From the National President

Since I am married to a huge fan of classic movies, I have seen the movie, Pride of the Yankees so many times that I can practically recite Lou Gehrig's farewell speech. I am reminded of the famous words in that speech as we approach the end of Delta Zeta's Centennial Year: "Today I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of this earth." I consider myself extremely fortunate to be the president of this outstanding organization during perhaps the most celebrated time in its history.

Simply reading about the founding of Delta Zeta cannot compare to the experience of touring the Miami campus and tracing the footsteps of our Founders. It cannot compare to strolling past the house where the famous photo of the initiation banquet of the Alpha Chapter was taken in 1903. It cannot compare to listening for the echoes of voices from long ago in Harrison Hall, where the idea of forming Delta Zeta was first conceived. And it cannot compare to Dr. Phillip Shriver taking us back in time by describing the "campus climate" at Miami during those early years of our Sorority. The experience of Founders Day at Miami will be one that will be forever etched in my memory.

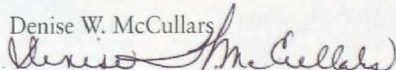

The outpouring of support and congratulations most likely rivaled that which was received by our Founders when they officially formed Delta Zeta. We were honored to have representatives from four national fraternities, also headquartered in Oxford, join us in our celebration, as well as representatives from fraternities and sororities at Miami University. I was personally honored to meet with Dr. Dennis Roberts prior to the celebration to make the presentation of our gift to Miami in recognition of the 100th anniversary of our founding. Running through my mind were recollections of the photos of Anne Simmons Friedline A and Evelyn Adams Costello N and Florence Hohnbaum Harvey BΘ presenting gifts for our 25th, 50th, and 75th anniversaries. To share the same honor as these remarkable women is even further evidence of my good fortune, and I will be forever grateful to our membership giving me this opportunity.

In my speech at our National Founders Day celebration on October 24, 2002, I noted that when the first public record was published about the formation of Delta Zeta Sorority on Miami University's campus in 1902, the article in the Miami Student said, "It is a local organization at present, but the girls hope to have sufficient success to warrant them putting in chapters at other schools." I was struck by the foresight of six young women, barely out of their teens, to create a national organization—a sisterhood of women that would extend around the globe.

Almost immediately after returning from Oxford, I was honored to travel to Birmingham, Alabama to make the 2002 Woman of the Year presentation to Jean Wickstrom Liles AT. As a Delta Zeta from the south, I knew of Jean and her work with Southern Living magazine. However, after hearing all that Jean has done throughout her career with Southern Progress Corporation, as well as the contributions she has made to her profession, her community and her alma mater, I am overwhelmed at all that she has accomplished in her lifetime. She is truly a deserving and most gracious recipient.

In reflecting on all that we have experienced – not only during this special year, but throughout the history of Delta Zeta, we must remember the part of our Creed that teaches us "to give graciously of what is mine." This phrase has a multiplicity of definitions in Delta Zeta, but the Delta Zeta Foundation embodies the essence of our generous spirit. Each year the Foundation presents its Annual Report to the membership. I am especially proud of the accomplishments of the Foundation as it wraps up the Centennial Campaign, which reached a record level of giving by our sisters. Without the good works of the Foundation and the additional funding it provides for our Leadership and Educational programs, Delta Zeta could not remain competitive in our second century of sisterhood. As you read this year's report, give some thought to ways that you can help further your commitment to living our Creed.

Delta Zeta Sorority began with six women in 1902; today we are over 180,000 members strong, with college chapters in the United States and Canada, and alumnae throughout the world. On the advent of our Centennial, those principles are still the cornerstone of Delta Zeta. They are what our members believe in, and what attracts new members to our organization. Those principles will be our guide as we face the challenges and experience the triumphs of a second century of sisterhood for Delta Zeta Sorority—a century in which all of our members will play an important part.

Founders Day 2002

A CELEBRATION OF DELTA ZETA AND A CENTURY OF SISTERHOOD

October 24, 2002 fell on a clear and starry night in Oxford, Ohio. The air was tinged with the brisk hint of fall as gold and red leaves rustled across the sidewalks of Miami University. As Delta Zeta Sorority prepared for the celebration of 100 years of sisterhood, one couldn't help but wonder: What was it like when the Founders established October 24th as the founding date of the Sorority in 1902?

October 24th was also Founder Alfa Lloyd's birthday. National Historian Grace Mason Lundy E describes Alfa's influence in the founding of Delta Zeta Sorority in her history, The Story of Delta Zeta (1934). "Feeling proud of historic Miami and her record as the Mother of Fraternities, she was imbued with the proposal binding all these friends into still closer ties and making of them the first women's fraternity at Miami" (p. 52).

So it was at Miami University on October 24, 2002 that Delta Zeta Sorority came together with family, friends, and special guests to celebrate the Centennial Year and the six young women who had a vision for a sorority 100 years ago.

A Tribute to Dr. Guy Potter Benton

Earlier in the day, members of Delta Zeta National Council and the Delta Zeta Foundation Board of Trustees, other National and Past National Officers, and National Chairmen went to the gravesite of Dr. Guy Potter Benton, Delta Zeta's Grand Patron and the 13th president of Miami University, at the Oxford Cemetery on the outskirts of the town, to pay their respects to this man of vision.

A member of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity, Dr. Benton was willing to give his time to help the young women of Miami University organize a sorority. He knew contributions Greek life made to students. During his career, he served four universities as president, and died in 1927. His funeral was held in Benton Hall on the Miami University campus.

National President Denise Williams McCullars BE placed six pale pink roses at the foot of Dr. Benton's gravestone. Nearby are the stones of Dr. Benton's wife, Dolla Konantz Benton, and many other revered officials of Miami University who are buried in this same area. All Delta Zeta know that Dr. Benton's guidance was essential in assisting the Founders during the inception of the Sorority.

A Historic Evening

The Delta Zeta National Council hosted a beautiful evening reception at the National Historical Museum and Headquarters, which included National and Past National Officers; Delta Zeta alumnae; Alpha Chapter officers and members; Miami University officials; guests from the four fraternities also headquartered in Oxford: Beta Theta Pi, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Kappa Tau, and Delta Sigma Pi; Delta Zeta vendors; and National Headquarters staff.

The reception gave visitors a chance to tour the historic red-brick Victorian house on Church Street where the Sorority came home to Oxford in 1983. Historic displays juxtaposed the latest technology in the offices where Sorority business is conducted every day.

Celebration at Miami University

Founders Day guests enjoyed the music of a flute quartet.

Guests then enjoyed a special ceremonial evening at Miami University. The Heritage Room at Shriver Center was decorated with beautiful pink tablecloths and centerpieces of white ribbon, pink roses, and candles, and the air was filled with the soft strains of a flute quartet. At each place setting, the program cover replicated the Alpha Chapter Charter and the Articles of Incorporation for the Sorority under the State of Ohio. A mural on the wall of the room depicted Miami University's history since its founding in 1809, including the Miami Triad, the three national fraternities first at the university: Beta Theta Pi, Phi Delta Theta, and Sigma Chi; and a Roman lamp to signify Delta Zeta as the first sorority founded on that same campus.

Past National President and Centennial Chairman Norma Minch Andrisek ΓΑ presided over the Founders Day dinner and program. Delta Zeta Foundation Trustee and Past National Officer Anne Marie Jones Gavin ΔΙ provided the invocation before dinner.

As dinner drew to a close, the 2002 Delta Zeta Centennial Convention video aired for the audience, conveying the joy of that special event which had been held in Oxford in July of 2002.

Mrs. Andrisek then introduced some of Delta Zeta's special guests in attendance, and read letters of congratulations from other friends of the Sorority. She thanked the immediate past National Council and the present National Council for their support during the Centennial Year, and in the planning stages prior to its commencement. Mrs. Andrisek added, "I wish to thank them for allowing me to be in the role of Centennial Committee Chairman. It has been one of the highlights of my Delta Zeta career, and I will never forget it. I've loved every minute of it."

FOUNDERS DAY

Founders Day was first observed by the Convention of 1912, and would become the foundation for all future celebrations. In 1923, Nettie Wills Shugart Z suggested that all chapters make their ceremony uniform by incorporating a candlelighting service into the banquet, which almost every chapter used to celebrate the founding date. In 1927, Grace Mason Lundy E prepared a ceremony, to be used by all chapters, which appropriately honored the six Founders.

"Throughout Norma's involvement and certainly her leadership in Delta Zeta, she has done everything within her power to bring us respect in the Greek community. We have gained so much from her wisdom and talents."

NATIONAL PRESIDENT DENISE WILLIAMS MCCULLARS

National President Denise Williams McCullars recognized Mrs. Andrisek with a thank you gift for the "wisdom and talent" she showed in chairing the Centennial Committee.

The Legend of the Loving Cup

Past National President Marvona Easley Tavlin ΕΑ described the "Legend of the Loving Cup," begun in 1922 by Grand Secretary and National Big Sister Nettie Wills Shugart Z in 1916. Past National President Karly K. Burns then announced that in honor of Delta Zeta's Centennial Year, each collegiate chapter had received a silver three-handled loving cup with a specially printed insert describing the legend of the cup as a gift in honor of the Centennial. Mrs. Tavlin read the Loving Cup Ceremony. The three handles represent the love, the unity, and the unbroken friendship which encircles members of Delta Zeta. Collegiate chapters around the country shared the ceremony as a renewed and special tradition of Founders Day 2002.

Immediate Past National President Karly K. Burns ΖΑ presented the Alpha Chapter of Miami University with its three-handled silver loving cup. Chapter President Emily Bosco proudly accepted the cup on behalf of the founding chapter of Delta Zeta Sorority.

THE LEGEND OF THE LOVING CUP

Nettie Wills Shugart Z introduced the Loving Cup ritual to Delta Zeta. Starting in 1922, each chapter installed was given a silver loving cup with three handles from their sponsoring chapters, province, and National Council. Chapters that were already established received their cups from alumnae or purchased them on their own. Mrs. Shugart created original china cups, hand painted with roses, and with each chapter's Greek letters painted inside, which she sent to newly installed chapters. Some of her original cups are on display today in the National Historical Museum.

*"Happy birthday, Delta Zeta.
Your first 100 years have been great;
your next 100 years will be even greater."*

DR. PHILLIP R. SHRIVER,
PRESIDENT EMERITUS OF MIAMI UNIVERSITY

Delta Zeta's Partnership with Miami

National President McCullars introduced the keynote speaker, Dr. Phillip R. Shriver. Dr. Shriver, a long-time friend of Delta Zeta and whose daughter, Darcy Shriver '72, is a member of the Alpha Chapter, has had a distinguished career. President Emeritus of Miami University, Dr. Shriver earned his bachelor's degree at Yale University in 1943, served in the Navy from 1943-1946, and has received degrees from Harvard and Columbia and honorary degrees from ten other universities. He continued to teach after coming to Miami as President from 1965-1981, and even after his tenure as president had concluded.

"I stand before you as one who is totally committed to Greek organizations and their impact on our campuses as positive influences for molding men and women—to make good men and good women even better for future service to this nation and to the world," he stated. He regaled the audience with the fascinating story of the history of Miami University as it related to Delta Zeta, and how women came to Miami for the first time as full-time students in 1902, a sweeping change for the university and education as a whole.

In 1981, Dr. Shriver was instrumental in helping Delta Zeta identify the property in Oxford that would later become the National Historical Museum and Headquarters. "I am a president who had the good fortune to work closely with Lucile Crowell Cooks A '24 for many years," he continued. "She was Delta Zeta to the core, and the first woman in this university's history to chair the Board of Trustees." National President McCullars then recognized Dr. Shriver with a special plaque for his loyal friendship and constant support of Delta Zeta, in the tradition of men such as Miami University President and Delta Zeta Grand Patron Dr. Guy Potter Benton.

have made to the organization as she discussed the women who have made a significant difference in the Sorority and brought the organization to the threshold of its 100-year anniversary. "From that day at the street fair in Oxford, it was the Founders' vision to become a national sorority, and now, 100 years later, we are still celebrating the sisterhood which brought those six friends together. May we always share the vision and courage of those six young women as we begin our second century of sisterhood," she said.

Executive Director Cynthia Winslow Menges A recognized Delta Zeta's interfraternal friends present at the ceremony—the representatives from the fraternity headquarters in Oxford, Ohio.

National President Denise Williams McCullars proudly acknowledged the contributions that Delta Zeta's Founders, and all of Delta Zeta's members, Delta Zeta's Centennial gift to Miami University was unveiled. On the north wall of King Library, bordering Miami University's famous Slant Walk, where thousands of students traverse every day to classes, Delta Zeta donated a memorial to commemorate the founding of the four fraternities and one sorority at Miami. On the four arches that are part of the architecture of the library, tributes will be inscribed to Beta Theta Pi Fraternity, Phi Delta Theta Fraternity, Sigma Chi Fraternity, and Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity. Between these columns, under a graceful arch, a tribute to the first sorority at Miami, Delta Zeta, will be placed. Benches will be positioned across from the building so others can stop and reflect upon the memorial.

Dr. Dennis Roberts, Assistant Vice President of Student Affairs, graciously accepted the gift.

"Think of the symbolism of the pillars and the arch—four strong pillars and the arch in the center," he told the audience. "In ancient architecture, the arch was one of the most important architectural features ever to be created.

It allowed for buildings to be built larger, stronger, and higher. I think it's symbolic that we have the four pillars representing strong organizations which have been bound together through the arch of the women of Delta Zeta. It's a beautiful symmetry, and it is the first time that we will be able to honor the founding organizations—all five of our Alphas at Miami University."

"We thank you so much, Delta Zeta. We are humbled. We will forever celebrate your founding here."

DR. DENNIS ROBERTS, ASSISTANT
VICE PRESIDENT OF STUDENT AFFAIRS AT MIAMI UNIVERSITY

DELTA ZETA'S LEGACY TO MIAMI UNIVERSITY

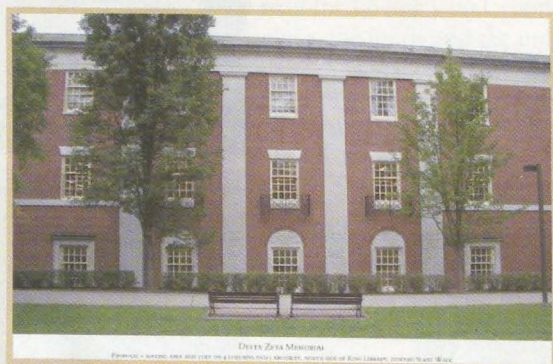

At each 25-year interval of Delta Zeta's history, Delta Zeta Sorority has presented a tangible gift to Miami University. In 1927, a memorial sundial designed by Iva Stock Smith A '09 was presented to Miami University and accepted by President R. M. Hughes. When the campus was undergoing renovations in 1952, the sundial was returned to Delta Zeta, and today tops the fountain in the Centennial Gardens at the National Historical Museum and Headquarters.

In 1943, in honor of Delta Zeta's 40th anniversary, a portrait of Dean Elizabeth Hamilton, the first Dean of Women at Miami University, was presented to the university as a gift in appreciation of the Delta Zeta Founders. The portrait hangs prominently in the north end of Hamilton Hall on Miami's campus.

In 1952, Delta Zeta's Golden Anniversary, a memorial plaque was presented to Miami University. The plaque, honoring the Founders, was hung in Harrison Hall and a scholarship was also given in their honor. Harrison Hall was the birthplace, in 1839 and 1906 respectively, of Beta Theta Pi and Phi Kappa Tau Fraternities.

The chimes which now ring in Miami's all-faith Sesquicentennial Chapel are Delta Zeta's gift to the university in honor of Miami's 150th birthday. Dedicated in October, 1959 to the memory of Delta Zeta's Founders, Evelyn Adams Costello N '23, Past National President, presented the chimes.

In 1975, the Founders Memorial Circle, located outside the Marcum Conference Center, commemorated, with a plaque, Delta Zeta's six Founders. Six benches and lovely landscaping surround the Circle. Delta Zeta presented the gift to Miami University President Dr. Paul G. Pearson.

Delta Zeta songs were sung as the Founders Day ceremony began. Members of the Alpha Chapter paid tribute to the Founders as six current members stepped to the microphone, representing Alpha Lloyd, Mabelle Minton, Julia Bishop, Anne Simmons, Mary Collins and Anna Keen, telling the life stories of these extraordinary women. National Ritual Chairman Patricia Menendez Tector EΦ wrote the Centennial Founders Day ceremony.

Alpha Chapter members Monique Venable, Merritt Willford, Sarah Watson, Kelly Newlon, Kristen Gulley, and Abby Ferguson portrayed the Founders.

"Delta Zeta Lamps are Burning"

A four-tier white birthday cake, decorated with delicate pink roses, was brought out as the audience sang "Happy Birthday, Delta Zeta". The evening ended as the words to "Delta Zeta Lamps are Burning" filled the air, and each table lit candles in tribute to Delta Zeta's past 100 years, and to honor the future of the Sorority. Delta Zeta Sorority has proven the strength of her sisterhood since 1902; today she looks forward to a future of friendship, scholarship, and service, as her values are embraced by generations of women devoted to truth and courage.

Alpha Chapter members Julia Sawma and Chelsea Heffelfinger present Delta Zeta's birthday cake.

IS DELTA ZETA'S WOMAN OF THE YEAR FOR 2002

Jean Wickstrom Liles AF '61 remembers helping her mother in the kitchen as a child, cooking and making her favorite recipes. Little did she know that her budding interest in the culinary arts would lead to a distinguished career as Senior Foods Editor of Southern Living magazine, and many professional accolades. "The South is a region where people enjoy cooking and entertaining, and Southern hospitality is a strong tradition," says Jean. "Southern recipes are often family treasures passed down from generation to generation."

Jean joined Southern Living in 1972 as Assistant Foods Editor, and later became Senior Foods Editor, supervising the development of the foods sections in Southern Living and Progressive Farmer. She authored numerous Southern Living cookbooks and oversaw the recipe selection, testing, and evaluation of over 3,500 recipes annually in four test kitchens.

She has judged a variety of national and regional cooking contests, including the Pillsbury Bake-Off®, the National Chicken Cooking Contest, the National Beef Cook-Off, and the Kraft Junior Miss Hostess Award. Since 1993, Jean has freelanced as Cookbook Consultant for Oxmoor House, the book publishing division of Southern Progress Corporation, one of the largest lifestyle publishers in the country.

"In 1972," Jean says, "Southern Living was only six years old. At that time, the foods editor was the only home economist on staff. I was hired as the Assistant Foods Editor. The 1970s were an exciting time for the growth of the magazine."

Susan Carlisle Payne, Executive Editor of Oxmoor House, says of those days, "There was no photo studio, no stylist, no props. Most of the photo shoots were done in the home of Lena Sturges, the editor who hired Jean. The only problem was protecting the food on the set from Lena's dog. Ask Jean sometime about the big bite the dog took out of a pound cake once—they still managed to photograph it!"

When the Southern Living kitchen moved to a new building in 1973, Jean told editor Gary McCalla, "Recipe testing is a serious business. The kitchen should be a scientific laboratory." With her determination, committed work ethic, excellent organizational skills, and eye for cooking trends, Jean was promoted to Foods Editor in 1976 and given the responsibility of overseeing a small but growing staff. Always innovative, she invited readers to submit their recipes to the magazine, and surveyed readers to find out how they used the magazine and how she could make Southern Living a reflection of those readers.

"We received several hundred recipes a month, and those we featured had to be tested," Jean says. "Southern Living continued to expand as we created beautiful food presentations and pages. I had the most wonderful team to work with at Southern Living. Several of my Delta Zeta sisters were on board there as well, including Diane Moats Hogan AF '61 from my pledge class, and Ann Lewis Upshaw AF '75, both test kitchen home economists. Another home economist there was Connie Shedd Nash from the Beta Xi Chapter." By 1992, Southern Progress Corp. had expanded to include 40 home economists, and today it boasts over 75 on its staff.

"I'm overwhelmed by the response I have received nationwide from collegiate and alumnae Delta Zetas."

JEAN WICKSTROM LILES AF

The successful growth of Southern Living magazine's foods section, thanks to Jean's talent and innovation, would have come as no surprise to her sisters in Delta Zeta Sorority. Initiated into the Alpha Gamma Chapter at the University of Alabama/Tuscaloosa in 1961, she held the office of Chapter President from 1963-64, after serving as Vice President and Scholarship Chairman.

"Delta Zeta Gave Me Confidence"

A home economics major with a minor in English, Jean was inducted into Alpha Lambda Delta (Freshman Scholastic Honorary), Phi Upsilon Omicron (Home Economics Honorary), served as Secretary-Treasurer of the School of Home Economics, and was inducted into Mortar Board in recognition of high scholarship, leadership, and service. She was voted Outstanding Freshman in the School of Home Economics, and received the Pillsbury Award as Outstanding Senior from the School of Home Economics.

A Grace Mason Lundy Award winner, Jean became a Field Secretary for Delta Zeta after graduating in 1964, traveling to campuses around the country. From 1965-67, she was a Province Collegiate Director in Alabama and Mississippi, and served in that role again for Alabama from 1970-71. Jean taught school in Alabama and Georgia after working as a Field Secretary.

"Delta Zeta gave me confidence in my job," Jean says today. "As a Field Secretary, with each collegian that I helped, I gained more than I realized." She remembers several inspirational women who were excellent role models. "My big sister, Bonnie Rogers White AG '58, inspired me so much. I was a pledge and she was a senior and Rush Chairman. She was a very visible leader on campus. Our Pledge Trainer, Carroll Barrett AG '59, has been such a role model—then and now. Today she plans reunions for the Alpha Gamma Chapter and get-togethers for the Birmingham-area alumnae."

"May I Give Graciously. . ."

In 1981, Jean was honored as an Outstanding Graduate of the School of Home Economics at the University of Alabama on the occasion of the School's 50th anniversary. In 1984, she was named the National Business Home Economist of the Year for exhibiting outstanding individual achievement and contributing to her profession, employer, and community. Professionally and personally, this award meant a great deal to Jean. "I received this award from the Home Economists in Business (HEIB) at their annual meeting in Anaheim, California. I had always had great admiration for the recipients when I went to the annual meetings.

"Mercedes Bates X '33 [Director of the Betty Crocker kitchens at General Mills and Delta Zeta's Woman of the Year for 1970], was the HEIB's award recipient in 1978. I always felt that I had a connection with her. I had met her years ago, and had a special fondness for her."

The Alabama Home Economics Association named Jean as Alabama's Outstanding Home Economist of the Year in 1985, and Jean received the American Home Economics Association's Leaders Award in 1992 in recognition for her significant contributions to her profession and for leadership demonstrated during her career.

"Jean is a warm and caring person who personifies integrity. When she makes a commitment, be it to her husband, family, friends, university, or profession, she is committed all the way. I respect, admire, and love her, and I'm proud to call her 'friend.'"

ANGIE SUTTLE WEBB, UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA ALUMNA

In recognition of the Centennial of Women at the University of Alabama (1893-1993), she was named as one of the top 31 female graduates for her contributions to society, personal achievement, and success in her field. The university also awarded her the Agnes Ellen Harris Distinguished Alumna Award from the College of Human Environmental Sciences in 1994.

"To be named one of the top 31 female graduates at the University of Alabama Centennial of Women (in celebration of the university's centennial) was one of the most exciting things that has ever happened to me, and such a great honor. Another honor was my appointment by the President of the University as a member of the Board of Directors of the Capstone Foundation. It's very appealing to me to be able to give back to the school that helped me in my personal and professional success. Since establishing the Jean Liles Endowed Scholarship there, I hear from many recipients. It's very rewarding when I receive notes and Christmas cards from them as they update me on their careers."

Jean has served since 1993 on the Board of Directors of the Capstone Foundation and was appointed to the university's National Steering Committee for the Campaign for Alabama. Jean and her husband, Curtis, established the Jean Wickstrom Liles Endowed Scholarship at the University of Alabama, and are currently establishing the Jean Wickstrom Liles Endowed Scholarship at Birmingham-Southern College.

She has served as a member of the Women's Auxiliary of the Birmingham Bar Association since 1979, participated in several March of Dimes Gourmet Galas, served on the American Cancer Society's Cookbook Committee, and has been a member of The Alexis de Toqueville Society (United Way of Central Alabama) since 1998. She is a member of the Birmingham Historical Society and the Birmingham Botanical Society.

In addition, she was appointed to the Alabama State Advisory Council for Home Economics Education, the Auburn University School of Human Sciences Advisory Council, and was the only non-faculty member to serve on the Search Committee for the Dean of the School of Home Economics for the University of Alabama.

The Woman of the Year Ceremony

At the Woman of the Year 2002 ceremony and luncheon, held in Birmingham on November 2, 2002, Jean was surprised and thrilled to see many familiar faces, and meet many new ones. National Director of Alumnae Recruitment and Retention Tracy Wilson LeSieur $\Lambda\Xi$ '77 welcomed approximately 80 guests, including approximately 25 alumnae of the Alpha Gamma Chapter, alumnae from Tuscaloosa and Huntsville, Jean's family, colleagues from Southern Living magazine and Oxmoor House, and Delta Zeta National and Past National Officers. Guest speakers included Susan Carlisle Payne of Oxmoor House, Angie Suttle Webb, an alumna of the University of Alabama, and National President Denise Williams McCullars $\beta\Xi$ '74, who presented Jean with the Woman of the Year medallion.

Jean says, "Two Past National Presidents were there—Sandra McAlister Nesbitt $\beta\Xi$ '57 and Lisbeth 'Liz' Innis Francis Ψ '39. Liz lives in Birmingham, and visited the Alpha Gamma Chapter often as a Rush Supervisor when I was there. I was also thrilled to see my Delta Zeta college roommate, Melissa Smith Roberts $\Lambda\Gamma$ '61 from Connecticut."

The Woman of the Year for 2002 feels the special distinction of winning Delta Zeta's highest honor in the year of the Sorority's Centennial. "As we celebrated our 100th anniversary, I reflected on my years in the Sorority. It brought back so many wonderful memories. Not only do I remember the fun, but also I remember the strong values and true friendships. As a pledge, I learned the value of teamwork, which was so important in working with my staff at Southern Living. Delta Zeta encouraged me to be involved in campus activities, to strive high in academics. You don't really realize the value of the role that the Sorority plays in your life until years later."

Delta Zeta Sorority is proud to honor Jean Wickstrom Liles as Woman of the Year for 2002. Her caring spirit and talented leadership have inspired others, and she continues to give back to her profession and her community.

Congratulations may be sent to:

Jean Wickstrom Liles
67 Cross Creek Park, Birmingham, AL 35213

"I am honored to be a Delta Zeta, and very honored to be named the Woman of the Year. I was totally surprised when I received the news. From the time I was a pledge, I was in awe of the accomplishments of the Women of the Year that I saw. I never dreamed that I would be honored as one. It has been one of the most memorable experiences of my life."

Your Delta Zeta Badge

THE WEARING OF THE DELTA ZETA BADGE
BY PATRICIA MENENDEZ TECTOR ΕΦ, NATIONAL RITUAL CHAIRMAN

When we were initiated, we were given the privilege of wearing the Delta Zeta badge. Our badge identifies us as a member of the Sorority started by six young women at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio over 100 years ago.

The traditions and values the Founders inaugurated have stood the test of time. Their vision of creating an environment that would enhance the lives of women who embraced those ideals, as they developed leadership skills while advancing intellectually and socially and becoming contributing members to their community, has been fulfilled. And all of this is accomplished while benefiting from the bonds of sisterhood.

Our badge is a symbol of those traditions and values we hold dear. We wear our badge to show we share these values in common with all those who wear the same badge. We respect these traditions and values and the Founders who first had the strength and courage to formulate them.

While our traditions and values have not changed over the years, fashion has. When our Founders stated that our badge should not be worn on a collar or lapel, the fashions were very different then. In recognition of this, our National Council, prior to Convention 2000, approved a change in policy for the way in which we may wear our badge.

If we are wearing our badge on an article of clothing under an unbuttoned suit jacket, blazer, dress jacket or sweater set and will not be removing those outer garments, our badge would not be visible. We may now wear our badge on an open/unbuttoned jacket.

This and other changes from previous guidelines are a reflection on current lifestyles that do not in any way conflict with the basic guideline for wearing the badge that was set down by our Founders:

The Delta Zeta Badge is worn over the heart. In order to correctly place the badge: open your hand into a fan with the tops of your fingers about 3/8" apart and then, with your thumb at a 45° angle from your first finger, put the thumb of your right hand in the hollow of your neck and place the badge at the point just below your little finger. This should position the badge in the area over your heart. The guard, if there is one, is then fastened to the left of and below the badge.

The badge may not be worn on a sweater or jacket that might be removed, or on a lapel that is not in the area of the heart.

The badge is an item that we are very proud to wear and is to be treated with respect. It is not a piece of costume jewelry.

As an item to be treated with respect, the badge should not be worn on any piece of clothing that has the potential to be removed during the course of the time the outfit is being worn. If this is the case, the badge should be worn on the garment underneath.

On this International Badge Day, March 3, 2003, let us wear our Delta Zeta badge with pride.

But don't stop there. We are Delta Zetas for life. Let us wear our Delta Zeta badge as often as possible because we are proud of it and what it represents. You never know who will notice—another Delta Zeta member, a community member who had never given much thought to sororities; or, maybe a future Delta Zeta!

PROPER DISPOSAL OF THE BADGE

After initiation, all Delta Zetas sign a statement acknowledging that Delta Zeta badges are the property of the Sorority. The badge fee paid at initiation allows an initiated member in good standing the privilege of wearing our badge during her lifetime.

Any member lending her badge to anyone not entitled to wear it will forfeit it. Any member who resigns from the Sorority or whose membership is terminated by the National Council must return it, either to a representative of the Sorority or to the National Headquarters office. A member may be buried wearing her badge if it is her wish or the express wish of her family members. Otherwise, the badge should be returned to National Headquarters.

Occasionally, someone may find a lost badge at an auction/ebay, jewelry shop or antique show. Since only our initiated members may wear the badge, any member who sees a badge for sale should buy and return it with receipt to National Headquarters for reimbursement.

INTERNATIONAL BADGE DAY

MARCH 3, 2003

New traditions for the future

CELEBRATING 100 YEARS OF LEADERSHIP, VALUES, AND FRIENDSHIP

"Celebrating 100 Years of Leadership, Values, and Friendship" was the theme for the National Panhellenic Conference Centennial Celebration and Interim Session. The Marriott Oak Brook, Oak Brook, Illinois, was the site for the meeting from October 10-12, 2002. At the Opening Session, NPC Chairman Sally Grant, Alpha Phi read greetings from President George W. Bush and proclamations from 27 governors.

Delta Zeta Sorority attendees to the conference were: Denise Williams McCullars BE, National President; Karly K. Burns ZA, Immediate Past National President and Third Alternate Delegate; Lynnda Wolf Hoefler GK, Delegate; Jamie Hammill Pyne BA, National Vice President of Alumnae Affairs and First Alternate Delegate; Sandra McAlister Nesbitt BE, Past National President and Second Alternate Delegate; Cynthia Winslow Menges A, Executive Director; and Nancy Brewer, Director of Communications and LAMP Editor. Past National President and Delta Zeta Centennial Chairman Norma Minch Andrisek TA was also in attendance.

Jamie Hammill Pyne is also Chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee, and led a presentation of the 2002 Interim Session Courtesy Resolutions Committee, of which Past National President Karly K. Burns is also a member. Lynnda Wolf Hoefler is NPC College Panhellenics Committee Area Advisor Coordinator for the Mid-America Region and Advisor for the state of Michigan. Mrs. Pyne is the NPC College Panhellenics Committee Area Advisor for Delaware and Maryland. Sandra McAlister Nesbitt is the NPC College Panhellenics Committee Area Advisor for Alabama. Karly K. Burns is Alumnae Panhellenics Committee Area Advisor for Florida.

The business of the Conference was accomplished through Executive Committee and Standing Committee reports. Various Alumnae Panhellenic and College Panhellenic delegates attended standing committee meetings and special roundtables. National Presidents, Executive Directors, and Editors had full agendas for their respective meetings.

The Research Committee had a panel discuss the various guidelines, stipulations, and concerns involving the various requests for information from individual College Panhellenics, Inter/National Fraternities, and NPC.

The Centennial Luncheon featured Corre Stegal, Kappa Delta, as the speaker. In a humorous and yet respectful way, Corre shared the highlights of the accomplishments of the first hundred years of the National Panhellenic Conference.

Adding their own touch to the NPC Centennial, Delta Zeta Sorority and Phi Mu Fraternity held an anniversary luncheon to celebrate Delta Zeta's Centennial and Phi Mu's Sesquicentennial. Delta Zeta's colors of rose and green and Phi Mu's colors of pink and white created lovely tablescapes and decorations. Members of both groups greeted luncheon guests at the door in pink feather boas.

Delta Zeta Delegate Lynnda Wolf Hoefler and Phi Mu Delegate Kristin Shetler Bridges welcomed guests to the luncheon, and discussed the similarities and differences between the two groups. Delta Zeta National Vice President of Alumnae Affairs Jamie Hammill Pyne as Delta Zeta Founder Alfa Lloyd Hayes, and Phi Mu Second Alternate Delegate Marcie Helmke as Phi Mu Founder Mary Ann DuPont Lines, entertained the audience with a skit which depicted the two founders meeting in the year 2002 and commenting on the changes their organizations had experienced over the years.

Delta Zeta Sorority National President Denise Williams McCullars spoke about the significance of Delta Zeta Sorority sharing its Centennial Year with the National Panhellenic Conference's 100-year anniversary. Phi Mu Fraternity National President Kathy Williams discussed her organization's sesquicentennial milestone.

During the Memorial Service, Karen Urette, Gamma Phi Beta, led each person to reflect on past leaders and the influence their presence has had in the Conference.

The Centennial Celebration was a tremendous success. Green, gold, and white balloons and Centennial bookmarks decorated the special historical exhibit area. Each member group contributed numerous items for the displays.

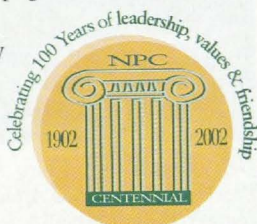

At the General Session, Delta Zeta National President Denise Williams McCullars presented Delta Zeta's Centennial gifts to the National Panhellenic Conference. The first gift was 26 NPC member flags, poles, and standards for the National Panhellenic Conference. In previous years, Delta Zeta owned the flags and lent them to the NPC and its member groups for use at various meetings, conventions, and conferences. In addition, Delta Zeta has created a fund which will cover the expenses involved in packing and shipping the member flags to and from NPC events. Secondly, Mrs. McCullars presented each member organization's delegate and the National Panhellenic Conference Chairman Sally Grant with copies of Delta Zeta's history book entitled, A Century of Sisterhood: The Story of Delta Zeta 1902-2002. Delta Zeta Sorority was also recognized for creating the NPC International Badge Day logo and theme for 2003 (see page.

The Centennial Banquet featured sorority members from Northwestern University in a reenactment of the first NPC meeting entitled "One Fine Day." Period costumes and songs sung by Gina Powers, Miss Illinois 2000, provided a wonderful visual image of what it was like 100 years ago in Chicago. Past NPC Chairmen were also in attendance. Delta Zeta Sorority received Centennial Recognition for designing the NPC Centennial logo which was used throughout the Conference.

GRAND COUNCIL, 1912

The Centennial Year

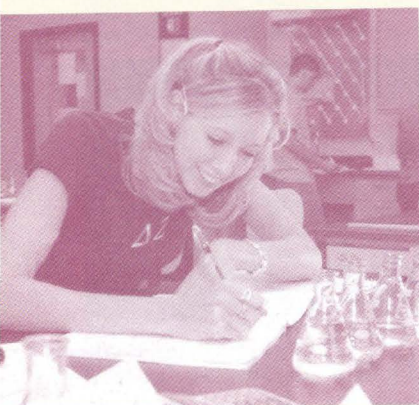

In October 2001, the beginning of Delta Zeta's official Centennial Year, the Delta Zeta Foundation launched the Centennial Campaign. While the gifts given have provided funding for scholarships and educational and leadership programs, and preserved Delta Zeta's heritage, you might ask how a contribution in 2002 can have any value in 2102. Here are some of the ways your gifts have made a difference for the future of Delta Zeta, and how future gifts can continue advancing the mission of the Foundation.

- Your contribution to the Centennial Campaign preserved the history of the past and the history we make today. Donating to an endowment to maintain the National Historical Museum and National Headquarters, which houses the archives and historical

We would like to be able to offer more scholarships to Delta Zeta members. Your continued donations will allow the Foundation to provide this financial aid to more of our women.

- You sponsored educational and leadership opportunities, such as the Norma Minch Andrisek Leadership Conference and the Harper Endowed Lecture Fund, through your gift. Leadership conferences build the community leaders of tomorrow. Sponsored speakers and lecturers present educational topics, encourage interactive discussion, and provide learning opportunities beyond the lecture itself. Alumnae as well as collegians benefit from these programs.

The mission of the Delta Zeta Foundation is to advance the Sorority's educational and philanthropic purposes through the development of financial and human resources in support of the Sorority's leadership, scholarship, philanthropic and educational programs.

documents of the Sorority, as well as the staff and equipment needed to oversee the day-to-day business functions of Delta Zeta, is a crucial part of preserving the history of the past 100 years, and the future of the next 100 years and beyond.

- An engraved brick placed in your honor in the Centennial Garden Walk tells future generations that you are Delta Zeta. Your gift of $150 or more ensures your permanent history at the Delta Zeta National Historical Museum and Headquarters. Donors of $5,000 or more will have an engraved plaque placed in their honor on the Centennial Garden Wall.

At the Centennial Convention and the Founders Day celebration held in Oxford, Ohio in 2002, many members, guests, friends, and associates of Delta Zeta viewed the beautiful Centennial Garden and saw your commitment to Delta Zeta. Although the official campaign ended on October 24, 2002, gifts and pledges for bricks and plaques in the Centennial Chapter Garden will be accepted until all spaces in the Garden are filled. All donors will be recognized in future issues of The LAMP.

- You provided for educational projects for the 21st century, such as a new academics manual for today's learning environment, educational videos and materials for collegians, online training programs which give members access to the educational materials they need no matter where they are, and funding that enables college chapter officers to travel to leadership and educational conferences.

Thank you to all of our donors who became a part of Delta Zeta's historic 100th year through your contributions. Your gift ensures that Delta Zeta's legacy and leadership will benefit all members—now and 100 years from now.

"Thank you so much for the Delta Zeta Foundation's generous donation. The AFA Foundation was established in 1992 to augment educational efforts within the area of fraternity and sorority advising in higher education. We are especially thankful for the relationship that we have with Delta Zeta. Your support of our Foundation, as well as the Association of Fraternity Advisors and the fraternity and sorority advising profession, is exemplary. The interfraternal spirit with which your Sorority and Foundation operate is one we all should strive to emulate."

AFA Foundation Chairman

President's Letter

Dear Sisters and Special Friends,

Delta Zeta Sorority celebrated a century of sisterhood in 2002, and the Delta Zeta Foundation celebrated its 41st year in existence. Just as the Sorority has grown to an organization of over 180,000 members, the Foundation, too, continues to grow, thanks to the support of members and friends like you, and we are eagerly looking forward to the next chapter in its future. That chapter is one you will help write with your gift. Just as there will always be a need for the programs the Foundation supports—scholarships, educational and leadership programs, and historical preservation—providing for those needs depends on the gifts we receive in the future.

Imagine that Delta Zeta is preparing to celebrate her bicentennial in the year 2102. What will the Sorority and the Delta Zeta Foundation be one hundred years from now? In this Centennial Year, Delta Zeta members and friends are truly the stewards of the future. Through their contributions, they have become the impetus that ensures our success in the new century.

In 1902, our Founders created an organization dedicated to the ideals in which they so strongly believed: sisterhood, education, and service. One hundred years later, The Delta Zeta Foundation provides resources to enrich members' opportunities in leadership, academics, and philanthropic work. The Foundation educates our members about our philanthropy for speech and hearing to assist those who must live with the challenge of hearing impairments. Members fundraise and volunteer for this cause in their communities, nationally, and internationally.

In 2002, members of Delta Zeta no doubt appreciated our rich heritage more than ever. At the Centennial Convention held at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, the home of our founding, many members and friends toured the National Historical Museum and Headquarters, which told the 100-year story of Delta Zeta in archives, mementoes, and historical displays. At our national Founders Day celebration on October 24, 2002, many of Delta Zeta's friends from the Greek, academic, and local communities came to appreciate this same heritage at the reception held at the National Historical Museum and Headquarters. Thanks to the Delta Zeta Foundation, the National Historical Museum and Headquarters is preserved for all who visit it to enjoy and learn more about Delta Zeta.

Each year, the Foundation is proud to award scholarships to deserving collegians who will use their education to improve the world around them. Delta Zeta members understand their responsibility as committed, caring citizens of the world community. Higher education provides the vehicle to create change for the better. The Delta Zeta Foundation makes these opportunities available to women who may not otherwise have been able to further their education because of financial need.

The Delta Zeta Foundation proudly acknowledges our invaluable committees, and the work they do in each important area within the Foundation—from scholarships to historical preservation, from philanthropic work to partnerships with the House Ear Institute in Los Angeles, California and Gallaudet University in Washington, D.C. In the 2002 Annual Report, you'll learn about the crucial support they give to the Foundation.

We can't help but wonder what Alfa Lloyd, Mary Collins, Anna Keen, Julia Bishop, Mabelle Minton, and Anne Simmons would think of the organization they founded over 100 years ago if they were with us today. We know they wouldn't rest on their laurels, but continue to look forward to provide the opportunities for enrichment in the lives of our members. The Delta Zeta Foundation can be proud of our past accomplishments, but continued, annual donations from our members and friends will fulfill our Founders' vision for Delta Zeta and the mission of the Foundation.

Your gift to the Delta Zeta Foundation is the essential building block of our future. Whether you donate to the Centennial Campaign (gifts and pledges are still being accepted and are acknowledged with an engraved brick or plaque in the Centennial Garden Walk until all spaces in the Garden are filled), to our scholarships that enable women to complete their education, to educational programs which teach our members about our philanthropy of speech and hearing, or to leadership programs which build confident, strong women who will meet the challenges of this new century, your gift will make a difference for the better.

Thank you for helping Delta Zeta write the history of her 100th year. Although our Centennial Year is past, your gifts will continue to guide the Delta Zeta Foundation into the future as we work to fulfill our mission of advancing the Sorority's educational and philanthropic purposes.

The Delta Zeta Foundation Announces Appointment of Director of Development

William D. Jenkins

"We are really fortunate that Bill Jenkins, with a lifetime of fundraising and development experience, will be joining the Delta Zeta Foundation."

Ruth Weider Patterson
Delta Zeta Foundation President

William D. Jenkins, Executive Vice President and Centennial Coordinator for the Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity, has been retained to serve in the role of consultant as Director of Development for the Delta Zeta Foundation. In this capacity, he will design and direct various development programs and fundraising initiatives for the Foundation. He began dividing his time between the Delta Zeta Foundation and Phi Kappa Tau, also headquartered in Oxford, Ohio, on January 2, 2002.

Mr. Jenkins joined Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity as a student at Bowling Green State University, and following graduation in 1960 joined the fraternity staff as a field secretary. He was promoted to various staff positions for the next 18 years, including that of Executive Director from 1970-1978.

Appointed Director of Development for Data Science Corporation in St. Louis in 1978, he and three colleagues formed their own fundraising firm, Development Dynamics Group, in 1981. In 1987, he was named Assistant Vice President and Director of Development at his Bowling Green alma mater, subsequently accepting an appointment as Executive Vice President of the Phi Kappa Tau Foundation in 1991.

He is a Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE), a member of the Association of Fund Raising Professionals (AFP), Planned Giving Council of Greater Cincinnati, Kiwanis International, the National Trust for Historic Preservation, and has served as a member of the Board of Directors of the North-American Interfraternity Conference (NIC) since 1993. In addition, Mr. Jenkins served as a volunteer counselor for Phi Kappa Tau's philanthropy, the Hole in the Wall Gang Camps, at Boggy Creek Gang Camp near Orlando.

He is the recipient of Phi Kappa Tau's Palm Award (1979), the fraternity's highest alumni recognition. Among his interfraternity awards, Mr. Jenkins is the recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award of the North-American Interfraternity Conference Foundations Seminar, College Fraternity Editor's Association Evan C. Varner Award for Outstanding Contributions to the Greek Movement, Zeta Beta Tau's Riegelman-Jacobs Award for Outstanding Fraternity Service, and the NIC's Outstanding Fund Raising Professional Award. In 2000, the Association of Fraternity Advisors (AFA) named him its Jack L. Anson Award winner. In 2002, he received the Distinguished Service Award of the Fraternity Executives Association, the Beta Theta Pi Interfraternity Award, and Theta Chi's Chapman-Alter Award for Interfraternal Excellence.

In December, 2002, he completed a two-year term as President of the North-American Interfraternity Conference (NIC), only the second member of his fraternity to be elected to that position. For his efforts in the interfraternity community, Phi Kappa Tau has named its Interfraternity Excellence Award for non-member contributions to campus Greek life in his honor.

The Delta Zeta Foundation is pleased to welcome Bill Jenkins to the staff, and we look forward to the contributions that his talent will make to the organization.

THE 1902 LOYALTY CIRCLE

The 1902 Loyalty Circle is an undergraduate giving society made up of collegiate members. The program is designed to increase collegiate awareness of the Foundation and expand the number of young donors.

Membership in the 1902 Loyalty Circle is voluntary and qualifies with a gift of $19.02 to the Foundation. "The questions that drove me to pursue a graduate degree in government administration included: To what extent are the arts public goods? How can the government influence the deliveries of all public goods—arts, culture, safety, and well-being? This scholarship has afforded me the opportunity to acquire the tools to solve and the appropriate environment to discuss these questions with some of the foremost scholars in the field of public policy and administration. I will put these skills to work creating and maintaining communities that foster health, growth, and individual and collective fulfillment."

HOUSE EAR INSTITUTE

The House Ear Institute in Los Angeles, California is recognized worldwide as a leader in the exploration of the ear at the cell and molecular level. Its scientists employ cutting edge techniques in molecular biology and genetic studies focusing on heredity disorders. Delta Zeta has partnered with House Ear Institute since 1985 to support the important work done at this facility. Our collegiate and alumnae chapters often sponsor philanthropic events to raise money for the Institute, and to educate the public on the importance of the causes and early detection of hearing loss.

"I am currently pursuing a doctorate while serving as the Assistant Director for the LEAD Scholars Program at the University of Central Florida. I also teach leadership development courses for the university. Upon completion of my doctorate, I wish to obtain an upper-level administrative position at a university. Teaching and educational administration are the two things that I love about higher education, and this scholarship has helped me pursue my goals."

Delta Zeta began its partnership with Gallaudet University in Washington, D.C. in 1957 with a donation of $10,000 to the library for books and furnishings. Today Gallaudet is the leader in undergraduate and graduate programs for hearing impaired students and the home of our Omicron Sigma Chapter.

The Gallaudet Dance Company, under the direction of Dr. Diane V. Hottendorf OΣ '93 and Assistant Director Sue Gill-Doleac OΣ '93, is the country's leading organization for dancing by deaf people. Funds for the Gallaudet dance studio were provided by a directed bequest of former Delta Zeta Foundation Trustee Ruth Gump Thomas EB '56, whose gift of over $100,000 provided for a complete renovation and addition of another performing area. At the Centennial Convention in July 2002, attendees and guests were treated to a special performance by the Dance Company that brought accolades from everyone.

2002-2003 Scholarships

In 1935, Gail Patrick
API '29 was the epitome of Hollywood glamour.

GAIL PATRICK VELDE SCHOLARSHIP

Gail Patrick Velde '29 (née Margaret Fitzpatrick) was a member of the Alpha Pi Chapter at Howard College in Birmingham, Alabama (now Samford University), where she majored in business and graduated with honors. Gail won a trip to Hollywood in 1932 through a newspaper contest and was offered a movie contract. She attended her first Delta

A striking brunette, she was a popular movie personality during the 1930s and 1940s, famous for her roles as the "other woman" and starring in films such as My Man Godfrey (1936), with William Powell and Carole Lombard, Stage Door with Katherine Hepburn (1937), and My Favorite Wife (1940) with Cary Grant and Irene Dunne. She also owned and operated a successful children's clothing store, Gail Patrick's Enchanted College, in Hollywood in the late 1930s and early 1940s. During World War II, Gail went on many tours for the Red Cross and several bond tours for Canada, for which she received a citation from the Canadian government.

In the 1950s and 1960s, she was one of the few female producers in the television industry, producing the "Perry Mason" television series. In 1962, Gail was named Delta Zeta's Woman of the Year. She was very active in charitable and civic projects in Los Angeles, and was named honorary National Chairman of the Christmas Seal campaign in 1970. She received awards as a businesswoman and television producer, and was Vice President of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences from 1960-1962. She also served as a member of the first Board of Trustees for the Delta Zeta Foundation in 1961. The Scholarship was established from a bequest by her estate after her death in 1980.

Through the Delta Zeta Foundation's Gail Patrick Velde Scholarship, women have the opportunity to continue their education and realize their goal of obtaining a college degree.

Recipient: Melissa K. Essinger ΓΚ,
Kent State University

Melissa is majoring in psychology, and will graduate in May of 2003. She plans to obtain a Master's degree in Education with a concentration on school counseling for elementary school children. "I want to help children develop and grow in a healthy, positive way," Melissa says. "After all, they are the future!" She is grateful to receive the scholarship. "I would like to extend my gratitude and appreciation to those who chose me to receive this scholarship. It has made my life incredibly easier, allowing me to cancel my student loan for the upcoming semester. Thank you for your confidence in me. I appreciate this scholarship more than you know."

ELSA LUDEKE GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS

Elsa Ludeke was one of the six founders of a women's club called Bide-a-Wee, which was organized in 1909 to assist women students at the University of California-Berkeley. The club became Beta Phi Alpha in 1919, and was admitted to the National Panhellenic Conference in 1923 after the sorority had expanded nationally. In 1941, Beta Phi Alpha merged with Delta Zeta Sorority, and the members were initiated into Delta Zeta. The gavel which opens Delta Zeta National Conventions was previously presented to Beta Phi Alpha by Elsa Ludeke. In 1942, the Beta Phi Alpha scholarship fund was renamed in honor of Elsa Ludeke at the Delta Zeta National Convention.

Recipient of the Elsa Ludeke Continuing
Student Scholarship: Jordan A. Drazer ΞΩ '98
Purdue University

Jordan is a first-year medical student at Indiana University School of Medicine. She plans to become a neonatologist and work with premature babies. Jordan says, "I am extremely grateful for this scholarship from the Delta Zeta Foundation."

Recipient of the Elsa Ludeke Returning
Alumnae Scholarship: Dawn Bowmaster
Zerbs BT '93, Nebraska Wesleyan University

Dawn attends the University of Chicago Graduate School of Business while working full time as the Director of Operations for Seyfarth Shaw. She says, "Thank you very much for the scholarship. Delta Zeta means the world to me, and the scholarship will help me advance my career. I am able to apply everything I learn in my evening graduate classes the next day at work. Thanks again."

FIFTH THIRD BANK CONTINUING EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP

Fifth Third Bancorp, a diversified financial services company headquartered in Cincinnati, Ohio, provided $50,000 toward the establishment of an endowment to fund scholarships for Delta Zeta members, based on financial need, who wish to continue their education. Delta Zeta was applauded for its commitment to assisting members who want to resume or continue their education, but may not be able to afford the increasing cost of tuition.

Recipient: Dawnisa Baker BG '94, University of Louisville

Dawn is enrolled in her second year at Southern Illinois University School of Medicine. "I will be using this wonderful scholarship opportunity to help fund my education as I prepare for a career in medicine. Receiving this scholarship has taught me that membership in Delta Zeta is a lifelong sisterhood."

Recipient: Sara Lommel AA, Northwestern University

Sara majors in psychology and legal studies, and will attend law school. She plans to become a judge. "I am proud to be part of organization that has shown such a strong commitment to my education," Sara says.

Recipient: Lindsay Wiegel ZP, William Jewell College

Lindsay is majoring in biochemistry, and will enroll in graduate school after graduating in 2004. She plans to pursue a Master's degree in education and teach high school chemistry. "I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to Delta Zeta for awarding the Fifth Third Bank Scholarship to me. It will greatly increase my financial security as a student. I truly appreciate this opportunity to continue to excel."

THE ELIZABETH M. GRUBER GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP

Elizabeth M. McCarron Gruber AB '26 established this scholarship in 1993. She wanted to make the scholarship available to a graduate student attending school in the Midwest.

Recipient: Rebekah Sullins Schreckenghaust ZP '98, William Jewell College

Rebekah is now attending Central Missouri State University where she is pursuing a Master's in school counseling. "The scholarship has helped me to focus my time on my studies, instead of having to seek additional employment to pay for classes. I greatly appreciate this scholarship and how much it has helped me."

FOUNDERS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Founders Memorial Scholarship Fund was established in 1977, the year of Delta Zeta's 75th anniversary. Six scholarships are awarded each year in memory of the six founders of Delta Zeta: Alfa Lloyd, Mary Collins, Anna Keen, Julia Lawrence Bishop, Mabelle Minton, and Anne Dial Simmons. Recipients are selected by the National Council and the Delta Zeta Foundation Board. Collegians are chosen for their outstanding dedication and loyalty to Delta Zeta.

Recipient: Allison Ankney GT, Bowling Green State University

Allison will enter the graduate program at Bowling Green after graduating in 2003 to obtain a Master's degree in the reading program. "The scholarship will help my family and me tremendously with the last year of my schooling at the university," Allison says. "Thank you so much for the scholarship."

Recipient: Karen Ebmeier BT, Nebraska Wesleyan University

Karen plans to enroll in law school or graduate school to study public policy after completing her undergraduate degree, and wants to serve her community in a public service role. "This award has made it possible for me to continue to be active within my university, in the community, and within Delta Zeta while maintaining high academic standards," Karen says. "It is an honor and a pleasure to be awarded a scholarship in the name of our Founders."

Recipient: Maria Giannakos ZK,
Ohio Northern University

Maria is majoring in pharmacology, and plans to either attend graduate school with the goal of earning a Ph.D. in Pharmacology, or completing a pharmacy residency in Internal Medicine. "My overall hope is to utilize my knowledge to improve health care, especially for the rapidly growing elderly population. Later in my career, I would like to return to the academic setting as a pharmacy professor and assist students in realizing all of the opportunities that exist within the profession," Maria says. "This award will help me greatly as I move forward in my college career, and I am very grateful for the Delta Zeta Foundation's generosity. In the coming years, it is my hope to be able to return to the Foundation the gift that I was so fortunate to receive, so that other deserving collegiate women can benefit as I have."

Recipient: Shannon Shipley OA,
North Carolina State University

Shannon spent her summer volunteering on the south side of inner city Chicago. "I acquired a wealth of knowledge about faith, hope, and love," she affirms. Earlier in the year, her father had undergone major heart surgery, and finances were very tight for Shannon's family. She was overjoyed to receive the Founders Scholarship. "From the bottom of my heart, I want to thank you so much for this financial aid," she says. "Words cannot express my gratitude. Please know that you have helped me so much, and one day I will give back the way you have given to me."

Recipient: Melanie Shoemaker AΣ,
Florida State University

Majoring in business and finance, Melanie is applying to law school and plans to specialize in corporate law. "In addition, I plan to complete coursework in Spanish language and travel with a multi-national company." At the same time, she wants to remain active in church and community activities, as well as with Delta Zeta collegiate and alumnae chapters. "I want to sincerely thank Delta Zeta for these opportunities," she adds. "Not only have you provided financial support, but an environment filled with love and encouragement. I feel much more prepared to enter the professional world after my collegiate experiences in Delta Zeta."

Recipient: Tiffany Thompson ZΠ,
University of Georgia

Tiffany is studying early childhood education, and plans to teach second grade at a public elementary school after graduation. "I love children and cannot wait to lead my own classroom," she says. "I believe teaching is one of the most important and personally rewarding vocations. While teaching, I plan to pursue a Master's degree to help me become a more effective teacher. Thank you, Delta Zeta sisters, for helping me to achieve one of my goals for the future."

FLORENCE HOOD MINER COMMUNICATIONS DEVELOPMENT FUND

At Delta Zeta's Centennial Convention in July, 2002, alumnae and collegians were thrilled to meet National Historian Florence Hood Miner AB '27. Mrs. Miner is an integral part of Delta Zeta's history, but she is always looking toward its future as well. She established an endowment to provide funding for program development to strengthen various communications efforts within the Sorority's college chapters. Because of her dedicated service to the Sorority, including her work as Editor of The LAMP and in other communications positions, Mrs. Miner is committed to meeting the need to provide programs in this important area. Public relations efforts are vital to fulfilling the mission of the Sorority to support Greek life and higher education. Leadership and Educational Programs

TOMORROW'S LEADERS BENEFIT FROM TODAY'S PROGRAMS

During the Centennial Year, many members of Delta Zeta had the chance to reflect on the groundbreaking leadership shown by the Sorority's six Founders: Alfa Lloyd, Mary Collins, Anna Keen, Julia Bishop, Mabelle Minton, and Anne Simmons. As some of the first female students admitted to full-time enrollment at Miami University, they had the courage to form the first sorority on Miami's campus. From the time of their initial meeting, they had the foresight to envision that Delta Zeta would become a national sorority, not just a local one. Throughout their lives, they extended and guided Delta Zeta to become one of the largest sororities in the National Panhellenic Conference.

Leadership has been a hallmark of the women of Delta Zeta, inside and outside of the Sorority. Many of the Sorority's collegians are leaders on their campuses, and will make significant contributions to their communities and their country long after graduation.

The Delta Zeta Foundation helps fund important educational and leadership programs for both collegians and alumnae. The Harper Endowed Lecture Fund, established by the generous gift of Carol Sharpe Harper BΓ '53, was able for the first time to provide the keynote speaker at the 2002 Recruitment Conference, renowned motivational speaker Juliet Funt, who gave an inspirational program of gaining confidence and valuing self-worth. This endowment needs your support to continue bringing valuable lessons about leadership, education, and service to our membership.

The Norma Minch Andrisek Leadership Conferences provide valuable leadership education for collegians and alumnae. Collegians become strong and confident leaders on their campuses, and take this experience into their alumnae years as contributing citizens of the world community. Alumnae benefit from programs that enhance professional and personal development, and allow them to take advantage of many leadership opportunities within the Sorority or in other areas of the Greek world, such as volunteer advisors or Panhellenic representatives.

Convention Workshops sponsored by the Delta Zeta Foundation provide education in areas such as academics, risk management, leadership, and philanthropy. All of these programs are dependent upon donations to the Foundation to continue the important work of building tomorrow's leaders today. Your donation to the Delta Zeta Foundation ensures that this quality programming is available to our members. Our future lies in the strength of the leaders we build and support today—won't you invest in the future of Delta Zeta with your donation today?

IN HONOR OF THE CENTENNIAL: A SPECIAL GIFT FROM THE DELTA ZETA FOUNDATION

In honor of the Sorority's Centennial, the Delta Zeta Foundation, through a gift from National Ritual Chairman Patricia Menendez Tector ΕΦ '61, made a direct gift to each college chapter in 2002. The Foundation presented each chapter with a copy of the Delta Zeta Centennial history book, A Century of Sisterhood: The Story of Delta Zeta 1902-2002. This was the first time the Foundation was able to provide such a gift, which was especially fitting during the 100th anniversary of the Sorority.

At the Centennial Convention in July of 2002, the Foundation also provided a special reprint of Past National President and Historian Grace Mason Lundy's E booklet, The Founders of Delta Zeta, to each Convention attendee. In 1971, Grace Mason Lundy published the booklet for collegians with information and personal observations about the lives and accomplishments of Delta Zeta's six Founders. Mrs. Lundy also urged each chapter to preserve their own history for future generations. Delta Zeta's National Curator/Archivist is Betty Johnson Gurr-Tomblinson Α '62.

"Thank you very much for the copy of A Century of Sisterhood: The Story of Delta Zeta 1902-2002. It is a great addition to our archives and helps remind each member of the legacy and history of Delta Zeta."

The Sisters of the Xi Upsilon Chapter, Northeastern University

THE EDUCATIONAL/TECHNOLOGY FUND

Meeting the Challenges of the 21st Century

The Educational/Technology Fund was established in August of 2001 to receive donations meeting established guidelines and from which grants may be made to chapters according to these approved guidelines.

What does this mean to alumnae, parents, and friends of Delta Zeta? Now you can make a tax-deductible gift to the Foundation for this Fund and earmark your contribution for the construction or renovation of a particular space in a specific chapter house to be used for educational purposes if the particular university/college provides similar facilities.

These educational areas include:

- Dedicated study, library, computer and instructional areas of a chapter house.
- Computers, computer desks and chairs, computer networking and internet wiring.
- Fire alarms, smoke detectors, and internal sprinkler systems for dedicated educational areas.
- Annual operating expenses (insurance, utilities, and similar items).

A letter from the university/college must be provided which states that the health/safety/technology related items requested are being provided by the school to all students living in dormitories. Proper documentation, including invoices and a signed agreement stating that the funds will be spent within the designated Delta Zeta and I.R.S. guidelines, is also required.

Two collegiate chapters who are currently contributing to the fund or raising funds to make a donation are the Beta Delta Chapter at the University of South Carolina and the Beta Kappa Chapter at Iowa State University.

Contact the Delta Zeta Foundation at 202 E. Church Street, Oxford, Ohio 45056, 513-523-7597 for more information about this exciting new program.

CONNECT WITH A CHAPTER ASSOCIATION!

An easy way to connect with your sisters in Delta Zeta is through Chapter Associations. Alumnae who belong to the same college chapter can form a chapter association.

It's really just a chance to meet whenever you want to—chapter associations don't have the formal structure of an alumnae chapter, but give alumnae the opportunity to connect with sisters from their college chapter at their convenience.

If you'd like more information about forming a chapter association, you can contact:
