National Panhellenic Conference

Printed in USA.

Interim Session, 2004

by Mary M. Williams, Alpha Omicron Pi, First Alternate Delegate

Under the theme "Women of Vision, Women of Action," the delegates and representatives of the 26 member groups of the National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) met in Dallas, Texas, for the 2004 interim session October 6-8, 2004. NPC welcomed approximately 40 new delegation members to the gathering.

The NPC Executive Committee guided the meeting of delegates with efficiently conducted business sessions and extensive orientation and training sessions. Martha Brown, Delta Gamma, is the chairman of NPC.

In the chairman's report, Martha Brown reviewed the implementation progress of the recruitment processes changes adopted in 2003 and thanked the Recruitment Processes Committee for their continuing work in presenting programs, developing handbooks, and overseeing the implementation of the various aspects of the recruitment process.

She also noted that NPC offered its support in the Call for Values Congruence and developed "Collegiate Greek Community Standards" as minimum expectations of collegiate chapters of NPC groups.

Three new committees have been established to assist in the programs of the Conference. The Government Relations Committee will monitor U.S. congressional and federal activities related to fraternal organizations and inform NPC of these activities. The other two new committees are the Recruitment Committee and the University Assessment Documents Review Committee.

Ginger Banks, Alpha Omicron Pi past international president and past NPC Delegate, gave a special presentation to the Conference. Ms. Banks conducted a survey within the NPC delegations, gathering their perceptions about sorority life in relation to the points presented in "Pledged: The Secret Life of Sororities," by Alexandra Robbins.

The Conference also warmly welcomed Dr. Marsha Guenzler-Stevens, recipient of NPC's Women in Higher Education Achievement Award in 2003, as keynote speaker. Dr. Guenzler-Stevens is director of activities and associate director of the Stamp Student Union at the University of Maryland, College Park, and is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi. Her remarks centered on the lives of today's college students and what they face on campus today.

Visit the Delta Zeta website at www.deltazeta.org under the DZ Happenings page to download information and artwork for International Badge Day so you can promote the event on your campus and in your community.

Delta Zeta representatives at the NPC included: Phyllis Sundberg Davis AT, National Director of Membership Services, NPC Second Alternate Delegate, College Panhellenics Committee Area Advisor, and Educational Development Committee member; Lynnda Wolf Hoefler TK, National Panhellenic Conference Delegate, Mid America Area Advisor Coordinator, College Panhellenics Committee Area Advisor, and Recruitment Committee member; Debbie Raziano KA, National President; Karly Klemp Burns ZA, Past National President, NPC Third Alternate Delegate, Alumnae Panhellenics Committee Area Advisor, Housing Committee member, and Long Range Planning Committee member; and Kathi Bray Heatherly EY, National Director of Extension, NPC First Alternate Delegate, Alumnae Panhellenics Committee Area Advisor, and College Panhellenics Awards Committee member. The Legacy Begins...

Gail Patrick Velde AΠ '29

"Much of the factual knowledge I learned in college has been forgotten, but I will always remember the social graces and ways to work and play with others I learned as a member of Delta Zeta. No college should overlook the contribution sororities and only sororities can give a young girl."

Gail Patrick, 1955

At the Delta Zeta Sorority National Convention in 2004, it was announced that Gail Patrick Velde AΠ '29 bequeathed $1 million to the Delta Zeta Foundation, the largest gift in the Foundation's history.

Margaret Fitzpatrick, born in Birmingham, Alabama, had great aspirations when she started her freshman year at Howard College (now Samford University). Majoring in French and business administration, Margaret studied law at night and worked in the dean's office to pay her tuition. She planned to attend law school after graduation and eventually run for governor of her home state.

In 1929, Margaret became a member of the Alpha Pi Chapter of Delta Zeta Sorority. In her diary on March 8 of that year, she wrote, "Well, this is a big day in my life. I was initiated into Delta Zeta tonight. The initiation was the sweetest thing." And on March 9, she wrote, "It was freezing cold but I was so proud of my pin I went to school without a coat." Her membership in Delta Zeta would become a defining experience in her undergraduate life, one that would continue to be immensely important to her throughout her life.

As president of the Women's Student Body at Howard in 1932, Margaret, always competitive, urged her fellow female students to enter a movie contest sponsored by the Birmingham News. Rival Birmingham-Southern College students were participating in the contest, and Margaret didn't want Howard to be outdone. But Margaret's friends wouldn't enter the contest until she did.

Two weeks later and to her utmost surprise, Margaret had won a free trip to Hollywood, where she would soon pursue great aspirations of another kind—those as a star of the silver screen in Hollywood's heyday. Paramount film studios offered her a screen test and $50 a week, which she initially refused.

Margaret returned to Howard College to graduate with honors when the second offer from Hollywood came—$75 a week. As she left for Hollywood once more, she intended to work in movies long enough to save money for her law school tuition.

But the camera loved tall, slender, dark-haired Gail Patrick (the screen name Paramount gave her after deciding her given name was too long), and she rose quickly from bit parts to supporting roles in which she portrayed a smart brunette, the other love interest of the leading man (leading men included Gary Cooper, Bing Crosby, Cary Grant, William Powell, and Frederic March, to name a few), or a likable villainess.

Her most famous roles were as Carole Lombard's scheming sister in the screwball comedy My Man Godfrey (1936); as a haughty aspiring actress who has a change of heart in Stage Door (1937) with Katherine Hepburn; and as the second wife of Cary Grant in the comedy My Favorite Wife (1941), whose first wife comes back after being mistakenly declared dead when lost at sea seven years earlier.

Gail retired from the screen in 1948, and then began a successful business in Beverly Hills, Gail Patrick's Enchanted Cottage, where she designed and sold children's clothing. Her clients included the children of most of Hollywood's major stars.

Gail with Gary Cooper on the set of her first movie, If I Had a Million (1932).

In 1957, Gail became one of the first female executive television producers in the still-fledgling medium when she brought the pilot for the Perry Mason television show to CBS. Gail's husband was the literary agent for Erle Stanley Gardner, who wrote the popular books about the indomitable defense lawyer. Mr. Gardner would consider no one but Gail as the executive producer of the series that would bring Perry Mason, played so convincingly by actor Raymond Burr, to life for millions of television viewers. The Emmy Award-winning series ran for nine seasons, and is still in syndication today.

In the midst of an always-busy life, Gail gave of her time, talents, and treasure to many worthy causes. This life devoted to giving is detailed in the Delta Zeta Foundation 2004 Annual Report which begins on page 7. Gail was deeply devoted to the Sorority she joined as a young collegian in 1929 and in which she remained active throughout her extraordinary life.

Gail passed away at her Hollywood home in 1980 after battling leukemia for four years. With her characteristic fearlessness, Gail told her publicist near the end of her life, "Don't be sad. I've had a wonderful life." The legacy Gail left through her movies, her television show, her philanthropic work, and to Delta Zeta attests to that wonderful life of strength and courage.

SMART GIRL*

Gail Patrick Velde made many remarkable achievements in her lifetime—a life marked by some notable firsts.

- ☛ She was the first woman to be president of the student body at Woodlawn High School in Birmingham, Alabama.
- ☛ In 1931, as a collegian at Howard College (now Samford University), she was chosen for College Humor magazine's Collegiate Hall of Fame.
- ☛ She studied aviation and made a number of flights at the controls of an open monoplane while a college student.
- ☛ She was the first woman to tour the cavernous tunnels of Boulder (now Hoover) Dam during its construction at the time of the Great Depression in the 1930s.
- ☛ An ardent baseball fan, she broadcast a local television show from Gilmore Field in Los Angeles in the late 1950s and was part owner of the Hollywood Stars, a Pacific Coast League (minors) baseball team.
- ☛ Gail was the first choice of author Erle Stanley Gardner (who created Perry Mason and wrote 82 books in the series) to play Perry Mason's savvy secretary, Della Street. Gail refused the role, which later went to actress Barbara Hale.
- ☛ She served as vice president and trustee of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences.
- ☛ She was named the Los Angeles Times Woman of the Year in 1961.

CORRECTION

It was reported in the Fall 2004 issue of The LAMP on page 5 that the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) approved the use of the Academy's logo on the Delta Zeta Sorority Sound Beginnings brochure. This was incorrect. The AAP's logo appears on the video for this program, Giving Your Baby a Sound Beginning, on which the AAP collaborated with the National Center for Hearing Assessment and Management (NCHAM) and Delta Zeta. We apologize for this error.

Dear Alumnae and Friends,

Our Delta Zeta Foundation has received the largest single gift in its history!

Each year, the Foundation becomes the beneficiary of thoughtful planning and vision by alumnae and friends who include our organization in their estate plans. Those gifts are beautiful expressions of love, and chances are the benefactor will have never met, and will never meet, those who ultimately benefit from her tribute.

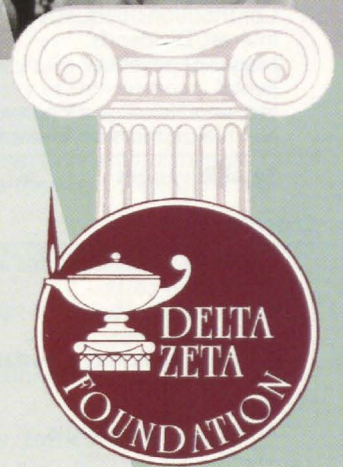

Such a year was 2004, when our Foundation received Gail Patrick Velde's estate gift of $1 million, a gift which will touch untold hundreds and thousands of lives over many generations to come.

Gifts of this magnitude do not just happen. They are born from wonderful friendships and life-changing experiences. This special lady's career accomplishments and lifetime love of Delta Zeta are beautifully chronicled in this issue of The LAMP. And because of her deep belief in Delta Zeta and its potential influence on the lives of young women across our land, Gail Patrick Velde has magnificently expanded our Foundation's mission and horizon.

While few are able to make estate decisions as Gail Patrick Velde has made, most estate gifts—regardless of dollar amount—are generated by a desire to give back to an organization that holds special meaning. Bequests are truly one of the most significant ways an alumna can remember her Sorority experience, honor a loved one or a special Delta Zeta, provide a memorial for parents, or simply share an expression of love.

We encourage and invite all alumnae to consider making provisions in their own estate plans for the benefit of generations to come. The thoughtful foresight of our benefactors provides the opportunity to strengthen and brighten Delta Zeta's future, and the decision to give something back is a step in the right direction.

With every good wish,
The Foundation Trustees

Supporting Academic Achievement

Our Foundation's mission is pretty straightforward: support the Sorority's leadership, scholarship, philanthropic, and educational programs. That mission truly encourages a spirit of getting and giving among alumnae and friends that fosters and supports Delta Zeta's commitment to a values-based Sorority experience. The dynamic combination of spirit and commitment connects our benefactors with young women who are motivated to succeed, and who clearly understand the importance of acquiring the skills to meet the challenges of the larger community beyond their campuses. Assisting those collegians with educational funding is fundamental to the Foundation's mission, and those dollars are made possible only through the continued generosity of Delta Zeta alumnae.

The Gail Patrick Velde Charitable Trust

The charitable trust of Gail Patrick Velde AIT '29 bequeathed a gift of $1 million to the Delta Zeta Foundation. This is the largest gift that the Foundation has received since its inception in 1961.

The endowment will establish The Woman of Distinction Program, which will provide undergraduate and graduate scholarships for qualified Delta Zeta members and a Woman of Distinction honorarium of $5,000 for the Delta Zeta Woman of the Year. The components of the program will become active as funds become available.

Gail Patrick served as a member of the first Board of Trustees for the Delta Zeta Foundation in 1961. In 1957, she was the driving force behind the selection of the Los Angeles Metabolic Clinic (a non-profit organization which sponsored a camp for diabetic children) as the beneficiary of the Southern California Lamplighters' annual Flame Fantasy benefit. Actor Raymond Burr of the Perry Mason television series, of which Gail was the executive producer, joined Gail to emcee the Flame Fantasy fashion show in 1959. Gail volunteered for the Flame Fantasy for many years, often working with another Hollywood icon, Oscar-winning costume designer Edith Head M '60, on the events.

She was named Woman of the Year in 1962, receiving her medallion at the Founders Day celebration in Los Angeles hosted jointly by the Los Angeles City Alumnae Chapter and the Alpha Chi Chapter (University of California/Los Angeles). She also assisted the Alpha Chi Chapter during recruitment.

The Oxford Society

Everyone leaves footprints. Ours are usually made by the impression of our lives on the sands of time. What will you leave behind? One means we each have to make a more permanent print in the sand, not to be washed away with the tide, is through thoughtful estate planning. Created in 1995, The Oxford Society recognizes and honors those alumnae and friends who make provisions for future generations of student members through planned gifts. It's a wonderful way to celebrate one's life through the lives of others, sharing our values with those we'll never meet. Bequests also enable substantial gifts to be made to the Delta Zeta Foundation without drawing from assets during one's lifetime. Permanent footprints. Yours. For Delta Zeta's future!

THE LEVELS OF GIVING

The Delta Zeta Foundation has many levels of giving. Through the Loyalty Fund, our annual campaign, your contribution each and every year personifies your lifetime commitment to Delta Zeta. Each contribution, no matter what the size, makes a difference. From the Oxford Society to the Friendship Circle, every level is important as we work to implement programs which fulfill our mission.

Members who have donated to the Delta Zeta Foundation from July 1, 2003 through June 30, 2004 are listed in the following life-to-date giving levels:

Planned Giving	Oxford Society
$100,000	Founders Guild
$25,000-99,999	President's Society
$10,000-24,999	Diamond Society
$5,000-9,999	Pearl Society
$2,002-4,999	2002 Centennial Circle
$1,000-2,001	Rose Society
$500-999	Heritage Club - Golden Crest Level
$250-499	Heritage Club - Golden Lamp Level
$100-249	Loyalty Circle
$10-99	Friendship Circle

THE 1902 LOYALTY CIRCLE

The 1902 Loyalty Circle is an undergraduate giving society made up of collegiate members. The program is designed to increase collegiate awareness of the Foundation and expand the number of young donors.

Membership in the 1902 Loyalty Circle is voluntary and qualifies with a gift of $19.02 to the Foundation. A donor will receive a distinctive dangle designed exclusively for the 1902 Loyalty Circle member. Each year, over a four-year cycle, a different dangle is introduced.

PLANNED GIFTS

Planned gifts can be made through bequests, life insurance, trusts, or gifts of appreciated assets.

GIFTS-IN-KIND

Gifts of materials and services are highly sought and welcomed by the Trustees of the Delta Zeta Foundation. A special committee will consider all gift-in-kind proposals.

SPECIAL FRIENDS RECOGNITION

Individuals who donate at least $300 during the biennium and collegiate and alumnae chapters that donate at least $2,000 during the biennium—monies which will remain with the Foundation—will be recognized at the National Convention.

THE GUY POTTER BENTON SOCIETY

The Guy Potter Benton Society recognizes the generosity of alumnae and friends who make an annual unrestricted gift to the Foundation of $1,000 or more. These gifts will be used to place monies each year where needed most, as well as embellish selected scholarship offerings. Charter membership in the Guy Potter Benton Society will be available only through the 2006 Convention when Society charter members will be officially enrolled during appropriate ceremonies, and each will receive a unique remembrance for their generosity.

THE OXFORD SOCIETY

The Oxford Society, established in the year 1995, honors and recognizes those alumnae and friends of Delta Zeta who have made provisions for future generations of student members through will bequests, life insurance, trusts, or other planned gifts.

You're invited to invest in the future of some outstanding young collegians by sponsoring a student to attend the 2005 Norma Minch Andrisek Leadership Conference at Purdue University on July 8-10, 2005. For a tax-deductible gift of $250, the sponsorship initiative offers the alumna the opportunity to positively impact a collegian's leadership experience. In turn, in an atmosphere conducive to educational pursuits, the student learns what makes Delta Zeta tick, and where their own personal values fit into the bigger picture. A $250 gift to the Foundation, designated for the Chapter Leadership Fund, will cover one student's registration, educational materials, lodging, and meals. Questions? Contact the Foundation at 513/523-7597 or dzs@dzshq.com.

Lavonne Heghinian Scholarship (Undergraduate)

Elizabeth Urso AΘ, University of Kentucky

"After graduation, I want to attend a prestigious law school where I plan to focus on criminal law. I aspire to practice law as a defense attorney in criminal trials. The Lavonne Heghinian Scholarship has allowed me to successfully prepare for law school. More specifically, this scholarship has made the enrollment of an LSAT prep class more affordable. The prep class will increase my chances of attending law school. I would like to extend my gratitude to the National Council and the Foundation Scholarship Committee for selecting me as a recipient. I greatly appreciate it."

Belinda Rungsea EO, Loyola-Marymount University

"I will be graduating in May 2005 with a bachelor's degree in film production. Currently, I am an intern for 3 Ball Productions, and am working on NBC's weight-loss reality show entitled The Biggest Loser. I hope to continue my work in film and television after graduation and run my own production company one day. I cannot express how much the Delta Zeta Foundation has given me. I am immensely proud to be part of an organization that is so supportive of its members because that support encourages us to pursue our dreams."

Gail Patrick Velde: A Woman of Foresight

Gail Patrick Velde approached life with optimism and the belief that anything was possible with faith in oneself. This confidence took her from an honors student in college to the silver screen in Hollywood to producing a major television series. At the same time, Gail was active in many civic and charitable causes and was a successful businesswoman while fulfilling the role of wife and mother in her personal life.

Her belief in limitless opportunities for women is part of the legacy she has left for Delta Zeta women today and tomorrow. Through the Gail Patrick Velde Charitable Trust, collegians and alumnae will have the opportunity to fulfill their dreams, embody the values of Delta Zeta Sorority, and give of themselves to help others. Gail's foresight will ensure that women continue to succeed just as she did, allowing them to make valuable contributions to their Sorority and society.

Gail in 1941, wearing a suit designed by Edith Head M.

The Gail Patrick Velde Scholarship (Undergraduate)

Courtney Blume BT, Nebraska Wesleyan University

The Gail Patrick Velde Scholarship was established from a bequest by Gail's estate in 1980, and has been awarded to a deserving junior or senior since that time. Applicants' service to Delta Zeta, academic achievements, and campus activities are an important part of the criteria for eligibility.

"I am majoring in Special Education and Elementary Education. I plan to obtain my Master's degree in Speech Pathology after graduation. Eventually, I plan to receive a Ph.D. and possibly become a college professor or start my own speech pathology practice."

AlcoholEdu for College

Recent studies by the Harvard School of Public Health's Center for Alcohol Studies substantiate that there are well-established ties between alcohol abuse and injuries on college campuses due to accidents, assaults, and sexual assaults. Delta Zeta believes it is critically important to educate its collegiate members—in addition to other college students—about the dangers associated with alcohol abuse. Beginning in the fall of 2004, Delta Zeta began providing its new members with AlcoholEdu for College, a science-based course taken by tens of thousands of students each year.

AlcoholEdu is an online course, confidential, personalized for each student, and includes interactive exercises, surveys attitudes and behaviors, and has been developed by leading alcohol and prevention experts. The course does not preach, but attempts to educate students about alcohol and its influence on mind and body. Delta Zeta's National Council has decided that each new member should participate in the experience. And while our Foundation is prepared to underwrite a significant proportion of the cost, parents of new members have been asked for their personal financial assistance as well. Well before this issue of The LAMP went to press, parents have assisted with funding in excess of $1,000. Delta Zeta alumnae are also encouraged to support this cutting-edge program, and their tax-deductible gifts are welcome!

Founders Memorial Scholarships (Undergraduate)

"After graduation I plan to get a job as a dolphin trainer. It is difficult to become a marine mammal trainer because the field is so competitive. I am going to be different and make it, because I have been working towards this goal for many years now. I have attended camps, received my scuba certification, volunteered, interned, and, with the help of the Delta Zeta scholarship that I have received, attended college. As every day passes, I am getting closer to completing my life's dream, to train dolphins and educate others to appreciate these majestic animals."

Delta Zeta's Commitment to Speech and Hearing

Long-committed to Delta Zeta's national philanthropy of speech and hearing, the Delta Zeta Foundation has established funds which provide grants to hearing centers, schools, and clinics for educational projects in speech and hearing (Hearing Help), Gallaudet University (for the deaf and hearing impaired, the Delta Zeta-Gallaudet Endowment Scholarship Fund and the Delta Zeta Performing Arts Endowment), and the House Ear Institute (funding to finance and equip projects such as the Delta Zeta Foundation Parent Resource Center). Income in support of Hearing Help Grants, Gallaudet University, and House Ear Institute is generated from contributions from alumnae, colleagues, and friends.

"May I Give Graciously of What is Mine" The Delta Zeta Creed

Beyond Delta Zeta, Gail gave of herself to many worthy causes. In 1942, she was recognized for her work for the Motion Picture Relief Fund (today known as the Motion Picture & Television Fund), founded by Hollywood stars to provide assistance to those in the motion picture industry who were in need (this includes anyone in the industry, from cameramen to grips to stars). She was named the 1970 Honorary National Chairman of the Christmas Seals campaign, which then-President Richard M. Nixon helped her kick off. Active in charitable and civic projects in Los Angeles, she received the City of Los Angeles' Certificate of Service in 1972 in recognition of her many volunteer activities.

General Scholarships (Graduate)

Mandi Wise TX, Ball State University

"I am forever grateful to receive this scholarship. Through the scholarship, I will have the opportunity to further my education in the area of Human Resource Development (HRD) and to enhance my current position at Delta Zeta Sorority National Headquarters as Chapter Services Director.

"I am humbled by the extreme devotion and commitment shown through the generous donation to fund the scholarship that I received. I hope to one day have the same opportunity to touch a Delta Zeta's life the way that this scholarship has truly touched mine."

Edith Head Scholarship (Undergraduate)

Lacy Moorer BA, University of South Carolina

"Upon graduation, I plan to obtain an entry-level position at a major retailer as an assistant buyer. Receiving the Edith Head Scholarship has enabled me to worry less about finances and focus on my studies. Through learning in the classroom, hands-on projects, and work experience, I will be well prepared for this position."

Edith Head M won eight Academy Awards for her costume design. She became Delta Zeta's Convention initiate in 1960 and was active in the Southern California Lamplighters' Flame Fantasy fashion shows in the 1960s and 1970s. She was Delta Zeta's Woman of the Year for 1968. She and Gail Patrick were also friends. She died in Beverly Hills, California in 1981.

Elizabeth M. Gruber Scholarship (Graduate)

Anna Mann ZK, Ohio Northern University

"As a graduate student studying to be a child psychologist, the Elizabeth M. Gruber Scholarship has been very helpful to me in achieving my goals. There are far fewer scholarships available at the graduate level and many graduate students struggle to be able to afford their education. This gift from the Delta Zeta Foundation helps to defer the cost of student loans.

"Through my study of clinical psychology with an emphasis on children and adolescents, I hope to serve those children and families affected by social or emotional difficulty."

Florence Hood Miner Standards Programming Fund

A lifetime of dedication to Delta Zeta is reflected in an endowment established by Florence Hood Miner AB '27, National Historian, to provide up-front grants to the Sorority for embellishing and upgrading continuing programs and for seed money to develop new programs for collegians.

Her generosity has measurably strengthened her commitment to Delta Zeta core values and the integrity of purpose upon which the Sorority was built and has grown and matured. Educational programming at the chapter level helps expand Delta Zeta's mission, keeps standards high, ever-dynamic, and available. Contributions to this Fund are encouraged to promote its continued growth, and can be given in honor of Mrs. Miner.

Gail Patrick: "Service to the Arts and Devotion to Home and Family"*

On the silver screen, Gail Patrick epitomized grace and refinement. Gail credited her Delta Zeta collegiate experiences as integral in shaping her into a young woman of poise and elegance, traits which became her trademark both on and off the screen. Moreover, while Gail enjoyed a successful movie career and later became an acclaimed television producer, family values were foremost for her.

Gail's devotion to family and standards of good conduct reflect Delta Zeta's values, and underscore the importance of endowments such as the Florence Hood Miner Standards Programming Fund.

*In 1955, Gail received an achievement award from her alma mater, Howard College (now Samford University), honoring her in the words shown above.

Gail Patrick's love of democracy and country was an integral part of her being. Always public spirited, one of her first ambitions was to someday run for governor in her home state of Alabama. During World War II and at the height of her film career, Gail went on many tours for the Red Cross, and on war bond tours for the Canadian government. She received a citation by the Canadian government as the person from Hollywood who had contributed most to the Canadian war effort. Gail flew into many inaccessible areas of Canada for the tours, making up to 20 appearances a day to promote the sale of war bonds and visit troops.

One more word can be added to Gail's already impressive credits of the roles she played during her remarkable life: patriot.
