and to YOU

The Delta Zeta Foundation
1999 Annual Report

From the National President

How Delta Zeta is REACHing our Membership

At the 1996 National Convention of Delta Zeta Sorority, the REACH (Raising Expectations and Creating Horizons) initiative was instituted. REACH provided for changes within the structure of our Sorority which would result in new ways to connect with and reach our membership, and bring those who had been out of touch with Delta Zeta back to our organization.

I'm pleased to report that, in looking to the year 2000 and beyond, the past four years have been successful as we strive to fulfill the mission of REACH. All of our membership are receiving our national publication, The LAMP. We are encouraging the formation of Chapter Associations, which allow alumnae to reunite with other members of their college chapter within their geographic area. Delta Zetas are attending university/college homecomings, reunions, and alumni weekends, and connecting with sisters they haven't seen in a long time. With less formal structure and more emphasis on just being a part of Delta Zeta, many alumnae have reported that they have found new and interesting ways to reach one another and reconnect with our Sorority.

The National Structure

When REACH reorganized the National structure, we looked at efficient and easier ways to involve alumnae and collegiate members. With our Area team structure for alumnae, Area Alumnae Directors, Public Relations, Membership, and Development Chairmen are working within flexible formats to inform, educate, and involve our alumnae. At the annual AAD Training session held at National Headquarters this fall, new action plans were implemented to continue these efforts.

New alumnae chapters and chapter associations have been established, and many informal reunions and meetings have taken place over the past year. The Loyalty Fund, the Delta Zeta Foundation's annual campaign, has seen an increase in donors, which we continue to encourage.

Collegians, too, have seen positive changes because of REACH. College Chapter Directors and Regional Collegiate Coordinators have been trained and empowered to key programming to the individual needs of college chapters. The recruitment process has changed through the National Panhellenic Conference to encourage other flexible approaches to attract new members. CCDs also guard against overprogramming of collegians, which can detract from studies and other educational commitments.

National Council Updates

The National Council redefined the roles of the Vice Presidents of Membership Development, Alumnae Affairs, and Collegiate Chapter Operations to further work with our membership and identify ways that we can help both alumnae and collegians accomplish their goals and connect with Delta Zeta.

The addition of three new National Chairmen (Recruitment, New Member Education, and Programs) ensure that our collegiate members receive the training and information they need to guide their chapters on campus, and allow these women to become viable members of the alumnae community.

National Committees—A New Way to Connect

National Committees, through the work of their volunteer members, have made substantial progress in the areas of membership development, academic achievement, risk management education, alumnae and collegiate philanthropy, and new member education. Involving our alumnae in the work of these committees has been equally fulfilling, giving sisters the inspiration to connect to Delta Zeta in this way.

We are proud to acknowledge the volunteer members of the National Standing Committees, a dedicated group of alumnae who work tirelessly to further the values of Delta Zeta in all aspects of collegiate and alumnae life. As they work to make the Sorority the best it can be, they reinforce the bond that brought them to Delta Zeta when they were collegians.

Committee Members Respond

Barbara Smith Johnston IY, a member of the National New Member Education Committee, says, "I retired from a very active alumnae involvement in Delta Zeta to devote more time to my family and career. I immediately felt a void in my life—withdrawal from Delta Zeta! Then one day, Rhonda Wistner, New Member Education Committee Chairman, gave me information about the Committee. I am very excited and honored to serve on this committee. The wonderful thing about it is that the decisions we make as a team directly effect the future of Delta Zeta. I can work for Delta Zeta out of my home and still be a great mom and wife. It can't get any better than that!"

Another member of this committee, Carol Mathis EO, tells us, "When Rhonda called and asked me to be on the Committee, I first thought, 'Thanks for giving Rhonda my name, Karly.' But now I've gotten to know five more Delta Zetas from around the country. We keep in touch by e-mail and conference calls and Rhonda is terrific at delegating the work so that none of us have too much to do. Serving on a national committee is giving me a chance to reach out and share my love for Delta Zeta in new and exciting ways."

Although we have made much progress, there is always more to be accomplished. Through this issue, I hope you are inspired to find new ways to REACH out to your sisters in Delta Zeta as we continue to strengthen our Sorority for the future.

Connecting Hearts

"Happy days—that is the first thought that comes to my mind as it travels back over the years to that memorable one when I became a sister in Delta Zeta."
Marie Hirst Stokes, A, 1903.

When new members pledge to Delta Zeta, they are pledging a lifetime commitment—to friendship, philanthropy, and community service. However, after graduation from college, the day-to-day activities of life can distance us from the Sorority we once called home. We vow to stay in touch with our sisters, but as we marry, raise families, move forward in our careers and personal lives, and make other commitments in our communities, the pledge to Delta Zeta can fade into the background.

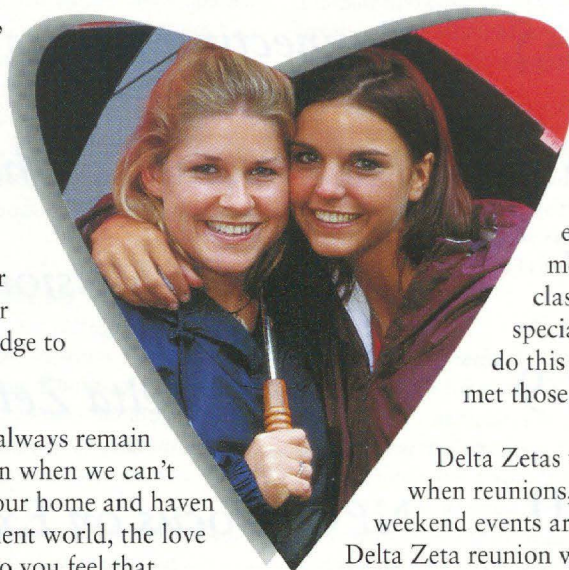

We must remember why we pledged—to always remain connected to our sisters in our hearts, even when we can't physically be with them. Delta Zeta was our home and haven during our college years. In today's turbulent world, the love and support of our sisters is still there. Do you feel that Delta Zeta is the place where you can realize new fulfillment by connecting with sisters you already know or sisters you haven't seen in years?

Every woman remembers the sisters of her pledge class. Perhaps you've built a life away from Delta Zeta since you left your college or university, but as time passes, wouldn't you like to see those women again? Would meeting other sisters at this time in your life fill a void that has grown since you last connected with Delta Zeta? There is a special bond that connects you to them. Rekindling the flame of those friendships will bring you emotionally rewarding experiences now.

In 1996, our National Council identified a lack of alumnae participation in our organization as a major concern. The REACH program proposed an easier way for alumnae to connect, reconnect with each other, and become involved with Delta Zeta again.

Through informal gatherings, chapter associations, college reunions, and even e-mail correspondence, sisters are finding new and exciting ways to stay in touch with each other and their Sorority.

Today our lives may be complicated, but making the connection back to Delta Zeta need not require a lot of time or effort. Why not begin with those sisters from your pledge class? At universities and colleges across the country, Delta Zeta volunteers are present at homecoming and alumni weekend events to help returning alumnae members meet and reunite. Your pledge class is the group with whom you share special memories, and what better place to do this than at the institution where you first met those same sisters.

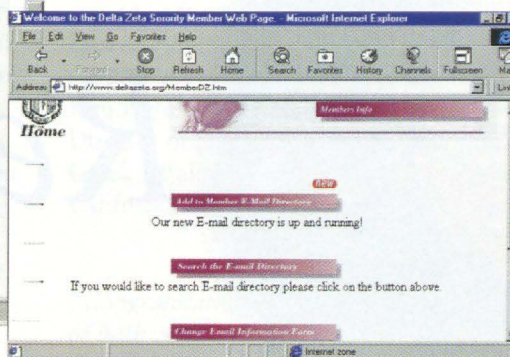

Delta Zetas will be looking for you on your campus when reunions, homecoming, anniversary, and alumni weekend events are planned. Ask the alumni office if a Delta Zeta reunion will be taking place on campus during homecoming or alumni weekend. You can leave address updates with volunteers so you will receive information from your chapter. Alumni offices will provide current addresses of graduates so you can find sisters. You might meet other alumni participants who aren't Delta Zetas, but may know sisters you are looking for. Many Greek organizations participate in these events as a whole, giving you another opportunity to find Delta Zetas. Will you come to be with your sisters and make new memories that you will always treasure?

In this issue, you'll find new ways to connect with the sisterhood. You'll find out how other Delta Zetas are doing the same thing, with small time commitments. You'll be inspired to rediscover your sisters and the family you have always had in Delta Zeta and always will. You'll come back to those "happy days."

Rekindle the Flame: Ways to Reconnect

www.deltazeta.org

NEW WAYS TO CONNECT

Today's communication tools are more powerful than ever, and can help you make the link that connects you to another sister or Delta Zeta activity. By stating your Greek affiliation on a resume or personal biography, your membership in Delta Zeta will be publicized through any recognition you receive. Sending Christmas cards, thank you notes, and/or welcome greetings to other Delta Zetas in your area is a heartwarming way to connect. Exchanging letters or e-mail with sisters is a fast and easy way to stay in touch.

Writing a few letters for a fundraising effort, assisting a collegian with resume writing, or visiting an older sister in a long-term care facility are all good ways to make the connection and perpetuate the sisterhood. You can contact National Headquarters at any time to obtain names and addresses of sisters you wish to contact.

HOMECOMING EVENTS CONNECT YOU TO YOUR PLEDGE CLASS ONCE AGAIN

If you only have limited time to reunite with your sisters, take the opportunity to attend your college or university's alumni weekend, homecoming event, or Parents Weekend. While there, ask your alumni office if your Delta Zeta chapter has reunion plans, or, if your chapter has a chapter house, plan to visit it while you're there. Leave your current address with your alumni office. Delta Zeta volunteers will be present at local university/college events to assist members in finding one another or providing chapter reunion information.

E-mail members you know in your area on Founders Day, or on the anniversary of your chapter's founding. Send a congratulatory letter to a new initiate from your college chapter. Send e-mail or a welcome card to recent graduates who have moved to your area as new alumnae. Be creative—think of new ways to connect that require little time, and you're on your way to strengthening the sisterhood within Delta Zeta!

DZ'S WEBSITE: MAKING THE CONNECTION EASIER

Have you connected with Delta Zeta's Sister Search capability yet? Go to Delta Zeta Sorority's national website at www.deltazeta.org and click on "Members Info." Then click on "Search the e-mail directory." This will take you to the Sister Search screen. Here you can search for sisters who have registered their e-mail address in Delta Zeta's directory by name (including maiden name), and chapter affiliation. You can add your own e-mail address to the directory, or change your information. Encourage your Delta Zeta friends to register their e-mail addresses at the site, too.

Delta Zeta is planning new features to implement in our website, including the capability to search for members alphabetically, by state, and/or initiation year. The e-mail directory will also be moved to a secured server partition to ensure the utmost security for members who post their contact information. Discussion forums for alumnae will allow interaction with each other and with collegians. A career network page will help members network for job searches and resume writing. A bulletin board will allow members to post inquiries when searching for other members, and post information about reunions and gatherings. Look for these exciting advancements in the near future.

CHAPTER ASSOCIATIONS

Chapter associations are a great way to meet and reconnect with members of your chapter. Every Delta Zeta, whether collegian or alumna, is automatically a member of the chapter association at the college chapter in which she was initiated. A chapter association can be created and maintained on an informal basis, without the formal structure required of alumnae chapters. Members can establish a tie with their campus chapter, or reunite with members of the same chapter in a particular geographic area. These associations provide opportunities to network, exchange information, participate in volunteer and philanthropic projects, and extend your tie to Delta Zeta in a unique and exciting way.

If you are interested in locating chapter associations in your area, or would like to start a chapter association, contact the Area Alumnae Director (AAD) (see the Directory, this issue) in your area for information. If you need further information, or if you have already established a chapter association in your area, please send contact name and address to: Meggan Jordan George, National Contact for Chapter Associations, 4210 Tomkins Court SE, Grand Rapids, MI 49546. 1999 Woman of the Year

A Recipe for Success

Sheila Howell Partin has been named Delta Zeta's Woman of the Year for 1999. Sheila turned a recipe for sweet sourdough bread into a million-dollar business. In 1990, she sold her first six loaves of soft, sweet sourdough bread to a Delta Zeta sister who insisted on buying the bread after tasting it at an alumnae chapter meeting.

She now owns Sheila Partin's Sweet Sourdough Bread, Inc., and her bread is sold in over 100 food stores in Texas, distributed by 15 distributors, and used exclusively in hundreds of restaurants. The bread is also served on TWA and Continental Airlines. Sheila also sells bread gift baskets which are shipped all over the United States.

Initiated into the Delta Theta Chapter at the University of Houston, Sheila held the positions of Social Chairman, Chapter Editor for The LAMP, Historian, and Chaplain.

She served as a chapter officer in several capacities when she joined the Houston Alumnae Chapter after graduation, and has been named Outstanding Alumnae President and Distinguished Delta Zeta Alumna.

She belongs to the Houston Junior Forum, Houston Culinary League, Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, and the Bread Bakers Guild of America. Sheila also donates bakery items to local churches, missions, food banks, and to Houston Feed the Hungry Events. She volunteers at children's schools, works with Girl Scouts of America Leadership, and coaches for girls' middle school volleyball.

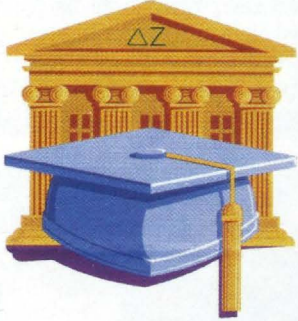

Delta Zeta National Council is proud to recognize Sheila Howell Partin as our 1999 Woman of the Year. Send your congratulations to Sheila at 14 Inverness Park Circle, Houston, TX 77055.

Read more about Sheila Howell Partin in our feature story which will appear in the Spring 2000 issue of The LAMP.

An Investment for the Future: Delta Zeta Sorority Donates $25,000 to the Association of Fraternity Advisors

On November 1, 1999, Delta Zeta National Sorority announced the donation of $25,000 to the Association of Fraternity Advisors (AFA). The donation is in honor of Greek advisors on college and university campuses who work with Delta Zeta chapters across the United States and in Canada. The gift was used in sponsorship of the opening session of the AFA's 1999 Conference, and other uses will be identified over the next four years. The AFA is a vital force in helping to shape higher education through its support of fraternity and sorority affairs.

Delta Zeta National President, Karly Burns, said of the donation, "We are extremely appreciative of the positive input and guidance each Greek advisor gives to our chapters, and we are expressing our appreciation through this donation and the work of the AFA."

Delta Zeta has received much positive praise from many in the Greek community for our donation.

"On behalf of the trustees, officers, and staff of Phi Kappa Tau Foundation, I salute Delta Zeta for this tremendous demonstration of support. As a member of the Board of Directors of the National Interfraternity Conference, I'm very proud to express my warm good feelings about Delta Zeta's generosity toward an organization about which I have such strong allegiance."

William D. Jenkins, CFRE
Executive Vice President, Phi Kappa Tau Foundation
Secretary, National Interfraternity Conference

"Delta Zeta has a far-sighted understanding of how the best things always come only after we've made an investment, and give that investment nurturing and time to grow."

Bob Day, President
Dayworks Internet Group, Inc.

"Thank you, Delta Zeta! The generous donation will serve to educate many in our profession, but the words of appreciation are very much appreciated by all of us as we near the end of a hectic fall term."

Kim Padulo, Kappa Kappa Gamma
Director of Student Life and Development/
Greek Affairs Leadership
California State University, Long Beach

"Congratulations and thanks to Delta Zeta for their support of both AFA and the outstanding work of our colleagues across the country."

Greg Singleton, Associate Dean of Students
AFA Foundation Board of Directors
University of Miami, Florida

Katie Sermersheim, National Secretary, is also Assistant Director of Student Development at Southern Illinois University.

Greek advisors from around the country participate as workshop facilitators for Delta Zeta Leadership conferences, addressing topics which are timely to Greek members on today's campus.

Inspiring Delta Zeta Reunions

Since assuming the editorship of The LAMP, I have received some wonderful letters from Delta Zetas all over the country describing their reunion experiences with their sisters. Here are some excerpts from those letters—heartwarming stories of the ways in which sisters are reconnecting through information in The LAMP, through reunions with other Delta Zetas, and through other ways such as university/college reunion events, visits to their chapter house, or bonding with their collegiate sisters.

We are happy to be a part of helping sisters come together again. In subsequent issues of The LAMP, we will publish additional information about reunions, gatherings, and meetings between sisters—whether in the larger setting of a school's alumni weekend, or the smaller one of two sisters meeting for lunch. Please continue to send us your stories of reunions and gatherings, and tell us how you connected. If you have upcoming reunion events planned—whether for Chapter Associations, Alumnae Chapters, or more informal events, please submit those to The LAMP at least three months prior to your event so we can publish it.

Thank you for your wonderful letters and news. I look forward to receiving more inspiring stories of Delta Zetas connecting again.

At a P.E.O. convention in Ft. Wayne, Indiana, Martha Whitehead Searce E '53 and Catherine Wedge Lynch E '52 met by chance for the first time since they graduated. Their reunion was a wonderful surprise.

"My local Indianapolis North Central Alumnae Chapter was thrilled to see our holiday party photo in The LAMP. That photo has generated new interest in our group . . . we just had a new person contact our group specifically after seeing that photo and reconnecting with someone from her chapter. We also had two more new people at our meeting. Both of these women saw our photo in The LAMP and wanted to get in touch with us. One woman saw one of her coworkers in the photo and had no idea she worked with another Delta Zeta. She said she hadn't been to a Delta Zeta function in 20 years, but she's planning to join us for our next meeting. Another woman had just moved to Indianapolis and was excited to see a Delta Zeta group in her area. We are thrilled to have these new people in our group."

Alumnae and colleagues of the Kappa Alpha Chapter (Nicholls State University) gather after the chapter receives first place in the Greek Division for the homecoming display contest during the homecoming bonfire.

Epsilon Zeta alumnae from Drexel University have formed a large support system which communicates via e-mail, and volunteers much of their time to assisting the collegiate chapter on campus. If you're interested in connecting with this group, please contact Gina Furia Rubel at 313 Fretz Road, Perkasie, PA 18944 or via e-mail at grubel2@etcomm.net.

Claire Sanders AY '34 celebrated her 65th class reunion from the University of Maine in the summer of 1999. Claire served as CCD for the Alpha Upsilon Chapter for 19 years, and still attends all of the chapter's events.

Over 100 sisters attended the ten-year anniversary of the Xi Xi Chapter at North Georgia College and State University.

The Delta Chapter at DePauw University celebrated their 90th year on campus with a special anniversary celebration on Founders Day, 1999. In honor of the chapter's 90th birthday, the collegiate chapter collected writings from their alumnae members about their experiences at DePauw over the years, and preserved the letters in a commemorative binder which was shared on Founders Day. The chapter is also collecting Delta Zeta memorabilia, and welcomes donations such as party favors, composites, and jewelry from members. These can be sent to Jennifer Carpenter Hanley '82 or Amber Stewart '02 at 201 E. Seminary Street, Greencastle, IN 46135.

"I visited the Delta Chapter house on a recent visit to Greencastle, Indiana, and was impressed with its beauty and air of hospitality. There were so few of us at the 'old' chapter house because of the Depression that each girl had a separate room! Mrs. DeLong, our gracious housemother, and her little dog, Bonnie, were great assets. Mrs. Welch, our cook, was the best on campus, so we had no trouble obtaining waiters among the male students! We dressed for dinner, with heels and hose, and there were always fresh flowers on the table. It was lovely."

Charlotte Werth Hejmanowski BK '65 reports that the Beta Kappa Chapter class of 1965 at Iowa State University held their second reunion in Door County Wisconsin in August of 1999. The previous year marked the first reunion the chapter had held in 31 years, and resulted in special reminiscences for the sisters who attended.

Anne Marie Jones Gavin, Delta Zeta Foundation Secretary and Treasurer, and Denise Williams McCullars, National Vice President of Membership Development, organized and hosted an alumnae gathering at the University of North Carolina chapter house in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, on October 23, 1999. The work involved in planning the event paid off—the alumnae turnout was very successful. Many were anxious to see the chapter house they had once called home. Everyone agreed the gathering was a great success, and another reunion will be planned for the near future.

MIAMI UNIVERSITY REUNION—Alpha Chapter

Jennifer Emmons Karpinsky A, a member of the Miami University Alumni Committee, is organizing a reunion of Alpha Chapter members at Miami University during the Alumni Weekend to be held June 17-19, 2000. The Alpha Sigma Chapter celebrated a fall reunion in Tallahassee, Florida in September, 1999 at Florida State University. Alumnae members enjoyed a house tour, luncheon, and attended the Florida State University football game.

"I had the wonderful experience of attending the last two days of rush at Texas A & M where my daughter Stacey is a Delta Zeta. It is amazing after all the years of not being involved how quickly the flame begins to burn bright. It is the most wonderful bond having my daughter as a Delta Zeta. I never thought it would mean so much, but it really does. I enjoyed rush . . . the chapter members are quite a great group of young ladies."

Zeta Lambda sisters reunited at Susan Booth Stevenson's farm in Swansboro, North Carolina, in August 1999. National President Karly Burns, also a Zeta Lambda, was thrilled to be a part of the reunion. Susan and her husband Johnny hosted over 30 people, including 25 Zeta Lambdas from East Carolina University, at their large farm which overlooks a river. Carol Mabe said of the joyous event, "As always, it felt good to be with those who, through often unseen for many years and with very different lives and experiences, still feel like 'sisters.' What a special bond we all have because of our days together in that big, old wonderful white house in Greenville so many years ago."

Focus on Excellence

Highlights from the National Panhellenic Conference 1999 Biennial Meeting

Delta Zeta Sorority was well represented at the National Panhellenic Conference's 1999 Biennial Meeting at Saddlebrook Resort in Tampa, Florida. Karly Klemp Burns, National President; Jamie Hammill Pyne, Delta Zeta's NPC Delegate; Sandra McAlister Nesbitt, Past National President and First Alternate; Lynnnda Wolf Hoefler, Second Alternate; Denise Williams McCullars, Third Alternate; Cynthia Winslow Menges, Executive Director; Kim Harris Bath, Convention Chairman; and Nancy Brewer, Director of Communications and Editor of The LAMP, were in attendance.

The theme of the meeting was "Focus on Excellence," which urges all 26 NPC chapters to focus on the core values and ideals upon which they were founded. Outgoing Chairman Lissa Bradford, Kappa Alpha Theta, discussed the progress that the NPC has made over the past year. One of the most important issues was the support from NPC and its 2,937 chapters for the 11 National Interfraternity Council (NIC) fraternities that have committed to alcohol-free housing. The 1999-2000 Research Initiative, an ongoing series of studies about the positive impact of the Greek experience on collegiate and alumnae men and women, will be funded to continue research through 1999-2000.

Delta Zeta proudly recognizes the following members who currently serve as President of their local Alumnae Panhellenic Association:

Suzanne Harris Brown ΘΨ – Youngstown, OH
Clara Bowie Clark ΒΩ – Long Island, NY
Janet Curry Cornwell ΑΞ – Tallahassee, FL
Theora Marberger Denaro ΕΖ – Reading, PA
Robin Griehs Donoho ΙΩ – Jacksonville, FL
Audra Dunefsky Good ΖΑ – Fairfield County, CT
Anna Janett Marshall ΑΙ – Monterey Bay, CA
Jennie Bell Oliver ΑΚ – Huntsville, AL
Cindy Ware Pare ΔΤ – Atascosita, TX

In academic excellence and programming, the College Panhellenics have seen an increase in achieving above the All Women's Average. In the area of collegiate education programs, "Something of Value," a risk management program based on values, and "NPC Focus," a collaborative program that focuses on alcohol/drug use and related health issues affecting women, have both met with great success.

Delta Zeta Sorority proudly presented a gift to the NPC Foundation for Academic Excellence in honor of Sandra Nesbitt, past National President, and in memory of her husband, Milton Nesbitt.

The 1999-2000 NPC Executive Officers who were installed were Marian Williams, Chairman, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Sally Grant, Secretary, Alpha Phi; and Martha Brown, Treasurer, Delta Gamma.

Delta Zeta's delegates also serve in other capacities for the NPC. On the College Panhellenics Committee, Jamie Pyne serves as the NPC Area Advisor for Eastern North Carolina, and Lynnnda Hoefler serves in the same position for the state of Michigan and part of Canada. Denise McCullars is the Alumnae Panhellenics Area Advisor for Georgia and Alabama. Sandra Nesbitt is the incoming Chairman of the NPC Housing Committee.

Jamie said, "It is an awesome feeling when we sit in the meeting room in that famous U-shaped formation that you always hear about . . . to know that you are in the company of some of the greatest leaders in the sorority world. Together we can make a difference in the strength, future growth, and involvement of our collegiate and alumnae chapters."

NPC NATIONAL BADGE DAY

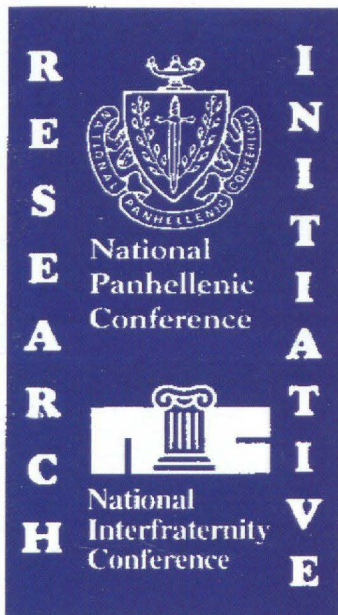

MARCH 6, 2000

March 2000 will mark the fourth annual National Panhellenic Badge Day, an effort that encourages sorority women to celebrate their Greek affiliations by wearing their badge or letters. The public awareness campaign is slated for March 6th.

"National Badge Day gives sorority women of all ages and in all locations a way to show their Greek pride," said Lissa Bradford, past Chairman of the National Panhellenic Conference.

Information on celebration ideas and the theme for the campaign will be forthcoming.

The 1999 Report on Research Results

NPC/NIC Research Initiative

The 1999 NPC/NIC Research Initiative findings are based on research by the Center for Advanced Social Research at the University of Missouri-Columbia with nearly 2,000 undergraduates at public universities and private colleges nationally. The research for 1999 focused on alcohol education, alcohol-free housing, and reducing alcohol abuse among undergraduates.

1. Alcohol-free housing and education on the risks of alcohol for undergraduate members of men's and women's fraternities reduce the amount and frequency of alcohol use.
2. In men's and women's fraternities that actively encourage responsible approaches to alcohol, members report fewer alcohol-related problems.

3. Alcohol-educated fraternity leaders use less alcohol, less often. Among all fraternity members, officers of alcohol-sensitive women's fraternities reported the lowest use of alcohol in the past year.
4. Twenty-eight percent of male fraternity members, and 60% of female fraternity members, reside in alcohol-free housing.
5. Members of "alcohol-sensitive" chapters are more satisfied with their academic experiences and more positive about the role their chapters play in encouraging study.
6. Alcohol education is making a difference, but it has not yet reduced drinking and drinking-related problems to the lower levels experienced by those who are not members of a men's or women's fraternity.

The mission of the Delta Zeta Foundation is to advance the Sorority's educational and philanthropic purposes through the development of financial and human resources in support of the Sorority's leadership, scholarship, philanthropic and educational programs.

President's Message

What an exciting time for Delta Zeta as we prepare to enter our second century! Looking back over the past 97 years, it is easy to see how much Delta Zeta has accomplished.

As the President of the Delta Zeta Foundation, I take pride in the success of the Foundation's mission of scholarship, leadership, philanthropy, and educational assistance. This success is based on the support of many loyal Delta Zetas.

The end of the year allows us to look back on our accomplishments and assess our future goals. Through your gifts to the Loyalty Fund, we can indeed be proud of the progress we made this year in funding the vital programs that the Delta Zeta Foundation supports. Your generosity has provided the following opportunities for our sisters and the hearing impaired:

- Scholarship assistance for deserving women, allowing them to focus on their education and complete their degrees.
- The chance to gain valuable leadership skills through the Norma Minch Andrisek Leadership Conference, and obtain valuable knowledge through educational programs focusing on academic excellence and risk management. Collegiate women are now strong leaders in their chapters, and after graduation, will become influential leaders in their own communities.

History

DELTA ZETA HISTORY—A LEGACY FOR THE FUTURE

Our heritage is the gift we pass on to each woman as she becomes a sister in Delta Zeta. It is the foundation of our Sorority, and it is the legacy we build upon as we move into the future.

We continue the tradition our Founders began in 1902, while working to shape a sorority for the next millennium. Donations to the Delta Zeta Foundation preserve our precious history. Funds are used to support the preservation of the National Historical Museum and Headquarters in Oxford, Ohio, home of Miami University where Delta Zeta Sorority was founded.

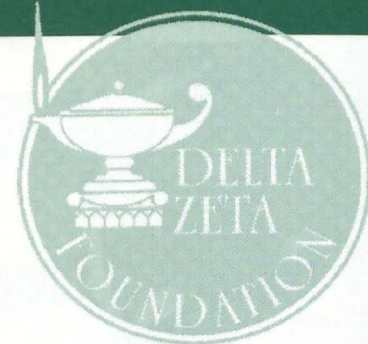

As members, we know the importance of continuing this living tradition. Donations to the Delta Zeta Foundation ensure that the Delta Zeta legacy lives on.

"We would not be here if it weren't for the traditions that have been passed on to us. Our history gives us a better understanding of what our founders believed."

Melissa Weaver, Delta Omega Chapter, Fort Hays State University

"We could not call ourselves Delta Zetas if it wasn't for our six Founders. Founders Day gives us a moment to celebrate the founding of our beloved Sorority and reminds us of why we are here."

Tolou Hosseinzadeh, Gamma Lambda Chapter,
San Jose State University

- Assisting with hearing research programs and providing needed equipment to the hearing impaired through our national philanthropy for Speech and Hearing. Delta Zeta Sorority partners with Gallaudet University, in Washington, D.C., to provide scholarships and support to hearing-impaired students. Your donations also help the House Ear Institute in Los Angeles, California to continue its vital work in this area.
- Preservation of our history for our sisters now, and those of future generations, through the Delta Zeta Historical Museum and Archives.

These programs prove how you have helped Delta Zeta in these important endeavors. We thank you for your generosity. There is much more work to be done, and your continued support to the Loyalty Fund is crucial to making those goals reality. Each donation is a step toward realizing our mission. Thank you for your support over the past year. We look forward to another rewarding one in 2000.

Levels of Giving

The Delta Zeta Foundation has many levels of giving. Through the Loyalty Fund, our annual campaign, your contribution each and every year personifies your lifetime commitment to Delta Zeta. Each contribution, no matter what the size, makes a difference. From the Oxford Society to the Friendship Circle, every level is important as we work to implement programs which fulfill our mission.

Members who have donated to the Delta Zeta Foundation from July 1, 1998 through June 30, 1999 are listed in the following life-to-date giving levels:

| Planned Giving | Oxford Society |

THE OXFORD SOCIETY

The Oxford Society has been established to honor and recognize those alumnae and friends of Delta Zeta who have made provisions for future generations of student members through will bequests, life insurance, trusts, or other planned gifts.

PLANNED GIFTS

Planned gifts can be made through bequests, life insurance, trusts, or gifts of appreciated assets.

GIFTS-IN-KIND

Gifts of materials and services are highly sought and welcomed by the Trustees of the Delta Zeta Foundation. A special committee will consider all gift-in-kind proposals.

SPECIAL FRIENDS RECOGNITION

Individuals who donate at least $300 during the biennium and collegiate and alumnae chapters that donate at least $2,000 during the biennium in donations, which will remain with the Foundation, will be recognized at the National Convention.

OUR NEWEST PROGRAM: THE 1902 LOYALTY CIRCLE

The 1902 Loyalty Circle is an undergraduate giving society made up of collegiate members. The program is designed to increase collegiate awareness of the Foundation and expand the number of young donors.

Introduced at the 1999 Norma Minch Andrisek Leadership Conference, membership in the 1902 Loyalty Circle is voluntary and qualifies with a gift of $19.02 to the Foundation. A donor will receive a distinctive dangle designed exclusively for the 1902 Loyalty Circle member. Each year, a new dangle will be introduced.

Collegians who have participated for the fiscal year July 1, 1999 – June 30, 2000 will be listed in next year's Foundation Annual Report. Be a proud part of next year's Report by sending your donation today.

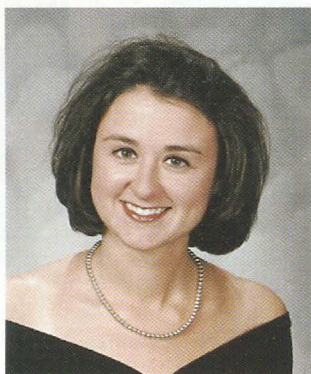

Scholarships

DELTA ZETA FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS . . . GIVING THE GIFT OF EDUCATION

In the new year, a collegiate sister will return to school because a Delta Zeta scholarship has helped her fund an education she otherwise wouldn't have been able to afford. Imagine—you assist and encourage a young woman to continue her education and realize her dream of obtaining a college degree. How can you do this? When you donate to Delta Zeta's scholarship program, you provide this opportunity to many women in our membership. Through the donations of loyal members and friends, many recipients have enjoyed the educational opportunities that these scholarships provide. In addition to assisting college-age women, the scholarships can also fund sorority expenses and the education of graduate students and alumnae returning to school.

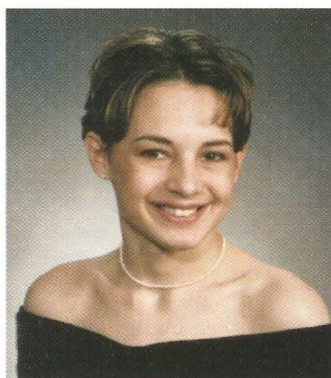

Specialized scholarships and general ones, which are funded through the General Scholarship Fund, assist members who are qualified and deserving of assistance. Today, our women need scholarships with a value of a thousand dollars or greater to be of any real assistance. It takes a substantial investment to generate that return annually. Through our scholarships, we can make more opportunities available to our young women and continue their education and their commitment to Delta Zeta. Your gift makes these opportunities a reality.

For more information on how you can contribute to any of the Delta Zeta scholarship programs or leave a bequest for a deserving woman of tomorrow, please contact Diane Young, Foundation Coordinator, at Delta Zeta Headquarters.

The scholarship really helped me because my younger brother just entered a university, and there was quite a financial burden on my family. I plan to go to graduate school and earn a Master's degree in speech language pathology. In receiving this scholarship, I felt that my hard work and dedication really paid off.

Jennifer Castlen, Xi Beta Chapter
Eastern Kentucky University

The Founders Memorial Scholarship allowed me to focus my attention on my academics and learn to my best potential, relieving the pressure of having to work and attend classes at the same time. It also gave me the encouragement and the confidence to succeed. I felt honored to receive the scholarship, and it made me realize how important Delta Zeta has become in my life. I plan to pursue a Master's degree in College Student Personnel, and later, a Ph.D. in Student Affairs.

Daniele Distel, Xi Beta Chapter
Eastern Kentucky University

The Helen Woodruff Nolop Scholarship is helping me to reach my academic goals by assisting with my tuition and book expenses. It has also helped me to work more diligently to receive competitive grades. I realize that without this dedication, especially in the growing field of education, I will not be able to get the job I truly want and have worked for—as a teacher at an early intervention preschool for students with special needs.

Melissa Foster, Gamma Alpha Chapter
Baldwin-Wallace College

Donations to the Delta Zeta Foundation that are designated for Gallaudet University are used to fund Gallaudet Scholarships or other funding needs for the University. Gallaudet University manages the funds donated, selects the scholarship recipients from the University, and administers the disbursement of scholarship funds.

I wish to express my utmost gratitude in receiving this award from Delta Zeta Sorority. The scholarship is crucial to helping me finish my studies. My goal is to become a clinical social worker so I can provide mental health services to deaf and hard-of-hearing populations.

Bernadette Hill, Gallaudet University

I'm the mother of three deaf children and have worked for two deaf service centers. I want to start making a difference inside the deaf community after I receive my Master's degree. Thank you very much for your great support.

Pamela McMahon, Gallaudet University

I want to extend many thanks for your generous financial support. This scholarship means a lot to me because now I will certainly graduate on time. After graduation, I plan to attend graduate school or medical school.

Annora Chamochumbi, Gallaudet University

Scholarship programs help our deserving collegiate and graduate sisters meet tuition and school expenses so they can succeed in school. Your donation to any of the specialized scholarships or to the General Scholarship Fund helps these sisters realize their educational goals.

Dr. I. King Jordan with Joan Dondrea Lowry, former Foundation President, and Delta Zeta Foundation scholarship recipients at Gallaudet University.

The Foundation continues to intensify its development activities and focus on new strategies for increasing donations to the Loyalty Fund. The largest percentage of income in fiscal year 1999 was from individual donors at 34%, followed by rental income at 20%. Investment income made up 15% of the Foundation's revenues, while alumnae and collegiate chapters contributed 15% and 14% respectively.

On Campus with Delta Zeta

The ALPHA CHAPTER at Miami University of Ohio was recognized for their contribution to the Adopt-A-School Supply Drive, which benefited local schools. The chapter also began publishing their new newsletter, Turtle Talk, to connect with their alumnae with a calendar of events and alumnae profiles.

ALPHA ALPHA CHAPTER at Northwestern University had the largest new member class of this year. The chapter will celebrate its 80th year in September of 2000, and plans to have celebrations all year long. By publicizing their calendar of events, members plan to reach many alumnae who will want to attend.

The Alpha Alpha Chapter.

ALPHA SIGMA'S (Florida State University) recent newsletter highlighted that chapter's alumnae members, providing addresses for those who want to connect with their sisters. Many discussed the ways in which their Delta Zeta experience has helped them throughout the years.

Alumnae from the BETA ALPHA CHAPTER (University of Rhode Island) met their collegiate sisters on Founders Day, taking a tour of the chapter house and meeting new members. One of the founding sisters of the chapter, Sarah Plumb, visited earlier this year, and alumnae from the 1945 pledge class came to plant flowers around the chapter house in memory of deceased members.

The BETA TAU CHAPTER (Nebraska Wesleyan University) invited parents to a lunch and silent auction during homecoming, and many alumnae visited and volunteered to assist in hosting the activities. On Founders Day, collegiate members hosted a banquet with singing performances and presentations. "We had the chance to speak with dedicated alumnae and share stories about how wonderful Delta Zeta is," reports Chapter Editor Kelly Bowen.

DELTA CHAPTER (DePauw University) members invite alumnae to their chapter house whenever they are in the area. Each new member class within the chapter met at least once during the semester to strengthen their sisterhood. "We know that our sisterhood goes beyond the four years we spend here at DePauw," says past Chapter President Kelly Jackson.

On Founders Day, the DELTA BETA CHAPTER (University of Tampa) celebrated with the Clearwater, St. Petersburg, and Tampa Alumnae Chapters and National President Karly Burns. Recent graduates joined the celebration as new alumnae, and "helped to make Founders Day a little more special," says Chapter Editor Angela Roberts. "It is a special honor to have our alumnae attend. They are so appreciated by our chapter."

The Delta Beta Chapter and Florida alumnae with National President Karly Burns.

A local Oktoberfest celebration allowed the DELTA OMEGA CHAPTER (Fort Hays State University) to host an open house for alumnae who were in the area. Many collegiate members correspond with alumnae sisters, who are invited to Founders Day and university alumni events. The Wichita Alumnae Chapter donated a TV/VCR to the college chapter to use for virtual classes and school-related videos. "Alumnae are vital to our chapter to maintain tradition and to stay connected," says Chapter Editor Dawn Friedly.

The DELTA PHI CHAPTER at Northeastern State University made signs welcoming their alumnae to campus for homecoming. At the Founders Day celebration, Stillwater Alumnae Chapter members attended, and several were awarded the Order of the Golden Rose. Amber Ritzhaupt, a senior, is already planning to be involved in the Tulsa Alumnae Chapter. "Delta Zeta is a lifelong commitment and continuing to share in that bond of sisterhood is very important to me," she says.

The Delta Phi Chapter includes members of six family generations of Delta Zetas.

The DELTA SIGMA CHAPTER (Truman State University) celebrated Founders Day with a memorial service for the late Dr. Ruth Towne, their faculty advisor. Alumnae attended and participated in the ceremony. The collegians were most impressed by a 50-year member who has always stayed in touch with her Delta Zeta sisters. Amy Coxwell, Chapter Editor, says, "It is always such a joyful reunion to see sisters that have graduated from our chapter."

At the University of Houston, the DELTA THETA CHAPTER was the only Greek organization on campus that had alumnae in attendance at their campus homecoming event. Alumnae organized the Founders Day Dinner, and collegians invited their mothers to attend. Karissa Barber, a recent alumna, said, "It was the best Founders Day I have experienced. I thought it would be less enjoyable because I was no longer a collegian, but it was much more moving and I understood so much more this time around."

The Delta Theta Chapter with CCD Shannon Frazier at a recruitment party.

The DELTA UPSILON CHAPTER'S Alumnae Relations Chair, Jennifer "Buffy" Full, has worked with her sisters to bring alumnae closer to their chapter. Buffy organized an alumnae picnic to coincide with Marshall University's homecoming game. "Everyone who attended enjoyed themselves, and many even asked when the next reunion would be," Buffy said. Alumnae are very important to the chapter, and many stop by the chapter house to stay in touch with their collegiate sisters.

DELTA XI CHAPTER (University of Northern Colorado) members hosted the Fort Collins Alumnae Chapter at their Founders Day celebration. National Historian Florence Hood Miner shared letters written by Julia Bishop with the chapter, and presented the chapter with a brick for the Delta Zeta walkway located at National Headquarters. The members want to thank the Fort Collins Alumnae Chapter and Florence Hood Miner for their assistance and inspiration.

The EPSILON CHAPTER at Indiana University celebrated its 90th year in 1999, and plans an April 2000 celebration ceremony. Alumnae returned to the University and stayed in the chapter house for homecoming activities, and are paired with senior members of the chapter, allowing them to make a special connection as the collegians prepare to become alumnae, too.

The EPSILON RHO CHAPTER (Northwest Missouri State University) hosts an alumnae tea following their homecoming game, and alumnae are updated on chapter events, share scrapbooks, and watch slide shows. Erin Avery, a senior in the chapter, says, "I plan to fly from Massachusetts all the way to Missouri to be with my sisters after graduation."

At Longwood College, the EPSILON TAU CHAPTER is dedicated to staying in touch with their alumnae through newsletters and invitations to the chapter's functions. Chapter Editor Jessica Guslar says, "Our new members enjoy talking with our alumnae. Alumnae appreciate the invitations they receive, and we appreciate their attendance at our events."

A new program helps the EPSILON THETA CHAPTER (Clarion University) stay in touch with alumnae sisters. "Alum Chums" pairs each collegiate member with the names of two alumnae. The collegians send the alumnae cards, letters, and e-mail, and notify them of chapter news and events. "The sisters are excited to maintain a relationship with other sisters they may have never met, but can now get to know a little better," says Chapter Editor Beth Genemore.

EPSILON UPSILON CHAPTER members invited alumnae to their homecoming festivities at the University of Central Oklahoma. Alumnae and parents were impressed with the float on which all members worked. On Founders Day, alumnae met collegiate members and watched award presentations, including the 4.0 scholastic award.

Alumnae from the GAMMA ALPHA CHAPTER of Baldwin Wallace College lunched with their collegiate sisters at a Founders Day celebration. Janet Schaffer Alderman IT, mother of Chapter President Cari Alderman, helps alumnae stay in touch with the collegiate chapter, and works with the members on recruitment and Founders Day projects. "She has been an inspiration to the entire chapter," Maggie Priebe, Public Relations Chairman, says.

The Gamma Alpha Chapter

The GAMMA LAMBDA CHAPTER (San Jose State University) looks forward to homecoming events such as a barbecue and planned events at their chapter house. Celebrating Founders Day with alumnae "brings a special bond between all members," says Chapter Editor Tolou Hosseinzadeh. The chapter is implementing a mentoring program with their alumnae now, and invite alumnae to the Rose Ball, a formal event which many of them enjoy.

At Central Michigan University, the GAMMA PSI CHAPTER included alumnae in all of their homecoming activities, with a brunch before the parade. Many alumnae were excited about meeting new sisters in their chapter, and were especially interested in seeing how the chapter had grown since they were collegians.

Alumnae and parents were invited to GAMMA SIGMA'S chapter house at Eastern Michigan University for homecoming. Kelly Tassone, an alumna of the chapter, said, "It was nice to see everyone and be back at the house. I also enjoyed meeting other alumnae and seeing my little sister." The chapter asks any alumnae visiting the house to sign an address book so they can receive mailings and the chapter newsletter.

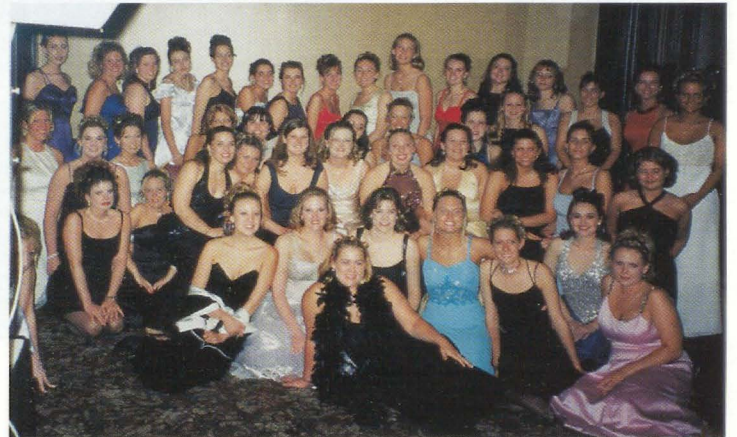

Gamma Sigma reunites: Natalie Monachino, Daniele Distel, Jen Balamucki, Shelbe Sodergren, and Liz Knowles.

The GAMMA THETA CHAPTER invites alumnae back to their homecoming event at Carroll College, where they enjoy hors d'oeuvres and reminisce about past experiences. Alumnae give generously of their time to help the chapter with initiation, recruitment, and retreats. Founders Day coincided with the New Member Retreat this year, and alumnae had the opportunity to meet their new sisters.

The IOTA DELTA CHAPTER at Edinboro University assisted in setting up homecoming activities for the school, and their float took second place in the Homecoming Parade. The chapter was commended by the Homecoming Committee for their hard work and dedication during the homecoming events.

The IOTA IOTA CHAPTER celebrated its 30th anniversary at Middle Tennessee State University with a formal at which collegians and alumnae reminisced about Delta Zeta. Chapter Editor Paige Weese says inviting alumnae to homecoming activities brought their chapter closer. "There is definitely a special bond between the alumnae of Iota Iota and the collegiate actives," Paige affirms.

The Iota Iota Chapter's anniversary formal.

In the IOTA PHI CHAPTER (University of Nevada/Las Vegas), new members had the chance to meet alumnae on Founders Day, and everyone donated children's books to a local elementary school. Alumnae advisors from the UNLV Alumnae Chapter assist collegiate members with recruitment and many other aspects of sorority life. Thank you cards are sent to every alumna who helps the chapter.

The IOTA PSI CHAPTER (University of Texas/Arlington) works closely with their alumnae. Newsletters and mailings are sent to parents and alumnae, alumnae assist with fundraising and philanthropic events, and attend sisterhood events. Donna Schonerstedt, working as an advisor at the University, was the guest speaker at a recent academic retreat. Shannon Harral, another alumna, created the chapter's web page.

The KAPPA CHAPTER at the University of Washington writes in their newsletter, which is sent to collegians and alumnae, "Most of our graduate sisters stay involved with the sisterhood long after their collegiate days have come to an end. They are eager to build on the friendships formed at the University. For many, those very same friendships are found to be even stronger than ever decades after graduation."

Katie Lambert of the KAPPA ALPHA CHAPTER at Nicholls State University was the homecoming queen at this year's festivities. Alumnae always attend the homecoming activities on campus. The chapter has ten legacies in its membership, and many recent graduates return to help the chapter with recruitment or fundraising activities. Debbie Raziano, National Vice President of College Chapter Operations, is the Director of Alumni Affairs at Nicholls State and supports the chapter in many efforts. The chapter received the Gertrude Houk Farris Award for 1999 in recognition of their outstanding relations with alumnae.

Kappa Alpha members visit the Tulane Hospital to boost the spirits of young cancer patients.

"KAPPA BETA is lucky to have such an active alumnae chapter," writes Alicia Lynn Blaker, Chapter Editor for the Kappa Beta Chapter at Northern Kentucky University. "We thank our loving alumnae sisters who consistently give so much time to benefit the collegians." Alumnae who were outside the Kentucky area returned for fall recruitment, and CCD Billie Lane Clark helps collegiate members contact their alumnae sisters. Linda Schaefer Allen spoke to the chapter about Delta Zeta's history and legacy, and Katie Rasp is designing a web page for them.

Members of the KAPPA EPSILON CHAPTER (Plymouth State College) invited alumnae to the homecoming football game, then hosted them at the chapter house. Some alumnae bring their children to the house as they share stories about Delta Zeta, and a recent pumpkin-carving event bonded the collegians more closely to their alumnae sisters

Sisters in Kappa Epsilon: Alumna Gail Sweeney with initiate Liz Burnell.

At Kutztown University, KAPPA RHO members have found that e-mail helps them stay connected to their alumnae. The chapter invites alumnae to a Thanksgiving dinner, and plans a retreat with them to strengthen their special bond. "We enjoy the ideas and feedback they share with us," says Chapter Editor Nicole Burkhart.

The KAPPA XI CHAPTER connect with their alumnae at a homecoming Greek Life event at Duquesne University. The collegiate sisters wrote and performed a musical for the homecoming carnival. "Carnival was a great bonding experience for all members of the sorority, and an unforgettable homecoming," said alumna Jennifer Malutich. Sister activities are planned to include alumnae, and many attend an annual memorial mass for Christen Lee Thompson.

The LAMBDA GAMMA CHAPTER (Jacksonville State University) celebrated homecoming and Founders Day activities on the same weekend, with a parade, football game, and reception. Julie Campbell Glenn was the guest speaker, and spoke to her sisters about becoming a recent alumna, and what the experience has meant to her.

The Lambda Gamma Chapter celebrates Founders Day.

The LAMBDA KAPPA CHAPTER displayed their winning banner at the homecoming game of the University of Alabama/Huntsville. Alumna Trish Morea was crowned homecoming queen. An awards banquet and a speech by Past National President Sandi McAlister Nesbitt BX highlighted Founders Day. Alumnae and collegians also participate in fundraisers for a local children's hospital.

The LAMBDA THETA CHAPTER celebrated homecoming with their alumnae at Michigan Tech, and won overall homecoming for 1999. Founders Day was celebrated with members' parents. "It was a huge success and we had a great turnout," says Chapter Editor Julie Varichak. "It was awesome that we can share this day with people outside the Sorority." Alumnae also visit the school during the Winter Carnival festivities, enjoying a potluck dinner with their collegiate sisters.

The Lambda Theta Chapter.

LAMBDA XI Chapter Editor Catherine Robinson says, "During recruitment, our whole chapter grew closer together and learned a great deal about sisterhood from our alumnae because they showed us what it means to be a sister after the college years." This semester at Texas A&M University was a difficult time for the sisters when Jamie Grounds was killed in a car accident. "Our alumnae helped pull us through during these trying times and showed us how strong we are as a group," Catherine says.

At St. Mary's University, the OMICRON ALPHA CHAPTER has the largest alumnae turnout at their school's alumni picnic in the summer. Alumnae attend the Alumni Oysterbake and Fiesta held during homecoming, and return for Founders Day celebrations. The chapter had a large alumnae attendance at a formal which celebrated the chapter's tenth anniversary on campus.

OMICRON DELTA alumnae, sporting Delta Zeta attire, attended the homecoming football game at Bryant College with their collegiate sisters. The chapter co-sponsored a walkathon to raise money for Sherri Epstein's daughter, Rachel, who at the age of one suffers from a rare genetic disease. The chapter raised $20,000 for the research project that is crucial to the little girl's survival, and were recognized in their campus newspaper for their efforts.

OMICRON GAMMA members connect with alumnae during their formal rush in the fall at Ohio University. "For me, seeing the alumnae made me remember all of the enjoyable experiences I had with them when they were collegiate members . . . they helped me become a successful Delta Zeta," says Chapter Editor Erin Fisher. A large celebration is planned for Founders Day 2000, when the chapter will celebrate its tenth anniversary on campus.

The Omicron Gamma Chapter.

OMICRON MU CHAPTER (University of South Carolina/Spartanburg) invites alumnae to speak at their meetings about Delta Zeta history and what their sorority experience has meant to them. Many alumnae volunteer to critique recruitment techniques. Katy Farmer says, "When I was Vice President of Membership, alumna Angel Greer was my constant support. She encouraged me throughout my entire term, and kept my spirits high when things got tough."

The Omicron Mu Chapter with their alumnae. Left to right: Sallye Gresham and Kelly Gillespie Tam, alumnae; Kati Whitaker, 1999 President; Lisa Davenport Green, CCD; and Mendi Skinner, 1998 President.

The OMICRON NU CHAPTER at the University of Windsor (Canada) invites alumnae to Thanksgiving dinner and their annual Christmas party. Memories are shared by alumnae, and current members benefit by their sisters' experience. The first president of the chapter, Lynn Lee Ogley, says, "Delta Zeta has been a fantastic connection to develop lifelong friendships. I am very proud to be a part of the first Canadian chapter."

On Founders Day, members of the OMICRON OMICRON CHAPTER at Lindenwood College join their St. Louis Alumnae Chapter sisters and members of Iota Xi for a dinner. The collegiate chapter says that the opportunity to connect with their alumnae sisters makes them realize that they are Delta Zetas for life, and that their association will not end when they graduate. "It is wonderful to see that the sisterhood always remains," says Chapter Editor Kara Gillam.

The OMICRON XI CHAPTER (Mars Hill College) holds an alumnae brunch before the homecoming game. After the collegiate chapter connects with an alumna for the first time, they keep her updated about chapter activities with additional letters, e-mail, phone calls, and visits. Alumnae participate in recruitment and are often guest speakers for the chapter.

Members of OMICRON ZETA at Randolph-Macon College always enjoy meeting their alumnae at a homecoming reception. "It allows everyone to appreciate the changes within the chapter, and hear the stories of past years," says Chapter Editor Kara Hall. Members also network with alumnae for career advice and information on potential jobs. Many alumnae are members of alumni groups at the College, so the collegiate chapter sees them often.

At Eureka College, the PI CHAPTER sends a calendar of events to alumnae before homecoming, and hosts an open house before the game. Newsletters include a special section for alumnae to send in their news, and the chapter is developing a webpage.

The THETA CHAPTER at Ohio State University devoted their most recent newsletter to their alumnae. The chapter says, "Alumnae remain our best resource. Sisters may feel the chapter has changed since graduation, but Delta Zeta provides membership for life."

Members of the THETA ETA CHAPTER (Creighton University) were hosted by alumna Rosaline Monestero McGregor at a Founders Day celebration at her home. Proceeds from a raffle were donated to the Omaha School for the Hearing Impaired. "There is no other feeling like walking into a room and meeting a hundred women who are automatically your sisters and will do anything for you! Delta Zeta helped me feel at home in Omaha," said junior Tamara Hatch.

The Theta Eta Chapter on campus.

THETA IOTA members invite their alumnae to ride their float in the homecoming parade at Western Carolina University. An alumnae tea allows alumnae to meet new members and reunite with sisters they already know. Alumnae are invited to recruitment and initiation, "providing a lot of support and giving guidance to the sisters when needed," reports Chapter Editor Sondra Diaz. "Everyone enjoys this time and the closeness that all the sisters feel."

Members of the THETA MU CHAPTER were recognized by the St. Cloud State University Vice President of Student Life for their participation in the Safe Ride Program, which provided designated drivers for those celebrating the homecoming festivities. Both the Public Safety and St. Cloud Police Departments complimented the chapter on their hard work during homecoming events.

Tyanne Kunz of the THETA NU CHAPTER (Moorhead State University) was crowned homecoming queen, and Jill Samuelson placed first in the homecoming variety show. The chapter hosted an alumnae breakfast. Alumnae and collegiate members watched the homecoming parade from the front lawn of their chapter house.

The THETA PHI CHAPTER at Old Dominion University hosted a Founders Day celebration with the highest attendance in their history. Collegiate members, alumnae, and family members came to the event. "The parents were especially pleased to see the fine women of Delta Zeta with whom their daughters associate," says Amanda Martin, Chapter Editor.

At Radford University, XI DELTA members hosted a picnic at homecoming for all of their alumnae with homemade food. The chapter participates in alumni weekend activities every year. "No matter the graduation year or age difference, we are all as close as ever," says Megan Leah Lindsey, Chapter Editor. Alumnae have a standing invitation to visit the collegiate chapter, and are encouraged to send updates about themselves to the collegians.

Alumnae of the XI IOTA CHAPTER enjoyed being invited back home to Muhlenberg College during homecoming festivities. The chapter sends personal information cards to alumnae to be completed and returned, so alumnae won't miss invitations and updates from the school. "They are so excited to hear from us," says Chapter Editor Jennifer Benedict.

The XI NU CHAPTER integrates their alumnae activities with events that Tarleton State University plans. At homecoming, collegiate and alumnae members participate in a Silver Taps Ceremony to honor Tarleton students, faculty, and friends who have passed away. This year, the alumnae luncheon and traditional ceremony honored Dean Matthews, a 60-year member of Delta Zeta. Joni Boyd, Chapter Editor, met an alumna while waiting tables at a local restaurant. "Everyone is so excited when they meet a new alumna," she says.

Alumnae join the Xi Nu Chapter for Bid Day.

The XI OMEGA CHAPTER at Purdue University publishes a list of "lost" alumnae in their newsletter, Turtle Times, in hopes that other alumnae will be able to help them locate these sisters. The chapter has won awards for excellence in philanthropy, programming, and for ten consecutive years of meeting quota. They regularly publicize the accomplishments of their alumnae members in their newsletter.

The XI PSI CHAPTER (Grand Valley State) feel that special planning adds to the enjoyment of their alumnae dinner before their homecoming game, at which new members are introduced. Founders Day coincided with Region Day, allowing members and alumnae from many chapters to attend, including AAD Mella Cooks Davies from the Cleveland Eastside Alumnae Chapter. "Our alumnae made us who we are as a chapter, and are the reason we are strong and proud," says Jody Armstrong, Chapter Editor.

Xi Psi alumnae Laurena Falk, Andrea Litfin, Tracy Schneider, Mary VanderLaan, and CCD Gwen McHugh Shick ZN join the chapter for homecoming activities.

New member activities for the XI SIGMA CHAPTER (University of North Carolina/Chapel Hill) included a lawn party and a relaxing retreat at a nearby camp set in the woods.

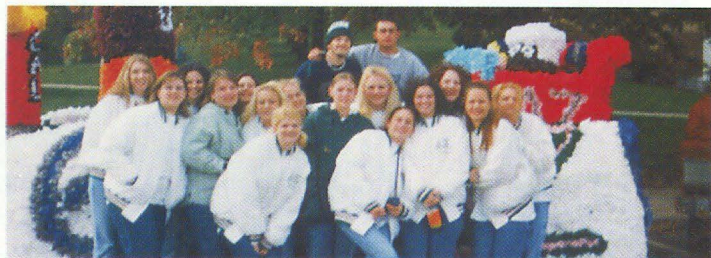

Sisters in the Xi Sigma Chapter bond during a retreat.

The XI TAU CHAPTER (Millersville University) is working to establish connections with their alumnae. Currently the chapter is working with an alumna to create an updated address list and send a newsletter to alumnae to encourage them to contact the chapter. Graduating sisters regret that they will be leaving the sisters with whom they have built such wonderful friendships, but plan to stay connected to their chapter via e-mail and telephone, and will attend chapter events whenever possible.

The XI THETA CHAPTER celebrates their 20th year on the campus of the University of North Carolina at Wilmington this year. Parents, alumnae, and the founding sisters of the chapter were invited to a semi-formal to mark the event. Recently, the chapter was featured on the front page of the school newspaper for their active participation in a dance marathon which raised money for the Children's Miracle Network.

The XI UPSILON CHAPTER (Northeastern University) spotlights a group of alumnae each year during homecoming. Alumnae receive a quarterly newsletter, and are provided contact information on each collegian in the chapter. Chapter members write thank you cards to alumnae who attend their events, and their tenth anniversary celebration proved to be the most successful event the chapter hosted this year.

At California University of Pennsylvania, ZETA EPSILON hosted its largest alumnae turnout ever during homecoming activities. Alumnae brought their families to the celebration, and shared scrapbooks with their collegiate sisters. "Our alumnae helped younger sisters realize that Delta Zeta sisterhood is forever," says Chapter Editor Marcie Hager.

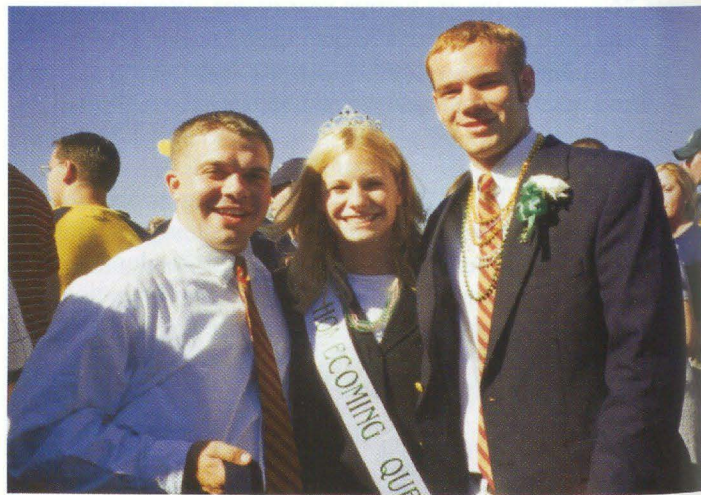

Collegians and alumnae of Zeta Epsilon join the brothers of Theta Xi for homecoming.

The ZETA KAPPA CHAPTER wore period dress for the homecoming parade at Ohio Northern University. Becky Lee was named homecoming queen, and Kate Botnick was a member of the court. The chapter's banner on their house won first place, and their float came in second. An open house afterward with alumnae celebrated their success. A recent alumna, Nicole Fortier, inspired sisters with her love and compassion as she described her experiences as a medical missionary in Africa. "Our alumnae have given us the incredible chapter we have today," says Elizabeth Ann Baracz, Chapter Editor.

Collegiate and alumnae members of ZETA LAMBDA (East Carolina University) pulled together during the recent flooding caused by Hurricane Floyd. Sixteen sisters lost their homes. "As tragic as the event was," writes Chapter Editor Melissa Andrews, "it brought our entire sisterhood closer together. Older and younger sisters worked together as quickly as possible in a race against the rising water." The sisters have launched fundraisers for all the residents of Greenville who lost their homes. "This occurrence is an excellent reminder of what sisterhood is all about," says Melissa.

The ZETA NU CHAPTER (Ferris State University) hosted an alumnae tea during homecoming to reminisce and meet new members. Alumnae chairman Holly LaCroix implemented a monthly calendar of events to be sent to all alumnae. The alumnae loved the tea, and look forward to many more events with the Zeta Nu Chapter.

Karen Davidson of the ZETA PHI CHAPTER was crowned homecoming queen at Slippery Rock University. Karen is an active member of the chapter, a member of Rho Chi and Order of Omega. An Exercise Science major, she plans to obtain her Ph.D. in Exercise Psychology after graduation in May.

Karen Davidson of Zeta Phi is crowned homecoming queen.

Sisters of the ZETA PI CHAPTER (University of Georgia) invited parents and alumnae to homecoming. This year, a scholarship established in memory of Devon Higgins by her parents was awarded to Jocelyn Davis, and the chapter presented a check to the Delta Zeta Foundation with money raised from a golf tournament.

The ZETA PSI CHAPTER (Stephen F. Austin State University) feels that homecoming not only allows them to connect with their alumnae, but gives everyone a chance to become closer with new members, too. An open house event brought alumnae to the campus, as member Margaret Gonzales was named to the homecoming court. Alumnae attend the recruitment workshop in the summer, and have also assisted in repairs to the chapter house. "We have learned that age and distance don't change true sisterhood," the chapter says.

Collegiate and alumnae members of the ZETA RHO CHAPTER celebrated William Jewell College's 150th anniversary at homecoming. Ann Pittman was crowned homecoming queen, and alumnae shared videos, cookies and punch after the game with collegians in the chapter house. Many alumnae stay in contact with the collegians, and Elizabeth Buckner, a 1998 graduate, recently spoke on making a difference on campus.

At Lenoir-Rhyne College, ZETA XI CHAPTER members sent alumnae a newsletter to invite them to homecoming events and alumnae tea. A webpage keeps all members connected, and alumnae are encouraged to send in updates and address changes which are published in a newsletter. Alumnae serve as chaperones at social events, and participate often in initiation. Sara Blackorby says, "It's always neat to be wearing my letters at the mall, and to have a woman come up to me and ask about Delta Zeta—then you find out she is a sister, too!"

CELEBRATE DELTA ZETA'S 44TH CONVENTION!

The 44th Convention of Delta Zeta, to be held at the Pointe Hilton Squaw Peak Resort, will be a memorable event for the year 2000.

In the peaceful desert setting near the Phoenix Mountain Preserve, inspirational speakers and convention highlights will fulfill our time in Arizona.

Heather Whitestone McCallum, the 1995 Miss America from Alabama and the first woman with a physical challenge to be so crowned, will be the featured speaker at the Opening Banquet of the Convention on Friday, July 7, 2000. Hearing-impaired at the age of eighteen months, she has headed executive programs to help others who must live with hearing loss, and implemented her own personal empowerment program which helps many people today.

Additional Convention Highlights Include:

- Initiation and Lamplighting Banquet
- Leadership Training and Development Workshops
- Awards Banquet
- Formal Installation Banquet

We look forward to seeing you at the 44th National Convention of Delta Zeta!

Registration information forthcoming.
