarter to the member who has most improved her grades.

Epsilon Mu is proud to report that the Asiatic flu bug has come and gone, and all members are once again "on the ball."

PROVINCE XXVI

University of Tennessee—Beta Lambda

We of the Beta Lambda Chapter are very proud of our twenty-seven pledges which we acquired during formal rush this Fall. The new pledges who were entertained with a banquet at Regas Restaurant on September 23, are: Carolyn Babcock, Jane Bass, Louise Bonner, Sandra Bradley, Hermenia Davis, Ann Foote, Rena Ferrell, Betty Jo Hopson, Dera Ann Thomas, Patricia Voss, Nora Williams, Linda Kay Johnson, Linda Roberts, Genny Ropp, Carol Rowe, Susan Pittard, Glenda Rainey, Doris Rivers, Kathy Riesch, Madge Howell, Carolyn Huffstetler, Nancy Mullins, Marietta Coats, Jennie Pennington, Julia Witt, Faye Volrath, Nancy Saddler.

In addition to our pledges, we are happy to also have two new members. Jerry Giffins is a transfer from the University of Kentucky, and Patricia Ann Leach, a new initiate, is from Cristobal, Canal Zone. Pat, a sophomore majoring in speech therapy, was very active last year as president of our pledge class, a member of the All Student's Council, All-Sing Committee, and Modern Dance Club, and participated in the dance recital.

Last spring our chapter was honored at the City Panhellenic Banquet with the scholarship improvement trophy.

Georgia State College of Business Administration—Delta Delta

At our Spring Formal our new officers were introduced. Carolyn Reed, member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Phi Chi Theta, and Crimson Key Honorary sororities, was elected President.

For the Fall Quarter, 1957, we have 22 pledges quota filled, and 23 active members.

Plans were being made for a Halloween Party which is to take place at the School Lodge located at Stone Mountain, Ga.

Nancy Barrington was elected outstanding pledge of the Winter Quarter.

Claudia B. Gough and Naomi Satterfield were selected to Who's Who. Carolyn Reed, President, and Carolyn Lee, Past President, were selected as Outstanding Upperclassmen.

PROVINCE XXVII

Florida State University—Alpha Sigma

We started the year off in a great way by pledging twenty-two girls, thus filling our quota. They are as follows: Dorothy Mann, Roberta Burgess, Patricia Sanchez, Rita Trucks, Jeninne Graham, Sally Matthews, Gail Duncan, Sandra Harris, Lucy Rodriguez, Betty Collar, Patricia Puderbaugh, Betty Groover, Mary Packard, Sandra Wright, Joyce Alderman, Sandra Badger, Marcia Hamm, Laura Humphries, Joan Offerle, Margaret Seydel, Laura Gayle Smith, and Julia Tuttle.

On October 10 we initiated the following spring pledges: Marilyn Arant, Evelyn Poulus, Johnna Sue Sandusky, Angela Williams, Patricia Harper, Sherry Shultz, Jan James, Elaine Jones, Sandra McGlothlin, and Martha Osteen. We also initiated three Delta Sigma Epsilons: Mrs. Stickler, Miss Moulton, and Mrs. Frazier.

Honored at the initiation banquet were Marilyn Arant, most loyal and devoted pledge, and Evelyn Poulus, best all-around pledge.

We are especially proud of our new pledges and all their activities. Dot Mann is running for freshman class senator, and Sandra Wright is running for freshman class secretary. Rita Trucks is in circus and Patti Sanchez and Pat Puderbaugh are going out for Cotillion. Jeninne Graham is the homecoming queen nominee from Senior Hall. Betty Collar and Roberta Burgess are in the Marching Chiefs, FSU's famous band. Gail Duncan is a member of Women's Glee Club and University Singers. Sally Matthews is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, in which she is vice president, Sophomore Council, and Wesley Players.

On October 9 we gave a tea for all the Homecoming Queen candidates to which all the men on campus were invited. We also planned an open house after the Homecoming game.

Florida Southern College—Beta Mu

Keeping DZ on top with our fraternity men two of our members were elected sweethearts: Anne Vogal, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and now president of the Minervia Club: Janice Johnson, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

We are now organizing an active alumnae chapter in Lakeland, which undoubtedly will be a great asset to our campus activities.

As a campus service Beta Mu chapter has organized and printed an official guest list for teas and receptions and distributed to the various sororities and fraternities.

In co-operation with the local police department we are sponsoring tickets to underprivileged children to attend a circus.

University of Miami—Beta Nu

Beta Nu Chapter is happy to introduce our new pledge class to Delta Zetas everywhere. Nancy Bates, Patricia Bolash, Kathleen Casey, Roberta Curry, Kathleen Higginbotham, Alma McClure, Hasel McGuire, Carol McNamara, Gail Marshall, Joan Matonis, Linda Gail Pelkey, Camille Schneider, Janis Tarpo, Joan Whitehead, Deanna Williams, and Carolyn Wright pledged October 14. We joyously received them in our new room in the Mary B. Merritt Panhellenic Building.

The building, which was completed late last Spring, houses twelve sororities and two colonies. Delta Zeta has a suite of four beautifully decorated rooms: kitchenette, office, bath, and a very large living area. Our suite was furnished during the summer by an excellent interior decorator, under the supervision of our alumnae advisors. The furniture is comparatively modern and perfectly suited to comfortable Floridian living. Gray is used as the basic color and is made youthful and bright by melon, black, and yellow stools and throw pillows. The cheery room and broad smiles of true sisters furnished a warm welcome to every Beta Nu as she returned from her summer vacation.

Last Spring we were the proud recipients of a new trophy. Phi Sigma Sigma, a Jewish Sorority, presented for the first time, the trophy for outstanding participation in the various religious organizations on campus. The trophy is a large silver bowl resting on a pedestal. Many of our girls are active in religious organizations; some of these girls hold offices in the groups. We received the trophy because we had more girls actively participating in religious groups than any other sorority.

Beta Nu also won first place in Songfest last spring. We sang a medley of songs around a central rainbow theme and were directed by a member of Phi Mu Alpha music honorary. The trophy was well worth all the hard work and intensive practice.

You'll want the distinctive Robert Rollins Delta Zeta Blazer, too—it's fashioned for the lives you lead!

PLEGGED!

Chosen As The Official
Delta Zeta Blazer
 ROBERT ROLLINS

Now, Delta Zetas everywhere have their own official Blazer—a beautiful bond of pride—with the elegant DZ coat-of-arms woven right into the pocket.

This indispensable addition to a college wardrobe, available only through Robert Rollins, fits sorority life as well as it fits your figure—perfectly! It speaks volumes about how proud you are of your chapter, gives you a wonderful sense of belonging to DZ. Your Robert Rollins Blazer is so handsomely tailored it can go anywhere, do anything—campus or town, sorority meeting or weekend date, classroom or stadium, rushing, pledging—it varies its outlook to suit the occasion. Best of all, it only looks expensive. You'll want your whole chapter to have the distinction and prestige of a Delta Zeta Blazer by Robert Rollins.

Fashioned of the finest fabrics in officially approved colors to suit your favorite color strategy: White wool tweed, White flannel, White "doeskin" flannel; Menswear flannel in Mint Green, Forest Green, Coral Pink. PIPINGS: White, Bright Green, Dark Green or Plain Edge.

Send for exact prices, and order blank.
